

Chapter 405

Boss...

The way Sea God addressed Henry caused everyone on the ship to fall into a daze.

How many people in this world could be called boss by Sea God?

According to Nat's and the others' knowledge, there was only one man.

Nat walked to Helen in a daze and said, "Helen, which family is your boyfriend from?"

"Which family?" Helen looked puzzled and shook her head. "He's not from any family. I've heard people call him The Conqueror in the past two days."

"The Conqueror!"

Nat screamed subconsciously.

Henry was the legendary strongest man in the world, The Conqueror! Incredible!

At this moment, Nat did not know how to describe his current mood. He had seen the man who was known as the world's strongest man for a long time.

Nat suddenly remembered that he made a lot of jokes with Henry when they took the plane in the morning. He was joking with The Conqueror! Thinking about it now, Nat felt a burst of fear. This was too unreal.

Nat shook his head forcefully. If Henry was actually The Conqueror, this task would have already been completed.

Sea God pointed to the surface of the sea for Henry. "Boss, there is a sunken ship under it. It was probably left by China hundreds of years ago. Didn't you ask me to inquire about something from the ancient times? I think you should be interested in this ship."

"No need." Henry waved his hand. "I came here for this sinking ship. By the way, let me introduce someone to you."

Henry took Sea God to Helen and said, "This is Helen..."

Before Henry could finish his words, Sea God immediately reached out his hand. "This is my second sister-in-law, isn't she? She's indeed a Chinese beauty. She's really beautiful. Hello, second sister-in-law."

Sea God took the initiative to say hello in a hurry, which made Helen stunned. Looking at the bald man with a smile on his face in front of him, Helen had a sense of unreality.

Before this mission, the Sharp Knife specifically told them about the horror of Sea God and told them to be careful and not to make the other party dissatisfied.

According to the stories of Sharp Sword's research, Helen's team had only one impression of Sea God, which was blood and cruelty!

But now, this white strong man with a flower-like smile in front of them could not be imagined to be brutal and bloody.

The words 'second sister-in-law' made Helen Han even more embarrassed. She was still like a violent female tyrant in front of Henry, but in front of Henry's friends, she tried to pretend to be much more gentle.

"Hello, my name is Helen Han." Helen greeted Sea God and held his big hand.

Sea God shook her hand slightly and loosened his grip, expressing his respect for Helen.

Henry said, "Helen is a member of the Sharp Knife. This time, they came here mainly to negotiate with you about this ship. Don't worry about this ship. Let the Sharp Knife salvage it."

"Okay, Boss, as you say. I certainly have no objection. This ship is yours." Sea God patted his chest and said, "Boss, don't worry. I will put out the second sister-in-law's photo this time. In the future, on the sea, as long as you perform a task, our fleet will retreat. You can go wherever you want, my sister-in-law. Sea God will escort you behind."

Nat stood aside and heard the words of Sea God. He sighed in his heart. This time, the Sharp Knife really picked up a treasure and brought The Conqueror's woman into the team. In the future, the status of the Sharp Knife would become more important in the underground world.

Henry chatted with Sea God for a while and then Sea God left.

Even after Sea God's fleet went far away, the people on the cruise ship still couldn't recover. Except Nat, no one knew Henry's identity as The Conqueror, but the attitude of Sea God made them guess which big shot Henry was.

Nat didn't talk nonsense. After all, the fewer people knew about this kind of thing, the better.

Felix Gu was arrogant all the way when they were coming there. At this time, he did not say a word and hid in the cabin gloomily.

This mission was considered a success.

Originally, the Sharp Knife was prepared to pay some price. This time, even these cost were saved. Nat promised Henry that Helen would definitely be able to enter the Sharp Knife successfully when they went back this time, and the organization would also give her a big contribution.

Henry nodded with satisfaction. He came here just for Helen's sake.

When the cruise ship drove back to the port, it was already in the afternoon.

After finishing the task, it was time for Helen to return to the Sharp Knife headquarter. After saying goodbye to Henry, they took a special helicopter and left.

At first, Nat had planned to see Henry off, but Henry refused.

Henry bought his own ticket and returned to Yinzhou.

At nine o'clock in the evening, Henry arrived at Yinzhou Airport. Although Du Hai was large and luxurious, Henry was not comfortable there. Yinzhou, this place, had given him a feeling of home.

Henry called Sylvia and wanted to ask how she was doing during this period of time, but the phone was turned off.

In the past few days, Henry had called Sylvia several times. Every time was like this. If Henry hadn't been sure that Sylvia was fine in Victor Su's place, he would have gone to Yanjing long ago.

Victor told Henry that Sylvia had been in the ancient place of the Su Family during this period of time. There was no signal on her mobile phone there. Every Master of the Su Family would go there before they take the responsibility of the head of the family.

Henry hung up the phone. Just as he was about to call a taxi home, he heard a burst of rapid vuvuzela behind him.

Henry looked back and saw a BMW parked behind him. Through the windshield, Henry saw a beautiful face.

"Hey, did you just get off the plane?"

Jenny drove and stopped beside Henry.

Henry looked at the back seat of the BMW and put a big suitcase in it. He asked doubtfully, "You also just got off the plane, didn't you?"

"Yes, I just came back from Yun Province and came across you. Get in the car and don't take a taxi." Jenny shook her head.

Of course, Henry would not reject her. He opened the passenger door and sat in.

Henry sat in the car and asked, "How was the meeting in Yun province?"

"Very good." Jenny's face was full of joy. Obviously, she had gained a lot this time. "But Henry, do you have any hatred with Stone King? When I went there, he repeatedly asked me if you were there. Did you steal from him?"

Henry thought about it. He had opened up all the stones from Stone King, and all the jades were green. He asked Stone King to compensate hundreds of millions of dollars, which was almost as good as stealing from him.

Henry laughed. "Have you decided to buy stone from him?"

Jenny nodded. "The contract has been signed. He gave me a price of eight cents per kilogram. The delivery costs are the lowest. How many stones I will take every month depends on my mood. He really respects you."

"We are just old friends." Henry shook his head.

Chapter 406

Henry and Jenny returned to the city and he declined Jenny's request to have midnight snack together. Now, he wanted to go home as soon as possible. He had not been home for the past few days. He was a little worried about the flowers and plants growing on the balcony.

Jenny told Henry that her gambling stone club would officially open in two days. She hoped that Henry could go there to participate in the ribbon-cutting.

"Let's see when the time comes." Henry waved his hand and walked into the community.

After returning home, Henry felt relaxed all over his body. He boiled a pot of water and made himself a cup of tea. He lay on the sofa and sighed.

"Phew, it's comfortable to be home."

The next morning, Henry got up early. He went to the market and bought a lot of gifts. He went to the Spring residential home. He hadn't been to the Spring residential home for a long time and he really missed these children.

The children crowded around Henry excitedly as soon as they saw him.

Dean Cui, with her head full of white hair, came to the gate of the Spring residential home with a smile and said to Henry reproachfully, "You have bought so many things again, kid."

Henry smiled and touched the head of the child in front of him. "The children like gifts, and I am able to give it to them. Just some small gifts."

"You are just like Jenny, good children with a warm heart." Dean Cui looked at Henry.

Henry stayed in the Spring residential home for the whole morning. At noon, he returned to Lins Group.

Although Sylvia had been absent for the past few days, Lins Group was still running in good order. The secretary, Cathy Lee, had arranged everything, and every department was running as usual.

When Henry came to the Lins Group, he saw several girls of the business department walking out of the door of the Lins Group.

"Stop." Henry shouted and called the girls to stop.

"Mr Zhang." The girls greeted Henry as soon as they saw him.

Henry was now at the same level as Sylvia in the Lins Group.

Henry frowned and looked at the girls. "Where are you going?"

"To have a meal with our client," the leader said.

The girls of business departments were all very beautiful. Now they were dressed up slightly, and each one looked like a goddess.

Henry looked at these girls up and down and asked again, "Which customer? Why are you dressed like this?"

Although these girls were all wearing professional uniforms at the moment, the first three buttons on their shirts were unbuttoned, revealing a snowy white skin, which was fascinating. Everyone was wearing lipstick and sprayed perfume.

Seeing Henry's question, the group leader's answer was somewhat awkward. "It's... it's a partner that President Lin found in Du Hai last time. The other party hinted us to dress like this."

When the group leader spoke, her eyes were somewhat dim.

Henry saw that the other girls also had some grievances in their eyes. After all, they all knew what accompanying people to dinner usual meant. It was unavoidable to be teased during meals.

Henry's face went dark. "Button your shirts. I'll go with you."

"Really?" The team leader's face lit up. If Henry could accompany them, he would be the most solid support for them.

"I remember that Sylvia has clearly stated that our company doesn't do those miscellaneous things. We would rather not do business than treat our own people unfairly. Who let you dress like this?" Henry asked.

"It's us." The head of the group lowered his head. "Mr Zhang, President Lin specifically told us before this business trip that this customer is very important and let us treat him with caution, so..."

Before the team leader could finish his words, Henry interrupted her.

"She asked you to treat them with caution. She wants you to show your professional skills, not to let you get everything done. If you do this, not only will Sylvia not praise you, but she will also blame you. Do you understand? Let's go, I will go with you."

Henry's words made all the girls in the business department feel warm in their hearts. Now, most companies would push the employees to make money. There were too few companies like Lins Group who thought about their employees.

The dinner place was at Glory Hotel. When Henry and the girls arrived at the door of the hotel, the other party was already waiting in the hotel room.

"Hey, Boss!" A surprised voice came from behind Henry.

Henry looked back and saw Felix standing in front of the hotel with a few people.

"Why are you here?" Henry asked curiously.

Felix came forward and gave Henry a hug, and then said, "Didn't sister-in-law go to the capital to find someone to cooperate with last time? Sister-in-law chose the partner and talked about this matter recently. This time, I happened to come to Yinzhou to do some research."

Henry looked at the people behind Felix and said, "Which one is my wife's partner?"

"Jay Yang, come here." Felix waved his hand behind him.

A middle-aged man strode over.

"This is my big brother, his surname is Zhang." Felix introduced him to Jay. He only mentioned Henry's surname and said nothing else.

Jay quickly smiled at Henry. "Hello, Mr Zhang. I'm Jay Yang. It's my honour to cooperate with your wife."

Henry nodded and turned back to ask the group leader of the business department, "What's the name of the representative you mentioned?"

"Zack Li," the leader of the business department replied.

Henry raised his head to Jay and asked, "Is this Zack Li a member of your company?"

"Yes." Jay nodded quickly. "He is the representative I sent to negotiate with President Lin."

"Okay, it's a coincidence that our salesman invited your representatives to have dinner together. Come with us," Henry said.

Jay nodded at once. "It's my honour to have a meal with you."

Henry and the girls, as well as Felix and Jay, walked toward the hotel together.

The girls of the business department of Lins Group walked in the front, while Henry chatted with Felix and walked in the middle. Jay and his men only dared to walk in the back.

When they arrived to the room, the girls of the business department were the first to walk in.

Just as Henry was about to push the door open and enter, he heard a loud shout coming from the room.

"What does your Lins Group mean? Don't you care about me? You have to understand that your President Lin has paid a lot in order to seize this opportunity to cooperate with me. Now, are you playing with me? What's wrong? Are you in a high position?"

Hearing the shouts from the private room, Henry stopped and looked back at Jay.

Jay's face suddenly changed. He heard clearly that the person who shouted inside was the representative he sent this time, Zack Li.

Felix looked at Jay with displeasure and asked, "What's going on? Is this the attitude you show when cooperating?"

"No, no." Jay quickly waved his hand. "Before coming here, I told Zack to pay attention to his attitude."
