

Chapter 655

Besides the Lins Group, although the Zhao Family was powerful, it had existed for a very short time. The Chows' was absolutely the strongest among other enterprises, excluding the Lins Group. Danny himself was also a really rich second generation. After meeting Henry, he had restrained himself a lot, but before that, he could be said to be overbearing. In Ernest's eyes, he was extremely prestigious.

Danny's driver opened the car door for him. And Danny got out of the car.

Danny waved at Ernest. Ernest hurriedly nodded and bowed as he trotted over to Danny. With a smile on his face, he asked, "Young Master Danny, what can I do for you?"

"What can you do?" Danny narrows his eyes then raised his palm and slapped him on the face.

The slap was so loud and clear. Ernest covered his face with his hands and looked at Danny with a puzzled look.

"Do you know why I hit you?" Danny says with a cold humph then asks.

"I don't know. Please tell me, Master Danny." Ernest lowered his head.

Danny raised his foot and kicked the man's belly heavily. "F**k you! It's easy for me to beat you!"

Danny's kick made Ernest take a few steps back and fall to the ground.

Seeing Danny start to fight, those people who had shouted together with Ernest before, and though they were some big shots in Yinzhou, didn't even dare to take a deep breath. They all looked at Danny carefully, and at the same time, they guessed in their hearts why Master Danny was so angry.

After kicking Ernest, Danny restrained his anger on his face, walked to his car, took out two boxes covered with red silk from the trunk, and smiled. He came to Henry and said, "Mr. Zhang, I just heard that you are opening today, so I did not prepare too much. Please forgive me."

Danny removed the red silk cloth, and there was a golden dragon in a box, which was carved from pure gold. In the other box, there was a phoenix, carved from fine jade.

"Mr. Zhang, I specially hired a top master to carve this golden dragon and jade phoenix. On the one hand, I'm here to congratulate you on your new business. On the other hand, I'm here to thank you for your previous advice. If it weren't for you, I'm afraid there would be no Chows' anymore."

What Danny said was about the purchase of Zhao's Group's stock by the major companies a few days ago.

"Haha, I can't watch your Chow's disappear like this." Henry nodded.

"Thank you very much, Mr. Zhang." Danny's face has a happy expression. He waves his hands behind him. "Come, put the things in."

Danny's chauffeur quickly walked forward and took over the dragon and the phoenix.

Danny's attitude towards Henry made Ernest's men widen their eyes. Who was Danny? They were very clear about it. He was the biggest playboy in Yinzhou. He was absolutely fearless. He had a group of thugs under his command, and they were very overbearing. Even Green Leaf had to be polite to them. At this time, he was being polite to such a boy, and he even kept calling him like that. It seemed that this boy didn't care about Danny at all!

Ernest, who had been kicked to the ground by Danny, got up in a hurry. Looking at everything that had happened, he had a bad feeling in his heart.

The people who were with him also felt that the air was a little cold. Some of them even had an idea of leaving.

Just as these people were guessing Henry's identity, another voice sounded not far away.

"The Rolls-Royce in the front must be Chows'. Don't block the road. Get out of the way!"

The voice rang out and Ernest and the others were all shocked. Who dared to speak to Danny like that?

In their view, Danny would definitely swear back. As a result, Danny replied very politely, "Move now, move now."

As soon as Danny's driver came out, he ran to the driver's seat and drove the car away without hesitation.

Behind them, there were several Audi A6. These cars slowly drove to the door of Henry's company, and the door opened.

A tall woman in a big red trench coat came out of the last Audi A6. The woman had long hair and impeccable facial features.

"I wish you a successful business. I've just heard Sylvia say that you're opening today, so I got you two bonsais."

The woman who got out of the Audi was Jenny.

"Who is this?" Ernest said in a low voice when he saw Jenny and the others. He wondered which company she was from and who dared to talk Danny just now.

"Hengyuan!" A man next to Ernest frowned. "I know this woman. She's the president of Hengyuan, Jenny Qin."

"Hengyuan!" Ernest couldn't help crying out. Recently, the reputation of Hengyuan was too big. They got the only trade channel and now they cooperate with the Lins. It was definitely one of the giants in Yinzhou!

Such news made Ernest frown more tightly. He didn't understand how a person who ran a small security company could be in contact with the two giants such as Hengyuana and the Chows'.

"President Qin! You're done with the delivery. Let us go in!" A clear voice sounded behind Jenny's fleet. It was from a black Benz. The license plates were of the same number. The one who shouted was Sylvia's secretary, Cathy Lee.

Jenny covered her mouth and laughed. She then said to Henry, "Your Highness, the Lady of the Imperial Palace has come. I'll leave first."

Jenny waved her hand at Henry and then led her team to the front.

The black Benz stopped in front of Henry's company.

"Lins' car! The Lins are also here!" Ernest's eyes widened. Lins Group in Yinzhou was too representative. Even the company's license plate number was remembered clearly.

"How could this be possible? The Lins have something to do with this boy!"

"Who on earth is this kid?"

Question after question formed in the hearts of Ernest and the others. The bad premonition in their hearts grew greater and greater!

The door of the Benz opened, and Sylvia got out of the car. She wore a coat that was corresponding to Jenny's. The two women now lived together, and their styles were very close.

Different from Jenny's approachable feeling, when Sylvia got out of the car, she had an aura, which made people feel that they couldn't look straight at her.

"Sylvia! This is Sylvia Lin! She's the head of the Lins! She's here in person!"

"Damn it, this kid can't be some second generation of the officials, right?"

"The second generation of the officials? Even the second generation of the officials couldn't make Sylvia appear in person."

"Who the hell is he?"

Ernest swallowed his saliva and thought, "Even Sylvia Lin has come here!"

Sylvia took two steps forward and came to Henry. Under the gaze of Ernest and others, she took Henry's arm and said, "Honey, wish you a successful beginning. Tell me, what should I give you?"
