

Chapter 407

In the room, the voice of the group leader of the business department sounded. After Henry's words in the company, the group leader looked more confident. "Mr. Zack Li, if you are talking about cooperation, we are very open to that. Our Lins Group is a regular company, not what you think."

As soon as the leader finished speaking, a sneer sounded in the room. "Don't pretend. What do you think your Lins group is? With the scale of your company, you must have done a lot of "work" in order to cooperate with us. Now you come here to pretend to be innocent again? I'll tell you clearly that if you make me unhappy, you will not cooperate with me!"

As soon as Zack finished his words, Jay, who was standing outside the box, went limp and he knelt down directly.

"Mr Felix, it really has nothing to do with me."

Henry's face was very ugly. He pushed the door open and walked in. At a glance, he saw the person sitting in the room. It was a man in his thirties. He wore a pair of glasses and looked very gentle.

At this moment, in front of this man, there was a table full of good wine and dishes. Henry glanced at it. The wine on the table was worth at least more than 20,000 yuan per bottle.

Henry asked the team leader of the business department, "Did you order all these dishes?"

The group leader shook her head.

Henry chuckled and looked at Zack. "You have a big appetite. Can you finish all of these?"

"I can." Zack sat on his seat cross-legged, lit a cigarette for himself, took a deep breath, and then looked at Henry. "Who are you?"

"This is President Lin's husband." The group leader introduced.

"Oh." After hearing Henry's identity, Zack's expression was still calm. "What? Your Lins Group wants benefits but doesn't want to pay any price. I see the contract this time. I'll give all the benefits to Lins Group. We all know where the contract comes from. Don't pretend to be a big wolf here. Tell your little girls to listen to me. I'll sign this contract. Otherwise, you'll regret it!"

Zack seemed to be sure about Henry. He was not a newbie in the business circle. He could tell at a glance that the contract of this cooperation was fishy.

There was no expression on Henry's face. He pointed to the dishes on the table and said, "Who's going to pay for this meal?"

"Are you joking? Of course Lins Group. Do you want me to pay the bill?" Zack took a deep breath of smoke, reached out to grab a bowl of bird's nest soup in front of him, drank it, rinsed his mouth, and spat it out again.

"Okay." Henry nodded. "Since we have to pay, then you should eat all the things."

Zack slammed the table, stood up, and pointed at Henry's nose. "You..."

Before he could finish his words, Henry grabbed his wrist and twisted it hard.

Zack shouted on the spot.

Henry's sudden action startled all the girls from the business department.

"Mr Zhang, you can't beat him." The group leader immediately persuaded him.

"F*ck you. How dare you hit me? Believe it or not, I'll destroy your chance of cooperation!" Zack cursed.

"Zack Li, you are really brave. It sounds like our company will listen to you!" Outside the room, there was a loud shout, and Jay walked in with a face of anger.

When Zack, who was originally arrogant, saw Jay his face suddenly changed. "P... pre... President Yang, what are you doing here?"

"If I didn't come, you would destroy everything!" Jay scolded him, and then quickly said to Henry, "Mr. Zhang, Zack Li has been fired now, he doesn't represent our company. Everything he has done was not ordered by me. You know, I would never have the courage to do something like this!"

When he was talking, he was almost crying.

Jay was clear what kind of person Felix was. This man in front of him was Felix's big brother. A person like him could drown himself even if he spat.

When Zack saw his boss's attitude, he was shocked. How could a remote Lins Group make his boss beg for mercy?

Henry gave a cold look at Jay and did not speak.

"Get out of my way." Felix stepped forward and kicked Jay's back.

After being kicked to the ground, Jay immediately got up and kept kowtowing to the ground.

Henry let go of Zack's arm, pulled a chair casually, and sat aside. He pouted at Zack and said, "The dishes and wine on this table are all ordered by him. Make him eat them all. Nothing should be left behind."

Felix nodded and waved his hand behind him.

The people who had been following Felix quickly came up, and the two of them held Zack down. The other person kept grabbing the food on the table and stuffed it into his mouth. How could Zack eat it? After stuffing it into his mouth, he could not swallow it.

One of them grabbed Zack's nose, opened a bottle of wine, opened his mouth, and poured the wine directly into it.

It could be seen that Zack's face had turned purple. After he swallowed the thing mixed with wine, the man loosened his nose to let him breathe.

Zack coughed a few times in a row, and his tears were choked out. He quickly apologized to Henry. "I'm sorry, sir, I'm sorry, I was wrong."

Henry didn't even look at him. He said in a low voice, "Go on."

Hearing Henry's words, those people who held Zack immediately crammed the dishes on the table into Zack's mouth according to Henry's instructions. The dishes were kept being stuffed into Zack's mouth.

"He also ordered that fish. Don't let the bones of fish fall down. Let him eat it together." Henry looked at an expensive fish on the table and said.

Upon hearing this, Zack was so scared that his face turned pale. If he really ate fish bones, he would definitely end up in the hospital immediately.

The girls of the business department of Lins Group stood behind Henry and did not dare to look at this scene. They had never seen such a scene. It looked like a movie scene from the underworld.

"Take a good look." Henry turned back and said to the girls in the business department, "In the future, whoever dares to bully the people of our group will end up like this. Remember, as long as it's not your fault, you can refuse any unreasonable request. If there are any consequences, I will bear it for you. Do you understand?"

After hearing Henry's words, the girls of the Lins Group could not help but straighten their backs a lot. It was really lucky for them to have such a boss.

"Understood, Mr Zhang." The team leader answered Henry loudly.

"Okay." Henry nodded. "You can go out. The following scenes are not suitable for you to continue watching."

The girls from the business department immediately walked out of the room.

Chapter 408

After the girls from the business department left the room, they all looked a little excited.

"He is too domineering! Mr. Zhang is too domineering!"

"No wonder he could find such an excellent woman like President Lin. If I have such a boyfriend, I would love him to death."

"Yeah, I heard from my best friend that their boss wished they could go out to drink with customers every day. Where can I find such a good boss like President Lin and Mr. Zhang?"

The ladies said as they left the hotel.

Henry sat in the private room, quietly watching the scene in front of him.

Zack couldn't eat anymore. At this moment, there was still a lot of dishes for him to eat, as if he didn't eat anything at all.

"I'm sorry, big brother. I really can't eat anymore. Please, I know I was wrong. Please let me go." Zack swallowed the things in his mouth with difficulty and begged Henry for mercy.

Henry smiled and said to the few people who were holding Zach, "If he can't eat it, peel off his skin and put these dishes in his skin until he could finish them."

Hearing this, Zack was so scared that his legs were weak and his pants were wet on the spot. He was really scared. He also knew that if these rich and powerful people really wanted to kill him, there were countless ways to make him disappear suddenly.

"Big brother, I'll eat, I'll eat." Zack didn't dare to say more and vigorously ate the food on the table.

Zack, who was eating a whole table of food, kept looking up and panting heavily. He had vomited so many times that his whole body collapsed.

Henry got up, brushed the dust off his clothes, and patted on Felix's shoulder. "I'll go first. Do you have any plans?"

"I wanted to talk to my sister-in-law about business, but now it seems that I don't have a chance." Felix shook his head. "Then I'll go back to my country first. I'll arrange someone to negotiate with my sister-in-law."

"Okay." Henry nodded and pointed at Zack. "This person, choose a place to bury him."

"Okay," Felix answered.

When they talked about this matter, it was as if they were talking about a very ordinary thing.

Henry left the hotel and looked at the time. It was one o'clock in the afternoon, he didn't go to Lins Group, so he simply visited some Taoist temples in Yinzhou to see if he could find some useful information about Qi. Henry couldn't understand Qi, so he couldn't be at ease at all. He needed to figure it out soon!

At eight o'clock in the evening, Henry returned home.

"Ah, living alone is really freeing." Henry stretched himself, went to his room to take a few silver needles and inserted them in his arm.

When he fought with the woman in red two days ago, the Qi of the other side had always remained in him, and Henry released it with the silver needles.

When the needles were stuck, Henry could clearly feel that this Qi, like a kind of virus, ran around in his body, occasionally bringing a sharp pain.

Henry shook his head. He had thought of countless possibilities recently, but he had eliminated them all.

In the early morning of the next day, Henry was awakened by the ringing of his mobile phone.

"Hello." Henry answered the phone in a daze.

"Wow, you are so free. Are you still sleeping at this time?" Jenny's crisp voice sounded on the phone.

Henry shook his head and opened his eyes in a daze. It was almost 12 o'clock in the afternoon. How long had he not slept this late? It seemed that he was particularly tired after taking out the remaining Qi in his arms last night.

Henry let out a long sigh of relief. "What's wrong?"

"The opening ceremony. Didn't you promise me to attend my ribbon-cutting ceremony the day before yesterday?" Jenny said excitedly on the phone.

"So fast?" Henry was surprised. "Your store needs time to be decorated."

"I've made up my mind when I was in Yun Province. I've already arranged for decoration. All the documents have been completed. It's a weekend today and the weather is good, so it's going to open it today. I'll send you the address. Come here now."

"Okay." Henry agreed and got up.

After quickly dressing up, Henry found the place according to Jenny's address. Everyone in Yinzhou was very familiar with this place. It was the most prosperous pedestrian street in Yinzhou.

Henry came and found that there had been a lot of people gathered here, and now the influence of Hengyuan was getting bigger and bigger.

Henry saw that Jenny was standing in front of a new store and talking to people.

"Congratulations, President Qin. Wish you the smooth business."

"President Qin, congratulations."

"Congratulations, President Qin."

Congratulations were heard one after another, and Jenny's face was full of smiles.

Someone sent flower baskets and other items.

Henry stepped forward and looked at

Jenny. "Well, you are pretty."

Jenny had already seen Henry a long time ago. At this moment, when she heard Henry's words, she rolled her eyes and said with anger, "Your compliment is really novel."

"Haha." Henry laughed loudly. "It can't be the same as others?"

After Henry finished speaking, he looked at the plaque of the shop and said, "Broken Jade Pavilion? It's a good name. As the saying goes, even gods can't cut jade. The name of your shop has good meaning."

"Thank you for your compliment." Jenny smiled with her hand covering her mouth.

Henry looked away and said, "Hey? You've opened two stores? Are you the owner of this other jade store?"

There were some doubts on Henry's face. There was still a stone gambling shop next to Jenny's store, but the door was not opened.

Jenny shook her head. "It's not mine."

"That's strange." Henry said with suspicion, "By rights, no one except you can take over the project of gambling on stones, right?"

"Yes." Jenny nodded and said, "However, this store has not been opened, and it is estimated that their business is not good."

As soon as Jenny finished speaking, she saw the door of the store, which was made of peerless jade, was opened from the inside. Then, a loud laugh came from the side.

"Hahaha, everyone, today is the opening day of my gambling stone shop. I'd like to thank you for your support in the future!"

Hearing this voice, Henry and Jenny frowned almost at the same time and looked at the place where the sound came from.

Bing Ke, who had been in conflict with Henry several times, was striding this way, followed by a group of people who came to support him.

The people who came to attend Jenny's opening ceremony were all puzzled at this time.

"What's going on? Is there someone else who wants to set up a gambling stone shop? Isn't there only president Qin?"

"I know this person, Bing Ke, the young master of the Ke family."

"If he is the young master of the Ke family, I can understand why he can also set up a gambling stone shop. With his identity, it is still very easy for him to win the project."

"In this way, President Qin will have the biggest rival. Since this store was specially opened next to President Qin's store, there must be a fight between the two families."

Chapter 409

Today's opening ceremony was supposed to be a happy day, but Bing Ke, who suddenly came out, was full of b*llshit, which made Henry and Jenny feel sick.

"Ah, isn't this President Qin? Can your store really be opened?" Bing walked up to Jenny and showed an exaggerated expression.

"If you, Young Master Ke, can open it, why can't I, Jenny Qin, open?" Jenny did not show weakness.

"Because I have good stone sources, but you, President Qin, are you trying to lie to these people?" Bing said loudly, "You're making such a big noise. Do you want to earn money on other people's stupidity?"

Bing's words made many people's hearts skip a beat. What did he mean? What did he mean by saying that President Qin was lying? What did he mean by earning money on other people's stupidity?

"I don't understand what you mean." Jenny's face darkened. On the first day of the opening ceremony, Bing was making fun of her in front of everyone.

"Ha, ha." Bing laughed and said, "President Qin, don't think that we don't know about it just because you dealt with the matter quickly last time."

A person who came specially for Bing asked loudly, "Master Ke, what are you talking about?"

Bing looked around and saw the people who had congratulated Jenny looked at him. He cleared his throat and said, "Some time ago, Hengyuan's business was cheated. She signed a contract worth hundreds of millions and bought a batch of raw stones at a high price. As a result, those stones were all left by Hengyuan after they blew up the mountain. Those are just some waste stones. If you don't believe it, you can check on the Internet. You should be able to find out the news about the last time."

Upon hearing Bing's words, Jenny's face changed.

The last time, the news about that batch of stones was indeed on the news. However, it was not what Bing said and Hengyuan did not purchase that batch of stones. Now those stones were also destroyed. What Bing did was simply deliberate slander!

Henry, who was standing next to Jenny, laughed and said, "You said that President Qin's stones are trash, is that right?"

"Hey, isn't this Henry Zhang? What's wrong? What kind of relationship do you have with President Qin? Is it your turn to speak?" Bing raised his eyebrows at Henry.

He had seen Henry a long time ago, but he pretended not to see him and deliberately pretended to look down on him.

Henry was not surprised at Bing's attitude. After a few contacts, Henry knew very well what kind of character Bing was. This kind of person, in the underground world, was like a bird that had just learned to fly, and he thought that he was comparable to an eagle.

The people around took out their mobile phones and saw the news that Hengyuan had been cheated by waste stones last time.

Bing shouted, "Everyone, if some waste stones can produce jade, then jade is worthless."

After Bing finished speaking, he waved his hand and said, "The stone we see is the best jade stones from Yun Province. The price alone has reached 1.8 yuan per kilogram. Today, we are open. Everyone, the first jade stone you want to buy, regardless of size or colour, will be sold for two hundred yuan."

200!

The onlookers exclaimed. Although there was no stone gambling in Ning province, it didn't mean that these people didn't know how to gamble on stones. On the contrary, many people specially went to Yun Province in order to gamble on stones. Some good stones could be sold at a high price there!

In the Stone-gambling circle, there were King Stones and Emperor Stones. The jade in this kind of stone could be seen even before being cut. The biggest difference was that the amount of green among the stones was unknown. Generally speaking, this kind of stone could be sold at a sky-high price, more than hundreds of thousands, millions, or even tens of millions!

Now Bing was selling the first stone for only 200 yuan! Was this charity? This was giving people a chance to be rich in vain.

Of course, there were also some people who were doubtful about whether or not Bing's stones had jade inside or not.

In front of Bing's store, a colourful ribbon was pulled up. With the sound of firecrackers, Bing took a pair of golden scissors and cut the ribbon.

"The Peerless Jade is officially opened. Welcome!"

Bing shouted loudly, and the crowd cheered.

Jenny looked at Bing, and her beautiful face was full of sadness. Bing must have come prepared today.

The industry of gambling on stones was an industry that could bring a lot of money. Before, the government hadn't opened this industry, so no one thought about it. Now, the government had given the policy to Hengyuan, so naturally, Hengyuan had been targeted.

It could be said that Hengyuan had made great contributions to open a new trading channel and increase the city's investment because of the explosion of the mountain. That was why there was such a special approval. However, Bing could only rely on his family.

Now, the two stone gambling shops in Ning province were both opened, and they were next to each other. Everyone was very clear that in the whole Ning province, there were not so many customers, so the profits of the two stone gambling shops could not be very high. If they wanted to survive, they had to defeat the other party.

This was the same for Bing and Jenny.

Seeing Bing had already finished cutting the ribbon, Jenny also rushed to open the shop. However, she seemed to be in a hurry to cut the ribbon.

With a burst of firecrackers, the two stone gambling shops were officially opened.

Bing stood at the door of his shop and stared viciously at the Broken Jade Pavilion next door. He said to the people beside him, "When will the stone-gambling master you mentioned come?"

"He'll be there soon," a young man next to Bing replied. As soon as he finished speaking, he heard a burst of laughter.

"Young Master Ke, congratulations." An old man in his sixties strode to the door of The Peerless Jade. After the old man finished his congratulations, he put his eyes on a few stones in front of the door and exclaimed exaggeratedly, "Oh my God, King Stone! I want this stone. How much is it?"

The old man's exclamation immediately attracted a lot of people's attention.

Many people knew about King Stone, but they didn't know how to distinguish him. Even if this kind of stone was in front of them, they couldn't recognize it. Now hearing the voice of the old man, they all looked at him and wanted to know what King Stone was.

Bing laughed loudly. This old man was the one who he hired to gamble on stones. Bing replied, "On the first day, each person can buy a stone for 200 yuan."

"200?" The old man's face was full of disbelief. "Master Ke, you're doing good deeds. I'll take this stone!"

The old man stepped forward and patted a stone with a height of one meter and a width of 30 centimetres. He said directly, "This one."

Since he could open a gambling stone shop, of course, he could find professional people to cut the stones. In the peerless jade, a young man came over with tools. "Sir, do you want to brush it or cut it?"

"Brush." The old man said without hesitation.

The young man nodded. As soon as he brushed the corner of the stone, there was a flash of green.

"It's green!"

Chapter 410

On the first day of the opening of the stone gambling shop, a green jade appeared in the first stone, which was absolutely a good sign.

The Peerless Jade immediately attracted a lot of attention and those passers-by who on the pedestrian street also looked over.

As the staff in Bing's store continued to brush the stone, the jade became greener and greener, and some people who understood jade became jealous.

"Oh my god, it looks like it's worth at least 2 million!"

"Two million?"

"What I'm talking about is color, not the whole jade. The specific value depends on its size!"

A one-meter-high stone was gradually brushed on the corners. Finally, an irregular jade with a length of 25 centimetres appeared in everyone's eyes. It was green and beautiful!

"Oh my god, how much is this piece?"

"30 million, at least 30 million!"

"Two hundred yuan exchanged for 30 million?" A burst of exclamation sounded. It could be seen that the old man was laughing so hard that he couldn't close his mouth.

"Master Ke, I really took advantage of you this time." The old man laughed a few times. "In the past, I spent hundreds of thousands of yuan just to buy stone like this. I really dare not gamble."

A piece of jade with a value of 30 million yuan was bought with 200 yuan. Many people guessed that Bing must have regretted so much. However, when they looked at Bing, they found that he didn't look regret as they imagined. Instead, he looked happy.

"If this stone is placed here, it would be taken away sooner or later. Now, on my opening day, I got the first jade. It's also a good sign for my store. Haha." Bing laughed.

The old man looked at the door of the shop again, and finally fixed his eyes on a stone. "Master Ke, how much is this stone?"

"80,000." Bing grinned. "Each person's first stone is 200 yuan, and the rest stones are sold at the original price."

"I'll take it." The old man waved his hand in a loud voice.

As soon as the old man's voice fell, a young man immediately jumped out from the side and took out two hundred yuan bills and put them on the stone that the old man saw.

"Here is the money. I want it!"

The old man frowned and looked at the young man. "Young man, I'm afraid it's not appropriate for you to do this. It's clear that I wanted to buy this stone first."

The young man's neck went stiff. "What's wrong? You didn't take out the money. I've already taken out the money."

After the young man finished speaking, he looked at Bing and said, "Boss, it is important who pays first."

Bing nodded. "Yes, that's true."

"That's right." The young man showed a proud face. "I'll take that stone. Open it for me!"

The staff member came over and asked the young man, "Sir, do you want to brush it or cut it directly?"

"Brush!" The young man imitated the old man's tone and said decently.

The staff nodded, took out professional tools, and slowly ground the corner of the stone. As the corner was ground out, a green light appeared in the eyes of everyone.

"Green! Green again!"

"Are you kidding me? There are two jades in a row? What a good man!"

"That old man is an expert. All the stones he likes have green inside."

"Oh my god, this guy took advantage of Bing. Two hundred yuan for a piece of green jade."

When the stone was totally brushed, a jade of the size of a palm appeared in everyone's eyes.

"The colour can't be compared with the one just now, and the size is also much smaller. It can only be counted as a defective product. It's worth around 40,000 yuan."

"That's also a big profit."

"Two hundred for forty thousand. Two hundred times higher!"

The young man kept rubbing his hands with excitement.

The old man just laughed and said, "It seems that I almost lost 40,000 yuan."

There were two pieces of green on Bing's side in a row, and all the eyes were focused on him.

Jenny frowned and looked at the next room. "Is it so easy to get the jade?"

"It's all planned and acted." Henry shook his head. "Look closely at the two jade stones just now. The surface is covered with a layer of ore. This kind of ore only takes three hours to form after soaking in chemical materials. These two people are just hired by Bing."

Jenny's beautiful eyes were filled with disgust. "Bing is too unscrupulous when he's doing business."

Originally, the two stone gambling shops opened at the same time today, and the number of customers was split equally. However, the two jades in Peerless Jade, which had been found in a row, immediately made Jenny's side a lot emptier.

Seeing that the jade had been found so easily, some people couldn't help but spend money to buy jade from Bing.

Henry looked at Bing and said, "Only a small part of his stones are from Yun Province. Most of them are the stones around here. It's a huge profit to sell two hundred yuan for one stone."

There were more and more people on Bing's side. On the contrary, there were not many people on Jenny's side.

"President Qin, what should we do now?" Jenny's staff stood behind Jenny and asked anxiously.

"Don't worry." Before Jenny could speak, Henry spoke first. He shook his head and said, "Just wait for a while. He can have as many people as he wants now, let him be proud of himself first."

At Bing's stone gambling shop, not only were there people who came to support him, but also some people who came for fu. At this moment, they could not help but spend money to buy some stones.

Once in a while, there would be a green jade, which would drive a large group of people.

Bing walked to the door of the store and looked at Jenny with a proud face. "President Qin, it seems that your business is not good."

A middle-aged woman came to Peerless Jade and wanted to buy a stone, but there were too many people in the queue. Her heart was itching, so she simply came to the Broken Jade Pavilion.

"Boss, how much is this stone?" The middle-aged woman picked up a fist-sized stone and asked.

"Six thousand."

"Six thousand?" The woman widened her eyes. "How can you sell such a small stone for six thousand yuan? The store next to you sells some enormous stones for only 200 yuan."

Henry came over from the side and said,

"You can't find any jade in his cheap stones. And this one worth 6,000 yuan has something valuable inside. It's absolutely profitable."

The middle-aged woman glanced at her mouth and said, "Absolutely not. Who do you think you are? Only a fool would spend six thousand yuan buy this stone."

After the middle-aged woman finished, she shouted to the side, "Everyone, pay attention. This store named Broken Jade Pavilion is deceptive. It sells this small stone for 6,000 yuan and tells me it's worth it. Please don't come here to buy it."

The middle-aged woman's words immediately attracted the attention of many onlookers. Some people saw the stone in the middle-aged woman's hand and made a sound.

"It's just a small stone. Who can you fool by selling it for 6,000 yuan?"

10:52 ■

"That's right. Are you crazy about money?"

"6,000 yuan! 6,000 yuan for a stone! But here they sell a stone for only 200 yuan!"

The voice rang out one after another, which made Jenny's face particularly ugly.
