

Chapter 281

Tan just accused Future that she had been with him because of his money moments ago. But now, he was completely stunned by Future.

What now?

The matter developed completely out of Tan's expectation.

What kind of person was he rejecting?

Looking at Future in plain clothes and the yellow-faced woman in gold and silver beside him, Tan felt cruel in his heart. He took a deep breath and walked to Future. He bent his legs and knelt down directly!

"Anna, I was wrong! Please forgive me. I love you. I will divorce that woman tomorrow. Please don't leave me, okay?"

Tan's eyes were filled with pleading.

When the onlookers saw it, they immediately understood.

A g*golo boy found the girl was much richer than the woman he was with now, all he wanted to was money, and he would do anything for money.

All of a sudden, a group of people cast a sarcastic look at him. Just now, they said that this guy had guts. What kind of guts did he have? Bah!

"I don't want to see you anymore. Get out of my way!" Future gave a disgusted look at him. When she was about to walk away, she was hugged by him.

"Anna, I really love you. Please, don't leave me, okay?"

Henry waved to the middle-aged man in the suit.

The middle-aged man immediately understood what Henry meant. He took two steps forward, grabbed the collar of Tan, and pulled him away.

"It's up to you where to bury him," Henry said impatiently. He had no good impression of such scum at all.

If it hadn't had some accidents today, Future would have been cheated by Tan.

The middle-aged man nodded knowingly.

"Let's go." Henry put his arms around Future's shoulder and walked in another direction.

The sound of Tan crying and wailing kept coming from the entrance of the hotel, begging her not to leave him.

The middle-aged man ignored him. He put away his things and drove away. At the same time, he asked someone to clean up the scene.

The onlookers slowly dispersed when they saw that the main people had left.

In the end, only Tan was left kneeling at the entrance of the hotel. His voice was hoarse and regretted. He fully understood that he had missed out on the most important opportunity in his life.

"Are you done crying?" Tan's wife walked to the front of him and looked down.

"W... wife..." Tan looked up at the woman with heavy makeup in front of him and tried to squeeze out a smile.

The wife chuckled and stretched out one leg in front of her. "Come on, lick my toes and I'll forgive you."

Tan was stunned, and then he held the woman's feet with a face of kindness. Just as he was about to take off the shoe, he was kicked in the face by the woman. "B*tch, aren't you going to divorce? Fine, I will make your wish come true. From now on, if you dare to touch me again and step into my family. I will disable you!"

Then, she turned around and walked in another direction. Tan was left alone there.

The continuous blows completely made him collapse. He not only missed a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity but also lost his good days in the future!

Tan's eyes were fixed on the distance. That was the direction Henry and Future left.

"B*tch! If it weren't for you I wouldn't have been so miserable! B*tch!" Tan cursed with hatred in his mouth.

He stood up, patted the dust on his knees, and glared at the position at the door of the hotel. There were a few door guards standing there. "What the f*ck are you looking at!"

A few door boys were so frightened that they quickly withdrew their eyes.

Tan wobbled forward, but after a few steps, a Buick commercial car without a car plate stopped in front of him. Two people got out of the car, carried him into the car without saying anything, and then quickly disappeared on the street.

Henry walked with Future. In other people's eyes, Future was a genius, but in Henry's heart, she was just a little sister.

"Boss, did I look like a fool today?" Future's eyes were still red.

"What's there to be ashamed of? I think you looked quite beautiful when you smashed the car." Henry smiled.

"All right, Boss, I know how stupid I am. At least, I won't make fun of you anymore. I've deleted the photos taken today." Future put her hands behind her back and lowered her head. "In fact, I've known Tan for a long time. I used to..."

"Alright." Henry rubbed Future's head. "When people meet each other, there should be a process of getting to know each other. Some things should not be preconceived. Feelings, no matter how much you have experienced, will get you carried away. You learned a lesson today, but you didn't suffer too much. Talk to Wade White, who has a lot of insight into men who cheat on women."

Henry's words made her laugh. "Boss, I won't do that. I'd better hang out with you guys. At most, I'll ask Brother Redhead to find me a Duke of the royal family."

"It's okay to find somebody for you. You should also like him." Henry laughed and said, "Well, you didn't eat much tonight. If you want to eat something, I'll go with you to get some food."

Henry was talking when the phone rang.

As soon as he saw the caller, Henry picked up the phone and said directly, "I was just talking about you to Future, what's matter?"

"Big Boss, you two should be good to me. I have lived in vain for so many years!" Wade's voice sounded on the phone. "My sister-in-law has arrived in Yinzhou City, and she is safe at home. We have arranged for people to watch after her."

"Okay." Henry nodded. "In the next few days, I'll leave Sylvia's safety to you. Remember, you must not expose yourself unless it's critical. After a while, I'll personally go to Yanjing and catch those underground people!"

If the man behind these attacks was not found, Henry's heart would be uneasy. People would always be negligent, and the knives hidden in the dark could stab at an unimaginable angle at any time.

Henry hung up the phone, patted Future on her shoulder, and walked toward the city center.

10 o'clock in the evening.

The Hangshi University of Science and Technology laboratory was already in a state of exclamation. A group of top-notch scientists led by Kimmy Ming were all looking at the results in front of them in disbelief.

They poured three litres of water into an engine. After a few seconds, the engine began to operate slowly. Not to mention anything else, the technique alone could spread all over the world in the shortest time when it was used in the car.

In another lab, Josh looked at the door with a gloomy face. He grabbed the phone and dialed a number.

"Hey, they've figured it out."

"Tell me where it is."

"I will transfer all the police forces away from Hangshi Technology laboratory. As for the rest, it depends on you." Josh's eyes were full of viciousness.

Chapter 282

At 11 o'clock in the evening, in the Hangshi Science and Technology Research Office.

The whole lab was still in a state of excitement.

This project of water energy was absolutely a turning point. Now, as long as they waited until dawn, they could apply for the patent with this technology.

"Congratulations, President Xiao." Josh came to the laboratory of Chris and said.

There was neither joy nor worry on Josh's face.

"It's all thanks to you, President Yang. If it weren't for you, I wouldn't be able to study it so quickly, would I?" Chris smiled.

Josh had used such a shameless method before, so Chris naturally wouldn't give him too much respect.

How could Josh not understand the meaning of Chris? He was referring to the thing about the person who rebelled against him. Josh smiled at Chris, shook his head, and left the lab.

At the same time when Josh left, Secretary Zhao had already sent all the security forces in front of the lab home, and all the monitors were turned off.

In the pitch-dark night sky, a chilling atmosphere pervaded the air.

Ten figures walked into the office in the dark night.

These ten figures moved very quickly and were very agile. In everyone's hands, there was a cold light flashing.

The ten people rushed to the gate, but in an instant, they stopped.

Just in front of the door of the laboratory, there was a young man sitting there. He was the man who brought people to protect Chris who was being attacked in The 19th floor.

The young man slowly got up and leaned against the door, with a piece of grass in his mouth.

Looking at the ten people in front of him, the young man spat the grass in his mouth and said softly, "Reapers?"

At this time, the ten figures standing in front of the young man were wearing a ghost-faced mask on their faces.

"Now that you know, how you dare to stay in our way. I really admire your courage." One of them said in a hoarse voice.

A disdainful smile appeared on the young man's face. "There's an old saying, When the cat's away, the mice will play. In my opinion, you so-called Reapers are just a group of rats!"

"Anyone who provokes the dignity of the Radiant Island, die!" The leader waved his sharp blade and quickly rushed toward the young man.

The young man leaned against the door. When one of the attackers was about to rush in front of him, his eyes suddenly lit up. One hand on his waist, a soft sword was pulled out by the young man.

In the dark night, a cold light flashed. The man who rushed to the young man first stood in front of him and did not move. There was a hideous wound on his neck.

The other nine people looked back and forth at each other and shouted in unison, "Kill!"

The nine people rushed to the young man at the same time.

Facing these nine people, the young man was not flustered at all. He waved the sword in his hand as if he was performing an art show. However, the show was bloody.

Thirty seconds later, ten bodies had fallen down beside the young man.

However, there was no trace of blood on the young man's body.

Putting the soft sword back to his waist, the young man looked at dead bodies beside him and murmured, "Reapers, you are nothing!"

"Ha!" A chuckle rang out in the dark.

Then, seven figures appeared silently around the young man.

The appearance of these seven figures made the young man's face change slightly. He did not notice when these people came.

The seven figures all wore ghost-faced masks. The leader looked at the ten corpses on the ground, then went forward, took out a dagger, cut off one's head, held it in his hand, and then looked at the young man. "A fake reaper is just so-so. What if it's a real one?"

Another person came forward and faced the young man. "I'm very curious. What do you mean by when the cat's away, the mice will play?"

The seven figures completely surrounded the young man, with bursts of chill emanating from their bodies.

The young man's face turned solemn. He could tell that the pressure that the seven people brought to him was much more powerful than those ten people's.

"A group of wild men, I am not famous. Does your reputation really precede you?" The young man crossed his arms over his chest and looked around.

"You're very lucky. The task we've received today is not to kill you!" The man with the head looked at the young man and slowly turned around. "Although I'm ashamed of these fake people, I agree with their words. Those who provoke the dignity of Radiant Island should die!"

As soon as the word "die" came out, the young man took two steps back for no reason, with a hint of horror in his eyes.

In the next second, seven figures disappeared in the darkness.

When the seven figures left, the young man found that his back had been wet with sweat. He stood still for a long time, and his eyes showed a hint of resentment. "A group of inferior people got some opportunities, and they really think that they are superior to others! Radiant Island? It's just a joke!"

At 12 o'clock in the evening.

Chris and a group of scientists were still enthusiastically performing new technology tests in the lab. They did not know anything about what had happened outside.

Josh grabbed the phone in his hand tightly. He had made countless phone calls, but no one answered.

On the street in the city centre, Henry and Future walked out of a restaurant.

Henry's cell phone let out a soft sound. It was a text message.

"Fake Reaper? A mysterious force?" Henry looked at the message on his mobile phone and thought for a while. Then he replied, "Deal with it."

Putting away his phone, Henry showed a thoughtful look. Who on earth would pretend to be a Reaper? Henry thought that the most likely person was Cesia. In this world, there were too few people who dared to challenge the Radiant Island.

In order to avoid any accidents, Henry returned to the Hangshi Science and Technology Research Office. In front of the door of the lab, Henry saw the young man.

Henry had an impression of this young man. When he was in The 19th floor, he had seen him once. He was a master.

Their eyes met. At this moment, Henry saw a kind of pride in the young man's eyes. That kind of pride came from the soul. This kind of person, from all aspects, would think that he was superior to others. A person who had such arrogance had an inseparable relationship with his background.

According to the information Henry had received, the mysterious force was referring to this young man.

Henry didn't say much. When he returned to the laboratory, he also looked at their research results.

Future had talked with Henry about this water- energy technology. The technology had nothing to do with the Fire Crystal, so Henry did not have to worry about it.
