

Chapter 610

In the round hall, there were some narrow windows through which the night sky could be seen.

Henry looked at the figure in front of him, who was not far away. He did not act rashly. After coming to the top floor, he had a bad feeling.

The moonlight shone on the figure. Leo's face, which had been a little immature, now looked a little bit weird.

"From the day I was born, my bloodline power had traces of my ancestors. From that day onward, our Zhao Clan has been planning for this day, the day that I would awaken my bloodline power! This day, we have been waiting for twenty-one years!"

Leo slowly took a step forward.

"Twenty-one years, do you know what these twenty-one years mean? It means that I've been waiting since I was born, waiting for this day. This day, for me, is the beginning of my transformation, or a trial. It is like a nightmare, torturing me. From the day I can remember, I have had nightmares. I never slept well for a day! Now, finally, the day is here!"

"Do you know that I saw you the day you walked into my family? The first time I saw you, I felt a thorn in my heart. It made me extremely uncomfortable. I couldn't wait to pull it out. My bloodline tells me that you have something that made me very uncomfortable!"

Leo walked under the moonlight. His entire face was reflected under the moonlight. He was smiling, and the corners of his mouth were lifted up. He didn't stop smiling.

"Do you know how much efforts our Zhao clan has made over the past 21 years? The whole county was getting ready for today, collecting countless resources to provide energy for the awakening of bloodlines. Don't you know that you almost ruined the plan of our Zhao clan? 999 people die in vain because of you!"

Henry stood there, listening to Leo's words, and shook his head silently. Leo's mind had been completely distorted.

At the same time, what Henry didn't expect was that the Zhao clan was building everything according to the Eight Trigrams and Nine Diagrams for the awakening of blood. For this, so many people had been killed. This was different from a war. It was just a cruel massacre.

"Hahaha, hahahaha!" Leo suddenly burst into laughter, which was particularly loud. "However, I still have something to thank you for. Over the years, the Zhao clan has intermarried with outsiders, so the bloodline is got thinner and thinner. I was still thinking about how to purify Zhao's bloodline. If I become the head of the Zhao clan and then slaughter the whole Zhao clan, I would inevitably be considered mad. You have solved a problem for me in advance."

Henry said, "The Zhao clan put their hope in you. They've really picked the wrong person."

"Hope? You say hope!" Leo's voice suddenly raised. "You mean I'm the hope of the Zhao clan? The biggest joke I've ever heard in the past 21 years. How dare you say that the Zhao clan regards me as a hope? You think too highly of my position in the Zhao clan! I've always been a tool for them. Have you ever experienced the feeling of soaking in the blood every night? Have you ever experienced the feeling of drinking the blood of your clan members every day? Hope? F*ck hope!"

Leo suddenly became very excited and irritable. His body was shaking, and he was waving his arms aimlessly, like a patient who couldn't control his movements.

"You can choose to leave." Looking at Leo in front of him, Henry suddenly felt sad for him. If he was really living like this, it was really like purgatory.

"Leave? Why should I leave?" Leo's voice was full of doubts. "Do you know what the awakening of bloodline power means? What does it represent?"

Leo looked out of the window.

"From today onward, from now on, I, Leo Zhao, am the God of the world! The only God! Even a so-called Martial Emperor, from now on, will have to bow at my feet. Do you understand? God's power isn't something that a person like you can understand!"

There was a "dong" sound outside the window, which came to Henry's ears.

This was from a bell tower in the county, which rang at midnight every day.

At the moment when he heard the sound, Henry's face changed and he shouted in his heart. Leo had been stalling for time. Lam had already arrived at the Zhao clan. The Zhao clan had been waiting, waiting. It was already midnight!

Henry put strength into his legs, and his whole body was like an arrow, rushing toward Leo.

Leo turned around, grabbed Lam, who was lying on the ground, aimed at Lam's white arm, and bit it down. He did not care about Henry, who was rushing toward him.

Henry clearly saw that Leo, whose teeth were as sharp as a beast's teeth, easily broke Lam's tender skin and sucked her blood.

Henry raised his hand and punched Leo in the face.

Leo suddenly turned around and blocked Henry's punch with his back.

Henry clearly heard a crisp clicking sound. His punch broke Leo's spine.

Leo's body went limp uncontrollably, but his teeth still bit on Lam's arm. He refused to let go, and his eyes were full of madness.

This kind of madness made Henry feel something was wrong. He kicked out, the Qi formed a whip and hit Leo's side rib. At this time, several of his ribs were also broken, but Leo still did not release Lam.

Henry frowned. He did not dare to pull Leo away by force. Leo's sharp teeth stuck in Lam's forearm. If he pulled him away by force, he would definitely tear Lam apart. What he could do was to stimulate Leo through pain and make him open his mouth.

Henry kicked Leo again. Leo's ears, nostrils, and even the corners of his eyes were all bleeding and broken bones had stuck in his viscera, but he still refused to loosen his mouth, and his Adam's apple kept moving.

Henry's foot heavily stepped on Leo's back, crushing and exerting strength.

The sharp pain finally made Leo unable to bear it any longer. He opened his mouth and let out a scream.

At the moment when Leo opened his mouth, Henry kicked him three meters away. Then Henry looked at Lam, whose arm had a row of sharp bloody holes, which was shocking.

Although Leo was kicked away by Henry, there was no regret on his face. Even if his whole body was bleeding, he was still smiling.

"Ha... cough... cough!"

His lungs were bleeding, and mouthfuls of blood were coming out of his mouth.

"Do you know that this woman, for me, is the best tonic in the world? Our Zhao clan has searched the blood of 70,000 people in the whole county. Her blood can be perfectly integrated with mine. As long as I replace my blood with hers today, my bloodline power will be awakened."
