

Chapter 1252

Jacindo released a loud roar. This sound transmitted out through his aura, shaking up some of the weaker cultivators' eardrums until they felt pain.

Many pairs of eyes turned to look at the spot where Jacindo was standing.

Looking at Henry not far away, Jacindo shouted again, "Syl, now that you owe our Chu Family's food, you should pay it back!"

"Jacindo, what do you mean?" Trahern, who was beside Henry, scolded loudly. Although the Chu Family had a lot of forces, Trahern had the grain in his hand and had the City Lord's Mansion as his backing. Trahern was not afraid of the Chu Family at all.

"What do I mean?" Jacindo snorted, "This man surnamed Zhang ate a lot of our Chu Family's food when he lived in our house. He ate at the market price, and he ate at least 1000 kilograms of food!"

Jacindo opened his palm and raised a finger.

Inside the Chu Family's compound.

Although Placido did not go to collect the food, his mind had always been on the matter of collecting the food.

Placido's hands were behind his back as he paced back and forth in the courtyard of the Chu Family. From time to time, he would glance out of the courtyard to see what the outcome of receiving the food was.

"Master! Master!"

A voice filled with pleasant surprise rang out.

Placido quickly turned to look, only to see Cayetano running quickly towards the courtyard.

Cayetano was not Placido's personal disciple. He had only entered the Chu Family early. Cayetano had always been kind to others and everyone addressed him as Senior Brother. However, Cayetano's talent was mediocre, so he had no position in the Chu Family.

When Placido saw Cayetano running over empty-handed, he immediately asked, "Where's the food you've gotten?"

Cayetano ran up to Placido and took two ragged breaths. Considering that he had just entered the Qi-concentrating Realm, the way he was acting was enough to show how anxious he was on the road.

Cayetano shook his head and said, "Master, there are too many people. It is very difficult to get the grain given today. More than half of our Chu Family did not get the grain. Only a small part got it. Each person can only get half a kilogram."

Placido's brows furrowed.

Cayetano laughed and said, "Master, don't worry. Although we couldn't get the food, there's something good."

"A good thing? What kind of good thing?" Placido was puzzled.

"It's Brother Syl." Cayetano did not keep him guessing. "Brother Syl just found me. He said that since he came here for the first time, he would like to thank our Chu Family for giving him a place to stay and food. So, he specially sent five thousand kilograms of rice to repay our Chu Family's kindness."

"Five thousand!" Placido's heart skipped a beat, and a look of pleasant surprise appeared on his face. "Did I hear wrongly? Five thousand?"

"Yes, absolutely right." Cayetano nodded with certainty.

However, Placido quickly frowned again. "Is what Syl said true? He doesn't owe our Chu family that much. In this situation, 5000 kilograms of rice is not a small number."

"Master, I don't think Brother Syl has any reason to lie to me." Cayetano said, "He just told me to arrange for people to collect rice, so I hurried back to find you. Master, why don't we call Brother Syl back? I think that Brother Jacindo might have misunderstood. Brother Syl couldn't have been arranged by Eastern City. Moreover, he didn't go to Eastern City, but was with a bounty hunter."

Placido's heart was full of bitterness, but he couldn't say it out loud. He could only say, "Let's talk about it later. Call everyone back first, and then we can get a cart to draw rice!"

Placido was a little worried. Cayetano didn't know why Syl left the Chu Family, but Placido was very clear that Syl was given up by his apprentice, Jacindo. Now Syl wanted to give them food. Would he really do that or he wanted to humiliate the Chu Family?

But now, even if he wanted to humiliate the Chu Family, Placido had to let people give it a try. Five thousand kilograms of rice! For the current Chu Family, they could eat for four or five days and not worry about being full! It was absolutely a timely help!

As soon as Cayetano received Placido's order, he immediately went to call for help.

"I'll go with you!" Placido gritted his teeth and set off with Cayetano.

The two soon contacted dozens of Chu Family members. Cayetano excitedly told them that they were going to pull 10,000 kilograms of food.

"Did this Syl really give us 5000 kilograms of food?"

"No way! 5000 kilograms of food!"

"Why is this Syl so generous?"

"Repay the favor of our Chu Family?"

"You don't have to worry about Syl's generosity. If he's willing to give it to us, it means he's willing to help our Chu Family."

"Right! Right! Right!"

"This Syl is a good man!"

When the people of the Chu Family heard the news from Cayetano, their reactions were different. But in the end, they were still talking about Syl's good side.

The fact that Henry wanted to give the food to the Chu Family was not because he was going to repay their kindness.

The Chu Family belonged to the bishop of the Eastern Continent. Henry took over the throne of the Eastern Continent. The Chu Family could be said to be the direct descendant of him in this Recluse World. Now that the Chu Family was in trouble, Henry could not ignore it. Moreover, Henry also knew in his heart that someone deliberately wanted to divide the forces of the Eastern Continent. If the Chu Family was forced into a desperate situation, they would absolutely do something impulsive. At that time, the purpose of the person hiding in the dark would really be achieved. What Henry had to do was to ensure the balance between these two sides.

Dozens of people of the Chu Family were pushing the carts and walking happily to the place where the food distribution was distributed.

Just as everyone was heading in that direction, they heard a burst of cheers and praises in front of them.

"Senior brother Jacindo, you're too powerful!"

"That's right. We rushed to the front and fought so hard to get such little food. You just said a few words and pulled a few cars back."

"Senior brother Jacindo, you still have a way!"

Placido and the rest saw that another group of Chu Family members were walking towards them. These people were even carrying a few carts, all of which were loaded with food.

When Placido and the rest saw this scene, they were overjoyed and quickly ran over. Looking at the carts of food, Placido's tears almost flowed out. Recently, the Chu Family was really in a difficult situation. Five thousand kilograms of food was enough for the Chu Family to overcome the current obstacle! The Chu Family itself still had some food left. As long as they could survive for a few days, everything would be over. The demonic beasts would not be able to surround the city for too long.

"Junior brother Jacindo, where did you get all this food from?" Cayetano hurriedly asked.

"Of course I took it from Syl," said Jacindo proudly.

Hearing this, Cayetano smiled, turned around and said to Placido, "Master, what do you think? What I said is right. Brother Syl is definitely not an ungrateful person. We should thank him."

Placido nodded in agreement.

"Senior brother Wang, what you said isn't correct. Being able to obtain so much food this time, it is all due to senior brother Jacindo's credit. What does it have to do with Syl?" A person who followed behind Jacindo said discontentedly.

Chapter 1253

"Why does it have nothing to do with Brother Syl?" Cayetano asked.

"What does it have to do with him?" said the person behind him. "The food is what Senior Brother Jacindo asked for from Syl with his ability."

Placido suddenly had a bad feeling and asked, "How much food did you get from Syl?"

Jacindo's face was full of pride as he stretched out one finger.

"Master, Senior Brother Jacindo took 1,000 kilograms from Syl!" The man behind Jacindo said excitedly. "Master, Senior Brother Jacindo, you're truly a great hero of our Chu Family!"

"Master, you didn't see Syl's expression just now!" Another person said, "At that time, when Senior Brother Jacindo asked him for food, Syl opened his mouth and one could directly stuff a goose egg in it! It was as if he had heard something incredible."

"Master, you didn't see that. It was wonderful. Senior brother Jacindo made Syl speechless with a few words and took out 1,000 kilograms of food obediently."

"That Syl is very proud. After giving him the food, he said that he would never owe our Chu Family again, as if our Chu Family needs him very much!"

"Yeah, it's really interesting."

"Senior brother Jacindo, you're just too great."

Those who followed behind Jacindo continued to praise him.

A smug look appeared on Jacindo's face. He looked like he was ready to receive a reward. They did not notice that Placido's expression had completely changed.

Placido's body trembled slightly, which proved how angry he was.

Originally, it was 5,000 kilograms of food, but because of Jacindo, it became one thousand kilograms! What kind of concept was this?! Originally, Placido thought that the Chu Family had overcome the hardships of the past few days. However, because of Jacindo, the method to overcome the hardships was completely gone!

Moreover, Syl was an expert in appraising treasures. When the demonic beasts surrounded the city, if the Chu Family continued to work hard, it was impossible for them to make a new relationship with

Syl. However, Jacindo abruptly fell out with him. From now on, it was difficult for the Chu Family to have any relationship with him!

Jacindo was waiting for Placido's praise, but he didn't receive any. He couldn't help but look at Placido in confusion. At first glance, he could tell that Placido's emotions weren't quite right.

"Master, what are you..."

"Evil creature!" Placido suddenly waved his arm and slapped Jacindo in the face.

Placido was truly enraged. He slapped Jacindo so hard that he fell to the ground.

Those who had come with Jacindo were taken aback by Placido's sudden reaction. They did not understand what was going on.

"Master!" A female disciple rushed forward and helped up Jacindo, who had been whipped over by Placido. "Master, what did Senior Brother Jacindo do wrong?"

"We know that Syl is now in a very high position, but senior brother Jacindo offended him for our Chu Family's good."

"Today, a large number of people were not able to get the grain. For those who can, each of them only has one catty of grain. It's not enough at all!"

"Senior brother Jacindo, he's doing this for our Chu Family!"

Placido looked at Jacindo, so angry that his entire body was trembling. In the end, before he could finish his sentence, he flung his sleeves and turned around, walking back in that direction.

The whole Chu Family looked at Placido's back and didn't understand why Placido was so angry.

"Senior Cahetano, what exactly is Master..." Someone couldn't help but look at Cayetano.

Cayetano sighed and shook his head, saying, "Syl came to me before. He said that in order to repay our Chu Family's kindness, he would be willing to send our family 5,000 kilograms of rice to help us overcome this difficulty, but now..."

As soon as Cayetano said this, he did not continue.

The other Chu Family, who was pushing the cart with Cayetano, said, "Yes, we have already prepared our cars. We were going to get the food, and we met you on the way and heard this."

When the Chu Family members, who were originally cheerful, heard the news, they were all stunned.

"5,000 kilograms of rice? Syl would give it to us for free?"

5,000 kilograms! That was a total of five times what they had now!

The people who came to their senses finally understood why Placido was so angry! They also thought of a deeper problem! Since Syl would help the Chu Family now, it meant that the Chu Family had a good relationship with Syl. But now, not only did Syl keep 4000 kilograms of rice, but they also completely fell out with Syl!

No wonder! No wonder Syl just said that from now on, he would never owe the Chu Family anything! Jacindo's behaviour to ask for food was no longer self-made cleverness. It was stupidity!

Those who were still praising him all shut their mouths in silence.

The female disciple who helped Jacindo up also quietly released her hands and took two steps back. It was as if she was going to separate herself from Jacindo.

The group of Chu Family members were all silent. The 1000 kilograms of food, which had been pulled over like trophies and glory, now looked so dazzling.

Late at night, everyone in the Chu Family's hall was in a very serious mood.

Because today, in front of so many people, Jacindo openly argued with Henry, so that the Chu Family would have a lot of trouble during the time after they received the food.

Regarding the appraisal masters of the Treasure Pavilion, their fame had already resounded throughout the entire Eastern City. At this moment, the demonic beasts were surrounding the city and the Treasure Pavilion was closed, but this didn't mean that everyone didn't care about the Treasure Pavilion. On the contrary, the more difficult the situation was, the more the adventurers felt the importance of a good weapon. Good armour was an item that could directly increase one's strength and save one's life at a crucial moment!

It was certain that there would be even more people lining up in front of the entrance of the Treasure Pavilion after the siege of the demonic beasts. Even if they had to queue up and pay the fees, they wouldn't necessarily be able to get a look from a master. If one didn't have a certain identity, the master wouldn't even let look at him.

Therefore, after Jacindo fell out with Henry in front of so many people at that time, those adventurers who wanted to befriend Henry came to the Chu Family spontaneously to make trouble for the Chu Family.

Of course, these people would not risk their lives to fight with the Chu Family. What they wanted was to isolate the Chu Family and say something unpleasant.

However, what the Chu Family feared most now was their bad reputation.

This time, the Chu Family had gained the support of the other two major city lords in order to regroup and enter the city. But now, before they could compete with the Colver family, there were already a large number of people who were dissatisfied with the Chu Family.

And now, their standpoints had already stated that if they were on good terms with the Chu Family, they wouldn't get along well with the appraiser.

The appraiser was not better than the Chu Family in strength, but in terms of influence, he was not weaker than a colossus like the Chu Family!

Chapter 1254

In the Chu Family's hall, everyone was anxious. Now the rumours were spreading outside, which was very unfavourable for the Chu Family. It could be imagined that after the demonic beasts' siege, it would be very difficult for the Chu Family to recruit troops.

"Master, now it is said that Syl is incompatible with our Chu Family. He is done with our family. We can't step into the Treasure Pavilion again."

"I don't know who spread this rumour, it is spread everywhere now. I suspect that there are people in Eastern City who are in the way."

"It must be the Colver Family! They can't wait for our Chu Family to be isolated!"

"Master." Cayetano said, "Why don't I talk to brother Syl again? There is actually a misunderstanding."

"There's no need." Placido shook his head. "That's it. From now on, no one in the Chu Family should find trouble with Syl. Anyone who tries will be punished by family law if I find out!"

After Placido finished speaking, he stood up and walked out of the meeting hall under everyone's gaze.

Eurydice stood under Placido and looked at her father's back. Eurydice shook her lips and walked out of the meeting hall as if she had made a decision.

Late at night, the patrol soldiers of Eastern City shuttled back and forth in the city. If there were any unusual people, the patrol soldiers would not even interrogate them and would catch them first. This was a special time. In order to prevent the joint adventurers of the Demon King from infiltrating Eastern City, all means were necessary.

At the junction of the inner and outer cities, Eurydice was wearing a long white dress. She specially dressed up, and her sweet appearance attracted a lot of people's attention.

"Junior Sister!"

A voice came from behind Eurydice, which gave her a fright.

Eurydice gave a quiver. She turned around and saw that Jacindo was standing behind her.

Eurydice saw who it was and heaved a sigh of relief. "Senior Jacindo, it's you. You scared me."

"Junior sister, why are you here?" Jacindo asked in an interrogative manner.

Eurydice's eyes dodged a little. "No... no reason."

Jacindo stared at Eurydice. "You're here to find Syl, aren't you? Don't lie to me."

Eurydice took a deep breath and nodded. "Yes, I want to make it clear to him about what happened last time. Although I haven't had much contact with Brother Syl, I can see that he is a good-hearted man. Otherwise, he wouldn't have helped us."

Jacindo snorted. "Why are you looking for him? We're from the Chu Family, so why should we be afraid of him? Even if he knows how to appraise treasures, so what? If he's dead, even if he's powerful, he won't be able to stir up much trouble."

Eurydice was shocked. "Senior brother Jacindo, you're going to..."

"That's right." A hint of fierceness appeared in Jacindo's eyes. "As long as he dies, the attacks on our Chu Family will stop!"

"Senior Brother Jacindo, you're doing this...."

Eurydice was about to say something when she heard a voice coming from behind.

"Miss Chu, why did you come to me so late at night?"

Henry, dressed in a black robe, walked from the inner city with Lisamari and Cherlyn.

At this moment, three of the five people present were standing in the inner city. Two of them stood in the outer city, and an invisible boundary separated them.

Eurydice first glanced at the two women beside Henry, and then whispered, "Brother Syl, I want to explain to you. In fact, our Chu Family doesn't..."

"That's enough, Miss Chu." Henry reached out his hand to stop Eurydice. "Miss Chu, I have made it very clear today. From now on, I don't owe your Chu Family anything anymore. I have paid back what I owe you."

"Brother Syl, can I explain it to you?" Eurydice took a step forward, reached out her hand and grabbed Henry's sleeve. She looked so pitiful that almost a man would not ignore her.

When Jacindo saw Eurydice reach out her hand to Henry, there was a sudden look of violence in his eyes. He looked around and saw that there were no patrolling soldiers. He moved his feet and rushed toward Henry.

"Syl, go to hell!"

The killing intent in Jacindo's eyes surged. He was determined to take this opportunity to kill Henry.

Jacindo didn't know that the killing move in his eyes, in Henry's eyes, was just a child's trick. He burst out his fastest speed, but in Henry's view, it was almost the same as slow motion.

Henry's mouth curved into a smile.

Suddenly, there was a sound of explosion not far behind Henry. The sound of the explosion brought a huge impact. Because of the impact, the man who was going to kill Henry was directly sent flying.

The same happened to Eurydice. She was sent flying by the impact force.

Behind Henry, the floor tiles under his feet scattered in all directions. The two women next to Henry screamed and flew out uncontrollably.

Henry was quick to catch the two girls, so he didn't let them fly out. Otherwise, with the cultivation of the two girls, there might be problems.

As the sound of the explosion rang out, even the houses collapsed directly under the impact of the impact.

"Demonic beasts are attacking!"

On the wall, there was a loud roar, followed by a golden sound, which meant that the city was in danger!

"Boom!" "Boom!"

With a loud crash, Henry saw that there was a huge gap in the west of the city wall. Huge stones rolled down from the wall and fell to the ground, causing a burst of screams.

In the place where the gap appeared, a red eye, like the gaze of a devil, looked at everything in the city through the city wall.

At the moment they saw the big scarlet eye, many people's hair stood on end.

"Boom!" "Boom!"

With another sound, the eastern wall was broken again. Countless demonic beasts rushed into Eastern City along the opening of the wall like ants coming out of their holes.

In the sky, countless flying demonic beasts were circling.

Looking into the distance, a huge black shadow was partly hidden and partly visible!

The monster beasts actually launched a general attack tonight!

"Boom!" "Boom!"

With another sound, the whole city gate was completely broken down.

A bird-type demonic beast picked up a city wall guard and flew into the sky. Under the gaze of many people, the bird-type demonic beast completely tore the guard into two halves.

"Roar!"

An ear-splitting roar of a beast rang out. A four-metre tall bull-like demonic beast took up the lead and charged at the city gate at the first moment.

In the direction of the inner city where Henry was located, the sound of the explosion and the impact of the blast could be heard. It was only because of the appearance of a human figure, a mutant monster with a longhorn and a height of four metres. However, a faint glow emanated from the monster, which indicated that it was at least a beast that had the strength of the Qi-concentrating Realm.

The bull-like demonic beast twisted its neck as if it was doing some warm-up exercises. It spoke in human language with a sneer. "Haha, is this the famous Eastern City? It's just so-so!"

The bull-like demonic beast's voice was deep, and its eyes were full of ferocity. When it turned its eyes, it stared at Eurydice, who had fallen not far away.

Chapter 1255

Eurydice was knocked over by the violent impact just now. When she fell to the ground, she only felt dizzy. When she suddenly looked up, she just saw a huge figure staring at her. The terrifying aura from the other side made her feel her legs go weak.

A bloodthirsty look appeared in the demonic beast's eyes. It walked two meters in one step and went straight in the direction of Eurydice.

A ball of light yellow light emerged from the demonic beast's hand as it lifted up its sturdy arm. With the destructive power it had just created, it was certain that with a wave of its arm, it would be able to destroy everything in its path.

"Junior Sister, let's go!" At the critical moment, Jacindo, who had failed to attack Henry before, roared and quickly flashed to the side of Eurydice. After holding Eurydice in his arms, he disappeared quickly.

As soon as they left, there was an explosion in the position where Eurydice just stood. The strong airflow made a huge hole in the bluestone floor.

The demonic beast lost its target and let out an angry roar. It then set its target on Henry and the other two, who were closest to it.

"Let's go!"

The moment the demonic beast looked over, Lisamari and Cherlyn were so scared that their faces turned pale and their legs went weak.

Henry held Lisamari and Cherlyn by their waists and ran away at a fast speed. The two girls' minds went blank. They couldn't react to it at all. How could their master suddenly have such a fast speed?

"Roar!"

Having lost its target twice in a row, the bull-like beast was extremely angry. Although it could speak the human language, its animal nature had already occupied most of its mind, so it kept roaring.

At this moment, the inner city was not a safe place. When the demonic beasts broke through the city gates, the entire Eastern City would be plunged into chaos.

The sound of fighting, crying constantly sounded, and everyone was in danger.

In the Chu Family's courtyard, the gate was closed. All the members of the Chu Family gathered in the courtyard. The monsters hovering in the sky were cut down one after another.

"Master, the city has already been broken through. Demonic beasts have already charged in. Now is the best time to establish our authority. Let's slaughter our way out!" A member of the Chu Family shouted.

"It's not the right time yet." Placido looked at the sky. "There are too many demonic beasts. The Colver Family is still hibernating and no experts have been sent. If we rush out now, we will inevitably be targeted by the demonic beasts. This will cause us to suffer heavy losses and we will no longer be able to compete with the Colver Family!"

Outside the Chu Family courtyard, someone knocked on the gate of the courtyard, and a cry could be heard.

"Master Chu, help me, help..."

The cries outside the door stopped abruptly, as anyone could imagine what had happened outside to make them stop.

The ground of Eastern City was dyed red with blood. One man fled madly. Suddenly, he tripped. Looking down, he saw a corpse. When he looked up again, he saw a monster beast squatting in front of him, with a bloody piece of fresh meat in its mouth.

"Help!" He cried out.

The shouts resounded through the air. No one had expected the demonic beast to appear so suddenly. Before the guards of the city could discover it, a hole had been created in the city walls. No one had the time to check the fifty-metre deep trench outside the city. They wondered how the demonic beast had managed to get past the wall.

In the City Lord's Mansion, Knox had just finished dealing with the food problem when he received the news of demonic beasts destroying the city.

"Lord, let's fight! If we wait longer, countless lives are going to be lost!"

"We can't." Hearing the shouts of war coming from outside the City Lord's Mansion, Knox shook his head. "The Chu Family has already entered the city. They are waiting for us to make our move. If we were to use up our energy, with the help of Gale City and Southern City, the Chu Family will definitely replace the position of our Colver Family in Eastern City. Don't forget, the Chu Family has colluded with the demonic beasts!"

"But outside... "

"Endure it!" Knox clenched his teeth. "I deliberately placed the Chu Family in the outer cities so that I can force them to make the first move! With the great number of demonic beasts about to enter the city, the Chu Family will not be able to hold back for too long! If they don't make the first move, they will confirm that they are colluding with the demonic beasts!"

Knox stared intently at the outskirts of the city. The massive figure that loomed in and out of the darkness gave off a powerful oppressive aura.

There were a lot of powerful demonic beasts parachuting into the inner city of Eastern City. They were also intelligent. Otherwise, they wouldn't have suddenly broken through the city's walls in the middle of the night and caught Eastern City off guard.

The bird-type demonic beast that was killed two days ago was only a scout. The demonic beasts had planned to land in the eastern part of the city and attack and destroy it.

Although the outer city was more chaotic than the inner city, the outer city was relatively safer. Although there were many demonic beasts, their strength could not be compared to the inner city.

Each of the demonic beasts in the inner city was a big boss.

Henry took Lisamari and Cherlyn and went to hide in an alleyway in the outer city. The alleyway was relatively quiet, which made the two girls, who were frightened, finally calm down.

The two girls lost the colour in their faces, and their bodies were nestled in Henry's arms. They could not stop trembling and even could not speak clearly. "Oh...sir...our city is attacked...what should we do? I...will die..."

"It's fine." Henry shook his head slightly. "There are experts in both the City Lord's Mansion and the Chu Family. These issues will be solved soon. Don't worry."

Cherlyn was quite calm. She swallowed hard and said, "Sir, it's not safe here. I know a cellar. Let's hide in it. It's not far from here."

"Good." Henry nodded and asked Cherlyn to lead the way. He held Lisamari who was frightened, the three of them leaned against the wall all the way and walked carefully toward the cellar that Cherlyn had mentioned.

Along the way, Henry and the other two saw too many bodies under their feet. There were various pieces of broken flesh and internal organs everywhere. The human bodies and the demonic beast's bodies mixed together, and the smell of blood was skyrocketing. When they looked up, they could see the huge demonic beast roaring. Surrounded by broken walls and ruins, it was like a scene of hell.

At the sight of this, the frightened Lisamari bent down and threw up.

Henry frowned. He couldn't understand why the experts of Eastern City and the Chu Family hadn't been sent out yet. Now, they were all fighting in the battle against demonic beasts. He winked at Cherlyn and said softly, "Let's go."

Cherlyn was so scared that her face turned pale, and she pointed the way for Henry with trembling hands.

The three people walked for about three minutes, but for Lisamari and Cherlyn, it seemed that a few years had passed. On the way, they saw many people killed by the demonic beasts. Henry wanted to help them, but it was too late. After all, he was just in the Divine Realm, not a god.

"Sir, there is a cellar in the yard ahead. I've been here before."

When they were close to their destination, Cherlyn's face was filled with excitement.

When Cherlyn was about to step forward, the wall she pointed at suddenly collapsed. In front of Cherlyn, there were already many corpses. Behind the wall, there was a big pit, which was the cellar that Cherlyn had mentioned. At the moment, it had been destroyed by the demonic beasts, and the cellar was full of corpses.

Chapter 1256

Behind the collapsed wall, a huge monster beast stepped on the corpses all over the ground. It kept looking at these corpses, as if it were choosing its midnight snack.

Just like that, the demonic beast appeared in front of them. Cherlyn's eyes widened and she was completely stunned.

"Mom! Where are you? Mom!"

A child's heart-tearing sound attracted the attention of the monster and Henry.

He was only four or five years of age. His clothes were tattered, and he was covered in blood. The boy's bright eyes were filled with helplessness. Even though the demonic beast was right in front of him, he was still shouting the word 'mom'. The woman who had been protecting him since he was born was everything to him.

Seeing the new human being, the demonic beast's eyes showed a hint of excitement. It immediately gave up on the corpses on the ground and looked at the child.

The child acted as if he hadn't seen the demonic beast. He seemed to have lost his soul and kept calling for his mother. He swept his numb eyes over the bodies on the ground. This child was the one Henry saw during the day and gave him a gold coin.

Henry cursed in his heart, and instantly rushed toward the direction of the child.

Henry's speed was extremely fast. He was much faster than the demonic beast that had been keeping an eye on the child. Lisamari and Cherlyn could only see a shadow streaking across the sky.

Just as Henry was about to pick up the child, a strand of hair in front of Henry's forehead suddenly got cut.

At the same time, the child, who was less than five metres away from Henry, suddenly froze. He had just called out the word "mom" before he stopped speaking. The child's eyes became dull and his pupils dilated.

When Henry saw the look of a child, he suddenly stopped and murmured, "No! No! No! No! Not like that! Not like that!"

The child also saw Henry, and his numb expression began to have a hint of joy, but that was it.

Blood flowed from the child's waist. The child's body, in an extremely strange way, fell backwards, and his legs were still standing there.

Looking at the scene in front of him, Henry felt a bang, and his mind went blank.

The demonic beast, which originally had its eyes on the child, looked at Henry and regarded him as a new prey.

Henry lowered his head and looked at the ground. His voice became a little hoarse. "Why? Why?"

The demonic beast did not slow down. It came to Henry and looked him up and down in a bantering manner.

"Why? He was still so young. The mother and son were dependent on each other. He just wanted to find his mother. Why? Why didn't you let him find her?"

The monster seemed to understand Henry's words. It stood in front of Henry as if it was looking at an idiot, looking at Henry.

"Do you know?" Henry gradually clenched his fists with his drooping arms. "Do you know how important a mother is to a child? For him, she is the most important person in the world! Why? Why? Didn't! You! Let! Him! Find! His mother?!"

"Bang!"

The next moment, a house not far away suddenly burst open.

A purple light was lingering around Henry.

The demonic beast seemed to have sensed some sort of danger and immediately put away its mocking expression. It opened its bloody mouth and bit towards Henry.

However, as soon as the demonic beast pounced on Henry, its throat was squeezed by a giant purple hand that was made of Qi.

"I understand. People are in the position of being butchered." Henry spoke again, "Maybe in the eyes of you demonic beasts, we humans are just like chickens, ducks and fish. You eat meat and kill people. But I'm not a sage, so many people have died under me. I'm not happy. I'm just not happy. You killed him in front of me and let him die, but you didn't let him find his mother. I didn't want to see such a thing."

As Henry's words fell, he suddenly raised his head. His profound eyes were filled with an indifferent expression.

Henry took a step forward, and the demonic beast that was caught by the giant purple hand suddenly showed a painful look.

"Today," Henry stretched out his right arm, "I have a lot of questions to ask."

The purple light gathered in Henry's hand. He once again took a stride, and the surface of the demonic beast began to shatter.

Henry looked at the sky. In the darkness, the giant shadow had come to the edge of the city. The Qi blade that had cut off Henry's hair and took the kid's life came from this giant shadow.

The black giant shadow seemed to have also noticed the Qi that had appeared in the city. Its eyes, bigger than lanterns, were looking in this direction.

The purple Qi gathered under Henry's feet, and the surrounding gravel began to jump on the ground.

The two girls, Lisamari and Cherlyn, looked at Henry in front of them with surprise. They didn't expect that the master they served would have such a side.

The purple light gathered more and more. In the sky above the city, dark clouds rolled over, like a precursor to the big storm.

Inside the city, Knox looked at the gigantic black shadow by the city's side.

"Master, if you don't take action, the city will really be destroyed!"

"We can't hurry! The Chu Family is hiding in the dark. They are cooperating with demonic beasts. If we go out now, the whole city will fall into their hands!"

Placido, who was standing in the middle of the Chu Family's courtyard, could also see the huge shadow outside.

"Master! We can't delay any longer! If we delay any longer, the big demonic beast will enter the city and destroy Eastern City! We don't want the power. We are doing this for Eastern City!" A high-ranking member of the Chu Family knelt in front of Placido. "Master, let's get started. We don't have to fight with the Colver Family. There are already enough dead people!"

"I know! I know! I know!" Placido roared, "But! The Colver Family hasn't moved yet! Cayetano brought back news for me. The last time, the Colver Family sent people to ambush Eurydice and Cleytus. Their people have already joined forces with the demonic beasts! They are the ones who really collude with the demonic beasts! We will go out now, kill the demon beasts, and suffer heavy casualties. From now on, no one could contain the Colver Family. What will the people in Eastern City do then? What will the people living here do? Our Chu Family, even if it's cursed for thousands of years, must not let the scum of the Colver Family, who collude with the demonic beasts, succeed! Bear it!"

The demonic beasts attacked the city, and the experts of the Colver Family and the Chu Family all closed their doors and stayed inside.

Inside the city, there was an expanse of wailing, as if it came from hell.

"City Lord! Save us!" Someone knelt on the ground and prayed to God. Such a tragic situation had already shattered her heart. She didn't even want to escape and just knelt there, because she didn't know where she could escape. There were corpses all around her.

"Master Chu!" Some people were calling out to Placido.

However, the Colver Family and the Chu Family seemed to be isolated from the world and did not appear.

Despair lingered in everyone's heart, all the way until... that ray of violet light appeared from the horizon!
