

Chapter 1418

Two Supremacy Masters! His word made the higher officials of the academies in the conference room completely fall into a state of stupefaction.

Two Supremacy Masters! Two Supremacy Masters! What kind of concept was this?! In all of Ensver City, there wasn't even a single Supremacy Master.

The Seven Protectors of Mountain Heng have Supremacy Masters, who had traversed the entire Wanshan District and turned it into a mess! They could stand at the peak of the entire Wanshan District.

Two Supremacy Masters, even if they couldn't stand at the peak of the Wanshan District, still can go wherever they want.

Meanwhile, Ensver City was just an unremarkable small city within Wanshan District. Even if they had an official background, how could they compete with the two Supremacy Masters?

Now, if the news of the two Supremacy Masters' appearance was reported, the higher-ups would only think of ways for them to calm the existence of these two Supremacy Master first, there wouldn't be any type of countermeasures made.

Furthermore, there was another crucial point that was that these officials of the academies didn't know what kind of existence Radiant Island was. Right now, what they knew about Radiant Island was that it consisted of not more than five people. However, amongst the five people, one of them, Derby, had already spread all sorts of rumours. Derby was paving the way for Radiant Island. There was also a character named Zylvia who had just connected to the island. The remaining three were members of Radiant Island. One of them was at the peak of the Divine Realm and had unsurpassed combat capability. He had previously faced several experts at the peak of the Divine Realm and didn't show any fear. The divine will that he carried caused everyone to feel fearful. As for the other two, they were both Supremacy Masters! Radiant Island, how unfathomable! All of the higher-ups of the academies smoothed out the logic of this island as soon as possible.

Those who had just said that they were going to fight against Radiant Island shut their mouths obediently at this moment. Who dared to wage a war against such a force?

"Although there are only three people who can fight on Radiant Island, they can suppress the whole Ensver City! Plus, Derby is the first one to fight for them, so Ensver City is no match for Radiant Island now. Moreover, who knows what kind of forces are hidden in the dark in Radiant Island!" "No, we need to talk to Derby about this."

"Yes, let's go and find him. He should be the one who has the deepest connection with Radiant Island."

"We should be able to learn some information regarding Radiant Island from him."

The heads of the three academies made a final decision. They all thought that they would first look for Derby to inquire about Radiant Island. Right now, they didn't dare to face Radiant Island directly.

On the other side, Henry drove Zylvia's car home. Zylvia, who stood proudly in front of everyone, was very careful and respectful when facing Henry alone.

"How do you feel today?"

Henry sat on the sofa, took off his mask, and said with a smile.

"Great."

Zylvia's face was flushed and there was a hint of excitement in her eyes. Today, she had slapped Master Niu a few times. When Master Niu didn't even dare to say anything, she was so excited that she even trembled.

Zylvia had never imagined that she would trample Master Niu underfoot one day. After all, she used to be careful when she saw Master Niu in the past. She didn't dare to imagine such a change in her identity. This feeling was really great. And those annoying media. When she came out of the casino, those people didn't dare to say a word, and even didn't dare to take photos of her! This was the real aura. This was the deterrent and this was life! "Haha, it's okay to feel comfortable, but let me tell you, don't get addicted to it, otherwise, it may ruin you. I still have something to do. I want you to solve some trivial things next."

After Henry said that, he got up and went out.

Zylvia looked at her communication device. In the short period of time from this morning until now, there were no less than 200 missed calls on her communication device, including some big shots who despised her before.

Zylvia smiled and deleted these missed calls. She did not care because she believed that these people would call her again sooner or later, and they would be very humble and very polite! Zylvia sat on the sofa with her eyes slightly closed. She began to recall the feeling she had just had.

No matter which civilization it was, power and wealth were the easiest to intoxicate people.

Derbey was sitting in his own home, looking at more than a dozen people in front of him, all of whom were high-level members of the three major academies.

"Everyone, I think this trip of yours might have been in vain."

Derbey personally served tea to the dozen or so people in front of him. "I know why you're here, but there are some things that I can't and don't dare to tell you. You should know that we seem to be the most glorious of the world, but in front of the Lord of Radiant Island, we're just a bunch of ants. We're nothing."

"Mate, you don't have to say that."

A high-level official of the academy spoke, and his tone began to draw closer. "The purpose of coming here isn't to acquire something from you to target Radiant Island. We just want to know what happened today. I imagine you've heard of what happened as well. It's just been a day. Your lord first destroyed the Meng Family, then killed Master Niu. Right now, all of the major forces in the city are on tenterhooks. We are afraid that the crescent blades of Radiant Island will fall upon us at any time."

"That's right. We just want to know what's the background of Radiant Island. With their current strength, it's impossible for them to only focus on our Ensver City. We've come here to find peace of mind."

"We have known each other for decades. There are some things that we don't have to hide in our hearts. You can tell us and we will know. What should we do next?"

The higher-ups spoke one after another.

Derbey lifted his cup of tea and blew on it gently, his eyes looking around.

"Just say it."

Derbey put the teacup to his mouth, took a sip and said, "In fact, it's not impossible to tell you these things. You should know how I rose. Twenty years ago, a mysterious man provided me with all kinds of resources so that I could take root in Ensver City. I never knew who the mysterious man was until a month ago when a madam appeared in front of me. At that time, I knew that the madam was from Radiant Island. Twenty years ago, the mysterious man was from the same force as the madam. Twenty years ago, I was nobody, but I'm sure that the mysterious man was a Supremacy Master, and the madam who appeared a month ago was also a Supremacy Master."

When Derbey's words reached this point, he completely stopped. The entire living room was completely silent! The higher-ups of the three great academies looked at each other in dismay. Supremacy Master! Supremacy Master again! What kind of background did Radiant Island have?!

Chapter 1419

The three major academies and more than a dozen higher-ups were all in a state of utter chaos. The terror of Radiant Island was completely beyond their imagination, but the most terrifying aspect of it all was that they weren't too shocked after they heard about the presence of the two Supremacy Masters on Radiant Island. In fact, they were even able to accept what had just happened, as though Radiant Island was supposed to be this powerful.

"However, there's one thing you can rest assured about."

Derbey looked at the expressions of these people and gave them reassurance. "Although the strength of Radiant Island is beyond imagination, the goal of the lords of Radiant Island is definitely not a small city like Ensver City. This city will only be a springboard for the rise of Radiant Island, just like how the Noble Berserkers did back then. Therefore, you don't have to find a way to deal with the Radiant Island. According to my calculations, it'll take at most one year for the Radiant Island to expand to the entire region."

"The Noble Berserkers! The Radiant Island can really be mentioned in the same breath as the Noble Berserkers?"

One of them opened his mouth wide.

Derbey smiled. "Although the strength of Radiant Island is far inferior to that of the Noble Berserkers, its rise is even swifter than that of the Noble Berserkers. You don't have to and have no way of competing with such a force. You just have to endure for a year. Then, Ensver City will return to its former state."

Many of the higher-ups of the academy left Derby's residence. When they left, none of them dared to be hostile to Radiant Island again. It wasn't that they didn't want to, but that they didn't dare.

It was certain that from now on, Radiant Island would completely outshine all the major forces in Ensver City.

The bandits outside the city similarly heard the news from Ensver City. When news of the two great Supremacy Masters' appearance spread, every single one of them became extremely excited.

The reputation of Radiant Island suddenly spread throughout Ensver City. The two Supremacy Masters! The residents of Ensver City had never seen a Supremacy Master among the forces in Ensver City, but now there were two Supremacy Masters. Radiant Island became a topic that everyone enjoyed talking about after having a good time.

The prestige of Radiant Island began to spread like wildfire. Three days later, the residents of Ensver City discovered that the three major academies didn't react at all. This allowed them to understand that right now, the three major academies, who had an official background, didn't dare to make any moves against Radiant Island.

Over the past three days, the fame of Radiant Island had skyrocketed dramatically. The existence of these two Supremacy Masters had provided everyone with a clear understanding of the power of Radiant Island.

Of course, there were also some people spreading the news that was unfavourable to Radiant Island. For example, the island set its own rules that they would kill whoever they wanted to kill. Under the coverage of such forces, everyone was not able to live in peace.

But when this kind of news spread out, there were many residents and merchants against it.

"All the people that had been killed by Radiant Island were extremely vicious people."

"When Master Niu wanted to open a casino, he disregarded human life and insulted women. He should have been killed a long time ago!"

"Yes, so is the Meng Family. The actions of the children of the Meng Family were disgusting. The citizens of Ensver City have seen what they were doing. Everyone was only angry but not daring to speak. Now, Radiant Island has come forward to destroy the Meng Family and to punish them as a warning to others. Those playboys have all become much more restrained now. In any case, I feel that I'm living a much more comfortable life."

"That's right. The people from Radiant Island are against villains. What does that have to do with us?"

"Yes, with the existence of Radiant Island, all the bandits around us have become much more restrained. Now our caravans have no need to worry about the existence of bandits. I told this matter to my friend, but he didn't believe that there was a town with no bandits in Wanshan District."

"You guys haven't even heard that the chaos of the Seven Protectors of Mountain Heng is getting worse and worse. Some of the bandits outside the town have already slaughtered their way into the city and the victims' blood is flowing like a river. It's all thanks to Radiant Island that we're able to live such a peaceful life now. You'll know how happy we are when you go to the cities that have been invaded by the bandits."

All sorts of voices rang out. Radiant Island had already gained a certain amount of prestige in Ensver City.

In the past three days, Henry had been staying at home and quietly watching the situation develop. Now the fire was set off and the wind was blowing enough. The next thing to do was to wait.

Zylvia had been in the outside world for the past three days and had met many people. She used to be just an actress in the eyes of those big shots, but she suddenly became the representative of Radiant Island and made them treat her with caution. Many people saw the difference in status and were envious of her. Some of them even secretly asked about how she could join Radiant Island.

In the past three days, Derbey had also asked Henry if he should take this opportunity to recruit more people, but he had been rejected by Henry.

Now, in the eyes of others, the most important thing on Radiant Island was mystery. Only by maintaining this sense of mystery could one continue to be in awe of others.

Henry left home and went to the gate of the community. He saw the old man who liked playing chess. The old man was very bored. He wanted to find someone to play chess, but no one was with him.

When Henry saw the old man for the first time, he wanted to turn around and leave. But it was still too late, and the old man saw him.

"Young man, don't run!"

The moment the old man saw Henry, he rushed over to Henry with the chessboard in his arms. "Let's play two rounds."

"Old man, I have something else to do."

Henry quickly waved his hand to refuse without stopping.

The old man suddenly accelerated and rushed to the front of Henry in one step. He grabbed Henry's wrist. At this moment, Henry's expression became serious. He could feel that the strength that the old man burst out just now was at least at the late stage of Divine Realm! "Young man, I can see that your eyes are dull. Obviously, you are wandering here. Instead of wandering around, you might as well play with me. Last time, I was careless. This time, you won't defeat me!"

The old man held Henry's hand and refused to let go.

Henry rolled his eyes and said helplessly, "Okay, we will just play a few rounds."

Henry knew that the old man was addicted to playing chess. If he didn't play a few games, he wouldn't be able to leave today unless he knocked him down directly. However, the old man just wanted to play chess. Henry didn't think that he should act too harsh.

"Great!"

When the old man saw Henry agree, his eyes were bright and he was full of confidence. "Come on, I'll show you what the real Master of Chess is!"

Twenty minutes later, the old man widened his eyes and looked at the chessboard in front of him. In such a short time, he had lost two rounds.

"Sir, you're playing chess, aren't you?"

Henry got up and said, "Don't play with me next time. I am afraid that you will lose too badly."

"Boy, you're so cunning. You are hiding your killing intent, but you've been holding it in for a long time. I can't figure out what you're going to do until the last moment."

The old man stared at the chessboard and sighed.

Chapter 1420

Henry, who had already stood up, suddenly stopped. He looked at the old man and looked him up and down carefully.

"Young man, there's no need to be surprised. Although you're extremely sharp, there's a divine will in your eyes that I wasn't able to see in anyone in the city. While you're sizing up the surroundings with curiosity, there's a hint of disdain in your eyes. There's a restraining desire to conquer everything. If I'm not wrong, Radiant Island that has been in turmoil recently must have something to do with you, doesn't it?"

The old man put away the chessboard. "Young man, I don't know what kind of existence your Radiant Island is. But there's one thing. The world is not as simple as you think. A tree will be destroyed by the wind. If you do such a thing now, you should think about how to deal with the wind behind you. This big region has existed for thousands of years. In the past thousands of years, there was only one force that had emerged, the Noble Berserkers. It had been squeezed into the top forces of the big regions, but it still couldn't break the pattern. Now, the situation is getting more and more urgent. I hope there will be a young man who can break all this. If things are too extreme, then they must be reversed!"

The old man held his chessboard and staggered into the community.

Listening to the old man's words, Henry felt a little weird, but he couldn't say anything.

"Kid, run! The True Spirit on that old thing is going to find me!"

The Heretic God, who had not spoken for a few days, suddenly spoke.

Henry's face suddenly changed. The old man was actually in the Spirit-controlling Realm! Without thinking, Henry strode away. After more than ten minutes, Henry stopped and frowned. "Did he find you?"

"Didn't you say that no one could find you?"

"There is something strange about that old thing."

There was a panic in the voice of the Heretic God. "I can't tell what kind of feeling I felt just now. I felt a pair of eyes secretly looking at me. The True Spirit on that old man is not simple, but I'm not sure what it is. Anyway, don't get too close to that old man in the future."

"Why?"

Henry was confused.

The Heretic God didn't bother explaining. He just said, "Just don't get too close to him."

Henry smiled and said, "What does it have to do with me if his spirit can find you? Either you tell me what are you afraid of, or I will go and play chess with the old man now. I think he should be very happy to have someone accompany him to play chess."

"Brat, are you threatening me?"

"That's right."

Henry nodded and said, "I just want to threaten you. Tell me, what are you afraid of?"

After Henry asked this question, he waited for a long time, but the Heretic God remained silent.

"Well, since you don't want to say it, I can only try to get answers myself."

Henry said, ready to go to the community.

"Okay, I'll tell you."

The Heretic God sighed. "That day in the library, you should have found out some information about the totem."

"That's right."

Henry nodded. "There are four great totems."

"Not four."

The Heretic God let out a self-deprecating laugh. "In fact, in this world, there's only one totem. It's mine. I can't tell you where I came from, because I don't know how much truth there is in the legend. Do you know how the first True Spirit was born?"

Henry's eyes suddenly became serious.

Henry had learned before that the so-called True Spirit was formed after the death of the most powerful person. The True Spirit would not die, and after it was controlled by others, it would become an existence like a spiritual body. The person who controlled the True Spirit was able to turn into a spirit body after death, but there was a problem. Where did the first True Spirit come from?

No one could explain this question to Henry. This was similar to the question about the chicken and the egg. Which came first?

The Heretic God said, "Actually, I'm also a type of True Spirit, but you should be able to see the difference between me and the other True Spirits."

Henry frowned and thought for a few minutes, and suddenly opened his mouth, "Mind! You have the ability to think!"

"That's right."

The Heretic God agreed. "If you give me a body, I can even be reborn. This is something that the other True Spirits are unable to achieve. The legendary totem is actually the first True Spirit in the world. I don't even know why I have this kind of thinking ability. I can think on my own and I can even seize other's body for my own use. However, the rest of the True Spirits will only have very few thoughts after they are under someone else's control. Trying to seize other's body and use it is completely impossible. Without the support of a huge amount of Spiritual Qi, it will be very difficult for them to even appear. So do you know what my existence means to the other True Spirits?"

Henry murmured, "The possibility of resurrection..." "Yes, so you mustn't let the others find me. In fact, I'm not afraid to tell you. When I hid in your body, I fabricated your consciousness once. At that time, a part of my power was left in your body. If it was discovered by other Spirits, not only would I be out of luck, but also you would be out of luck. We are grasshoppers tied to a rope, both prospering and suffering. My purpose is not to conflict with your target this time. You protect me and when you find your lover, I will tell you the way to get out of here. Then you can go back to the surface. I'll stay in the same place as you do. We'll live in peace so that nothing bad will happen to any of us."

"You have a way to return to the surface?"

Henry was suspicious.

"You don't have a choice. You can only trust me."

The Heretic God said.

This time, it was Henry's turn to ignore the Heretic God.

Today, what Henry wanted to do was to suppress the other families and then expand the sphere of influence of the entire Radiant Island. However, the appearance of the old man made Henry delay his own thoughts. There were too many hidden experts in this world, and there was actually such an expert from the Spirit-controlling Realm in the residential area where he lived. Who knew what kind of experts were secretly spying on him?

Slow down the expansion speed! Henry made a decision. First, he would lay a solid foundation. As for how to do that, he could only start from the masses! After obtaining the approval of the masses, the authorities of the Wanshan District would have to think twice before they could deal with Radiant Island.

Just then, a phone call from Derby came in.

Henry had just picked up the communicator when he heard Derby's agitated voice. "My lord! We've heard the news about Madam!"

Henry's face, which was originally gloomy, was suddenly filled with joy. "Where are you? I am coming to you!"

"At my residence. You know this place. I'm going to..." Henry hung up the communication device before Derby could finish his sentence.

Henry's ultimate goal when he came to the Core was to find Sylvia. If all the things were added together, there was no one who was more important than Sylvia. There was no doubt about this point. 6
