

Chapter 632

"Haha." Barret sneered. "Whatever."

Barret went to the parking lot and opened the door of his car.

"Where are you going during business hours?" the middle-aged team leader asked.

"I'll do whatever I want to do. It's none of your business." Barret said disdainfully. Anyway, from the moment he tried to persuade people from Collier Security to go with him, he was arguing with Anna and the captain.

"Barret Yu, don't say that I won't show you any mercy. Now you come back and apologize to President Jiang. Regarding what you did before, I will consider that you did this just because you are young and you lack experience." the middle-aged captain said.

"Well, what if I don't?" Barret snorted. "Will you keep me here when you start firing other people?"

"Collier Security will not fire people!" The middle-aged captain shouted. This time, he not only said it to Barret but also to all the people in the company. "On the way back, we have received a call from Director Mu. The company's rating for this year will still be the five-star rating!"

Five stars!

Everybody's first reaction to the middle-aged captain's words was disbelief and doubt.

In the past two days, in order to draw more people over to his side, Barret had said too many unfavourable things about Collier Security. In his opinion, Collier Security was a company that was about to go bankrupt, and he had created the image that Guineay Security was extremely powerful. He also stated the fact that Guineay Security had an official background.

Under the influence of these words, almost everyone believed the fact that Collier Security was going to fall. Now the middle-aged captain said that Collier Security would keep a five-star rating? What about Guineay Security?

Barret sneered. "You can say whatever you want. Anyway, I'm not going to serve you!"

Barret said as he sat in the car and started the engine.

Just as Barret was slowly driving backwards, several official vehicles came in from the entrance of the company and parked in a line downstairs of Collier Security building.

The front car door opened. Director Mu walked out of the car and held a banner in his hand.

"Haha, President Jiang, congratulations!" Director Mu got out of the car and said with a voice of happiness, "Congratulations to President Jiang for maintaining the five-star rating!"

"Director Mu, it's all thanks to you." Anna smiled at Director Mu.

Director Mu shook his head and said, "President Jiang, I'm just a messenger. This time you got a very powerful person in your team!"

Director Mu took a special look at Henry when he said this.

He had already heard about the incident of the Deputy Mayor. What made him surprised was that the things of the Deputy Mayor were all hidden so well that there were almost no clues left. However, all the things, from a few years ago to today, were all disclosed. Every single transaction was discovered! The power behind Henry, which helped him find these things in such a short time, was incredible!

Seeing Director Mu looking at him, Henry smiled.

Director Mu quickly showed a friendly smile.

Collier Security's employees all saw the arrival of Director Mu. When they saw the banner in Director Mu's hand and heard Director Mu's words about the five-star rating, they suddenly burst into an uproar.

Collier Security was not downgraded! They kept five stars! That meant that the remaining two companies were all defeated by them in this grading! This kind of grading was not only about getting downgraded but more importantly, they were able to establish the position as the leading company in the security industry!

Barret shouted that Collier Security was going to be downgraded and that in the future the security world would be under the leadership of Guineay Security. At the end of the day, no one knew what had happened to Guineay Security. However, Collier Security's position had not been shaken at all. Moreover, they had been continuously rated as a five-star company. This also showed that Collier Security was very powerful.

Barret, who was driving backwards, saw the scene with his own eyes. His eyes suddenly became dull. He didn't notice the rapid beeping of the alarm in his car at all. Barret kept shaking his head and murmured, "Impossible. How? How could it be like this?"

With a loud bang, the feeling of a violent impact made Barret come to his senses.

Barret's Audi A3 hit the wall behind him. He had no time to care about what was going on with his car. If Collier Security maintained the five-star rating, they would not fire people. Then what was the purpose of his previous behaviour? He could not resign at will because of the previous agreement he had signed. What should he do in the future?

Director Mu distributed the banner to Anna and at the same time publicly announced that Collier Security would continue to maintain the five-star rating.

After Director Mu officially announced it, all the people in Collier Security's building cheered. Compared with those who wanted to leave, there were more people who wanted the company to continue being successful.

Barret sat in the car and looked at the scene in front of him. His face was extremely pale.

The HR manager strode to the front of Barret and said to Barret inside the car, "Barret Yu, you are still under the contract, but you kept on smearing the image of the company and urging everyone to resign. It has caused serious damage to the company's interests. According to the company's agreement, you shall be punished. As a penalty, you need to pay 10 times of the original training costs. The total amount is 131,764 yuan. Our lawyer will contact you. You should prepare in advance."

After the HR manager finished speaking, he did not give Barret a chance to speak and turned to leave.

Listening to the HR manager's words, Barret's heart instantly skipped a beat. 131,764 yuan was not a small sum for him. The Audi A3 he got was bought with a loan. It had not been paid off yet. It was impossible for him to find this amount of money.

Among the employees of Collier Security, some people were worried. Those were the people who had been persuaded by Barret and wanted to leave with him. But they did not behave as rude as Barret.

Standing in front of the door of the company, Anna said loudly, "I know, in these two days, there were a lot of rumours against the company, which made the younger brothers and sisters feel a little disappointed with the company and want to leave. I can understand this. From now on, I hope that everyone can continue to trust the company. No matter what kind of decisions you have made before, I still welcome you to stay and fight together in the future. That's all!"

Anna's words relieved those who were still worried. The few of them had already packed up their things and were ready to leave. They silently put their things back to their original places.

Henry stood on the side, took out his mobile phone and looked at his travel route.

After the grading ended, Collier Security still maintained five stars. At noon, Anna organized all the people in the company to gather together for a meal. She spent two hours organizing everything. When it was time for the meal, Anna was looking for Henry, but she could not find him.

At this moment, Henry had already sat on the bus to Ning province and sent a message to Anna, "I will be in Yinzhou waiting for good news."

Anna looked at the message on her cell phone and smiled silently.

Chapter 633

It was extremely boring to be on a long-distance bus. Henry sat on the bus and quietly looked out of the window at the scenery. As long as he thought of his family, he would unconsciously smile and soon he would be home. He was happy.

It would take more than half a day and a couple of hundred kilometres to get there. Henry counted the time and figured out that he could arrive home before dinner and prepare dinner in advance so that he could surprise Sylvia.

At Yinzhou Airport.

A figure walked out of the exit with big steps. Along the way, this figure attracted a lot of attention. He was two metres tall and strong, giving people a feeling of incredible strength. Most importantly, this person wore an eyepatch on one of his eyes, just like a pirate on TV.

This figure walked out of the airport, looked at everything in front of him, took a deep breath, and then laughed in a low, strange voice, "Haha, Yinzhou! Henry, you live in Yinzhou! I heard that you have a beautiful wife. Just wait, I will make you suffer for what you did to our Yongfeng Industry. Your punishment will be unbearable. Lins Group, just wait!"

The figure tore off the eyepatch, revealing an expressionless eye. "In order to take revenge on you Henry, I sacrificed my eye. I will make you suffer!"

The person who walked out of the airport was exactly Cody Yang, whom Henry saw in Hangshi. Now Cody, who was much taller than before, looked much stronger. He exuded a cold aura, which was much different from his previous appearance.

When Henry helped Chris Xiao, he directly knocked down Yongfeng Industry, and Frank Shang also cut off ties with Yongfeng. Yongfeng turned from a top enterprise in Hangshi to the low-class one.

Cody didn't take a taxi and strode out of the airport. He was very fast, and he could take nearly two meters with each step.

An ear-piercing sound rang out from Cody's body.

Cody stretched out his left arm and touched his left arm with the index finger of his right hand. A small screen lit up on his left arm. If one looked carefully, one would find that Cody's whole arm was completely mechanical.

A white mask appeared on the screen on Cody's robotic arm. The mask was the face of the angel.

"According to your location, you've already arrived at your destination."

The host with the white mask let out a pleasant female voice.

"Yes!" Cody's other eye showed a look of hatred. "This time, I will make Henry regret what he did very much!"

The mask owner snorted. "I don't care what you want to do, but don't forget what your main task is. If you screw this up, you know the consequences!"

Cody immediately showed a respectful look, and he put his feet together. He stood straight and said, "Got it!"

"All right, don't let me down!" The masked host said and then turned off the camera.

A few seconds after the video ended, Cody removed the respectful look on his face and his arm returned to normal. He looked in the direction of Yinzhou and murmured, "Fire Crystal! It's a good thing. I just need a nail-sized crystal to ensure this body would work for hundreds of years!"

At 4:30 p.m., a long-distance bus from Meng Province stopped at Yinzhou station.

Henry got off the bus and went to the grocery market immediately. He carefully selected some ingredients first and then returned home.

At this time, Jenny and Sylvia had not yet finished the work, and Lisa was probably also in the Lins Group.

Henry got into the kitchen and began to prepare.

Soon, it was six o'clock in the afternoon, and delicious food had been placed on the table. Henry sat on the sofa, waiting for the three women to come back.

At 6:30 p.m., Henry still did not see the signs of Sylvia and the other two.

Taking out his mobile phone, he resisted the impulse to call Sylvia. After all, Henry wanted to give her a surprise so he waited for ten more minutes.

Sylvia and the other two didn't arrive after ten minutes, but a few police cars did.

The police cars stopped at the gate of the villa. More than a dozen armed policemen walked down from the cars and rushed straight into the villa.

The leader made a few gestures and shouted, "You go to the front, and you check the back. Search!"

Henry looked at the arriving police officers and pushed the door open directly. "What's going on? What are you doing?"

When the leading police officer saw Henry, he quickly walked up and asked, "Mr. Zhang, are you all right?"

Henry was famous in the Yinzhou police station, and 90% of the police officers in Yinzhou knew him.

Henry's face was full of doubts. "What do you mean by that? What happened?"

The police officer looked at Henry, took a deep breath and said, "President Lin is missing! We have received orders from our superiors to come and check the villa."

"What!" Henry was shocked. Without saying anything else, he took out a car key directly from the shoe cabinet next to the door and drove the Ferrari parked in the yard in the direction of the company.

At this time, the Lins Group was completely blocked by the police. Nobody was allowed to leave without authorization. It was almost time to get off work. The employees of the Lins Group were still trapped in the building. They didn't know what had happened.

On the top floor of the Lins Group.

Director Wei stood in Sylvia's office with his men.

"Secretary Lee, please repeat what happened at that time to me from beginning to end." A police officer, holding a camera, stood in front of Secretary Lee.

On the other side, Jenny, who was holding Lisa, looked at the window with a worried face. On the floor-to-ceiling window of Sylvia's office, there was a huge hole.

Secretary Lee looked at the police officer in front of her and was about to speak when she was interrupted by a loud shout.

"What's going on?! Where's Sylvia?"

The moment they heard the voice, Secretary Lee and Jenny looked out of the door at the same time. When they saw Henry, Jenny and Secretary Lee, who were in a state of panic, were much more relieved.

Henry rushed to the office anxiously.

"Dad!" As soon as she saw Henry, Lisa screamed happily. At the same time, she reached out her little hand and said, "Dad, hug me."

Jenny held Lisa in her arms and walked to the side. "Lisa, be good. Your father has something to do. Let's wait for him to finish things and he will hug you, okay?"

Lisa cutely nodded her little head. "Okay."

"Mr. Zhang, you're back." When Director Wei saw Henry, he said in a hurry. At this moment, Director Wei was also very anxious. This was the legal wife of the big shot in front of him. If Henry was to blame him, he would lose his job.

"What the h*ll is going on?" Henry frowned.

The secretary took a deep breath and said, "Mr. Zhang, at about 4:30, I was going through some documents in my office when I suddenly heard the sound of glass breaking in President Lin's office. I came over and found that President Lin was missing."

Chapter 634

Henry thought for a moment, and it was just the time when he got off the bus. He looked at the huge hole in the glass and went over to search for some the traces.

The hole was nearly two meters high, and Henry carefully observed it. The first crack that appeared was from the outside. It was caused by the impact, and there was a lot of glass debris on the ground. According to the degree of damage, the person who rushed in must be extremely powerful!

Henry leaned his head out of the window and squinted at the wall of the whole building.

About 30 seconds later, Henry turned around and said to Director Wei, "Director Wei, please help me find someone through the surveillance of the whole city."

Director Wei quickly responded, "Mr. Zhang, just say who we need to find."

Henry said, "A man, between 2-2.10 metres tall, shoe size 43. This man's arms are longer than regular people's arms."

"No problem." Director Wei immediately waved his hand and arranged people to investigate.

"One more thing", Henry said, "When you find him, don't make any moves. Inform me immediately! You can let Lins' employees go home, the other party has run away."

"Hurry up. Go and do it immediately. Notify all the people to set off and block all the intersections. Investigate every car carefully!" Director Wei ordered loudly.

After Director Wei gave the order, he quickly left with his men to deal with the affairs.

"Dad!" Breaking free from Jenny's arms, Lisa trotted all the way and hugged Henry's calf. "Dad, where is Aunty Sylvia?"

Lisa widened her eyes. Her big, intelligent eyes were full of innocence.

Henry smiled and picked Lisa up. "Aunty Sylvia went to buy you some new clothes."

"Wow!" Lisa's eyes were filled with excitement. "I like Aunty Sylvia. Dad, ask Aunty Sylvia to be my second mother, in that way I will have two mothers, okay?"

"Okay." Henry rubbed Lisa's little head. "But Lisa, you have to be obedient now. Why don't you go home with your mother Jenny first? Dad will go to find your mother Sylvia and bring her back to play with you."

"Okay!" Lisa nodded with a look of joy in her eyes.

Henry handed Lisa to Jenny. "You take her back to rest first. This time, they came for me. There are police at home, so you don't have to worry."

Holding Lisa in her arms, Jenny looked at Henry with concern. "Then you should be careful."

"Don't worry!" Henry nodded.

When Jenny and Lisa left, Henry frowned. He had been worried all the time, but the child was here just now, so he forced himself to behave naturally.

"Secretary Lee, do you have something to say to me?" Henry looked at Secretary Lee and asked. The first moment he entered the office, he saw Secretary Lee winking at him.

The secretary nodded, took out a note from her pocket and handed it to Henry. "Mr. Zhang, I found this on President Lin's desk."

Henry took the note with a few big words written on it. "Henry, if you want your wife to live, you should hand over Fire Crystals!"

There was a signature on the back of the note. It was Cody Yang! And there was also a phone number under the signature.

"He?"

Henry immediately thought of the rich second generation from Hangshi. After he had destroyed the Yongfeng Industry from the side, he did not care about them anymore. Now he had reappeared, and he was able to climb such a tall building?

Henry directly took out the phone and dialled the number on the paper. It only rang a few times, and then the phone was connected.

There was a burst of low and hoarse laughter on the phone, "Haha, Henry, you are a little slow. I have waited for you for more than two hours. Do you want your wife to die?"

"Cody Yang?" Henry asked in confusion.

"Haha, what, don't you recognize me? I was not like this when you humiliated me! Henry, I will give you two hours to prepare what I want. In two hours, I will contact you again. Remember, you only have one chance. If you can't satisfy me, I can't guarantee that I won't do something to your beautiful wife. Believe me, you will regret it!"

As soon as Cody finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

Hearing the busy tone on the phone, Henry dialed another number and said. "Help me track the person I just talked with. I want his whereabouts and send all the people out to Yinzhou to conduct a deep search!"

Henry also knew that he was doing things rapidly. Whether the person on the other side of the phone was Cody or not was still uncertain. It was very likely that he was be used by others. In the current situation, the best way was to calmly analyze it and then check the possibilities one by one. But when it came to Sylvia, Henry had to act fast.

"Secretary Lee, as for the company's affairs, just find a way to make people calm down. Don't make them panic." Henry said to Secretary Lee and strode out of the office.

The secretary nodded.

When Henry came to the first floor of the Lins Group, the guard outside had slowly dissipated. Henry stood in front of the company and carefully observed all the people. He did not find anything unusual.

When Henry thought about things, he would always analyze them from several angles and then test them all again. Like now, he was thinking about this matter. Did some company's people take part in this? Did anyone create an illusion and entered the company from the outside? In other people's eyes, this kind of multi-dimensional analysis and verification may be very troublesome and complicated. After all, it would take too much effort. But in Henry's world, it was very basic.

As far as he had seen, there was nothing wrong within the company. Henry didn't get any strange vibes. There were a lot of things that looked complicated for other people, but in fact, it was very simple. To turn complexity into simplicity and to turn simplicity into complexity. Truth and deceiving were tricks often used by the kidnappers.

After Henry left the Lins Group, he was also ready to take part in the search. This kind of search did not have any concrete goal. To put it bluntly, he had to think about a place that could be considered a hidden place and go there.

When Henry just walked out of the building, seven people came in front of him. They were four men and three women. Their walking posture was very firm, and it could be seen that they were martial artists.

The seven people went straight to Henry and stopped. The leader was a middle-aged man. He took out an ID from his coat pocket. "Henry Zhang, right? We have something to ask you. My name is Bryce Jin. This is my ID. You can call the Public Security Department first and ask about my identity."

Henry looked at the ID the other party had taken out. And his eyes focused on two words- "Sharp Knife".

Chapter 635

"People from Sharp Knife?" Doubts appeared in Henry's eyes, and then he asked Bryce, "What do you want from me?"

"There is one thing that we are investigating. We need you to cooperate with us." A young woman behind Bryce said, "According to the investigation, you are a legal husband of the president of Lins Group, Sylvia Lin, am I right?"

"Yes." Henry nodded.

"Let me ask you." The young woman stared at Henry. "Recently, have Lins Group done something illegal?"

Henry's eyes flashed with a cold light. He looked directly at the woman. "What did you say?"

"Noelle, don't talk nonsense!" Bryce scolded the young woman and then said to Henry, "Mr. Zhang, we are clear about what just happened here. Tell us the truth. This time, we are chasing a fugitive. He is connected to at least three cases. He arrived in Yinzhou today. We suspect that this matter has something to do with this fugitive. I hope you can cooperate with us."

"Cooperate?" Henry sneered. "By cooperate you mean I should answer questions about what kind of illegal things Lins Group has been doing?"

Noelle, who had just spoken, snorted. "Henry Zhang, you have to understand that this is not to help us but to help yourself. The few cases committed by the fugitive recently are related to kidnapping. None of the hostages survived. In the previous three cases, he asked the other party to give him some research data. According to our investigation, the research data were all illegal. Now he targeted the Lins Group. Obviously, there are a lot of shameful things in your Lins Group, right?"

"Oh." Henry nodded and gave a thumbs up to Noelle. "Your analysis is very thorough, good job!"

Of course, Noelle saw the sarcasm in Henry's eyes. "Henry Zhang, I'm not in the mood to joke with you. Last time, we had almost caught the fugitive. If he hadn't suddenly come to Yinzhou, he would have been caught. This incident was caused by your Lins Group. You're adding trouble to us!"

Henry said with a teasing smile, "If you have the ability, go find this so-called fugitive. If you could catch him once, you can catch him again. If you don't have the ability, don't kowtow to our Lins Group."

"You!" Noelle's eyes widened.

"All right, cut the cr*p!" Bryce glared at Noelle and said to Henry, "Mr. Zhang, I hope you can tell us what you know and cooperate with us. It's also a good thing for you if we arrest the fugitive soon. The previous three hostages were all killed. I think you don't want your wife to die, do you?"

Henry looked at these people in front of him with a puzzled face. "I'm confused. You ask me the questions. Do these questions have any necessary relationship with this fugitive? Is it possible that the fugitive would show up just because I have answered your questions?"

"Your answers will help us!" said Noelle.

"Oh?" Henry was curious. "How? Could you please explain to me?"

"You just need to cooperate. Why are you asking so many questions?!" Noelle shouted angrily.

"Sorry, I don't have time to play with you here. With your efficiency, I'm afraid the fugitive will escape again, and you won't be able to catch him." Henry waved his hand and strode toward the exit.

"Henry Zhang, stop!" Noelle stepped in front of Henry. "I'm telling you, if you don't answer our questions, you won't be able to leave!"

"You mean that you cannot arrest the fugitive, but you can arrest me?" Henry said with a smile.

"Mr. Zhang, to tell you the truth, our responsibility is not only to arrest criminals." Bryce came over and said to Henry, "So I ask you to cooperate. It's good for both sides."

"Okay." Henry nodded. "I'm telling you clearly that Lins Group didn't do anything shady. Now I'm going to find my wife. If you stop me again, I'll suspect that you are working with the kidnapper and deliberately stalling."

"Stalling? Who do you think you are?" Noelle says disdainfully.

Henry didn't want to talk to them anymore. He took a step to the side and strode out.

"Stop!" Bryce shouted, "Henry Zhang, I'll tell you once again. If you don't cooperate, don't blame me for taking some forced measures!"

Henry turned around, looked at them coldly, and said, "I'll explain it to you. If you bother me again, I don't mind killing all of you!"

"Henry Zhang, don't go too far!" Noelle shouted. "Do you know what you are doing now? We can arrest you! Publicly threatening the officials and hindering the law! I can lock you up at any time!"

Henry shrugged his shoulders and said, "It's up to you. If you want to catch me, you can try."

After saying that, Henry went straight to the Ferrari parked in front of the company, opened the door and got in.

There was a roar of car engines, and the car disappeared in front of Bruce and the others.

Everyone looked in the direction of the Ferrari, and Noelle's eyes were full of hatred. "Whole team, are you really going to let him go like this? He is a bit too arrogant!"

With a frown, Bryce said, "Follow him and see what he's going to do!"

One person from the team took out a tablet and looked at it for a while, then said, "Team, according to the street surveillance, he is heading to the north side of the city."

"Let's go. Keep up." With a wave of Bruce's hand, everyone got into a car with yellow plates and chased in the direction that Henry had taken.

Henry was driving while looking at his mobile phone. On his phone, he had just received a message and had found the address of the person who had just talked to him. Through the rearview mirror outside the car, Henry noticed the car with yellow plates following closely behind his car.

Henry shook his head, ignored them, and went to the address on the phone.

In an underground parking lot, Cody put a communication device inside of the garage. Then he walked to his car, looked at Sylvia, who was lying unconscious in the back seat, licked his lips, and said, "B*tch, although I can't do anything to you, I am sure that after this incident, I will find countless people to come here. I will make them broadcast and make Henry watch how his wife suffers all the humiliation!"

Cody opened the door with hatred, got into the driver's seat, and drove away from the parking.

Five minutes after Cody left, a Ferrari drove into the garage. Henry slowed down the car, looked around slowly, and finally stopped in front of a parking space.

On the column next to the parking lot, Henry saw the communication device which was blinking. The car with yellow plates stopped in front of Henry with a sudden brake.

Bryce and the others rushed out of the car.

"Step back!" Noelle shouted at Henry, then walked to the column reaching out for the communication device.

"I suggest you don't touch it!" Henry reminded her.

"Ha." Noelle sneered and grabbed the communication device without paying any attention to Henry's warning.
