

Chapter 630

After spending a night, Anna had been completely realistic and accepted the facts. That investment proposal was not something that she could come up with at all.

The middle-aged captain sighed heavily and said, "President Jiang, are we really going to give up?"

"What else can I do?" Anna smiled helplessly. "This world doesn't always cater to one's wishes."

Another knock sounded on the office door. The HR manager pushed the door open and walked in. She looked at the middle-aged captain in the office and then said to Anna, "President Jiang, Barret has motivated a lot of people. Everyone has begun to pack their things. Today, there are not many people who are working normally. They are waiting to be fired. We..."

Anna stood up and said, "Well, let's inform everyone that those who are willing to stay in the company, I, Anna Jiang, will find a way to keep them. Those who want to leave, I, Anna Jiang, will not force to stay. Let's have dinner together tonight so that we can have a good farewell."

Hearing this, the HR manager looked sad. All the people in Collier Security were well-trained by President Jiang. She spent a lot of energy on each person, hoping that they could have an extra layer of security when they carried out tasks in the future. However, there were always some people who didn't care about President Jiang at all and wanted to leave after getting the benefits.

"Well, go and inform everyone. It's not that our company is going bankrupt. We are just losing one star." Anna waved her hand.

The HR manager shook his head. Everyone had been working in this industry for many years, and everyone was familiar with the situation. More or less, they all understood the market. Today, the two companies, Guineay Security and Superstitious Security, were able to make Collier Security lose one star, which meant they could also make it impossible for Collier Security to continue in the security industry.

To put it bluntly, losing a star meant bankrupt in the future!

In the security industry, there was only first place. No one would remember the second. The employer would only find the best enterprise in the business when he hired someone.

The HR manager turned around and when he just walked to the door of the office, a figure squeezed in ahead of him.

"Mr. Zhang?" Anna was surprised to see the figure coming in.

Yesterday, Henry waved his hand and left. She thought that Henry had already left.

"Why are you still here?" As soon as Henry entered the door, he asked in confusion, "I've been waiting for you downstairs for a long time."

"Waiting for us?" Anna was confused. She didn't understand what Henry meant.

"Yes." Henry nodded. "Isn't the last round of grading supposed to be this morning? Why don't you plan to attend?"

"Mr. Zhang, I..." As soon as Anna opened her mouth to speak, Henry strode forward.

Henry grabbed Anna's arm with one hand and said, "Hurry up, it's time to go, or we will be late."

Before Anna could react, Henry dragged her out of the office.

The HR manager looked at Henry, who pulled Anna out of the office in surprise, and then looked back at the middle-aged captain.

The middle-aged captain's eyes lit up. He said to the HR manager, "Don't inform anyone yet. This time, there may be a turnaround!"

After the middle-aged captain finished speaking, he strode out of the office and chased after Henry and Anna.

Although the middle-aged captain did not understand what Henry wanted to do, he had an intuition that this time, he would not let it go.

As soon as Henry and Anna walked into the elevator, the middle-aged captain rushed in.

The three of them went down to the first floor and headed outside of the company.

In the company hall, Barret had packed up his things. When he saw Anna walking out, he sneered. He was ready to leave, waiting for Anna to come back after grading.

The middle-aged captain drove Anna and Henry to the officials' building.

When they came to the building, they had already seen that Mr. Hu and President Wong's cars were parked on the parking. The two luxury cars worth millions of yuan were particularly conspicuous.

"Sir, have you found the proposal?" The middle-aged captain stopped the car and couldn't help but ask Henry.

"No." Henry shook his head. "However, who said we must find a proposal?"

After Henry finished, he walked to the building before the middle-aged captain and Anna could figure it out.

It was very easy to find Deputy Mayor Shan's office. The three of them just looked at the layout of the office building and easily arrived at the office.

In front of the office of the Deputy Mayor, Henry and the other two heard a voice coming from the office.

"Mayor Shan, this time, I hope our cooperation will be extremely successful." Mr. Hu's voice came from the office.

Accompanied by a burst of laughter of the Deputy Mayor, the door of the office opened. Mr. Hu and President Wong were ready to go out of the office.

The moment the door opened, Mr. Hu and President Wong saw Henry and the other two standing at the door, which made them quite surprised. They thought that Collier Security's people would not come this morning at all. After all, even a brainless person knew what was going on in this round of grading.

"Hey, isn't this President Jiang? What are you doing here?" Mr. Hu said with a strange look on his face.

Henry smiled and said before Anna could open her mouth, "Of course we are here to deliver something."

"Deliver?" President Wong said curiously, "It's a coincidence that I and Mr. Hu have found the investment plan Mayor Shan lost yesterday. Now it's on the office table. What do you want to deliver?"

When the Deputy Mayor in the office heard the noise at the door, he strode out. When he saw Henry and the other two, he frowned and scolded them, "What are you doing here?! Who let you come?!"

"We are here to participate in the final round of grading." Henry put his hands in his pockets and went straight to the office of a Deputy Mayor. He found a sofa and sat down.

When Deputy Mayor Shan saw Henry taking the initiative to come in, he thundered on the spot, "Who let you in? Get out!"

"Oh." Henry chuckled. "Deputy Mayor Shan, listen to what you said. Both of them are here to participate in the grading. If they can come in, why can't our people come in? Is it that Deputy Mayor Shan doesn't want us to participate in this grading?"

Henry's words didn't sound special, but after examining them carefully, it could be noticed that his words had some hidden meaning.

Deputy Mayor Shan took a deep breath, stared at Henry and said, "What a sharp-tongued thing! Well, you said that you, Collier Security, came because of the grading. I ask you, where is the proposal? Mr. Hu and President Wong have helped me get the lost proposal. Collier Security, what did you bring?"

Mr. Hu and President Wong, who were standing at the door, stared at Henry as if he were looking at a fool. They thought that this boy was really stupid if he did look for some lost business plan.

Chapter 631

After asking Henry, Deputy Mayor Shan put his eyes on Anna and the middle-aged captain.

Anna and the middle-aged captain looked at each other. In fact, they also wanted to know why Henry came here this time.

When Deputy Mayor Shan saw that Anna and the middle-aged captain did not speak, he snorted and looked at Henry. "I'm asking you, did you find the proposal I lost?"

Henry curled his lip and shook his head. "No."

"No?" There was a playful expression on the face of the Deputy Mayor. "You haven't found it, but you still want to participate in this grading?"

"Maybe it's because of his shamelessness." Mr. Hu continued.

"Little brother, I think that you are a fool." President Wong covered her mouth and smiled.

Outside the door, Anna and the middle-aged captain looked at Henry in confusion. They didn't know what he had in mind.

Henry stretched himself and leaned on the sofa. "I didn't bring you to the missing proposal, but I brought you something else."

Henry put his hand into his pocket, took out a USB flash drive, and then threw it on the tea table in front of him.

Deputy Mayor Shan subconsciously looked at the USB flash drive thrown out by Henry.

Henry's voice rang out. "I didn't find the proposal, but I found all the bank account information that you applied for over the years, including the property under your name, the property under your wife's name and the property under your son's name. If I'm not mistaken, your monthly salary, Deputy Mayor Shan, is 7,500 yuan. Your wife works in the hospital, and her salary is around 6,000. Your son is still in college and has no income. With your income, Deputy Mayor Shan, it is impossible to buy two villas in Du Hai."

As soon as Henry finished his words, the face of Deputy Mayor Shan suddenly became ugly. He stared at Henry and said, "Boy, I don't understand what you are talking about. You've got wrong information about those villas, haven't you?"

Henry did not pay attention to what the Deputy Mayor said and continued to say, "The year before last year, you received 18 million yuan from Cavologies Company. Last year, 24 million yuan from Aprico Entertainment Company. This year..."

When Henry said this, he did not continue, but focused his eyes on Mr.

Hu and President Wong at the door.

Deputy Mayor Shan trembled in his heart. He was very clear that what Henry just said was completely true. How could he know this?!

Henry leaned on the sofa and said, "Deputy Mayor Shan, there are a lot of things, do I need to tell you one by one? Such as the two luxury cars under your wife's name, the four houses under your child's name, and millions in deposits. These are quite inconsistent with your salary, aren't they?"

The Deputy Mayor secretly clenched his fists and stared at Henry with a gloomy face. "Boy, are you threatening me?"

"Does this count as a threat?" Henry had a strange look on his face. "I just said some facts. Why would you think they are threats? Is it possible that in the eyes of the Deputy Mayor, these facts can be used as threats?"

"What about the evidence?" Deputy Mayor Shan asked, "You said that all these things have something to do with me. Just because of this USB flash drive? Where is the evidence against me?"

Henry shrugged his shoulders and said, "Evidence? It's none of my business. But I think that the Anti-corruption department has a way to tell whether it's true or not."

Henry took out his mobile phone and looked at the screen. "According to the time, people from the Anti-corruption department should arrive soon."

As soon as Henry's voice fell, there was a dense sound of footsteps in the corridor outside the office.

Standing at the door, Mr. Hu and President Wong looked at the place where the footsteps came from, and their faces suddenly became very gloomy.

A group of people in uniforms walked towards the office of Deputy Mayor Shan. When the leading middle-aged man walked to the door of the office of the Deputy Mayor, he rudely pushed aside Mr. Hu and President Wong who stood at the door. Then he walked into the office with a piece of red-titled document in his hand. He said to the Deputy Mayor, "Bart Shan, you are suspected to be related to several corruption cases. This is the arrest order. Please come back with us for interrogation!"

Seeing the arrival of the person, the Deputy Mayor's eyes showed a fluster. "I'm afraid you have made a mistake. When did I commit corruption?!"

"We'll investigate whether you really did it or not. Please cooperate! Take him away!" The leader did not waste any time talking. He waved his hand and immediately two people came up and grabbed Deputy Mayor Shan's shoulders from the left and right.

When Mr. Hu and President Wong saw that such a thing had happened, they quickly lowered their heads and were ready to slip away.

"Where are you going?"

President Wong and Mr. Hu had just taken a few steps when they were grabbed by someone.

The leader went to Mr. Hu and President Wong and said, "We suspect that you have something to do with some bribery cases. Come back with us to assist in the investigation!"

"This..." Mr. Hu was just about to open his mouth to refuse him.

"Take him away!" The leader did not give them any chance at all and directly took him away.

Henry and the other two were also taken back because they were here. But soon, the three of them were released. The Deputy Mayor Shan, Mr. Hu, and President Wong were still in there, and suspected for a lot of things.

"Anna, it seems that your Collier Security, have saved its status this time." Henry sat in the car and said to Anna.

Anna finally understood what Henry meant by saying there were other ways yesterday. Since there was an agreement between the Deputy Mayor, Guineay Security and Superstitious Security, then they had to assess it from this aspect. There were many ways to solve the problem, but her thoughts were limited. She couldn't think of any other way.

"Mr. Zhang, it's all thanks to you this time." Anna sincerely thanked Henry.

"Thank me for what?" Henry waved his hand. "Don't forget that we are partners, haha!"

The captain was responsible for driving. Now, he was full of excitement. If the Deputy Mayor was really sentenced this time, and Mr. Hu and President Wong were suspected of bribe, then there would be no problem for Collier Security this year, and they would be guaranteed a five-star ranking!

Inside the Collier Security building.

Barret stood in front of the company's entrance and could not wait any longer. He had pursued nearly 40 people to resign. As long as he resigned today, he could directly be promoted to the manager of Guineay Security. The day he would get to the office, he would directly be promoted to the manager, and his salary would be doubled!

Barret was waiting for Anna to come back, and then he would leave with his men.

According to his expectation, a car slowly drove to the entrance of the company and parked in the parking lot.

Henry and the other two walked out of the car.

At the same time, Barret shouted, "President Jiang, is the grading over? Are people coming to remove your star soon? I hope your company will not bankrupt."

"Bankrupt?" When the middle-aged captain heard what Barret said, he smiled and said, "We, Collier Security Company, won't go bankrupt any time soon."

 Watch Ads to Get 15 Vouchers