

Chapter 652

In the past few days, Secretary Lee had been in contact with Anna and had arranged for people to get the business certificate of Collier Security Company.

Henry found Sylvia and told her that he planned to arrange some staff in her company.

"Just arrange someone for security." Sylvia said to Henry, "Have you opened your company?"

Henry smiled and said, "I've just finished decorating it today and I'm going to open tomorrow."

"Do you need me to bring some people to support you?" Sylvia smiled as she asked.

"No, no." Henry waved his hand and said, "I don't have extra people to arrange for you. If you were to bring people, I don't think that three hundred of my people would be enough to protect all of them."

Sylvia covered her mouth and giggled.

At nine o'clock the next morning, Henry, holding a plaque with the words "Collier Security Company" written on it, went to his business room.

The plaque was made of peach wood, matching the Chinese decoration style.

Henry came to the company's door and opened it. The residents here were all ordinary people. In order to avoid unnecessary attention, Henry found a chair, stepped on it, and put on the plaque.

"Haha, ready to open?" A loud laugh came from the side.

Henry had just hung up the plaque, but before he could get down, he turned his head and saw a strong middle-aged man standing behind him.

"Leopard Kurata?" Henry looked at the man with a puzzled face. It was Channing Lin's father, the second master of Green Leaf, Leopard Kurata.

Now Thunder Monster abdicated and gave Green Leaf to Helen. Helen directly gave it to Henry. Henry also naturally handed Green Leaf to Leopard Kurata. It could be said that the current head of Green Leaf was Leopard Kurata.

"Haha, after all, I'm your second uncle-in-law. You don't have to call me by my name in the underworld." Leopard Kurata said.

Henry curled his lips and said, "I'm afraid that if I call you uncle-in-law, you won't accept it."

Leopard nodded and said with a smile, "You're right. Leopard Kurata sounds better. Channing heard from his sister that you are going to open a company, and I was wondering if there is anything I can help. As a result, you hung up the door plate so quickly. What's going on? Are you going to start today?"

"Yeah." Henry nodded and joked, "It's better to open early. After all, as a man, I should have my own career. Otherwise, I would be regarded as a man who lives off a woman."

"If you are living off a woman, there is no man in the world who relies on himself." Leopard Kurata shook his head and pointed to the back of himself. "When I saw your sign here, I bought two flower baskets from the flower shop over there. I wish you have a prosperous business."

"Thank you very much." Henry looked at the two baskets behind Leopard Kurata. They were two flourishing evergreen trees, which had a great meaning. Henry did not refuse Leopard's gift. He jumped down from the chair, walked over, and picked up one basket in each hand. Each basket weighed 150 kilograms. Henry easily walked into the company.

Looking at Henry's relaxed movements, Leopard Kurata took a deep breath. Even now, he had some admiration for his previous courage to go against such a person.

Leland, who was not far from Henry's company, looked at Henry with a sneer. Then he went to the upstairs of his company and said respectfully to the two people sitting on the sofa, "Brother Long, Brother Tigar, that man is here."

The two men, who were called Brother Long and Brother Tiger, got up from the sofa and patted their clothes.

The person called Brother Tiger was 1.6 meters tall, with a fierce look on his face. Brother Long, on the other hand, had a lot of muscles all over his body, which would make people feel terrified at first glance.

Brother Long and Brother Tiger were the hatchet men of Green Leaf. When they were in the underground wine cellar fighting, Brother Long had a conflict with Henry at that time. Brother Long, who was the fourth leader of the gang at that time, was finally downgraded to an ordinary member who had to take care of the venue.

Brother Tiger looked at Leland and said, "He's here. Where's the stuff you've prepared?"

"Here, here." Leland smiled and took out a suitcase. When the suitcase was opened, hundreds of yuan bills could be seen.

Leland nodded and bowed, "Brother Long, Brother Tiger, there's a total of one million yuan here. Please accept it."

"Okay, you are reasonable." Brother Tiger patted Leland's face and then strode downstairs. "Leave today's matter to us. You can leave the money here first. When it's done, we will come back to take it."

"Thank you, thank you." Leland bowed repeatedly. Although it was painful for him to hire two people and spend one million yuan this time, it was absolutely worth it. Now Leland was the only security company in this street. If there was another one, the business would definitely be affected, and the loss in one or two years would definitely be more than a million yuan. What's more, Leland now held a huge grudge against Henry. It was worth spending one million yuan to let his two brothers from Green Leaf teach this guy a lesson!

Brother Long and Brother Tiger walked out of Leland's shop, and Leland followed them. He looked at Henry's shop with a proud look. At the same time, he took out his mobile phone preparing to take the video. These people were from Green Leaf, so he felt pretty relaxed.

At this moment, Leland was waiting to see Henry's panicky and pleading look.

The distance between the two companies was not big. Brother Long and Brother Tiger arrived at the company in two steps.

Henry held two baskets with evergreen trees and looked around on the second floor of the company. He was confused about where to put them.

Leopard Kurata saw that Henry was carrying two heavy baskets as he was holding two plastic bags. He didn't even have the intention to put them down. It made him admire his previous courage even more.

Leopard Kurata said to Henry, "You are busy, so I'll go first. I have a lot of things to deal with in the club."

Leopard Kurata walked to the first floor. Just as it was about to go out, he heard a loud abuse coming from outside.

"F*ck, who told you to start a company here? Did you inform Green Leaf?"

The abuse was clearly heard by Leopard's Kurata.

When he heard the word "Green Leaf", Leopard Kurata didn't show up yet. He asked subconsciously, "Why, do I have to report to you when I want to open a company?"

The sound was a little familiar to Brother Tiger and Brother Long outside the door. They couldn't remember for a moment and didn't care about it. Brother Tiger replied loudly, "It's always us, Green Leaf, who decide. If we don't agree, you can't open here. Who dares to open it?"

"Humph!" Leopard Kurata snorted. "Why don't I know that Green Leaf has such a big influence?"

Hearing this, Brother Tiger scolded on the spot, "Fu*k..."

"F*ck?" Leopard Kurata appeared from the entrance of Henry's company.

Brother Long and Brother Tiger, who were standing at the door of the company, were stunned when they saw Leopard Kurata. Almost at the same time, both of their faces turned pale. They finally understood why this voice sounded so familiar.

The arrogant Brother Tiger looked at Leopard Kurata and didn't dare to speak. He subconsciously hid behind Brother Long.

"Second... Second Master..." Brother Long swallowed with difficulty.

"Brother Long, you are quite brave. I've been wondering why my reputation is so bad recently. Is it because of you?"

Chapter 653

"Second Master, I..." Brother Long opened his mouth. He dared to be arrogant in front of others, but he couldn't show any arrogance in front of Leopard Kurata.

In the past, Brother Long's status in Green Leaf was very high. At that time, Brother Long was called the first fighter of Green Leaf. Even Leopard Kurata couldn't compare with him. This also improved Brother Long's reputation in a short time. He regarded himself as the fourth master of Green Leaf.

However, that time when they were fighting in the underground ring in wine house with Black thunder's people made Brother Long understand that with his own strength, he was nothing. Among the members of Green Leaf, there was a super master!

Leopard Kurata turned back and took a look. The incident here did not alarm Henry, who was upstairs. What was happening now could be counted as a personal problem. If Henry was alarmed, this would only be solved in Henry's way.

"Get out of here!" Leopard Kurata said to the two men with an unpleasant look.

Brother Long and Brother Tiger did not dare to stay for a moment. Not to mention that Leland only offered them one million yuan, even if he gave them ten million yuan, both of them would not dare to disobey Leopard Kurata. In Yinzhou, it was easy for Green Leaf to kill both of them.

Leland had taken out his mobile phone and was ready to take a good video, but before the good show he had imagined could begin, he saw Brother Long and Brother Tiger leaving like ghosts!

Brother Long and Brother Tiger, who had run far away, did not know that Leopard Kurata had saved their lives. They only felt that they were unlucky. This was a job, but they were so unlucky to run into Leopard Kurata. They did not know how to deal with this!

With a gloomy look in his eyes, Brother Tiger took out his mobile phone and dialled Leland's number directly.

At this moment, Leland, who was full of doubts, suddenly received a phone call from Brother Tiger.

"Hey, Brother Tiger, you..."

"Leland, you f*cking son of a b*tch!" Brother Tiger's roar rang out.

Brother Tiger's roar made Leland extremely uncomfortable, but he dared not show it in his tone. He could only cautiously say, "Brother Tiger, I... I don't understand."

"You don't understand? If it wasn't for you, would I have met Second Master? F*ck! If anything happens to me this time, I'll blame it on you!" After saying that, Brother Tiger hung up the phone directly.

Leland listened to the busy tone on the phone, and his chest heaved with anger. At the same time, he understood the doubts in his heart. It was no wonder that the two men ran fast. It turned out that Green Leaf's Second Master was here. However, could they blame it on him?

Leland had heard that Green Leaf was changing slowly recently, so they couldn't do many things.

Leland saw that Green Leaf's Second Master left Henry's company from afar. He thought that Henry was lucky because Second Master happened to pass by. His eyes were gloomy and he whispered, "Boy, you're lucky, but don't think that this matter is over!"

While talking to himself, Leland took out his mobile phone again and said, "Hello, brothers, I have to trouble you to help me today. There is a guy who doesn't know some basic rules. Would you please teach him a lesson?"

After saying that, Leland hung up the phone. Fortunately, he had made many preparations. Green Leaf had not taken away the money yet, and he had no loss. Anyway, he would not let this guy open his company today.

Henry put the two pots with trees on the table and walked to the window to take a look. The sounds made by Brother Long and Brother Tiger outside the door did not escape Henry's ears. It was just that Henry did not want to argue with them, so he simply pretended to know nothing and let Leopard Kurata deal with it.

When Henry saw that the matter outside had been solved, he made a phone call and asked the 300 people who were transferred to Yinzhou to come to the company to register as employees.

"Hey! Is there anyone in the company? Who does this company belong to?" A voice came from the first floor of the company.

When Henry went downstairs, he saw a middle-aged fat man wearing a gold watch on his wrist knocking on the counter impatiently. When the fat man saw Henry coming down, he showed a contemptuous expression. "Are you the boss?"

"Yes, what's the matter?" Henry nodded.

"Let me ask you, what kind of service does your security company provide? Tell me everything. Let me tell you, if you say something wrong and make me unhappy, you'll have a hard time today!" The fat man sat down on the sofa on the first floor and crossed his legs.

Judging from the fat man's appearance, even a fool could see that he was looking for trouble.

Henry frowned and said, "We don't provide any service. Get out of here."

The fat man was originally thinking about how to find trouble with Henry, but when he heard Henry's words, he was suddenly stunned. He didn't expect that the young man could directly say the word "get out of here".

"Boy, what did you say?" The fat man doubted if he had heard it wrong.

"I told you to get out of here, don't you understand?" Henry said, not in a good mood.

"Fk! Boy, do you know who I am? I am from Forestics Company. Do you still dare to kick me out of here?" When the fat man said the words "Forestics Company", his eyes were full of pride.

Henry curled his lip and said, "I don't care who you are. Get out!"

"You!" The fat man patted the armrest of the sofa and stood up all of a sudden.

"What's wrong with me?" Henry looked at the fat man with a smile. "Do you want to hit me?"

"Hit you?" The fat man looked at Henry's figure. He thought that he wouldn't gain any advantages if he hit Henry. He snorted and said, "If I hit you, it will make my hand dirty!"

After that, the fat man swung his hand and walked out of the door.

At this time, there were more than a dozen people standing in front of Henry's company. These people were all driving Land Rovers. The cars were parked on the side of the road. A row of cars looked very imposing. Seeing the fat man coming out, these people immediately asked.

"How was it?"

"Is this company okay?"

"Do you think it's reliable?"

The fat man's eyes swept around and said bitterly, "No way! Just a waste of money. I won't hire anyone from here!"

Those people outside the door didn't ask what had happened. When they saw the fat man, they all opened their mouths.

"It seems that it is just a nominal security company. Without strength, how dare he to open a security company?"

"It's not a security company. It's just a garbage company!"

"F*ck, Garbage Security Company. That's a good name!"

"Ha, ha, ha, just call it Garbage Security Company from now on!"

The voices of these people outside the door were very loud, and they attracted many people's attention at once. Some of the passers-by also stopped to watch the scene.

Henry opened the door of the company, moved a wooden chair and sat at the door. Facing the words of these people, he waited for his people to come and start working as if he had not heard the people on the street.

"Kid, do you think that anyone would hire a garbage company like yours?" A bald man with tattoos all over his head asked. "Are you just a bunch of chickens?!"
