

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 959

“What is he trying to do?”

A few daredevils followed him and watched from afar.

“That’s... oh my god! Is he trying to challenge the overlord beasts?”

Some people remembered that the aureus lion resided in the mountain range up ahead.

There were five overlord beasts in the Ninth Region: The demonic roc, the lion, the rain dragon, the ape, and the sparrow. All of them were descended from primordial beasts.

They were terrifyingly powerful. Countless factions had tried to fight them over the millennia, but none had succeeded.

That supervillain was going to challenge them now!

Everyone was shocked.

“That’s... impossible, right?” Someone said.

Each of the five overlord beasts was too powerful. It was a common belief that it was impossible to defeat them.

“It’s hard to say. If he can’t do it, then no one else can!”

Some spoke hesitantly. They looked at the figure in the distance with admiration.

They might despise the kid, but they had to admit that that kid was the most powerful figure in the first level. He was the undisputed number one in the younger generation of the Ninth Continent.

He was the Supreme among the younger generation!

Who was the Supreme?

One who was unrivaled among their generation and bearing the power of a monster could be considered the Supreme!

Nameless Qin definitely deserved that title.

No one else in the entire Ninth Continent could challenge those overlord beasts.

Tang Hao stood on the mountain peak, faced the wind, and took a deep breath.

In the next moment, his eyes opened wide and emitted a shocking divine light. He brandished his qi aura, which pierced into the sky.

A moment later, an earth-shaking roar came from the depths of the mountain range.

That was the roar of the aureus lion. It was responding to Tang Hao's challenge.

Rumble! Rumble!

The ground began to shake, and a beast over thirty meters tall rushed out from the mountain range.

It was a majestic golden lion.

Its size was immense, and its weight was shocking. Every footfall caused the ground to shake.

It stopped about three hundred meters away, glared at Tang Hao, and brandished its qi aura.

Despite being some distance away, their qi auras shook the entire Ninth Region.

“What’s going on?”

The people stopped fleeing and looked toward the north.

Throughout the Ninth Region, numerous ferocious beasts opened their eyes and turned their heads toward the north.

The battle had yet to begin, but its effects could be felt throughout the Ninth Region.

The man and the beast stood facing each other for a long time, accumulating their power.

Suddenly, the lion roared loudly and charged towards Tang Hao.

Tang Hao stomped his foot, charged toward the lion, and activated his nine chakras and the divine bone at the same time. The silhouette of Rainbringer rose from his body.

The lion and the dragon crashed against each other.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Continuous explosions caused dust and smoke to rise into the sky.

The two sides were almost evenly matched. The battle became more and more intense, causing the mountains to collapse.

More and more people swarmed over. They were shocked when they saw what was going on.

They had believed that no one could put up a fight against that ferocious beast. However, the young man had done it.

In their hearts, they even hoped that the kid could win.

“Add oil, you filthy brat!”

The man with the club pushed through the crowd and shouted.

“Do your best, Qin guy!”

The robbers also came and cheered with all their might.

They could not remember how many times the supervillain had killed them, but that did not matter now. In the fight between the supervillain and the overlord beast, they supported the supervillain.

“That’s too f*cking cool, Senior Brother!”

“Yeah!”

They were caught up in the excitement.

“Add oil!”

Some of the disciples from Primeval Mountain could not help but cheer.

“What? Have you forgotten how many times that supervillain has killed us?” The elder reprimanded them unhappily.

Similar situations also occurred in other factions.

As the news spread, more and more people swarmed into the Void Realm to watch that battle.

No matter the outcome of the battle, it would create history in the Ninth Region!

The sky was turning dark while the man and the beast continued to fight. Both sides were heavily injured, and it had become a battle of endurance.

Boom!

The man and the beast collided once again. After a fierce battle, they were both sent flying. The lion got to their feet, trembled, and fell again with a mournful cry.

Tang Hao also got to his feet with great difficulty. He panted heavily and began to stumble over.

In the distance, everyone held their breaths. Their hearts were in their throats.

Tang Hao threw a punch and ended the lion's life. The crowd's cheers shook the sky.

"He won! He really won!"

Countless people shouted in excitement.

"Dark gold! That's a dark gold shard!"

The crowd exclaimed again when they saw the shard that was dug out of the lion's skull.

Everyone wanted it, but no one dared to make a move.

After collecting the shard, Tang Hao started to cut the lion into pieces. Then, he sat down and started to roast the meat.

Eating meat in the Void Realm nourished the soul. The stronger the beast, the better the effect. If he ate the aureus lion, his soul's strength would increase greatly.

Everyone in the distance gulped greedily.

It took Tang Hao several hours to finish eating the immense lion. His health was restored in the meantime.

He stood up, dusted his hands, and headed south.

“That direction... Oh my god! Is he going to challenge the rain dragon?”

Everyone was dumbfounded.

“Quick! Follow him!”

They followed him excitedly.

Soon, the roars of a rain dragon and intense fighting sounds could be heard in the great swamp in the south.

The fierce battle lasted for several hours and finally came to an end.

The rain dragon was defeated! The second overlord beast was slaughtered!

After cutting up the rain dragon and filling his stomach, he continued toward the nest of the third overlord beast.

“The third overlord beast? Oh my god! Does he plan to defeat all the overlords?”

The shock of the crowd could not be any greater.

Everyone was so excited that their bodies were trembling.

It was a magnificent feat to defeat all the overlord beasts. Such a feat would have been unimaginable in the past!

They witnessed the defeat of the ape, then the sparrow. Tang Hao dug out dark gold shards from their bodies.

At that moment, Tang Hao possessed six dark gold shards.

After eating the sparrow, Tang Hao stood up and looked in the direction of the demonic roc's nest.

He frowned. He had once promised the demonic roc that he would not disturb it, and he intended to keep that promise.

He took out his shards and shouted to the sky, "I want to exchange!"

The next moment, the clouds split open, and a beam of golden light fell.
