

Chapter 700

"Mr. Zhang." The secretary of the company ran to Henry breathlessly. As soon as Henry saw Secretary Lee, he had a bad feeling in his heart. "Who ordered to tear down the Spring residential home?"

"It..." The secretary didn't dare to look at Henry, so she whispered, "It was President Lin."

"Why did she order to demolish the Spring residential home?" Henry tried his best to suppress the anger in his heart.

"To build..." Secretary Lee lowered his head and dared not speak.

Henry shouted, "What?"

Secretary Lee looked up at Henry and quickly lowered her head. "To build a shopping mall, President Lin bought the whole land to transform it into a business district."

Henry clenched his fists, turned around directly, and strode outside. He stopped a taxi directly and said, "Go to the Lins Group, quickly!"

"Mr. Zhang!" Secretary Lee shouted behind Henry. Seeing that Henry did not care about her, she quickly got in the car and ran after him.

On the top floor of the Lins Group.

In Sylvia's office, several department managers were standing in front of her and reporting their work.

With a "bang", the office door was pushed open from the outside, and the door lock was directly broken.

Henry, with an angry face, stood at the door of the office.

When Sylvia saw Henry, joy appeared in her eyes, but it quickly disappeared. She waved to several department managers in front of her and said, "Go and do your work."

These managers realized that something was wrong at the scene and quickly left.

Sylvia stood up from the office chair, picked up a box of tea leaves, pinched a few pieces, and put them in a teacup. "Just came back? Why didn't you tell me so that I could send someone to pick you up?"

Henry's eyes were fixed on Sylvia. "Did you order people to tear down the Spring residential home?"

"You know all about it?" Sylvia asked deliberately. In fact, she had already thought about it when she saw Henry's angry expression.

Henry asked, "Why do you want to demolish the Spring residential home?!"

"I'm just making money. What else can I do?" Sylvia picked up the kettle and poured the boiling water into the teacup.

"Where are Dean Cui and the children?"

"I arranged a place for them to stay for a while. After a period of time, the new welfare centre will be built up." Sylvia took a cup of tea and walked to Henry. "Come, have some tea first."

Henry did not even take a look at the teacup handed over by Sylvia. "Do you lack money? How much do you want? I can give it to you, one billion, ten billion, hundred billion!"

This was the first time Henry had this attitude towards Sylvia, and it was also the first time that he was really angry with Sylvia.

Sylvia chuckled, "The money you gave me and the money I earned are two different things. You've also invested before. You should understand that when the opportunity is right in front of you, you shouldn't..."

"Bullsh*t!" Henry roared. "Tore down the Spring residential home to make money! How did you come up with this idea?"

"So?" Sylvia put down the teacup casually and leaned half-on her desk. "If I don't take such a piece of land, sooner or later someone will take it. If I don't want to earn the money, someone else does! Is it possible that as a businessman, I want to see others take the money out of my pocket for nothing?"

Henry stared at Sylvia. Henry's eyes were full of doubts and puzzlement. The Sylvia now was completely different from the Sylvia in his impression. She was no longer like a warm summer. Instead, she was like a cold winter.

Henry suddenly smiled, shook his head, turned around, and walked out of Sylvia's office.

As soon as Henry walked out of the office, the anxious-looking Secretary Lee ran over.

"Mr. Zhang, you..." Cathy looked at Henry, who was striding forward like a shooting star, and then looked at Sylvia in the office. She didn't know what to say at the moment.

When Henry left the Lins Group, he felt a little confused. Looking at the sun hanging in the sky, Henry walked toward an ordinary residential area. He touched his trouser pocket, took out a key and opened an ordinary door. The place was very neat and clean. In the corner, there were two pots of flowers that had blossomed. However, Henry knew that these two pots of flowers would wilt as they could only bloom for another month.

After pouring water for the flowers, Henry sat on the sofa, and a deep sense of exhaustion welled up in his heart.

The vexation in his heart grew stronger and stronger. Right now, he only wanted to sit here, not care about anything, not thinking about anything.

At six o'clock in the afternoon, the weather became cooler. Henry opened the door, went out, and took out his mobile phone to have a look. There was an address sent by Secretary Lee, which was the address of Dean Cui and the children's current location.

Henry checked the address and went to find it. It was a three-star hotel, which belonged to the Lins Group.

The entire hotel had all been vacated to provide accommodations for the children of the Spring residential home.

As soon as Henry entered the lobby of the hotel, he saw the children playing in the lobby, and the grey-haired Dean Cui sitting aside.

"Brother Henry!"

"Wow, Brother Henry is here."

As soon as Henry showed up, he received enthusiastic cheers from the children.

Henry rubbed the heads of these little guys and walked over to Dean Cui.

"Henry, you're here." Seeing Henry, a smile appeared on Dean Cui's face.

"Director, you experienced some hardship." Henry apologized to Dean Cui. Although the hotel environment was good, it was still not as good as the Spring residential home. After all, they had been there for so many years and that place had long been regarded as a home by Dean Cui and the children.

Dean Cui shook her head. "Why? Sylvia has arranged a place for us to live. She will also build a new Spring residential home. We just need a new place to live. As for you, Henry, you should think positively."

Dean Cui sighed. "You have to learn to look forward. The wooden pavilion is gone, and so is it. Sylvia certainly didn't mean to do it. She's a good girl. Stay with her and don't quarrel because of this. There are times when there are misunderstandings between husband and wife."

"The wooden pavilion..." Henry recalled the scene when he and his mother built the pavilion together.

At six o'clock in the Lins Group, all the staff got off work and left their jobs one by one.

Sylvia was still sitting in her office, staring at the broken door lock. She was still in a daze.

The door of the office was opened, and Jenny, dressed in casual clothes, came in from the door. "It's time to go home. Why are you still here?"

"Mom, it's time to go home." Lisa trotted over and grabbed Sylvia's arm.

Sylvia forced a smile on her face. "I forgot about the time. I'll go back right away."

Jenny looked at the forced smile on Sylvia's face and said, "Why didn't you tell him the truth? Since you left that wooden pavilion there specially, there shouldn't be so many misunderstandings between the two of you. It's easy to make it clear."

Sylvia shook her head, "Sometimes, misunderstanding is also a good thing."

Chapter 701

Sylvia put away a blueprint on the table. When she returned to the Su Family, Freud Su handed documents to Sylvia. The drawing on the blueprint was also the place where the Spring residential home was located.

At that time, Sylvia had asked Victor how strong this Freud Su was and how powerful the so-called Su Clan was.

Victor clearly told Sylvia that the strength of the clan was not something that any force could compete with, including Henry's Radiant Island.

At the same time, Victor also repeatedly reminded Sylvia not to mess with the Su clan now. Otherwise, not only would the Su family face a destructive blow, but also Radiant Island, including Henry, would have to bear the anger of the Su clan. That kind of anger was not something that the current Radiant Island could bear.

Sylvia put away the blueprint and stood up. Holding Lisa's hand, she looked at the coffee table next to her, where the tea she had made for Henry was placed.

"You have protected me so many times. You can't always put yourself in danger for me. You are the lord of Radiant Island, the Emperor of Hell. You are not living for yourself. You can't really be the enemy of the whole world because of me. I am not worth it."

Sylvia looked away and strode out of the office.

At the moment when Sylvia left the Lins, Henry also left the hotel that Sylvia had prepared for Dean Cui.

Henry didn't inform anyone and was ready to go to the airport alone. When Henry took a taxi and was ready to get on the car, a weak voice came from the side.

"Brother Henry..."

Henry, who was about to get on the car, was shocked when he heard the voice. There was only one person who called him brother all the time.

Henry looked in the direction of the voice and saw a girl with a dirty face and sticky hair standing in a corner of the hotel.

"Lila Zhu!"

Henry strode toward the girl.

"Brother Henry!" The girl shouted and threw herself into Henry's arms, crying loudly.

Henry never thought that he would meet Lila there. The Zhu family was destroyed. Looking at Lila's current appearance, these days were probably the darkest days in the Zhu family's little princess's life.

"It's okay, don't cry." Henry reached out to wipe the tears from Lila's face.

Lila kept sobbing. She escaped from Du Hai and arrived there. Along the way, she dared not to show her face, nor to reveal any trace of her whereabouts, nor use her cell phone, nor swipe her bank card, and even dared not go to crowded places.

Henry noticed Lila's lips were dry and cracked. Under the dust, there was a pale, colourless face.

"Henry... My family... my family..." Lila sobbed. "My family is destroyed."

"I know, this is not a good place to talk." Henry looked around and said, "Come with me first."

Henry took Lila and left quickly.

The Zhu family was destroyed. The Zhu clan destroyed the whole Zhu family. It was absolutely impossible for them to let Lila escape. There must be someone who had been tracking Lila's whereabouts.

Henry used his ID to get a room and sent Lila to the room to take shower first. Immediately, he asked the receptionist for some food and a set of clean clothes.

More than 20 minutes later, Lila had finished washing. She put on clean clothes and walked out of the bathroom. Henry could see that Lila's eyes were red. Apparently, she had just cried in the bathroom.

"I already know what happened to your family. Why are you in Yinzhou?" Henry opened a lunch box and put it on the table. "Come here. Let's talk while eating."

Lila was also starving. These days, she had no money to eat. She would go to places like the hotels' toilets to drink some tap water. She was so hungry that she stuffed anything into the mouth.

Now, facing this delicious box lunch, Lila kept eating vigorously.

Henry did not tell her to eat slowly. The full men did not know how hungry the hungry men were. A person who had never been hungry was not aware of the eagerness of the hungry people for food. Henry, who had experienced hunger, understood Lila's current situation.

"I bought two portions. Don't worry it's not enough." Henry took out another box lunch and pushed it to Lila.

"It's, it's enough." Lila nodded repeatedly.

Looking at Lila's appearance, Henry felt a chill in his heart. He didn't expect that the eldest daughter of the Zhu family would look like this.

Within less than five minutes, the two boxes of food were completely eaten by Lila. After gulping down a bottle of water, Lila patted her stomach and dispelled her hunger.

"Brother Henry, my grandfather originally asked me to go to Radiant Island to look for you, but I really didn't know how to go to the island, so I came to Yinzhou to look for you."

"How did you know I was at the hotel just now?" Henry asked curiously.

"I was following you." Lila said in a low voice, "I've been waiting outside the Lins Group all the time. I came here when I saw you today."

"Following me?! How did you do that?" Henry was shocked that he was not aware that he was followed.

"With this." Lila rushed to the bathroom, took out a book from her dirty clothes, and handed it to Henry.

Henry took a look at the book. The cover of the book was dark blue. When he touched it in his hand, there was a sense of age-old texture. However, it didn't seem to be affected by time at all. On the contrary, it seemed to be brand new, as if it had just been created.

Moreover, at the moment when he got the book, Henry had a feeling that his whole aura was shrinking.

Henry was very familiar with this feeling. When he carried out the killer mission in the past, he specially learned how to hide and reduce his aura. With deliberate effort, Henry could also reduce his aura infinitely.

A person, if being stared at by another person for a long time, would have a kind of feeling, but when he was stared at by the person who deliberately hid his aura, he would not feel much.

This kind of hiding one's aura could be understood by Henry. However, just because he got the book, his aura was infinitely reduced, which was completely beyond Henry's cognition.

Henry opened the book. The pages of the book were very thin, there were only a dozen or so pages, but they were all blank.

"Brother Henry, my grandfather asked me to give you this."

"What is this?" Henry repeatedly leafed through the book, and even hit the page with internal Qi, but it did not work. The whole book was still blank.

"I don't know." Lila shook her head. "My grandfather said that this is a key."

"Key?" Henry slightly frowned. "What key?"

"Grandpa didn't tell me much." Lila stared at the thing in Henry's hands. It was this book that led to the extermination of the entire Zhu family. "Grandpa only said that the thing that can be found will drive all the clans crazy."
