

Chapter 534

The burning torch was covered in kerosene. In the process of tilting the torch, kerosene dripped down and made the flame burn on the ground. If the kerosene fell on a person, there was no doubt that they would be burned on the spot.

Henry's movements were stopped by the young woman's action.

Jenny's looked particularly gaunt under the light of the fire. She had nothing to do with this matter but was implicated.

Seeing Henry stop, the young woman showed a victorious smile on her face.

The village chief of Li's village, who had been sitting on the altar with his legs crossed, slowly stood up. With his crutch, he turned around and stood on the altar. He looked down at Henry and said in an old voice, "Young man, you're in trouble."

"Trouble?" Henry smiled. "I've never known what it means to get into trouble!"

"Really?" The young woman sneered and drew the torch closer to Jenny.

The clothes on Jenny's body were filthy, wrinkled, and her skin was very pale. Outside the iron cage, there was an iron bowl. There were some leftovers in the bowl. The leftovers had been given to Jenny, which meant that Jenny had been locked up in the iron cage all this time!

Such a scene made Henry's eyes instantly turn red. He still remembered that when he first saw Jenny, she was dressed in a white dress and sitting among those children with a smile on her face. She was a very kind person, but at this moment, she was treated like this!

Why was he called The Conqueror?

He dared to do anything others didn't dare to do!

If others didn't dare to kill him, he would kill them!

He attacked the forces others didn't dare to!

In short, in this world, there was no one who could threaten Henry!

No one could withstand Henry's anger! Even if it was Li's Village, whose origin was mysterious or the official others dared not to provoke, they couldn't bear Henry's wrath!

Henry stared at the young woman and said calmly, "I'll give you three seconds to put down the thing in your hand."

"Ha." The woman smiled scornfully. "Are you threatening me?"

"One!" Henry did not answer the woman's question and said directly.

The woman deliberately raised her hand, and the torch was closer to Jenny. The kerosene dripped down to Jenny's side, and only one centimetre away from Jenny's body.

"Two!" Henry took a step forward.

The woman put the torch closer to Jenny. Now, as long as the kerosene could drip down, it would fall on Jenny and light her clothes.

Henry didn't count to three. He said to the darkness, "Kill!"

At the moment when Henry spoke, a cold light appeared in the darkness, from the back of the altar, straight towards the young woman's back.

The young woman did not notice the appearance of this cold light at all. She still looked at Henry as if she was the winner.

The cold light quickly cut off the hair on the back of the woman's neck. At this moment, the young woman was suddenly dragged to another place, leaving the cold light in the air.

The young woman looked at the person in front of her in confusion. "Patriarch."

"Watch your back." The village chief of the Li's Village, who was holding a cane, said in a low voice.

The young woman looked at the place where she had just stood and saw a black figure standing there. The black figure wore a ghost-faced mask and held a long blade in his hand.

It was only now that the young woman felt a hint of coldness at the back of her neck. She stretched out her hand to touch the back of her neck and found that her collar had been cut open, and there was a wisp of hair. If the chief had not pulled her just now, she would not have been able to stand here anymore.

The young woman felt a chill in her heart.

When Henry said the word "kill", the cold light not only appeared behind the young woman but also behind some villagers. When the cold light appeared, eight people were decapitated!

No one in the village had expected this to happen.

The village chief looked at Henry, who was under the altar.

One figure after another appeared behind Henry. Everyone was dressed in black with a mask. They held a long blade and emitted cold light. The cold light spread all over Henry's back. It was like the stars in the night, flickering.

Judging from the cold light, there were at least three hundred of them!

The young woman's arrogant face became a little scared because of the appearance of these figures. She was just nearly killed and knew the strength of these men in black. She didn't even know when they appeared!

"Young man, do you know the consequences of killing people from our Li's Village?" The village chief stared at Henry.

The corners of Henry's mouth curled slightly. "As I said, I never care about the consequences! Kill all of them!"

Reapers behind Henry all scattered around when they heard his word.

At this moment, a bright searchlight suddenly lit up the dark night sky like sunshine.

The roar of the motor sounded, and two armoured vehicles, under the light of the searchlights, came quickly.

"The Conqueror, you've gone too far!" A roar sounded from the night sky.

Then, a figure landed on the altar and stood in front of the village chief.

Henry squinted at the man who appeared on the altar. He was two meters away and wore a black suit. His bulging muscles made his coat swell, leaving an inch of hair, and his face looked resolute.

"Rudolf Tai?" Henry slowly spat out a name.

The name was not well known, nor was it on the world's top 100 list. But he was definitely able to defeat any of the people on the world's top 100 list.

In China, there was an organization called Topmost.

There was a total of 23 people in the Topmost Organization, and each of them was a master. They were carrying out the most difficult tasks in China.

The word "Topmost" had a well-known reputation around the world.

And Rudolf was the leader of the Topmost Organization!

Henry had some respect for the organization, not because of their strength, but because of their character.

Among the 23 talents, any one of the underground forces could enjoy a very high treatment, but they had been silently offering, which made Henry particularly admire.

The appearance of Rudolf was beyond Henry's expectation.

"It's rare that The Conqueror can remember me, a nobody." Rudolf stood on the stage and stared at Henry.

"Why would you stand up for Li's village?" Henry smiled and waved his hand at the same time to stop the Reapers.

The two armoured vehicles stopped at the same time, and 13 fully armed soldiers came down from each car. Their movements were all at the elite level.

Chapter 535

As the two armoured vehicles stopped, two more heavy tanks slowly drove over.

The heavy track gave people a feeling of extreme depression and the black cannon barrel was filled with a chill, making it difficult for people to breathe.

Since then, more than a dozen figures appeared on the altar of the Li's Village at a breakneck speed. They all stared at Henry, and each of them looked as if they were facing a formidable enemy.

These figures were all the Topmost people. When facing the legendary The Conqueror, even if there was only him, they had to be cautious.

"My Lord, please let your people disperse. I will give you a reasonable explanation for this matter." A voice came from behind Henry.

Henry turned around and looked at the person.

It was a man in his 60s. The hair on his ear burns seemed to be frost white, and his whole body exuded a sense of majesty, which made it hard for people to look at him directly.

Henry smiled and said, "Oh, I didn't expect that a small village would make the 4th most important person in China to come here in person."

The person in front of him was the 4th chieftain, a big shot who often appeared in the news!

He came here in person because of Li's village. This made Henry once again confused about the identity of this village.

The 4th chieftain looked at the top of the altar and said, "Chief Li, please let her go."

"Release her!" Chief Li didn't say anything this time. He waved his hand and ordered.

The young woman was full of displeasure. "Patriarch, we..."

"Do it!" Chief Li shouted. No matter how arrogant he was, he did not dare to be complacent in front of the 4th chieftain because he naturally obeyed his orders.

The young woman reluctantly walked to the iron cage and unlocked the lock.

With a creaking sound, the door of the iron cage was gently opened.

The young woman shook her head and walked aside.

"Go and hand her over to The Conqueror," Rudolf said to a woman next to him.

The woman nodded, she turned around and picked up Jenny, who had been unconscious. The woman jumped down from the altar and handed Jenny over to Henry.

Henry held Jenny horizontally in his arms. Looking at Jenny's haggard look, he couldn't help showing a distressed look in his eyes. Jenny's body was full of dust, and many parts of her arms had been cut off. Her wrists were red. Apparently, she was tied by iron chains.

Henry's face became more and more ugly. He could think of the helpless scene when Jenny was imprisoned in the iron cage. Now, he could not wait to tear all the people in Li's Village into pieces!

Henry especially looked at Jenny's clothes, but there was no trace of being torn by others, which made him feel much more relieved.

"Don't worry. You disturbed the ancestral hall of the Li family. They just wanted to worship the ancestors with this woman. The request for worshipping the ancestors must be that this woman is innocent. You can rest assured." The woman who just handed Jenny to Henry said.

As a woman, she was also angry because of Jenny's situation.

Henry nodded. He looked at the 4th chieftain and asked, "How do you want to solve this matter?"

The 4th chieftain said, "I know that your wife's company has suffered a serious financial impact recently, and she has lost more than a billion yuan. The Li family can compensate you for these. Also, we will give corresponding privileges to her company as compensation for her suffering during this period."

"Hehe." Henry chuckled. "Do you think that I'll care about the billion yuan and the privilege you mentioned?"

The 4th chieftain shook his head. "You don't care, but this girl cares. And you have to think about it clearly. The people of the Li family are more than one village. It's no exaggeration to say that their power is so big that you can't imagine. Once one offends the people of the Li family, there will be a lot of trouble for him in the future."

"Are you threatening me?" Henry suddenly glared at him.

"I'm just telling the truth." The 4th chieftain looked at Jenny and said, "You, The Conqueror, are powerful and fearless. No one can do anything to you, but you have to consider that this girl, without your strength, still has to live in China. Even if she is not in China and is living abroad, it is easy for the people of the Li family to find her, unless you can always keep her on Radiant Island. Do you think this is fair to her?"

Henry's eyes suddenly turned cold. "Then I'll destroy the Li family you mentioned."

As soon as Henry finished his words, those Reapers all showed their weapons in unison.

The faces of Rudolf and others on the altar changed, and they all made a gesture of preparing to fight. The fame of The Conqueror was too great. Although there were two armoured vehicles and tanks at the scene, The Conqueror alone destroyed hundreds of fighter jets. If they really fought, the two tanks would be nothing.

"The Conqueror, don't be impulsive!" The 4th chieftain shouted.

"So what?" Henry's eyes were cold. As soon as he saw Jenny's current appearance, his anger rose uncontrollably. He made a low voice, "Action!"

Those Reapers would only obey Henry's orders. Even if Henry made them self-deprecating at the moment, they would not hesitate a little.

The Reapers were about to raise their blades and rush towards the villagers of Li's Village.

"The Conqueror! Stop!" Another voice sounded.

Nobody could guess the gender based on this voice.

When Henry heard the voice, he knew who the speaker was.

A man was standing on a treetop, wearing a linen robe and a bamboo hat.

"The Conqueror, come with me. Hand your lady over to them. She will be safe." After saying that, the man jumped gently, stepped on another branch, and drifted away.

Henry waved his hand and called a female Reaper. He handed Jenny over and said, "Take her to the hospital for treatment. Everybody, leave!"

The Reaper nodded, held Jenny in her arms, and jumped up.

The rest of the Reapers gradually hid in the dark.

Henry looked up and jumped hard. He also disappeared in the same way as the man in linen robe.

After Henry left, Rudolf and others all breathed a sigh of relief. When they faced Henry, they felt extreme oppression, which made them hard to breathe.

Henry followed the man in a robe and jumped around the treetops for five full minutes. He was so fast. He stopped when he saw the man in robe not far away about to leave Li's village.

"Do you know? The Li family of the Longxi?" The voice of the man in a robe sounded.

Chapter 536

Henry looked at the man in linen robe standing on the treetop not far away.

Director Wei had mentioned it to Henry before, but now the man in linen brought it up again.

Henry knew a little about this, but he didn't know too much about it.

Henry replied, "I've heard of it."

The man in robe raised his head slightly and looked up at the sky. "The world is so big. You can't imagine. The Conqueror, to be honest. Radiant Island is just a Holy Land called by a group of stupid people. In front of the clan, your island is nothing!"

The voice of the man in robe sounded. He turned around and looked at Henry.

It was the first time that Henry had seen the face of the man in sackcloth. His face was very old and his eyes were cloudy.

The man in a robe opened his mouth for the first time. His voice was a little hoarse, which made people feel uncomfortable. "You have already entered the Qi-controlling Realm and are also a member of the Recluse Association. It's time for you to know that there are countless talents in the five thousand years of history in China. Although time has passed, some forces still exist. The Li family of the Longxi is one of them. As the royal family of the largest prosperity in China, the Li family has been passed down until today. The Li family you have seen is just a very small branch of the Li family."

Henry frowned. Yuan Li destroyed the country and established the Tang Empire. The Li family of the Longxi was Li Yuan's descendant!

The man continued, "Since ancient times, the clans have always existed, and they won't easily show up. Among the clans, there are a lot of masters who can control the Qi. The Li family of the Longxi is not some clan that you can provoke now. Remember, don't get yourself in trouble."

After saying that, the man in a robe jumped gently, fell on the treetop, and disappeared in the darkness.

The man's words were short, but the amount of information he brought was huge.

If the Li family of the Longxi had been passed down till now, then how many clans there were in China? How many people were in charge of it? Was the group of people who came to the Zhu family also a part of some clan?

One questions after another came, which made Henry extremely confused.

Henry never thought that he had stood on the top of the world. Now that his view partly widened, he saw so many things that ordinary people didn't know.

"The clan..."

Henry muttered these two words, shook his head, and flew out of Li's village.

The night was getting darker and darker, and the citizens of Yinzhou City were still living as usual. No one knew that in Li's village not far away, the 4th Chieftain came in person, and two tanks were ready to fire at any time.

In the special care unit of the First People's Hospital in Yinzhou.

Jenny was lying on the hospital bed. She had changed into a clean and tidy hospital gown, and the dust on her body had been carefully wiped away by the nurse.

Sylvia sat by the bed and looked at Jenny, who was unconscious with complicated emotions in her eyes.

Regardless of why Jenny was involved in this matter, it was still because of Lins Group. This made Sylvia feel apologetic. The woman, whom she regarded as a rival in love, suffered so much because of her own company.

"You are really a silly woman." Sylvia put her hand on Jenny's forehead and stroked her hair. "He was just talking big. Is it really worth suffering so much for him?"

As soon as Sylvia finished speaking, she was silent for a while and then smiled.

"Maybe, we just like him like this. We indeed have so many similarities. If possible, I really want to sit down and have a talk with you."

Sylvia whispered in the ward.

In the observation room of the hospital, Henry and President Ma were standing in front of an instrument and looking at the feedback.

"Young doctor, don't worry. President Qin is just too tired. She just needs to rest more. There are no serious injuries on her body." President Ma handed two X-ray photos to Henry.

Henry took a look and felt much relieved. "That's good. President Ma, I'm sorry to trouble you during this period."

"Young doctor, what are you talking about? This is what I should do." President Ma said, "By the way, I wonder if you will have some free time during the next period?"

"What's wrong?" Henry asked.

"Many senior practitioners of traditional Chinese medicine have benefited a lot from the lesson you taught last time. They published several articles in international magazines, but the response was not very good." President Ma took a look at Henry on purpose and continued, "Many medical institutions abroad questioned what you talked about last time. They thought it was just mystifying some tricks and playing tricks. Recently, they quarrelled very fiercely and even made an international medical conference. You know, speaking of which, it was actually a contest between two sides, so..."

Hearing this, Henry understood his meaning. He nodded and said, "Okay, if I have time, I'll go and have a look."

Henry once promised that person to carry forward traditional Chinese medicine. This time, if he was to part in the international conference, it could be regarded as a way of fulfilling his promise.

After hearing Henry's promise, President Ma's face lit up with joy. "Thank you so much. I'll inform those seniors right away."

"Ok."

After talking with President Ma, Henry came to the ward. Looking at Jenny, who was lying on the bed with a pale face, he felt helpless. Henry had not had this feeling for a long time. In the past, he would tear up his opponents no matter how strong or weak they were. Even if he had to pay a hefty price, this time, he felt helpless. He wanted to destroy the entire Li's village, but he couldn't do anything about it.

If what the man in line robe said was true, there were many masters of Qi in the clan. Once he started attacking Li's Clan, Jenny, including Sylvia, the Su Family, and even the Radiant Island, would be retaliated by the Li family of the Longxi.

Henry clenched his fists tightly. All of this was because he was not strong enough! If he were standing in the position of being admired by so many clans, the trouble now would no longer be a problem!

Since Henry established Radiant Island, this was the first time that he couldn't wait to make himself stronger!

Sylvia turned around and saw Henry standing behind her with his fists clenched. She asked worriedly, "Honey, what's wrong?"

"Everything is fine." Henry shook his head and turned around abruptly. He opened the door of the ward and walked to the corridor.

The empty corridor made Henry let out a long sigh of relief. He almost couldn't suppress the anger in his heart.

Henry took out his mobile phone and made a phone call. "Wade, did you find the two people from the last time?"

"Boss, they've been staying in Yinzhou City for a long time. I'll send you the address now." Wade's voice sounded.

The two people mentioned by Henry were the man and woman who fought with Henry for the white crystal after the last stone gambling auction. Henry was sure that the Qi in his body came out because of the energy extracted from the crystal. He wanted to figure out what the crystal was.
