

Chapter 658

Future became familiar with Qi, and after understanding the principles of Qi, she could extract and combine the various elements from the Fire Crystal. In the end, she discovered that the energy of the Fire Crystal was filled with an extremely powerful negative influence. Future took a long time to accept this discovery, but it was real.

Yesterday when Henry called her, Future was a little worried. When she first saw the greed in Henry's eyes, the worry in her heart became more serious. Up to now, she had not thought about whether she should tell Henry about it. The red airflow contained negative emotions and would infinitely expand due to some influences. If she told Henry this, the doubts about the red airflow in Henry's mind could become the fodder for this negative mood, which would have a greater impact on Henry.

After thinking about it, Future put away the Fire Crystal.

What relieved her was that when she put away the Fire Crystal, Henry did not show anything. It seemed that the negative emotions from the red airflow could not affect Henry, so she could only study the red airflow more thoroughly as soon as possible.

Henry rushed to Future and said, "I don't want the Fire Crystals. The Sharp Knife does."

"The Sharp Knife?" Future was uncertain. "Since when are they so bold? They dared to ask Boss about it?"

Henry smiled slightly and said, "Here comes the man."

As soon as Henry finished speaking, Keaton's figure appeared in front of Henry's company.

Keaton glanced at Henry and Future, and then asked, "Where is it?"

Henry pouted his lips at Future and she took out the Fire Crystal the size of a fingernail.

Keaton's pupils constricted the moment Future took out the Fire Crystal. There was a scorching light in his eyes. Such a small piece of Fire Crystal contained a huge amount of energy!

"Give it to me!" Keaton shouted and stretched out his hand.

Future took a look at Henry and then put the small Fire Crystal in Keaton's hand.

Before she could put down the Fire Crystal, Keaton grabbed the Fire Crystal from her hands. Then, as if he was looking at his most beloved person, he stared at the small Fire Crystal in his hands.

"Well, if I said I wouldn't lie to you, I wouldn't lie to you. Now the thing is yours." Henry shrugged his shoulders.

Keaton snorted and stared at Henry. "You know what is good for you!"

After saying that, Keaton strode away and disappeared from Henry's and Future's sight.

Looking at Keaton's back, Future said, "Boss, you asked me to spread the news yesterday, and now you really gave the Fire Crystal to the Sharp Knife. Do you want to use them as bait?"

"Not bad." Henry nodded. "Have you recorded it?"

"Yes. Should I release it now?" Future asked.

"Yes!" Henry said without hesitation.

On the other side, Keaton left as soon as he got the Fire Crystal. He was extremely excited. He didn't expect that the treasure that everyone wanted would be in his hands so easily! As long as he could hand over the Fire Crystal, the position of the Sharp Knife's Captain would definitely belong to him! From now on, he would no longer need to hold the title of Vice-captain!

Thinking of this, Keaton didn't want to stay any longer. He just wanted to go back as soon as possible and get those benefits.

After delivering the items, Future left immediately.

Henry was waiting in the company. At noon, he received a phone call from secretary Lee. Cathy told Henry that there would be an autumn recruitment fair starting tomorrow morning, which would last for three days.

Henry specifically asked Cathy this question yesterday, asking her to pay attention for him.

Henry asked Cathy to arrange a recruitment booth for him. Looking at the company's door which was empty, Henry shook his head, locked the door, and went to the company to find Sylvia.

When Henry arrived at the Lins Group, it was just the time for lunch, so they had lunch together.

"By the way, honey." During the lunch, Sylvia took out a folder and placed it on the table in front of Henry. "Your security company has just opened. Can you help me protect this person?"

"Okay." Henry answered without thinking. He glanced at the document that Sylvia took out. On the document that Sylvia took out, there was a woman's photo. The woman had delicate facial features and a tall figure. She stood on a red carpet, and behind her was a logo from some film festival.

"Wow, is this Jessica Shang? She's an A-class celebrity!" Jenny said in surprise when she saw the document in Henry's hands.

"Jessica Shang? A-class female celebrity? I haven't heard of her." Henry's face was full of doubts. He almost didn't watch TV and variety shows, so he didn't know much about celebrities.

Sylvia covered her mouth and laughed. "You're running around every day. You wouldn't even recognize the Lord of Shadows in front of you. This time, the company produced a new product and especially hired Jessica as its spokesperson. Although the other party brought bodyguards, the agency still hopes that we can provide her with protection."

"What protection? Is there anyone who is trying to kidnap her?" Henry was speechless for a while. If he was a kidnapper, he would kidnap a rich man than kidnap a celebrity.

Sylvia rolled her eyes. "Our company is cooperating with them. If they have this request, let's do it. I've already sent the other party's flight information to your mobile phone. I'll have to trouble you, President Zhang!"

Henry covered his forehead and said, "All right, President Lin."

Henry took a look at the flight information. Jessica's plane would arrive at 2:30 p.m. After lunch, he rushed to the airport.

When Henry arrived at the airport, he saw at a glance that too many young people had gathered in the departure building of the airport. These people had put up a banner with words, "Jessica, we love you".

"Wow! Did you see that? Jessica released a special message two hours ago saying that she would get off the plane at 2:30 p.m. and we'll be able to see her soon. I'm so excited!" A young girl holding her phone said excitedly to the people next to her.

"I don't know if there is a chance for us to shake hands with her."

"I'm so nervous!"

The voices of a group of people came into Henry's ears.

Henry looked at the location of the exit. It was crowded with people. In this kind of environment, if someone like Henry, wanted to do something to Jessica, they would have 20 ways to avoid being discovered.

"She asked for protection while widely advertising her whereabouts. What a contradiction." Henry found a massage chair and lay down comfortably, quietly waiting for the time to pass.

Half an hour later, when Henry was sleeping on the massage chair, a scream came from the exit.

Henry stood up from the massage chair and looked in the direction of the exit.

Chapter 659

At the exit, a group of people screamed fanatically, waving the banner in their hands with excitement.

When the doors of the exit opened, four bodyguards wearing sunglasses and black suits walked in the forefront with a look that warned strangers to stay away.

Those enthusiastic fans crazily stretched out their hands and were pushed away mercilessly by several bodyguards. Even so, they still shouted something like "Jessica, I love you", and the fanaticism in their eyes made Henry feel a little shocked when he saw it.

A young woman with a height of 1.7 metres and big sunglasses came out of the doorway. Even though a pair of sunglasses covered most of her face, Henry could recognize that she was the one he was going to protect this time. She was the first-class celebrity, Jessica Shang.

Jessica's assistant followed behind. She was a woman in her thirties, wearing glasses, carrying a bag and a suitcase. While walking, she shouted to the fans, "Stop shooting, don't take photos! Stop shooting!"

Behind Jessica's assistant, there were four more bodyguards.

As the eight bodyguards went out, Henry felt that she was almost as secure as the country's leader who came to see him back in the days. He stood not far away, listening to the shouts of Jessica's assistant to stop taking pictures. He felt strange. According to these fans, it was Jessica who told everyone on social media apps when she would appear at Yinzhou Airport, and now she was wearing a pair of big sunglasses. How could she not be photographed?

Henry shook his head. He really didn't know what these so-called celebrities were thinking. He swept his eyes over the crowd and found no traces of danger. Then he walked over to Jessica.

Jessica walked out of the airport. Under the protection of eight bodyguards, she took off her sunglasses and looked around impatiently. "Katie, where are the people from Lins Group?"

"I'll contact them right now!" said Katie. She took out her phone and was about to make a call.

"Come on, get out of the way, please." Henry walked to the bodyguards and said, "Well, I am a person sent by the Lins Group. You are Jessica Shang, right? Please come with me."

Jessica took a look at Henry. When she found that Henry was alone, she looked a little angry and asked, "What? Did the Family Lin ask you to come alone?"

"Uh..." Henry was stunned for a moment and then asked, "How many people should come to pick you up? There would be too many people to fit in one car."

Hearing this, Jessica glared at Henry in disgust. She held her hands in front of her chest and did not say anything.

Katie came out and said, "What does your Lins Group mean? Don't you want to cooperate with us? Let me tell you, Jessica's schedule is full of arrangements. We're showing respect to you. Now arrange ten cars to come for us!"

"There will not be ten cars, only one. If you want to take it, you can, if not..." Henry curled his lips. On his way here, he searched for the information about Jessica. She participated in several TV shows. Although she was playing the protagonists, her fame was not as high as the first-class celebrities. Henry had travelled the world for so many years and seen many celebrities. Some of them, who were more famous than Jessica, were not as arrogant. In Henry's eyes, the so-called stars were just a little expensive, but not too expensive.

After all, Henry's identity could be said to be one of the wealthiest among the rich and powerful families. Even the European royal family had to be careful around him.

And ordinary stars, not to mention in the eyes of the royal family, even in the eyes of ancient kungfu family like the Zhu family, they were just ordinary people. The difference in status made Henry unable to understand Jessica's pride.

"One car? What do you think I am? One car to pick me up?" Jessica glared at Henry angrily. When she found that her fans were looking at her, she smiled.

"All right, don't waste time. I'll drive the car, and you guys wait at the door." After Henry finished, he walked to the parking lot alone without any unnecessary words.

Jessica was even angrier when she saw Henry's attitude. She put her hands at her waist and said, "I'm so angry. I won't take this offer. Tell that Lins Group that they can find whoever they want!"

"Jessica, don't be angry, don't be angry." Katie quickly dissuaded her. "If you don't want to fulfil the contract we had signed with the Lins, we can't account for it. Let this person be arrogant first. It's not too late to trouble him after we finish filming the advertisement. He's just a driver. There's no need to be angry with such an inferior person."

Jessica's chest heaved up and down. After a long while, she breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Well, let him be arrogant first!"

Jessica and her group of ten people walked to the exit of the arrival building. As soon as they went out, an extended Bentley stopped.

It was Henry who was driving.

Henry opened the window and rushed to Jessica and her fellows outside the car. "Get in the car!"

Jessica walked to the Bentley and stood there quietly. Katie stood behind Jessica.

In Henry's eyes, these two people were standing there like fools.

"What are you waiting for? Get in the car!" Henry shouted again.

"How to get in the car?" Jessica looked at Henry with his eyes.

"How to get in the car?" Henry was stunned by Jessica's question.

"The door is closed, how do you want me to get in?" Jessica showed a funny expression.

Hearing this, Henry's mouth twitched. "Just pull the door and it will open."

Jessica frowned and looked at Henry with a confused look. "You want me to open the door?!"

Henry swore that if he hadn't been helping Sylvia this time, not to mention a celebrity, even a royal princess would have been in trouble!

Henry got out of the car, went to the back door of the Bentley, opened the door, and said, "Now can you?"

"What's wrong with you? You should know what you are supposed to do without us reminding you!" Katie scolded.

"That's enough. Tell the Lins to fire him. There's no need to argue with such a person." Jessica said lightly. She didn't look at Henry anymore. Then she lowered her head and got into the car.

Katie took a look at Henry and said, "Wait and see how this will end!"

After finishing her words, Katie also got into the car. The eight bodyguards opened the doors of the car one by one and got in the car.

Henry curled his lips and ran to the driver's seat to start the car.

When he arrived at the Lins Group, the Lins' public relation team had been waiting at the door of the company. Seeing this public relations team, Henry breathed a sigh of relief. He might not be able to be responsible for Jessica any longer.

As soon as the car stopped, the public relations team of Lins Group immediately came forward and opened the door on their own initiative.

"Miss Shang, you've come a long way. Thank you," said the PR manager in a sweet voice.

Sylvia walked over from the side and stood in front of the Bentley driver's seat. "Why did you pick her up all by yourself?"
