

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 888

The cave fell silent once again.

Everyone stood rooted to the ground, their faces full of shock.

The Perfected Masters seemed fearful. They wielded their Artifacts, but they dared not attack.

That guy had unsealed two chakras in such a short time and defeated two Golden Core masters. The display of power was too astonishing!

Normally, only a six-chakra cultivator could be evenly matched with a Golden Core Perfected Master, but that guy did it with five chakras. It would be a disaster if he unsealed his sixth chakra.

'What a freak! No wonder he dared to kill that kid from the Ye Kingdom!' They thought.

The people laughed up their sleeve when they thought about what happened to the kid from the Ye Kingdom.

"That's for being arrogant! Does he think that his Ye family is that powerful?"

"That's right!"

They muttered softly while keeping a close eye on Tang Hao.

They were intimidated by that guy's power, but they were not giving up on the divine bone.

The monkey stared at Tang Hao warily. From time to time, he frowned uneasily and shifted his butt. His sphincter was acting up again.

“Hey! Where are you from?”

The monkey covered his butt and shouted at Tang Hao.

Tang Hao glanced at the monkey and ignored him.

“F*ck, you’re more arrogant than me! If not for the pain here, I’d beat you to death right now!” The monkey bared his teeth savagely.

“Wait. Was that you just now?”

He thought of something and stared at Tang Hao.

Tang Hao rolled his eyes. “Do I have to resort to petty tricks?” He said calmly.

“That’s true!”

The monkey thought that it made sense. That guy was a prodigy, and prodigies would not resort to underhanded tricks.

“Then... hand me the divine bone! How about we make friends?” The monkey said again.

“Do I look like an idiot?” Tang Hao said, flabbergasted.

“Didn’t you already benefit from it? You’ve used it to unseal three chakras, and that’s good enough. The sixth chakra is too difficult to unseal, and only rakshas can fuse the divine bone with their bodies.

“Humans can’t do that. See, your qi aura is unstable! It’ll be a disaster if you keep the bone in your body!

“If you don’t fuse the bone, all the rakshas in the world will be able to find you. I’m only the first one; there are many more coming this way! There aren’t only Golden Core cultivators, but Nascent soul cultivators too. They won’t let you get away with it!” The monkey gave Tang Hao some earnest advice.

“I’ll have to fuse with it?” Tang Hao asked.

“Yes! You’ll have to fuse the bone into your body. Your human body won’t be able to withstand it,” the monkey said.

“How should I fuse with it?”

“It’s just like crafting an Artifact. Pour your qi into it!” The monkey replied nonchalantly.

“Oh!” Tang Hao replied.

He decided to give it a try to see how it would react. Immediately, he channeled the qi in his body and targeted it at the divine bone in his stomach.

The divine bone that had been calmly lying in Tang Hao’s stomach suddenly shook violently and emitted a dazzling golden light when the current of qi went near it.

Tang Hao went into a trance. Vaguely, he heard a dragon’s roar that shook the sky.

Many scenes flashed past his eyes.

It was the sky of the primordial past. An immense creature was swimming through the clouds. Whenever it went, violent winds howled and torrential rain poured down.

It was like a god that could summon the winds and rain.

The scene shocked Tang Hao greatly.

The golden light shone through his body and illuminated the entire cave, causing a wave of exclamations.

“What’s going on?”

Everyone covered their eyes.

The monkey was shocked and cursed loudly, “F*ck! Are you crazy? You’re really fusing with it!”

The monkey was going to lose his mind. The guy in front of him was defying common sense.

The golden light became more and more intense, and the entire mountain began to shake. Debris fell from the cave ceiling.

“What’s going on?”

The crowd was beginning to stir.

“He’s fusing with the divine bone. Quick, stop him! We can’t let him succeed!” The monkey shouted as charged forward first with his staff.

Before he could hit Tang Hao, the staff struck a golden light barrier. The light barrier flashed, and the monkey flew backward and crashed through the roof of the cave.

The Perfected Masters tried to attack Tang Hao, but the golden light barrier stopped them.

The mountain shook more and more violently. Boom! Boom! The mountains crumbled, and brilliant treasure light illuminated the night sky.

That was Rainbringer’s skeleton. It was more than a thousand zhang long.

The skeleton seemed to be coming to life. It was trying to break free from the weight of the mountains.

“Let’s go!”

Seeing that the situation was becoming unfavorable, the Perfected Masters rushed out from the hole above them.

After they retreated to a safe distance and turned around to look, they were all shocked by the spectacular scene.

Meanwhile, in Nimbus City, many people lifted their heads and looked at the treasure light in astonishment.

“F*ck!”

The monkey got to his feet and cursed.

He was extremely frustrated. He thought that he would be able to claim the divine bone since he was the first raksha to rush over, but he did not expect to be intercepted by a freak.

“Hmph! I hope that you explode and die!”

He looked at the dragon’s head and cursed.

“Ow!” He yelped. His sphincter had ruptured.

Meanwhile, in the dragon’s head, Tang Hao’s mind returned to reality after drifting in primordial memories for a while.

He sat down cross-legged and began to fuse the divine bone into his body.

He did not have much time, so he had to fuse with the divine bone as soon as possible.

“Fuse it... so that it becomes a part of my body? Where should I put it? Right, I should put it on my chest.”

Tang Hao pondered for a while, then willed the bone toward his chest.

The bone became hotter and hotter as he continued to channel his qi and soul into the bone, boiling his blood and roasting his bones and flesh.

The pain was excruciating.

“No, if this goes on, my body will be consumed!”

Tang Hao finally understood why the monkey said that humans could not fuse with this bone.

Only the body of a raksha could withstand the effects.

He could withstand it for so long only because he had unsealed five chakras and strengthened his physical body. Any other person would have been reduced to ashes a long time ago.

Suddenly, Tang Hao had an idea. He retrieved a pill and tossed it into his mouth.

The pill dissolved in Tang Hao’s stomach and began to regenerate Tang Hao’s blood, flesh, and bones.

Tang Hao had many pills on him to deal with all kinds of situations.

His body was destroyed and regenerated over and over.

His body became stronger as it gradually absorbed the power of the divine bone, and the pain slowly lessened.

The divine bone eventually sank into his chest and fused with his body.
