

Chapter 778

Inside the city, explosions could be heard continuously. The whole city was in chaos.

Baron and the others carefully and quickly arrived at the place where the Golden City's dungeon was located. Everyone held their breath and focused their attention, ready to put up a desperate fight at any time.

They originally thought that at this time, the prison would definitely be heavily guarded. However, when they arrived, they discovered that the people who were guarding the prison, due to the explosion happening outside, had already fled. There wasn't a single guard in the entire prison.

They cautiously came to the cells, and the key of the cage was still put there. Their team member, Milo Wood, and the researchers all stayed in the prison and could be seen at a glance.

"This... "

Picking up the key on the table, Garry's expression was a little dull. They were all ready to risk their lives. But who would have thought that the process would be so easy? It seemed unreal.

"Captain, is there any trap?" Garry held the key to the cell and looked around cautiously.

"If there is a trap, there is a trap. We have to save them." Baron took the key from Garry and opened the two cells respectively. Their team member, Milo, was very familiar with them. When Baron and Garry came to visit before, they have exchanged a couple of looks. Milo quickly found a rifle and entered the combat state.

As for the scientific research team, they didn't know Baron and others. When Baron and others revealed their identities and confirmed that they were there to help them, the scientific research team sobbed and complained about how miserable they were here.

"Garry, you and Quintin lead the way. Shawn, you and Milo keep an eye on our back. Helen, you are responsible for protecting the doctor and others. Be careful, everyone, there's something wrong with this," Baron ordered.

Everyone slowly moved toward the exit of the prison, always on the alert of enemies that could appear at any time. But when they went out of the cell, they did not see any guards. Even the wall made out of the iron net behind the prison was blasted with a huge hole in it. As long as they wanted to, they could easily leave.

"This..." Garry looked at the hole in the net behind the cell. Once they got out through the wire wall, they would leave Golden City completely, which was equivalent to completing the task. They, who were already prepared to fight to the death, were extremely shocked by how easy this mission was.

This time, not only Garry but also Baron felt that it was unreal. Was it really this easy?

The gunfire at the gate was still going on and on, and the deafening sound made the whole research team tremble with fear.

"Let's go!" Baron waved his hand.

Baron could believe that the guards of the Golden City's dungeon were cowards. That was the only explanation.

They quickly left Golden City.

The moment they got out of the city, Helen looked back at the city.

As for Henry, Helen was not worried at all. These mercenaries would not pose any threat to the Emperor of Hell. She only felt reluctant to part with him. She didn't know when she would meet him again.

"Helen, let's go." Queenie pulled Helen and said, "Are you worried about Syl? He doesn't need our help at all. He is by no means an ordinary mercenary. His strength, as well as his degree of stability, is something that mercenaries don't have. If we stay, we will only make trouble for him. This man is not so easy to defeat."

Helen looked at Queenie in surprise.

"Let's go." Queenie pulled Helen and left quickly.

The sound of gunfire in Golden City was still ringing. Even though Garry and others had left Golden City for one kilometre, they could still hear the sound of cannons, but the frequency was much slower than before.

After a short while, the scientific research team couldn't walk any longer, so Baron decided to take a break for ten minutes.

Baron stood in front of a tree and looked in the direction of Golden City, saying, "It seems that the battle is coming to an end. I hope that brother Syl has saved his people."

In a restaurant in Golden City.

Henry piled up the bodies of the six members of the Blade Mercenary Group and poured the kerosene onto them.

The six people of the Blade Mercenary Group had died. Each of them still widened their eyes as if they had seen something incredible before they died.

Henry sighed and said, "Alas, when you were roaming around this area, I had already been here. I hope that you won't be so arrogant in your next life. Besides, you should choose the right master."

Henry picked up a kerosene lamp and smashed it on the ground. The sparks lit up the kerosene on the ground, and the whole restaurant was instantly set on fire.

Henry walked out of the door of the restaurant. The fire had completely set off, and behind him, flames were burning.

In front of the fire, Henry put his hands in his pockets and strolled towards the gate of Golden City.

Anna was lying in the City Lord's Mansion. The room was filled with beautiful music, accompanied by the sound of the explosion outside the mansion. Instead of feeling worried, Anna was enjoying it with her face full of pleasure.

When the gunfire stopped, Anna just finished her glass of red wine. She walked to the window, on the top floor of the mansion, so that she could see the whole Golden City.

A few minutes later, Bard came in with a bow. "The members of the Blade mercenary team are here."

"Good." Anna's face lit up. "Let them in!"

"Got it." Bard nodded and walked out.

At the same time, Anna waved her hand.

As Anna waved her hand, more than a dozen figures also came out of the room, leaving Anna alone in the whole room.

Anna pulled down the curtains around the hall to block the view from outside. At the same time, she turned on the crystal chandelier hanging on the roof, with a bottle of red wine in her hand. She poured the wine into a crystal cup. When the cup was filled, Anna went to fill the next cup.

"There's no need to pour too much. I won't be able to finish it." A voice suddenly sounded behind Anna.

This sudden voice made Anna's smiling face change abruptly. Her whole body shook, and the bottle in her hand fell to the ground, making a crisp sound, and the fine wine in the bottle splashed all over the ground.

Anna's face was pale, and she was trembling all over. She slowly turned around.

There was a white man standing behind Anna. He was over 60 years old, and his hair was already grey. The man was dressed in black military uniform, and his face showed his authority even though he was not angry.

"Zac... General Zachary." Anna forced a smile on her face.

"According to you, I'm supposed to be General Bolton, right?" Zachary laughed.

Anna subconsciously stepped back, but Zachary grabbed her hair, pressed it directly on the table, and held Anna's head with a gun. He asked sternly, "Speak! Who asked you to kill me?! Who do you work for?"

Anna struggled frantically, but it didn't work at all. "It's... it's the Sharp Knife... The Sharp Knife made me do this."

Chapter 779

"The Sharp Knife?" Zachary's hand, which was grabbing Anna's head, loosened a little bit.

Anna nodded crazily. "Yes, the Sharp Knife. They're the top underground force. I didn't dare to offend them. They hit the guards the day they entered the city. General, I'm also forced to do this!"

"Haha!" Zachary laughed softly. He pulled Anna's hair, pulled her up, and then pushed her forcefully. "The Sharp Knife, you're talking about, is it him?"

Anna suddenly looked up and saw Henry standing in front of her.

"Yes! Yes!" Anna instantly replied, "General, it's him!"

"Haha." After Anna identified him, Henry smiled slightly. "To be honest, when I first saw you, I knew you weren't a smart person, but I didn't expect you to be this stupid. First, you sent people to imprison Chinese scientific research team and the Sharp Knife's team member in order to make the Sharp Knife come here and save them, right?"

"You!" Anna's body shook, and her eyes revealed a hint of panic.

Henry sat on a sofa leisurely, his hands clasped behind his head. "At first, I was thinking, why are people in Golden City making trouble with the Sharp Knife? Offending the Sharp Knife does not bring any benefits to you. You deliberately let Bard set us up so that you can have an explanation."

"Bard betrayed me!" Anna looked out of the room subconsciously.

The door of the hall opened and Bard came in from the outside. Only Bard came in, without the Blade mercenary group.

Bard, who walked into the doorway, stood aside.

"How dare you betray me?!" Anna shouted at Bard.

"Of course, he knows who he should listen to if he wants to live longer. He doesn't dare to oppose me, so he had to betray you." Henry smiled.

On that day, after discovering Baron's identity, Henry chatted with Bard for a while in the weapons store. After that moment, Bard no longer dared to be hostile to Henry.

Henry continued, "You told the public that the three forces occupied Golden City, but that's just a rumour. Even if Radiant Island sunk to the bottom of the sea, the warlords would not dare to take action and obtain the gold mine that belongs to Felix's family. If I'm right, the three forces spread the news to ensure the safety of the gold mine to protect the people from Radiant Island who were still in the city."

Henry waved his hand. Bard poured a glass of red wine and handed it to Henry.

Henry shook the red wine in his glass and said, "I have to say that this was a good plan, but you are too stupid. There are too many loopholes."

"What loopholes?" Anna seemed to have revealed herself at this moment.

"It's very simple. First..." Henry stretched out a finger. "Although the members of the Sharp Knife have tried their best to cover up, their behaviour is definitely not similar to mercenaries. You have gone too far. At the banquet that day, I deliberately killed the young man. Although you pretended to be scared, there was some excitement in your eyes. If I am right, you would find an excuse to kill him on the same day even if I didn't kill him. After all, he is the person who was arranged to keep an eye on you."

After Henry finished speaking, he stretched out a finger again.

"Secondly, if Zachary and Randell had joined forces, you would've casually told this news to these mercenary squads. But how could Bolton possibly not know about it? How could he possibly be so foolish as to wait for you to send someone to ambush him? How could you know anything about his whereabouts? You were only clear about Zachary's whereabouts. In the end, the person you wanted to kill wasn't Bolton, but Zachary, right? You told everyone that Zachary was the one who wanted to kill Bolton. In reality, it was you, the Eighth Concubine, who wanted Zachary's life."

After listening to Henry's words, Anna's face was exceptionally ugly. She did not even notice that there were so many doubtful points.

Those who were involved were confused. Some people thought that it was a flawless plan, but in fact, in other people's eyes, it was full of loopholes. This feeling was like a child lying to adults. A child thought that they had found the perfect reason, but in adults' eyes, it was a very naive lie.

"By the way," Henry snapped his fingers and said, "The so-called Blade Mercenaries should be the people you left behind to deal with the aftermath. If someone discovered that the one sitting in the armoured car was not Bolton but Zachary, they would kill them, and then come to you with Zachary's head."

Anna stared at Henry and was silent for a long time. Then she let out a sigh of relief and said, "You're right. I did arrange the Blade Mercenaries, but there is still one thing I don't understand. If you have known that I wanted to kill Zachary, when did you realize that the man inside the armoured vehicle was him?"

"It's very simple." Henry shrugged his shoulders. "I asked you at that time, what happened to the mayor of the town? You said that Xenia had been imprisoned by Zachary. But you probably don't know that Zachary's life was saved by Xenia. Zachary's army was near Golden City because Zachary wanted to repay the favour and protect Xenia. How could he imprison Xenia? You are very bad at faking identities."

"What?" Zachary, who was standing next to Anna, exclaimed subconsciously.

As for Anna herself, there was a hint of fierceness in her eyes. She did not look as soft as she was a couple of moments ago. Her palm became a knife, and she attacked Zachary. This palm was extremely powerful.

Although Zachary was old, he had been on the battlefield before. Even now, his skills were still much better than ordinary people's. However, facing Anna's palm, he did not even have a chance to dodge it.

Anna's palm, which was about to hit Zachary's neck, was less than 10 centimetres away. But at this moment, she was unable to move even a little further.

Henry grabbed Anna's arm tightly.

"Zachary, your eighth concubine was taken by others and you didn't even notice it. I think the warlord got too relaxed." Henry joked, grabbed Anna's arm and threw her away.

Anna was thrown into the air by a huge force, but she did two somersaults in the air and steadied herself. This skill was not something that could be mastered overnight.

Anna, whose identity had been revealed, no longer concealed her true feelings. She sneered and commended, "Zachary, I never thought that you could find such a helper. I've underestimated you. I didn't kill you today. Next time, I'll definitely kill you."

As soon as Anna finished her words, she bolted toward the door.

With a smile on his face, Henry stretched out two fingers of his right hand and gently pinched the glass in his left hand. A small glass was easily broken. Then he flicked the glass toward the place where Anna fled and cut Anna's knee.

 Watch Ads to Get 15 Vouchers

Chapter 780

Anna, who was fleeing at a high speed, suddenly stumbled and fell forward. On her left leg, there was a small cut. Although the wound was small, the meridians on the joint of her left leg had been cut off. Anna's left leg had been crippled.

The strong inertia made Anna fall towards the door. The sharp pain in her left leg made her keep breathing heavily, and her eyes were filled with horror.

"Hey." A sorrowful sigh rang out from the second floor. "He said you were stupid. He really wasn't wrong. What do you think? Do you think that he is someone who Zachary has hired to protect him? Zachary is just a small warlord. How could he hire My lord, the Emperor of Hell to protect him? It's just that your actions were simply too stupid. That was how the Emperor of Hell had discovered that something was amiss."

After hearing this, Anna's face unconsciously showed a respectful expression. When the voice said the words "Emperor of Hell", Anna's eyes were full of fear. She looked at Henry, and her whole body trembled unconsciously. "You... you're the Emperor of Hell... you... you're not dead!"

"B*llsh*t!" A shout came from upstairs. "How could he die? Who in the world can kill him? Kneel down and slap yourself!"

As soon as the person finished speaking, Anna knelt there without any hesitation, bearing the pain. She raised her hand and slapped hard on her pretty face. It could be seen that she had subconsciously been obedient to the master who was shouting upstairs.

A graceful figure jumped down from the second floor, revealing her back to Henry and Zachary. Just by looking at her back, they were sure that she was a stunning woman.

Anna was already a stunning woman, but in front of this woman, even compared only to her back, Anna was not even close to her.

The woman's long silver hair hung down to her waist.

After Anna slapped herself, she looked at the woman in front of her with respect and fear in her eyes.

"It's not enough. Slap again." The woman turned her back to Henry and Zachary, and her voice sounded again.

Anna once again raised her hand and slapped her pretty face.

"Continue." The silver-haired woman's voice was very cold.

Anna raised her hand again.

"Again!"

"Go on!"

"Not loud enough!"

"Slap!"

The silver-haired woman's voice sounded non-stop. Anna's palm rang out in succession in the hall without stopping.

One could see that Anna's cheeks were completely red and swollen, and her tears were also stimulated. Her tears kept flowing, but she still kept slapping herself, like a robot on a mission.

"Enough." The silver-haired woman said softly.

Anna, who was fiercely slapping herself, also suddenly stopped.

"Remember." The silver-haired woman extended a finger. "He cannot die. In this world, those who can kill him haven't come out yet. Do you understand?"

Anna nodded with fear on her face.

"It's good that you understand. Remember this in your next life." The silver-haired woman's voice was empty. She stretched out her finger and waved it forward. Then, she turned around leisurely and faced Henry.

As for Anna, who was kneeling there, her pupils dilated and her whole body slowly fell forward. She fell headfirst to the ground, with a small wound on her neck, which took her life.

Henry looked at the silver-haired woman standing in front of him. The woman's perfect facial features were flawless, and her body was exquisite and enchanting. If one got attracted to her, even if that person was a holy angel, he would be taken to hell by her.

Henry opened his mouth slightly and called out the other person's name, "Cesia..."

"Brother Henry, did you miss me?" Cesia smiled wittily. She was not as cold as she was when she was facing Anna. She was like a pure and adorable fairy.

"Why?" Henry spoke. Henry had yet to understand the changes that had occurred to Cesia. All this time, in Henry's heart, Cesia was like his own sister. He had given the colourful King's Ring to Cesia. Wade and the others had also approved her as the owner of the colourful King's Ring. They all agreed that Cesia was the strongest one after Henry on Radiant Island.

But who would have imagined that the first person to betray Radiant Island would be Cesia?

In Henry's opinion, Cesia was not the kind of person who was extremely cruel. In the past, though she would perform missions with Henry and take countless lives, she would not be as heartless as she was now. Her actions showed that she no longer cared about human lives. Even those who were willing to work for her would be killed by her as she wished.

"Why?" Cesia tilted her head and blinked her big eyes. Looking at her current appearance, who would have thought that a few seconds ago, she would casually take a person's life.

"Cesia, who are you working for?" Henry took a step forward. "Everyone is waiting for you to come home."

"Haha." Cesia covered her mouth and laughed, "Brother Henry, you know, since I have made that decision, I will not change it easily. Let's talk about coming home later."

Cesia waved to Henry and then praised him, and then spoke to Zachary: "Zachary, I have to say that you are very lucky to meet Brother Henry here. But I don't know if you will be this lucky next time. I hope you can live longer. After all, you also invited me to dinner back then."

Cesia blinked her big eyes. Her appearance was particularly cute, but in Zachary's eyes, it was like the smile of the devil.

As a member of Radiant Island's, Zachary praised every single member from Radiant Island. This angel-like, silver-haired woman was definitely the most terrifying person on Radiant Island, aside from the Emperor of Hell.

Cesia raised her jade arm. The instant she raised her arm, the bulletproof glass around the house was almost completely shattered.

Henry's face changed. He clearly felt the terrible Qi that was released when she raised her arm. It almost made the air around vibrate. If this vibration was aimed at a person, he would be turned into meat paste in an instant.

Cesia leisurely left the room. The sky was already dark. Cesia's long silver hair was especially conspicuous in the darkness.

"Brother Henry, now you are both kind and weak. If so, you won't be able to keep the Fire Crystals. I'm afraid that even your beautiful fairy wife can't be saved." Cesia smiled at Henry and waved her hand. "Brother Henry, I'll go first. Remember to think about me."

The figure with silvery- white hair slowly disappeared into the darkness.

Henry looked in the distance, and no one knew what he was thinking about.

 Watch Ads to Get 15 Vouchers