

Chapter 459

The Rolls-Royce slowly drove into the crowd and stopped in front of Samuel.

As the door opened, a middle-aged man in a black suit got out of the car.

Just by standing there, the middle-aged man gave people a sense of majesty.

The surrounding big bosses of the gangs looked at the middle-aged man up and down.

Samuel stepped forward and slapped the back of the middle-aged man's head. He scolded, "Where are the people I asked you to find? How did you do it?"

The middle-aged man's face was covered in tears. He said with a look of grievance, "Young Master, these are all called by me."

"You called these people? F*ck you!" Samuel kicked the middle-aged man. "They said that it was Frey Ran who called them. Are you Frey Ran?"

Samuel was full of anger now. He had spent a lot of effort to had a good relationship with Wade White. Wade finally asked him to arrange one thing, but in the end, he made Wade and Wade's boss unhappy!

"Frey Ran?" The middle-aged man looked confused. He frowned and asked the man in the car, "What's going on?"

The door of Rolls-Royce's driver's seat opened. A man in his thirties got out of the car and bowed to Samuel. "Hello, young master. It's an honour to meet you."

"Why don't you say hello to my brothers first?" Samuel kicked the driver and said, "You're such a fool!"

The driver hurriedly greeted Henry and the others.

The middle-aged man looked at the driver with dissatisfaction. "Where are the people I asked you to call? They said Frey Ran called them!"

The driver smiled embarrassedly at the middle-aged man. "Secretary Zhou, my nickname is Frey Ran."

Hearing this, Brother Jim was suddenly shocked. He stepped forward and asked cautiously, "Are you Mr. Ran? Do you know our boss, Brother Qiang?"

"Brother Qiang? Since when people started calling Nick Brother Qiang?" The driver looked at Brother Jim proudly.

Brother Jim's body shook. Only a few people would call Brother Qiang Nick. Those who dared to call him like this were all well-known people.

"Mr. Ran, you're finally here." Big Brother from the north of the city, Yan Qi, hurried over to the driver and said, "Mr. Ran, do you still remember me? I'm from Brother Eight's side. I met you at the dinner party last time."

The Big Brother from the north of the city, Yan Qi, performed very respectfully in front of the driver.

The driver nodded and said, "Yes, I do remember you."

"Mr. Ran, I'm one of Brother Cripple's men. Brother Cripple asked me to come."

"Mr. Ran, I'm the Dob from the east part of the city."

Brother Dob from the east part of the city was the leader of the largest gang in the east of Shan City.

"Mr. Ran, I'm..."

As soon as the driver said his name, the rest of the big shots all came forward to show respect.

"Mr. Ran, what happened to you?" Yan, the big brother from the north of the city, asked cautiously.

Hearing this, the driver's face changed. "It's not about me, it's that my young master has encountered some issues! I think your organizations should also be reorganized. What kind of people are your men? They even dare to provoke our young master!"

Those big shots were shocked. The man even dared to provoke Mr. Ran's young master. Who was so ignorant to become the public enemy of the all Shan city's gangs!?

These big shots all looked at Samuel.

Samuel glanced at him and said, "Don't f*cking look at me. It was my Boss White!"

Upon hearing this, these big shots stooped and almost fell to the ground. It was not Mr. Ran's young master, but the boss of Mr. Ran's young master! D*mn it, someone is looking for death!

The manager of the housekeeping company and Boss Wang's faces suddenly turned pale. They stared at Henry and the others. They didn't expect that they actually had such an identity! Anyone from those gangs could smash and make them disappear.

Amity widened her eyes and looked at Henry next to her. She knew that Henry was very capable, but she didn't expect that he was so powerful even in Shan City, which was far away from Yinzhou!

Henry winked at Wade.

Wade nodded and said loudly, "I'm asking you, who is in charge of this company?"

Hearing this, Brother Jim quickly stood up with a trembling voice. "Yes, it's one of my men."

Hearing this, Wade smiled and said, "This is really a good company. Even my boss's sister was bullied by you!"

"What!" Brother Jim's body trembled, and his face was extremely ugly. He looked at Boss Wang and the manager of the company. When he just came here, he clearly saw people around them holding sticks.

The other big shots all looked at Brother Jim with pity in their eyes.

"It seems that Brother Eight won't live any longer."

"Really bad management. If he dares to offend such a big shot, he will be replaced sooner or later!"

Boss Wang and the manager were trembling with fear. How could they expect that a poor girl living from an old house would have such a powerful brother?

Looking at the unkind eyes of the leaders of the surrounding gangs, Boss Wang and the manager went limp and knelt down directly. They were very clear that if they were targeted by these big shots, they might not even be able to see the sun tomorrow morning!

At this moment, Boss Wang and the manager couldn't care less about their dignity and kept kowtowing to the ground.

"Big Brother, I'm sorry. It's my fault that I didn't know who you were. I'm sorry, I'm sorry!"

"Big brother, please spare us this time. We won't dare to do it again. If you want money, I'll give it to you. I'll give you all my money!"

Facing Boss Wang and the manager who were asking for mercy, Wade didn't even look at them. He waved his hand and said, "Solve this!"

Hearing Wade's words, Boss Wang and the manager looked terrified. There were a lot of meanings behind these two words.

These big shots were like wild wolves staring at the flock of sheep. These people in front of them were their best opportunities to show off in front of Mr. Ran's boss.

Henry walked to the manager and shook his head. "I just wanted you to return my sister's deposit. Why did you have to make things this complicated?"

"Big Brother, I'm sorry. I really know I was wrong. I'm sorry." The manager kept begging.

"Give back the deposit," Henry said calmly.

The manager didn't dare to say anything more and took out the money in a hurry.

Henry counted and confirmed that there was exactly 1,000 yuan. Then he handed the money to Amity, patted her back and then they left.

As soon as they left, the manager and Boss Wang were surrounded by a group of gang leaders. Soon, screams were heard.

Chapter 460

Hearing the scream behind her, Amity looked back with some worry.

As soon as she turned her head, Henry grabbed her arm. "Girl, tell me, how did you lose your money?"

When Henry asked about this matter, the attention of Amity was immediately attracted.

"That doctor was introduced by one of my mother's relatives. My mother trusted him very much. At that time, I was also in a hurry to treat my father, so I didn't think too much. As a result..." As she said this, there was a trace of anger on her face.

The feeling of being cheated because they trusted others too much would make people feel particularly uncomfortable.

"Didn't you call the police?" Henry asked strangely.

"We did." Amity nodded. "But if there was no evidence, so the police couldn't handle it."

Henry shook his head. He couldn't bear those policemen who could do something but they refused to do it. He asked Amity again, "Where is that relative now?"

"She lives in the city. The day after the fake doctor lied to us and took our money, she bought a good car." Amity clenched her teeth. Even a fool could tell where her mother's relative got the money to buy a car. It was money for saving her father's life!

Henry thought for two seconds and said, "Can you contact her? Take me to her."

"My mother can." Amity nodded. "But Brother Henry, we don't have any evidence. It will difficult to get the money back."

"It's okay, I have a way." Henry comforted her.

Wade and Future looked at each other and then said, "Boss, I'll go back to the island with Future first. We have to hurry up to study that thing, and now it's almost time to prepare for the meeting."

As soon as Wade reminded him, Henry remembered that it was almost the time of the underground world meeting. During this period of time, he almost forgot about it.

Henry nodded and said, "Okay, you can go back first."

"Boss, will you attend this meeting?" Wade asked. Henry didn't show up at the underground world meeting last time.

"Let's wait and see," Henry replied uncertainly.

After saying goodbye to Amity, Wade and Future left quickly.

Henry and Amity went straight to the hospital.

In fact, it was more like a clinic rather than a hospital. The father of Amity stayed in this small clinic. The hospital's expensive hospitalization and treatment fee were not something that they could afford at the moment.

With her father's condition, the doctor of the clinic couldn't do anything to help him. They didn't even want her father to stay here. Once something bad happened to him, the doctor of the clinic couldn't take the responsibility.

Amity's mother stated that if there was an accident, they would not require the clinic to take any responsibility. And when they agreed that the accommodation and daily fees would be paid every day, the clinic doctor barely let Amity's father stay there.

Henry saw that the doctor in the clinic was a man who was nearly fifty years old. He wore a pair of glasses and was 1.8 meters tall. He looked very thin and weak.

The clinic's environment was very simple, and there were only five beds. At this moment, only one of the beds had a patient in it, and the rest of the beds were empty.

Amity's father was in bed. Her mother was sitting by the bed. She was a woman dressed in plain clothes. Her hands were full of calluses, it seems she had suffered a lot.

"You're here, Amity." As soon as Amity entered the clinic, an ordinary-looking young man, about 23 or 24 years old, came over with a happy face.

Amity nodded and said to Henry, "Brother Henry, this is Tan Ning, son of Doctor Ning."

Doctor Ning was the doctor who opened this clinic.

"Hello." Henry nodded to him.

Tan Ning looked at Henry unkindly and asked, "Who is this?"

Tan's family background was normal, he looked normal and his educational background was also normal. Like most normal people, he would find a normal job or inherit this clinic, find a girlfriend who was similar to him in all aspects and live together for a lifetime.

Tan had thought that would be his life. When Amity showed up, and when he realized the state of her family, he began to pursue her. Amity had a perfect figure and a pleasing appearance. Generally speaking, Tan absolutely could not find such a beautiful woman to be his wife. But now, Tan was full of hope.

Today, seeing an unknown man beside Amity, Tan suddenly felt a sense of crisis.

"I was a colleague of Amity in Yinzhou before." Henry didn't wait for Amity to answer, and then he answered with a smile, "I came to Shan City for a business trip, and I want to see how Uncle Qiu is doing."

"Oh." Hearing Henry's words, Tan was relieved, but he kept looking at Henry up and down.

Doctor Ning, who was sitting in the clinic, came over and said, "It's Amity. You told you would get the money this morning. Did you get it? Your father needs too many nutritions every day."

"Dad, why do you always mention money?"

Tan looked at his father reproachfully.

At this time, Amity's mother also stood up from the side of the bed and came over. "Girl, have you got the money?"

Amity nodded and took out the 1,000 yuan returned by the manager of the housekeeping company.

Doctor Ning looked at the 1,000 in Amity's hand and frowned. "Little girl, this money is not enough. You owe me 1,000 yuan for four days of accommodation, and the four days' medicine fees are also more than 800 yuan."

"Dad, come on, Uncle Qiu is already like this. We also know the situation of Amity's family. Why do you have to care about money so much?" Tan pulled his father's sleeve and shouted.

Doctor Ning sighed and said, "It's not my fault. You're not young. It's time to find a girlfriend and get married. Dad is doing this for your own good, we also need money to buy a house. This is not a charity clinic."

Tan had an anxious look on his face. "It's true that we are not doing charity here. But Amity and aunty have known us for such a long time. They're like family members. Do you still need to ask family for money?"

Doctor Ning shook his head and said, "If we were really a family, I would certainly not care about money. But the problem is that we are not a family. Why don't you ask her whether she is willing to marry you? If she is willing to do that, I will definitely pay all the medical expenses for my family!"

After Doctor Ning finished speaking, he stared at Amity.

Tan was looking forward to it. "Amity, I..."

"Brother Zhang, can you lend me some money first?" Amity looked at Henry.

Tan breathed a sigh when he heard the sound of Amity. In his eyes could be seen that he was uncomfortable with Henry's presence.

Chapter 461

Henry had been living in society for so many years. How could he not see through the little tricks of the father and son of the Ning family? Obviously, they wanted to set up a trap for Amity.

Henry nodded. "Okay, how much do you need?"

"Two thousand, is it okay?" Amity said this number cautiously.

"Okay." Henry nodded. "Add me on social media again. I'll transfer the money to you."

Henry and Amity added each other on the spot and he transferred two thousand yuan to her.

Henry didn't transfer more. He knew that Amity had a strong sense of self-esteem.

"Brother Henry thank you, I will definitely find a way to return it to you." Amity said to Henry gratefully.

Henry shook his head slightly. This girl was still so polite to everyone and she did not want to take advantage of others.

"Doctor Ning, I'll give the money to you, as well as the medical and accommodation expenses for the next few days." After receiving the money, Amity transferred the money to Doctor Ning.

It could be seen that Doctor Ning's face was obviously a little unhappy.

"Hey, Amity, during this period of time, you are stalling here. Your mother also uses bed here at night, and you still regard us as strangers?" Doctor Ning took the money, but his face was a bit dark. "Which clinic outside would take such a big risk to let your father stay?"

Henry smiled and said, "Doctor Ning, as far as I know, the accommodation costs of the Shan City clinics are divided according to the area. The bed costs of your clinic should be 80 yuan a day, and the medicine you use..." When Henry said this, he looked at the bed where Amity's father was lying. There was a bottle of a nutritional supplement on it, which was written in English.

Henry Zhang narrowed his eyes. "Childhood time? This should cost less than 800 yuan for five days. Do you think that Uncle Qiu's nutritional supplements and bed fees for five days are more than 1,000 yuan?"

"What do you know? Don't talk nonsense if you don't understand!" Doctor Ning looked dissatisfied. "This is the nutritional supplements are imported from the United States!"

"Really?" Henry was confused. "Childhood time. I believe that it is a Chinese brand just its name was translated into English. I remember that this kind of nutritional supplements could be bought online directly. You need a bottle a day. The price per bottle is 103 yuan. For every bill over 1,000 yuan the delivery is free."

Hearing this, Doctor Ning's face suddenly changed, because what Henry said was exactly what he had done. It was a very cheap nutritional supplement.

Doctor Ning swung his sleeve. "What's wrong? Our clinic can't make money? Let me tell you, if you like, you can stay here. If you don't like, then get out of here!"

When the mother saw Doctor Ning was angry, she quickly said, "Doctor Ning, don't be angry. Young people don't know how to behave, so they like talking nonsense. Don't take it to heart. I'm not saying that you are taking advantage of your family here. It's mainly because Amity's still young. She just came out of school this year and hasn't even gotten her diploma. Besides, love is something that should be cultivated slowly. In the future, there will be more opportunities for our Amity to get in touch with your Tan Ning."

Hearing this, Tan, who was standing aside, was delighted. It was true. The man in front of him was just on a business trip to Shan City. He wouldn't stay long. According to the current situation of Amity's father, he would have a lot of time to hang around Amity. He didn't believe that he had no chance.

After saying that, Amity's mother stepped forward and pulled Amity's sleeve. She kept winking at her, which meant that she wanted her to be clever and not to make Doctor Ning angry. After all, aside from Doctor Ning, her mother really didn't know where she could take her father to. Let the doctor make some money.

When she left, Amity's mother couldn't stand her father's gambling. For so many years, the two hadn't divorced, and her mother didn't find anyone else. This meant that she still had her father in her heart.

It was not that Amity didn't know what her mother meant, but she really couldn't accept it. During this period, Tan and Doctor Ning had hinted to her more than once that only if they became a family, the medical expenses would no longer be a problem.

However, when she thought of the scene when she was with Tan, she felt over her body that something was wrong. She would feel uncomfortable as long as she thought of being with any man. Only one man could make her accept him wholeheartedly. And that man was standing beside her now, although he was married and the person who he was married to was so outstanding that she could only look up to her.

"Okay, there's a document for you to sign." Doctor Ning swung his sleeve and walked to his consulting desk. He picked up a document on the table, which had the title "Responsibility Agreement".

"Doctor Ning, what's this?" Amity's mother asked in confusion.

"An agreement. If something bad happens to your husband here, we don't have to take any responsibility. This is also what we agreed on before." Doctor Ning explained.

"Oh." Amity's mother nodded and said to Amity, "Little girl, your mother is illiterate. Go and sign it."

Amity picked up the pen and was about to sign the letter of responsibility.

Just as Amity was about to write her name, her wrist was suddenly grabbed by a big hand.

"You can't sign this agreement." Henry shook his head at Amity.

"Young man, who are you? I tell you, if she doesn't sign this agreement, her father can't stay here. I don't want any trouble!" Doctor Ning waved his hand angrily and said, "Tan Ning, get him out of bed quickly. Get them out of here."

"No, Doctor Ning." Amity's mother hurriedly opened her mouth. She said to Henry, "Young man, this is what Doctor Ning and I have agreed on before. We must sign this agreement."

"It's best if you sign it!" Doctor Ning crossed his arms over his chest and said, "Otherwise, I would think you would blackmail me."

Henry glanced at Doctor Ning from the corner of his eye and said, "They won't blackmail you. But they can't sign this agreement anyway."

Amity had 100% confidence in Henry. She put down the pen and asked, "Brother Henry, is there anything wrong with this agreement?"

Henry nodded and said, "Yes, let's call the police first."

Doctor Ning and Tan's faces suddenly changed when they heard that Henry was going to call the police.

Doctor Ning shouted, "What's wrong? I want you to sign an agreement and you want to call the police. All right, don't sign it. Get out of here. I won't take her father in!"

Doctor Ning stretched out his hand and wanted to grab the agreement in Amity's hands.

Henry had already expected that Doctor Ning would do this, so he took the initiative to grab the agreement and raised it. "Why, Doctor Ning, are you in a hurry to destroy the evidence?"

"Destroy the evidence? I don't understand what you mean. Since you don't want to sign it, just give me the agreement. There is a seal of our clinic on it. You don't have the right to take it!" Doctor Ning winked at his son.

Tan rushed straight to Henry, trying to snatch the agreement from him.

Henry pushed Tan away casually. His push was so strong that Tan fell to the ground.

Chapter 462

"All right!" Doctor Ning shouted, pointing at Amity and her mother. "We kindly took in you two ungrateful people and were willing to accept this half-dead person. How dare you beat my son?"

"No, Doctor Ning, don't get me wrong!" Amity's mother said in a hurry. When she was about to explain, she heard a cold snort.

"Return kindness with ingratitude?" Henry sneered and tore the surface of the agreement with his hand. "You two are kind to them?"

After Henry tore off the surface of this agreement, new content was revealed under the surface. This content was completely different from the previous agreement, but the place where the signature was needed was exactly the same.

Amity looked at the new content that appeared under the surface, and the words "Insurance Benefits Transfer" were printed in her beautiful pupils.

On this agreement, the insuree was Amity's father, and the beneficiaries were father and son of the Ning family. If Amity had signed the agreement just now, once her father had any accident, the father and son of the Ning family would get a huge compensation.

As for the accident, Amity's father was living in the clinic. Doctor Ning could easily arrange for this "accident" to happen.

Although her mother could not read, she realized that something was wrong when she saw that there was something hidden under the agreement. She asked, "What is this, daughter?"

Amity took a deep breath, endured the anger in his heart, and explained this agreement to her mother.

Hearing this, the face of her mother suddenly changed. She yelled at Doctor Ning, "You are extremely evil. How can you treat us like this? Are you still human? Are you still human?"

Doctor Ning saw that the matter had been exposed, so he did not continue to pretend. He waved to Amity and her mother, "Get out of here. What evidence do you have to say that we did something wrong? Get out of here!"

Henry looked at Amity and asked, "Little girl, how do you want to solve this problem?"

Amity had just seen Henry's power, so it didn't doubt that Henry could make them pay. However, she was still weak, so she shook her head and said, "Forget it, Brother Henry. If it weren't for the fact that the clinic had accepted my father, we wouldn't know what to do until now."

Henry shook his head helplessly. The reason why this clinic accepted Amity's father was for the sake of profit. It had nothing to do with their good intentions. However, since Amity was not willing to make them pay, Henry did not bother to get into this trouble. He would ask Wade to tell his underling that this clinic should be closed.

Amity's mother stood there and kept wiping her tears. Last time, because of her, nearly one million of her daughter's money was taken away. This time, she almost did something wrong again.

"Well, aunt, it's all right. Pack up your things and I'll find a good place for uncle." Henry walked over and patted on Amity's mother's shoulder.

"Hey." Amity's mother nodded and wiped the tears on her face. "Young man, you are so kind. What's your name?"

"Just call me Henry," Henry replied. He walked over, picked up Amity's father, who was lying on the bed and couldn't wake up and walked out of the clinic.

Standing outside the clinic, Amity and her mother's face were full of helplessness. They didn't know where to go.

Henry took a taxi first, and then they went to the nearest hospital to apply for the hospitalization procedure. Henry would pay for the hospitalization fees first.

"Henry, we can't use your money. No, no." When Henry was about to pay, Amity's mother came over and stopped him. "I asked the girl to get the money from Doctor Ning."

Henry looked at the woman's appearance and finally understood why Amity was so polite. She got it from her mother.

"Auntie, I have a good relationship with Amity. I will lend it to her first, and she can give it back to me when she makes some money. I will take the interest as well." Henry waved his hand and said indifferently.

"No, we really can't." Amity's mother stopped him again. At the same time, she said to Amity, who had just finished the hospitalization procedure, "Daughter, come and tell Henry that we can't do this."

Henry was helpless. He could only find an excuse and said, "Auntie, I'll tell you the truth. I'm Amity's boyfriend. It's good for me if Uncle gets better early. My money is her money. You don't have to divide it so clearly."

"Ah?" When her mother heard this, she was stunned. In the clinic, they didn't say that.

Amity's mother looked at her daughter and asked, "Little girl, are you and Henry together?"

Amity's face instantly turned red. Just as she was about to deny it, Henry spoke first, "Auntie, are you looking down on me? If you look down on me, I'll go first."

"No, no, no, no!" Amity's mother waved her hands repeatedly. Henry had helped them so much just now, and when she looked at Henry, she was actually very satisfied that this young man was so handsome and was very suitable for her daughter.

The most important thing was that Amity's mother had suffered a lot. She could see that Henry had also suffered a lot. Such a person had lived through much more than the rich second generation.

"Auntie, then I will give you the money first.

Don't be so polite to me." Henry directly swiped the card in the hospital.

The mother nodded, but she was still a little embarrassed and said, "Henry, don't spend too much money. Just let her father stay here. We'll give you the money later."

"Okay." Henry responded and said to the cashier of the hospital, "Then please take two thousand yuan first."

After Henry finished his words, he swiped the card.

The cashier took out the receipt and gave it to Henry, asking him to sign it.

Henry wrote down a few strokes and handed it to the cashier.

When the cashier saw the receipt, there was a hint of shock in her eyes.

There were a few words on the receipt.

"Take another 500,000 yuan. Don't let the aunt and the girl next to me know."

The cashier looked at Henry, who was smiling at her.

The cashier sighed in her heart. This kind of person who secretly helped others and did not ask for a reward actually existed. Looking at the appearance of the girl next to him, she assumed that many people would have some bad intentions. However, this man in front of her had no disgusting thoughts at all. The ordinary people who wanted to show off, they would let the whole world know once they swipe more than 5,000 yuan.

Henry had thought about the amount. He didn't spend too much money on it. He was afraid that Amity wouldn't accept it. And he didn't pay too little. After all, he couldn't stay in Shan City for long. He didn't want this girl to be so miserable after he left.

Henry recalled the surveillance footage that he saw in Yinzhou Hospital at that time. Amity used her little body to carry her father to the taxi. The determination on her face would touch even the most emotionless people.

Chapter 463

It was almost four o'clock in the afternoon after they put Amity's father in the ward.

This time, Henry just happened to come across the clinic situation. The main purpose was to ask about the swindler doctor.

Sitting in the ward, Henry asked Amity's mother about that one-million-yuan scam.

Amity's mother shook her head and sighed with regret, "Alas, it's my fault that I'm too stupid and trust others too much."

When Henry heard this, he didn't deny it. In this society, good people had always been regarded as fools. There was no doubt that both her mother and Amity were good people.

Amity's mother told Henry that after she came to Shan City, she had been working in a factory with her elder sister, Amity's aunt, and she was responsible for installing screws. She had a salary of about 3,000 yuan a month. She lived in the factory for several years.

Some time ago, Amity came with her father. When she heard about the accident in Yinzhou, she immediately asked the factory for a long vacation to settle her husband down and find a doctor.

Although Amity's mother had stayed in Shan City for several years, she had been in the factory all the time. She knew no one and she couldn't find any good doctor. So she asked Amity's aunt for help and said that there were nearly one million yuan in Amity's account.

Aunt told her that she happened to know a good doctor and recommended she should ask him for help.

At that time, the doctor came and checked the situation of Amity's father. He patted his chest and said that he could be cured. However, he needed Amity to pay the medical expenses in advance because he needed to get the medicine from abroad. The medical expenses cost 900,000 yuan.

At that time, when Amity and her mother heard that he could be cured successfully, they were very happy. However, when they were paying the bill, they still hesitated. However, Amity's aunt said that it was okay to pay that much money.

It was only then that Amity's mother made up her mind and paid the bill in advance.

A few days after paying the money, Amity's father had been staying in the hospital, and her mother asked the aunt every day when the medicine would come in.

Amity's aunt had been evading, saying that the doctor had already gone to America.

Unexpectedly, one day, Amity's aunty told Amity's mother that she couldn't get in touch with the doctor. The doctor ran away. And told Amity's mother to find another way.

On the same day, Amity's aunty resigned from the factory. The next day, she bought a good car worth more than 300,000 yuan and rented a big house. It was said that the rent for one year was more than 30,000 yuan.

"Can you find her?" Henry thought for a while and asked.

When dealing with such a person, Henry didn't intend to find any evidence at all and directly looked for a confession. Although the money might not come back, this kind of person would certainly not spend all the money, she would leave a large amount for living expenses. As for the car, it was brand new and used for only a few days.

Amity's mother shook her head and said, "She wouldn't pick up my call during this period of time, but tonight, my brother-in-law called for dinner. That person should be going, too. But we don't intend to go, or they'll laugh at us."

"Auntie, we have to go tonight. I will go with you." Henry put his hand on the shoulder of Amity's mother.

"Henry, why should we go there? The dishes in that big hotel are delicious, but we always feel uncomfortable when we go."

"We are going to get the money back," Henry said firmly.

At 5:30 p.m., three of them came out of the hospital and headed to the hotel.

Amity told Henry that her uncle had a good life in Shan City. He was the boss of a small real estate company. Every time she saw her uncle, she would be scolded and said that she had done nothing. Her uncle had a daughter, who was his only daughter and she had a sense of superiority. She would show off in front of Amity and often sneered at her. So, both her mother and she did not want to see her uncle's family. What's more, this time, there was her aunt also.

Henry found that when Amity spoke, her tone was full of inferiority. Presumably, she was influenced by her uncle's family. Even if she was a genius, if she had been told that she was stupid every day, it would affect her personality.

Now that Amity was like this, she felt that it was really useless. It would only cause trouble for others.

Henry stretched out his hand and rubbed the head of Amity. "Girl, don't listen to what others say. Don't forget that you earned the luxury car worth million and more than 200,000 yuan commission in a day. You are much better than them."

Amity shook her head. "That's because I was lucky and with your help. If it weren't for you, how could I have made so much money?"

"You're wrong." Henry walked to the front of Amity, grabbed her shoulder and looked straight to her, and said. "Girl, everyone has a chance, but it depends on whether you can grab it or not. You were lucky, but if you didn't study French or French etiquette at that time and didn't study that project, you wouldn't be able to sign such a contract. Believe me, you are better than many people I have seen."

Amity was looked at by Henry straight in the eyes, and her pretty face turned red immediately.

"Brother Henry, you... you..." Amity lowered his head. "Don't praise me like that."

"I'm not praising you. I'm just saying some facts. First of all, you have to cheer up. When you were in Yinzhou you were successful, you could also make your own world in Shan City." Henry said with great certainty.

"Really?"

"Yes."

Watching them talking, Amity's mother smiled with relief. Although she didn't have much time to contact with Henry, she could tell that this child was not bad, and he was calm. She could rest assured if she gave her daughter to him.

The hotel that the three of them were going to go was about seven kilometres away from the hospital. Originally, Henry wanted to take a taxi, but the mother was unwilling to do so.

"Henry, It will cost around 20 yuan if we take a taxi. There is a direct bus that only costs 3 yuan for three of us, and the remaining money is enough to buy food for two days. We don't need to take a taxi." Amity mother waved her hand repeatedly.

Henry saw that Amity's mother was so persistent, so he didn't say anything more.

The three of them went to the bus station and waited for about five minutes before the bus arrived.

As soon as Henry saw the number of people on the bus, he remembered that this is a big city.

There were many people during the rush hour in Yinzhou, but buses were not crowded. There were enough seats for everyone, but the buses in Shan City were really crowded!

As soon as the bus stopped, the door opened, Amity's mother squeezed in and said to Henry.

"Come on, Henry, get in. It will take longer than 20 minutes to get on the next bus."

Amity followed behind her mother, and Henry walked behind Amity. Henry was just about to get on the bus when he felt a huge force coming from behind. Looking back, he saw three or four people jostling up from the bus door at the same time.

At the same time, Henry's felt something soft in front of him.
