

Chapter 355

After dealing with the Su Family, Henry felt much relieved. He didn't have to worry about Sylvia's safety all the time, and he didn't have to hide his identity.

In the early morning, Henry told Sylvia that he had to do some training and went straight to the Chinese Medicine Clinic.

At this moment, in front of the gate of the Chinese Medicine Clinic, there were countless luxury cars parked. The crowd was dense and noisy.

Daisy and Lam Sun stood at the entrance, waiting for Henry.

"Daisy, brother-in-law is a little too famous. Look, there are so many famous doctors. Some of them are often seen on TV, but now they come here to study." Lam looked at the crowd around her and felt a little shocked.

"Otherwise who could pay 50,000 yuan for a class?" Daisy also felt a little unreal. She still remembered that when she heard about her brother-in-law for the first time, her family didn't care about him at all. They said that he was worthless and he came to their family just to be a son-in-law. But if he was worthless, who could be promising?

Daisy and Lam stood at the place they had made an appointment with Henry and waited. If Henry had not agreed to take them in, they would not have even been able to stand at the door and listen.

"Hey, aren't you Daisy Xu and Lam Sun? What, are you two poor people also able to buy a ticket?" A girl in fashionable clothes came over and looked at Daisy and Lam with a contemptuous look.

"Susan Shang, are you done? What does it have to do with you that we come here? If you have money, you can show off in other places. Don't show off here!" Lam looked at the person with disgust.

Coincidentally, she was their classmate. She only had one hobby, which was to show off her wealth. Moreover, she loved to show off in front of Daisy, which made Lam couldn't stand it anymore. Daisy kept a low profile in school. If it weren't for what happened last time, even Lam wouldn't know that Daisy was a member of the Family Lin.

"What? Don't you want me to tell you that you're poor?" Susan squinted at Daisy. "Look at the clothes you're wearing. Look around. Who's as sad as you? You really ruin the reputation of our university!"

"I'm here to listen to the class. I'm not here to be pretty. What does it have to do with you?" Daisy, who had a good temper, was also somewhat impatient because of Susan.

"Listen to the class? You?" Susan sneered. "Fifty thousand yuan? Can you afford it?"

"Who said I need to pay for the entrance?" Daisy asked.

Lam also spoke aside. "That's right. We don't need to pay anything. Brother-in-law can take us in at will."

"What a joke. Who do you think is your brother-in-law?" Susan obviously did not believe Lam's words. The reason why she came here to listen to the class this time was that she had pulled some connections. Susan was not here to learn some skills, but to get this opportunity.

She didn't know where the news came from. It said that in the school, whoever listened to the class today and graduated from the school in the future, there was absolutely no need to worry about their future career. If she was lucky, she could directly enter the hospital of Lins Group.

The reputation of the Lin Family in Yinzhou was well-known by everyone. The company's treatment was the best choice for most people.

"Daisy, hey, Lam is also here?" Henry came over from the side. He had just arrived.

"Brother-in-law!" Daisy said.

"Hello, brother-in-law." Lam also greeted him sweetly. At the same time, she subconsciously looked Henry up and down. Today, Henry was dressed in casual clothes.

Lam couldn't help but think that although the Family Lin was the most prestigious family in Yinzhou, they were really low-key. Daisy, as Sylvia's sister, had never mentioned her own family in school, and her brother-in-law was even more so. As the husband of President Lin of Lins Group, he dressed ordinarily. Unlike those people, who had slightly rich, they could not wait to be known by the whole world.

Susan was also looking at Henry up and down. When she saw Henry's casual clothes that were not from famous brands, the contempt in her eyes became more intense. "Daisy Xu, this is your brother-in-law. He can bring you in? Just talk big?"

Not everyone went to Henry's lecture before.

Daisy glanced at Susan and could not be bothered to explain to her.

"This is a friend of yours?" Henry asked Daisy curiously.

Daisy hadn't spoken yet. Coincidentally, she said proudly, "Friend? Not everyone can make friends with me!"

"Oh." Henry nodded. Looking at Susan's appearance, Henry could also think of who she was, so he did not say much to her. "Daisy, Lam, let's go in first."

"Okay." Daisy and Lam nodded at the same time and followed Henry to the door of the Chinese Medicine clinic.

"Such a boastful thing!" Susan folded her arms in front of her chest and looked ahead coldly.

A confused voice came from behind Susan.

"Hey, Susan, haven't you entered yet? The miracle doctor is coming soon." A middle-aged man came from behind Susan.

When Susan saw the middle-aged man, the arrogance on her face suddenly turned into a grievance. "Godfather, why are you so late? I was bullied to death."

"Bullied?" The middle-aged man was shocked, and then he showed concern on his face. "Whoever dares to bully you, tell Godfather. Godfather will teach them a lesson!"

"That's them!" Susan stamped her foot and pointed to the front.

Today, there were too many people coming to the clinic of traditional Chinese medicine, and Henry and the other two people were still waiting in a long line.

The middle-aged man looked at Henry and the other two people and found that they were three strangers, not any famous doctors. So he was relieved and said in a heroic tone, "Dear, what have they done to you? Godfather will help you."

"Godfather..." Susan said in a low voice, "Didn't you say that for this class, a person should pay at least 50,000 yuan?"

Susan's teasing tone almost made the middle-aged man's bones melt. "Yes, it's indeed fifty thousand."

"Then how can the three of them enter? Two of them are my classmates. They don't seem to be able to pay 50,000 yuan. Godfather, it's you who is in charge of who can enter that building this time. You don't even know how arrogant they were just now. They said that their brother-in-law could bring them in and they didn't care about me at all!" Susan acted like a spoiled child, and her heart was full of discontent.

Although Susan always talked about fifty thousand students, in fact, she didn't spend a penny this time. If she really saw Daisy and Lam could listen to classes so easily, she absolutely couldn't accept it in her heart.

When the middle-aged man heard Susan's words, he understood what was going on. He patted Susan's shoulder and then walked to the long line. He pointed at Daisy and the other two and shouted, "Those three! Yes, you. What are you doing? Who let you line up? Are you eligible to enter?"

The middle-aged man's shout was so loud that the people around him all turned their eyes to Henry and the other two.

Susan stood aside and looked at this scene with satisfaction.

Chapter 356

There were a lot of people queuing up in front of the gate of the Chinese Medicine Clinic. Now all of them looked like they were watching some fun event, looking at Henry and the other two people.

Henry frowned and looked at the middle-aged man. "What are you doing? Do you have anything to do with whether we are qualified to go in or not?"

"What am I doing?" The middle-aged man sneered. "I decide who can enter here. What are the identities of the three of you? Who let you line up here?"

The middle-aged man's voice was very loud. There were so many people present, and he deliberately called out Henry and the other two ladies.

It could be seen that the onlookers had already stretched out their fingers to point at the three people and said something. Some people even sneered.

Daisy pulled Henry's sleeve and said, "Brother-in-law, this is the person who sells the quota at school."

"He?" Henry looked at the middle-aged man in front of him. He had intended to ask President Ma what was going on today, but the truth was that he had already come before his eyes.

"Are you from the Medical Association?" Henry asked.

The middle-aged man proudly raised his head and said, "Of course."

Henry asked again, "It is up to you who can listen to the lecture today?"

The middle-aged man nodded with a smile and did not speak.

Henry's face was full of doubt. "How can I trust you?"

"Ha." The middle-aged man sneered and took out a certificate and put it in front of Henry.

Henry saw that the certificate of this middle-aged man was written on the title of Vice President of the Medical Association of Ning province, but he had never seen this middle-aged man before.

Similarly, Henry had never met him, nor had he met Henry.

"So? Do you need me to explain to you what does the vice president mean?" The middle-aged man sneered.

Henry chuckled, took the initiative to hold his sister's shoulder, and whispered, "Oh, don't be angry, don't be angry, the vice president. I was too blind just now. My sister-in-law told me that you have tickets to sell."

Seeing Henry's flattering look, the middle-aged man's face became more arrogant. "I do, and?"

"Look..." Henry rubbed his hands together. "I'll buy three this time. Can you give me a better price?"

Hearing Henry saying that he wanted to buy three tickets, the middle-aged man showed an exciting look on his face. This was the fast-forward of more than a hundred thousand yuan to his account.

But soon, the middle-aged man restrained his emotional expression and put on a high posture. "Better price? Do you think I can't sell out my quota? Look around, how many people want to go in and listen to the class but they can't get in! If you want to listen, just listen. If you don't, then forget it. I don't lack the money."

Henry looked embarrassed. "But 50,000 yuan per person is a bit too expensive. Are you sure we can listen to the class? What if we can't?"

"Fifty thousand yuan is still expensive for you? You can learn one or two skills from the magical doctor, which is enough for you to eat for a lifetime. You don't have to worry that you can't listen. If you really can't, I will compensate you ten times!" The middle-aged man waved his hand and said confidently.

Henry gritted his teeth and said, "Fine, I'll buy three tickets and transfer you 150,000 directly, okay?"

"Okay." The middle-aged man was delighted in his heart, but he took out the QR code with a light face and asked Henry to scan the code.

Soon, one hundred and fifty thousand yuan was transferred to the other party's mobile phone by Henry.

"How is it, big brother, can we go in now?" Henry asked excitedly.

"Okay, go in." The middle-aged man waved his hand and gave Henry three plastic tickets at the same time. "Take this and let others have a look at it when you enter."

"Okay." Henry nodded repeatedly and accepted the plastic ticket.

The middle-aged man walked away haughtily. After the other party left, Henry's face suddenly turned dark. He looked at the ticket in his hand. In this case, there was more than one person who organized the sale of the quota this time. Did President Ma really know nothing?

Henry returned to the long line of people.

Daisy curiously asked Henry what had happened. Henry waved his hand indifferently. "Nothing."

On the other side, Susan looked at Daisy and the other two people who were still standing in the line, waiting to enter. She was unhappy and said to the middle-aged man, "Godfather, why are they still standing there?"

"My dear baby." The middle-aged man touched her innocent face. "Today, you brought a lot of benefits to your godfather. Didn't you fall in love with a bag worth 50,000 yuan? I'll buy it for you later. These people are here to give us money. Look, what's this?"

The middle-aged man showed Susan his 150,000 yuan payment receipt.

Susan looked at all the zeros and opened her mouth wide. "Godfather, did they give all these to you?"

"Yes." The middle-aged man nodded.

"That pretended to be rich. He took out all his savings."

The middle-aged man felt funny when he thought of Henry's painful look just now.

"Haha!" Susan looked very happy, "Let that Daisy pretend, saying that her brother-in-law can take her in, but in the end, she still had to pay for it. When we go to school, I have to publicize this matter and see her embarrassed face!"

Henry, Daisy and Lam entered the Chinese Medicine clinic.

Outside the clinic, Daisy and Lam thought that there would be a lot of people. When they came in, they found that their thoughts were still not enough. The whole clinic was crowded with people and it was inconvenient for them to walk.

"Brother-in-law, your influence is too great!" Daisy looked at Henry with admiration. Their biggest goal of studying medicine was to become a highly-skilled doctor. Now, the highly-skilled doctor was standing by her side.

Henry touched his nose. He didn't expect that so many people would come here after he showed a few acupuncture methods.

They had paid 50,000 per person, only to stand here. There was not even a place to sit.

Henry, along with Daisy and Lam, found a place where there were not many people. He stood there and waited.

As time went by, more and more people gathered in the clinic.

The appointed time between Henry and President Ma was ten o'clock in the morning. It was almost half-past ten.

In the middle of the Chinese Medicine

Clinic, Lewis Yan looked at his watch and said to President Ma, "President Ma, hasn't the little magic doctor arrived yet?"

President Ma shook his head. "Not yet. Let's wait a little longer."

Lewis looked back and frowned. "President Ma, there are too many people."

President Ma sighed. "The magical doctor's reputation is too great. Old Xiao told me that many people travelled thousands of miles to come here, and he couldn't refuse them. So he just let everyone listen. Now Chinese medicine is declining, and everyone wants to be active, so we can't throw cold water on them."

Lewis Yan nodded. President Ma's words were reasonable. This was also a trend of traditional Chinese medicine. For a senior traditional Chinese medicine doctor like him, it was also a scene that he was very happy to see.

Chapter 357

At eleven o'clock in the afternoon, there was gradually some noise in the clinic of Chinese Medicine.

"President Ma, why don't you give the magic doctor a call?" Lewis was a little anxious when he heard the various voices around him.

This time, a lot of doctors were specially invited from all over the country. On that day, Henry's disappearance made many people dissatisfied.

This time, Lewis wanted to make use of Henry's power to make traditional Chinese medicine completely rise.

President Ma saw the impatient look on many people's faces. He nodded and called Henry.

Not long after the call was made, Henry picked up.

President Ma was very noisy when he heard that.

"Where are you, magical doctor?" President Ma asked on the phone.

"Oh, President Ma, I am already in the clinic of traditional Chinese medicine. I have been here for almost an hour." Henry's doubtful voice sounded on the phone.

Henry's words stunned President Ma. "An hour?"

"Magical doctor, why didn't you inform me when you came here? Everyone is waiting for you to give a lecture." President Ma smiled apologetically on the other side of the phone.

"A lecture? I'm giving a lecture? I paid 150,000 to attend the lecture. Do you want me to give a lecture?" Henry asked in confusion.

President Ma was shocked. "One hundred and fifty thousand? What does that mean?"

He took another look and found that the phone had been hung up by Henry.

Lewis saw President Ma finish the phone call and asked, "So? Is the magical doctor here?"

President Ma's face was bitter. "Master Yan, there seems to be something wrong."

"What's the problem?" Lewis frowned and asked. Did the magical doctor refuse to come today?

President Ma shook his head and didn't know how to explain it to Lewis. He got up.

In the Chinese Medicine Clinic, a podium had been built for training.

President Ma walked to the podium, picked up the microphone, and said, "Hey, everyone, quiet down."

As soon as he spoke, the noisy Chinese Medicine Clinic immediately quieted down, and everyone looked at President Ma.

At the same time, President Ma stood on the platform and glanced down at the crowd. He saw Henry in the crowd.

President Ma came down from the podium and walked toward the place where Henry was.

The eyes of the people in the clinic were moving with President Ma's figure.

President Ma walked up to Henry and asked cautiously, "Magical doctor, is there anything wrong?"

"No." Henry shook his head. "What can be wrong? I'm waiting to listen to the lecture."

"Magical doctor, don't be angry." President Ma smiled ingratiatingly. "What do you mean by saying that you paid one hundred and fifty thousand yuan to enter?"

"What do I mean?" Henry had a strange look on his face. "Didn't the Medical Association asked for tickets to listen to this lecture? The ticket is 50,000 yuan per person."

"What!" President Ma's face turned pale with fright. "A ticket? Who dares to do that?"

"Oh?" Henry's mouth curved into a playful smile. He looked at President Ma and said, "Everyone knows about this. President Ma, you must know something about it."

President Ma suddenly looked flustered and waved his hand. "Magical doctor, I, President Ma, swear on my name. I absolutely don't know about this matter! Even the Medical Association would never do such a thing."

Henry patted Daisy's shoulder and said, "Daisy, tell President Ma what's going on."

Daisy nodded and said, "President Ma, it's vice president Xiao of your medical association who is responsible for collecting money. This matter has been spread in our school. The ticket for my brother-in-law's class is 50,000 yuan."

"How dare he!" President Ma shouted angrily. His voice startled all the people in the hall. They didn't understand why President Ma was so angry.

President Ma glanced around the whole Chinese Medicine clinic. Finally, he saw Vice President Xiao at the gate of the clinic.

At this moment, Vice President Xiao was talking about something in a low voice. From time to time, there was a dirty smile on his face. Susan was still acting coquettishly. She didn't realize that President Ma was angry.

Henry strode over to Vice President Xiao and said, "Vice President Xiao, I want to ask you, is this lecture still on?"

"What's the rush?" Vice President Xiao glanced at Henry. "If you think it's too late, go first!"

"But I've paid the money. It's a bit of a loss for me to leave now. If you leave, you can refund the money, can you?"

"Refund?" Vice President Xiao smiled. "You're the one who's leaving. Why should I return your money?"

"You said, if I don't listen to the class, you will refund my money." Henry shrugged his shoulders.

"What a joke. You're the one who doesn't want to listen. It's not that the magical doctor doesn't want to give a lecture. If he doesn't give a lecture, I'll compensate you ten times!" Vice President Xiao waved his hand impatiently. "You'd better wait and see, or you can leave if you want to. Don't bother me."

Susan folded her arms in front of her chest and sneered. "Some people don't have the ability to do that. Don't pretend to be rich. Why, do you regret it now?"

"Okay." Henry held his hand and walked aside.

Watching Henry leave, Susan curled her lips and thought, "What the hell is this?"

"Ted Xiao, I hope you can give me a reasonable explanation." President Ma came over from the side with a dark face.

"Old Ma, what's wrong with you? Are you serious?" Vice President Xiao asked in confusion.

"What's wrong with me? Ted Xiao, don't you know what you've done?" President Ma's face darkened.

Vice President Xiao's heart skipped a beat and he said, "What's the matter? Ma, if you have something to say, just say it. Don't be so mysterious."

"Well, you want me to say it, right? Then I'll ask you..."

President Ma was just about to speak when he was interrupted by a voice.

"Hello, hello." Henry's voice came from the speaker.

Vice President Xiao's face changed when he saw Henry standing on the stage. He yelled at the people beside him, "What do you do? Who let him go on the stage? Get him now!"

Vice President Xiao was afraid that Henry would say something that he shouldn't say on the stage.

"If he doesn't go on stage, who should go on stage?" President Ma stopped the people around Vice President Xiao.

"Old Ma, this is a lecture given by the magical doctor. How can we let a person who has nothing to do with it get on the stage? Hurry up, take him down!" Vice President Xiao looked anxious.

President Ma looked at Vice President Xiao, and said word by word, "He is the magical doctor you mentioned."

"What? He's the magical doctor?" Vice President Xiao widened his eyes, which were full of disbelief. "This person is a magical doctor?"

"What's wrong? You're surprised, aren't you?" President Ma sneered.

Vice President Xiao's face was blank and he looked blankly at the stage. His heart was in a mess at this time.

This time, Ted Xiao joined hands with some people to secretly make the money, which was only aimed at some students in the school. They even made up the matter that they could enter the Lins Group after graduation as long as they listened to this lecture. Ted Xiao was also very cautious when he took the money. He dared to take it only when he knew the buyer's background.

But now, Ted Xiao found that he had made a big trouble!
