

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 837

“No need to rush. There’s enough for everyone!”

Tang Hao’s hands were shaking from taking all that money. In just a short while, the entire batch of deluxe pills had been snatched up again.

He quickly ran to the medicinal herb store and urged them to stock up.

The storekeepers were determined to make money. They instantly went to the nearby towns and brought in a large shipment. Tang Hao bought all of them and carried them back to the inn to make more pills.

In the evening, he came out carrying two bulging sacks of goods.

As soon as he appeared, the entrance of the small town was in an uproar.

“He’s here again!” Someone shouted.

All the injured people stood up and rushed toward Tang Hao. Each of them held a money bag in their hands.

“Do you have any more of that tycoon gold version? I want ten!”

“I want twenty!”

They shouted as they rushed over.

Earlier, they heard that an expert in town was selling some sort of amazing medicine. It was called the deluxe or enhanced version of the Rejuvenation Pill, and it was of a shiny golden color called tycoon gold. Its potency was nothing short of miraculous.

One pill could instantly restore a heavily injured person to full health.

They had been waiting for the medicine so that they could return to the front line and fight for the treasure.

The cultivators and the golden-scaled tyrannosaurs were caught in an intense battle in the forest. No one, not even the Perfected Masters, had the chance to enter the valley to search for the treasure.

It meant that everyone still stood a chance.

“300 crystals for a pill. This is the real deal! I have ready stock!”

Tang Hao walked over with the sack in his hand and started to shout.

Those people rushed over and handed them their money bags. Tang Hao took the money and handed over the pills. In a short while, one sack was sold out.

While Tang Hao was in the middle of another deal, someone was heard shouting coldly from beyond the crowd. “Out of the way!”

Everyone instantly got angry. They turned around and were about to scold that person, but when they looked carefully at who he was, their expressions changed drastically and they shut their mouths.

In an instant, the originally lively atmosphere became quiet.

Everyone retreated to the sides fearfully, opening a path.

A group of people dressed in white swaggered in. They were the people from East Peak Mountain.

Their white clothes were stained with blood, and they seemed quite miserable. However, their arrogance did not decrease in the slightest.

Several young men walked in front with their noses pointing at the sky. "Move aside! Get out of the way!" They berated the people next to them as they walked.

They seemed to be in their mid-twenties, but they were already Perfected Persons. They were clearly the elite disciples of East Peak Mountain.

When they arrived in front of Tang Hao, they looked at him from the corner of their eyes.

One of them shouted, "You brat, are you the person selling that amazing medicine?"

His tone was very impolite.

Tang Hao frowned slightly and did not make a sound.

"F*ck! Are you deaf? I'm asking you a question!" That person yelled. He sounded annoyed.

Tang Hao glanced at him coldly and still did not make a sound.

"What the f*ck are you doing? I'm asking you a question!" That person was riled.

Tang Hao finally opened his mouth, "I'm not deaf. It's just that I don't reply to dogs barking! Sorry about that!"

As soon as he finished speaking, there was a burst of laughter from all directions.

Everyone was not happy with how those East Peak Mountain disciples acted.

"You..."

That person's face immediately flushed red, unable to contain his anger.

"You have a death wish!" He angrily rebuked. His eyes opened wide, and a powerful qi aura surged out from his body as if he was ready to fight.

"Don't be rash, Junior Brother!"

At that moment, a young man walked up from behind and patted his shoulder. Following that, he glanced at Tang Hao coldly.

"You... sure have guts!"

"You should know who we are, right?" He sneered.

"I know! East Peak Mountain, right?" Tang Hao said disdainfully.

"You..."

The other young man was also angered for a moment. He took a deep breath to suppress his anger, and his gaze on Tang Hao became increasingly cold.

East Peak Mountain was an illustrious sect. Who dared to disrespect them?

Unaffiliated cultivators, such as the other people in the crowd, would usually tremble and cower before the disciples of East Peak Mountain.

How dare that brat provoke East Peak Mountain so brazenly?

He resisted the urge to get physical and said coldly, "Very well! I remember your face! I'm not here to pick a fight today, so I'll let you off."

"Heh!"

Tang Hao sneered again. That guy deserved a punch in the face!

"You guys came here and started yelling at me. I thought you're here to pick a fight!"

"We're here to buy medicine. Just now, our East Peak Mountain sect was in an intense battle with the tyrannosaurs, and we used up all the medicine we brought. I heard that your medicine is not bad, so we came to buy some."

That person took a deep breath and resisted the urge to get physical again.

Tang Hao extended his palm and said, "You want medicine? Sure! Give me the money! 400 crystals for a pill!"

“What? 400 for a pill? That’s daylight robbery! Isn’t that just a Rejuvenation Pill?”

The young disciples shouted angrily.

“Yes! It’s a Rejuvenation Pill, but it’s not a regular Rejuvenation Pill. You can call it an enhanced version or a deluxe version. Of course it’s more expensive!” Tang Hao grinned. He did not seem to care whether those people bought his goods.

“You...”

“What enhanced version? Are you crazy? How can a Rejuvenation Pill be so expensive? That’s a ridiculous cash grab!”

Those people were furious.

The leader’s expression became sullen. “When I came over just now, I heard you shout 300 crystals per pill. How did it suddenly become 400 crystals?”

“Supply and demand, Bro! Do you want it or not? Other people are waiting to buy it!” Tang Hao said.

“That’s right!”

A few voices of agreement rang out from the crowd.

Following that, some people started to laugh.

The faces of the people from East Peak Mountain were all flushed red. They looked at Tang Hao and gritted their teeth.

How detestable!

“We should buy the pills, Senior Brother! The situation over there is critical. Senior Uncle and the others are waiting for us to return!

“The brat is detestable, but we can deal with him in the future. Now that he has ripped us off, we will teach him a lesson and make him pay!”

A young man took a step forward and whispered in a low voice.

When the leader heard that, he nodded and said resentfully, “Alright! We’ll remember this grudge for now and teach him a lesson in the future!”

As he said this, he glared fiercely at Tang Hao, as if he wanted to remember Tang Hao’s face.

“400 it is then. East Peak Mountain isn’t short of money! Give me fifty pills! There’s exactly 20,000 crystals in here. Take it!”

As he said that, he took out a large bag and casually threw it on the ground. His expression was filled with ridicule and contempt.

Tang Hao’s expression sank. He inhaled lightly before walking over and bending down to pick up the money.

Then, he took out the medicine and threw the bottles on the ground. He said mockingly, “Here, this is your medicine. Pick it up yourself!”
