

Chapter 1295

"One person faced a million cavalry?" Ranulfo's expression changed.

Even Celestino next to Ranulfo temporarily put down their grudges after hearing Dougal's words at this moment.

What was the concept of millions of people? What was the concept of millions of iron calvaries?

It was no exaggeration to say that if a person faced millions of iron calvaries alone, the other side's roar alone would be enough to scare the person out of his wits.

Millions of ants could kill an elephant, let alone a man.

"Correct." Dougal nodded. "That day, Silas entered Southern Emperor City alone. After he entered, the gates of the city were closed for three days. Three days later, a piece of news began to spread throughout the world."

"What news?" Ranulfo asked subconsciously.

Dougal took a deep breath, closed his eyes, and slowly said, "A million corpses can fill the sea."

Ranulfo's pupils suddenly shrank. "You mean..."

"Three days." Dougal nodded. "In three days, he killed millions of cavalry from Southern Emperor City and killed countless experts under Liulfr. At the same time, he carried Liulfr's head and walked out of the city. From that day on, Ghost God Silas' name resounded throughout the world. For the Southern Territory, he was a ghost. For the Northern Region, he was a god. He killed a spirit-controlling expert. From the day he came out, he was on par with Justus."

When Celestino heard this, he couldn't help but swallow a mouthful of saliva. Killing one Spirit-controlling master and destroying millions of soldiers at the same time was all done by one person. Celestino thought to himself that he couldn't do this.

Dougal heaved a sigh, "Back then, it was such a glorious era with experts everywhere. But now, we are struggling to survive. It's a pity to think about it."

Ranulfo's face suddenly changed. "In this case, Dougal, what are you waiting for? Do you really want for Silas to kill Gervais? We both know that Gervais cannot die. If he dies, there will be a big problem."

"Relax, there is no need for us to worry. We have been out for a long time. After leaving for such a long time, I'm afraid that Senior Silas has already felt it."

As soon as Dougal finished his words, the sword array suddenly disappeared. Hundreds of swords turned into phantoms and finally converged into one which landed behind Silas.

When Titan formation dissipated, everyone saw that Silas was still dressed in black, and there were no traces of fighting on his clothes.

When they looked at the Gervais, they saw that he was panting heavily. There were a few scratches on his clothes. Although there weren't many, it also meant that he was completely at a disadvantage in the battle just now. What drew the most attention was that there were a few sword marks on his Divine Staff.

When the sword array dissipated, Silas suddenly looked at the sky in the distance. He frowned. "What's going on?"

"Senior Silas, you should have felt it as well." Dougal leaned forward. "There are some things that I find difficult to explain. I'll take you there to have a look."

Silas glanced at Gervais and shook his head. "Just say it. I can understand."

"Okay." Dougal nodded. He looked at the horizon and said, "I've found what Senior Lu have been looking for."

Silas's face changed dramatically.

Dougal opened his mouth again. "Senior Silas, you can't kill Gervais. Each of us has something we have to do."

Silas's face gradually returned to normal. "According to you, can Henry be killed?"

"We can't kill him either. I'll make Gervais pay for what he did, but he can't die," Dougal said seriously. "His existence is of great importance. Killing him will be tantamount to killing tens of millions of people."

"What does the death of tens of millions have to do with me?" Silas's heavy sword floated behind him again.

"Whatever Justus was looking for, I can destroy. If he wanted to hurt Henry, how can I let him go?"

"Then that's good." Dougal suddenly turned around and faced the Gervais. The next moment, Dougal appeared in front of the Gervais and grabbed towards its throat with one hand.

A stream of holy Qi emanated from Gervais's body.

Sacred Lord suddenly waved his hand, causing Gervais' Qi to be instantly locked. Dougal's hand was really squeezing Gervais' throat.

"Dougal, what are you trying to do?!" Ranulfo roared, taking action on the spot.

Celestino did the same. The black spear was held in Celestino's hand as he charged towards Dougal.

"What an idiot!"

"What an idiot!"

Seeing that Celestino and Ranulfo had started to fight,

Dougal and Sacred Lord almost made such voices at the same time.

There were Celestino and Ranulfo who were making trouble. The white light on Gervais rose again and shouted, "Get lost!"

Dougal's hand was suddenly shaken away.

Every Spirit-controlling master had already reached their limits. Even though there was a huge difference in strength between them, it wouldn't be too big. For example, Dougal, who was known as the Martial Emperor, wouldn't be able to easily capture the person who had the right to sit on the seat of Chairman of Recluse Association. Of course, there were exceptions as well.

The moment when Dougal's hand shook away, a huge black sword was placed on Gervais' neck.

Gervais' pupils contracted as he stared at Silas. "How is this possible?! How could you still be able to display such strength? You broke through the prison by force..."

Dougal and the others were similarly shocked. Just a moment ago, they had yet to understand how Silas managed to get close to him. The strength Silas had displayed could be said to be terrifying. Such an expert who had stepped into the realm of spirit-controlling before the great change of the heavens and earth was something that they were unable to fathom.

"It's the power of the bloodline..." Dougal's eyes were filled with fear. "The prison can seal the power of the bloodline. Senior Silas, why are you able to use the power of the bloodline when you forcefully came out this time?"

"Hahaha, it's really interesting." At this moment, a loud laugh came from the ground. "Who told you that Boss broke out of the prison by force? Can't he get out of it casually?"

Everyone looked in the direction of the voice and saw a short figure appear at the entrance to the City of Hell.

"Ha ha ha, some people always think about others with their own thoughts. If they can guess the strength of the boss, how could he put a sword on this man's neck?" Another figure appeared from the entrance of the prison.

"Ah, I haven't seen the sun for a long time. In modern people's words, it's so cool!" Another figure appeared.

"Yes, and this fresh air."

"I don't care. I've watched videos for so long. I'm just waiting to go shopping in the mall, buy a sports car, and find a girl. I also want to make Tiktok videos."

"Come on, you are hundreds of years old, but you still want to buy a sports car and find a young girl. Don't you feel ashamed?"

"What are you talking about? We're not talking about how many years we've lived, but how many more years we can live. What's wrong with me? I'm looking for a young girl now, and it's hard to say who'll outlive whom."

"That's right. Can't we have our youth? We can ask Henry to give us hundreds of millions of yuan each, and then we can enjoy life."

Figures came out from the entrance of the prison one after another. The expressions of Dougal and the others had changed completely.

Chapter 1296

Dozens of figures appeared at the entrance of the prison. Their appearance answered Dougal and others' question. This was a huge problem, one problem that could change the situation of this world and the situation for a hundred years!

Silas did not use some sort of method to forcefully walk out of the prison. He used a normal method to escape!

A legendary expert appeared out of thin air! His appearance didn't just increase the number of Spirit-controlling realm experts in the world. His appearance told Dougal and the others that from this moment on, a Spirit-controlling Realm expert could also be killed!

This was no longer just a change in the situation. This was a change in the structure. After a reshuffle, the Spirit-controlling realm expert would no longer be invincible, and the so-called top force would no longer be the top force!

Silas was like a mountain rising from the ground, instantly becoming the number one mountain in the world.

"Boss, these fellows above don't seem to be that good. Let me show them a few moves. After waiting for a hundred years, my bones have fallen apart." A person below stared at Celestino.

"I'll also choose one. Let's agreed on this, everyone, don't fight over it." Another individual stared at Ranulfo.

The clear sky once again seemed to be filled with dark clouds.

The violent air currents began to wreak havoc. In the centre of the raging air currents were the people standing above the prison.

"It seems to be a little bit different." The small man looked at his hands. "I don't know how to describe this feeling."

"That's true," Old Ghost said. "I feel much better, and I seem to be younger."

"This feeling is wonderful." Erin raised her wrist.

At this moment, the twenty-five people from the prison felt a sense of satisfaction that they had never felt before.

The dark clouds in the sky were rolling even more violently. Looking at the thick black clouds, it seemed that there was some kind of monster hiding inside, and it was rolling.

The airflow between the sky and earth also became more and more violent.

Dougal looked down, a look of shock appearing in his eyes.

"Impossible!" Celestino shook his head and muttered, "This is impossible! Impossible! How could so many people enter the Spirit-controlling Realm together! Why?! Why is this happening?!"

The expression on Gervais' face was as ugly as it could be.

There were only a handful of Spirit-controlling Realm experts at the peak of the universe, but now, more than twenty of them were about to enter the Spirit-controlling realm at the same time!

Dougal said, "There's no Qi in the prison. They've been suppressing it for too long. At this moment, they're just like how I was in the past."

Dougal's talent was ordinary, and it was difficult for him to get close to the path of cultivation. He chose another path, gathering a hundred years' worth of power. At that moment, he broke through the shackles and entered the Spirit-controlling realm. Right now, the twenty-five people below him were similar to Dougal when he first stepped into the method of controlling the spirit.

"Ha, ha, ha!" Silas threw his head back and laughed heartily. "Very well. Today, all of you will enter the Spirit-controlling realm. I will protect you."

The wild wind raged, and the dark clouds rolled more and more violently.

Dougal suddenly stood in front of Silas and blocked his way. "Senior Silas, you can't let them enter! There are no heroic spirits in this world to begin with, so there's no way to control them. Now that they are entering the Spirit-controlling realm, you're not helping them, you're harming them. If we lure something else out, it'll be difficult to deal with them!"

Silas didn't care.

Dougal's face was filled with anxiety. "Senior Silas, I know you don't believe what I said, but after seeing this, you should understand that Senior Lu left it behind for me to hand it over to you."

Dougal took out a bamboo slip from his chest pocket and passed it to Silas.

"Did Justus leave it to me?" Silas's face was full of suspicion as he took the bamboo slips.

Dougal said with a sincere expression, "You should know Senior Lu's stuff. I can't fool you."

Silas waved his hand and the bamboo slip in Dougal's hand flew up. Then, it landed in his hand and opened up naturally.

Silas glanced at it and said with certainty, "It is indeed something left behind by Justus."

He looked at a few lines scribbled on the bamboo slips.

The more Silas looked at it, the tighter his brows became.

The dark clouds in the sky churned even more violently.

"Senior Silas, we must stop them as soon as possible!" Dougal was extremely anxious. "It's not for me, nor for any faction. It's for everyone."

Silas took a deep breath and then shouted, "Disperse!"

"Boom!" "Boom!"

In the sky, the rolling and churning dark clouds seemed to have been blown apart by something and spread out with a loud bang. Sunlight once again sprinkled down, causing the violent air currents that swept through the sky to stop at this moment.

Below, Erin and others were shocked.

"Boss?" The small man looked in the air in confusion.

Silas shook his head. "You can't enter the Spirit-controlling realm. It's fine for you to control yourselves at the peak of the Divine Realm."

"This..." The small man looked around. Entering the Spirit-controlling realm was the ultimate goal of every cultivator.

"Let's listen to the boss." Erin said, "The boss has his reasons. He won't harm us."

"Right." Old Ghost nodded. "Entering the Spirit-controlling realm doesn't have much of an impact on us right now. It's better to enjoy life. It's more suitable for us."

The group of people suddenly burst into laughter. Today, they were able to get out of the prison, which was the happiest event in their lives.

Dougal heaved a sigh of relief when he saw the clouds disperse. He said, "Senior Silas, there are no heroic spirits in this world. Right now, it's no longer possible to enter the Spirit-controlling realm. As for the spirit-controlling experts, the death of one person causes the loss of one person. You really can't kill Gervais." 2

Silas snorted. "He can avoid death, but he can't escape punishment. He hurt Henry, so he has to pay the price!"

Silas moved his arm while speaking.

Pu!

A soft sound appeared in front of Dougal's ears.

Following which, a blood-stained arm was raised in front of Dougal and landed on the ground.

Gervais gritted his teeth tightly. His face was pale and ugly. His hand was cut off from his right shoulder, and it looked extremely scary.

With Silas's strength, the battle strength he could unleash by activating the power of his bloodline with the black sword was not comparable to that of a high-level expert at all.

One arm's disappearance did not have much of an impact on Gervais. The Recluse Association had secretly colluded with the Alvin League. With the biotechnology of the Alvin League, adding another arm to Gervais was easy. However, having his arm cut off in front of so many people was like being slapped in the face. It was shameful, and it was also a temporary concession.

"This sword is really interesting." In the hands of Silas, the black sword was put back on his back. Although he was overbearing, he was not ignorant of the general situation. After seeing the bamboo slips that Justus gave him, Silas could only temporarily put away his killing desire.

"Thank you, Senior Silas." Dougal cupped one hand in the other before his chest. "Since that's the case, I'll leave first. Can't leave that place for too long."

After finishing his words, Dougal disappeared in a flash.

"There's no fight, let's go." Sacred Lord faded into the chair behind him and also left in a different direction.

Chapter 1297

The two great Spirit-controlling experts left.

Everyone on Radiant Island was astonished.

The Nine Fatale expert who spoke to a Qi-controlling Realm expert before said: "It looks like there's nothing special about this Dark Island either. Henry should be the King of Hell's name, right? I saw what happened to the man who went after the King of Hell. The so-called master had his arm cut off."

The Qi-controlling Realm expert, who had spoken before, said nothing. He turned around and found a place with a lot of people, and then went in.

Gervais landed on the ground, picked up the arm that had been cut off and left.

"Let's go as well." Ranulfo waved his hand and brought Celestino away.

"Boss, are we going to let them go just like that?" The small man stepped up to the sky and looked at their backs as they left.

"The world has changed." Silas sighed. "In Dougal's words, they can't be killed. Moreover, it's not easy. Everyone has a trump card. If I had insisted on killing him just now, Dougal would have definitely stopped me at all costs. His Li Clan bloodline must have been awakened. Dougal is not a simple person. The two people in the Alvin League are giving off a strange aura. I can't see through them. The most important one is the person wearing a white mask."

"What's wrong with him?" The small man was curious. "I feel that he's the weakest one."

Silas took a deep breath and looked in the direction in which Sacred Lord had left. "He has more than three seals on his body. His strength is probably even more terrifying than Dougal's."

"Alas." The small man sighed. "When we wandered around this land, we had never heard of these people's names."

"Outstanding geniuses emerge from every generation." Silas shook his head. "Let's not talk about this. How is Henry?"

"He's down there. Wait a minute, I will bring him here."

Silas laughed and said, "Go and bring him here. Since we are out, Old Ghost will be able to cure him easily, huh?"

Silas's face suddenly changed. He looked down at the ancient castle. A power that made Silas feel afraid spread from the place where the ancient castle was located.

"Hurry up and run! Someone is going crazy and is about to release a nuclear explosion!" A loud roar sounded from within the ancient castle. It was hard to tell who it was that released this sound.

"You hide inside quickly!" Silas shouted, and then rushed to the direction of the ancient castle.

A ball of shining light burst out from where the ancient castle was located.

Two giant black hands appeared out of nowhere, clenching the castle with both hands. The dazzling light which was about to explode out was actually held by these two giant black hands, preventing it from erupting.

This was a kind of collision of energy itself.

Because of the loud roar just now, the whole island was instantly in a mess.

Because of the words "nuclear explosion", everyone ran frantically out of the island. They didn't care whether they could really escape. Now they only wanted to run!

A helicopter took off from the sky above the island. Inside the cabin sat Alvin, Sloane, and Peze, who were covered in wounds.

The helicopter, with a strong sound of airflow, flew away from here in the envious eyes of countless people.

Within the City of Hell.

Henry lay on the ground like a mummy tied up. Beside Henry, a blue book was quietly placed. This book was given to Henry by Lila. Lila explained to Henry at that time that this book was the key to destroying the clans.

Henry had been unable to understand what this meant. He only knew that this book and the book from the Shen area were very important. He always kept these two books with him.

Until just now, when his clothes were changed, he found that he could not get out of the prison.

It turned out that the so-called key to the destruction of the clans was a book that allowed him to enter and exit the prison freely!

"But why is it called the key to the destruction of the clans?" Henry murmured, but it was hard to understand. "Is there any connection between the prison and the clans?"

Henry shook his head and didn't think about it for the time being. He didn't have a clue. However, no matter what, if this book could let Silas and others go out, Henry was already very surprised.

"Boom!" "Boom!"

There was a loud sound, followed by a strong tremor. Henry could feel the strong tremor clearly even in the prison.

Twenty-five figures descended from the sky and landed beside Henry.

This tremor continued. After a full minute or so, the tremor gradually calmed down.

"What's the matter?" Henry was lying on the ground with his eyes wide open.

"I don't know. Let's go up and have a look." The small man picked up Henry. This rude action made Henry grimace in pain.

The trembling calmed down. They rushed out from the City of Hell and the moment they left the prison, they were all stupefied.

The island, which was full of flowers, became full of waste at this moment. All flowers withered. The ground of the island was completely cracked, revealing the precise instruments hidden under the island. At this moment, sparkles of electricity were flashing.

All the buildings on the island completely collapsed and turned into ruins.

Not only the island, but also Steel City in the distance had turned into ruins. They only saw a large group of people sitting not far away, and everyone had a look of shock on their faces.

Just now, the force of the nuclear explosion under Silas' command did not burst out, but was controlled to a certain extent. However, although the force of the nuclear explosion did not completely burst out, the shaking it caused was still comparable to an earthquake of the tenth grade. The ground cracked and houses collapsed. Many people died in the earthquake.

Silas fell from the air, and there was a trace of blood on the corner of his mouth. Just now, he controlled the power of a nuclear explosion by himself! Although he was injured, it was enough to prove how horrible he was!

A nuclear explosion! That could be said to be the top power that could destroy this planet. In front of the nuclear explosion, all the so-called weapons were just garbage.

"Henry, it seems that your place is ruined." Erin curled her lips at Henry and made a pitying look.

Henry shrugged his shoulders and said indifferently, "Whatever. This island has existed for a long time. It's good to destroy it. At least, we don't have to stay on the cusp of the storm."

"Let's find a place first and let Old Ghost heal you and Boss." The short man threw Henry, who was carrying him on the shoulder and then pointed one finger. "And those three have been disabled by Boss. He left them for you to kill."

The previous Cardinals, Marinos and Nevyle, as well as Dragon Bone of Alvin League, were all on the verge of death, waiting for Henry to finish them.

Chapter 1298

Radiant Island, which had been built with all its might, had been destroyed overnight.

Steel City that towered over the desert was once again beaten back to its original form.

However, all of this was not important to Henry. He was even delighted.

Steel City was established because of the City of Hell. And Radiant Island, which was in the centre of the storm, could also take this opportunity to get out of the public's sight, which happened to be what Henry thought.

Old Ghost cured Henry and Silas. Henry's injury seemed to be serious, but in the final analysis, it was caused by several Divine Realm experts. In front of Old Ghost who had good medical skills for hundreds of years, this kind of injury was not difficult. He healed Henry with Qi. Moreover, Henry had a strong constitution and strong resilience, so he could quickly do simple actions.

With such a serious injury, he could recover in a short period of time. In the history of medicine, it was a miracle. But in the eyes of Erin and others, this kind of thing should have happened a long time ago.

As for Silas, he alone prevented a nuclear explosion from spreading. The injury he suffered was much more serious than Henry's. After all, it was a nuclear explosion.

"Radiant Island has already been destroyed. From today onwards, our Norman family will no longer have anything to do with Radiant Island. I really hate this damned place!" A female voice rang out. It was Madam Delicia. The yellow sand that had just landed on her body brought her to the verge of going crazy.

Erin, who was helping Henry check his injuries, was shocked by these words. Then she jumped and came to Delicia. She looked at Delicia and asked, "The Norman family? What's your name?"

"Who are you?" Madam Delicia looked at Erin with a proud face.

"Show some respect!" Sister Erin scolded. "I asked you, what's your name?"

"How dare you?!" Madam Delicia's helicopter pilot shouted, "What status do you have? How dare you speak to Madam Delicia of my Norman family like that?"

"Delicia?" Erin looked puzzled and then shook her head. "I've never heard of her. Where is Adhika?"

"My great-grandma passed away a long time ago." Madam Delicia couldn't help glancing at Erin. "Who are you? Why do you ask me about my great-grandma?"

"She passed away." The expression on Erin's face suddenly became particularly complicated. "How long have I been in there? Little Adhika, I didn't expect her to be your great-grandmother. I think you're not young. You should be close to a hundred years old."

Madam Delicia had noticed Erin's words. Little Adhika?

"Haha." Erin chuckled. She pulled a necklace from her neck and threw it to Madam Delicia. "Your great-grandma, did she show you this before?"

Madame Delicia subconsciously took the necklace thrown by Erin. It was a crescent-shaped pendant with countless tiny diamonds flashing on it. At the moment when she saw this necklace, she froze for a moment. At first, she was confused, then shocked, and in the end, she was amazed.

Just the look in her eyes was enough to make a big scene of a drama.

"This is the Waning Moon pendant!" Madame Delicia used to hold the pendant with one hand, but now she was holding it with both hands. Her hands were trembling. "Great-grandmother had such a pendant. She said that there are two pendants in this world and the second one is in her mother's hands. Could it be that you are..."

"It's been a long time since I've used this name." Sister Erin sighed. "Erin Norman."

"Plop!"

Madame Delicia knelt down on her knees, completely ignoring the dirtiness of the ground in front of her. "You...you really are my dear great-great-grandmother, Madam Erin."

Madame Delicia couldn't believe it. Although she knew very well that there was no other one in the world that could be found, this pendant was similar to the one her great-grandma made. With her status, she had seen too much precious jewellery, so she couldn't be cheated. But this matter was too unacceptable.

Erin curled her lips. "Is the Norman family very great? Is there a need for me to pretend?"

"No." Madame Delicia hurriedly shook her head. "Only, this matter is simply too hard to believe. If you were my great-great-grandmother, you would probably be over two hundred years old. But from the looks of it, you seem to be..."

"Bullsh*t, I'm only twenty-eight years old." Erin cursed in an unrestrained manner, then waved her hand, and Madame Delicia, who was kneeling there, stood up.

Erin's eyes became soft. The appearance she had just made was just a reflection of her personality. In the end, Madame Delicia was still her bloodline.

Erin's voice was less overbearing and more tender. "Is the tombstone of the little Adhika's still there? I want to see her."

"Great-grandmother's monolith has always been there."

"Take me to see her. I left her when she was 13 years old. She's no longer around. I'm not a competent mother." Erin shook her head and walked up to hold on to Madame Delicia's arm.

"No." Madame Delicia hurriedly shook her head. "My great-grandmother said that you left in order to save the Norman family. Without your sacrifice, there would be no Norman family. She didn't blame you. She respected you very much. Until the day she passed away, she had always treated you as her idol."

"She really said that?!" Erin immediately showed an excited look.

"Of course." Madame Delicia nodded.

"Haha!" Erin burst into laughter and then waved to Henry, who was not far away, "Henry, I'll go home to visit first. I'll see you around another day."

"Great- great- grandmother, do you know this King of Hell?" Madame Delicia stared at Erin in astonishment. She didn't know what was going on between them.

"Nonsense." Sister Erin rolled her eyes. "I love Henry as my son. Well, in terms of seniority, he is from the same generation as your great-grandfather. If you meet him in the future, you have to be polite. Our Norman family can't be rude."

Madame Delicia was stunned for a moment, then nodded. "Understood, understood."

After that, she turned to the pilot of the helicopter and said, "Tell His Excellency, the King of Hell, our Norman family will be friendly with him for generations."

When everything was settled, the various forces that came to Radiant Island also came to their senses from the earthquake, preparing to leave. They might be a giant in other places, but in this place, they were nothing more than a group of scattered sand.

The ordinary underground forces had truly witnessed the strength of Qi practitioners this time and understood their own weakness.

Those Qi practitioners and forces had finally thoroughly understood how strong Radiant Island was. Even the leader of the Recluse Association had lost an arm and fled in disgrace. Henry's name had been thoroughly spread today.

Silas's strength was remembered in everyone's mind. In the future, when they saw Henry, they must take a detour. Didn't they see that the leader of the Recluse Association had suffered a setback?!

Chapter 1299

All the forces left the scene.

"Henry, we should probably see if there are still any old friends left." The experts from the prison said to Henry. They saw that Erin had found her family. Although they did not show anything, they were envious.

After being trapped in the prison for so many years, they still wanted to see their own children. To them, this was a feeling that was hard to describe.

"Goodbye, seniors." The bandaged Henry gave a fist and palm salute to everyone. "My contact information won't change. If you need anything, please contact me at any time."

"Haha, don't worry. When I come back, I will go to you immediately. Boy, you have been bragging about how beautiful your wife is. I must see with my own eyes whether it is true or not." The small man laughed out loud.

"Absolutely true." Henry patted his chest and promised.

"All right, let's go." The short man and the others didn't say any more unnecessary words. They were impatient.

The people of the Nine Fatale group also quietly left in the crowd.

"Everyone, please wait a moment." Someone stood in front of the group of nine. "My Lord wants to see you."

The Nine Fatale were stupefied for a while.

Those who stopped them added, "Lord of Radiant Island."

The faces of Nine Fatale and the others became tense. They were clear of their performance at the banquet today. If they took the initiative to shout out the words 'Dark Island', they would be in trouble if they were stopped by Radiant Island.

Then, the Nine Fatale saw that Henry, with bandages all over his body, walked up to them.

Since so many things had just happened, the Nine Fatale naturally knew that the person in front of them with bandages all over his body was the former king of Radiant Island! The person who had overthrown The King Region's rule for a hundred years!

"Everyone, you left in such a hurry." Henry walked over and said with a smile. His gaze swept over the Nine Fatale people before finally landing on Li.

The Nine Fatale leader and the others immediately grew nervous. All of them shut their mouths and didn't dare to speak. The Dark Island Lord had been enough to make them feel dread, but the Radiant Island Lord was countless times more terrifying than the Dark Island Lord.

First of all, the name of Radiant Island was well-known, and the title of the King of Hell had spread for many years. It could be said that every underground force would hear the name of the King of Hell like thunder.

In terms of power, the experts behind the lord of Dark Island had lost three of them on the spot by the experts behind the lord of Radiant Island. One of them had his arm chopped off. Although the Nine Fatale didn't know who the expert who had lost an arm was, they knew very well that the Dark Island wasn't as good as Radiant Island.

Of course, if the Nine Fatale were able to clearly understand the identity of the person who had his arm chopped off, then their fear of Radiant Island would only deepen.

Henry looked at the nervous faces of the Nine Fatale group and suddenly realized something. His body shook, and the bandage, which bound him like a mummy, was instantly broken, leaving only his lower body wrapped.

The moment they saw Henry's face, the expressions on the faces of the Nine Fatale and the others became exceptionally interesting.

"I'm sorry. I used my fake name before." Henry smiled slightly and then extended his hand to Li. "Li, I have to thank you. Without you, I'm afraid I would die outside."

"You... you..." Li looked at Henry, and her eyes became wider. She began to stammer. "You are the King of Hell..."

"Call me Henry." Henry shrugged his shoulders and then looked around. "Radiant Island has been destroyed. From today on, there is no Radiant Island or the King of Hell in this world."

There was no Radiant Island or King of Hell in this world!

Henry's words were announcing to the whole world that there was no Radiant Island. When the people from the Nine Fatale left, these words were still echoing in their mind. This was the end of an era, and at the same time, a new era began.

There was no King of Hell in the world, but today, Henry's name was remembered by others.

"Henry, I'm leaving too." Silas appeared behind Henry.

"Senior Silas, you are..."

"Your master left me some words." Silas said, "I have to go and take a look at some of the places. Lend me this book."

Silas' finger was pointing at the blue book in Henry's hand.

"Yes." Henry nodded. "Senior Silas, be careful."

"Don't worry." Silas said, "Few people can hurt me in this world. Besides, I just go to have a look. I'll come back to you for a drink soon. There's something I need to tell you."

"Senior Silas, please tell me." Henry looked serious.

"This world is really amazing." Silas looked into the distance. "A person's speed is related to his talent, but how powerful he can be is related to his vision. The farther you see, the farther you can go. You once asked me what is above the Spirit-controlling, but I don't know how to answer you. It's an answer that both your master and I are looking for. We don't even know what the Spirit-controlling realm is. Some things, we don't know, but that doesn't mean they don't exist. When you enter the Spirit-controlling realm, you will find that this world is really amazing, so amazing that you can't imagine it."

Henry felt slightly puzzled. "Senior Silas, why are you saying these things?"

"I am just being emotional." Silas sighed. "The things left by your Master are really shocking to me. He has seen far farther than I do."

Henry smiled. "Senior Silas, I don't understand what you said, but I'll try to understand."

"Remember, this world is very big." Silas patted Henry on the shoulder. "I'll go first."

Silas finished his words and disappeared directly in front of Henry. Henry couldn't even see Silas' figure. The strength gap between the two was too big.

This was also what Silas did on purpose. Geniuses always died of pride. Silas didn't want Henry to have too much pride.

After everyone left, Henry looked at the broken Radiant

Island in front of him and shook his head. It was time for him to go back, too. He didn't know how Sylvia was doing.

Henry changed into refreshing sportswear and returned to Yinzhou.

When Henry returned home, his heart was filled with joy and he was a little disappointed. The thick layer of ash in the courtyard told Henry that Sylvia had never come back while he was away.

There was an envelope under the door.

Henry went forward, picked up the envelope, and opened it.

On the envelope, there was a line of scarlet words printed in Henry's eyes.

"If you want to keep Peze alive, take the Fire Crystal with you and come to the Su Family's ancestral grounds! You'll have to come alone."

The Su Family!

Henry clenched the letter in his hand tightly. He had once looked for Peze on Radiant Island, but he had not found him. Now, the other party said that they were going to the ancient land of the Su Family. Henry was afraid that this matter was not only related to Peze, but also related to Sylvia!
