

Chapter 438

The staff put down the knife, picked up professional tools, and ground them slowly. As the staff moved, a small layer of stone was worn down.

The staff gently blew at the stone. At the moment when the surface stone debris was blown off, a touch of green appeared in the eyes of everyone.

This green colour gave people the feeling that it was extremely rich in colour. Looking at the colour alone, people were almost 80% sure that it was authentic.

The staff continued to brush against the stone. When the surrounding debris were all blown, the whole piece of jade, which was nearly ten centimetres long and wide, appeared in the eyes of everyone.

Inside the jade, the crystal particles were extremely small and transparent. The polished effect of this kind of jade was quite good.

The colour was green and rich, which was the best.

To see if a piece of jade was valuable, the first step was to look at the pits and colour. The pits were the crystal particles. The colour could be green, red, or purple, of which green was the best. The colour was divided into thick, thin, bright, light, even.

For the jade in front of them, it could be said that there were no flaws in terms of the pit and colour.

The third point was to see the transparency of the whole jade, which was also the most important part.

The final price of a piece of jade was directly related to transparency. The more transparent the jade was, the more valuable it was.

The staff took out his flashlight and slowly hit the jade.

At this moment, Amy's nervous breathing was rapid, and a kind of excitement came to her heart. She just heard from the people around that this kind of jade could be sold for at least more than five million dollars. This was certain. That was to say, this time, she was really lucky. She didn't need to marry Karl Ban!

Amy's father was also full of excitement. He sat there with his arms trembling.

As for Karl, his face was terribly dark. He didn't expect that Amy would really find the treasure. Moreover, he could hear the voices of the people around him clearly. It was worth at least five million yuan!

Everyone looked at it now. When the light hit the jade, what effect could it have? Now this jade, according to the colour and pit, was of the best quality. As long as the transparency was good, the price could be doubled.

The staff took the flashlight, turned on the light, and slowly moved to the top of the jade. When the light hit the jade, the onlookers all gasped.

As for the colour of this jade now, if the light was on, it could be seen from the other side, which could be said to be the best. But now, the whole jade was full of the light, as if it had a luminous body.

What did this mean? It meant that this jade was the best of the best!

"It's a glass type jade. It's a glass type!"

"Oh my god! A glass type! Such a big piece!"

The screaming around kept ringing.

The glass type, also known as the King's Jade, was the best of the jades. Even a small piece was priceless.

"How much is this piece of glass type worth?"

"At least ten million?"

"More than ten million!"

There was a kind of exclamation in the crowd.

"This girl's eyes are too sharp. She bought it for 500,000 yuan, and now the price is actually hundreds of times higher!"

The appearance of the glass type immediately made Amy the focus of the hall.

At the same time, the auction for the last piece of Emperor Stone ended. The staff of the Broken Jade Pavilion started to open the stone in front of everyone.

The stone bought by Karl was not moved at all. Originally, he wanted to leave a little expectation, but now, he had no expectation at all. Even if there was something inside, could it be better than Amy's tens of millions of yuan?

"D*mn luck!" Karl gave Henry a ferocious look, and then greedily stared at the glass type jade. It cost more than ten million yuan, which was more than all his assets. How could he not be annoyed?

The Broken Jade Pavilion would give this piece of King's Jade to an expert from the capital for appraisal. If the price was relatively similar, Amy would decide whether to sell it or not.

"Brother-in-law, thank you so much. Thank you so much. I don't know how to repay you." After sending away the King's Jade, Amy looked at Henry gratefully. Tears welled up in her eyes. It could be said that this piece of jade had completely changed her life. If this treasure had not been presented today, Amy could imagine how dark her life would be in the future.

Henry smiled and said, "You don't need to thank me. You're the one who decided to bet on this stone. I was just giving you a suggestion."

"If it weren't for your suggestion, I wouldn't have chosen to buy it. Brother-in-law, really, thank you." Amy stood up and bowed deeply to Henry.

"All right." Henry reached out and rubbed Amy's head. "You little girl, you are calling me brother-in-law, no need to be so polite to me. You have a good relationship with Daisy, if you really need money, you can just say a word. A friend should be there to help."

Karl glared at Henry darkly, got up, and walked to the side.

At this time, Amy's father also stood up, and his tone of talking with Henry had become much more polite. "Little brother, your eyesight is really out of this world. I don't know where did you get it."

"It doesn't matter." Amy patted her father on the shoulder. "Dad, you always say that Sylvia Lin of Lins Group is powerful. Brother-in-law is Sylvia's husband."

"What!" Amy's father's body shook. He looked at Henry. He never thought that this person was the husband of Yinzhou's business queen!

"Little brother, I've offended you just now. Please don't put it close to your heart," Amy's father said quickly. His attitude towards Henry just now made him feel very embarrassed.

Henry shook his head and said nothing.

Amy's father smiled awkwardly and did not speaking anymore. If he was a bad-tempered person, he would be dissatisfied with his actions.

"All right, girl, go backstage and take your treasure. They should have finished appraising it." Henry looked at Amy's excited face and said.

"Okay, brother-in-law, I'll treat you and Daisy to dinner tonight. Please don't refuse."

"Don't worry, we will have a nice meal tonight!" Henry said loudly.

When Amy and her father walked to the backstage, they saw that Karl was also here, and the glass type jade was now in his hand.

"Ten million? Not enough, not enough!" At this time, Karl was talking to someone. "You think I'm stupid? This glass type jade is worth at least 15 million yuan. You want to buy it for ten million yuan? Are you dreaming?"

Amy walked over to him and said, "Karl Ban, why is my jade in your hands?"

"Yours?" Karl looked at Amy with a puzzled face. "What is yours?"

Chapter 439

Karl's expression and tone stunned Amy and her father.

"Karl, the thing in your hand was opened by me." Amy reminded him.

"Did you open it?" Karl looked at the glass type in his hand. "Amy Zhang, you're too funny, aren't you? It's obviously me who bought it."

Amy smiled and said, "Karl, do you think it's interesting? Broken Jade Pavilion is such a big store, can you take this jade by lying?"

"Lying?" Karl smiled and said, "Amy Zhang, you're too funny. Ask the staff of the Broken Jade Pavilion, who owns this jade?"

As soon as the voice of Karl fell, a middle-aged woman in a professional suit came over and said, "This jade is taken by the guest No. 58."

The middle-aged woman took a manual in her hand.

Amy nodded. "Yes, it was me."

"You?" A sardonic smile appeared on the corner of Karl's mouth. "Didn't you hear the manager say that it was taken by No. 58?"

"I'm No. 58!" Amy took out the number plate in her hand, which was used to bid at the auction.

The manager shook her head. "According to the guests' registration, Mr. Karl Ban is guest No. 58. This jade should be owned by Mr. Ban. Mr. Ban will decide the business rights of this jade."

After that, the manager took out the booklet and showed it to Amy. On the brochure, the positions of Amy and the other two people were all written under Karl's name!

The things on the booklet made Amy's delicate body tremble. She wanted to ask why Karl left so fast just now. It turned out that he went backstage to change these things.

Amy's father quickly said, "Manager, there's something you don't know. Although it is under Karl's name, the jade stone just now was indeed bought by my daughter. Many people can prove it, including the surveillance outside, it can be seen clearly."

"Sorry, I'm only looking at the guests' registration. As for who bid for it, it has nothing to do with me." The manager shook her head expressionlessly.

"Amy Zhang, thank you for your gift." Karl sneered. He didn't waste 500,000 yuan just now.

Amy took a deep breath and shouted, "You are completely unreasonable!"

"You're unreasonable?" The manager looked dissatisfied. "Ms. Qin, if you have any opinion, you can talk to President Qin."

"Talk to Jenny Qin?"

If Amy knew people like Jenny Qin, how could she be forced to marry a guy like Karl?

"Well, Amy, I'm very dissatisfied with your performance today. Think about how to make me satisfied. Otherwise, you will need to solve your family's affairs alone." said Karl. He took the jade and strode to one side.

"Give my jade back to me!" Amy stepped forward and chased after Karl. She was so anxious that tears came out of her eyes. This was her last hope, and it was taken away by others.

"Security guard, get her out!" The manager frowned and shouted immediately. She had just collected 500,000 yuan, so she had to do something.

Upon hearing the manager's words, the two security guards immediately came forward to hold Amy.

"Let go of my daughter!" Amy's father immediately rushed up.

"Get him out also!" The manager ordered again.

The two security guards walked toward Amy's father.

Amy's father suddenly waved his hand and shouted, "Don't touch me!"

All of a sudden, the calm backstage was in a tumult.

Henry walked to the backstage and happened to hear the noise. At first glance, he saw that Amy and her father were being held by security guards.

"Let them go!" Henry walked over and blocked the road of the security guard. He frowned and said, "What are you doing? Is this how you people from the Broken Jade Pavilion treat your customers?"

"Who are you?" The manager came from the side and looked at Henry unhappily. "How we behave here doesn't have anything to do with you!"

Henry glanced at a work card on the left side of the other party's chest and saw that she was the manager of the Broken Jade Pavilion.

Henry asked, "Where is your President Qin?"

"What does it have to do with you?" The manager raised her head. Now, the business of Hengyuan was getting bigger and bigger. The Broken Jade Pavilion could be said to be the only stone gambling shop in Ning province, and the manager was very arrogant.

"Brother-in-law, she joined hands with Karl and stole our jade." Amy shouted anxiously beside him.

"Stole your jade?" Henry was stunned.

In Yun Province, many years ago, there was a group of people who took advantage of others as locals. If foreign people came to offer good things, they would rob them. Once these people were caught, they had a kind of silent tacit understanding that they would cut their hands directly without even reporting to the police.

However, this kind of thing had happened many years ago. Now that the stone gambling world had been reformed, everyone was behaving in accordance with the rules. No one dared to do this kind of things again. He didn't expect to see it again in Yinzhou today.

"What do you mean by steal?" The manager's face darkened. "I just follow the rules. If you have any questions, go to our President Qin!"

The manager said so because she was sure that these people would never be able to get in touch with Jenny Qin.

"Brother-in-law, she has been telling me to look for President Qin all the time, but how could I find President Qin? Do you... do you know her?" Amy asked with a glimmer of hope.

"How can he know our President Qin?" The manager snorted disdainfully and looked at Henry's clothes. It could be said that he was poor.

Henry nodded and took out the phone. When he was about to call Jenny, he heard a sweet and crisp voice behind him. "Henry Zhang, where are you? I've been looking for you for a long time."

Seeing the person who spoke, the manager was stunned. "President Qin, why are you here?"

Jenny walked slowly towards them with lotus steps. Looking at Amy and her father caught by the security guard, she frowned and said, "What's going on?"

"President Qin, they are making trouble in the backstage. They want to steal the jade opened by other customers. I am pushing them out." The manager said quickly.

"Steal the jade?" Jenny's face darkened. "Are you sure?"

"Yes, President Qin, it's these three people!" The manager pointed at Henry and the other two people, and then said to the security guard, "Hurry up, take these three people out. If they still want to make trouble, call the police directly!"

Jenny shook her head and said directly, "Don't touch them. Manager Shao, you are fired."

Jenny looked at the situation in front of her and didn't need to ask at all. She knew that the manager was trying to change the facts. How could Henry steal the jade opened by another person?

"President Qin, I don't understand?" The manager's face was a little pale.

"Don't you understand? The police will make you understand," Jenny said unhappily.

Henry said, "Take it easy. Let the security guard catch Karl Ban first, and don't let him run away with jade. If that's the case, it wouldn't be a big deal for your Broken Jade Pavilion to pay the money, but probably you won't be able to hold auctions in future."

Jenny nodded and quickly ordered.

Chapter 440

The manager looked at the way Henry and Jenny talked. She had never expected that this person really knew President Qin. Looking at his shabby looks, he didn't look like someone who knew President Qin.

Henry was not in the mood to deal with this manager at all. Today's matter was enough for her to go to prison.

A group of security guards rushed out in a hurry. After about five minutes, they took Karl back to the Broken Jade Pavilion.

"D*mn you, who gave you the right to do that? That's how you treat your clients? I'm going to sue you!" Karl kept cursing.

"Let's talk about it when you have the chance." Jenny glared at Karl coldly. She had already heard Amy say about what had happened just now. "You are suspected of fraud and robbery. If you want to sue our Broken Jade Pavilion after you get out of the police station, I will be here."

Jenny also breathed a sigh of relief when she saw that Karl had been taken back. If she really let Karl run away with her jade today, then the reputation of the Broken Jade Pavilion would be ruined. During the first auction, the products bid by customers were taken away by others with the help of the staff of the Broken Jade Pavilion. In the future, no one would dare to gamble with stones in the Broken Jade Pavilion.

"What fraud? Robbery? I bought all the tickets, and the seats are all under my name. This jade is obviously my..." Karl roared desperately, but before he could finish, he was interrupted by Henry.

"Karl Ban, born in 1989, is the young master of the X&Y Business Co., Ltd. A month ago, you bribed all the partners of Amy Zhang's family and took in all the assets, a total of 78 million yuan. As a result, Amy's family owes 3 million yuan. After Amy's family went bankrupt, you threatened with the debt and forced her to get engaged with you. Am I right?"

As Henry spoke, he stared at Karl.

Karl's face turned pale. This was what he did in private and only few people knew. How did he know these?

"It seems that I'm right." Henry smiled. "Now, you have to a commercial fraud will be added to all of these accusations. Enjoy it."

Henry patted Karl on the shoulder.

As soon as Henry finished speaking, the police arrived in front of the door of the Broken Jade Pavilion. When Jenny ordered people to chase after Karl just now, she had already called the police.

"Brother-in-law, you really saved our family." Amy stood in front of Henry and looked at the jade in her hand. "I really don't know how to repay you."

"Well, if you say something similar again, don't call me brother-in-law. Didn't you say that you'll treat me to a dinner tonight?" Henry smiled, "I'll wait for your call tonight."

"Okay, sure." Amy nodded hard.

Henry asked Jenny to help Amy deal with the jade, and he left the Broken Jade Pavilion in a hurry. Now he wanted to figure out what the crystal that he had just opened was.

The Fire Crystal had always been the power item that Radiant Island wanted to figure out. Now, a similar thing to the Fire Crystal had appeared, so Henry had to pay attention to it.

As soon as Henry walked out of the Broken Jade Pavilion, the man and the woman followed him.

Henry glanced around the pedestrian street and finally walked into a shopping mall, turning around inside.

"Hurry up, keep up."

A man and a woman hurried into the mall.

After wandering in the mall for more than half an hour, Henry finally walked into the underground parking lot.

"He wants to take a car. Don't let him run away." The long-haired beauty quickly said, and the two of them rushed into the underground parking lot.

The parking lot was very large. At this time, there were not many people. It was empty.

When the two of them rushed to the parking lot, but they did not see Henry in the first place.

In the huge underground parking lot, the two of them carefully observed and looked for Henry.

The beautiful woman hid behind a wall and slowly looked forward.

"Beauty, are you looking for me?" Henry's voice suddenly sounded behind the beautiful woman.

This abrupt voice scared the beautiful woman. She subconsciously shrank her neck and turned her head, only to see Henry standing behind her with a smile.

"Junior Sister, be careful!" The young man, who was not far from the beautiful woman, also heard Henry's voice. When he saw Henry standing behind his companion, he rushed over immediately.

Henry looked at them with a smile on his face. "You two followed me as soon as I came out of the Broken Jade Pavilion. Is it for this?"

Johnson took out a small white crystal while he was speaking.

The moment he took out the small white crystal, their eyes were fixed on the object in his hand.

"It seems that I'm right." Henry turned over his wrist and put it away. "You've known that there's this thing hidden in the stone?"

"Nonsense, in a few pieces of emperor stones, except for holy..." The beautiful woman said. Before she could finish her words, she reacted and quickly reached out her hand to cover her mouth. She glared at Henry with anger in her big eyes. "You are playing tricks on me!"

Henry was silent for a moment because of her words. After a few seconds, he said, "What on earth is this?"

"Brother, it's not good for you to know what it is." The young man said, "It's useless to you. If you want, give me two days. I'll pay 3 million yuan for it. You won't suffer any loss. What do you think?"

Henry shook his head. "No, I'm not short of 3 million. I just want to know what it is."

"Didn't you listen to my Senior Brother? You know that this thing is of no benefit to you at all. Besides, even if I tell you, you won't be able to use it. We came all the way here for this thing. Why do you have to go against us?" The beautiful woman was so anxious that her face turned red. It could be seen that this thing was really important to them.

Henry smiled and said, "It can't be called going against you. After all, this was a fair auction. You could continue to raise the bids to the point that I couldn't afford it."

The beautiful woman stomped her foot angrily and couldn't say anything.

The young man took two steps forward. "Brother, believe me. If you keep this thing in your hands, it will only cause you trouble. You'd better give it to me."

"Oh? What kind of trouble?" Henry asked curiously. Now he was really looking forward to trouble coming to him so that he could find a way to figure out what it was. He had an intuition that this crystal was likely to have something to do with Qi.

"Brother, are you really not willing to give this thing to us?" The young man frowned and asked again.

Henry still shook his head.

"Senior brother, you don't need to say more to this kind of person. Just grab it directly!" The beautiful woman waved her hand. At the same time, a sharp arrow shot out from her sleeve and suddenly rushed toward Henry.

"Junior Sister!" The young man shouted loudly, but it was too late. The sleeve arrow had been shot out and could not be withdrawn.

At the critical moment, Henry suddenly twisted his body and escaped the arrow.

Chapter 441

Seeing Henry dodge the arrow so easily, the young man breathed a sigh of relief and felt a little shocked at the same time. This person actually had good skills!

Henry turned around and looked at the beautiful woman. He glanced at her and said, "She looks pretty good. Her heart is a little too vicious."

As soon as Henry finished his words, he turned one hand into a claw and grabbed at the beautiful woman.

The beautiful woman's eyes turned cold. "Senior brother, he is a bit strange. Don't hold back!"

While she was talking, Henry's hand reached to the woman's neck and grabbed her neck.

The woman quickly stepped back and unexpectedly avoided Henry's claw.

The woman's steps of retreating surprised Henry. Although he didn't use all his strength, he still used about 60%. In this world, even the masters of the older generation could hardly escape from his grasp, not to mention this young woman.

When Henry looked at his opponent's footsteps, she actually gave him a mysterious feeling. He had never seen it before. It was a bit like the strange footsteps written in kungfu novels.

The woman stepped back three steps to the left and two feet on the right, avoiding Henry's grasp, which made her gasp a few times.

"Brother, sorry to offend you!" The young man shouted and punched at Henry.

Henry dodged the young man's punch and fought with him.

Henry did not show his full strength. He focused on testing the methods of these two people. Henry found that they were using a set of moves that he had never seen before, which made Henry feel incredible. He was confident that he knew 80% of the fist techniques in China, and he was familiar with the remaining 20%. However, it was rare to see such a move.

The young man and young women were surprised at the same time. They have been out for a while, and their strength was one of the strongest in their family. Unexpectedly, when they came out for the first mission, they met such a master. He seemed to be at the same age as them, but he was able to fight against two people by himself and was not at a disadvantage.

"Junior sister, let's go first!" The young man saw that he couldn't hold Henry for a long time. When fighting in the underground parking lot, he made a great noise, so he was anxious.

There was a hint of unwillingness in the beautiful woman's beautiful eyes, but she also knew that if they continued to fight like this, it would be very bad for both of them. After shooting another arrow at Henry, she quickly retreated.

Henry watched them retreat, but he didn't chase after them. Instead, he stood in the same place and recalled the fist method they used and the pace of their feet. Both of them were something that he had never seen before.

It seemed that some unknown things were getting closer and closer.

Henry shook his head and left the parking lot. He contacted Wade immediately and asked him to come over to pick the thing.

Outside the mall, a man and a woman quickly left.

"Senior Brother, who do you think he is? Which family is he from?"

"I don't know." The young man shook his head. "As far as I know, no one from any family has such skills. I have to report this matter to the elder master."

Five o'clock in the afternoon.

Henry handed the thing to Wade. After saying hello to Sylvia, he went to find Daisy.

Henry had promised Amy that he would have dinner with her tonight, and he would not break his promise.

Henry was familiar with Amy, Daisy, Lam Sun, and Wade Zhang.

When they saw Amy, they all smiled.

"Fk you, you lied that something happened in your family and you went around travelling."

"That's right. Your social media was full of beautiful photos. So envious of you!"

Hearing Daisy and Lam's laughter, Amy did not explain so much. "It's okay to have fun sometimes. Tonight dinner is on me. We are going back to school tomorrow. Ah, I miss the days of having fun outside."

Henry looked at Amy's appearance and nodded. This girl had a good temperament and was loyal to friends, but she didn't like to add burden to her friends.

Henry had a good dinner, and he was not shy. He knew clearly that the more expensive the meal was, the more comfortable Amy felt. Otherwise, this girl would feel that she owed him something.

By the time dinner was over, it was already ten o'clock in the evening.

Henry strolled home leisurely.

Before he arrived at the front of the villa yard, Henry heard the alarm sound from a distance. After a rough distinction, he found that the alarm sound came from his own door.

Henry immediately ran to the house where he lived. As expected, several police cars were parked in front of the villa courtyard.

Several policemen were standing in front of the gate of the courtyard asking about something. Sylvia and Megan were constantly talking with the police.

Henry squinted and found that the plates on these police cars were not from Yinzhou, but from Luohe.

"The police of Luohe came to Yinzhou?"

Henry immediately felt that something was off.

"Ms. Lin, you have to tell me the truth. Where is your husband, Henry Zhang?" A policeman took the camera recorder and asked Sylvia.

"I've said it many times. He is having dinner with my sister tonight. He should be back soon. What on earth happened?" Sylvia frowned.

"Ms. Lin, we now officially inform you that your husband is suspected of murder. Before your husband comes back, you are not allowed to contact him by any means. We will keep a strict watch on you for twenty-four hours. I hope you can cooperate with us." A 30-year-old male policeman said, while constantly looking at Sylvia and Megan.

"Monitor me?" Upon hearing this, Sylvia immediately shouted, "Who gave you the right? And what evidence do you have to prove that my husband has something to do with a murder case!"

The policeman casually threw out a document. "Ms. Lin, please take a look. This is the arrest order issued by the superiors."

Sylvia took a closer look and found that the arrest order that had the title written in red letters was issued by Luohe City Police Station. It was clearly written that they were going to arrest Henry, the criminal suspect.

"How could it be!" Sylvia was shocked. "It's impossible!"

"Ms. Lin, whether you believe it or not, your husband is suspected of murder. Please make way now. We have to keep a strict watch on you for twenty-four hours. We have to keep an eye on you even when you are in the bathroom!" The male policeman said as he moved to squeeze into the yard.

"How dare you!" Megan shouted. "Who allowed you to monitor us?"

"Can't you understand the arrest warrant?"
The middle-aged policeman sneered.

"That's your arrest warrant. You don't have the right to monitor us. This place is our private territory. Please get out!" Megan shouted.

"Private territory? I think you want to cover up the fugitive!" The middle-aged policeman shouted, and then waved his hand. "Go in and search! Check all the places. Remember, I'm talking about all the places!"

Chapter 442

When the middle-aged policeman said all the words, he deliberately glanced at Megan.

Megan was so angry that her face turned red. Women had many private places that could not be seen by others so casually.

After the middle-aged policeman finished, he shouted again, "At the same time, I suspect that she has some communication equipment with her. She will contact the suspect in private. Catch her. I want to search her body!"

When the middle-aged policeman spoke, his eyes were full of lust and malicious intentions. He kept looking at Sylvia. Such a beautiful woman and she was the president of the Lins Group. If he touched her, it would be a huge boast of the pride for him.

Sylvia's face changed.

Megan immediately stood in front of Sylvia and stared at the policemen in front of her. "I'll see who dares to do that!"

"What's going on?" Henry's voice rang out from behind the policemen.

He just ran over and didn't listen carefully to the conversations between these policemen and Sylvia. He didn't know that these people were coming for him.

When this group of policemen saw Henry, their faces lit up. They immediately stepped forward and grabbed him.

A trace of loss flashed in the eyes of the middle-aged policeman. It seemed that he had no way to take advantage of Sylvia this time. He looked at Henry, took out his arrest warrant, and shouted, "Henry Zhang, you are suspected of murder.

Come with us now!"

"Come with you? A murder?" Henry frowned. "Which unit do you work for?"

"Luohe Police Station!" The middle-aged policeman took out his badge and lit it up in front of Henry.

Henry chuckled and said, "Luohe Police Station? Even if I have something to do with, it's none of your business, right? Is there no one in Yinzhou Police Station?"

"This is our internal command. It has nothing to do with you. Come with me! Catch him." The middle-aged policeman ordered.

The two men who rushed to the front of Henry had already reached out their hands to Henry.

Henry snorted and shook his shoulders. "I'm going to call the police station in Yinzhou to ask how you were dispatched.

Also, I want to know which murder has something to do with me."

"You don't have the right to call now, take him down!" The middle-aged policeman shouted, "Henry Zhang, if you resist now, you will be arrested!"

The two policemen grabbed Henry's shoulders again. Henry clenched his fists, and then released them. He was fully capable of knocking down these policemen and escaping unscathed, but he couldn't do that. Now he was no longer the former lone ranger. He had a home, so he had to take into account Sylvia's feelings. If he was really arrested, nothing would happen, but it would have a great impact on Sylvia. At least, Lins Group would be greatly affected.

As for the suspected murder, Henry knew without thinking that someone was deliberately trying to get him into trouble.

Henry let the two policemen handcuff him. He gave Sylvia a reassuring look. "Honey, it's nothing. I promise you that I will appear in front of you tomorrow morning safe and sound."

The middle-aged policeman snorted coldly. "Safe and sound? How arrogant you are! You're taking the law for granted! Let me tell you, this matter is enough for you to close you for the rest of your life!"

"Wait!" Sylvia reached out and stopped several policemen.

The middle-aged policeman raised his eyebrows. "What, Ms. Lin, do you still want to stop us from arresting people? I have the right to detain you because of interfering with law enforcement!"

Sylvia looked at the middle-aged policeman with cold eyes. "I won't stop you. I just want to say that my husband and I have always been law-abiding. If we really made mistakes, we should be punished by the law. But someone deliberately framed us. My Lins Group will not be bullied like this by others!"

Hearing this, the middle-aged policeman sneered in his heart. "What about your Family Lin? No matter how powerful your Family Lin is, can it compare with the Cheng family? This time, not only the people of the Cheng family but also Young Master Bing, including the Young Master of the Family Zheng are involved. No one could save him."

Of course, the middle-aged policeman just thought about it in his heart and would not say anything.

"Ms. Lin, you can rest assured that no one deliberately framed you." After the middle-aged policeman finished speaking, he waved his hand and said, "Let's go!"

Many policemen got into the police car and left.

Sylvia looked at the direction in which the police car left. She took out her mobile phone at once and made a phone call to go out.

"Peter, where are you? Something happened with my husband!"

At this moment, Peter was sitting in the manor arranging the follow-up development of the Cheng family. When he heard that Sylvia's husband had an accident, Peter immediately said, "Sylvia, calm down. What's wrong?"

"A group of policemen from Luohe said that Henry was involved in a murder case and just took him away." Sylvia's voice sounded on the phone.

Peter was sitting on the chair. The moment he heard that it had something to do with Luohe, he shook his body and almost fell to the ground. Last time, Henry came to Cheng manor, and it could be said that he had completely trampled the Cheng family. Even the old master had already admitted defeat.

Now, the police of Luohe actually attacked Henry?

Sitting in the position of the heir of Cheng's family, Peter didn't think that Henry really did something wrong. When Sylvia called him to explain, he had already thought that someone was plotting against Henry, but he didn't expect that this person was from Luohe.

If something happened in Luohe, Cheng family's would definitely know about that.

Peter rushed to the phone and said, "Sylvia, don't worry. I'll go to the police station now."

"Okay, I'm going to Luohe now." After 13:45 ■

Sylvia finished speaking, she hung up the phone, casually put on a coat, and drove to Luohe with Megan.

On the national highway between Yinzhou and Luohe, there was a police station. This station was located in a remote place and there was nothing surrounding it.

Several police cars with sirens stopped at the door of the station.

"Get out!" As the door opened, a policeman pushed Henry out.

Henry was brought to the station by several policemen and locked up in the interrogation room.

The interrogation room was very simple and crude. Blood could be vaguely seen on the cold seat. The light in the room came from an old light bulb. Once it was turned on, it emitted a dim yellow light.

Henry's hands were placed on the interrogation chair.

About ten minutes later, the door of the interrogation room opened, and a young policeman came in.

Henry noticed that the other side was not a formal police officer, but some assistant.

The young assistant was holding a pen and a record book sat opposite Henry, lit a cigarette, and impatiently asked, "Name, age."

"Henry Zhang, twenty-five years old." Henry answered honestly.

"Well, you are suspected of murder. Let's get your fingerprints." The assistant casually made a report, and then took out an ink pad and pressed it on Henry's fingers behind the chair.

Chapter 443

Outside the interrogation room, a middle-aged man in casual clothes, who looked to be in his fifties, pushed open the door of the interrogation room and walked in.

The middle-aged man looked at Henry who was cuffed in the seat, and asked the assistant officer, "How is it going?"

The assistant officer looked at the man in front of him and quickly got up. Then he said, "Cap..."

Before the assistant could finish his words, he was glared back by the middle-aged man.

The assistant officer quickly lowered his head and said, "Mr. Yu, he doesn't want to confess."

"Refuse to confess?" The middle-aged man smiled. "Then take out the evidence and let people interrogate him. We have firm evidence, so he has to confess."

"Yes." The assistant officer quickly nodded and ran out.

Under the dim light, the middle-aged man looked at Henry and said, "You've been convicted of murder. You can confess. You won't suffer too much if you confess early."

Henry sat there without saying a word.

"I've seen too many stubborn people. I'd like to see how stubborn you can be!" Seeing that Henry didn't speak, the middle-aged man snorted, swung his sleeves, and walked out of the interrogation room.

Outside the police station on the national highway, there was a black Benz with three people sitting in it.

After the middle-aged man left the interrogation room, he walked out of the door of the station and came to the Benz with a respectful face. "Master Ke, Miss Cheng, Master Zheng."

Sitting in the car was Bing Ke, Sam Zheng, and Jodie Cheng.

On the same day, Bing told Sam that the member of the Cheng family who wanted to frame Henry. That member was Jodie Cheng who had just returned from studying abroad.

"Where is he?" Bing was sitting in the driver's seat and asked.

"He's inside," the middle-aged man replied respectfully.

"Good!" Bing nodded with satisfaction. "I've already given you all the information. I've already made some arrangements at the detention centre. Make him admit his guilt tonight. I don't care what you do. Take him to the detention centre and lock him up before dawn. Do you understand?"

"Understood, understood!" The middle-aged man nodded repeatedly.

"Okay, you'd better finish it well. You'll get all the benefits." Bing took out a kraft bag and handed it to the middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man's eyes lit up with joy, and he quickly took the bag. He didn't need to look at it at all. Just by touching it, he knew that there was at least 100,000 yuan inside.

"It's just a deposit. After it's done, I'll give you ten times more. Don't let me down," Bing said lightly.

"Sure, sure!" The middle-aged man nodded repeatedly. "But Master Ke, there is one more thing, that person..."

Speaking of this, the middle-aged man wanted to say something but stopped on second thought.

Bing turned to look at Sam, who was sitting in the back seat.

Sam glared at the man in front of him and shouted, "Don't you know the rules?"

"I understand. I'm sorry, Master Zheng. I was too careless." The middle-aged man quickly took out his mobile phone from his pocket and turned it off.

When Sam saw that the middle-aged man's mobile phone was completely turned off, he said, "The body is in the woods close by. You can ask someone to find it. As for the video, I have already arranged for someone to contact you. About ten minutes later, he will come over."

"Okay." The middle-aged man responded.

"Then I'll leave the matter to you. I want to hear good news tomorrow morning," Bing said and rolled up the window.

At the same time, in Luohe.

Peter Cheng accompanied Sylvia to Luohe Police Station.

"Master Cheng, why are you here so late? Is there anything urgent?" Director Zhao of Luohe police station arrived in a hurry after receiving Peter's call. He was sweating profusely.

"Tell me, did you send someone to Yinzhou to arrest people today?" Peter looked at Director Zhao and questioned him.

Director Zhao's face was full of doubts. "No."

"No?" Peter frowned. "Be honest with me!"

Director Zhao looked at Peter, and his face was full of bitterness. "Master Cheng, how dare I talk nonsense with you? I really didn't ask someone to arrest people in Yinzhou. If they really went to Yinzhou, they would have to report to me."

Sylvia took out her mobile phone and took out a photo. This photo was taken when the police went to their house to arrest Johnson.

"Director Zhao, look, do these people belong to your station?"

Director Zhao looked at Sylvia's mobile phone and nodded. "Yes, they are from our police station. Madam, where did you take this photo?"

"Forty minutes ago, in my house, in Yinzhou!" Sylvia said coldly, "Your people said that my husband had something to do with a murder case and took him away."

"What!" Director Zhao was shocked and hurried to explain, "Master Cheng, I really don't know about this at all!"

Director Zhao was able to sit in this position, so he naturally saw it clearly. The husband of the woman in front of him was caught, and the future heir of the Cheng family came to find him in person. This matter could not be easily solved.

Peter snorted coldly and said, "You didn't even know this matter. I feel like your career should end soon!"

A flustered look appeared on Director Zhao's face. "Master Cheng, clam down. I'll go and check it out immediately!"

"I'll give you ten minutes to figure this out. If you can't find it out, you can consider the consequences yourself!" There was a strong threat to Peter's words.

Director Zhao nodded repeatedly and immediately took out his mobile phone to make a call.

Director Zhao called the men from Sylvia's photo one by one, but no one answered.

In the police station next to the national highway.

The policemen who had just taken Henry were sitting at a table, eating barbecue and drinking beer.

"Captain Yu, Director Zhao called." A younger policeman said to the middle-aged policeman.

"Don't answer." The middle-aged policeman, who was called Captain Yu, shook his head without thinking. "From now on, don't pick up any of his calls. Turn off or mute it. Find an excuse if anyone asks!"

After that, Captain Yu picked up the beer and took a big gulp on his mouth. As long as he dealt with the situation tonight, he wouldn't need to care about Director Zhao at all. Master Ke promised to transfer him to another division and he would directly become a director.

Luohe Police Station.

Ten minutes passed, but Director Zhao still didn't get anybody on the phone.

Peter walked over with a frown. "How's it going? Have you figured it out?"

"This..." Director Zhao opened his mouth but couldn't say anything.

"Is there any news about my husband?" Sylvia asked anxiously.

"Madam, calm down, I..." Director Zhao was about to say something, but Sylvia interrupted him.

"Calm down? How can I clam down? My husband was taken away by your people for no reason, and they arrested him with the arrest order from Luohe Police Station! As the director, you don't even know why my husband was caught. And you are asking me to calm down?!" Sylvia's pretty face was cold, and obviously she was angry.

When Sylvia was about to burst, her cell phone suddenly rang.

Chapter 444

Sylvia took out her mobile phone. It was from an unknown number.

"Hello." Sylvia picked up the phone. She had an intuition that this phone call might have something to do with this matter.

"Sylvia, is Henry at home?" A woman's voice sounded on the phone, and there was a kind of embarrassment in her voice. "I've been calling him but his phone is turned off."

Sylvia listened to the voice on the phone and immediately recognized who the person was.

"Jenny Qin?"

"It's me! Where's Henry?" Jenny asked anxiously.

"He..." Sylvia wanted to say something but stopped on second thought.

"Did something happen to him?" Jenny heard Sylvia's tone and immediately made a guess.

Sylvia pondered for a moment and asked, "Jenny, do you know anything?"

"Do you remember what happened last time? Sam Zheng just got out from the prison!" Jenny said directly on the phone, "The person who took me to the room that day went back to the police station and told the police that he was actually threatened by Henry. Just now, the police asked me to go to the police station to make a statement again. When they tried to find that person, he couldn't be found anymore."

"It's Sam Zheng!" Sylvia's eyes narrowed.

"It's not just that simple. It would be difficult for Sam to get out, let alone frame Henry. There must be someone else behind him!" Jenny asked anxiously, "Where is Henry now? How is he?"

"No... I don't know..." Sylvia's tone was weak and she did not dare to answer Jenny's question.

"You don't know? What do you mean you don't know?" Jenny asked in a questioning tone. "Sylvia Lin, explain it clearly to me!"

Sylvia listened to Jenny's words and felt her tone when she spoke. Even if she did not see Jenny, she could think of the angry look on her face. She took a deep breath and said, "Henry was taken away by the police of Luohe. I am now in Luohe. Director Zhao of Luohe doesn't know about this at all."

"Of course he doesn't know! Can this kind of thing be exposed? Now that someone has confessed and the person who has confessed has inexplicably disappeared, the other party must want to tie the knot. They have to make Henry confess tonight, otherwise, how could they go back to the police station?! I am going to the Yinzhou police now and ask them to check the surveillance. You also make Luohe police think about where they can take him!" Jenny said and hung up the phone quickly.

Sylvia listened to the busy tone on the phone and did not come to herself for a long time. At this moment, she suddenly felt that as his wife, she was too incompetent. When her husband got into trouble, she was like a headless fly. In the end, she had to let Jenny educate her.

"Sylvia, what's wrong?" Peter quickly came up and asked.

Sylvia shook her head, sorted out her thoughts, and said, "It's the Family Zheng. Peter Cheng, can you help me find out who released Sam Zheng from the second detention centre?"

"Okay." Peter nodded at once, and there was a serious look in his eyes.

In the police station near the national highway.

Henry was still shackled on the seat. Now, if he was willing to leave, this iron shackle and the iron door could not stop him at all. However, he still wanted to solve this problem through the legal way. He was trying to not to influence Sylvia.

With a creak, the iron door of the interrogation room was pushed open. Henry saw the assistant officer walking in.

"Let me ask you, where have you been from six o'clock to ten o'clock tonight?" The assistant officer asked.

"Having dinner at Glory Hotel in Yinzhou with my friends," Henry replied honestly.

"Dinner? Which room?" The assistant officer took a notebook and a pen to record.

"Room 888."

The assistant officer slammed the table. "Nonsense! Henry Zhang, I advise you to tell me the truth. This is the surveillance video of the hotel that we just got. You didn't appear in the Glory Hotel at all!"

The assistant officer took out his mobile phone, on which there was a surveillance video.

Henry rolled his eyes and didn't even look at the other party's mobile phone. When he said that he was in the Glory Hotel, the assistant took out the video without knowing, god knows what video he took out.

Henry was just thinking, who was making trouble for him? The police of Luohe, could it be the Cheng family?

"Henry Zhang, you were afraid that the matter connected to the Chairman of Hengyuan, Jenny Qin, would be revealed, so you killed him!" The assistant officer sneered.

"Jenny Qin?" Henry frowned.

"Do you know this person?" The assistant officer took out a photo and threw it in front of Henry.

The person in the photo was the one who was ordered by Sam Zheng to bring Jenny to the room in the private club last time.

Henry shook his head. "I have seen him, but I don't know him."

"You don't know him?" The assistant officer asked again, "Last time, you entrusted him to kidnap Jenny Qin, chairman of the Hengyuan Group. You tried to bribe him to make a fake confession. Are you still sure you don't know him?"

Hearing this, Henry suddenly understood who made this incident. It seemed that Sam Zheng still wanted to turn it over.

Henry shook his head and did not speak.

The assistant officer continued, "This afternoon, this person went to the police station to make a confession. In his confession, you were the behind the last incident. At six o'clock tonight, when you lied that you were having dinner with your friends, the witness disappeared inexplicably. We found the witness's body in the woods not far from here!"

As he said, he took out another photo. It was the scene where the witness was lying in the woods, and his throat was cut open.

The assistant officer threw the photo on the table. "Henry Zhang, what else do you want to say?"

"How did you prove that I killed him?" Henry asked strangely. Did the police of Luohe want to convict him?

"You're still stubborn, aren't you?" The assistant officer once again opened a video from his mobile phone. "Take a good look at it. The evidence is right here, what else do you have to say?"

Henry looked at it and found that it was a surveillance video on the mobile phone. In the video, there was a person with the same figure, same hairstyle, and even the same clothes as Henry. He was carrying a sack, sneaking into the woods, and then took the body out from the sack, and then quickly disappearing in the night.

Henry smiled. It seemed that Sam Zheng was quite well prepared, but the technique was still a bit too naive. If he did it himself, the person would reveal his side face.

"Henry Zhang, on behalf of the police of Luohe, I accuse you of participating in a murder. In order to hide the truth, you murdered the witness. I arrest you in accordance with the law!" The assistant officer said as he took out the official ink pad and took the initiative to put it on Henry's finger.

As long as the ink was on Henry's hand, it would mean that he has admitted this crime.

Henry looked at the police assistant who was getting closer and closer. Since the police assistant was making things difficult for him, he could only use extreme means to deal with it.

Just as Henry was about to break free of his handcuffs, he heard a loud bang and the door of the interrogation room was kicked open.

Chapter 445

The assistant officer was shocked at the scene that the interrogation room was kicked open. He suddenly looked back and saw a team of armed policemen rushing in. Each of them was wearing a combat uniform and was fully equipped.

At this moment, countless black muzzles were pointed at the assistant officer. The murderous atmosphere spread out. The assistant officer's legs went weak and he fell directly on the stool.

"What is it going on? Is he inside?" Jenny 's anxious voice came in from outside the interrogation room.

"Mr. Zhang, are you alright?" A police officer who led the team immediately walked up and uncuffed him.

Henry looked at them. These police officers who suddenly came here all belonged to the police of Yinzhou.

"I'm fine." Henry shook his head.

"It's good that you're fine. Mr. Zhang, you don't know that you've made President Qin worry for a while." When the policeman spoke, he looked at the direction of the door of the interrogation room on purpose.

A beautiful figure appeared in front of the interrogation room. When she saw Henry sitting on the interrogation chair, the figure blew up a fragrant wind and threw herself into Henry's arms like a swallow.

"Great, I finally found you. You... Are you okay? Did they do anything to you?" Jenny kept looking at Henry with her beautiful eyes, and her face was full of worry.

Henry opened his hands and looked at the woman in his arms. For a moment, he didn't know what to say. In the end, he could only gently pat Jenny's back. "Don't worry, I'm fine."

The assistant officer stared at the arrival of the Yinzhou policemen, and his lips were trembling. "You... you... Who the h*ll are you?"

When the police officer in charge of the Yinzhou police heard the assistant officer's words, he immediately shouted angrily, "You ask who we are? I also want to ask who you are!"

"I belong to the police of Luohe. It's illegal for you to rush in and release the criminal suspect without permission!" the assistant officer said loudly, holding back his trembling heart.

"Illegal?" The police officer of Yinzhou police smiled. "It's unreasonable for you to arrest people from our area. There's no notice. You've violated the regulations first! Where's your leader?"

As soon as the police officer finished speaking, another voice came from outside the interrogation room.

"Who is it? How dare you break into the police station with a gun?"

As the voice sounded, the middle-aged man in casual clothes came in.

The middle-aged man looked at these policemen from Yinzhou and finally fixed his eyes on the assistant officer. He frowned and said, "Liu, what's going on? What are these people doing?"

"Chief Wu." Seeing the middle-aged man, the assistant officer felt relieved. He pointed to Henry and said, "This is the man sent by the captain Yu from City Public Security Bureau today. It is related to a murder case. The evidence is firm. I have just checked, and these people rushed in and said that they are from the police station of Yinzhou."

"Oh?" Chief Wu looked confused. He pretended that he had never seen Henry before and looked at the police of Yinzhou. "Everyone, my National Highway police station should not be under the control of Yinzhou. It's not appropriate for you, the police of Yinzhou, to break into our station directly and release criminal suspects without permission. It would not a good thing for you if we report it."

The leading police officer of Yinzhou glanced disdainfully. "Then you report it. Today, I have to take this person back with me no matter what you say. Even if he is guilty, he should be investigated by the police of Yinzhou. There is no need to bother you, the police of Luohe!"

Before these policemen set out, the director of the police station of Yinzhou had issued a hard order. No matter how much it cost, Henry must be taken back safe and sound!

"The victim died in Luohe. Of course, Luohe police will be responsible for this case!" Chief Wu said.

The leading police officer of Yinzhou glanced at him. "Who caught him in Yinzhou?"

"It was me! What's wrong?" Captain Yu and the others came in and said, "Do you mean that we can't catch a prisoner now?"

"Where's your procedure?" The leading police officer of Yinzhou looked at Captain Yu. "It's against the rules to arrest people all over the province."

"Ha ha." Captain Yu sneered. "We caught a dangerous murderer. Do we have to report it before catching him?"

"Nonsense!" Jenny shouted, "How could Henry be a murderer!"

Captain Yu looked at Jenny's perfect figure with dirty eyes. He sighed in his heart that this man was really lucky, at home he had such an excellent wife. And now, this woman was obviously his lover. When he went to prison, he had to think of a way to play with these two girls.

Captain Yu reluctantly moved his eyes away from Jenny and pouted at the assistant officer. "What are you waiting for? Come and show the evidence to these police officers!"

Hearing this, the assistant officer immediately took out the photos he just showed to Henry, as well as the video recorded in the small forest.

The moment he took out the photos of the deceased, these policemen from Yinzhou immediately recognized the victim. This person, in the afternoon, specially came to the police station in Yinzhou and said that he wanted to change his statement. He had something new to say about the last time when Sam Zheng was involved in the attempted rape of Jenny Qin, chairman of the Hengyuan Company.

At that time, Yinzhou police asked him some questions. He only said that Sam Zheng was wronged. The real man behind the scenes was named Henry Zhang. He didn't want to say more about this case. He hoped that Yinzhou police could protect him, so he was willing to say the rest. However, after only a few hours, he died in the woods beside the national highway!

Everyone looked at the surveillance video again. From the background and clothes, the person who threw the corpse in the video was exactly the same as Henry.

Captain Yu waited for the policemen of Yinzhou to finish watching the videos and photos, and then said, "Come on, tell these police officers what happened just now."

When the assistant officer saw that there were two leaders guarding here, he was relieved and said, "According to the statement just now, the suspect Henry Zhang said that he was having dinner at the Glory Hotel from 6 pm to 9 pm, but we could get the surveillance video of the Glory Hotel and found that the suspect Henry Zhang did not appear in the hotel at that time. The surveillance video of him throwing the body was recorded at 7:40 pm which was completely not consistent with the period Henry Zhang gave."

After the assistant officer finished speaking, Captain Yu looked at the police officers from Yinzhou and said loudly, "Did you hear that, officer? The evidence is in front of you. We are just working in accordance with the law."

The police officers of Yinzhou looked at each other, and there was a trace of embarrassment on their faces. In terms of the things shown by the police of Luohe, no matter from which angle, it was very unfavourable to Henry. If they took him away now, this matter might be very serious!

"What's wrong? Everyone, why were you so aggressive and came to our station? You have nothing to say?" Captain Yu looked at the police officers from Yinzhou and said, "I will definitely report this matter to the higher-ups for serious investigation!"

After saying that, Captain Yu looked at Jenny and licked his lips. "This woman is the one who took the lead in making trouble. Arrest her!"

Chapter 446

Upon hearing this, the assistant officer did not hesitate and immediately grabbed Jenny.

When Jenny came in, his eyes kept glancing at her. Such a beautiful woman was really rare. In the process of catching her, it was inevitable to have some physical contact.

"Arrest? I'll see who dares to arrest her!" The leading police officer of Yinzhou stood in front of Jenny to block the assistant officer.

"What's wrong? Is Yinzhou police more powerful than Luohe police? She is making trouble in our police station. Why can't we arrest her?" Captain Yu sneered.

Henry Zhang, who had been sitting there without saying anything, patted the dust on his body and stood up. "Captain Yu, right?"

"What? You are a criminal. What else do you want to say?" Captain Yu looked at Henry. Today's evidence was all forged, and he could send him to prison tonight!

Henry shook his head. "Whether I am a criminal or not will be decided later, but I have two suggestions for you."

"Oh? What suggestion?" Captain Yu acted like a winner, with pride all over his face.

Henry extended a finger and said, "First of all, you should never believe in the words of some young masters. They cannot fulfil 90% of their promises."

After Henry finished his words, Captain Yu's face obviously changed.

"Second!" Henry extended a finger again. "Next time when you do perjury, pay more attention to some details."

Hearing Henry's words, all the people present were shocked.

Captain Yu frowned. "What do you mean?"

"I mean, in the video you forged, although the body figure, shape, and clothes of the person who threw the corpse are exactly the same as mine, but didn't teacher teach you how to pay attention to the details when you were in class at the police school? There is a black tattoo on the collar of the back of the person's neck." Henry pointed to his back strength when he said this. "Are you going to say that after I dumped the body at 7:40, I had my tattoo removed from the back of my neck to avoid any suspicious?"

All the people present subconsciously looked at the assistant officer's mobile phone.

The assistant officer quickly put away his mobile phone.

"Please show us the video! We need to confirm it again!" The leading police officer of Yinzhou said.

"You think that can do whatever you want?" Captain Yu walked up to the assistant officer and stood in front of him. "How would I know if you don't want to deliberately destroy the evidence?"

The leading police officer of Yinzhou saw the wild look of Captian Yu and shouted, "It's completely against the rules for you to do things. I need to report this matter to your superior leaders right now!"

"Report it then." Captain Yu crossed his arms over his chest and said, "I'd like to see what our superior leaders will say about me."

As soon as Captain Yu finished speaking, a few more people appeared in front of the interrogation room. These people were all in police uniforms, and they were the police officers who had followed Captain Yu to arrest Henry before.

When Captain Yu saw them coming in, he frowned and said, "Who let you in? Go out and keep the watch."

"Captain Yu, this..." The man at the forefront looked embarrassed as he looked out of the interrogation room's door.

"You didn't pick up the phone on purpose and you arrested him on your own hand. Do you still take me, the director, seriously?" A voice full of anger came from outside the door.

Director Zhao strode in.

"Director Zhao, why are you here?" Captain Yu looked at Director Zhao, who suddenly appeared, in surprise.

Director Zhao's face was full of anger. "If I didn't come, would you not make a big trouble today?!"

"Honey, how are you doing?" Behind Director Zhao, Sylvia appeared with an anxious look on her face. When Sylvia saw Jenny standing next to Henry, the light in her eyes dimmed a little.

At the same time, Jenny also looked at Sylvia.

When their eyes met, they subconsciously avoided each other.

"I'm fine." Henry shook his head. "I'm sorry to make you worry."

Megan followed Sylvia and looked at the scene in front of her. There was a hint of disdain in her eyes. It was ridiculous that the person who was the husband of the future Master of the Su Family would be forced to be so embarrassed by several police officers.

Director Zhao looked at Captain Yu and questioned, "Who asked you to go to Yinzhou to arrest him? Did you get my permission? Why didn't you report this matter to me? Do you have any respect for your director?"

Director Zhao's question was like a string of beads fired by a cannonball, which made Captain Yu speechless.

When Captain Yu faced Yinzhou police, he was arrogant and domineering because he was not in the same bureau as them. No one could control who he was. But now, in the face of his direct superior, Captain Yu couldn't be arrogant.

"Let him go. You have to write me a report about this matter!" Director Zhao waved his hand.

"Director Zhao, we can't let him go." Captain Yu quickly shook his head and said.

Chief Wu, who was standing aside, also said, "Yes, Director Zhao. We can't let him go."

"Why?" Director Zhao frowned tightly. "Do my words as the director mean nothing to you?"

"No!" Captain Yu waved his hand and looked at Chief Wu for help.

Chief Wu quickly said, "Director Zhao, he has something to do with the murder case. We haven't finished yet."

"A murder case? Even if it has something to do with the murder case, it's not up to you to deal with it. Don't you think the comrade from Yinzhou police station is able to deal with it? Hurry up, let him go!" Director Zhao said again.

Chief Wu blocked in front of the interrogation room and shook his head vigorously. "We can't let him go. Director Zhao, we've already arrested the criminal.

It's time for us to interrogate him."

Director Zhao's appearance was beyond Chief Wu and Captain Yu's expectation. Although the Family Lin was powerful in Yinzhou, they were nobody in Luohe. After all, Luohe city was the territory of the Cheng family!

Director Zhao was even angrier when he heard that Chief Wu had arrested the criminal. "Arrested the criminal? How dare you mention it? I'm asking you, who gave you the right to arrest the criminal from Yinzhou?!"

"It was my order!" A proud voice came from outside the interrogation room.

The interrogation room, which was originally small was crowded with people at this moment.

When Director Zhao heard the voice coming from outside, he looked at the door and saw three young figures.

"Ke... Master Ke, Miss Cheng, why are you here?" Director Zhao immediately smiled when he saw Bing Ke and Jodie Cheng.

Jodie was the young lady of the Cheng family. As the director of the Police Bureau of Luohe city, Director Zhao certainly knew her. As for Bing Ke, his godfather was the head of Ning province, John Xiao!

Neither of them was someone that he could afford to offend.

"Director Zhao, do you mean that I shouldn't have come?" Bing looked at Director Zhao with a sneer.

Director Zhao quickly waved his hand. "Master Ke, I didn't mean that."

"Then what did you mean?" Bing asked, "I gave the order to arrest him, are you looking down on me?"

Chapter 447

Director Zhao looked at Bing and the other two people in front of him and felt extremely embarrassed.

On one side, it was Master Ke who ordered the policemen to arrest Henry, and Miss Cheng was also on his side. On the other side, Peter ordered him to let Henry go. If either side was offended, Director Zhao would be in trouble.

When the police officers from Yinzhou saw Sam Zheng, they were confused. "Wasn't this person escorted to the second detention centre? Why is he here?"

"I'm not guilty. What's wrong with being free?" Sam looked at the police officers from Yinzhou disdainfully. "Don't you know that I was framed? It's Henry who tried to rape her."

"Even so, we are the execution unit. Even if you are really innocent, you have to go through the approval of our unit!" The leading police officer of Yinzhou shouted, "This person has escaped from prison, catch him!"

"My godfather is John Xiao. Who dares to arrest him?" Bing stood in front of Sam and shouted.

The name John Xiao, in the whole political circle of Ning province, was deterrence. No one would ignore the name of the governor of Ning province. However, in the eyes of Yinzhou police, this deterrence was useless today.

The police officers from Yinzhou who were sent out today were all elites of the local police department. Before coming out, the director had ordered that they must take Henry back safe and sound. No matter how powerful the bigshot was, as long as Henry did not make mistakes, they did not have to be afraid!

When the director of Yinzhou Police Bureau said this, he was full of confidence. He was probably the person who knew clearly how powerful Henry was. Last time, the group of people from the capital came personally. The director of the Yinzhou City Police Bureau was confident that as long as he protected Henry well, even if he offended the high official, he would definitely have nothing to worry about. He might even be rewarded.

"No matter who your godfather is, he can't protect a fugitive." The chief police officer of Yinzhou shouted, "Arrest Sam Zheng!"

"Do you dare to touch the person that our Cheng family wants to protect?" Jodie also stood in front of Sam at this moment. "If you dare to touch Sam, you will provoke our Cheng family! Now the murderer Henry Zhang is still under arrest, but you came to arrest my friend? Who gave you the courage!"

"How arrogant you are!" Jenny crossed her arms in front of her chest and said, "How could you Cheng's family frame people so casually?"

Jenny looked at Jodie and was a little confused. Last time in the Cheng family in Luohe, those people in the Cheng family treated Henry with respect. No, it could not be said that they were respectful. They were afraid! When Shane faced Henry, he didn't dare to speak. Why would he suddenly frame Henry?

"Frame people?" Jodie raised her eyelids and said, "You're right. Even if our Cheng family framed him, what can you do? Do you dare to go against us?"

"Your Cheng family?" Henry Zhang frowned. "Are you representing yourself, or the entire Cheng family?"

"Are you kidding me, Henry?" Jodie looked at Henry as if she was looking at an idiot. "Or do you think that I can't make a decision for the Cheng family?"

Henry nodded. "I knew it. How could Sam come out? It turns out that all of them are secretly working with the Cheng family."

Jodie took a step forward and stared at Henry. She gritted her teeth and said, "Henry Zhang, you dared to go against me before, so you are doomed to have a bad end!"

Bing looked at the chief police officer of Yinzhou and said, "So? Do you dare to arrest him now?"

John Xiao together with the Cheng family, whichever came here would make the police officer tremble.

The police officers from Yinzhou gritted their teeth and said, "Catch him! If you want to protect Sam Zheng, you'll be treated as accomplices. Arrest them all."

"I'm from the Cheng Family. Who dares to arrest me?" Jodie put her hands on her hips. "Who dares to touch my finger today? Your skin is waiting to be torn off!"

As soon as Jodie finished her words, a majestic voice came from outside the interrogation room.

"Whoever from the Cheng's family is against the law should be arrested!"

Hearing the voice outside the door, Jodie's face changed. She suddenly turned around and saw that Peter Cheng, Shane Cheng, and John Xiao, the head of the political department of Ning province, came in.

"Grandpa? Why are you here? They want to arrest me, why do you speak for them?" Jodie looked wronged.

"Godfather!" Bing shouted when he saw John.

"Hello, Grandpa Cheng and Uncle Xiao." Sam also nodded in a hurry.

When Chief Wu and Captain Yu saw Shane, their faces lit up. It was Cheng's family's orders to do all of this. Now that Shane was here, they wanted to see how arrogant these people from Yinzhou would be. They would be miserable!

Shane strode to Jodie.

"Grandpa, you have to take my side." Jodie pouted and her eyes were full of tears.

Seeing Jodie's appearance, Shane raised his right hand and then waved it down hard.

With a snap, Shane slapped on Jodie's face heavily.

A red five-fingered print appeared on Jodie's tender face.

Jodie looked at her grandfather with a look of disbelief. She reached out slowly and touched her cheek. She couldn't believe it.

"Bing Ke, get down on your knees!" John stepped forward and shouted.

Upon hearing his shout, Bing did not hesitate at all. He subconsciously bent his knees and kneeled on the ground. It was not until he knelt down that Bing dared to ask, "Godfather, I don't understand."

"You don't understand?" John snorted and pointed at Sam. "This person should be locked up in the second detention centre. Who let you release him in my name? Now he is a fugitive! You actually have a relationship with a fugitive!"

Sam Zheng, who was standing at the side, turned pale when he heard this.

Bing's body shook. He did not understand why his godfather had such a big temper. "Godfather, I'm just..."

"What are you talking about? Don't you know what big trouble you have made today?" John shouted. He was so angry that his whole body was shaking.

He had seen and heard of how powerful Henry was. Because of his son, Will Ning offended him and fell from the throne directly! The old master didn't even dare to ask about it after he knew this! How much power he had!

After Shane and John taught the younger generation a lesson, they immediately set their eyes on Henry.

"Brother Zhang, I'm the one who messed up this time," Shane said with a flattering smile.

Just now, Peter heard from the second detention centre that John released Sam Zheng and he contacted his grandfather immediately. Hearing the whole story, Shane called John without thinking.

Bing and Jodie widened their eyes when they heard Shane address Henry. Their eyes were full of disbelief. Were they on the same level?

Henry stood there, shook his wrist and said, "Didn't you tell me last time that you know how to control your juniors?"
