

Chapter 609

Another Zhao's elder was killed.

At this moment, there were only two elders of the Qi-controlling Realm left in the Zhao clan, and a group of ordinary disciples who had not even reached the Qi-controlling Realm were still trembling in this bloody hell.

"My king, something bad has happened." A cry of surprise came from behind Henry.

Henry turned his head and saw that Alfred, covered in blood, appeared behind him. He looked very weak and staggered as he walked.

"Miss Sun has been taken away."

Alfred pointed to the wall in a hurry.

Looking at the place where Alfred pointed, Henry saw that Leo, who had been hiding in the ancestral temple, grabbed Lam and climbed over the high wall at the outermost edge of the courtyard. Just looking at Leo's movements, Henry was sure that he had definitely reached the Qi-controlling Realm. Except himself and the patriarch of the Tang clan, no one from Radiant Island would be able to defeat him.

Henry did not hesitate and ran after them. When he jumped out of the inner courtyard wall, Henry's voice rang in the ears of every Reaper.

"Kill them all!"

The voice seemed to come from the bottom of the hell.

When Henry got out of the house, he saw a supercar. It

In the inner courtyard, a person had been hiding beside the wooden coffin the entire time. When the red figure appeared, he lit up the coffin filled with gasoline and the fire instantly lit up.

"Recluse Association, you have been suppressing my clan. Now that my clan has been attacked by traitors, our deal with your Recluse Association is over." A clan elder's eyes were bloodshot. The Zhao clan had been completely destroyed this time.

In the yard there were patriarch's head, bodies of two clan elders and countless disciples had died. Even if they were able to survive today, they would still fall out of the clan's ranks and would be hard for them to rise again.

The red figure glanced around, and he could tell at a glance that Future and others, who were fighting with the Zhao clan elder, were not in the Qi-controlling Realm.

The Recluse Association had its own rules. He was not allowed to attack ordinary people at will.

Those who had not reached the Qi-controlling Realm were ordinary people.

The red figure asked, "Where is the killer?"

"He just ran out to hunt down my Zhao Clan. That's our only hope!" The clan elder said, gritting his teeth. Now, they put all their hope on Leo. Once Leo's bloodline was awakened, a few years later, the Zhao clan might have a chance to start all over again.

When the red figure heard this, he immediately thought of the two supercars that had just rushed out. He didn't

When the red figure heard this, he immediately thought of the two supercars that had just rushed out. He didn't stay here for too long and rushed outside to chase them.

The main purpose of the Recluse Association was to restrict the clans, but at the same time, they had to maintain the balance. Otherwise, once the balance was broken, even they would not be able to continue maintaining this peaceful situation.

"Tell me, where did the two cars from the Zhao clan go?"
The red figure took out a communicator.

"Towards the city!"

The red figure looked in the direction of the city. There was a tall pagoda, a property that belonged solely to the Zhao Clan. The pagoda was the centre of the entire county and the centre of the Eight Trigrams and Nine Diagrams Formation!

In the city, in the room at the top of a hotel building, a silver-haired beauty stood quietly in front of the floor-to-ceiling window and looked at the burning fire in the Zhao's house. She smiled slightly and said, "Brother Henry, it seems that you have successfully passed the first obstacle, but the biggest challenge is still waiting for you."

After the silver-haired beauty finished, her gaze was fixed on the high pagoda in the city. Her red lips moved slightly, and she murmured, "I don't know if you, after seeing the power of the bloodline, can continue to live in such a stable way. This world is much more wonderful than you think!"

Late at night, the two supercars ran wildly around the county. They did not care about the traffic lights on the road.

Leo's face was stern. Lam was completely unconscious and was lying in the passenger seat. Leo had stepped on the gas pedal and accelerated as fast as he could.

The county was not very big. Under the speed of the supercar, it took Leo only five minutes to arrive at the lower part of the pagoda. He opened the door, carried Lam, licked his lips bloodily, and rushed up to the pagoda.

Around fifteen seconds after Leo rushed inside, Henry's supercar also came to the bottom of the pagoda. Before the car stopped, Henry rushed out of the car and went straight inside.

This pagoda was 63 meters tall and was the highest building in the whole county. The pagoda was a private building. When Henry rushed into the tower, he found that the elevator had led to the top floor. No matter how hard he pressed, there was no movement.

Henry didn't have much time. Thinking that Leo had stopped the elevator, he looked at the emergency stairs and ran over.

The 63-meter-high pagoda and the countless stairs gave one a sense of despair.

Henry took a deep breath, and ran up as fast as he could. The stairs he stepped on were cracked, so it could be seen how terrifying the power of Henry's leg was.

When Henry was halfway, he found that the pagoda was in the centre of the formation. Eight Trigrams and Nine Diagrams were built around the pagoda.

Along the way to the top of the pagoda, even though he was strong, Henry couldn't help gasping.

The space at the top of the pagoda was not big. It was a dark and circular hall. At this moment, a beautiful figure was lying in the centre of the hall. Besides the beautiful figure, there was a figure sitting cross-legged.

"You're slower than I thought."

The seated figure gradually rose to his feet and let out a low and deep voice.

"Do you know that our Zhao clan has been preparing for 21 years for this day!"
