

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 891

“Dragon! That’s a dragon!”

Countless people in different cities raised their heads and looked at the rising dragon in the night sky.

The golden light from its body illuminated the entire sky, and its roar could be heard everywhere.

“That’s not a true dragon, it’s a dragon skeleton! A supreme treasure must accompany the appearance of a dragon skeleton!”

“The treasure light from before must have something to do with this! Hurry! Everyone, move faster!”

Everyone went crazy.

Anything related to dragons must be a supreme treasure.

Those who had been waiting set off hurriedly, while those that were traveling southward increased their speed.

As the dragon skeleton flew across the sky, more and more people became alarmed.

Many powerful characters tried to attack the dragon skeleton with all sorts of Artifacts, but none of them succeeded. They followed the skeleton northward.

About an hour after Tang Hao left, many people arrived at the mountains riding on streaks of light.

They hovered in the sky above the mountain range and kept searching.

“Divine bone? An anonymous prodigy? Who is he?”

After asking around, they began to search frantically for the whereabouts of the anonymous prodigy.

“Search for him! Find him even if we have to uproot the entire southern region!”

The search affected the entire borderland region.

Those people ransacked every mountain and city.

Soon, groups of rakshas arrived at the mountain range. They rode all sorts of flying beasts and flew down from the sky.

“What? A human took the divine bone and fused with it? How is that possible?”

After hearing the news, the rakshas were shocked.

It was unbelievable that a human could fuse with a divine bone!

“He must not have gone far. The divine bone shouldn’t have completely fused with him. We should be able to find him if we look carefully.”

The rakshas also joined in the search for Tang Hao. They cast their psychic waves across the atmosphere and sought the divine bone.

“Nothing! Nothing! Nothing at all!”

“There’s nothing there either!”

They searched the entire borderlands but found nothing.

“How is that possible? Continue searching!”

They were unwilling to give up, and they tried to search again.

For the next few days, the entire borderlands, and even the entire southern region were extremely lively.

Everyone was talking about that dragon and the anonymous prodigy.

The anonymous prodigy had unsealed three chakras in a row, fused with the divine bone, and killed several Golden Core Perfected Masters. Everyone was amazed by that person’s exploits and discussed them with great interest.

Some people also noted that the anonymous prodigy possessed a mysterious footwork technique.

However, people did not pay much attention to that. After all, there were too many footwork techniques aside from the Fleetfoot Stride.

“He must have an illustrious background. Perhaps he’s from the ancient families in the north!”

Everyone was speculating about his identity.

Meanwhile, in the Kunlun underground palace, Tang Hao continued to meditate until the divine bone completely fused with his body.

Now that the divine bone was part of him, the rakshas would not be able to detect it unless he activated it.

“Come here, kid. Aren’t you very free? Help me compile a textbook! Yes, it’s for pill-making! Let’s start with the beginner version!”

Tian Xuanzi immediately looked for him after he successfully fused the bone.

During this period, Tian Xuanzi had been busy preparing for Kunlun’s grand reopening.

“By the way, I’ve made a few more bracelets. They’re not as good as yours, but they’re enough to open a passage. You can decide who you want to bring over!”

Tian Xuanzi threw him a few bracelets.

Tang Hao was stunned when he received them.

He was not planning on bringing anyone over. That place might be suitable for cultivation, but it was not safe, and he was not strong enough to protect them.

Moreover, he could not decide who should go first.

After pondering for a long time, Tang Hao decided to leave the decision to the Taoist masters and the others.

After leaving Kunlun, he went to Provincial City for a few days before returning to Westridge.

He decided to lay low for an extended period.

In the blink of an eye, half a month had passed. It was mid-December.

After celebrating Qin Xiangyi's birthday, Tang Hao returned to Kunlun.

He met Mu Xintong in Kunlun.

"Why are you here?" Tang Hao asked, surprised.

Mu Xintong did not speak. Instead, she raised her hand and showed Tang Hao her fair wrist. She wore a bracelet that Tang Hao had given the Taoist masters.

He was stunned. "You're... going over?"

Mu Xintong nodded determinedly and said, "I want to go and take a look. If possible, I want to help you too. Senior Tianxuan has already told me about you."

As soon as she finished speaking, a puff of smoke came out from a corner.

Tian Xuanzi chuckled and said, "Xintong is a good girl! She has the talent, and it'll be a waste for her to stay here. She'll be able to develop better when she goes over."

“Besides, you don’t have any family or friends over there. Don’t you feel lonely? How good would it be to have a girl to accompany you!

“Don’t worry, she’s not going just yet. I’ll guide her for now, and I’ll only let her go over when she reaches the middle period. In the meantime, I can also prepare a set of powerful defensive Artifacts so that she can protect herself!”

“Damn! You didn’t even give me that!” Tang Hao rolled his eyes.

“That’s because you’re not a girl! If you want an Artifact, you can craft it yourself. It’s not like you don’t know how to!” Tian Xuanzi said in disdain.

Tang Hao was speechless.

After chatting with Mu Xintong for a while, he bade farewell and returned to Ritian Valley.

Then, he hurried out of the valley with the goods and returned to the city.

“Hey, Brother Tang, you’re finally back! I was wondering if something happened to you!” Zhao Liu heaved a sigh of relief when he saw Tang Hao. He seemed very worried.

“Things were in a mess a few days ago. Many people came over, and Golden Core masters flooded the streets. There were some Nascent Soul freaks too!

“Right, there were also rakshas, and they all looked very powerful. They said they were looking for someone who stole their treasure!”

Zhao Liu quickly filled Tang Hao with what he had missed.

Tang Hao was secretly shocked. He had expected that the matter would cause a sensation, but not to that extent. Fortunately, he had escaped back to Earth to lay low. Otherwise, he would have been found long ago.

“Hey, Brother Tang, did you manage to get anything?” Zhao Liu asked.

“No!” Tang Hao shook his head and said, “There were too many experts. I can’t get anything!”

“That’s true! I’ve heard that the freak is really powerful. He killed many people, especially those from the Ye family. The Ye family has lost their minds, and they’re desperately looking for that guy for revenge.”

“The Ye Family?”

Tang Hao murmured. His gaze turned cold.

Even if the Ye family came looking for him, he was not afraid at all.

After handing the goods to Zhao Liu, Tang Hao returned to the valley.
