

Chapter 201

The news about the fire on the top floor of the Lins Group had been reported on the same day, and every website published the news. But according to some resources, this fire had nothing to do with the army manoeuvre.

Robert Lin personally came to settle this matter, and the manoeuvre team promised to give all the compensation to Lins Group.

After the fire, the Lins Group had suffered heavy losses. The building could not be restored in a day or two.

On this night of the fire, countless construction companies came to the Lins Group. One of them promised that he could rebuild the top three floors within 15 days.

Sylvia decided to let all employees take a fifteen-day holiday.

If they didn't work for fifteen days, the loss would not be small for Lins Group. However, there would be people to compensate them, so it didn't seem to hurt them too much.

At 10 p.m, Sylvia was lying on the hospital bed of the Municipal People's Hospital. She was not in danger now, but she had a lot of trauma and needed a good rest. The burns on her skin were not severe, and she would recover after a few days of rest.

With Henry's identity, he went to the hospital's pharmacy and took some traditional Chinese medicine to boil for Sylvia Lin.

The ointment cooked by Henry could cool down the skin.

At eleven o'clock in the evening, Henry came to the ward after filling the finished ointment.

"You're awake?"

Henry saw that Sylvia was lying on the hospital bed, and looking at her mobile phone. Milan sat on the side and accompanied her.

"Hey, Sylvia, I just left the hospital, and you just got here. Hey, Henry, what is this in your hand?"

Sylvia was looking at the phone. When she heard that Henry was there, she quickly pressed the button to turn the phone off. Just before she turned the phone off, she could the video of Henry climbing from the 17th to 18th floor in the Lins Building. The scene of being in the sea of fire made people feel painful just by looking at it.

"It's a kind of ointment to protect the skin. Please apply it to Sylvia. You don't need to wipe it. Just let the ointment penetrate the skin. The burns on her body will be fine tomorrow." Henry handed the ointment to Milan, then sat down by the bed and looked at Sylvia with a face of concern. "How do you feel? Are you still uncomfortable?"

Sylvia shook her head and stared at Henry with a pair of big eyes, which were crystal clear.

"Why are you crying?" Henry panicked a little when he saw Sylvia like this.

"No." Sylvia wiped the tears in her eyes and smiled at Henry.

Just now, she saw Henry climbing up the building on Milan's cell phone. The scene of him risking his life for her moved Sylvia, but also made her sad. She never thought that someone would do this for her. It was probably the happiest thing in her life to have such a man.

Sylvia tried hard to control herself and prevent her tears from flowing out again. She looked at the man sitting on the edge of the bed. The man didn't dress up on purpose. He was wearing very ordinary clothes, no branded clothes, fashionable watches, or expensive sports cars. He looked so ordinary.

"Husband, we have to rest for a while this time. Let's go on a vacation, shall we?" Sylvia said to Henry with some expectation in her bright eyes.

"Hus... husband?"

Henry suddenly froze. "She, she called me husband? She called me husband just like that?"

Henry was wondering if he was hallucinating.

"What... did you say?"

"Honey, will you go with me? The building needs to be reconstructed for half a month. I haven't been anywhere for a long time. Can you come with me?" Sylvia's face turned red and she was very shy.

"Okay, okay." Henry nodded stupidly, and his heart was full of ecstasy. "Honey, tell me, we can go wherever you want to go!"

"Honey, where do you want to take me?" It was rare for Sylvia to act like a little girl.

The words "husband" and "honey" made Henry feel very sweet in his heart, and the corners of his mouth were almost to the ears.

"No matter where you want to go, I'll accompany you." Henry grabbed Sylvia's small hand and held it in his palm.

Milan, who was sitting on the side, said with a cold look on her face, "I say, you two are disgusting. I got goosebumps all over my body."

"You've been single for too long. Get married quickly!" Sylvia covered her mouth and chuckled. When she looked at Henry again, her eyes were full of happiness.

From this moment on, she put down everything in her heart, completely accepted it, and fell in love with the man in front of her. She was a normal woman, but she was not hard-hearted. During this period of time, she saw everything that Henry had done, and at the same time, she also enjoyed the feeling of being with Henry.

Milan looked at their sweet faces. For some unknown reason, she felt a little sad, but she was indeed happy for Sylvia. When Henry climbed up the building, even though she was not the party involved, she could also feel a strong love. Henry really did not care about his own life when it came to Sylvia.

"Honey, I want to go to many places. When I get out of the hospital and finish my work, let's go around."

"Okay." Henry touched Sylvia's head. "When you leave the hospital, everything will be up to you. I'll go out first and let Milan help you with the medicine."

"Bah, I won't apply it. You two are so cheesy. Here, apply it yourself." Milan put the medicine bottle aside and crossed her arms over her chest. "What's wrong? Henry, why do you ask me to help you with the medicine?"

"Er..." Henry thought that something was wrong. After all, in Milan's eyes, she had always thought that he and Sylvia were an affectionate couple, so she didn't know that they slept in separated rooms.

Sylvia also thought of this, and her face flushed again. Her red face was like a ripe apple, and she dared not to look at Henry with her beautiful eyes.

"I still have something to do and need to go out. And this medicine needs to be applied now. Can you help please?" Henry came up with an excuse.

"Okay, for the sake of my sister, I'll help you." Milan nodded with satisfaction. In front of Henry, she pulled down Sylvia's hospital uniform. The white skin only showed up in front of Henry, which only enhanced the mysterious beauty.

Henry coughed and his eyes lingered on the beauty subconsciously for a few seconds. Then he looked away and said, "Well, I'll go out first."

Then, Henry left the ward as if he had run away.

Some people said that a man would always act like a child in front of the person he loved.

As for Henry, he loved Sylvia too much. Even if both of them had a marriage certificate and had already opened their hearts to each other, Henry's feelings towards her were still full of shyness as she was his first love.

This kind of love, even if Sylvia was wicked and cruel, even if the whole world were against her, Henry would always treat her like this.

Chapter 202

Henry left the hospital and thought that it was not appropriate to go anywhere at night, so he simply sat downstairs for more than an hour before returning to the ward.

By the time they went back, Milan had finished applying the ointment.

"All right, you stay with her. I'll go back first. I'll bring you breakfast tomorrow." Seeing Henry came back, Milan greeted him and left the ward.

Only Henry and Sylvia were left in the ward.

Henry sat on the edge of the bed and poured a glass of water for Sylvia. "How do you feel after applying the medicine?"

"A bit cold, it's a little itchy." Sylvia twisted her waist.

"The itchiness is good. It means that the cells are recovering. After a nice sleep, you will be fine tomorrow." Henry touched Sylvia's head and stretched out two fingers to press her temple, so as to make her relax and let her enter a better sleep state.

With Henry's massage, Sylvia slowly fell asleep.

Looking at the lovely girl who was breathing evenly in front of him, Henry smiled and lay down on the bed next to him.

The night passed.

The next day, Henry got up after hearing Milan's voice.

"Henry, why are you still sleeping? Breakfast is ready."

"Hmm?" Henry rubbed his eyes and took out his mobile phone to see the time. It was already 9:30.

This time, for Henry, who was getting up at five o'clock every morning, was incredible. He also understood that he was too tired these two days.

When Milan came, she also brought a new mobile phone for Sylvia. As soon as Sylvia got the phone, she couldn't wait to look through it.

"Sylvia, what are you looking at?"

"A project." Sylvia furrowed her eyebrows. Evidently, she had encountered some kind of problem.

Henry stretched his body. As soon as he got up from the bed, he heard his phone ring. It was from the girl, Amity Qiu.

"What's wrong, little girl, miss me?" Henry picked up the phone and said directly.

"Brother Henry, are you okay? I was outside for business yesterday, and I just heard that the company had an accident yesterday night. It was too late, and I didn't dare to call you."

"I'm okay, you little girl care about me so much. Are you trying to do something bad to me?" Henry deliberately teased her.

On the phone, Amity laughed. "Haha, Brother Henry, aren't you afraid that your wife will teach you a lesson?"

Henry looked at Sylvia subconsciously, then walked out of the ward and said to the phone, "Are you kidding? Don't you know Brother Henry's status at home? What's wrong with you, little girl? Is there anything you need help with?"

"Well, there's something I want you to analyze for me?"

"What is there to analyze? Looking for a boyfriend?"

"No, Brother Henry, how many cars do you think I can borrow from the company?" Amity asked hesitantly over the phone.

"Borrow a car? For what?" Henry was puzzled.

Amity explained, "I have a friend who has opened a KTV. She is preparing to open today and wants to borrow a few cars to support the scene. After all, there will be a lot of good cars, and it will also attract people's attention, won't it? She knows that I am working in the Lins Group, so she wants to ask me if I can borrow a few cars from the Lins Group."

"I'm afraid that's not possible." Henry shook his head. "Company's cars are used for the company's purposes. Not for private use."

"Alright." Amity's tone was a little downcast. "Then I'll tell my friend about it."

"But little girl, the company won't lend you the cars. I can lend you some cars." Henry smiled and said, "How many cars do you want?"

"You?" Amity asked in confusion on the phone.

"What? Don't you believe your Brother Henry? Let me tell you, your Brother Henry is rich. Tell me, how many cars are enough?"

"Three or four will be enough. We'll use them at four o'clock in the afternoon."

"Okay, then contact me this afternoon." Henry patted his chest and promised.

"Thank you, Brother Henry. I'll treat you to dinner tonight." Amity laughed sweetly.

Through the phone, Henry could think of the sweet appearance of this little girl.

Henry accompanied Sylvia in the hospital for the whole morning. After lunch, Henry left the hospital and contacted Amity.

Amity sent a location to Henry. When Henry arrived there he realized that it was a KTV that was about to be opened.

The girl, Amity, wore a long dress with light makeup. She was standing on the side of the road, waiting.

"What are you looking at, little girl?" Henry walked behind her and flicked it on the back of her head.

"Ah!" Amity put her hand over her head. "Brother Henry, when did you come? I was standing here looking for you."

Henry looked Amity up and down. This girl was sweet, giving people a pure and pleasant feeling. Now she was wearing a white dress and a pair of white flat shoes, which made her as beautiful as the pure flower fairy. The light makeup on her face added a bit of colour.

"Little girl, honestly tell me, did you dress up so beautifully because you have a date today?" Henry looked at her with a smile on the corner of his mouth.

Amity's pretty face turned red. "No, Brother Henry, you only know how to make fun of me."

When Henry saw her blushing face, he immediately confirmed his guess. "Be honest, or I'll tell that you're looking for a boyfriend in front of your friend!"

"Don't." A look of panic appeared on Amity's face. "I...I...I'm not ...I'm just..."

"Tut." Henry curled his lips and said, "Look at you, aren't you a sweetheart? Tell me, how far have you gone?"

"Aiya!" Amity cutely stomped her little foot. "It's just my classmate. When he was at school, he had good grades and I had a good impression of him. It's not what you think! He'll be here today."

Looking at Amity's anxious look, Henry laughed a few times. This girl was really simple. In today's society, it was common to have a partner in junior high school, not to mention graduating from college,.

Henry turned back and looked at the KTV that was about to open. It was not very large. It was a three-story building, and each floor was about 400 square meters. Through the door, he could see that the decoration inside was good.

There was a white Maserati car parked next to the KTV. It was the car that Homer had given to Amity.

"Girl, isn't your car good? It's definitely enough." Henry rolled his eyes. This car was worth almost two million yuan. Looking at this KTV, the investment was only a bit more than two million yuan.

"Shh." Amity quickly gestured Henry to keep quiet. "Brother Henry, don't say that the car is mine. I secretly parked here last night."

"What's wrong?" Henry looked at her in surprise.

"Well..." Amity was a little embarrassed. "I'm just a graduate. How can I drive such a good car? If my classmates see it, they'll definitely think too much."

Chapter 203

Henry listened to Amity's explanation and smiled silently.

But it was reasonable. In today's society, A girl who just graduated and she drove a car worth more than a million would indeed remind people of something bad. Moreover, today was the opening of her friend's KTV, so her friend should be today's protagonist. As a result, if Amity drove in a car like that, wouldn't she steal the show?

Henry and Amity stood there for a while and saw a group of people coming over. They were all very young. The leading young girl greeted Amity as soon as she saw her.

"Amity, you're here so early. Who is this?" The young girl looked at Henry from head to toe.

"This is Brother Henry, my colleague." Amity introduced these young people. "Brother Henry, this is Lok Fu, this KTV is run by her."

"Hello, beauty." Henry greeted Lok and observed her at the same time. Her clothes were branded, but it could be seen that there were two calluses in her palm. The place where calluses came from was a secret place like the place between the thumb and forefinger, which was worn out by hard work.

From this point of Henry's analysis, her family was not very wealthy before. Recently, they started having some money, wearing famous brands and opened a KTV.

Lok also looked at Henry, but his clothes did not interest her. She just said hello to him and looked at the Amity. "Amity, have you found the cars for me?"

"Lok, our company's cars can't be borrowed, but Brother Henry said that he would help us find a car." Amity apologetically said to her.

"Oh." Hearing what Amity said, Lok was a little disappointed. She was not interested in what Amity said that Henry could find a car for her. How could an ordinary dressed person find a luxury car for her? Speaking of those shabby cars with hundreds of thousands of yuan, it was not disgraceful enough.

"I say, Amity, Lok's KTV is big business, how can you not take it seriously?"

"That's right." The people behind Lok also spoke at this time, "We all thought that you could find some cars, but you failed at the critical moment."

Amity lowered her head and fell silent at these words.

At this moment, a white and clean young man in ordinary clothes ran over and said, "Lok! Am I late?"

At the sight of this young man, Amity suddenly became nervous. This small change naturally did not escape Henry's sight. Henry guessed that this must be the sweetheart of Amity.

"Justin Wu, you are the slowest. You are still chasing her. What can you catch up with?" A girl standing behind Lok said with her arms folded.

Justin embarrassedly scratched the back of his head and said, "I'm sorry, I just took a leave."

Lok looked at Justin with disgust and said, "All right, look at yourself, what kind of clothes are you wearing? Go buy a new one."

While speaking, she threw a thousand to Justin.

"Okay, okay, I'll go now." Justin took the money with a happy face and trotted away to buy clothes.

At the sight of this, Amity's face turned pale.

"Well, the opening ceremony is set to be at five o'clock. It's early now. Let's go in and have fun."

Lok glanced at Justin with disdain, then waved her hand and beckoned everyone to go to her karaoke to sing.

The group of people chose the largest box, and Lok even asked the waiter to bring wine and drinks casually.

With a bottle of drink in hand, Amity sat by the side drinking her wine.

"What's wrong? Are you ok?" A girl sat next to Amity.

"I'm okay." Amity shook her head.

"Come on, look at you. Everyone can see that there is something wrong with you. Is it because of Justin?" the girl asked.

Amity fell silent and did not say anything.

The girl patted her on the shoulder and said, "Amity, I know that you've always had a good impression of Justin Wu. But now, since we've just graduated and are looking for a place for an internship, we're not as naive as in school. Lok used to like Justin a lot, but Justin refused her several times because he saw that her family was poor. As a result, some time ago, Lok's home was demolished and they got high compensation. As soon as Justin heard the news, he immediately came for her. Now as long as Lok gives him money, he has to be more obedient."

The girl's words made Amity feel sad. She really didn't expect that Justin was such a person.

"A while ago, did he often send you messages?" the girl asked.

Amity nodded silently.

"Back then, he saw that you had found a good job and wanted you to help him enter the Lins Group. That's why he suddenly contacted you. You have no idea, he has asked all the girls in our class."

While the girl was talking, Justin opened the door of the private room. He came in wearing a new set of clothes.

Lok looked at Justin and nodded with satisfaction. "Okay, not bad. By the way, didn't you say you were talented before? How about singing a song for us?"

"Sure, I will do whatever you want." Justin nodded repeatedly, without any intention of refusing.

Looking at man she had a crush on, Amity was sad.

She still remembered how energetic this boy was when he was at school. He liked to hold a guitar and sing on the stone bench under the big tree. At that time, there were many girls around him, and some people specifically sketched for him. At that time, he held a basketball and ran on the court in a cool and heroic posture.

But now, she could no longer see the sunshine boy who used to be there.

Henry sat beside the Amity and said softly, "School life is just a small spectrum of the society, when you really get out of the school without any protection you can see the world clearly. After all, people in school have beautiful fantasies. When they face reality, they will find that those fantasies are worthless."

Amity bit her lip and nodded. She looked at Justin who was singing, and her eyes reddened.

The group of people had a good time in the box, but few of them paid attention to Amity and Henry.

They thought that Amity was doing a good job after going to Lin's for an internship. However, they found that she couldn't even borrow the company's car. She looked like an ordinary staff, and the man surnamed Zhang. He had been working for so long, but he was still plain and did not look promising.

Even Lok didn't pay much attention to her after learning that she didn't lend her a car.

They sang until after four o'clock, and then they reluctantly left the box and walked out of KTV.

As soon as she arrived at the gate, they saw five Audi A6 parked neatly in front of the KTV, which made Lok's eyes lit up.

"Brother Henry, did you find these cars?" Amity asked in a low voice.

"No." Henry shook his head. He had handed over the matter to Wade. According to Wade's personality, he would definitely not find a car like this.

Chapter 204

Lok ran up to them with joy on her face and saw a young man who looked ordinary but wearing famous clothes standing in front of the five Audi A6.

"Brother Bruno, you're here?" Lok ran to the young man in surprise. She took the initiative to grab his arm and shook it back and forth like a little girl.

The young man called Bruno looked at Lok and said with a smile, "I know that you are opening today, so I called a few cars to support you."

It had to be said that the five Audi A6 were all the same, which gave people a very luxurious feeling.

"Thank you, Brother Bruno." A smile appeared on Lok's face. She then looked behind her and said meaningfully, "See? If one is a true friend, I don't have to say anything and he'll naturally help you. There are some people who are not sincere. They agree to help and play nice. When the time comes, they break the promise. I don't know if it's intentional or not."

As soon as Lok's words came out, the group of people subconsciously looked at Amity.

While the little face of Amity turned white, Henry frowned and didn't say anything.

"Lok, who is this handsome guy? Why don't you introduce him to us?" A good-looking girl walked to Lok, looked at Bruno with eyes full of emotion. Who could not see that this Bruno was definitely a rich second-generation guy? Otherwise, how could he find five Audis so easily?

"Brother Bruno's family is worth tens of millions in assets," Lok said enviously. After her old house was demolished, Lok got a total of more than three million yuan, of which nearly two million yuan was invested in opening this KTV. She didn't have enough money to buy another car.

"Wow! Ten million yuan!" The girls' eyes lit up upon hearing this. They all scrambled to go up and greet Bruno.

After going out of the campus, they completely understood how important the money was. No matter what kind of ideal they had, it was not as good as money. If they could take advantage of this large sum of money, they really didn't have to struggle for their entire lives.

He stood there and enjoyed the worship of the crowd.

"Brother Bruno, this watch on your hand is worth tens of thousands of yuan, isn't it?"

"It's so fancy. It's the first time I've seen a watch worth tens of thousands of yuan!"

"Look at Brother Bruno's clothes. They are all from famous brands. None of them is less than 2000 yuan. The shoes are the latest Armani collection worth more than 3,000 yuan!"

Under everyone's praise, Bruno was a little fluttering. He waved to Lok and said, "Lok, which car do you like? Tell me, I'll give you one."

As soon as he said the words, there was a burst of exclamation.

"Wow! Brother Bruno, you are so rich!"

"So rich that he is giving cars as gifts so easily!"

"Lok, what are you waiting for? Meeting such a man, you should get married soon!"

Lok smiled and pointed to one side, "Brother Bruno, can I take that one?"

Following the direction of Lok's finger, everyone's eyes were fixed on a white Maserati.

Compared with this Maserati, those Audi A6 were worthless.

There was a trace of embarrassment in Bruno's eyes, and then he said, "Damn, this guy parked the car and didn't tell me!"

"Brother Bruno, do you know whose car this is? This Maserati's price is nearly two million dollars! Ordinary people can't afford to drive it." A girl's face was full of excitement.

"Of course I know." There was a proud look on Bruno's face. "This is one of my buddy's car. I told him about Lok's opening today and asked him to park the car."

"Brother Bruno, you're so good to me!"

"That's right!"

"This is what a man should look like!"

A burst of praise sounded again, and a look of enjoyment appeared on his face, which made him particularly happy.

"Brother Bruno, I'm sorry to trouble you." Lok said to Bruno. The gentle manner in which she spoke was something that no one else had seen before.

He waved his hand indifferently and looked at Lok with a face full of affection. "Lok, as long as I can make you happy, I am willing to do anything."

His affectionate confession immediately aroused a cry of surprise from those girls.

"Lok, what are you waiting for? If you meet such a good man, you should get married soon!"

"That's right. It's a great blessing to be able to be Brother Bruno's lover."

After hearing what they said, Lok looked a little shy and looked at Bruno.

"Lok, I..." Justin Wu suddenly said. Standing in the crowd, he seemed to have no confidence.

"What's wrong with you?" Lok looked at Justin and said with disdain.

Bruno also looked at Justin. When he saw Justin's clothes worth only a thousand yuan, his face was full of disdain. "Lok, who is this?"

"A poor guy who is chasing me." Lok waved her hand and didn't care about Justin at all.

"Oh, poor guy?" With a sneer, he stared at Justin and said, "Boy, where did you get the courage to chase Lok? With your cheap clothes?"

"Me!" Justin opened his mouth but couldn't say anything.

Lok took two steps forward, looked at Justin proudly, and said, "Justin, how much do you like me?"

"I like you very much! Lok, I'm willing to do anything for you!"

"Okay." Lok nodded and smiled. "Then kneel down and beg me. I may consider you. Otherwise, you really won't have a chance."

Justin's face changed, and he looked at Lok Fu with some embarrassment.

Bruno stood aside and looked at Justin as if he was watching a joke. "Boy, this is your chance. Lok has invested two million yuan in this KTV. You can't make a profit like this in your life."

"Do you want to kneel down or not?" Lok crossed her arms over her chest.

Justin's face changed constantly, and his eyes kept glancing at the KTV. About ten seconds later, Justin took a deep breath, leaned forward, and was about to kneel down.

"No!" A cry of surprise sounded. Amity strode out of the crowd and grabbed Justin's arm. She looked at Lok with anger on her small face. "Lok! Are you going too far by doing this?"

The appearance of Amity made Bruno's eyes light up. The lovely and pure appearance of Amity was nothing that Lok could compare with. He licked his lips and carefully looked up and down at her.

Looking at Amity's angry face, Lok burst into laughter. "Ah, how can I forget that you and Justin were a couple in school. What's wrong? Are you worried about your little lover?"

Before Amity could speak, Justin had already shaken his head and waved his hand.

"No, no, no, Lok, don't get me wrong. I have nothing to do with her!" Justin said, shaking off Amity and grabbing his arm. "I warn you, stay away from me. I have nothing to do with you!"

Justin's action had caused Amity's face turn pale.

Chapter 205

"Hah hah hah." Lok chuckled, "Some people are thinking highly of themselves."

The eyes of Amity widened as she looked at Justin in disbelief. "You... how did you become like this? You are not the one I used to know! No!"

Before today, Amity was still holding to a wonderful fantasy. She still remembered the sunshine boy in the school, but now? Did everything change?

When a woman was willing to dress up for another man, it meant that the man was in her heart.

Justin frowned and looked at Amity in disgust. "You seem to be very familiar to me. Do I know who you are?"

Such an expression of disgust made the heart of Amity feel as if it was being cut by a knife.

"Hahaha!" Bruno laughed out loud and said, "Little sister, you are not as realistic as your friend. Now, it's an era of money. Without money, nothing can be done!"

Lok also sneered, "Amity, don't you think you are so naive? Do you think we are still in school? Do you think the price of a meal is five yuan as before?"

Now a bowl of noodles is 16 yuan! See the reality, money is the most important thing in the world. Did you see how proud Justin was in school? What about now? As long as I give him money, he will do anything I want!"

Lok took out a stack of money from her bag, she threw it in front of Justin and said, "Come on, kneel down and say that you love me. These are all yours."

"I love you." Justin bent his knees and knelt.

"You can't kneel!" Amity yelled. He grabbed Justin's arm once more, tears streaming down from her eyes.

Justin's kneeling not only lost his dignity but also shattered Amity's fantasy world.

"Get lost!" Justin pushed her away. His strength made her retreat. If it weren't for Henry's help, she would have fallen directly.

Justin knelt in front of Lok, and his eyes were full of flattery.

"Haha!" Lok laughed out loud, "You're really an obedient dog. Alright, I'll give you all this!"

Lok threw the thousands of yuan into the air and scattered on the ground. Justin knelt on the ground and quickly picked up each piece.

Henry looked at Lok and shook his head slightly. This woman's heart was already a little distorted.

Amity saw that Justin was kneeling on the ground, picking up the money one by one, making her tears flow out constantly.

"Little sister, why are you crying? Look at this waste. What's there for you to cry?" Bruno looked at her face full of tears. Bruno couldn't wait to hold the beauty in his arms. He took a few steps forward and walked to the front of her. "Come on, let me have a good look at you."

Then, he reached out his hand to touch Amity's face.

"Don't touch me!" Amity slapped away his hand, shouting at him.

Being scolded by Amity in front of so many people, he felt a little embarrassed.

"Amity, why are you talking to Brother Bruno like this?" Lok shouted. She looked at her and said, "Look at you. You're so poor. What right do you have to be arrogant? You can't even find a few cars to come here. Why do you bring a poor boy? He said he had found some cars. I think he came here to eat and drink! It's better to find two bikes like him!"

"That's right, Amity. You're no longer at school. Put away your arrogance. Although you're good-looking, with money, all beauties will come along. Who do you think you are?" A girl who had a good relationship with Lok said. She had already been unhappy with Amity for a long time. In school, all the limelight had been stolen by her.

Amity looked at these people in front of her. She really didn't expect that everyone had changed. It was so realistic!

Henry sighed. In this world, not everyone was so realistic. The only thing to blame was that the luck of Amity was bad. A college student, whose family was poor, happened to have her house demolished and suddenly become a rich family, forcing the people around her to become real.

"Amity, come over now and apologize to Brother Bruno. Nothing will happen. If you can make him happy, he will take you to eat something good and buy you some good clothes. It's much better than wearing such cheap clothes." Lok was very proud. When she spoke, she felt like she was superior to others.

Henry patted the shoulders of Amity. "That's enough, let's go. There's no point in waiting here."

"Leave? Who can leave?" Bruno stood in front of Henry and said, "This girl just touched my hand. She should apologize to me or let me touch her back. Otherwise, no one can go!"

"I... When did I touch you? Shame on you!" Staring at his, Amity said in anger.

"You did touch my hand deliberately just now, and everyone saw it. Now it's my turn." Bruno rubbed his hands together and reached for the front of Amity with a wretched look on his face.

"Pa!" A crisp sound was heard. With this crisp sound, a red five-fingered print appeared on Bruno's face.

Henry shook his hand and looked at Bruno. "Well, I touched you. If you don't feel good enough, how about I touch you again?"

"You!" Bruno covered his face with one hand and pointed at Henry with the other. "How dare you hit me! Believe it or not, I will find someone to kill you!"

"I don't believe it." Henry smiled and shook his head. "How are you going to kill me? Money? Or by beating me?"

"Just with one call, I'll kill you with money, believe it or not!" Bruno took out his mobile phone and was about to make a phone call.

Henry shook his head and said, "Can you kill me with money? I don't know, but what I know is if you still stand here, you will be killed immediately."

As soon as Henry finished speaking, he took out his mobile phone and sent a voice message.

"Come down."

Ten seconds after Henry sent the voice message, 18 helicopters appeared in front of the crowd with a strong sound of airflow. At the same time when these 18 helicopters appeared, the pedestrians walking along the road and the traffic on the road slowed down slowly because these 18 helicopters were too eye-catching!

Below each helicopter hung a fancy-looking, expensive sports car. At this time, they were lining up in a long line in the air and slowly approaching this direction.

"Bugatti Veyron! One Bugatti Veyron costs more than 30 million yuan! Two Bugatti Veyrons flew directly under the helicopter. Who is this rich guy? He's way too rich!"

"McLaren P1!"

"Aston Martin 77! A world limited edition of 77 top luxury cars, whose price is 47 million yuan! This is the first time I've seen a real car!"

"Pagani!"

"Koenigsegg NO1, the price of this car is 100 million yuan! Oh, my god, these helicopters are flying with a sky full of money!"

On the road, there were bursts of exclamations. There was no lack of people who were familiar with cars and recognized the prices of these luxury cars.

Chapter 206

"Rolls-Royce Phantom!"

"Berley Mustang, a limited edition! Worth over ten million!"

Looking at the luxury cars in the sky, Bruno and the others swallowed their saliva! Taking so many luxury cars in this way meant that this person was not only rich but also he didn't take the money seriously. Any car was worth more than the whole assets of Bruno's family!

"Look! They are landing!"

"They landed here!"

"D*mn it. He's the biggest tycoon in our city!"

"Which family is so rich!?"

Those helicopters that were flying in the sky above Henry's head slowly landed.

Each of the top luxury cars was worth more than ten million yuan and couldn't be bought with money. They slowly landed on the ground and stopped there, like a luxury car exhibition.

These cars had attracted both Bruno and Lok's attention.

This is what super-wealthy life looks like! If I can afford one of the cars in my life, it would already be enough!"

The doors of the most expensive Koenigsegg opened, and a handsome looking youth walked out from within, instantly attracting everyone's attention. The girl who had just been staring at Bruno was now staring at the handsome youth.

Bruno had been so cocky just now, but now, he had a sense of inferiority. Compared to him, the young man who had just stepped out of his car completely outclassed him. In terms of family background, the other party's Koenigsegg was worth ten times more than his family's total assets.

Bruno rubbed his hands. At this moment, he forgot that he had just been slapped. He only thought about how to go forward and say hello to the young man in front of him. If he was lucky, they would become friends. The money flowing out from the other party's fingers was enough for him to live his whole life.

Lok and the girls around her all tried to squeeze out their most beautiful smiles, hoping to attract the attention of this rich and handsome young man.

"He's coming! He's coming! He's coming toward me!"

Lok and the other girls were excited in their hearts. They were thinking about the first sentence, how to greet him.

Just as they were immersed in this fantasy, they watched this young and rich local tyrant walk to Amity and that bumpkin.

"It's not okay to park the cars here." Henry frowned and said to Wade. These 18 cars blocked the road in front of the KTV.

When Bruno and others heard Henry say this, they immediately frowned.

Lok shouted, "Hey, the entrance of this KTV is my place. I haven't spoken yet. I don't think you have the right to speak."

After scolding Henry, Lok showed a friendly smile to Wade and said, "Sir, I run this KTV. You can stop here. I don't know this person. You don't have to pay attention to him."

"You don't know him?" Wade looked puzzled and asked Henry, "Boss, didn't you ask me to find a few cars and say that someone has opened KTV? Did I get to the wrong place?"

Boss? Find a few cars? Wrong place?

Upon hearing Wade's words, Lok, Bruno and the others were not able to come back to their senses.

"This young and handsome local tycoon called this bumpkin boss? Did this bumpkin ask for these cars to be brought here?"

"It's impossible! It's absolutely impossible! Must have been a misunderstanding!"

"You didn't get to the wrong place, but it's not necessary. They said they don't know me, so let's go." Henry waved his hand.

"Okay." Upon hearing this, Wade took out a walkie-talkie without saying a word. "Call the cars away! Hurry up! Don't put them here! I feel sick just by looking at these shabby pieces of iron! Hurry up!"

As soon as Wade finished speaking, these luxury cars that had just landed were all hung up in the air again. Within a few seconds, they disappeared in front of everyone as if they had never appeared.

The girl who had just talked to Amity in KTV swallowed hard and stood behind her. She asked, "Amity, did you get all of them from your friend?"

"Yes." Amity nodded. "I couldn't borrow the company's car. Brother Henry personally lent these to me. However, it seems that I don't need it now."

Seeing that the young man listened to the bumpkin, Lok, Bruno and the others all felt that it was a bit unreal.

Henry turned back and looked at the rain. "Little girl, we shouldn't stay any longer. Let's go. Didn't you invite me to dinner?"

"Alright." Amity nodded.

Today, what Lok and others had done had completely broken her heart. Justin's behaviour made her completely give up on the man she once had a favourable impression on.

Taking out a car key from her bag, Amity walked towards the Maserati parked on the side.

As a light sound came from the Maserati, the door was opened by Amity and the little girl sat in the driver's seat.

In the shocked eyes of Lok and others, Maserati roared and stopped in front of Henry. Amity rolled down the window and said, "Brother Henry, let's go."

Henry turned his head and flashed a smile at Bruno. "Dude, it seems that you can't use the money to smash me to death. And this car doesn't seem to belong to your friend."

After Henry finished speaking, he opened the door and got in regardless of how Bruno and the others reacted.

Maserati roared again and left.

The roar of the engine sounded like a joke in everyone's ears.

Bruno's face turned red, which was extremely ugly. Just now, he boasted that this luxury car worth two million yuan was owned by his friend. He just said that so people would praise him. As a result, the owner was right in front of him.

Lok looked at Maserati driving away with some sluggishness for a long time. When she saw the five Audis parked in front of the KTV, she felt like it was a pile of garbage, because she had just experienced the impact of 18 luxury cars. These Audis was just so so.

Originally, the magnificent opening ceremony had been extremely bland. Even the owner of the ceremony, Lok, was not interested in it at all.

She had just been saying something. This world was a world of money, but in the end, those people drove luxury cars worth millions and could casually find cars to support the scene. All of the cars were worth hundreds of millions of yuan, and they were all limited edition. They were brought by a helicopter!

Her own assets, in front of others, were not even worth a fart!

Not long after they drove away, Amity's cell phone started to ring crazily.

After glancing at the caller, Amity put down her phone and didn't care anymore.

Henry took a look at the caller on the phone, whose name was Justin Wu.

After several consecutive calls, Amity did not pick up at all. Soon after, she received another message from Justin.

"Amity, don't you want to eat the dessert in that restaurant? Let me take you there, okay?"

"Amity, why don't you reply to me? We agreed that we should work hard and fight together."

"Amity, where are you? Shall I go to find you?"

The messages directly popped up on the screen of her mobile phone. Even if she didn't want to look at them, it was inevitable.

At the traffic light, Amity pulled over the car and deleted Justin's contact.

"Brother Henry, am I stupid?"

Henry smiled slightly and said, "Whoever has just joined real society is stupid."

Chapter 207

Today's matter had dealt a massive blow to Amity. The attitude of those friends of hers had truly caught her by surprise, including Justin. She had never imagined that Justin was such a person.

"All right, pull down at the intersection ahead." Henry stretched out his hand and pointed.

Amity asked in surprise, "Brother Henry, aren't we going to have dinner?"

"Not today." Henry waved his hand. "I have an appointment with a friend. Let's meet another day. I'll treat you."

Amity pouted. "I can do it another day, but you can't treat me. I've already said that I'm the one who will treat you. Don't forget that I got 250,000 commission last time, and now I'm a little rich woman too."

"Okay, then you can treat me. Don't say the bill is too high at that time." Henry said with a laugh. At an intersection, he told Amity to stop the car, opened the door and went out.

After telling Amity to drive safely, Henry walked slowly to the hospital. He didn't have any meetings with friends tonight, but looking at Amity's sad face, he was sure that the little girl had to think about things that just had happened quietly.

When Henry returned to the hospital, he saw Sylvia sitting on the hospital bed enjoying Milan's cooking.

Henry could see that she had obviously recovered a lot, and the blush on her skin had faded. The wounds on her skin would completely recover after one night at most.

"Henry, where did you go this afternoon? Lin talked about you with me all the time. I said you two have been married for such a long time. Don't be like a passionate love couple." As soon as she saw Henry, Milan began to complain.

The feeling of being single was very uncomfortable.

Henry smiled and poured a glass of hot water for Sylvia. "Honey, how do you feel now?"

Henry even felt sweet when he said the word "honey".

Sylvia nodded, "Much better. My body doesn't itch anymore. Previously, I still felt a stabbing pain on my skin from time to time, but now I don't feel anything. Except for the redness, nothing different from usual."

"That's good." Henry nodded. "I'll prepare a set of medicine later. After applying the medicine and sleeping one more night, you will be discharged from the hospital tomorrow."

"Really?" As soon as she heard that she could be discharged from the hospital, Sylvia's face showed a surprised expression. "By the way, husband, is the man from yesterday your friend? Why didn't you mention him to me?"

As soon as she asked this question, she felt a little uncomfortable. She realized that she didn't even talk to Henry Henry before, so how could he have the opportunity to introduce his friends to her?

"Wade? That guy has nothing to do all day long. Why should I mention him to you?" Henry said indifferently.

"No." Sylvia puffed up her cheeks and was very cute. "Your friend, I must know him. Honey, when I leave the hospital tomorrow, can I invite your friends to dinner? I haven't met them yet."

Henry smiled and said, "Well, if you want to invite them to dinner, these guys will be very happy."

Sylvia narrowed her eyes into crescent moons. "Then it's a deal. I'll be the host tomorrow. You're not allowed to snatch it from me."

Henry chatted with her for a while and went to prepare the medicine. On the way, he asked President Ma to go through the discharge formalities and let Sylvia leave the hospital tomorrow.

After boiling the medicine, Henry found another excuse and asked Milan to help Sylvia apply the medicine.

Outside the ward, Henry called Wade and said that Sylvia invited everyone to dinner tomorrow.

"Damn it! Sister-in-law invited us to dinner!" Wade shouted on the phone.

Henry took the phone far away because Wade's voice was too loud.

"Hey, why are you shouting so loudly?" Henry was speechless.

"Of course I'm excited, Big Boss! Sister-in-law invited us for dinner! No, I have to inform them. Believe me, those people's reactions may only be worse than mine!" Wade said confidently on the phone.

Sitting in the presidential suite of Glory Hotel, Wade shook the red wine in the glass and made a phone call to many people.

When he faintly said that sister-in-law would treat them to dinner tomorrow, almost everyone who was talking to him on the phone made the same sound as he did before.

That night.

In an ancient palace in Europe, a young man with red hair and luxurious clothes stood in front of a mirror that was completely made of high-quality crystal. More than a hundred servants stood behind him, and several top designers of European upper-class society stood by the side.

"Lord, this is already the seventy-third piece of clothing that you've tried. Are you still not satisfied?" An old man asked carefully.

If the European nobles were here, they would be shocked with their mouths wide open. The old man, who called the red-haired young man lord, was a marquis!

"Not satisfied! Very dissatisfied!" The red-haired young man impatiently pulled off his clothes and shouted in fluent Chinese, "My sister-in-law will invite us to dinner tomorrow. Will you make me wear uncomfortable clothes? Now, immediately design the suit that I am satisfied with!"

On the open sea, a warship with a ghost-faced flag on it was drifting aimlessly.

A strong white man stood on the deck, and his maids took out expensive clothes for him.

The white-skinned strong man carefully selected for more than two hours before he finally picked out a piece of clothing that he was satisfied with. He nodded and said, "Not bad, this one."

"Lord Sea God, are you so well-prepared because you're going to see the state's president?" The white brawny man's assistant asked cautiously.

"The president?" The white brawny man retorted, "Which president would I pay so much attention to?"

"That's..." The assistant looked confused.

The white brawny man stood in front of the mast and looked into the distance. "Tomorrow, my sister-in-law will treat us to dinner!"

Behind the white man's warship, countless warships followed. Each ship was ready with artillery fire, and the fighter jets on the deck were ready to take off at any time.

At the border of the Country of Seal, there was a snow mountain that was rumored to have mysterious snowmen roaming about.

Below the snowy mountain, there was a palace that was worshiped by the people living in the surroundings.

That night, in the snow mountain, a young and beautiful western woman walked out. She wore a long black dress with black and purple hair hanging down to her waist. In this snow-white mountain, under the bright moonlight, she was as holy as the Goddess of the Moon coming to the world.

"My lady, tomorrow is the prayer day for the believers. Do you want to leave?" Another equally beautiful woman asked, following behind her.

"Of course. Wade said the sister-in-law would invite us for dinner tomorrow."

At this time, Sylvia, who was still lying in the ward of the Yinzhou Hospital, did not know that her decision of treating guests made those big shots in the underground world feel so nervous.

Chapter 208

A night passed quietly. The next morning, Henry got up and checked up on Sylvia. The burns on her skin had basically healed, and the poisonous gas that she inhaled that day had been filtered out in the past two days.

"Well, amazing." Henry looked at Sylvia, who had changed into loose sportswear, and sincerely praised her.

"What's amazing? I haven't taken a shower for several days. Hurry up and let's go home. I have to take a shower. My body is stinky." Sylvia sniffed her cute little nose and said with a disgusted face.

Henry laughed. He didn't smell any strange smell on the woman's body. Instead, there was a fresh body fragrance.

On the way home, Henry drove, while Sylvia sat in the passenger seat and kept looking at her mobile phone.

"Honey, what are you looking at?" Henry asked curiously.

"A hotel." Sylvia's slender fingers slid on the mobile phone screen. "Honey, say, what do your friends like to eat?"

"Anything." Henry said indifferently. When he and others were having trouble, they would share a piece of bread. It was not that they had never eaten tree bark. During their glorious days, they were already fed with delicacies of all kinds and top caviar. They didn't care about what they ate.

Sylvia shook her head. "That won't do. This is the first time I'm having dinner with friends of yours. No matter what, I have to do my best as a host."

Sylvia finally chose Glory Hotel and booked the biggest private room.

At the same time, at the Yinzhou Airport.

Wade stood in front of the waiting room and waited quietly. He did not check the flight time because he knew that these goods would not come by civilian flights.

A series of private jets landed at the Yinzhou Airport. One of them had the emblem of the British royal family. Although there was no logo on the rest of them, just looking at the model of the plane, it could be seen that they were quite expensive.

The private plane with the British royal symbol opened and a handsome young man with fiery red hair walked down. He wore a dark red robe with a special mark of the British royal family on the collar. As soon as he got off the plane, the red-haired young man took a deep breath and said with emotion, "The air is fresher where our boss is."

"Fine, you flatterer!" A white-skinned brawny man walked over with large strides. The brawny man's head was shining brightly. "In my opinion, wherever the boss is, the world is full of colors!"

"D*mn it!" The red-haired young man raised his middle finger. "Sea God, don't you feel ashamed? Your flattery is not worse than mine!"

"All right, the boss is not here. Who are you saying this to?" Not far away, a western beauty with long hair hanging down to her waist slowly came over. She wore a dark purple dress. When the breeze blew over and the hem of the dress, she seemed to be the beauty in the painting, attracting people's attention.

The appearance of the woman attracted the attention of many people around her. This woman was really beautiful. Her hair was reflected in front of her forehead, as if it was the dusk, shrouding the sunset glow.

She was tall, with round buttocks, and every part of her body was flawless.

"Ah, Moon Goddess, I haven't seen you dressed so formally for a long time." The red-haired young man looked at the woman in surprise.

"Haha." The woman covered her mouth and chuckled. "You're different. You dressed so formally. I thought you're going to inherit your father's position."

"Let me tell you something. These clothes were newly designed last night. It's not the same old style as before. Didn't you see that the cuffs have been changed to a triangular shape?" The red-haired young man raised his arm.

"Come on, don't show off those weird clothes of yours." Sea God looked contemptuous. "Who hasn't arrived yet?"

"Wade sent a notice to all of us yesterday. I bet they'll be here soon." Moon Goddess stood there, her beautiful eyes staring into the distant sky.

Soon, several private jets appeared in the air.

Before the plane landed, a white figure floated down from the sky, which looked like a white dragonfly. It could be seen that she had a beautiful figure, and she was like a holy goddess.

The Moon Goddess pouted her lips at the sky and said, "She still has the old problem. She can't be changed!"

The figure in the sky attracted the attention of many people.

"Is someone flying?"

"Who can fly? Can't you have some common sense?"

"Explain for me, why is she floating in the sky? Did you see the parachute?"

"What's the point of explaining? Those who understand will naturally understand!"

Two people who were about to board the plane saw the figure in the sky and fell into discussion.

Sea God clicked his tongue and said, "Look, it's a high-tech. The flight suit looks like a long dress. It's really good-looking!"

Pa!

Moon Goddess slapped the light of the Sea God. "Do you mean that I'm worse than her?"

Sea God quickly put on a fawning smile. "You all look good, you all look good!"

As the white silk fell, the figure in the sky slowly landed. She was all in white, 1.7 meters tall, wearing white boots and a long white dress. Her arms were winding with white gauze, forming a sharp contrast with Moon Goddess standing there. She was also beautiful, with bright eyes and small cherry mouths. She was a standard Chinese beauty.

"Future, your technology is getting more and more developed. When will you install an aircraft on my ship?" The Sea God looked at the coming beauty with a smile.

"Are you dreaming? This is science and technology, not the magic you imagined!" Future rolled her eyes and focused on Moon Goddess. "Wow, old witch, have you put on your gown?"

"Who are you talking about?" Moon Goddess glared at Future angrily.

"About you. You are already over 40 years old, aren't you old?" Future made a face to Moon Goddess. Her holy appearance suddenly disappeared, and she turned into a nifty elf.

It was a pleasure for the audience to see the quarrel between two women with perfect figures and faces.

Sea God and the red-haired young man didn't stop them. They just stood aside with a smile. It would be strange if they didn't quarrel with each other.

"Hey, hey, hey, are you quarrelling again?" An ordinary-looking middle-aged western man strode over and said, "Where are you quarrelling? Did you curse the old witch a few minutes ago?"

The middle-aged man seemed to be very experienced.

"About three minutes ago." Sea God thought for a moment and answered. Then he looked at the middle-aged man and said, "By the way, Felix said you would invest 30 billion yuan in my fleet last time. When will I get the money? Don't deny it!"

"Shit!" Felix gestured with his middle finger. "30 million is not enough to apologize to you. I've already written the check. You didn't get it yourself."

Sea God curled his lips and said, "I still have to get it myself. You are not sincere!"

"Well, everyone is here. Let's go. I'm afraid that Wade has been waiting for us." The red-haired young man said, "Today, sister-in-law treats us to dinner. Be a little more restrained!"

Chapter 209

In the villa in Luxury Village.

"Honey, what do you think of this one? Is it a little light?" Sylvia stood in front of the mirror and kept twisting her waist.

Henry said with a faint smile on his face, "It's not light. You are very beautiful, honey. You can wear whatever you like. No need to be so formal."

"No way!" Sylvia pouted. "This is the first time I'm officially acquainted with your friends. I cannot wear anything plain. Okay, this one."

After picking for a long time, Sylvia chose a beige dress with a yellow lady's hat. The brim of the hat was tied with a black floating ribbon, which made her look strong and elegant.

Today, she had put on some light makeup.

A woman's light make-up represented her respect for others.

A long version of the Rolls-Royce was driving on the streets of Yinzhou City.

"Idiot, did you bring all the good wine treasured?" The red-haired young man sat in the car, shaking the red wine glass in his hand, and took a sip happily. His face was full of enjoyment.

"Redhead, talk to me nicely, otherwise you will lose your red hair!" Wade's face was black. To tell the truth, he had a lot of opinions about his name. If it was not for the old man in his family who refused to change his name, he would have changed his name a few years ago.

"Haha." The red-haired young man smiled. "If you pull my hair out, you have to give me a new nickname, but I could still call you an idiot."

"Damn it!" Wade was depressed. Looking at the crowd, he suddenly thought of something. "By the way, the eldest brother specifically told us to have a simple meal this time. None of you should give gifts. Sister-in-law doesn't know the eldest brother's identity, so you need to behave a little more normally."

"Understood." Felix made an OK gesture.

Future asked curiously, "Idiot, what kind of person is our sister-in-law?"

"What kind of person is she?" Wade thought for a moment and replied, "She is a very ordinary woman. What Boss wants now is this kind of ordinary life."

Everyone nodded thoughtfully.

If someone else was in the car and he heard these people say that the business queen of Yinzhou City, Sylvia Lin, was an ordinary woman, he would definitely be shocked. But for people in the car, Sylvia's identity was really unremarkable.

The location of the place where they were having dinner, Henry had already sent it to Wade in advance. When they were two kilometres away from Glory Hotel, Wade and others got out of the car and walked to the hotel.

These people were walking on the road. Only Wade and Felix were dressed ordinarily. The red-haired man was wearing a dark red cloak. Future was all in white. The long hair of Moon Goddess was on her waist, and the Sea God was also wearing a suit of the western dress similar to the last century. They looked quite strange and attracted many people's attention.

Fortunately, among the group of people, there were two stunning beauties, who looked pleasing to the eye. Passers-by only took them as people who were playing cosplay.

Inside Glory Hotel.

Sylvia sat in a private room called Five and Nine and looked at the menu.

"Husband, what do your friends love to eat?"

"Anything is fine. They aren't picky," Henry said with a smile.

Sylvia carefully looked at the menu and ordered dishes. At this time, a dissatisfied female voice came from outside the box.

"Who is it sitting in Five and Nine? Don't you know who I am?"

As soon as the voice came, the door of the private room was pushed open from the outside.

Sylvia's eyebrows furrowed slightly as she looked towards the door of the private room. What greeted her was a familiar figure.

The person outside the room also saw Sylvia. She was a woman in her twenties. She was dressed gorgeously and wore a pearl necklace. The short hair on her head was curly. She was very beautiful, but compared to Sylvia, she was still two levels below her.

"Yo, I thought who was sitting in the private room. It turns out to be our President Lin. I heard that you almost died in the fire that day?" The woman looked at Lin with an unhappy face.

Sylvia smiled faintly. "I let Sister Zhu down. I was lucky enough to survive. What, Sister Zhu, do you want this private room? I can give it to you."

Just glancing at them, Henry could tell that there was some kind of discord between the two women.

The woman waved her hand with a bad mood and said, "No, thank you. I, Selena Zhu, dare not to sit in the private room booked by President Lin. Oh, I heard that you are married. Is this your husband?"

Selena looked Henry up and down. "Tut-tut, he's wearing ordinary clothes. Sam Zheng said that he got married into the Family Lin. It seems that he doesn't have a high position.

Hey handsome, why don't you consider divorcing and marry into our Zhu family? My sister has been choosing her ideal husband recently. I'm sure she will treat you better than the Family Lin."

Henry scratched his head and looked at Selena with embarrassment. "I'm sorry. May I ask what kind of bird is your sister?"

"Huh?" Selena was stunned by Henry's question, and then her face changed, "Sylvia, don't you know how to take good care of your family?"

"Sorry, Sister Zhu." Sylvia smiled at Selena. "My husband has always been in charge of the affairs in my family."

Selena heard these words and had a bad expression on her face. "Yes, you two can behave like that, but there's a time when you all regret it!"

Selena left a harsh word, swung her arms and left.

When Selena left, Sylvia was puzzled and said, "It's strange. Why did I meet her here?"

"Who is this?" Henry asked curiously. He had never heard Sylvia mention the surname Zhu. Last time when he went to the outdoor club, he did not see her.

Sylvia replied, "Sam Zheng's cousin."

"Oh!" Henry nodded as he suddenly realized something. He still remembered Sam Zheng. Previously, in the Di Saint French Restaurant, he embarrassed himself.

After sitting in the room for a while, Henry received a message from Wade on his mobile phone.

"Honey, they're here. I'll go downstairs to pick them up."

"I'll go with you," Sylvia said as she was about to get up.

"No need. I can go by myself." Henry pressed Sylvia's shoulder and said, "Wife, I have something to tell you in advance."

"What is it?" Sylvia asked in confusion.

"Khm khm." Henry coughed dryly and said, "Well, I guess those friends of mine are a bit enthusiastic. If they have any big reactions, please don't be surprised."

Enthusiastic?

Before Sylvia could figure out what the meaning of these words was, Henry had already walked out of the box and went downstairs.

When Henry came to the hotel lobby, he saw his brothers and sisters in strange clothes at a glance.

"Wow, you are really eye-catching."

Henry shouted loudly from a distance.

When they heard this voice, the Moon Goddess and the rest all had excited expressions on their faces. At the same time, they opened their mouths and said, "Boss!"

"Come on, two beauties, give me a hug first."
Henry forward and opened his arms to Moon Goddess and Future.

Chapter 210

"Boss, aren't you afraid that sister-in-law will be jealous?" Future smiled. Although she said so, she still took the initiative to give Henry a hug.

Moon Goddess also gave Henry a big hug. This kind of hug was just like among brothers and sisters, there was no other emotion involved.

"Don't worry, sister-in-law is not so stingy." Henry waved his hand.

"Boss, I also want to hug you!" The strong white man, Sea God, looked at Henry shyly and said, "Argh!"

Wade retched. "D*mn, I want to puke!"

Who would have thought that this spoiled white-skinned strong man was the fierce man who had shocked navies from all over the world on the open seas?

And these people who were looked at like they are doing cosplay, any one of them had a very high status in this world. Among these people, the one with the most ordinary identity should be Felix.

Many people had never heard of Felix's family. Even some wealthy families didn't know about the existence of this family. However, at the top of the world, Felix family was known by everyone. This family, which was known as the richest family in the world, was believed to have the annual income comparable to the annual GDP of some developed countries!

However, in this group of people, even though Felix was the sole heir to his family, he still appeared ordinary. This was because he only had money, the money that could not be spent! It took a huge amount of effort for his father to make Felix join the Radiant Island.

After experiencing many life and death situations, Felix, Wade and the others became lifetime brothers.

After Henry hugged everyone, he took them upstairs.

"Boss, you don't know. Yesterday, when these guys heard that eldest sister-in-law had invited them to dinner, they were all very excited. I guess that they haven't slept all night," Wade said, following Henry.

"F*ck, you're talking as if you've slept." The red-haired man curled his lips.

These people were like brothers and sisters, and they also respected Henry very much. Although they seemed to be laughing and joking with Henry on the surface, in fact, they would carry out Henry's order without hesitation. This respect was from the bottom of their hearts.

When they were going upstairs, Selena saw them.

As soon as she saw this group of cosplay people, Selena immediately showed disdain on his face. In her opinion, this was a group of incompetent people. Moreover, they were all friends of Lin's son-in-law. The woman surnamed Lin invited them to have a meal in the hotel. They were so excited that they couldn't fall asleep. How could they be so good-for-nothing!

Beside Selena, there stood a tall and handsome man in a suit and tie. He looked extraordinary just by standing there, which made people feel that he was extraordinary.

Selena held the man's arm in her arms and said, "Honey, I was bullied just now. You have to help me get revenge!"

"Bullied?" The handsome man's face changed. "Who was it?"

"The one in the front." Selena reached out and pointed to Henry, who was walking with Wade and others.

The handsome man snorted. "They're just clowns. Don't worry. I'll teach them a lesson for you!"

"Husband, you're so great!" Selena kissed the handsome man's face and then glared at Henry with hatred. He was just a son-in-law of the Family Lin. How dare he disrespect her! What right did he have?!

In the Five and Nine room of Glory Hotel, Sylvia was sitting nervously in her seat, thinking about what to say when she saw Henry's friends.

Just as Sylvia was still thinking, the door to the private room opened and a few figures appeared in front of the door. They truly stunned Sylvia.

Sylvia had seen Wade before. Looking at the other people, Sylvia did not expect that Henry's friends were all foreigners.

"Hello, sister-in-law!"

As soon as Wade and others entered the room, they stood in a row and said in unison, just like meeting the wife of the underground boss.

Henry wiped the sweat from his forehead and said, "All right, honey, let me introduce them to you. You have met this guy. His name is Wade White."

"Wade... White..." Sylvia was surprised by Wade's name. She couldn't help but think about it.

Wade smiled awkwardly, nodded and said, "Nice to meet you, sister-in-law."

Once again, Henry pointed at the Sea God. "This is Clan, American. He is a sailor. He likes to be called Sea God by everyone."

"Hello, sister-in-law." Sea God smiled at Sylvia.

"This is Anna Jiang." Henry introduced Future to Sylvia. "This girl is only 20 years old, and she likes to learn about science and technology. Everyone calls her Future, which is also a kind of expectation for her."

"Nice to meet you, sister-in-law." She bowed to Sylvia, just like how an ancient woman would do.

Sylvia covered her mouth and laughed softly, "Miss Anna, you're really interesting."

"This is Felix, a moneybag."

"Hello, sister-in-law." Felix shouted.

Sylvia was a little stunned by Felix's calling her sister-in-law. After all, Wade, Anna or Clan, looked about the same age as Henry. But this Felix was obviously older than Henry. He called her sister-in-law, which might be a little weird.

Wade seemed to read Sylvia's mind. He explained, "Sister-in-law, we're different from others. We've already arranged positions between us, so it's reasonable for Felix to call you sister-in-law."

Sylvia looked at Henry in confusion.

Henry scratched his head. "Honey, that's true. I'll explain later. This is Go, because of his hair, everyone likes to call him Readhead." Henry introduced the red-haired youth to Sylvia.

"Hello, sister-in-law." The red-haired man bared his teeth.

Finally, Henry introduced Moon Goddess to Sylvia, "My dear wife, you have to get along well with her. Lilith is already forty-two years old."

"Hi, sister-in-law," Moon Goddess said to Sylvia with a smile.

"Forty-two years old!" Sylvia opened her mouth wide and looked at Moon Goddess in front of her in disbelief. If Henry didn't tell her, she would only think that this was a young girl of twenty-one or twenty-two years old!

There was no woman who didn't love to be beautiful. When she learned about the true age of Moon Goddess, Sylvia immediately wanted to know about the other party's secret of self-care.

"Okay, honey, just wait and you can chat with Lilith. Everyone, this is my official wife, Sylvia Lin." When Henry said that the word "official", the happiness and sweetness on his face were all seen by everyone.

Lin slightly bowed to everyone. "Hello everyone. Having been together with Henry for such a long time, but this is the first time I'm treating you to a meal. I'm so sorry."

"Sister-in-law, what are you talking about? It's obvious that we didn't come to visit you. Everyone must drink three cups of wine as punishment!" Wade waved his hand and said.

"Yes, yes, yes. I'll punish myself with three cups. I'll punish myself with three cups." Sea God nodded repeatedly.

Chapter 211

This time, Sylvia finally understood why Henry just said that his friends were a little too enthusiastic and polite. This made her a little embarrassed, so she quickly asked everyone to sit at the table.

"Come on, come on, everyone, please take your seats. Waiters, serve the dishes, please."

She ordered good wine and dishes to be placed on the table.

As a successful businesswoman, Sylvia's social nature was very strong. Wade and others' identities were extraordinary, and they were not cowards. Although it was the first time they met, it was easy for them to find common topics. Those topics made Sylvia giggle.

During this period, Sylvia curiously asked where the clothes of Future and Moon Goddess were made. She liked them a lot, and she also wanted to own one.

Moon Goddess and Future indicated that they could give Sylvia a set.

Henry sat aside and listened strangely. The one worn by Future was still okay. It was said that Future had the support of the country and had taken a lot of high-end materials to invent this suit. As a result, it was a suit that enabled people to fly with a design similar to Chinese ancient clothes. Henry speculated that this suit was extremely valuable. Not to mention how much it cost, some materials were extremely rare and could not be bought with money.

The one on Moon Goddess was handed down from the Saintess of the Ancient Moon Temple. To put it bluntly, it was a cultural relic. In the whole of the Moon Temple, there were only two.

Perhaps the Chinese people didn't understand the definition of the Moon Temple, but at the border of the Country of Seals, everyone knew the Moon Temple. It was a great sect with millions of believers, and its influence was very strong.

They had a good meal together. Sylvia still felt a little awkward when she called their names in the beginning, but gradually became familiar with them.

However, what Sylvia did not know was that the names that she had shouted, regardless of whether it was Clan, Lilith, or Go, they were all the names of the western demons. Every single one of them was extremely representative.

The topic of women was nothing more than cosmetics and luxury.

And the men would be competing for wine and bragging.

Five unlicensed vans were parked near the entrance of Glory Hotel. The doors opened and seven people got out of each van. There were thirty-five people in total. All of them were dressed in black Chinese tunic suits. They were standing at the entrance of Glory Hotel.

A middle-aged man with a crew cut and a dragon-head cane was standing at the forefront, staring at the door of Glory Hotel.

"Chief, that's it. According to the information, the woman has booked Five and Nine private room." A man whispered to the middle-aged man with a flattop haircut.

The middle-aged man with flattop haircut nodded and said softly, "Tell everyone to go in separately. First, Anye failed to take over the task, and then Viper Rose lost more than a dozen people in Yinzhou City. There must be masters around that woman. This time, we kill all of them. Only success is allowed. Failure is not allowed. The opportunity to go to the island is too rare."

"Got it!"

The man with the flattop haircut nodded and then issued an order. The thirty-five people who were standing in front of the hotel all dispersed.

The youth with a flattop haircut took out a white handkerchief and placed it in front of his mouth. Coughing twice, he walked into the hotel. In his pocket, there was a photo of Sylvia.

Secret Killers! This was the second strongest assassin organization in the entire northwest region. It was even more powerful than Viper Rose, causing fear in the hearts of others.

There were not many people in this gang, but every single one of them was an elite. Their leader had a super high record of a hundred victims!

At the moment when the Chief Killer of Secret Killers walked into the hotel, the red-haired man, who was still talking and laughing in the box, changed his face. But in an instant, his face returned to normal.

The red-haired man said to Henry with a smile, "Boss, I heard that there is a drink called Erguotou in China. I want to have a try."

Henry and the red-haired man were lifetime brothers. It was no exaggeration to say that they understood each other perfectly. As soon as the red-haired man said that, everyone in the room, except Sylvia, realized that something was wrong.

"Redhead, I'll go buy it for you. Erguotou, is it? I know what's best. Let's go, Sea God. Accompany me." As he spoke, Wade stood up and beckoned the Sea God to leave the private room.

Sea God nodded.

As soon as they stood up, they saw Sylvia stand up. "Let me go. You are guests, how can I let you buy it?"

"That's right. Sit down. I'll go with my wife."

Henry made a gesture to Wade and others.

Wade and the others nodded and sat down again.

Henry and Sylvia walked out of the box side. There was no Erguotou in the hotel, so they had to buy it in the supermarket outside the hotel.

With the help of Henry, the assassins didn't see Sylvia at all. In terms of cover-up, Henry was able to shake off the assassins easily.

After Henry and Sylvia left, Wade asked, "Redhead, what's going on?"

"I have a feeling that something's wrong." The red-haired man shook his head.

Everyone present knew that his spiritual sensitivity was far beyond ordinary people. It was similar to the prediction of the prophet. Although it was not as exaggerated as what was written in books and the movies, the prediction of certain things was very accurate.

Instinctively, everyone cast their eyes to Future.

Future took a small square that was two centimetres long. After turning it back and forth for a few times, the small square was spread into a thin tablet like a folding mobile phone. At the moment on the screen, everything happening in the hotel could be seen.

There was Future's habit. Wherever she went, she would hack into the monitoring equipment of the place. What was displayed on the tablet right now was the camera inside hotel.

Everyone looked at the tablet and saw Chief Killer of Secret Killers, who was walking towards the door of the room with a cane.

At this moment, the assassins didn't know that his whereabouts had been completely known by others. They scattered around the hotel and then gathered in front of the Five and Nine room.

"Boss, looks like that there are several unrelated people with the target together. Are you going to take action?"

Chief Killer looked at the door of the room in front of him. He held his Dragon Head Crutch with both hands and said indifferently, "Kill all of them!"

Member of Secret Killers nodded. With cold murderous intent on their faces, they walked to the door of the room and pushed it open.

The door of the room opened.

The few people who were sitting in the room were all smiling and looking at the door.

The Secret Killers rushed to the room immediately. They were all experienced killers and elites. Since they decided to kill everyone including the target, they would not hesitate at all.

Rushing into the room, Secret Killers did not make any unnecessary noises. In their eyes, there was only the target. They licked their lips with bloodthirstiness. In their eyes, the people in the box were about to become bodies one by one?

"Who's going?" Wade asked while shaking the red wine in his glass. Clearly, the killers had already rushed into the box, but he was still taking his time.

Chapter 212

Downstairs at Glory Hotel.

Henry and Sylvia walked out of the hotel door side by side.

"Honey, why do you have so many foreign friends?" Sylvia asked curiously.

Henry scratched his head and said, "I used to be homeless. Then I ran around the world and got to know them."

"Hum!" Sylvia pouted her mouth. She, who had fallen in love with him, couldn't be seen as the Ice Queen anymore. Instead, she was like an immature little girl. "Tell me, Anna and Lilith are both so beautiful. Have you ever fallen in love with them?"

Henry stumbled and scratched the bridge of Lin's nose. "Honey, what are you thinking?"

Sylvia turned her head and didn't look at Henry. She thought to herself, "Oh, what's wrong with me? Why am I thinking about these things?"

Henry smiled. The jealous look of this woman was really cute. They walked into a supermarket and bought Erguotou.

In the Glory Hotel.

The 35 Secret Killers who came in were lying on the ground. They could see that their limbs were all intact, but they just couldn't move.

The Chief Killer was also lying there, his Dragon Head Crutch was thrown aside.

"You! Who are you?" he looked at the six people in front of him in horror.

"Who are we?" The red-haired man snorted coldly. "Have you always been so blind when it comes to killing?"

He took out a red ring from his pocket and put it on the table.

The moment he saw this ring, Chief Killer contracted violently.

"The... King's ring..."

Under the Holy Ring of Radiant Island, there were ten King's Rings. The owners of the king's rings were known as Demons and Gods by the people of the underground world. Not only did the King's rings represent a person's status, but it also represented the terrifying strength of the owners. They were known as Demons and Gods, which showed how terrifying they were!

Chief Killer looked at Redhead and recalled the description he had of the owner of the red King's ring. He swallowed hard and said, "You're... the Red Demon!"

"Hey, it seems that I'm quite famous." The red-haired man smiled slightly, and then his eyes focused. He looked at the Chief Killer, "Tell me, who made you come and who is your target?"

Chief Killer slowly got up from the ground and took a deep breath. "Sorry, I can't say that."

The red-haired man had expected this answer and continued to say, "I'll give you a chance. I'll count to three. Tell me the answer or Secret Killers will be removed from the list. Remember, I'm never joking."

After saying that, he poured red wine into his empty glass and said, "One."

The expression of the Chief Killer kept changing.

In the underground world, if an organization was removed from the list, it meant that not only all the members of this organization were killed, including their descendants, but also the young shoots that had not grown up, especially those who were related to Secret Killers. They would all be implicated.

In other words, if it was removed from the list, it meant that no one in the underworld would ever hear any news regarding the assassination. No one would even mention these two words. To the leader of this organization, it was even more terrifying than killing him. The organization that had been passed down for countless years had been destroyed by him. Even if he went down the path of the underworld, the ancestors would never forgive him.

The red-haired man picked up the red wine glass and shook it gently. "Two."

"Lord of Disaster, you have no right to remove us. There is a rule on Radiant Island that in order for a second-rate organization to be removed, five or more ring owners must vote together!" The leader of the Secret Killers forced himself to gather his courage.

Redhead stopped abruptly, and he looked around himself.

Sea God took out a sky blue tail ring and put it on the table.

The Moon Goddess took out a dark purple tail ring and put it on her little finger.

Future took out the white ring, which was made into a necklace by her and hung on her white and tender neck.

Felix took out a black card and a golden ring. He embedded it into this card that could be overdrawn limitlessly.

Wade took out a black tail ring.

Five Rings of different colours appeared in front of the Chief Killer, which made his face change completely.

He looked at the six people sitting at the table in front of him, feeling like he was dreaming.

They were... the owners of the six King's Rings on Radiant Island! He just attacked the owners of King's rings!

Although he hadn't seen the horror of these six people with his own eyes, he knew something about it. The Six Great Kings could overturn a small country at will. If they wanted to, the Six Great Kings could even start a world war. They were not only powerful but also had huge forces behind them!

He only thought that it was an ordinary mission, but he had provoked the Six Great Kings!

Sitting together with the Six Great Kings, eating together and talking cheerfully, what was the identity of their target this time!

No wonder!

No wonder Anye failed!

It was no wonder that there were more than a dozen sneaky viper Rose's people killed. In this world, except for the one who had the Holy Ring, no one dared to say that he could complete this mission.

This was a life-threatening task!

Chief Killer didn't know how to describe his feelings at this moment.

"How about that? Do you want me to count the last number?" The red-haired man asked again.

The chief shook his head slowly. "Your Excellency, I'm willing to tell you."

"Go ahead."

"It's Miss Cesia. She entrusted us to assassinate a woman named Sylvia Lin..."

As soon as the word "Cesia" was uttered, the six people sitting at the table looked at each other at the same time and fell into silence.

Witch Cesia, the owner of the Radiant Island's five-coloured King's Ring...

When Henry came back with two bottles of Erguotou in his hand, the room had returned to normal. It seemed that Secret Killers had never appeared. Sylvia would never have thought that so many things would happen in the time when she went downstairs to buy wine.

Wade and the others didn't show any weird signs. They continued to gulp down large mouthfuls of wine and meat.

These people, if there was just a little disturbance, they could feel it. Even if there was a murder in the last second and they were in a bad mood, in the next second, they could act as nothing had happened. They did what they should do. In other words, even if they knew that they would fight for their lives an hour later, they would still enjoy a well-prepared meal. After that, they would fight for their lives.

During the banquet, everyone was still talking and laughing.

"You don't know, do you? Boss has stopped smoking! He said that sister-in-law didn't allow him to smoke!" Wade squinted and smiled.

"D*mn, no way? Our boss who smoked two boxes a day before, was able to stop smoking?" The red-haired man's eyes were wide open, and it seemed that he couldn't believe it.

Moon Goddess shook her head. "Alas, a dangerous man. He could even quit smoking. What can't he do?"

Looking at the sweet and happy look on Henry's face, everyone could not help but think of a sentence.

Men conquered the world, and women conquered the men.

Chapter 213

After the assassins of Secret Killers left Glory Hotel, they began to flee in panic.

An unlicensed van was parked in a small alley. The Chief Killer was holding a Dragon Head Crutch. Just as he was about to get on the van, he heard a gloomy voice coming from behind him.

"Where are you going?"

The voice seemed to come from the bottom of the hell, making him feel bone-chilling cold.

The Chief Killer slowly turned around. When he saw the figure with a mask and a sharp knife in his hand, his face was as pale as ashes.

The other side came with a knife in hand. He waved the knife in his hand at the Chief Killer.

The edge of the knife became larger and larger in front of the chief's eyes. At this moment, he recalled what he had heard before.

Reaper was everywhere!

Selena brought her husband to Five and Nine room. Listening to the laughter coming from the room, Selena's face was full of displeasure.

"Husband, they are sitting in there. Family Lin invited them to dinner and just helped that guy humiliate me. You have to avenge me!"

"The Lins?" Selena's husband showed disdain on his face. "It's just a small company in a remote area. How can they fight against me? Let's go and meet them!"

Selena's husband pushed open the door of the private room.

As soon as he entered the door, the people inside the door subconsciously laid their eyes on him.

When Sylvia saw Selena standing at the door, her face suddenly changed and she stood up. "Sister Selena, what's the matter?"

Today was the first time for Sylvia to invite Henry's friends to dinner. She didn't want to encounter any unpleasant things.

"Nothing much. I just came here to have a look." Selena said with a proud face. "By the way, let me introduce my husband, Troy Fu, chairman of Puying Business Company of Anshi."

Troy looked arrogant. After glancing around the room, he often looked at the Moon Goddess, Future and Sylvia.

Although Selena was also a beauty, compared with the three women in the room who had different styles, she looked ordinary.

Selena then turned to Troy and said, "Honey, this is Sylvia Lin, the president of Lins Group."

"I know Lins Group." Troy nodded and said, "I remember that one year or two ago, people of Lins Group came to me for cooperation but I refused. After all, it's just a small company. It's a bit odd to send a representative to come, isn't it?"

Troy's words covered a variety of meanings. First of all, he didn't take the Lins Group seriously. He ridiculed the Lins for being a small company and highlighted his own status at the same time.

Sylvia's face changed and she said, "Sister Selena, if you and your partner are here for a drink, I welcome you. If you need me for other things, I'm sorry, I have important friends here today. We can talk another day."

"Another day? What do you mean? Look at this group of people. They're dressed like idiots, are they non-mainstream?" Selena looked at Redhead and covered her mouth with a smile.

Peng!

Sylvia slammed her palm on the table, which gave Wade and the others a big scare.

"Selena Zhu, you've gone too far!" Sylvia glared at Selena.

Wade retracted his head and said to Felix beside him in a low voice, "You don't have to say, when eldest sister-in-law gets angry, she still has a bit of power."

"That's absolutely necessary." Felix replied in a small voice. "In the future, when sister-in-law ascends to the island, when this power is brought out, those generals will shiver like leaves.

Selena looked at Sylvia with indifference, "What? Am I wrong? Sylvia, your taste now is getting more and more disgusting. To be honest, if others say that I know you, I feel ashamed. Sitting at a table with these non-mainstream people, I feel awkward all over when I think about it."

When Selena spoke, she shivered deliberately.

"Selena, you'd better be respectful when you speaking!" Sylvia gritted her teeth, her eyes filled with fury.

"If not?" Troy chuckled and said, "You are a member of Lins Group. I heard that you have received several big orders recently. So what? With a total amount of ten billion yuan, it's impossible for a company like yours to turn the world upside down."

Troy's face was full of disdain. He found that after mocking Sylvia, the other two beauties with different styles in the room looked at him, which made him very satisfied. He even thought that it would be cool if he could bring these two beautiful women to bed tonight.

Troy, who was complacent and self-satisfied, didn't know that Future and Moon Goddess were looking at him as if they were looking at a fool.

Speaking of asset of Boss's woman? They truly admired his courage. Ask Felix if his father would dare to do something like this!

Sylvia's pretty face was a little gloomy, and her face was not good-looking. "Mr. Fu, although my company is small, we are not at the mercy of others, so you cannot bully us!"

"Bully? Did I bully you? I'm just stating a fact!" Troy crossed his arms over his chest. He glanced over the people in the room again. "Alas, it's hard to imagine what a moneyless day would be like. If I lived a rough life every day, I would rather die than live, hahaha."

With a burst of laughter, Troy left the room.

Selena smiled at Sylvia. "I'm really sorry, President Lin. My husband is like this, outspoken. However, what he said is also the truth, right? A company like your Lins Group is really not worthy of my husband's attention. And these non-mainstream losers. Looking at their appearances, it's really disgusting."

Selena let out a chuckle, followed behind her husband, and left the room.

Standing in the room, Sylvia was so angry that her heart beat faster. Today, it was the first time that she saw Henry's friends, but such a thing happened! She was so angry, but at the same time, she also felt sorry.

"Honey, don't be angry. Sit down quickly." Looking at Sylvia's trembling face, Henry comforted her. They didn't take Selena and Troy's words seriously. They just thought that they were two clowns, making fun of each other.

Sylvia took in a deep breath and revealed an apologetic smile towards Wade and the others, "I'm really sorry, I..."

"Sister-in-law! Don't say such words. If you apologize to us, it will be a slap in our face. Come on, have a drink first. It's okay." Wade raised his glass.

Although everyone tried their best to ease the atmosphere, what happened just now really made Sylvia unhappy. After all, she was the host and also attached great importance to today's dinner. It was difficult to forget about such a thing.

Sylvia's lack of interest was clearly seen by everyone present.

Redhead sent a signal to Felix, who nodded, walked out of the room, and made a call.

Chapter 214

At the end of the dinner, Henry suggested that everyone leave and meet again the next day.

Sylvia apologized once again.

After leaving the hotel, Sylvia walked beside Henry. She lowered her head and her beautiful face was full of shame. "Honey, I'm really sorry about what happened today."

"What are you talking about?" Henry looked at the woman next to him and took the initiative to hold her little hand.

This hand-holding gesture made Sylvia's body tremble. She looked up at the man next to her, who was looking at her with a smile.

"Honey, are you sure you don't blame me?" Sylvia asked carefully.

Henry looked at Sylvia strangely. "Blame you? Why should I blame you? Everyone was having a good meal and chatted well. We're all very happy. I have to thank you. You don't know how much Wade envied me for finding such a good wife."

Henry's straightforward praise made Sylvia blush. She turned her head in a hurry, raised her legs, and took a step forward slowly. "Honey, Wade said that you quit smoking for me. They can't believe it."

"Ha, ha." Henry laughed. "Why? For you, I'm willing to do anything, not to mention quit smoking."

Sylvia, who was slowly walking forward, stopped. She turned around and stood face to face with Henry. The woman's small hand that was grabbed by Henry held Henry's big hand. She tiptoed, kissed Henry's side face like a dragonfly skimming the water. Then she let go of Henry's hand, turned around, and strode forward.

This kiss made Henry shocked for a few seconds. He touched his side face, with the fragrance of a woman's lips.

Seeing that the woman had gone far, Henry, who was full of joy, quickly followed her.

On the other side, Selena and her husband, Troy, walked out of the hotel after eating and drinking.

During the meal, Troy's mind was full of the two gorgeous beauties in Henry's room. Each of them could be said to be perfect.

Although Troy met a lot of models in the past, he had never met such a top-grade one, which made him feel itchy in his heart.

Selena drank three rounds and her face turned red. She held Troy's arm and said coquettishly with her charming eyes, "Husband, let's find a place to rest. I can't wait."

Troy looked at Selena's appearance and swallowed his saliva. Although this woman's appearance and figure couldn't be compared with the two women just now, Selena was extremely good in bed.

Holding Selena in his arms, Troy directly returned to Glory hotel. They were going to get a big room.

"Ah! Isn't that Mr. Fu?" A beautiful woman in white walked towards him and looked at Troy in surprise.

Troy's heart jumped when he saw this woman. Wasn't she the one he saw in the room just now? Was she waiting for him specifically?

Troy smiled with satisfaction in his heart. He had seen this trick so many times that these women came to him when his family property was exposed. Looking at the beautiful and graceful figure and perfect facial features, Troy swallowed hard.

"Why, beautiful? Are you looking for me?" Troy pretended to be polite and asked.

"No, no." Future waved her hand repeatedly.

"It's just a coincidence."

"Coincidence?"

Troy sneered in his heart. He had seen this kind of behaviour too many times. She would pretend to have gone the wrong way at night and then they would meet by chance, right?

Troy deliberately ignored Future. He walked to the front desk of the hotel and took out his bank card. "A presidential suite."

After he said that he wanted the presidential suite, Troy looked at Future and found that this woman was looking at him. He was more convinced in his heart that this beautiful woman tonight was going to come into his bed on her own initiative, and he could still do a cosplay with her. Not bad!

The front desk of the hotel took the card Troy handed over and operated it for a while. Then she handed the bank card back to Troy with an apologetic look and said, "I'm sorry, sir. Your card is frozen."

"Frozen?" Troy frowned and took out another card. "Take this one."

"I'm sorry, sir. Frozen as well."

"How's that possible!?" Troy found it strange. The limit of his two cards was high. They were tied to the company, so how could it be frozen?

He took out his personal bank card and said, "Let's use this."

The first two cards used the company's money, and now this one was used for his personal spendings.

The girl at the front desk of the hotel took the bank card with a smile. A minute later, she said again, "I'm sorry, sir. The balance of this card is not enough."

"The balance is not enough!" Troy's voice immediately rose. He glanced at her subconsciously and found that the beautiful woman in white was looking at him with a smile on her face, which made him feel a little embarrassed. He asked the front desk of the hotel loudly, "How is it possible? How can my card be short of the balance?"

A professional smile appeared on the front desk of the hotel. "Sir, I would like to know how to answer your question."

"Impossible!" Troy waved his hand. "Again! That's definitely impossible."

The front desk of the hotel had tried several times, but all indicated that the balance was not enough.

Selena held Troy's arm and said in a delicate voice, "Husband, what is it going? I can't wait any longer."

"Again!" Troy said to the hotel's front desk again.

"Oh, you don't have to try!" Future standing on the side laughed. "Mr. Fu, your credit cards are all frozen, and you don't have any money in your bank card."

"What do you mean?" Troy frowned.

"It's just that Felix bought your company, and now this company is mine. Five minutes ago, I sold all the stocks and donated all the money to rural areas. Your credit cards were bound to the company was frozen. As for the money in your card." Her big eyes were rolling around in the future. "Before Felix bought your company, he took a crackdown on stocks. All your money is lost!"

"Lost? Are you kidding me?" Troy stared at Future. Obviously, he didn't believe her words.

"Don't worry, she's not kidding you." Felix came out from the side. "The Puying Commercial Co. of Anshi had a market value of one hundred and thirty-six billion dollars, and the stock is worth ninety-three billion dollars. I spent one hundred sixty billion dollars to lower the price of your company's shares. At that time, as the shareholder, the money in your card was naturally gone. By the way, a hundred sixty billion dollars is nothing in my eyes. But it seems to be everything for you."

As Felix spoke, he took out a pocket watch from his pocket.

Looking at the watch in Felix's hand, Troy's first reaction was, "It's fake!"

When people had a certain amount of money, they would have different hobbies. Troy's hobby was collecting watches. He just heard about the watch taken out by Felix, but he couldn't afford it.

Chapter 215

Felix seemed to read Troy's thoughts, "Relax, it's original, there are photos of buyers on the official website, you can go now to see. Patek Philippe, the price of ordinary models is 24 million dollars, including the perpetual calendar, Westminster Bell Times, sunrise and sunset times, and celestial charts, the night sky that the 20th-century American banker Graves could see. And my watch is a limited edition specially customized for me, priced at 170 million dollars. I won't tell you about the functions inside, because people of your class can't use them. Now this watch."

After Felix spoke halfway, he loosened his hand that was holding the pocket watch. The watch worth a hundred and seventy million dollars naturally fell to the ground, and then it was stepped down heavily by Felix.

"Now, I don't want this watch. Don't doubt it. My action is to show off my wealth in front of you. A hundred and seventy million dollars has no difference from a penny in my eyes."

At this moment, Troy's cell phone rang. It was from his father. Troy picked up the phone, and the first words made his face extremely ugly.

"Son, something happened to our family. The public said that you provoked a big shark, and the company's stocks were all suppressed. All the shares that were scattered outside were completely acquired, and then donated and the company went bankrupt. In the past five minutes, my phone was completely occupied by the bank. I just took the time to tell you that you should find a place to hide. We can't pay off this debt in our lifetime."

Troy looked dull. His cell phone naturally fell to the ground, and the screen was smashed.

If Troy was still suspicious of what Felix had said just now, he still had no choice but to believe this phone call. His own family had truly gone bankrupt because of these people in front of him. All of them were dressed in very unconventional clothes.

"Dear, what's wrong?" Selena, who was a little drunk, did not realize what had happened. "Hurry up and get a room, dear."

"Get out of my way!" Troy pushed Selena away. At this moment, all his anger was vented on Selena. If it weren't for this woman who had caused trouble for him, how could such a thing have happened today? It was her! She had harmed him for a lifetime! It was her!

Selena's slightly drunk nerves woke up because of Troy's action. "Husband, what's wrong?"

"What's wrong?" Troy gasped. "B*tch, I'll beat you to death!"

Troy cursed in exasperation and slapped Selena heavily on the face.

Selena, who was still in a daze, didn't understand what was going on. She saw her husband go crazy and asked, "Husband, what's going on?"

"What's wrong? You still have the nerve to ask me what's wrong!" Troy kicked Selena in the belly and she fell to the ground. "If it weren't for you, a b*tch, how could I have offended these big sharks? Uh?"

"Big sharks?" Selena was still confused.

"Mrs. Zhu, your husband's company has just been acquired by me. Now, he has gone bankrupt." Felix stood aside and looked at Selena and her husband as if they were a joke.

"Bankrupt? Husband, how can you listen to these brain-dead people? Look at them, how can they..."

"Cut the crap!" Troy strode over and slapped Selena in the face. Selena swallowed the rest of her words before she could say anything.

Troy said, "My father has just called me. My family is going bankrupt! It's going bankrupt!"

He shouted at Selena.

"If it weren't for you, how could I have encountered such a thing? B*tch! B*tch!" Troy kept waving his palm and hitting Selena in the face.

After a few slaps, Troy finally vented the anger in his heart. Over and over again, regret welled up in his heart. He thought about what his father just said on the phone and asked him to hide as soon as possible, and he was scared to death.

Troy couldn't accept the fact that he had changed from a young master to a rat on the street.

Looking at Felix and Future, Troy bent his knees and knelt down on the spot.

"Masters, please spare me. I was bewitched by this woman!"

"Tsk, tsk." Felix shook his head. "I remember that someone just said that if he were to eat or drink a simple meal every day, he would rather die. I really don't know if he can do it or not. I really want to see."

"No! Master, I was wrong! I was wrong!" Troy's voice was full of sobs. The feeling of falling from heaven to hell almost made him collapse. "Please forgive me this time. I beg you, please forgive me this time!"

"Haha." Felix sneered. "Come over and lick my shoe soles."

Troy was stunned. Then, as if he had made a decision, he knelt down and crawled towards Felix.

"Get lost!" When Troy crawled to Felix, he was kicked away by him. "You think you're good enough to lick my soles?"

"I don't deserve it! I don't deserve it!" Troy shook his head repeatedly. He waved his hand and kept slapping his face. "I'm sorry, I'm sorry."

"Hehe." Felix sneered, then turned around and walked out of the hotel.

With a bright smile on her face, Future also jumped out of the hotel.

Troy, kneeling there, saw with his own eyes that Felix and Future got a longer version of the Rolls-Royce. The license plate number of five numbers on it made his face full of fear.

In the car, the red-haired man leaned against his seat. Through the window, he looked at Troy, who was kneeling in the hotel lobby.

"Have you let him go so easily?"

"Let's just leave it like this. The older brother is currently concealing his identity. We just need to punish him a bit." Wade spoke.

If Troy was from the underground world and dared to insult the owner of the King of Light Island, or even the owner of the ring, or even Sylvia, he would be dead now.

The extended version of the Rolls-Royce went away gradually.

Henry Henry and Sylvia also strolled back home.

After having drunk quite a bit of wine at night, Sylvia was a little tipsy. A blush had surfaced on her pretty face, making her look extremely cute.

"Husband, it's a deal. After I finish work tomorrow, let's go out for a walk." Sylvia stood in front of the bedroom and smiled at Henry.

"Okay." Henry nodded and watched Sylvia walk into the bedroom.

"Honey..." Henry looked at Sylvia's charming back and rubbed his hands.

"Yeah?"

"It's getting colder and colder these days. If you sleep alone, you'll wake up from the cold in the evening." Henry bared his teeth. Beside him, there was an indoor thermometer showing a temperature of 31 degrees. This was definitely a temperature that made people feel hot even when they slept naked.

Lin's pretty face turned red. With a "Pa" sound, she closed the bedroom door, and a voice came from the door, "Not so easy. You haven't officially chased me!"

Chapter 216

"Chase?"

Regarding this word, in Henry's consciousness, there was only one definition - hunting down the enemy. About chasing a woman, to be honest, Henry had no experience.

After returning to his room, Henry took out his mobile phone and called Wade. The first thing he did was to inquire about how Wade handled the matter. If Troy dared to insult Sylvia, it would be impossible for Henry to let him go.

"Don't worry, boss. That guy is crying bitterly and regretting it," Wade replied.

"Okay." Henry nodded. "By the way, I have something to ask you."

"What's the matter, boss?"

"How do you chase a girl?"

"Chase... a girl?" Wade's voice was full of weirdness.

Through the phone, Henry could figure out what kind of expression Wade was now.

"Cut the crap. Tell me now."

"Boss, you didn't really chase a girl, did you?"

Henry asked in reply, "Of course. Would I ask you if I've chased?"

Wade thought, "It's true. Wherever the boss goes, he would be chased. The princess of the French royal family and a woman that belonged to Swiss royalty, both beautiful women, the princesses of big families, were all chasing my boss. I have never seen a woman who was chased by my boss."

Henry saw that Wade kept silent for a long time on the phone. He said anxiously, "What are you thinking, kid? Tell me now!"

Wade hesitated for a long time and spat out two words, "Impress her with money!"

Through the phone, Henry gave Wade a thumbs-up and hung up. He knew that Wade could do nothing.

However, the word "money" also reminded Henry. Henry really realized that he had not given Sylvia any gifts.

Thinking of this, Henry made a phone call.

On the morning of the next day, because she did not have to go to work, Sylvia didn't get up very early. She didn't go out until 10 o'clock and told Henry that she was going to do deal with something. After finishing her work, she would contact Henry and ask him to get ready to leave.

They had already discussed what should they do on the way home last night. They decided to travel alone by car. They could stop wherever they wanted as long as the scenery was good.

After Sylvia went out, Henry, like a houseman, was ready to go to the supermarket to buy some goods for the trip. As for what to buy, Henry was so clear that he went to the largest market in Yinzhou.

After turning for half an hour, Henry suddenly found that there was a noise at the entrance of the market.

Henry walked over curiously, but before he could see what was happening, he heard a burst of abuse.

"I tell you, if you don't pay the money today, you can't leave! Run! Let me see you run!"

"Do you think that we are a charity? If you say that you won't return our money, we should just be okay with it?"

This wave of curses caused the surrounding onlookers to speak up one after another.

"Hey, she looks like a pretty little girl, why wouldn't she pay back the money?"

"That's right. People nowadays don't know each other's intentions. Haven't you heard that this girl owes others 100,000 yuan?"

"100,000! How could she owe that much? It can't be usury, can it?"

"That's for sure. Otherwise, why would she owe so much? Why would she be forced to pay the money back? The people here are too generous. They can't make so much money, but still spent a lot."

Henry walked over and glanced at the girl, but his face changed.

He saw a little girl standing in the crowd, forced into a corner by four strong men. And that little girl was Amity Qiu!

"100,000 yuan? Return the money? What's going on?"

According to Henry's understanding of Amity, it was impossible for her to take usury. Besides, Amity was worth more than 100,000 yuan. A couple of days ago Lin's 250,000 yuan bonus was given.

"Come on, get out of the way!" Henry squeezed into the crowd and went straight to the strong men. "What's going on?"

The four strong men looked at Henry. "Boy, it's none of your business. Go away!"

"I didn't ask you!" Henry looked at them impatiently and turned to look at Amity, "Girl, what's going on?"

"Brother... Henry?" It was obvious that Amity didn't expect to meet Henry here. She lowered her head and dared not to look at Henry.

"What's going on?" Henry frowned. "Do you really owe them money?"

Amity nodded gently and replied softly, "Yes."

"Brat, it's none of your business. If you delay me again, believe it or not, I'll beat you up!"

"Beauty, it's okay if you want to delay for two days. You're pretty. Let's have some fun. What do you think?" One of them looked at Amity, his eyes full of a dirty feeling.

"Kid, fuck off!" A man grabbed Henry's shoulder and wanted to push Henry away.

Henry grabbed man's arm twisted it gently, which made the other side scream in pain.

"It hurts! It hurts! Be gentle, be gentle!"

Henry snorted coldly and pushed the man away. "If you want money, take it. If you don't keep your dirty mouth closed, I'll tear your mouth off! 100,000 yuan, right? Give me an account and I'll transfer it now!"

When they heard that Henry wanted to pay back the money, the strong men looked at each other with surprise.

"Hey, the hero saved the beauty? Okay, here's account." A strong man took out a bank card photo from his mobile phone and took out an IOU. "Here is the IOU. Pay the money and take the IOU away."

Henry looked at the things in the strong man's hands and asked Amity, "Girl, it's this, right?"

"Yes." The sound of Amity was like the sound of a mosquito, and she nodded.

After Amity confirmed, Henry did not say anything and directly transferred 100,000 yuan. At the same time, he took the IOU from the strong man's hand and tore it up on the spot.

No matter why Amity owed 100,000 yuan, Henry could help her once because of the performance when she signed the contract.

After confirming the payment, the strong man nodded with satisfaction and said, "Okay, good. Remember, two days later, there are still 100,000 yuan left. Boy, I hope you can pay it for her! For a woman, 200,000 yuan! Tsk, tsk, I don't know if she's worth it!"

After the strong man finished speaking, he turned around and left with his men.

Henry frowned and said, "Girl, what's going on?"

He turned around to look at Amity and noticed that the girl's eyes were red. Without saying anything, tears flowed down her eyes.

Henry tore open the tissue he just bought and wiped the tears for Amity. "Okay, don't cry. Tell me if you have anything to say. Why do you owe me so much money?"

Amity wiped away his tears and sobbed, "Brother... Brother Henry... thank you... for this money... I... I will pay you back."

"Let's talk about the money return later. How could you be in debt? Didn't the company just give you 250,000 yuan as a bonus?"

Amity struggled to spit out two words, "My father."

Chapter 217

In a coffee shop not far from the market, Henry and Amity respectively ordered the cheapest coffee and sat opposite each other at a small round table.

Henry frowned when he heard what Amity said.

Amity was from a single-parent family. Her father was a gambler. Her mother had left with other man a few years ago. In the past few years, Amity's father not only gave up his family's property but also owed hundreds of thousands in debts.

At that time, after Amity had received the 250,000 yuan bonus, the first thing she had done was to help her father pay the debts. However, the 250,000 yuan was far from enough.

In the case of many debts, and with his daughter working in Lins Group as a guarantor, Amity's father borrowed more than 100,000 yuan. The person who gave the money couldn't get it back from Amity's father, so he went after Amity. So, the scene that Henry saw today happened.

Amity told Henry that she had been hiding from these people for a very long time.

"Brother Henry, there's actually one thing that I've always wanted to ask you, but I don't know if I should say it or not." Amity picked up her cup and took a sip. She sounded very timid.

"Go ahead."

"The car, I want to sell it... but it was given to me by Mr. Homer. I don't know if I should sell it or not." There was an uncertainty in the eyes of Amity.

Hearing this, Henry sighed. "Girl, I really don't know what to say. Since the car has been given to you by Homer, it belongs to you completely. It is up to you if you want to sell it and give it to someone else."

Henry shook his head and felt a little helpless. This girl, Amity, was too simple and kind. In this society, if someone else owned a car worth two million yuan, he would immediately show off. He would wish that the whole world knew that he had a luxury car.

"Well," Amity put down the coffee cup and said, "Brother Henry, then I'm going to sell the car. I'm just a young employee now. It's really not suitable for me to drive a car worth two million yuan. After selling the car, I can pay the money for my father and open a shop for him. Then my life will be smooth. But I don't know where to sell it. Can you help me?"

"Okay." Henry nodded without hesitation.

He did not say anything like "I'll give you money" to the Amity. Everyone had their own lifestyle. Henry did not want to help the Amity in this way, but he did not think that Amity would accept his charity.

After getting Henry's affirmative answer, Amity was very happy. After making this decision, all the difficulties placed in front of Amity were easily solved.

Henry didn't know much about how to sell a second-hand car. He called Wade. Wade was very interested in luxury cars. When he had nothing else to do, he would buy something like that. When Henry told him the model, Wade said that he could buy this car at 20% cheaper than the market price.

For the second-hand luxury car, it was fair to lower the price by 20%.

After all, for the people who could afford this kind of luxurious car, most of them did not care about one or two hundred thousand dollars. What they really cared about was their dignity. They would rather spend one or two hundred thousand dollars more. As for the ones who could buy one of these luxurious cars, they would not choose the second-hand one at a low price.

When she learned that her car could still be sold for one million and five hundred thousand, Amity was very happy. To her, this was a windfall.

Amity brought Henry to her residence.

It was not until then that Henry realized that the place where Amity lived was so old that it was exactly the same as the shantytown where he lived when he was a child.

It was a completely isolated board building. The wall of the building had fallen off, and it had a total of six floors. The entrance of the corridor was very narrow, and all the garbage was piled up in front of it, giving off a stinky smell.

Henry observed the people living here. Everyone looked tired and in a hurry. For the sake of their livelihood, there was no hope and no anger on their faces.

This made Henry sigh. He knew this feeling very well. In the past, he was also like this. Every day, he did not think about making money to play, nor thinking about buying new clothes. He only thought about how to have a meal.

Every floor had four units, and Amity's place was the third unit on the fourth floor.

The corridor was very narrow, and the ground was covered with dust. No one was there to clean it. The doors of Amity's house was an old blue security door with a gauze net, which could be opened with one hand.

When Amity opened the door, she invited Henry in.

Henry took a look and found that the house of Amity was very small, only more than 40 square meters, with two bedrooms and one living room. The furniture was also very shabby, but it was very tidy.

"Brother Henry, it's a little old. Please don't mind," Amity said apologetically.

Henry waved his hand. He had not seen such a house for many years. When he was a child, he and his mother lived in such a house. But at that time, he and his mother only had a small bedroom. Even if he had to go to the toilet, he had to look at ask other tenants.

She did not carry the keys of the car with her but kept them at home. Her car was not driven very often, and based on her conditions, she could not afford to add gas.

Amity ran into her bedroom. After looking for more than ten minutes, she still could not find the car keys.

"Strange!" She frowned slightly and looked around the room. Suddenly, she exclaimed, "Oh no!"

"What's wrong?" Henry asked in confusion.

"Brother Henry, wait for me." Amity shouted and ran downstairs without explaining anything to Henry.

Henry followed Amity and came to an open-air parking lot 300 meters away from this board building.

As soon as Amity came to the parking lot, her little face turned pale and she muttered, "It's over... the car... has been taken away by my father."

Henry looked at Amity who was about to cry again. He stepped forward and comforted, "Don't worry, what happened? Tell me."

"Brother Henry, the car must have been taken by my dad to gamble. He has always wanted the car. I didn't give it to him. If it was taken away by him, everything will be ruined!" Amity was extremely flustered. The hope for the life she just saw was shattered again.

"Well, don't worry." Henry grabbed Amity's shoulders. "Do you know where your father usually goes?"

Amity nodded. "Yes, I do."

"Okay, let's go there first. It's still not too late."

Henry waved his hand and stopped a taxi. When Amity said the words "Drunken Fairy Building", Henry understood.

The place on the top floor of the Drunken Fairy Building was run by the Chow's. Henry had seen too many casinos like this, and the croupiers inside were all masters. It was simply an idiotic dream to win money in this casino.

When the taxi arrived at the Drunken Fairy Building, Henry and Amity saw the Maserati parked in front of the Drunken Fairy Building at a glance.

Chapter 218

Although Amity knew that her father was gambling in this place, it was her first time here. Everything seemed very strange and cowardly.

On the contrary, Henry took the lead and brought Amity to the top floor of Q restaurant. The luxurious gambling table and the gamblers of different shapes and appearances made the house full of noise, which made Amity a little scared. Only hiding behind Henry could she feel safe.

"Look, which one is your father?"

Looking at all the gambling tables, Amity shook her head and said, "I don't see him."

"Don't see him?" Henry felt strange. Just now, he and Amity had already seen the car downstairs.

"Over there!" Amity suddenly cried out as she pointed with her finger.

Henry looked at the direction where Amity pointed and saw a middle-aged man with a vicissitudinous face sitting on a sofa and chatting with a young man.

"Brother Meng, didn't we have a deal? You said you would pay 200,000 for this car. How come it's only 50,000 dollars now?" Mark said to the young man in front of him with an ingratiating look on his face.

The young man pursed his lips and lit a cigarette for himself. He breathed out a mouthful of smoke and said, "Old man, except for one car, you didn't give me anything else. Why should I pay you two hundred thousand yuan? I tell you, fifty thousand yuan is a generous price. If you don't want to sell it, forget it. Let's see who takes it."

"Brother Meng, please don't." Mark rubbed her hands together. "Why don't you give me another commission? It's okay to give me 100,000. I'll pay you some money back."

"Fk you!" Brother Meng flicked the cigarette butt in his hand onto Mark's body. "I said 50,000, it's 50,000. Where did you find so much nonsense, old man?"

After being hit by the cigarette butt, Mark was not angry. He still had a fawning smile on his face and said, "Brother Meng, don't be angry. It's just that 50,000... it's indeed a bit too little."

"Too little? Don't sell it if you think it's too little!" Brother Meng looked as if he was going to take advantage of him.

"Okay, then he won't sell it. This big brother, take care and don't see us off." Henry walked over from the side with Amity.

Henry's voice immediately attracted the attention of the two who were negotiating.

Mark's expression changed when he saw Amity. His face was filled with embarrassment. "Amity, why are you here?"

"Dad!" Amity's small face was filled with anger. "If I didn't come, would you really sell my car?"

"I haven't sold it yet." Mark rubbed his hands together. "I'm talking to Brother Meng about the price."

"There's no need to talk. Dad, we won't sell it." Amity stepped forward, grabbed her father's arm, and was about to walk away.

"How can I not sell it!" Mark threw aside the arm of Amity and said, "Amity! Can you understand something? Why do you keep this car? When dad sells it, I will no longer gamble after today. I promise you to find a good job, okay?"

After that, he smiled ingratiatingly at Brother Meng. "Brother Meng, this little girl is not sensible. Don't mind her."

"Hey!" Brother Meng's eyes kept on hitting on Amity, and his eyes were filled with strong possessiveness. "Old thing, is this your daughter? Why do you still hide such a beautiful daughter? How about this, let your daughter come over and talk to me, and I will add 50,000 yuan to you."

Hearing this, Mark, who had been fawning on him, waved his hand repeatedly. "Brother Meng, you can't do that. She's still young. I'll sell the car to you for 50,000 yuan."

"No, we won't sell it!" Amity pulled Mark's arm hard and whispered in his ear, "Dad, Brother Henry has already found a good buyer for me. I can sell it for 1.5 million!"

"What!" The number caused Mark's eyes to widen in disbelief!

"One million and five hundred thousand yuan! Did I mishear it? Brother Meng said that this car could only give me two hundred thousand yuan at most, which is still a friendly price! And now it can be sold for one million and five hundred thousand yuan? Isn't the difference too big?"

Although Mark was addicted to gambling and did not understand cars, he was not stupid. He immediately realized what was going on. He waved to Brother Meng and said, "Brother Meng, I'm really sorry. This car belongs to my daughter. If she doesn't let me sell it, I really can't sell it."

After saying that, he pulled Amity and was about to walk out of the casino.

Seeing that Mark refused to sell the car, Brother Meng was not happy on the spot. To tell the truth, he had even found a buyer for this car. After receiving the car today, it would be a huge sum of money in the blink of an eye. Could this cooked duck be allowed to fly away?

"You don't want to sell it? You say you don't want to sell it? I've brought all my money. Old man, you are fucking playing with me!" Brother Meng shouted.

Mark shrank his head subconsciously and squeezed out a friendly smile. "Brother Meng, isn't it the same for both parties to be involved in the transaction? Can't I just not sell it?"

"No way!" Brother Meng slapped the table.

With Brother Meng's action, more than ten youths came over immediately. They all stared at Mark and his daughter with unkind looks on their faces.

Looking at this scene, Mark was so scared that he huddled together and said subserviently, "Meng..."

Meng--Brother Meng... This... this car is not mine, it's... my daughter's."

"Then I'll have your daughter stay here. I'll talk to her!" Brother Meng stared at Amity. "Beautiful lady, come, your older brother will have a chat with you?"

Henry walked to the front of Amity to block Brother Meng's sight. He said to Brother Meng, "Brother, isn't it a bit against the rules to do this?"

"Who the hell are you?" Brother Meng looked at Henry unhappily. "If you're here, you'll follow my rules! It's none of your business. Get out of my way!"

"Ha." Henry chuckled and shook his head. "Are all the people nowadays so arrogant? He found that the less experienced people were, the more arrogant they were. Even those arrogant big brothers in Ao City's casino dare not say that they set the rules."

Mark pulled Henry's clothes and said in a low voice, "Little brother, you can't mess with them. They don't stop until they kill someone when they start fighting!"

Looking at the people around her, Amity was also very scared. When had she ever seen such a scene? The old employees in the company had bullied her and she dared not to speak, let alone these people.

"Brother Henry, shall we... report it to the police?"

"Call the police? Who dares to do that?" Brother Meng took out an expandable baton and said, "You fu*king go out and inquire. This is the place of the Chows. You call the police?"

Henry smiled and said, "What? Can Chow's family ignore the rules?"

Brother Meng scolded with an arrogant face, "F*ck, Chow family is the law!"

"Can you represent the Chows?" Henry asked.

"Are you kidding me? Brother Meng is here to control the situation. How could you ask him if he can represent the Chows? Boy, who are you?" One of Brother Meng's men asked.

Henry glanced at the group of young people and nodded with satisfaction. "Well, as long as he can represent, that's good. Today, if Danny Chow does not give me an explanation, the Chows will stop existing."

Chapter 219

As soon as Henry finished his words, he kicked Brother Meng in front of him.

Henry's kick sent Brother Meng flying before he could react.

These young men who surrounded Henry did not expect that Henry would do it so suddenly. It was not until Brother Meng fell to the ground and screamed that they realized what had happened.

"F*ck, how do you dare to beat him? Kill him!" The group of young men shouted and rushed toward Henry together.

"Don't move, all of you!" A soft shout suddenly rang out.

When these young men who had just started to fight heard this voice, they all stood there obediently like mice in front of a cat.

A thirty-year-old woman with an enchanting figure walked over with cat steps.

Seeing this woman, these young men all lowered their heads and respectfully called her Sister Hua.

Brother Meng also quickly got up from the ground and stood aside with his head down.

Sister Hua had been staying in the monitoring room before. The moment she saw Henry from the monitor, she rushed to the hall and was ready to say hello to this big shot to see if there was anything she could help. Sister Hua remembered clearly what happened last time. This was a top character who could make Young Master kneel down with just a word.

However, as soon as she arrived at the hall, Sister Hua saw Henry's attack, which made her feel bad. It was estimated that there was a stupid guy who had provoked this big shot.

"What's going on?" Sister Hua asked Brother Meng.

"Sister Hua, this guy is f*cking..."

"Clap!"

Before Brother Meng could finish his words, Sister Hua slapped his face, and a crisp sound could be heard!

Sister Hua's action shocked Brother Meng and the other young men. They couldn't figure out why Sister Hua wanted to beat their men.

"Mr Zhang, I'm sorry. I didn't know..."

"All right, let Danny Chow come." Henry waved his hand impatiently.

Every place had its own rules.

This casino of the Chow's was too unruly.

Although it was just a small place that was not worth mentioning in Henry's eyes, it was no exaggeration to say that Henry was like an emperor in this kind of dark power. Since he had seen it, it was necessary to charge it.

Seeing that Henry was too lazy to talk to her, Sister Hua did not dare to say anything more, so she quickly called Danny Chow.

"Young Master, Henry is here. He said he wants to see you." Sister Hua said to the phone.

Brother Meng and the others widened their eyes. They realized that they had met a tough opponent this time. The man in front of them actually knew the Young Master!

Five minutes after Sister Hua made the call, Danny Chow appeared in front of Henry with sweat all over his head. It could be seen that he came in a hurry, for fear that Henry wouldn't wait for another second.

Because Danny was very clear that this person was able to destroy the top-notch roles of the Chows with just one call.

As soon as Henry saw Danny, he said, "Kneel down!"

The word "Kneel" came into Danny's ears. He did not dare to hesitate at all and knelt on the ground in front of so many people.

At this moment, there were mountains and rivers in the hearts of Brother Meng and others. They originally thought that the young man in front of them only knew the young master, but now it seemed that was not the case!

With just one sentence, the Young Master could kneel down in front of so many people. Even if he was the Young Master's father, he wouldn't have the ability to do that, would he?

"Henry, I don't know what I have done to offend you?" Danny asked cautiously with a flattering look.

"Did your guys plan to force me into selling the car? Did they want to play with my friend here?" Henry asked.

"The people of the Chows?" Danny was full of doubts. In this casino, there was only one person from the Chows- himself.

Danny looked at Sister Hua, who pointed at Brother Meng and others with subtle movements.

Danny came to his senses at once. It was these ignorant guys who offended Henry.

Danny had no time to punish Brother Meng and others. He waved his hand repeatedly and explained to Henry, "Mr Henry, you misunderstood. These people are not from our Chows at all. They are just a few stray dogs!"

"Danny Chow, don't tease me." Henry shook his head and said softly, "Just now they clearly told me that they could represent the Chows. They are the rules here and they are the laws here. Even if the police come, they couldn't do anything to the Chows? I want to try and see if your Chows is so powerful as they said."

Hearing this, Danny was so scared that his face turned pale. Regardless of his dignity, he repeatedly kowtowed to Henry and apologized. "Mr Zhang, I'm sorry, I'm sorry! It's my poor discipline. I'm sorry! I'm sorry!"

"All right." Henry waved his hand. "I have been to your place twice, and I have seen such an arrogant person twice. You, Danny Chow, should know how to deal with it. Remember, don't let me come across this kind of person for the third time. I don't think we would have any good relationship!"

"Sure! Sure!" Danny hit his head on the ground and knocked.

Standing behind Henry, Amity and her Mark looked at Henry in disbelief. Although they didn't know much about the Chows, they knew that people who could open such a big casino must have power and influence. However, this kind of people, when they saw Henry, they were like seeing their grandfather, as if they were afraid to make Henry a little dissatisfied.

"Let's go." Henry patted the shoulder of Amity and walked out of the casino.

It was not until Henry left the casino that Danny dared to stand up from the ground. He looked at Brother Meng and others.

At this moment, the faces of Brother Meng and others were pale, and their bodies full of fear was shaking uncontrollably.

Danny took a deep breath and whispered, "Cut their hands and feet. Arrange someone to take care of them every day. They are better dead than alive!"

When Danny said the word 'care' again, he deliberately emphasized his tone.

Hearing this, Brother Meng and the others went limp on the spot. They knelt down and frantically kowtowed to beg for mercy.

"You guys are really brave. Since when did all kinds of people dare to represent our Chows? Our Chows is so cheap? Ruin all of them!" Danny waved his hand, and his whole body was covered with rage.

Henry left the casino with father and daughter. He didn't care about brother Meng and others at all. He knew that these people were finished. They were so arrogant. They bullied men and women. No matter what happened, it was all their own fault. If he was not here today, it would be impossible for this girl, Amity, to leave the casino intact. If such a scum like brother Meng was disabled, there would be one less in the world!

After Henry got the car, he called Wade. A few minutes later, Amity received a text message from the bank. It was a huge sum of 1.5 million yuan, which made her cry. With this money, her life could be restored to normal.

Chapter 220

"Brother Henry, I really don't know how to thank you for what happened this time." Amity looked at Henry gratefully.

"It's okay, silly. Don't thank me anymore. You deserve it. If Homer didn't give you this car, I wouldn't be able to give you this 1.5 million, would I?" Henry rubbed the head of Amity and said, "All right, take your father to pay back the money."

"Yes." Amity nodded vigorously.

"By the way," Henry suddenly stopped both of them and said, "Uncle Qiu, I'm not as old as you, but I have more experience in some aspects. Gambling is a matter of luck. You may lose most of your bets. Now that everything has returned to the starting point, it would be best to stop. Amity has grown up, and soon she will reach the age of discussing marriage. You should worry about her."

"I understand, I understand." Mark nodded repeatedly. "I won't gamble after returning the money this time."

"Okay."

Henry nodded. After the father and daughter had gone far, he looked at the two people's backs and shook his head. If the father could really quit the gamble, that would be great. He was afraid that he couldn't quit.

Henry finished dealing with this matter and looked at the time. It was already noon.

After thinking for a while, Henry called Sylvia. "Honey, how are you doing?"

"Husband..." Sylvia's voice on the phone was full of apologies. "Can we put our plan slightly aside? I have something to deal with, and I can't handle it in a short time."

"Okay, it's up to you." Henry didn't mean to blame Sylvia at all. For him, it didn't matter where he went. As long as he was with Sylvia, the scenery would be beautiful wherever he was.

"Honey, thank you," Sylvia said sweetly on the phone.

Henry's heart almost melted when he heard the sweet voice on the phone.

In the office of the village party, in the suburbs.

Sylvia looked at the man in front of her and said coldly, "So, you want to break the contract unilaterally?"

"Not unilaterally." A middle-aged man smiled and said, "President Lin, we are farmers, so we don't know much about these things. We dug out the spring in the mountains before, but we didn't know how valuable it is. Now, so many companies are rushing to build a holiday villa in our place. Compared with other prices, your offer is a bit low."

As the middle-aged man spoke, he took out a box of cigarettes from his pocket. His meaning was very obvious. He had already expressed that there would be no deal.

"You're shameless!" Cathy Lee, Sylvia's secretary, said angrily, "How didn't you know the value? At that time, we have already made it clear to you. Now our Lins Group has paid for the complete repair of the road outside your village. Are you going to terminate the contract? If we didn't build the road, which company would work with you?"

"Secretary Lee, you're being unreasonable." The middle-aged man sneered. "The road outside our village was built by your Family Lin. We didn't ask you to do it."

"Okay, that's it." Sylvia closed the document in her hand. "Secretary Zhao, I wish you pleasant cooperation with other companies."

Sylvia got up and turned to leave.

"President Lin, take care and I won't see you off."
Secretary Zhao didn't even move.

After Sylvia and Cathy Lee left, Secretary Zhao took out the phone and dialed a number. "Hello, Mr Zheng, it's me. She was here. I refused. Right, yes, yes, yes. Mr. Zheng, look at the money you mentioned last time... Ah, yes, yes."

Secretary Zhao made a phone call, and his face was as happy as the wrinkles of chrysanthemum.

Sylvia and Cathy went out of the office of the municipal party committee. When she got in the car, Cathy was still very angry.

"President Lin, that Zhao is deliberately making trouble. At first, he said if we paid for the road, we could build a holiday villa in the village. It's shameless of him to do so! If he really let other companies take this project, we will lose at least one billion yuan, and the mountain spring was also discovered by us!"

Sylvia sat in the back seat and touched her forehead with her delicate hands. "Get in touch with President Qin of Hengyuan. This time, I really need her help."

"President Lin, do you want to..."

"Well, the person behind President Qin should have a solution. Now let's see if that person is willing to help us."

"President Lin, there will be a business gathering tomorrow. President Qin should be there. You can talk to her about this at the party," Cathy said, glancing at the schedule.

"Okay, then I'll talk to her face to face tomorrow."

Henry drove the Maserati home. After informing Wade to come and pick up the car, he ran into the house and cleaned up the house thoroughly.

As soon as he finished cleaning the room, Henry received a call from Jenny Qin before he had time to rest.

"Busy man, what are you doing?" Jenny's soft voice came over the phone.

"What's there to be busy doing? I'm so bored that I can't wait to die."

"Really? You don't even know to call me when you're free. You don't have a friend like me in your heart. Hey, don't forget, you still need to be in touch with me regarding business. If I am not satisfied, your wife will punish you." Jenny joked, but when she spoke, Jenny felt a burst of sadness in her heart.

Henry forced a smile and said, "What's wrong, beauty Qin? Why did you call me all of a sudden? Are you treating me to dinner?"

"Invite you for dinner? Well, will you come here?" Jenny deliberately asked.

"Er..." Henry was a little embarrassed. "Well... let's wait for another day. We don't have much time today."

"With a beautiful woman like President Lin, how can you take time to accompany this little woman when you are busy?" There was a hidden bitterness in Jenny's words.

"Of course not. You're as pretty as her," Henry said hurriedly.

"Hey." Jenny sighed on the phone. "You are a hypocritical man. You must be lying. By the way, there will be a business gathering tomorrow. Will you attend it? Because of the blast, a few seniors want to see you. I guess your wife will also attend it."

"Okay." Hearing that Sylvia would go, Henry agreed directly, "See you at tomorrow's party."

"Okay."

Hanging up the phone, Henry prepared dinner and waited for Sylvia to come back.

It was almost seven o'clock in the evening when Sylvia entered the house. When Henry saw her, he saw the exhaustion on the woman's face.

"Did you go to talk business again?" Henry poured a cup of tea for her after Sylvia leaned on the sofa, and then sat next to her. "You should have a good rest for a while."

"There are a lot of things to do recently, honey. I have a party tomorrow. After I'm done with my work, let's go for a trip, okay?" Sylvia held Henry's arm and snuggled upon his shoulder.

Chapter 221

Henry and Sylvia quietly leaned on the sofa, and a cup of hot tea in front of them slowly rose with white mist.

Sylvia felt that she was so satisfied at this moment. She leaned on his shoulder as if all the problems that bothered her were blocked and made her feel at ease.

It was a feeling of having a harbour, and everything was so quiet. At this time, Sylvia thought, "If time could stop, I wouldn't have to think about anything. It would be great if I could just snuggle with this man."

The door of the villa opened.

"I was wondering why I could smell the greasy meat from the braised pork outside the door. It turns out that someone is showing off their affection!" The dissatisfied voice of Milan came from the door of the villa.

"Why did you suddenly come back today?" Sylvia turned around, looked at Milan and asked.

"Why, don't you want me to come back? Did I disturb your good time? Do you want me to go out for ten minutes? Henry, ten minutes should be enough, right?" Raising her eyebrows, Milan looked at Henry.

Henry was a little speechless. This woman was being naughty without any preparation.

Although Sylvia had never had any close relationship with any man, it didn't mean that she didn't understand anything. Milan was direct and didn't hide anything at all, which made Sylvia blush.

"Hey, why is her face still red? What a little girl?" Milan said, glancing at her lips.

"Come on, let's have dinner. It's getting cold." Henry greeted her and invited the two women to the table.

As for Henry's cooking, not to mention Sylvia, even Milan couldn't stop eating.

"By the way, honey, do you have a business party tomorrow? Can you take me with you?" Henry put a piece of pork ribs into Sylvia's bowl and asked.

"What's the matter? Are you interested too?" Milan asked curiously. This kind of business gathering was extremely boring, and many people were willing to refuse it. They just wanted to get over the party.

"A little interested." Henry nodded.

"Okay, then you go with me. There are a few friends who haven't seen you. I have to introduce you to them." Sylvia nodded in agreement.

After dinner, Henry packed up the bowls and chopsticks, and the phone call from Wade came.

"Boss, I got in touch with White Rose."

Henry calculated that it had been five days since the last person tried to kill Sylvia. He went up to the second floor and asked, "What did she say?"

"The other party told White Rose that they'll arrive in Anshi the day after tomorrow morning and they'll set off tomorrow night."

Henry nodded and said, "Okay, tell White Rose that she should wait for me in Yuanshi tomorrow night. I will go to find her."

Wade asked, "Boss, will you go alone?"

"Yes, why, are you worried?" Henry asked.

"No, I'm not." Wade shook his head at the other end of the phone. In this world, if you worried about someone, that shouldn't be Henry. "Boss, there's something I don't know whether I should tell you."

"What's wrong?" Henry frowned. It was not a small problem when Wade was difficult to express.

"We asked about the person behind the attack yesterday. That person's identity is a little special." Wade seemed to be a little scrupulous when he spoke.

"Special?" Henry thought for a while. There were only a few people who could make Wade say these two words. Every one of them was not the name Henry was willing to hear.

Hearing Henry's silence on the phone, Wade said again, "Elder brother, in fact, I can go on behalf of you."

Obviously, Wade meant that Henry should leave this matter alone and let him handle it.

Henry took a deep breath and slowly spat out, "It's all right, just say it."

"Cesia..."

Hearing these three words, Henry fell into silence. He didn't expect that it was her!

On Radiant Island, there were a total of ten King's Rings. According to the colour of the King's rings, each person's abilities and positions were different.

Like Sea God, his dark blue ring represented the ocean.

Like Wade White, his ring represented killing.

Readhead's red ring represented blood.

There were a total of one-colour rings and one five-coloured ring.

The Five-coloured King Ring represented the manager of Radiant Island. On the island, apart from the owner of the Master Ring, the owner of the Five-coloured King Ring had the absolute right to speak. Her decision could directly deny the decisions made by the five masters below.

The owner of this ring was jointly elected by everyone. Only the one they trusted most, who contributed the most to the island, could take charge of the ring.

Cesia was the owner of the Five-coloured King's Ring.

When he learned that it was Cesia who sent killers to attack Sylvia, Henry had a feeling of disbelief.

"Boss, are you all right?" Wade's voice came from the phone.

"It's okay." Henry came to his senses and shook his head. "This time, I'll go in person. After I leave, you can help me keep an eye on them."

"Okay."

That night, Henry was lying on the bed, tossing and turning. He couldn't fall asleep.

In the early morning of the next day, Sylvia left home early and went to work. Henry sat in the yard and looked at the old tree that he usually used to practice boxing, recalling the days before.

"Cesia, what should I say when I see you?" Henry shook his head and sighed helplessly.

At the peak of the underground world, everyone knew that there was always a woman following Satan of Radiant Island. She never spoke and silently executed every command of Satan. She could fall into purgatory for the man in front of her, like a witch, or a holy angel for the man in front of her.

Everything Satan said, she would do.

Cesia, in the western world, is the name of the enchanting witch. She was really like a witch. She was noble, arrogant and unruly. She did what she liked and had a clear personality. But when she met the man, she was like an obedient child. The previous second, she would be covered in blood.

The next second, because of the man's appearance, she was like the sun.

Henry lay on the lawn in the yard, looking up at the sky, as if he saw the woman's smiling face again, with tears in her eyes, shouting to wait for him to go home.

A whole morning had passed quietly in the haze.

At noon, Henry received a phone call from Sylvia. At the gate of the community, he was waiting for the red GT to arrive.

For the evening party, Sylvia did not think too much about clothes, and she told Henry not to do it either. This was a platform for everyone to chat with each other.

"By the way, honey, I have to go out tonight and will probably come back tomorrow," Henry said in the car.

"Be careful on the road." Sylvia did not ask Henry what he was going to do.

Chapter 222

Sylvia was a very special woman. She would hide her real thoughts in her heart. As for what she liked, she would not say it, nor would she take the initiative to say what she cared about.

Just like now, in fact, Sylvia really wanted to know what Henry was going to do, but she would not ask.

Henry didn't know how to explain to Sylvia about his trip to Anshi.

Sylvia drove Henry to the place where the party was held.

Henry remembered this place. The last time when Sylvia and her university classmates met, they were in this club. When he was waiting for Sylvia outside, he was approached by a woman, and he was also photographed and framed.

Henry saw that there were many luxury cars parked in front of this club.

After Sylvia parked the car, she looked at the luxury car parked in front of the clubhouse with a puzzled face. "Why are there so many people this time? It's more than twice as many as usual."

The club was divided into two floors. This party had a western buffet. On the second floor of the club, there was a dance floor. There were a sofa and a tea table around the dance floor for guests to have a rest.

At this moment, many young entrepreneurs in the club were surrounding two middle-aged men.

If Sylvia saw these two middle-aged men, she would be very excited.

There were a few legendary figures in the business circle of Yinzhou City when it started to develop.

The head of the Family Lin's Robert Lin was known as the leading big brother of the Yinzhou City's business circle. His status was self-evident.

In addition to Master Lin, there were two other people who were known as the two talents in Yinzhou at that time. Even Master Lin was full of praises when he mentioned them.

As time went by, the two talents of Yinzhou City entered the middle-age and gradually faded out of the circle, but their reputations were still there.

One of them, when everyone was confused at that time, he boldly invested in a half-finished building. At that time, no one thought highly of him. Even Robert Lin thought that his investment in the half-finished building was just a waste of money.

One and a half years after his investment, the government suddenly wanted to rebuild a school, which was built next to the unfinished building. In an instant, the unfinished building rose more than four hundred million yuan!

What did it mean more than 20 years ago?

His name was Min Kang.

Another person name was Jess Wu. Twenty-three years ago, when the modern stock market of China had just formed, he joined the stock investment. At that time, people had been trying to figure out the stock, so had Jess Wu. However, he made more than two hundred million yuan by selling the stock by himself!

In the beginning, it was known as a myth. Even Master Lin could not help but give a thumbs-up to two of them.

A person's insight determined success or failure. These two people had that kind of vision at the beginning, nowadays people would love to have the same thing as them.

However, the people in the business circle in Yinzhou knew that Min Kang and Jess Wu had already retired, which was also the reason why President Lin said that.

Master Lin said that the future world was reserved for the young. The younger generation could not rely only on the blessings of the older generation. Otherwise, who would take care of the younger generation in a hundred years?

There was no doubt about Master Lin's status in the business circle of Yinzhou City. His words had also changed the current situation of the business circle in Yinzhou City. It could be found that at present, there were a lot of leaders and chiefs of big enterprises. All of them were young people, and the old ones rarely appeared.

Today, Min Kang and Jess Wu's sudden appearance made these young generation scrambled to consult. It was also because of the news that they would attend that so many people came to this gathering.

Some people asked the questions that had troubled them for a long time and asked them for advice. After they got Min and Jess's answers, they were suddenly enlightened and their eyes lit up.

"Uncle Kang, Uncle Wu, my father often mentioned you in front of me. When I saw you today, I really felt that listening to you is better than reading books."

"That's right. I feel as if I've been enlightened and my vision has become much brighter."

Listening to the praise of the people around them, Min and Jess laughed and didn't take it to heart.

The reason why they came here today was not to give lectures but to meet a person, a person who proposed to make a tunnel for Hengyuan.

When the news that Hengyuan was going to make a tunnel were published, even they felt it was incredible. When they figured out the cause and effect, they sincerely admired the person who proposed the idea and wanted to see him at the same time.

For this reason, they made special contact with Jenny and made an appointment with her until today.

This private club not only had a dance floor, but also some small rooms for guests to talk about private things.

After saying a few polite words to the crowd, they went to a small room to rest.

As soon as Henry and Sylvia entered the club, they heard a sound of greeting.

"Sylvia! Ah, Henry is also here?"

Following the voice, Henry saw a graceful short-haired beauty walking over. He had seen her in the outdoor private club last time.

"Yan Jiang." Sylvia smiled at Yan.

"Oh, I just wanted to call you. Let's go and chat." Yan came over, grabbed Sylvia's arm, and then smiled sweetly at Henry. "Handsome, do you mind if I take your wife to talk about some private topics?"

"I don't mind." Henry waved his hand.

Sylvia wanted to take Henry around and introduce him to everyone. But seeing that Yan was so enthusiastic, she could not refuse. She smiled apologetically at Henry and said, "Honey, go around by yourself and eat something. We'll come back after a chat."

"Don't worry about me." Henry smiled and walked to the second floor.

As soon as he went up to the second floor, Henry saw Jenny was wearing a white dress and a crystal hairpin. Many young men were around her.

"It seems that beauty Qin is very popular." Henry walked up and greeted Jenny.

When Jenny saw Henry, she subconsciously distanced herself from the young men around her, although she had always maintained a very polite distance with them.

"Henry, you're here. The two seniors have been waiting for you. Let me introduce you to them."

"Okay." Henry nodded and followed Jenny into a small room.

The white dress perfectly showed Jenny's enchanting figure. Her slender waist was as if it could be held by one hand, and her slender legs were like work of art.

Jenny opened the door of the small room and took the lead in entering.

Henry saw two middle-aged men sitting in the house. They were Min Kang and Jess Wu. He had no impression of these two people who were famous in the business circles.

"President Qin, who is this?" Min and Jess saw Jenny coming in with a person, and they had some speculation in their hearts.

Chapter 223

Jenny smiled and introduced, "Seniors, this is Henry. The person you've been looking forward to meeting. This is Mr Kang and Mr Wu. They were known as the two talents in Yinzhou City more than 20 years ago."

Min Kang and Jess Wu looked at Henry. Before, Jenny had never carefully introduced Henry to them. If they hadn't seen him today, they wouldn't have expected that this person was so young.

"Nice to meet you, Mr Kang and Mr Wu." Henry greeted them with a polite smile.

"Amazing, you are indeed a young hero. You have such insight at such a young age, and your future achievements will be limitless! The action you proposed to Hengyuan was absolutely a genius!" Min gave a thumbs-up and praised.

Jess also nodded, "Yes, a person's age determines his vision and achievement. In the stock industry, I have seen a genius boy. At the age of 23 years old, he made more than 300 million yuan by himself. This young man is not worse than that genius!"

Hearing their words, Jenny felt a little proud. She was happier to hear the two talents praising Henry than praising herself. At the same time, she also wanted to tell Jess that the genius he was referring to was not as good as Henry at all. Henry was known as the legend of Wall Street a few years ago!

"I'm flattered." Henry smiled slightly and said, "I just like to read all kinds of things."

"It's not an overpraise. Young man, we really love talents. There are a few questions that we want to test you. What do you think?" Min said.

After he said that, he looked at Jess. Jess nodded his head to prove that he also had this intention.

Henry made a gesture of "please", "Please go ahead."

Min said, "Then I will make it short. I'm making an investment. Today, I took a few cases that I studied by myself and wanted to see what you think."

Min took out a tablet computer, opened a PowerPoint, and placed it in front of Henry.

Henry took a look. Min had listed a total of four investment projects.

Jess looked at this and said in surprise, "Dude, you are crazy. These four cases are all a kind of gambling. I'm afraid that no one in Yinzhou dares to say which project can make money?"

Min laughed and said, "That's called a challenge. You said that you would like to take out a few examples to let young man Henry have a look?"

During the conversation between Min and Jess, Henry had already finished reading all the things on this PPT. He smiled and said, "Only one of these four projects is bound to make a profit, and the other three are all losses."

"Make a profit?" Hearing Henry's answer, Min frowned. "Young man, you can't say that if you want to make money, you can't say it so casually. No matter how sure the investment is, no one dares to say that it will have profit."

"Young man, why did you say that?" Jess asked.

Henry stretched out two fingers and said, "A policy."

After that, he slid the tablet in front of him and opened the first page of the prop. "Seniors, you should understand that China is a country of policies. To put it bluntly, wherever the government develops, it can make money. Now, after the Hengyuan's decision to make a tunnel, the government will certainly put most of its energy into trade, which is the most direct way to increase GDP. And there is no need to think about the electronic investment on the first slide. Unless there is a large amount of money to put in, if it were an ordinary investor, it would only last for half a year. It would definitely fall."

Henry slid another one and said. "Actually, at the first sight of this experimental primary school, I think it is feasible. After all, it is a residential area. Once invested, it will not only bring a lot of housing price but also a natural source of customers, which will also get the support of the official. But I suddenly thought of a problem, that is, the pharmaceutical factory, not far from this developing area. There is a pharmaceutical factory, every afternoon from three to five o'clock, the air would be filled with a strong smell of medicine. In terms of our current living conditions, we hope that child will grow up in a healthy residential area. If the school is built, the residential area would naturally become school district housing. So this investment will highly fail."

"And this one." Henry slides the next picture. "An amusement park? There's no need to think about it. You two, although the life of young people is irregular now, in addition to staying up late to play with the mobile phone, in other aspects of health preservation, they are better than the old people. The existence of the amusement park is not so practical."

Listening to Henry's analysis, the three people in the room all nodded their heads with deep interest. They did not think about the problem that the primary school would affect the decline of the housing price.

The housing price of a city represented the standard of living and prosperity of the city. From the perspective of businessmen, the higher the housing price was, the better it would be.

"What about the last one? Do you mean that it must make a profit?" Min could not wait to ask. Under the analysis of this young man, he felt that he was suddenly enlightened.

The last plan that Min Kang took out was a proposal about the aquarium. It took a lot of courage to come up with such a plan in the northwest, where was a lot of dust and sand. However, Henry actually took this as a profitable project which made Min feel confused.

Henry didn't directly answer Min's question, but asked, "You two, haven't you been out for a long time recently?"

"That's right." Min gave a wry smile. "I'm old, so I don't want to travel around."

"Well, some time ago, I was idle and had nothing to do. I read a variety of reports, and there was a data investigation. As for the flow of holiday people and where the tourists like to go. According to the data in the northwest area, the number of people who go to the aquarium every year is one-fifth of the number of people that visit the amusement park. Although it looks like that the amusement park is more dominant, how many amusement parks are there in the northwest area, and how many aquariums are there? What is the proportion?"

Min thought for a moment and answered, "The ratio of the amusement parks to the aquarium is about 10 to 1."

"To be precise, it is 13.2 to 1, which means that the aquarium is more popular. And as a key factor to beautify the city, it will definitely get the official support. I think both of you are very clear about the uniqueness of the region and the concept of monopoly."

As soon as Henry finished his words, he heard Min's applause.

"Impressive! You can use a variety of data and combine it. It's really great. To tell you the truth, if you haven't told me, I really wouldn't have known that the aquarium was so popular."

Chapter 224

All the people present had a deep understanding of commercial investment. Henry didn't need to say much, and they could think of the following key points.

Originally, Min looked at Henry from a senior's point of view, but now he found that his vision was not as long-term as this young man's. Henry's understanding of investment far exceeded his!

Jess also took out some stocks on the market and let Henry analyze them. As a result, he found that the data Henry analyzed was more accurate than his own. The most exaggerated thing was that Henry could actually predict the change of the stock for the next minute, which made Jess's eyes wide open. He could not believe that if such a person wanted to play with the stock market, he would not invest even if all the people in the world would!

As for Henry's ability, Min and Jess had seen it thoroughly and couldn't stop praising him.

Jess couldn't help but sigh, "It's true that we were pushing young generations, but actually they are better than us!"

"You two, I'm just a little younger. If you're still young, I would definitely be not as good as you," Henry replied with a smile.

"Good! Not arrogant and very patient! Great, really great man! To tell you the truth, if I was not old, I would really want to do business with you and witness the birth of a miracle!" Min's eyes flashed with an unusually exciting colour.

The knowledge that Henry was showing seemed to have ignited his passion, which had disappeared for a long time.

Henry smiled and chatted with Jess and Min for a while, and then he was ready to leave.

"Two uncles, I have to accompany my wife. Let's have a drink when we have the chance."

"Okay! We must drink a few cups." Min said generously.

"Little brother, your wife is also a person in the business circle? With your help, I guess it will be a matter of time before you replace Lins Group." Jess boldly sighed. In the eyes of his generation, Lins Group was an insurmountable mountain. He could express his admiration for Henry by saying that he would replace Lins Group sooner or later, which was enough to prove that they were really shocked by Henry.

Henry gave a wry smile. "I'm afraid I can't replace Lins Group."

"Why?" Jess didn't understand. He sincerely approved and admired Henry's ability.

"Because his wife is the current chairman of Lins Group, Sylvia Lin." Jenny's voice sounded. When she said this, her heart was full of sorrow.

This answer made Min and Jess speechless.

Henry left the small room and walked around the dance floor on the second floor. He saw Sylvia's figure.

"Honey, here you are!" Sylvia shouted and waved at Henry as soon as she saw him.

Henry saw that there were still many handsome men and women standing next to Sylvia, but these people stood there, which showed that Sylvia was the most dazzling one. Her extraordinary temperament made her stand out from the crowd.

Henry's arrival attracted many people's attention. They all wanted to know what kind of man this business queen, who was known as the most beautiful woman in Yinzhou, had chosen for husband.

At first sight of Henry, many people had a sense of disappointment.

Seeing Henry's body, they couldn't feel any powerful momentum. Except for his handsome face, they couldn't see anything special. Even his fashion taste was very ordinary. If they hadn't seen it with their own eyes, no one would associate this ordinary man with Yinzhou's business queen.

"Honey, come, let me introduce you. This is President Sun from KUN Inquiry. This is President Lee from Xianghui Planning. And this is President Lok from Jiawei Trade. This is..."

Sylvia put her arms around Henry's arm and introduced the people around him.

Henry also smiled and nodded his head.

"Sylvia, don't bother to introduce us. Please introduce your husband. I really want to know which family's young master has won the heart of our Sylvia." A beautiful woman looked at Henry curiously and guessed his identity.

Not only this beautiful woman but also the people around Sylvia were all guessing.

In their eyes, the man Sylvia had chosen must be a strong ally. Maybe he didn't give others any impression based on his appearance, but he must be the son of a large financial group.

Sylvia smiled and narrowed her eyes into a crescent-shaped shape. She was very cute. When she thought of Henry, her heart was full of happiness.

"This is my husband, his name is..."

Sylvia was just about to speak when she was interrupted by a voice.

"His name is Henry, a bumpkin, the son-in-law of the Family Lin. He has no background. Don't guess."

As soon as the voice sounded, it attracted everyone's attention.

Everyone looked at the speaker.

Sam Zheng sneered and staggered over. "What's wrong, President Lin? Are you going to bring your bumpkin into the upper class? Let's say you give him ten million yuan and ask him to invest. Would he know how to do that?"

Sam's words made Sylvia's face change. "Sam Zheng, what kind of person my husband is, it's not your turn to comment!"

"What? President Lin, you don't even give me freedom to speak. Did my words hurt you?" Sam glanced at Sylvia and then looked at Henry. He looked Henry up and down and said, "What's wrong with you? You're a loser. Don't you pretend? You don't even know how to take care of yourself. Is this where you should come to?"

Sam's words caused an uproar among those who were still guessing Henry's identity. They didn't expect that Sylvia's husband was just a son-in-law.

What did 'son-in-law' mean? It was like a coward, a gigolo boy!

Thinking of this, everyone looked at Henry again and their eyes changed.

"You're a loser, why don't you talk to me? Didn't you show off that day?" Sam sneered at Henry.

Henry shook his head with a disdainful smile at the corner of his mouth. "Why should I care about a good-for-nothing?"

"A good-for-nothing? You mean I'm a good-for-nothing?" When Henry called Sam a good-for-nothing, he was not angry but laughed instead. "If I'm a good-for-nothing, what are you? What do you think you can do? How can you hide behind a woman? If you have the ability, don't rely on your woman. When you can afford the car I parked outside, you can call me a good-for-nothing. I won't say anything!"

After Sam finished speaking, he pointed to the window next to him. From here, he could see the parking lot downstairs.

An eye-catching yellow Lamborghini was parked there. This supercar whose price reached 73 million yuan was a luxury car even in this club.

Sam's words fell behind, and many people nodded subconsciously. They believed that a man was already a son-in-law. What kind of ability could he have?

Just then, two unexpected figures appeared.

Chapter 225

As soon as Min and Jess left the small room, they were immediately surrounded by the crowd and asked questions from them. Some people even threw out olive branches and promised to pay tens of millions of dollars a year, hoping that they could bring these two talents to their company. It could be seen that Min and Jess had a high status in the business circle.

Min and Jess didn't care about these olive branches at all. They looked around. When they saw Henry, their eyes lit up and they strode over.

"Little brother, you are here. We still have a question to ask you!" From a distance, Min said to Henry in a clear voice.

Min's words made the people around widely open their eyes. Who was Uncle Kang talking to? He called him little brother and said that he had something to ask?

Everyone's eyes looked around and found that the people standing around were all acquaintances, and there were no unfamiliar faces.

Sam Zheng, who was humiliating Henry, looked excited when he saw Min and Jess. He tidied up his collar and walked toward them. He said politely, "Uncle Kang, Uncle Wu, I'm Sam Zheng, Zheng's Group."

When Sam greeted him like this, Min and Jess couldn't ignore him.

Min nodded. "Oh, Zheng's Group. I remember. It is said that they have done a good job in recent years."

Being praised by Min, Sam was very excited. "Uncle Kang, my father always mentioned you to me. He said that if there is a chance, he would like to drink with you and Uncle Wu."

"Okay, there will be a chance." Min said perfunctorily, and then he walked directly to Henry without waiting for Sam to say anything. "Little brother Henry, you left in a hurry just now, and I have something I haven't had time to ask you."

Jess continued, "That's right. This matter has troubled me and Old Kang for several years. I hope you can teach me."

The two men's behaviour and attitude toward Henry made the people present lose their minds.

What was going on? These two who were once known as the two talents in Yinzhou asked a question from a son-in-law of the Family Lin, and even said this kind of words that they would like to ask for advice!

Not to mention others, even Sylvia didn't understand what was going on.

As for Min and Jess, she also admired them very much. She once asked these two uncles about the company's predicament. However, when did Henry meet them? It seemed that Henry had done something great.

"Uncle Kang, Uncle Wu, did you make a mistake? What do you want to ask him?" Sam stood aside and couldn't help asking.

"Of course, it's about investment." Min replied, "Just now, this brother Henry told us about his views on investment. I really feel ashamed. After meeting little brother Henry, I know that I don't deserve the title of Yinzhou's talent. How thick-skinned I am to be able to withstand the title for decades!"

Min shook his head and laughed at himself.

"Investment? Uncle Kang, do you think this person knows how to invest?" Sam couldn't believe it.

"It's not that he just understands, he's simply good at it. Compared to brother Henry, my ability is worthless!" Min said undisguisedly.

"Yes, brother Henry's opinion just now really opened my eyes!"

Hearing Min and Jess's sigh, Sylvia was also confused. She looked at Henry with a trace of confusion in her eyes.

Henry saw the meaning in the woman's eyes. He scratched his head and said, "When you chatted with your friends just now, I talked about some invested topics with these two uncles."

"Do you know how to invest?" Sylvia seemed to have just met Henry. She looked at Henry from beginning to end with her beautiful eyes.

"Not only does he understand!" A clear voice sounded, and Jenny Qin walked over. "President Lin, didn't you hear Uncle Kang say that Henry is good at investment? I'm curious about one thing. Last time, you wanted me to introduce the man behind me to you, but he is your husband. Why did you want me to introduce him to you? And Henry, I forgot to ask you. When Lins was in trouble, Sylvia asked me to ask you for help. You didn't even consider it and you rejected. What kind of couple are you?"

Jenny's words caused everyone who had not recovered to fall into a state of surprise once again.

Henry's face was a little weird. He remembered that once, Jenny sent a text message to him, saying that there was a company in trouble and she wanted to ask him for help. At that time, he directly refused it. It was his wife!

Similarly, Sylvia's expression was somewhat unnatural. She looked at Henry and asked, "Is it you who proposed to Hengyuan to blow up the mountain?"

Henry scratched his head and nodded with a wry smile.

Sylvia rolled her eyes with a depressed face. She had been looking for the man behind Jenny to help her, and the man had been by her side all the time.

Suddenly, Sylvia remembered that Henry seemed to have said something like this when they were at home watching the news about the mountain blasting. At that time, she said that he knew nothing and asked him to go aside. When she encountered difficulties, Henry also proposed to help her. In the end, he was ruthlessly refused by her, saying that he should not make trouble if he didn't understand.

Thinking of this, Sylvia blushed. What did she do?

Jenny's words changed those who had changed their impression of Henry, from a young master to a coward and back to the young master.

The action of Hengyuan regarding mining the mountain was a hot topic that everyone in the business circle in Yinzhou was talking about. Everyone was talking about how important and subtle the decision of Hengyuan was. Many people even took out this case and told it to their employees in the meeting.

The person who raised the idea of blasting the mountain to Hengyuan was in the circle of Yinzhou. He was going to be a legend. Many people wanted to know who was standing behind Jenny and pushing her from a third-rate small company to the top entrepreneur of Yinzhou.

Only now did they realize that the mysterious man turned out to be the husband of the president of Lins Group! He was called a bumpkin by Sam!

Sam was a little too arrogant!

One of them couldn't help but say to Sam, "Master Zheng, you just said that Henry was a bumpkin. I want to know what you have done."

"I remember Master Zheng said just now that Henry didn't know how to invest."

"Didn't know how to invest? If Henry doesn't know how to invest, then what about us? Our family has worked so hard to start a business for so many years. In the end, the profit we get is not as good as Henry's opinion."

"Yes, Sam Zheng, you are too funny! You even said that he can't afford a Lamborghini. I just want to ask you, how many Lamborghinis is his plan to blow up the mountain worth?"

Chapter 226

The jeers made Sam feel ashamed.

He really didn't expect that this bumpkin, Henry, was the one who proposed the idea of blowing up the mountain to Hengyuan!

Thinking of what he just said, Sam's face turned blue and red, which was particularly ugly. He snorted at Henry, turned around and pushed away the people standing behind him, "Get out of my way!"

With a burst of mockery in his eyes, Sam left in disgrace, while Henry became the protagonist of this party.

"Henry, I am your fan. When I heard the news that Hengyuan blew up the mountain, I admired the person who proposed this plan!"

"Henry, I'm from Jinlin Yogurt company. I would like to invite you to be our specially appointed adviser, 100,000 yuan a class!"

"Henry..."

For a moment, many people gathered around Henry, and even Min and Jess looked pale.

Jess shook his head and smiled. He looked at Sylvia and said, "President Lin, you and brother Henry are really a perfect match. They are the best of the best."

Sylvia smiled politely at Jess, and then looked at Henry, who was surrounded by the crowd, with a proud expression in her eyes. This was her man!

The party continued, accompanied by dance music and people dancing on the dance floor.

Henry and Sylvia sat on the sofa by the side, shaking the red wine in their glasses.

"Honey, what's your relationship with President Qin?" Sylvia blinked her big eyes and asked curiously.

"Just ordinary friends."

"Really?" A trace of doubt appeared on Sylvia's pretty face. "Just ordinary friends. How can you help President Qin with blowing up the mountain? I haven't seen you pay much attention to this kind of things when you are at home."

Henry answered with a smile, "I don't know much about it."

"Well, now Lins Group has encountered a problem. I want to hear your opinion." Sylvia smiled and said to Henry, "Half a year ago, Lins Group decided to develop a holiday villa in Yinzhou. In Guan village of the outskirts of the city, we discovered the mountain spring, dug it, and prepared to build a holiday villa. Moreover, Lins Group has completely rebuilt the road in front of the village. But now, the leader of the village doesn't want our Lins Group. Instead, he chose to cooperate with other companies. Is there any good way to fix it?"

After Sylvia finished speaking, she looked at Henry with expectation in her eyes.

"Guan Village?" Henry narrowed his eyes. After thinking for a while, he knew which village Sylvia was talking about. "What's the plan of Lins Group for this holiday villa? How long will it take us to start making profit?"

Sylvia replied, "The budget is 46 million yuan. Because of the natural spring, we can probably return it within two years. But according to my inquiry, some companies have already paid 70 million yuan. On the premise that Lins company help the village to build the road, 70 million yuan is a number that I absolutely can't accept."

Hearing this, Henry shook his head. "46 million yuan. Even if we did build the road, it would be a loss. As far as I know, there is a succession of wetlands in Guan Village. The natural spring you mentioned will not be very large. It can only be a stunt. There is absolutely no possibility for us to get 46 million yuan within two years."

Sylvia frowned. "How can you be so sure?"

"Experience," Henry replied, "I've seen a lot of hot springs in the mountain, and the land area of Guan Village is not large. If you want to build a holiday resort, you must win with quality. That's where the sand pass is. The annual equipment maintenance fee is a large sum of expenses."

Hearing Henry mention maintenance, Sylvia's face changed. To be honest, she really didn't think about this problem. In recent years, Yinzhou had well taken care of the sand and wind. In the early years, there were still sandstorms. In recent years, the green area had increased a lot and she could never see the sand and wind again. This problem was naturally ignored by Sylvia.

Henry continued to say, "The maintenance fee is only one problem. The second point is the individual consumption price. If the repair fee is comprehensive, it's impossible to charge a lot for the villa. According to the cost of the people in Yinzhou, a villa which includes meals costs at most 300 yuan per night for a single person. These costs are just equivalent to the consumption of the equipment."

"Thirdly." Henry reached out and knocked on the table. "You should know more about the cost than me, my wife. So it's difficult for you to make a profit just by running a holiday villa. You have to develop some other industries, such as local specialities, to increase the trade volume of holiday villa and develop it into a tourist attraction."

"Impossible." Sylvia frowned and shook her head. "As you said, the land area of Guan Village is very small, and it's located in the suburbs. I can't build any accommodation buildings around the villa."

"That's right." Henry nodded. "So, this project is not worth the money."

Henry's analysis of the three points made Sylvia fall into silence. The three problems Henry was talking about were absolutely right. They were all things that Sylvia had never considered before. The cost of labour had been calculated, but the loss caused by sand and wind was not within her plan. If she counted these, it would be impossible to return within two years. However, in the current situation, if she couldn't make a basic profit by spending millions of yuan for two years, it would be a loss of money.

After a long time, Sylvia said, "In that case, I'd better not touch this project."

Henry drank the red wine in his glass and said with a smile, "In fact, it's not the case. There's a way to solve the problems."

"What way?" Sylvia couldn't wait to ask. She was not in a hurry to make money but wanted to hear Henry's opinion.

"There has been a serious traffic jam in Yinzhou recently. I think that if there is a new highway around the city, everyone would be very enthusiastic." Henry shook the glass and said with a smile.

"Highway around the city?" Sylvia said doubtfully. The next second, she seemed to think of something and couldn't help exclaiming, "Yes, the highway!"

Guan Village was located in the suburbs of the city. If they built a highway, passing through Guan Village, it would lead to a large economic chain!

"Honey, you are really a genius! It's just..." After the surprise, Sylvia was a little sad. "Guan Village is a little special. The land belongs to the villagers. If they don't want to sell it or ask for an exorbitant price, it will be difficult to build this highway."

Henry stood up from the sofa and walked behind Sylvia. He massaged Sylvia Lin's shoulders and said, "Honey, honey, you are usually very smart. Why are you confused now?"

"What's wrong?" Sylvia puffed out her cheeks and said in a coquettish tone.

"How's the situation in Guan Village?"

Chapter 227

"The situation in Guan Village?" Henry's question surprised Sylvia. She really hadn't paid much attention to this.

Henry looked at Sylvia's innocent and lovely appearance and smiled. "I passed by Guan Village several times and found that most of the workers were not in Yinzhou, but they went to other places. Children and parents could not see each other all year round. If we could set up a service area on the highway and recruit workers, what do you think the people of Guan Village would do?"

A light flashed in Sylvia's eyes. "They'll definitely want to work there!"

"Yes." Henry snapped his fingers. "With this, are you afraid that those villagers will talk big with you? Moreover, if you can recruit them as employees, there would be no need to solve the accommodation problem for them in Guan Village. Their home is there, and the expense will be reduced. When you finish all these, Lins will solve the problem of employment and become the most famous enterprise in Yinzhou. In addition, if you start building a highway and run out of money halfway, can the government just sit by and do nothing?"

Although Henry's words were not completely clear, but who was Sylvia Lin? The business queen! How could she not understand the deeper meaning of Henry's words!

In this society, what was the most important thing to do business? Working capital! A large amount of working capital! Where did the working capital come from? A bank!

Henry's words completely woke Sylvia up.

If they could really build a highway, a service area, and solve the problem for villagers in the Guan Village, the reputation of the Family Lin would definitely have a qualitative leap in Guan Village. At that time, the leader of the Guan Village must ask the Family Lin for help. He wouldn't dare to reject them!

When the authority focused on this, those thieves and rascals, no matter how ambitious they were, had to be quiet.

"Honey, you are so awesome!" Sylvia excitedly hugged Henry's neck and kissed him on his cheek.

After the kiss, Sylvia realized that she had lost her composure. She blushed and lowered her head. She only felt that her face was burning, and she didn't dare to look at Henry.

A few seconds later, Sylvia slowly looked up and found that Henry was looking at her with a smile, which made her even more embarrassed. She quickly moved her eyes away and pretended to look aside.

Henry's phone rang all of a sudden.

The phone call was from Wade. Wade said on the phone, "Big Boss, White Rose has contacted me. They are going to leave at 9 o'clock tonight. Shall I drive you to Yuanshi now?"

"Okay." Henry nodded. After telling Wade the location, he hung up the phone.

Sylvia naturally heard what Henry said to Wade. Although she was a little shy, she suppressed the shyness in her heart and asked, "Are you leaving?"

"Yeah." Henry replied, "Have to leave now. I should be back the day after tomorrow."

At the moment when Henry nodded, Sylvia felt a strong sense of reluctance. She really wanted to ask Henry whether he could take her with him but she didn't say it in the end.

"Be careful."

"Don't worry." Henry said to Sylvia and then walked out of the club. When he walked to the first floor, Henry found two sneaky figures crouching aside. He looked at them curiously. He didn't expect that the sneaky figure was Sam Zheng. There was a strange man beside Sam Zheng. Henry didn't remember him.

The two men, who were furtively hiding there, did not realize that Henry was approaching.

"That b*tch is the one who ruined my plan. She's just a third-rate enterprise. How can she think that she can really become a phoenix after just one deal?" With a fierce look on his face, Sam said to the man beside him, "I don't care what method you use. Within five minutes, I want to see that b*tch in my bed!"

"Don't worry, Master Zheng." The young man next to Sam nodded and walked up to the club.

Henry hid aside and listened to their conversation with a trace of coldness in his eyes. Although Sam did not mention any name specifically, Henry could guess who he was talking about.

After Sam finished talking with the young man, he walked out of the club with a sneer on his face and walked toward the independent building on the side.

This club was built next to a villa.

Sam walked into the villa and closed the doors with a bang.

Henry took out his mobile phone and turned it into a camera mode. In order to catch up with Sam, he jumped a few times and went to the second floor to hide.

In the villa, Sam's figure was clearly visible on the mobile phone camera.

About five minutes later, Henry heard the door of the villa ringing again.

"How is it going? Are you done?" Sam's voice sounded.

"Master Zheng, it is settled." The young man just now walked into the villa with a graceful body.

The person carried by the young man was Jenny Qin!

At this moment, Jenny's eyes were tightly closed. Obviously, she had been set up!

Seeing Jenny unconscious, Sam's mouth curved into a dirty smile, and there was a sense of possessiveness in his eyes. "Well, throw her on the bed!"

Sam put on a mask as he spoke.

After carrying Jenny to the bedroom on the second floor, the young man left.

"Wait!" When the young man was about to go out, Sam stopped him and said, "Here you are, keep your mouth shut."

Sam dropped a stack of 100 yuan bills from the second floor of the villa.

The young man took the money with a happy face. "Understood, understood!"

As he spoke, the young man opened the door of the villa and walked out.

Sam, who was wearing a mask, looked at Jenny, who was lying in bed and unconscious. He licked his lips and quickly took off his jacket. He scolded, "B*tch, you deliberately said those words to embarrass me today, right? After I finish playing with you, I will throw you on the street and let you enjoy the feeling of being noticed!"

Sam climbed onto the bed and reached out his hand to touch Jenny.

Just as he was about to touch Jenny, he found a huge fist in front of him. The next second, there was a sharp pain coming from his eyes, which made Sam step back.

Sam was suddenly punched by someone. He looked up in a panic and saw Henry standing at the bedside and sneering at himself.

"It's you!" Sam gritted his teeth and looked at Henry. Now Henry was the most hated person in his heart!

"Do you know me?" Henry deliberately asked, pretending that he didn't recognize Sam. He wanted to see what kind of tricks this guy could play.

"Humph, who cares if I know you or not. Fk you!"

Sam raised his fist and punched toward Henry. However, Henry kicked him into a pulp.

Sam's thin body could not withstand Henry's two blows. It was so painful that he grimaced in pain. It seemed that today's matter could not be done.

"Just wait and see!" Leaving these malicious words behind, Sam ran out awkwardly.

Chapter 228

After Sam left, Henry shook Jenny's body and found that she was still asleep.

"A knockout powder?" Henry frowned, took out two silver needles from his sleeve, pricked them on Jenny's wrist, and slowly twisted them.

About one minute later, Henry heard a soft groan coming from Jenny's mouth.

"What?"

Hearing this voice, Henry breathed a sigh of relief. It seemed that Sam didn't use any strong medicine. It was just an ordinary knockout powder.

Henry took out the silver needles and felt Jenny's pulse. Her pulse was stable, and she would wake up in five minutes.

Henry took out his mobile phone and looked at the time. Wade just called. "Boss, I'm here. Where are you?"

"Coming." Henry replied. He put away his phone and walked down the first floor.

As soon as he came down from the second floor of the villa, he saw the door of the villa was pushed open in a hurry. An ordinary-looking woman rushed in with an anxious look. Henry recognized this woman. She was Jenny's Secretary Lee, who came with Jenny today.

When Secretary Lee Lee saw Henry, she was surprised. "Mr. Henry?"

In the clubhouse, Jenny's Secretary Lee found that Jenny was not there and could not get through to the phone, so she searched everywhere.

"It's a coincidence that you came here. President Qin is upstairs and she is a little uncomfortable. Go and take care of her." Henry pointed to Jenny's Secretary Lee and walked out of the villa.

In front of the door, an Aston Martin had been parked there, waiting for Henry.

Jenny's Secretary Lee went up to the second floor. When she saw Jenny's sweaty face and wrinkled skirt, she had a bad feeling.

"If I remember correctly, you are Jenny's Secretary Lee, aren't you?" A slightly playful voice came from behind.

Secretary turned around and saw Sam coming over. "Master Zheng, what are you doing..."

Jenny's Secretary Lee looked at Sam with a puzzled look. On Sam's left eye, the bruise was particularly conspicuous.

"Don't ask what you shouldn't ask." Sam glared at the Secretary Lee.

The Secretary Lee quickly lowered her head. She knew that such a young master should not be offended by somebody like her.

Sam nodded with satisfaction at her performance. His eyes stayed on the unconscious Jenny for a few seconds, and then he asked, "By the way, how much is your salary in a month?"

"Five thousand," the Secretary Lee replied in a low voice.

"Five thousand? Is that enough? In the past two years, the price of housing in Yinzhou has risen a lot. Five thousand, you have to work seven or eight years to afford the down payment, right?" Sam looked at the Secretary Lee with a smile on his mouth.

The Secretary Lee didn't understand Sam's meaning, so she didn't answer.

Sam continued, "If there is an opportunity to make a fortune in front of you, will you take it?"

At the moment when Sam finished his words, the Secretary Lee's face showed a hint of interest. "Master Zheng, I don't understand what you mean."

"You don't have to understand." Sam touched the Secretary Lee's soft hair and took out a check at the same time. "This is 500,000 yuan. With your current salary, you can't save so much money even if you work hard for ten years. Now, I will give it to you. All you need to do is to be obedient and do one thing for me."

Sam threw the check in his hand onto the bed and stopped talking.

Looking at the check, there was a struggle in the Secretary Lee's eyes. 500,000 yuan was an irresistible temptation for a woman like her.

Jenny's Secretary Lee took a deep breath and trembled her arms. She slowly picked up the check that was thrown on the bed.

Looking at her action, Sam sneered and said, "You are smart. You have made the most important decision in your life. Now you just need to do a very simple thing for me. Tomorrow morning, you can take this check and go to Zheng's Group to exchange for cash."

"Master Zheng, what do you want me to do?" the Secretary Lee put away the check in her hand.

"It's very simple. After I leave, you just need to run out of this villa and shout that someone took advantage of President Qin. As for that person, you have seen him just now."

"You mean..." the Secretary Lee widened her eyes.

"Mr. Henry!"

"You are a smart person. I don't need to say much."

Sam patted Jenny's Secretary Lee on the shoulder and walked out slowly.

Two minutes after Sam left, the Secretary Lee slowly walked downstairs. She stood in front of the villa door and calmed down. She took a deep breath and screamed, "Somebody come! Come on! Something happened!"

At this moment, Henry had already taken a bus, left the club, and was on the way to Yuanshi.

"Big Boss, what will you say when you see Cesia?"

When Wade was driving, his eyes glanced at Henry from time to time.

"I don't know." Henry shook his head. "Whatever you want to ask, just ask. If you ask me now, I can't answer it."

Henry looked at the phone in front of him and felt upset. He took out his mobile phone and pressed it a few times, but there was no response at all.

"Damn, the battery of smartphones is really not durable." Henry put the mobile phone into his pocket and closed his eyes to sleep.

He was thinking about how to deal with Cesia. He didn't know that in Yinzhou's clubhouse, because of him, it had become a mess.

Numerous people gathered in the villa. They all heard the screams of the Secretary Lee. After knowing what had happened, they all had a feeling of disbelief.

Sylvia's husband tried to invade Jenny, but was prevented by Jenny's Secretary Lee!

"Look, the surveillance is turned off!" Someone picked up his mobile phone and played a surveillance video. On the monitor video, a young man carried Jenny, who was unconscious, into the villa. When Jenny's Secretary Lee walked into the villa after than ten seconds, she could clearly see that Henry came out of the villa. Moreover, the clothes on Henry were exactly the same as the clothes of the person who carried Jenny into the villa!

On the second floor of the villa, Jenny held her legs and curled up in the corner of the bed. Now she was still a little confused. She only remembered that she had drunk a glass of wine beside the dance floor, and then she felt dizzy. When she woke up again, she found herself lying on the bed, surrounded by people.

Sylvia stood outside the villa with a pale face. She kept calling Henry's number, but the phone on Henry's side was turned off.

"Hey, it seems that President Lin's charm is not as strong as I imagined. Or, some people are used to eating at home, so they want to try something else!" Sam came over from the side with a smile. He looked at Sylvia and did not say anything, as if he was talking to himself.

Hearing Sam's words, Sylvia subconsciously clenched her fists, walked to a place where no one was around, and made another phone call.

"I don't care what method you use. I need all the evidence in the club that is harmful to Henry to be deleted! No matter how much money you spend, it doesn't matter!"

Chapter 229

On the highway, Yuanshi.

A white Land Rover was parked here, and a frosty woman was sitting in the driver's seat. She wore white long loose trousers and a T-shirt, which showed her hot figure and queen-like temperament.

The woman had been waiting here for an hour, but there was no impatience on her face.

"I say, Lara, what is his status? Is it worth waiting for so long?" A strong man patted the door of the Land Rover and asked impatiently.

"It's just a friend. Fred Guo, I didn't ask you to wait here." White Rose glanced at the strong man faintly and then looked into the distance.

Fred curled his lips and didn't say anything.

Half an hour later, when Fred was about to break out, a figure appeared at the high-speed entrance and slowly walked over.

At the sight of this figure, there was a hint of awe in White Rose's eyes, while Fred's face was full of anger. He didn't expect that White Rose was waiting for a man here.

"Okay, let's go." Henry stood next to the Land Rover and said to White Rose.

White Rose nodded and was ready to start the car.

Henry walked to the front passenger seat. As soon as he opened the door a crack, he was pressed by a big hand.

Fred was two meters tall, one head taller than Henry. He was twice as wide as Henry.

"Boy, this is where you want to sit? Get out of here!" Fred pushed Henry and pushed him to the back door. Then he opened the front door and sat in.

Fred's action frightened White Rose. Who was this? He was the king of the underground world, the owner of the Holy ring. But what about Fred and her? They were just the heads of two third-rate organizations. In front of the owner of the Holy ring, the two of them were not even nonentities.

"Fred Guo! What are you doing?" White Rose scolded, afraid that Fred would get himself in trouble.

"It's okay. Let's go." Henry opened the back door and sat up. He said in a calm voice.

Seeing that Henry did not care about this matter,

White Rose breathed a sigh of relief. She guessed that this person probably did not want to expose his identity.

"Fred Guo, I warn you, be polite to my friend!" White Rose hesitated for a while before she said the word "friend".

"Be polite?" Fred grinned. "I, Fred Guo, have never known what politeness means."

Fred turned his head and looked at Henry Henry. "Boy, where did you come from?"

Henry looked up at Fred and did not speak. Now, he was particularly upset. He was still thinking about what happened to Cesia and did not care about anything else.

Fred was unhappy when he saw that Henry ignored him. He scolded, "F*ck! Boy, I'm asking you something!"

"All right!" White Rose shouted, "Be quiet. If not, get off!"

"Yo!" Fred looked away from Henry and put his eyes on White Rose. "What, your little lover? How can you protect him like this? What should I do? The more you love him, the more I want to tear him into pieces!"

The corners of White Rose's mouth curled into a disdainful smile.

Who could be the one to tear him into pieces?

Land Rover drove on the highway, heading in the direction of Anshi.

There were more than 500 kilometres in total from Yuansh to Anshi. Although White Rose didn't drive too fast, they would arrive in five hours. By the time they arrived in Anshi, it was already midnight.

White Rose only received the notice that she had to go to Anshi. She didn't know what to do next, so she could only find a place to rest first.

She drove to a luxury hotel and got out of the car. She checked Henry in first.

Henry followed behind White Rose and didn't worry about these things at all.

"Madam, there is only one luxury suite." The receptionist smiled apologetically at White Rose.

"Only one? Then give it to this gentleman." White Rose pointed to Henry.

"Okay." The receptionist nodded and handed the room card to Henry.

Before Henry could take over the room card, the room card on the reception desk was taken away. "Give it to him? I'd rather give him a barn to live in."

Fred took the room card and said, "I want this room. Lara, if you want to come, I'll wait for you at night."

After Fred finished speaking, he took the room card and walked to the elevator without looking at Henry.

"Well..." White Rose looked at Henry with embarrassment. "Why don't I go..."

"No need." Henry knew what she wanted to say, so he waved his hand and refused, "Please give me another room card."

After taking the room card, Henry stood silently in front of the elevator and waited. Fred just got in the elevator and didn't wait for them. When they reached the top floor of the hotel, Fred walked out of the elevator. After thinking for a while, he pressed all the floors from the top floor to the first floor and left with satisfaction.

Opening the door of the deluxe suite, the first thing Fred did was to make a phone call.

As soon as the number was dialed, a voice rang on the phone. "Big brother, have you arrived at Anshi?"

"Yeah, there is one thing you need to arrange for me. Lara, that little girl, brought a gig*lo boy with her. Tomorrow, you will have a chance to teach that gig*lo a lesson. With Lara's protection, it's not easy for me to take action."

"Don't worry, big brother. Hand it over to me. Who is that guy?"

"A good-for-nothing is probably at a normal level. Just hurt him, don't kill him."

"Okay!"

After the phone call, Fred lay on the bed in a comfortable position.

In a room directly below Fred's luxury suite, Henry stood quietly in front of the window and looked at the night.

As an international metropolis, the night of Anshi was full of lights.

In this dazzling light, Henry seemed to see a beautiful face.

"Cesia, what the hell are you doing? How should I behave you when I see you?"

The night passed quietly. The next morning, Henry sat in the lobby of the hotel and ate breakfast.

"Sit aside, you occupied so much space. Aren't you afraid that you will choke to death?" A big hand pushed Henry rudely. Fred sat next to Henry. There were so many empty seats in the lobby, so he deliberately pushed Henry into the corner.

Henry didn't say a word. He was not in the mood to argue with this kind of trash at all. It was like a person who didn't care about a dog barking at him when he had something particularly annoying.

Seeing that Henry remained silent, Fred shook his head with no interest and said, "You're really a loser. It's boring."

Holding the breakfast, Fred sat on another table.

Henry looked up and glanced at the clock in the lobby of the hotel. It was already nine o'clock in the morning. No matter when White Rose would be informed, it meant that it was getting closer and closer to the time when he would meet Cesia.

Chapter 230

At ten o'clock in the morning, White Rose contacted Henry and said that she had received a notice that all the major organizations in the northwest had gone to the desolated desert.

The desolated desert was well-known in the western region.

Just like its name suggested, the desolated desert was in a vast desert. It was desolated. The whole desert stretched for nearly 340 kilometres. Many explorers liked to prepare enough food and cross it on foot. There were very few people who could do that.

Before entering, some people even thought it was fun. It was nothing more than more sand and dryness. It didn't matter, they brought enough water, and they could have a desert bonfire party at night.

But when they arrived here, they would find that in the endless desert they couldn't tell the direction. The hot sun was so hot that everyone was red. If they didn't put on their clothes and applied the sun cream, they would be burnt in two hours.

White Rose drove Henry into the desert. Along the way, Fred said a lot of rude words, but Henry turned a blind eye to them.

After entering the desert, a lot of people, who were originally rare to see, appeared today. Occasionally, they would meet people who greeted White Rose on the way. They were all people from the underground world.

The appointed place was in front of the wall, and for the terrain here, White Rose seemed to be very experienced.

In front of a cliff in the desert, there was a huge deep pit with a circular depth of at least five meters and a diameter of 20 meters.

White Rose told Henry that the deep pit had existed for a long time. Even if the yellow sand flowed inside, the deep hole had always existed and had not been filled.

At this moment, there were already many figures surrounding the deep pit, waiting for the person behind the scenes to appear. These people from the underground forces were all obstinate and unruly people. Now that they were called here and were waiting aimlessly, they had no complaints at all, because they knew very well that the person who entrusted the mission at that time came from Radiant Island!

They did not dare to show a bit of arrogance to the people of Radiant Island, even if they were the lowest-ranking ones on the island.

On the side of the deep pit, more than a dozen young people greeted Fred enthusiastically.

"Brother Fred, where is the boy you mentioned?" A young man with red hair asked Fred.

"It's him." Fred pointed his finger, and the young men looked in the direction where Fred pointed and saw Henry standing next to White Rose.

"Brother Fred, that boy doesn't look too strong. Is this the taste of White Rose so bad?"

"He is not as powerful as our brother Fred!"

"Let's teach them a lesson!"

A group of people put their arms around their shoulders and walked towards the place where Henry was standing.

When she saw a group of people coming together with Fred, White Rose had a bad feeling. She looked at Henry and hurried to Fred and the others.

"Fred, what are you going to do?"

"Don't do anything, sister-in-law!" The red-haired young man laughed. "The guy just provoked us with his eyes. We are going to educate him!"

"Who is your sister-in-law? If you continue to shout like that, I will tear your mouth open." White Rose glared at the red-haired young man and then warned him, "There is a big shot today. Don't make trouble!"

Her words were actually a hint to Fred. The words "big shot" was spoken loudly by her.

However, Fred did not understand the meaning at all. He could only think that the big shot mentioned by White Rose was someone from the island.

Fred laughed and said, "Big shots are big shots. In the underground world, the winner is king. It depends on fists. Will big shots break this rule? My brothers will not be bullied by others!"

"That's right. He dares to provoke us with his eyes. I'd like to see what ability he has." The red-haired young man clenched his fists, greeted the brothers behind him, and walked toward Henry.

With a smile on their lips, these people gathered around Henry, thinking about how to teach this kid a lesson later.

"Fred, I advise you to restrain your people!" White Rose warned Fred.

"Lara, as you said, this is my brother, not my subordinate. How can I order them? Are you going to fight with them?" Fred stood in front of White Rose and blocked her way. If she did anything, he could stop her immediately.

Seeing that the red-haired young man and his men were getting closer and closer to Henry, two off-road vehicles suddenly rushed past the red-haired young man and others, bringing up a gust of dust.

"F*ck, who's so blind!"

The red-haired young man and others cursed angrily. Looking at the two off-road vehicles, they saw two cars stop and open the door. Three people walked down from each car.

There were a total of six people, four men and two women. They were all dressed in ordinary sportswear, which was very simple.

The red-haired young man and the others frowned. They had never seen these six people before. They were all unfamiliar faces.

The moment Henry saw the six people, he was a little surprised. The first one was obviously Wade.

Behind him were Redhead, Sea God, Moon Goddess, Future, and Felix.

"Boss!" Wade and the others got out of the car and greeted Henry.

"Why are you here?" Henry looked at Wade and others and frowned.

"Boss, if it weren't for the severe interrogation, this idiot wouldn't have told us." Redhead looked at Henry and said, "We have been brothers for so many years. This time, something happened to our family. Of course, we have to come and see."

"That's right, boss. Otherwise, do you think I'm willing to come to this kind of place?" Sea God looked at the desert around him with a disgusted expression. He hated this dry environment very much.

Although Moon Goddess and the others did not speak, the determination on their faces told Henry that he would not be able to push them away.

Henry looked at them and shook his head helplessly. "Hey, you... Okay, let's stay and have a look."

White Rose standing on the side, listened to the people talking with Henry and felt frightened. They were brothers with the owner of the Holy ring. If they said so, their identities could be guessed.

Those were the owners of King Rings!

Looking at such a scene, White Rose was shocked. The owner of the Holy ring, and the owner of six King rings. Such a scene, would make people all over the world frightened!

Don't look at these seven people, standing here alone, but the great forces behind them were unimaginable!

The red-haired young man and others fanned the dust in front of them. They put their hands in their pockets and stared at Wade and the others unhappily. "Hey, boy, do you know how to drive? Come here and apologize to me!"

"Do you want me to apologize?" Wade looked at the red-haired young man and others with an evil smile on his face.

Chapter 231

The tire prints that had just been made by the two off-road vehicles had become the dividing line between the two groups of people.

"Redhead, did you see that? That guy's hair color is the same as yours." Felix whispered in his ear, which was obviously a provocation.

"That's okay." The corners of the red-haired man's mouth curled into a grim smile. "When I rip his head off and bury it in the ground, you won't be able to see it."

"That's right," said Felix as he nodded his head, showing that he understood this kind of thing very well.

Looking at the calm faces of Henry and others, the red-haired young man felt angry for no reason. "I asked you to apologize. Didn't you hear me?"

"I've also asked you. Are you sure you want us to apologize?" Wade said again, "What kind of apology do you want? Is saying sorry enough?"

"Hum!" The red-haired young man sneered and looked back and forth at Future and Moon Goddess. Although these two women were completely covered, he could still see their exquisite figure and unparalleled appearance.

The red-haired young man pointed Future and Moon Goddess. "Let them come and apologize to me! Otherwise, I don't mind teaching you the rules."

Wade held his hand and said to Moon Goddess and Future, "Well, he wants you. You two go."

"Okay." Moon Goddess smiled and walked toward the group of young men with lotus steps. Her toes had stepped on the dividing line.

Looking at the back of Moon Goddess, Redhead shook his head and said to Felix, "Hey, it seems that I don't have a chance to get rid of that guy's head. These people insist on choosing these two women. Haven't they heard that women are the most malicious?"

Felix nodded thoughtfully.

In the underground world, everyone was in awe of Satan not only because of his powerful strength but also because of his terrifying blood-thirsty means.

Among the ten kings on Radiant Island, there were two people who could be compared with Satan. In addition to Wade White, who was called Calamity, there was also Moon Goddess! This woman, when she was holy, she was like an angel, and when she was horrible, she would make the demons in the hell tremble!

Moon Goddess slowly walked toward the red-haired young man and the others. There were sharp blades hidden in her shaking fingertips. It was difficult for anyone who died under her to end up in one piece.

Just as Moon Goddess was about to walk to the red-haired young man and the others, the follower behind the red-haired young man pulled the red-haired young man's sleeve.

"Eldest Brother, look over there!"

The follower reached out his hand to the other side of the deep pit.

The red-haired young man looked around and saw a figure hidden in a black cloak. The appearance of this figure made the red-haired young man's eyes show a hint of respect.

This black cloak was completely made of linen, and the whole cloak was black without any patterns.

In the underground world, not everyone could wear this kind of black cloak. All the people wearing this kind of black cloak had the same nickname.

Hell Servants!

Just like the Reaper, no one knew what Hell Servants looked like. The black cloak covered all of their body.

The emergence of the Reaper meant that life was being reaped.

The Hell Servants were the spokesperson for Radiant Island. Their words represented the words of the island.

The red-haired young man and the others, who used to be very aggressive, were all obedient when they saw Hell Servant. They did not dare to be arrogant anymore, for fear of making people dissatisfied.

"Come back." Henry said at the same time.

Hearing this, Moon Goddess, who had already walked to the red-haired young man, turned around and walked back without any hesitation.

They and Henry regarded each other as brothers and sisters, but they carried out any of Henry's orders.

The red-haired young man and the others did not know that just now, the Death God almost took their lives away.

The appearance of Hell Servant drew everyone's attention. There had been some noise in this place, but it was dead silent at the moment.

Hell Servant slowly lifted his sleeve and took out a golden key. Then, he threw it into the deep pit in front of him, letting out a hoarse voice, which made it hard to distinguish whether it was a man or a woman. "My master said that there are some difficulties in this task. Whoever gets the key, the task belongs to him or her. After the task is completed, you can go to the island with the key."

After Hell Servant finished speaking, he slowly turned around and walked toward the opposite side of the deep pit.

The golden key, shining brightly in the sun, fell in the center of the deep pit.

The more than a hundred people standing next to the deep pit fell into silence tacitly. They looked at each other.

A dozen seconds later, as if everything had been settled, they all rushed into the deep hole together, aiming at the key.

It was a dream for anyone present to go to Radiant Island.

Therefore, the war was on the verge of breaking out!

There were no rules in the underground world. In other words, there was only one rule, that was, the winner was the king. Whoever had the strongest fist was the king, and he had the power.

Just like that, everyone crazily went to the centre of the deep pit and wanting to defeat the person in front of them.

The red-haired young man and the others did not act rashly. They looked at the people in the deep pit and swallowed saliva. Although they were arrogant just now, they treated Henry as well. However, toward the others in the pit, they did not dare to be arrogant.

In the pit, there were two people from second-rate organizations, and they were just third-rate organizations. The difference between the second-rate and third-rate organizations was particularly clear.

White Rose also did not move. Although she was the leader of Viper Rose, and her strength was not bad, she could compete with the people in the pit.

But now, her mentality and other people were completely different. She was very clear about what kind of person was present. In the end, this key fight was likely to be just a farce.

"Tell me, what else did that person tell you?" Henry's voice suddenly sounded behind White Rose.

White Rose turned around abruptly. She didn't realize when Henry came behind her, which shocked her. She couldn't figure out how horrible the owner of the Holy ring was. If he wanted to hurt her just now, she would be dead.

White Rose swallowed and said awkwardly, "Sir, I..."

"Speak, I don't blame you. She already knows that I am coming, right?" Henry looked at the key in the deep pit.

White Rose nodded and said, "Sir, she knows everything."

Henry asked, "Tell me, how can we see her?"

"The miss said that when one gets the key, she'll appear..."

"Get the key..." Henry had been staring at the hole, deep in thought. "Cesia, what the hell are you trying to do?"

Chapter 232

While Henry was thinking about the problem, Fred, who was beside him, sneered and said, "Boy, you are staring at that key. Do you have any ideas?"

Fred looked at Henry with a contemptuous look. "This kid really has no self-awareness at all. Even I may not be able to get the key. Does he still think that he can get it?"

Henry, who had not paid attention to Fred, turned his head at this moment and smiled at Fred. "Why, can't I watch?"

"You can, but I'm afraid that some people are overconfident and also want to go to the island!" Fred said deliberately, causing the red-haired young man and others to laugh at him.

"To the island? These useless people?"

"Do they really want to go to the island? Even if they want to go to the island, no one will want them there!"

"Look at yourself!"

There were mocking sounds one after another. Henry acted as if he had not heard them. He looked into the pit again. At this moment, there was already someone dead.

Two masters' heads were cut off in this fight.

Everyone, who was fighting for the key, decided that they should first defeat the strongest ones and then compete fairly. Therefore, in the pit, the powerful ones didn't gain the upper hand and became public targets.

Henry looked into the distance and murmured, "Cesia, what do you want to do by deliberately provoking a fight? Haven't you been yearning for peace all the time?"

Wade came to Henry and asked, "Boss, how is it going? Shall we get the key?"

Henry shook his head and said, "Just wait a little longer."

"Okay." Wade stood behind Henry, waiting for his order at any time.

The fight in the pit became more and more intense. As time went by and the blood spurted out, the people in the pit became red-eyed.

The yellow sand was dyed red with blood. The dead did not care at all. They were buried by the yellow sand and could only stay there forever. Even their bodies could not be found.

In such a short period of time, several lives had disappeared. Fighting in this kind of environment consumed a lot of physical strength.

Some people who had been standing outside the pit could not help but rush into the pit and join the battle.

As time went by, there were fewer and fewer people in the pit. The pit was accompanied by quicksand, which was like a natural grave, burying the loser.

At first, there were hundreds of people here, but now, adding the red-haired young man, there were only more than 30 people here, and the rest of them stayed here forever.

This was the law of the underground world. Henry, Wade and the others did not show any sympathy for anyone because they knew very well that if they wanted to be powerful, they had to go through this. Over the years, they had seen too many enemies fall under their feet. They had also seen their lifelong brothers fall in front of them forever.

Henry sighed and said, "Get ready to fight."

"OK!" Wade, who had been waiting for the order, nodded.

"You can leave first," Henry said to White Rose.

White Rose nodded in fear and was ready to leave without a word.

There were rules regarding Reapers. There was no living person who could see the true face of Reapers!

White Rose did not dare to hesitate. She quickly went into her Land Rover and started the car. When she passed Fred and others, she felt a little sorry. Although she did not like Fred very much, they were still friends. She did not want Fred to get hurt.

"Let's go, Fred. This has nothing to do with us. There's no need to get involved in this." White Rose sat in the car and said to Fred.

"Go, why do you want to go?" Fred asked. He pointed to Henry and others and said, "I still want to see how these waste can get the key."

"That's right. They're all good-for-nothing. They've been thinking too much!"

"Going to the island? That island is somewhere where everyone could go?"

Seeing Fred and others so stubborn, White Rose was a little anxious and persuaded, "Let's go. Don't look at them."

"No, I just want to see it! I like to see these good-for-nothings make a fool of themselves!" Fred crossed his arms in front of his chest and looked like he wanted to see a good show.

The red-haired young man and his subordinates also gathered here, waiting to watch the show. One of them even ran to the car and took a pack of pumpkin seeds.

Henry stood next to the deep pit and said lightly, "Trust me, you will regret it."

Fred obviously disdained Henry's words. He raised his eyebrows and said, "Regret it? There are no such words in my dictionary!"

Henry didn't say anything more. He glared at White Rose. White Rose didn't dare to stay any longer. She stepped on the gas pedal and left quickly.

"Go and get the key," Henry said.

"OK." The six people came to the pit.

Fred and the others looked at Henry and the others intently, as if they were looking at a joke. However, when they saw that Wade and the others slowly took out a ghost-faced mask from their waists, Fred and the other people's smiling faces turned into horror.

"Re... Reapers..." The red-haired young man's lips were trembling.

Fred's arrogant face turned pale at this moment. He finally understood what Henry meant by saying that he would regret it.

Reapers never let people see their true faces, and he had seen it just now.

Thinking of this, Fred's legs went limp and he almost knelt on the ground!

When Wade and others wore masks, each of them slowly took out a ring from their pockets and put it on their little finger.

Originally, Fred was able to stand still after knowing the identity of Wade and others, but when he saw the rings taken out by them, he couldn't stand still anymore.

"King.... Ring!"

Fred's eyes widened and his face was full of shock.

The red-haired young man and others also couldn't speak at this time. Their hearts were beating wildly. The fear filled their hearts in an instant.

The person he had been ridiculing just now, and the person he treated arrogantly, was the owner of ring from the Radiant Island, the King Ring!

When they thought that their shock was over, Henry took out the dark gold ring from his pocket and refreshed their cognition again!

The dark gold ring, worn on Henry's index finger, radiated a strange brilliance, which made people look at it and could not extricate themselves, as if it could invade one's heart.

"The Holy Ring! The Holy Ring!"

Fred looked at the ring on Henry's finger, and his body couldn't help trembling. A warm current went down his legs. Just knowing Henry's identity, he was so scared that he urinated.

"I have been provoking the owner of the ring all the time!"

Remembering what he had done last night and today, Fred couldn't wait to take out his remorse!

No wonder! No wonder White Rose was so unusual to him! The owner of the Holy Ring, the man standing on the top of the world!

Chapter 233

Henry also put on the mask. He turned around and glanced at Fred.

Just one glance from him made Fred feel suffocated!

This was a kind of fear that went directly to the soul!

In the eyes of the people in the underground world, the owner of the Holy Ring was the real God!

As they were also in the underground world, they were clear about how horrible the owner of the ring was!

The six people, including Wade, walked into the pit without saying a word.

The people in the pit were already red-eyed at this moment. They didn't care about anything. When they noticed someone walking into the deep pit, they waved their fists or took out their weapons and hit Wade and others without thinking.

Facing these people's attacks, Wade and others didn't even look at them.

One man's fist, which was about to approach

Wade's face, stopped abruptly.

The man who waved his fist was already red-eyed. After he waved his fist, he saw the ghost-faced mask on Wade's face. The appearance of the mask made his life stop.

"Re...reaper."

The man who waved his fist quickly withdrew his fist bowed humbly, and looked at Wade in awe.

Wade ignored the man and continued to walk toward the centre of the deep pit.

In the other directions, Redhead and others also encountered something similar.

The appearance of Wade and others made all the people in the deep pit stop and dare not move.

No one dared to touch the Reapers!

In this way, Wade and others, without any hindrance, came to the centre of the deep pit and got the golden key.

Henry stood on the edge of the pit. When Wade and the others got the key, Henry looked at the opposite side of the hole. A graceful figure appeared. She was dressed in black and had a prominent figure. Even if the most critical person came here, no one could find any flaw in her figure.

She also wore a ghost-faced mask, and her long silver hair was casually draped over her shoulders.

"Leave, all of you," Wade said in a low voice.

Those who stood in the pit dared not act rashly. When they heard these words, they all ran out of the pit as fast as they could as if they were granted amnesty. They did not dare to stay for even a moment and drove away.

Seeing the people who drove away, Fred and others were envious, but now they did not dare to leave.

Henry slowly took off his mask.

The person standing in front of Henry also took off her mask. What kind of face was that? If someone said that the brightest stars in the sky were her eyes, the crescent moon in the sky turned into her eyebrows, he wouldn't be exaggerating. The most beautiful scenery in the world could be outshone by her.

For those who saw her, this was not an exaggeration at all.

People who had seen her face could not describe her face with an accurate word, because any word of praise was not enough to describe her, and it would become a derogatory word for her.

"Cesia." Henry opened his mouth, and there was a hint of hoarseness in his voice.

"Brother Henry, did you miss me?" The voice of Cesia sounded magnetic, full of indescribable charm.

Henry nodded. "Yes."

Cesia rushed into the deep pit and happily ran to Henry. She passed Wade and others, then rushed into the deep pit, and threw herself into his arms.

Henry looked at the delicate body in his arms and reached out to stroke her hair.

"Brother Henry, I miss you so much." Cesia only put her arms around Henry's tiger waist, and there was a kind of deep yearning in her voice.

Wade and the others stood in the deep pit and looked at her performance. They were not surprised at all. They knew very well how much she was attached to Henry, but they really couldn't figure out why she wanted to deal with Henry.

The few of them slowly walked out of the pit.

Cesia also let go of Henry's waist and smiled. "Brother Wade, Sea God, Redhead, Uncle Felix, Sister Moon Goddess and Sister Future, you're all here."

"How can we not come after such a big accident?" Wade took off his mask. "Cesia, did you really send those people who killed sister-in-law?"

Hearing the name "Sister-in-law", the smile on her face disappeared instantly. At the same time, in her dark blue eyes, which were as beautiful as the ocean, there was strong killing intent. "Yes!"

"Why?" Henry was puzzled. "You should know that she is my..."

"That's why I wanted to kill her!" There was hatred in her eyes. "She took away my most important person. Her existence will lead to the destruction of the Radiant Island. Brother Henry, do you know how the people outside talked about us in these few months since you disappeared? More and more people began to question the dignity of our island!"

Henry didn't say anything but looked at Cesia quietly.

Cesia continued, "There's a rumour outside that you have the blueprint of the Fire Crystal, Brother Henry. Do you know how many people boarded the island and asked me about the blueprint? Who dared to do that a few months ago? Now they're looking down on the island!"

Henry sighed helplessly. He touched her soft long hair and said, "Cesia, these are just some small people. You don't have to care about them!"

"Not just small people!" Suddenly, Cesia shouted. Her appearance shocked Wade and others.

"This is our fate!" Cesia took out the colourful Tail Ring and held it in her hand. "Our dignity on the island is accumulated in the sea of corpses. It's Brother Henry's existence, a deterrence to the outside world! But now! People outside think that he is disabled! People on the island all hold back their breath and wait for his return! But what about him?"

Cesia pointed at Henry and said, "He is selfish and self-centred. He abandoned us all for a woman. He is willing to be a nobody. I want to ask you, do you still look like the Conqueror when you do this?"

"Cesia! What are you doing? Put your hand down!" Wade shouted. Obviously, her behaviour had passed the boundary.

Henry waved his hand as if he didn't care. "It's okay. Let her talk. We're family members. We don't have so many rules."

"Haha!" Cesia sneered. Her sweet appearance disappeared without a trace. "I'm just asking you, are you willing to come back! Do you really want to stay with that woman? Have you forgotten our original goal?"

"I didn't forget, but you have to give me some time." Henry said, "I will go back, but not now!"

"So, you want us to keep waiting? Did sister Future tell you that the few months after you disappeared, the Radiant Island was located several times by the outside world? How many nuclear bombs are there that may fall on us at any time! Did she?" The tone of Cesia became very excited, and the last few words were shouted out by her.

Chapter 234

"The nuclear bomb on Radiant Island?!"

What Cesia said shocked Henry. He didn't know about it.

Henry looked at Future. She did not dare to look straight at Henry. Obviously, she knew about this matter but did not tell him.

"Boss, don't blame her. We didn't let her say it." Wade stood in front of Future and endured Henry's inquiring eyes for her.

Henry took a deep breath and asked, "When did it happen?"

"Then... the third day after that great battle." Future replied in a low voice.

"Giving up Radian Island for a woman? This is not what The Conqueror would do!" Cesia's eyes suddenly became soft again. She hugged Henry's arm and said in a delicate voice, "Brother Henry, will you come back?"

Henry looked at her angelic face and shook his head slowly. "I need more time."

Cesia suddenly let go of Henry's arm. "Give you more time? Maybe tomorrow, the day after tomorrow, those bombs will fall on us. How much longer do you need?"

Henry was silent.

Looking at his silent face, Cesia laughed and said, "The bloodthirsty wolf pack has turned into weak lambs. Radiant Island is no longer the same. Henry Zhang I know is no longer The Conqueror in my opinion!"

With a wave of her hand, a silver-white pistol appeared in her palm, and it was aimed at Fred and the others.

Cesia pulled the trigger gently. With a bang, a small red dot appeared between the red-haired young man's eyebrows, and the red-haired young man fell straight down on the sand.

"There is a rule. There's no living person who has seen the true face of the Reaper, but what about now?" Cesia pointed the muzzle at another person and pulled the trigger again. "Now you don't have the courage you had before! The kind person can't survive in the underground world. Henry Zhang, I'll ask you one more time. Will you come back? If you want a woman, there are so many in the world. If you want to play, the whole island is for you, as long as you are willing to come back!"

Henry shook his head slowly. His action made Cesia laugh at herself. "Sure enough, everything I said is less important than that woman in your eyes, isn't it? Since Radiant Island is no longer the one I am familiar with, and Henry Zhang is not the same Henry Zhang I am familiar with, this ring.."

Speaking of this, she spread out her palm. The Five-coloured King Ring gave off a dazzling light in the sun. "This ring, I don't want it!"

With a wave of her hand, she threw it away.

"No!" Wade and the others exclaimed the moment she threw out her ring. Redhead even reached out to stop her, but it was too late.

The ring fell into the yellow sand and disappeared.

"From now on, there is no more Five-Colored King Ring on Radiant Island, and there is no Cesia in the world!" She took a deep look at Henry, took off the Ghost Face Mask hanging at the back of her waist, and threw it on the ground. And she turned around and walked toward the opposite direction of Henry and the others without looking back.

"Cesia!" Future shouted at Cesia and followed up.

Sea God looked at Henry, then looked at Cesia, and also strode after her.

"Boss! You will let her go like that!" Looking at Henry who stood still, Wade said anxiously.

Henry replied calmly, "This is her choice. Let's go. It's time to go back."

After saying this, Henry went to the front of Wade's car, opened the door, and sat in.

"What do you mean by this is her choice, boss? Are you really going to watch her leave?" Wade opened the door of the car.

"Get in the car first," Henry said.

Wade stood in front of the car door and hesitated for more than ten seconds. Then he punched hard on the car and got in the car.

Henry sat in the passenger seat and looked at Cesia's back. The woman became smaller and smaller in his sight.

"Boss, what the hell are you thinking?" Wade was very puzzled, and there was a hint of questioning in his tone.

"There are some things that I can't tell you." Henry shook his head. "Let's talk about it after I figure it out."

Henry's words made Wade's face stunned. "Boss, you mean..."

"The last battle was not as simple as you think." Henry let out a long sigh. "Let's go back to Ning province."

Hearing Henry's words, Wade did not ask any more questions. After greeting Redhead, he drove Henry outside of the desert.

This matter made Redhead and others annoyed. He looked at Fred and others who were still on the yellow sand. With a grim smile on his mouth, he put on the mask again and walked toward Fred.

Fred's lips trembled. Looking at Redhead getting closer and closer to him, his heart was turned to ashes. He knew that he was finished.

After Wade drove away, he didn't stay in Anshi. Instead, he went straight to the road back to Ning province.

Henry sat in the car without saying a word. He recalled what had happened a few months ago.

A few months ago, there was a huge battle that had never happened in the whole underground world. People who knew about it called it The Battle of Twilight.

There were two super forces in the whole underground world.

The first one was Radiant Island that everyone feared.

The second one was called The King Region.

Radiant Light represented the last glimmer of light in the world. It also meant that if Radiant Island fell into darkness, the whole world would fall into darkness. It could be seen how high the status of Radiant Island was.

As for The Ring Region, if they dared to use the word King in their name, it could be seen that they were very powerful.

There was Satan, The Conqueror, the so-called strongest man in the world, on Radiant Island. He led ten brothers and sisters. Each of these ten people had great power and enormous personal strength. They climbed out of the mountain of corpses and blood together, so they were as close as siblings.

The existence of The King Region had been well known since the last century. No one knew how powerful the Regio was, nor did anyone know who the president was. All they knew was that in this world, The King Region was the only underground force that could stand up against Radiant Island.

A few months ago, because of the Fire Crystals, The King Region had waged a war against Radiant Island.

The battle this time was grand, but also concealed.

The main reason was that there were dozens of mercenary organizations fighting in different places in the world. The hidden reason was that no one knew which side belonged to The King Region's and which side belonged to Radiant Island.

The war between the two major organizations directly affected the situation of the whole world. For the underground world, it had broken the rules.

Therefore, there was a high-end life-and-death battle between Radiant Island and The King Union.

Chapter 235

The so-called life-and-death battle was a battle between the two parties. Many people were aware of the battle.

The Island Owner of Radiant Island went alone to The King Region in Europe and had a life-and-death battle with the president of The King Region.

After the battle, no one in the upper-class world had ever heard of these two people, and no one knew the result of their battle.

There were speculations about the battle, but none of them could be verified. Even Wade and others didn't know what had happened at that time. Henry didn't mention anything about the battle at that time.

Henry looked at his wrist and slightly moved it.

Wade was driving, so he didn't notice Henry's movement. If he saw it, he would find that Henry was unnatural when he was stretching his wrist.

It was noon now. Henry calculated that he would be able to return to Yinzhou at about five or six o'clock in the afternoon.

"Time is running out. We need to take care of some things quickly." Henry sighed in his heart.

At this time, in the Hengyuan Trade in Yinzhou.

Jenny Qin, who was dressed in a professional suit, sat in her office and looked at the woman in front of her. She frowned and said, "President Lin, what do you mean by this?"

Sylvia's long hair fell behind her head. She was wearing a beige dress, which extended from her neck to her knees, giving people a feeling of resoluteness.

Three documents were placed on Jenny's desk.

Sylvia looked at Jenny and said calmly, "The three documents in front of you are the three biggest trading contracts that Lins Group has got now. Each of them is worth hundreds of millions of yuan. It can make a developing company raise a large sum of money in a short period of time. I have already discussed with the partners. If President Qin is willing, you can add the name of Hengyuan's trade at any time to these contracts."

Jenny glanced at the three documents and then asked, "President Lin, I don't think that Hengyuan, or I, Jenny Qin, have anything worthy of deserving this gift from President Lin?"

"It's not a gift, it's a negotiation. President Qin should not have suffered any substantial injury from last night's incident. As long as President Qin forgives this matter, these contracts will belong to President Qin." Sylvia moved lightly and walked to Jenny's desk. "President Qin, you are a businessman. You should understand that in the eyes of businessmen, you always value interests."

Jenny smiled slightly and said, "I thought that President Lin liked our Hengyuan. In the end, I felt good about myself. President Lin, if you are here to talk about cooperation today, you are welcome. But you want me to treat what happened last night as if nothing had happened. Sorry, I can't do it. I will definitely investigate this matter to the end!"

Although Jenny's tone did not show anything, there was nowhere in her eyes that could reveal her firm attitude.

Sylvia's face changed. "President Qin, are you really ready to fight with Lins Group to the death?"

"Ha!" Jenny chuckled and said, "President Lin, you really think highly of me. How can I have the ability to fight against Lins Group to the death? I'm just defending my own rights."

Sylvia's face changed repeatedly. "Well, since President Qin has made the decision, I won't say anything more. These three documents should stay here. If you have other ideas, you can contact me at any time."

After Sylvia finished speaking, she turned around and walked out of Jenny's office before Jenny could say anything else.

As soon as Sylvia stepped out of the office, she was stopped by Jenny.

"Wait a minute, President Lin!"

Jenny's voice made Sylvia's face lit up. When she turned around, she completely restrained the joy on her face.

"President Qin, have you thought it through?" Sylvia asked.

Jenny stood up from behind her desk, picked up the three files on the table, and walked over to Sylvia. "President Lin, I've thought it over. I'm not going to consider your proposal. In fact, I have a private question for you today, and I want to ask you."

Jenny put the three documents into Sylvia's arms.

Sylvia took the document subconsciously and looked at Jenny in confusion.

"Do you know, President Lin? Actually, I envy you very much. You are proud heir. You were born with the golden key, and you enjoyed something that many people did not dare to think about. But I really want to know, do you really like Henry?"

Sylvia didn't expect that the personal problem Jenny was talking about was actually this. She replied, "Henry Zhang is my husband. Of course, you don't need to worry about my feelings for him."

"Really?" Jenny smiled, "President Lin, I don't think you like Henry. If he is my man, I would make him attract everyone's attention all the time. I would let everyone understand his talent, not like yesterday, such an excellent man was teased as a fool. I don't know how you know Henry and I don't know what you two are like in daily life. I only know that I am a woman. No matter what happens at home, in front of outsiders, my man should always have his dignity."

Sylvia looked at Jenny with a playful smile. "President Qin, you seem to be very interested in my husband?"

Jenny nodded and replied bluntly, "I like him, but I know that he is married."

Hearing this, Sylvia felt a little uncomfortable. She said, "President Qin, since you know he is married, you shouldn't have feelings for him."

"I know what kind of feelings I have for him, and I won't cross the line. I only hope that since you have the happiness of being pursued by others, you should learn how to control it. Maybe in your life, there is no shortage of men who pursue you. But some people are special. If they really love someone, they should be trusted. If Henry Zhang is my husband, I would not stand in front of the victim thinking about how to shut the victim up, but I would try to find out who is trying to frame my man!"

Jenny's words made Sylvia's body tremble for no reason. In Jenny's words, she realized an important problem, that was, as Jenny said, trust!

It seemed that since what happened yesterday, what she had been thinking about was how to solve this matter and how to deal with the scandal. She never thought that this matter was not done by Henry at all!

When Sylvia walked out of the Hengyuan Trade Company, her beautiful face was full of confusion.

Chapter 236

Sylvia drove slowly toward home.

Along the way, Sylvia was thinking about what Jenny had said just now.

The dignity of men and trust were all stimulating Sylvia's heart.

Before this thing happened, Sylvia had never realized this problem.

In the past, Sylvia felt that she had fallen in love with Henry and could do her job as a so-called wife. But now, she found that she was not qualified to be a wife at all. As Jenny said, she didn't even trust Henry!

A deep self-blame filled Sylvia's heart.

When passing through the CBD, Sylvia saw banners on the street of the CBD commercial centre one after another.

Sylvia vaguely saw her name on these banners.

The Mercedes-Benz made a harsh noise and stopped on the street in front of the CBD business district. Sylvia drove the car to the business district and saw a lot of people surrounding the banners, pointing directly at the banners.

The Lin's mansion, which was rebuilding the two top floors, was also surrounded by people.

Looking at the words on the banner, Sylvia trembled with anger.

"Lins Group had done all kinds of evil things! The president Sylvia Lin protected her husband Henry who insulted a woman!"

Banners like this completely filled the entire business district of the CBD.

In Yinzhou, everyone knew Lins Group. Such a scandal naturally attracted a lot of onlookers, and news reporters would not let go of this opportunity. They squeezed around Lin's Building and made all kinds of reports. Some media made up one story after another in order to attract people's attention.

"Master Zheng, what do you think of this?"

In a small restaurant, Sam Zheng looked at the banners hanging everywhere with satisfaction. "You did a good job this time. You will get a lot of benefits."

Sam had already imagined how to deal with Henry, who dared to humiliate him in the party and punched him and ruined his good plan. If he didn't teach him a lesson, he, Master of the Zheng Family, would be beaten for nothing.

Downstairs, when Sylvia saw these banners, her phone began to ring crazily. She just answered a phone call. After talking for more than ten seconds, she found that there were three or four missed calls on the phone. All of them called just now.

"President Lin, something's wrong, something's wrong!" Secretary Lee's anxious voice rang out on the phone.

In addition to Cathy Lee, the shareholders of the company almost blew up Sylvia's phone.

The Lins Group was a big enterprise. As the head of the business district in the Yinzhou, every move of the Lins Group was noticed. This incident had greatly damaged the reputation of the Lins Group. At the same time, it had a serious impact on the stock of the Lins Group. Within half an hour after the banners were hung, under the artificial effect, the news had already occupied the headline of Yinzhou. Many people were talking about this matter.

The ringing of the phone made Sylvia annoyed. She simply turned on the flight mode, got off the car, and walked to the nearest banner.

Walking to the banner, Sylvia reached out and directly tore down the banner.

"Who the hell are you?!" A young worker, who was hanging a banner, looked at Sylvia with a look of dissatisfaction. "Why, do you think that a beauty can be arrogant? Believe it or not, I'll beat you up!"

"Did you hang this banner?" Sylvia looked at the young man in front of her and questioned him.

"What's wrong? I'm the one who hung it. What are you dissatisfied with?" The young man said arrogantly.

"Do you know that if you do this, I can sue you on purpose for hurting others' reputation!"

"You want to sue me? Okay, go ahead and sue me! I'd like to see how you want to sue me." The young man said with a look of indifference.

As soon as he finished his words, he heard a clicking sound.

Sylvia took out her mobile phone and took a photo of the young man and the banner together.

This action of taking photos made the young man extremely angry. He, who had been careless before, shouted on the spot, "B*tch! What are you taking photos of? Delete it!"

Sylvia ignored the young man. Holding her mobile phone, she walked to another banner and took pictures of the man and the banner.

As soon as Sylvia finished taking this photo, she felt a push on her shoulder. Before she could react, someone pushed her from behind, and at the same time, her phone was taken away.

Sylvia looked back and found that the young man had taken away her cell phone.

"What are you doing? Give my cell phone back to me!" Sylvia grabbed him and planned to take her cell phone back.

The young man easily avoided Sylvia's face. With a dirty smile on his face, he kept sliding through Sylvia's mobile phone with his fingers. "Tsk, tsk, tsk. There are a lot of photos. You're really beautiful. Hey, I like you. Oh, I want you to wear this dress. I like this dress too. You must be wonderful in bed. This, tsk, it's not bad."

The young man commented while leafing through Sylvia's mobile album.

"Give me back your phone!" Sylvia shouted angrily. The dirty words of the young man made her particularly angry.

Some onlookers around heard Sylvia's voice and looked at this direction together. The effect of beautiful women was better than men. When they found out that this young man took Sylvia's mobile phone, some onlookers blamed the young man and asked him to return the mobile phone to Sylvia.

"Okay, I'll give it back to you." The young man grinned and smashed Sylvia's mobile phone to the ground, and the screen was directly broken into pieces.

"Oh!" The young man deliberately showed a surprised expression. "Sorry, it slipped."

Everyone could tell that the young man did it on purpose.

Sylvia's anger rose from the bottom of her heart. She couldn't think of a good way to deal with such a scoundrel. A mobile phone was not very valuable in Sylvia's eyes, but he was so stingy that she couldn't bear with him.

Sylvia picked up her mobile phone from the ground and turned around to leave, but it was too late.

What happened just now made a lot of people gathered here, including many reporters. Some people recognized Sylvia at a glance, who immediately surrounded her.

"President Lin, I am a reporter from Bei Mang TV station. I want to ask, this time your husband made such a scandal. As his wife, are you really willing to continue to cover him up?"

"President Lin, I'm from Black Fruit TV Station. It's said that you're not married. Have you been secretly married all this time?"

"President Lin, I'm..."

A large group of people completely surrounded Sylvia. All kinds of questions were particularly tricky, and none of them were easy to answer.

Chapter 237

Sylvia wanted to push the reporters away, but she couldn't do it at all.

Fortunately, at this time, Anna Jiang squeezed in from the side.

"President Lin, are you okay?" Looking at the broken phone in Sylvia's hand, Anna frowned.

"I'm okay. Let's leave here first." Sylvia said.

As a bodyguard, Anna didn't follow Sylvia all the time. The task she received was that someone wanted to kill Sylvia, and she was trying to prevent this kind of situation from happening.

Therefore, when she came to the business district in the CBD, Anna's professional ethics told her that although it was full of banners now, it had nothing to do with her task. What she had to do was to observe the surrounding situation first. So just now, she did not appear at Sylvia's side immediately.

In fact, as a bodyguard of such a special task, Anna's reaction was extremely fast. But what happened just now made Anna feel very sorry in her heart.

With Anna's protection, although Sylvia was still surrounded by the reporters, she was no longer like the duckweed but was able to slowly walk out of the business district.

In the restaurant.

"Master Zheng, look, there seems to be an accident." A man standing beside Sam pointed to the place surrounded by many reporters.

Sam squinted his eyes. When he saw Sylvia's figure, a smile appeared on his face. "Now that the queen is here, it's time to start the show."

Sam picked up a piece of tissue, wiped his mouth, got up, left the restaurant, and slowly walked toward the location of Sylvia.

Sylvia was surrounded by reporters. For a while, she couldn't walk out at all, because there were too many people here. Some onlookers wanted to see what this evil wife looked like.

"According to the reporters, Sylvia Lin, the president of Lins Group, refused to answer all the questions. There is no reasonable explanation for this matter. According to the informed sources, from last night until now, her husband's phone has been turned off, and he hasn't shown up, so it is suspected that he has escaped for his crimes."

"Ladies and gentlemen, we are now in the CBD of Yinzhou..."

One by one, the reporters began to broadcast. The background behind them was Sylvia's silence in the crowd.

"President Lin! Please answer!"

"President Lin, why are you silent? Don't you have any explanation?"

"President Lin, do you think money is beyond the law? Or do you think that your Family Lin is going to take full control of everything?"

"President Lin!"

The voices of the reporters were in a mess, but they were harsh and passed into Sylvia's ears.

"All right, stop it!" Suddenly, there was a loud shout.

As soon as the reporters around Sylvia saw the speaker, they immediately gathered around him.

Although Zhengs Group was not as big as Lins Group in scale, it was also considered a well-known company in Yinzhou.

Moreover, Sam Zheng, as the only heir of Zhengs Group, had just returned to Yinzhou. This kind of fancy news of young master was also popular in people's mind.

"Mr. Zheng, why are you here at this time? Do you have anything to say about this matter?"

"Mr. Zheng, it's said that your family and the Family Lin are best friends. I'm wondering if Mr. Zheng is here for what happened last night."

"Mr. Zheng, do you know Henry? What kind of person is he?"

"Master Zheng..."

Facing the journalists one question after another, Sam chose not to answer with silence as Sylvia did. Instead, he said, "Everyone, I'll answer your questions one by one."

"First of all, I do have something to say. Don't make things difficult for President Lin. To be precise, President Lin is also the victim of this matter. After all, her husband is a scumbag and has nothing to do with her. I am very clear about what happened last night."

"The second question, we, Zhengs Group and Lins Group, are indeed best friends. Ms. Sylvia Lin and I are childhood sweethearts. This time, as a good friend, I feel sorry for President Lin. After all, everyone has the right to kill scum like Henry!"

"The third question, what kind of person is Henry? He is just a son-in-law of the Family Lin. We are all sensible people. We should know what a son-in-law looks like. A man who can be a son-in-law for money. What do you think of his personality and his character?"

"And, about the authenticity of the matter, I can tell you that the words on these banners are not fake at all. Last night, it was the victim's secretary who saw it with her own eyes that Henry was ready to r*pe the victim. If the victim's secretary did not appear in time, the consequences would be unimaginable. With Henry's character, he would certainly do something more."

Sam's continuous answers attracted the attention of a large number of journalists.

"Mr. Zheng, what do you think we should do with such a person?"

Sam put on a righteous look and said, "He took advantage of the weak and insulted a woman. If they were put in ancient times, such a person should be drowned in the cage!"

Sam's words attracted a burst of applause.

Sam added, "A man should have his own responsibility. A man like Henry, who has no responsibility and only wants to be an evil person, doesn't deserve to stay in this world!"

Hearing Sam's words, even those reporters nodded in agreement.

Sylvia stood there and listened to Sam's words. She couldn't wait to rush over, grab the microphone, and tell everyone that Henry was not such a person, but now her words were not convincing at all.

"Mr. Zheng, I don't agree with you. If Henry is only a son-in-law and has such a bad character, why does President Lin support him so much?"

"I like your question very much." Sam smiled. This reporter was specially arranged by him. Sam said, "President Lin doesn't protect Henry alone. You should know that Lins Group is the top group in Yinzhou. If there is something wrong with Lins Group, it will affect not only a few people's interests but also the employees of Lins Group. As for Henry, he values this point very much. He is sure that President Lin will protect him, so he is so unscrupulous!"

"I see!" The reporter who had just asked about the problem nodded in a pretence. "In this case, Henry is really shameless to use so many people as his shield. This kind of person, absolutely can't be tolerated!"

"That's right! We can't tolerate him!"

"Henry must give an explanation for this matter!"

"Mr. Zheng, what do you think about this matter?"

"My opinion is very simple." Sam stretched out a finger and said, "Punish him severely!"

Chapter 238

Sam's words attracted a lot of cheers.

The Master of the Zheng Family was also the only successor of the Zheng Group in the future.

As for Henry, he was just a son-in-law of the Family Lin. Their status was very different. But judging from his mind, the master of the Zheng Family was much stronger than the son-in-law!

For a moment, Henry became the target of public criticism. Those who knew or did not know him, all discussed Henry.

With Henry's notoriety, Sam's image became bigger and bigger. Originally, many people did not have much impression of the Zheng's Group, but because of the appearance of Sam Zheng, the Zheng's Group suddenly became bigger in the eyes of everyone.

There were even people who were specially arranged by Sam to put forward such a theory among the onlookers.

In the business district of the Yinzhou, the Lin Family shouldn't be the dominant one. Look at Henry, even if the Lin Family was too powerful to cover such a disaster, there should be a balance, so everyone should support other companies more!

They had to admit that Sam played this step very well.

Now, public opinion was completely one-sided. No matter if there was any definite evidence, almost everyone thought that Henry was the villain. Sam's move not only pushed Henry into a desperate situation but also made a big advertisement for Zheng's Group!

Sylvia wanted to leave now, but she was not reconciled. Now there were so many reporters here. If she left, the matter this time would really be unclear. Who knew what the reporters would say?

An Aston Martin, at this time, got off the highway and completely entered Yinzhou.

As soon as they entered the city, Wade received a phone call. The person on the phone only used a few words to explain to Wade what had happened.

"Big Boss, something happened." Wade opened a news page and handed the mobile phone to Henry.

On the Internet, it was reported about the banners in the CBD. Various titles, in bright red, were printed about Henry. Below those titles, there were all pictures of Sylvia surrounded by reporters.

"Put on an act of humiliation?"

Henry frowned. "Let's go to the CBD."

Aston Martin, which was originally driving slowly, let out a violent roar and turned into a beast, running on the street.

Soon, Wade and Henry came to the CBD, where more and more people gathered. When it was the time to get off work, those who worked in the business centre saw the banners as soon as they left work, and all joined the crowd.

Sam spoke loudly, expressing his dissatisfaction with Henry's behaviour of humiliating a victim. He scolded him in a loud voice. He said that no matter what the victim thought of this matter and whether or not the victim would pursue this matter, his Zheng's Group would make a public justice and seek justice for the citizens of Yinzhou!

Such a statement naturally attracted a lot of applause again.

"Is Henry's phone on?" Sylvia stood not far away, frowning and asking Anna.

"President Lin, Henry's phone has been turned off." Anna kept calling Henry's number. "President Lin, let's leave here first. Now the situation is too chaotic, and your own safety is difficult to guarantee."

"No, I can't." Sylvia shook her head. "As soon as we leave, Sam may be able to say anything else. Those reporters are now staring at me fiercely. As long as I show any intention of leaving, all kinds of stories will fly everywhere. Now I have to find evidence. Please contact Cathy Lee for me and let her contact President Qin's secretary. The truth of this matter must be revealed!"

"There's no need to do it. I know the truth." Suddenly, a voice sounded behind Sylvia.

At the moment when she heard the voice, Sylvia's body shook. She looked back and saw Henry standing behind her.

"Sorry, all of this is hard for you." Henry grabbed Sylvia's little hand.

Seeing Henry's appearance, Sylvia's hanging heart seemed to find someone to rely on. "Why is your phone turned off?"

"Out of power, and I don't have a charger." Henry scratched his head. "I'll handle this matter."

Henry's gentle eyes moved away from Sylvia and shouted at the place where the reporters gathered, "I am Henry. If you have any questions, come and ask me!"

Henry's name attracted a lot of attention. As soon as Henry finished his words, countless flashes hit him. The reporters, like wild beasts who hadn't seen meat for seven days and were hungry, surrounded Henry with their eyes flashing green light.

All kinds of questions were also asked by these reporters without any scruple.

"Mr. Zhang, what are you going to explain this time?"

"Mr. Zhang, may I ask why you were unavailable for the past few days? Are you trying to avoid this matter?"

"Mr. Zhang, how many times have you done such despicable things? Have you considered the victim's feelings?"

"Mr. Zhang..."

One question after another, the problem was set up in the trap. Only this tricky question could attract more attention.

Facing these reporters, Henry kept smiling.

"Mr. Henry, have you ever considered what consequences you will bring to her people by doing this? Do you think you are still a human for your selfish desires?"

"Human? Of course, he is not a human being. The person who can do this kind of thing is worse than animals!" Sam laughed and slowly walked toward Henry. "Everyone, listen to me, since Henry has appeared, I think what you are doing now should not be an interview, but call the police and let the law punish such a person!"

"Yes, call the police!" Hearing Sam's words, someone called the police on the spot.

Henry, who had been silent for a long time, smiled after he heard Sam's voice and said, "Mr. Zheng, I don't agree with you."

"You don't agree?" Sam sneered. "Do you think that bullying women should go unpunished?"

"Of course not." Henry shook his head. "This person is certainly even worse than animals. I think this kind of person should be spat to death on the spot. What do you think?"

"Ha, ha, ha!" Sam laughed and said, "It's really interesting. Henry, do you want to clean yourself by saying this now? Do you really think that Lins Group can ignore the law and do whatever you want?"

Henry glanced around the reporters around him and said, "No, but I disdain this method. All the reporters and friends, I have another version about this matter. Do you want to listen to it?"

Hearing the words "another version", these reporters were extremely excited as if they had been injected adrenalin.

Chapter 239

Sam was very clear about what had happened that night. Of course, he knew who the protagonist of this matter was.

When Sam heard that Henry had another version to say, he was the first to speak.

"What are you trying to say? Didn't you do this? Did you mean that President Qin's secretary deliberately slandered you? Did you mean that the surveillance video we saw at that time was fake?"

"It's impossible. It's Henry who did this! Look at this video. It's from my source!" A reporter arranged by Sam took out his mobile phone and played a video.

Although the video on his mobile phone was somewhat blurred, everyone could still see that a person, who was wearing the same colour as Henry now, carried a woman into a villa. A few minutes later, Henry walked out of the villa. The camera clearly got his face.

"Look, after Henry left, the victim's secretary shouted for help. What else could there be in this matter?"

As soon as this video came out, it caused an uproar. It could be said that it had already smashed Henry's evil deeds. Could he really deny it? Everyone was a video. At a glance, they could see that this video had no traces of being edited!

"Henry, what else do you want to say?" Sam looked at Henry and questioned him.

Henry gave a hand gesture and said, "Now that you've said so much, I have nothing else to say. But I also want to show a video here."

Henry waved his hand to the side. Wade ran over with a power bank and a charger, which Henry had just asked him to buy.

"Get out of the way, all of you!" Wade squeezed into the crowd and handed the power bank to Henry.

Soon, Henry's cell phone was turned on again. As soon as the cell phone was turned on, countless text messages came in, all indicating that there were a lot of missed calls.

Henry didn't look at it. He deleted all the text messages and played a video.

This video was clearer than the surveillance video taken out by the reporter just now. This video was taken inside the villa.

And the protagonist in the video was Sam Zheng.

Sam, who was standing not far away from Henry, saw the video on Henry's mobile phone at a glance, which made his face change sharply. He had no time to consider how Henry would be able to be in the villa at that time and even take a video.

"Hey, Henry, did you arrange someone to shoot a video on the day you disappeared?" Sam shouted, trying to divert the attention of those reporters.

But who were the reporters? The more information, the better. Now that they had new discovery, they would naturally not be attracted by Sam's words. Their eyes and cameras were all focused on Henry's mobile phone.

As the video played, it could be clearly seen that Sam was standing in the villa. After a while, a young man appeared with a graceful figure on his back. This young man was exactly the person on the surveillance video.

Then, they heard Sam saying to throw her on the bed, and he put on his mask, took off his coat and climbed to the bed.

When the video came to this place, it stopped abruptly.

Although they didn't get to see how Henry dealt with Sam later, everyone understood what had happened in this situation.

This matter was not what the public opinion thought!

At the same time, Wade whispered in Henry's ear, "Boss, she's here."

"Bring her here." Henry turned off his mobile phone and looked aside.

Jenny Qin's secretary, led by two uniformed policemen, came.

Although Henry had concealed his identity, it didn't mean that he couldn't use his relationships. After learning about this a few minutes ago, Henry asked Wade to investigate this matter.

In a short period of time, Wade found out that Jenny's secretary went to Zhengs Group to get five hundred thousand cash this morning.

In front of so many reporters, Wade naturally announced this matter, which immediately attracted the attention of the reporters.

Being bombarded by the reporters one after another, the secretary couldn't bear it and said that the check was given to her by Sam Zheng.

"Mr. Zheng, why did you give the other party five hundred thousand yuan?"

"Mr. Zheng, what do you want to say about the video provided by Mr. Henry?"

"This video doesn't have any edited content. Master Zheng, how do you want to explain?"

A series of questions were asked one after another.

Sam never thought that Henry would have the video from that night! Moreover, the thing that he gave secretary 500,000 yuan was found out so quickly.

In fact, it was not Sam's fault that he didn't do it well enough. After all, if one wanted to investigate the check of the Zheng's Group, without Sam's approval, he one could do anything.

But Sam was wrong. He was the one who provoked Henry. If Henry wanted to find out something, he wouldn't need Sam's approval.

The public opinion, which was originally one-sided, changed its direction completely after Henry show this video.

Sam's newly established human trap collapsed in a short time!

Just moments ago, Sam said to the camera, "Henry is worse than animals, cut him into pieces, ignore the law, punish him severely, and so on." But now, the kind of person he said was himself!

"Master Zheng, let's leave now!" The man beside Sam pulled him.

Obviously, the current situation was beyond control. If Sam continued to stay here, it would be difficult to predict what would happen next.

"Let's go!" Sam's face darkened. He knew that today's matter could not continue as he had planned.

Sam wanted to leave, but now, it was not easy for him to leave. The reporters had surrounded the place tightly. Outside the business district of the CBD, the siren of the police car had already sounded.

When the police arrived, they immediately drove away the onlookers and sealed this place.

"President Lin!" Cathy Lee, secretary of Lins Group, ran over, panting. "President Lin, the shareholders can't get through to you, but now..."

"It's okay." Sylvia shook her head at Cathy Lee. "The matter has been solved."

Cathy Lee noticed that the two policemen had already walked up to Sam.

Sam had asked someone to call the police to arrest Henry, but at this moment, Sam was caught.

As for Henry, he was an acquaintance in the police station. When the police saw him, they politely said a word to Henry to ask him to go back to the station to assist in the investigation.

Those who were holding banners were all "asked" to go back to the station because they gathered in order to make trouble.

The banners all disappeared in a short time.

Henry looked at the efficiency of these policemen. Without thinking, he knew that Wade had used his connections. With Wade's status, just a few words could scare the captain of Yinzhou to pee pants.

Chapter 240

Assisting the investigation mentioned by the police was nothing more than a formality. Henry came out in less than three minutes after he entered the police station. On the other hand, Sam was completely locked up.

"Lock me up? Do you know who I am? I am the future successor of Zheng's Group! You locked me up! Believe it or not, I will go out in a few days and let you all be fired!"

Sam roared in the interrogation room.

The policeman who was in charge of the interrogation shook his head. Captain Han who went out to train, but if she was there, Sam would probably have been beaten black and blue.

Sylvia stood at the entrance of the police station, waiting for Henry. When Henry appeared, she immediately went up to him.

"These two days were extremely difficult for you, right?" Henry looked at Sylvia with distress in his eyes.

Sylvia shook her head and kept silent. What Jenny said to her before was still echoing in her mind. The word trust was like a sharp knife cutting Sylvia's heart.

Now the matter was basically clear, and Henry had nothing to do with this matter.

But why, yesterday, the first thing she thought about was not to believe in Henry but to settle this matter. Was she really like what Jenny said. She did not like him, but she liked this feeling of dependence?

As for her feelings, Sylvia was a little confused.

"What's wrong?" Looking at Sylvia's silent face, Henry was a little worried.

"Everything is okay." Sylvia forced a smile and said, "Let's go home."

"Okay." Henry nodded and got into Sylvia's car.

In the car, Sylvia didn't say a word, and even the sound of music was as low as possible.

"Dear, why do I feel that you are in a bad mood?" Henry turned his face and looked at Sylvia. He felt that something was wrong.

Sylvia couldn't help asking, "Do you know Jenny Qin... very well?"

Henry replied, "I'm not very familiar with her. She's just an ordinary friend."

"Why do I feel that Jenny seems to like you a little bit?" Sylvia felt uncomfortable when she thought of Jenny's words to her in the afternoon and how Jenny admitted that she liked Henry bluntly.

"She likes me? Honey, don't make fun of me. I've told her that I'm married." Henry held his hand and stared at Sylvia's beautiful side face.

Under Henry's hot gaze, Sylvia felt a little unnatural. "What are you looking at?"

"Dear, are you jealous?" Henry raised his eyebrows and looked at Sylvia strangely.

"Jealous? Do I need to be?" Sylvia snorted and her cheeks were slightly red.

Henry nodded.

After being amused by Henry's words, Sylvia felt much better. She said in a weak voice, "Honey, there are still seven days until the end of the renovation. Shall we go on a trip tomorrow?"

Sylvia wanted to spend more time with Henry. She wanted to know more about the man beside her.

In the past, Sylvia had been passively in love with Henry. She liked Henry taking care of her, liked Henry's talents, liked Henry's concern for her, and liked him desperately look at her.

But now, Sylvia had to take the initiative to fall in love with this man. It was a deeper emotional change for a person to take the initiative to fall in love with somebody.

"Okay." Henry nodded. "Where do you want to go? Do you have a plan?"

"Tonight, let's plan together."

When Henry and Sylvia went home, they saw Milan sitting on the sofa.

As soon as she saw Henry and Sylvia come back, she spoke.

"Henry, you've caused a lot of trouble today. Which girl made you act like a beast? Is it that my Sylvia can't satisfy you?" Milan smiled and said. Apparently, she was joking with Henry and Sylvia Lin. "Sylvia, I'm not talking about you. A woman should take the initiative to do something romantic with her husband so that she can catch a man's heart!"

Sylvia blushed at what Milan said. She grabbed a pillow and threw it at Milan. She said shyly, "I will kill you!"

"Tsk!" Milan glanced at her and said, "Henry, you didn't teach your wife well. You've been married for such a long time, but she is still so shy. If I were you, I would give her some stimulation to build up her courage!"

Henry wiped the sweat from his forehead. "Milan is really able to say anything!"

After washing up a little, Henry and Sylvia leaned against the sofa, holding a tablet and watching it non-stop.

"Hey, what are you two discussing?" Milan leaned over.

"We are discussing where to travel." Sylvia pointed to the travel strategies on the tablet. "Milan, you used to like travelling around. Give us some suggestions."

"Travel? Go to Hangzhou! Master Ferger has an exhibition in Hangzhou the day after tomorrow, and I'm wondering if I should go there. If you two decide to travel, then what else do you have to think about? You must go to Hangzhou! I'm familiar with that place!" Milan patted her chest excitedly. Because of the loose pyjamas, it looked a bit awkward.

Henry turned his head awkwardly.

"Master Ferger's exhibition?" Sylvia was interested when she heard it.

Last time, Henry told Milan that he and Sylvia met in the exhibition of Master Ferger. At that time, Sylvia was thinking about how good it would be if she could go to Master Ferger's exhibition once. She had been thinking about it for many years, but she had never had a chance.

This time, she finally had a chance to relax and catch up with Master Ferger's exhibition, which really moved Sylvia.

Sylvia looked at Henry and asked him, "Honey, what do you think?"

"Then let's go. We met each other in the exhibition. It's good to visit one more time." Henry winked at Sylvia.

Sylvia blushed even more at the thought of what she had made up for Milan in order to save her face.

About the trip, they just made a decision. They planned to take a plane and leave tomorrow. Of course, money was not something they had to consider.

Henry asked Sylvia to rest first. After telling her that he still had things to do, he went out of the house.

After leaving home, he looked at the time and found it was only nine o'clock. It was summer, and it was not long before the sky turned dark.

After thinking about it, Henry called Jenny and asked her about her situation.

"You are really a schemer. You were there at the right moment." Jenny said on the phone, "Did you save me that night?"

"I am a brave man in green forest. When I see injustice, I will pull out my knife to help." Henry patted his chest. "Generally, there are some side effects of the knockout powder. During this period of time, try to drink more water and sweat as much as possible. Otherwise, you will feel a lack of energy recently."

"You called me just to tell me this?" Jenny said in a faint voice.

"Yeah, be careful when you're outside." Henry reminded her.

Jenny sighed. "It's so tiring to be careful. If only I had you by my side, just like Sylvia, how nice would that be..."
