

Chapter 607

Henry no longer wanted to think about whether he was powerful or weak in the Qi-controlling Realm. As he came into contact with more and more enemies in the future, he will figure that out. It was useless to think too much now. Anyway, he would be satisfied as long as he could defeat the enemies.

He jumped forward, like a great hawk spreading its wings, and attacked toward the head of the elder of the Zhao clan.

The elder just got up from the ground, and his arms were numb, which made him scared. Facing Henry's palm, he did not dare to resist at all, but could only retreat quickly. He knew clearly that he was not the match for this young man at all. He had just struck out with all his strength, but he was completely defeated, so he could only look for help.

The Zhao clan had been strong for too long. This kind of long-term strength made the Zhao clan, especially the elders in high positions, have an illusion that they could not be defeated, and the Zhao clan could not be defeated.

When the elder found that he was no match for Henry, he didn't panic too much, because he had already determined that this young man would not dare to make any trouble in front of the Zhao clan.

Unfortunately, he was greatly wrong this time. Even when Henry's hand had already pinched his head, he didn't realize that he had failed.

This time, the killing intent in Henry's heart had been determined. He would not show any mercy at all. Even if this was a Qi-controlling master, even if this was an elder of the Zhao clan, he was already a dead man in Henry's eyes. With the strength of his hand, there was a "bang" sound, and the blood gradually poured over Henry's body.

Looking at the beheaded body that was slowly falling in front of him, the irritation and aggression that had been suppressed for a long time were finally released by Henry at this moment. He looked up at the sky and roared. Then he stared at the members of the Zhao clan and rushed toward them.

The death of a clan elder and the head that exploded scared the members of the Zhao clan. When they saw Henry coming to kill them, they didn't even have the courage to resist and were determined to escape.

"Run away?" Henry smiled gently. "No one can escape today!"

Henry jumped up like a cannonball and then landed heavily in front of one member. With a violent wave of his fist, Henry directly blew up a person. There was no fancy movement, but it was so direct and terrifying!

The great power, with a crazy tearing force, crushed the enemy in front of Henry.

"Wow, Boss is so fierce?!" Wade held a broadsword and fought with the clan elder in front of him. Then he looked at Henry with an exaggerated expression. The two of them, who could only resist the elder with difficulty, couldn't even withstand one blow from Henry.

"Rather than sighing at others' strength, it is better for you to pay attention to yourself. You are an idiot!" An anxious voice from Future sounded beside Wade. She had already taken out a fire weapon to fight with the clan elder and temporarily suppressed him behind a stone house. However, the clan elder's speed was too quick. She was unable to aim at him effectively. Currently, she was just trying to stall for time.

"Have you noticed that Boss is a little different?" The voice of Moon Goddess sounded by the side, with a trace of worry.

"Different? What's different?" Wade shook his head. "I think he is great."

Moon Goddess drew out her long whip and fought her opponent face to face. She said, "A long time ago, Boss didn't kill people in person, unless someone really provoked him. Boss would only deal with some important roles. But today, it could be said that Boss would kill people whenever he sees them!"

Outside the house, many members of the Zhao clan rushed to the house and came to the inner yard. In the entire Zhao county, there were more than 7,000 people from the Zhao clan, which was definitely a huge number. When they rushed into the house, it looked like there were millions of them.

Facing this many enemies, Henry was not worried at all. Instead, he showed a hint of excitement on his face. He clenched his fists to control his Qi, and started harvesting life after life.

Shouts of war, screams of agony, and angry roars rang out continuously in the Zhao Manor.

Fortunately, most of the residents in this area were surnamed Zhao. If they lived in the downtown area, they might have already caused panic. However, even so, some people still heard the sound of explosions coming from here.

A rich smell of blood spread from above the manor.

Henry's body had been dyed red with blood. The so-called battle of life and death was not a battle between two armies. It was just a way to show their own power and strength. The real battle of life and death was silent, and every move was fatal!

The head of the Zhao clan, Eric Zhao, arrived at the house. The door had been completely blocked by the bodies, and the blood flowed down the door frame to the street.

Eric could tell at a glance that the people in black wearing masks in the courtyard were the people in the video he had seen.

Eric controlled his Qi and jumped over the wall. The two Reapers saw him and rushed toward him immediately. Eric drew out a machete from his waist and drew an arc in front of him. The two Reapers who were rushing toward him stopped abruptly and then fell forward.

What happened here was immediately noticed by others. Those Reapers who fought with the members of the Zhao clan no longer rushed to Henry, but tried to avoid Eric as much as possible.

When training, the first thing the Reapers learned on Radiant Island was to not do anything meaningless. When encountering an undefeatable enemy, the most important thing they had to do was to protect themselves. Blindly rushing in a fight was not courage but stupidity!

Every Reaper had this kind of awareness in their subconsciousness. When they found that Eric was an enemy that they could not defeat, no one would confront him head-on. They were clear that such a strong man would naturally be dealt with by others. What they had to do was to exert their ability as much as possible. Even if they died in the battle, it would be the greatest contribution they could make.

Eric took the initiative to attack some Reapers. When he discovered that they were all avoiding the battle, he frowned. The enemy's battle ability was far better than that of his own clan members.

The scream from the inner courtyard attracted Eric's attention. Eric stopped focusing on the outer courtyard and rushed directly to the inner courtyard.

As soon as he entered the courtyard, Eric glanced over the whole situation. He recognized a few of the enemy's masters at a glance. Among them, six were fighting with three clan elders and one was slaughtering.

Eric frowned even more, because he knew that a total of four clan elders had come this time, but now there were only three of them left. Didn't that mean that the other person had already met with misfortune?

Eric fixed his eyes on Henry, who was slaughtering, and recognized at a glance that this was the person from the video. He wanted to bury the Zhao clan first, and then bury the Li family.

"B*stard, how dare you!" Eric shouted and rushed to Henry with both fists controlling Qi.

Henry, who had just killed a person, felt a gust of wind coming from behind him. He suddenly turned around and swung his fists.
