

Chapter 799

Without the intervention of the Recluse Association, today's outcome was decided.

Originally, it was supposed to be a happy event held by the Zhu clan. The arrival of Henry added some red colour to it, but the red colour came from blood.

The battle cries were still going on.

Henry turned around and looked straight at the woman behind him.

The moment the Emperor of Hell saw the woman, the murderous aura on his whole body disappeared.

Henry opened his mouth, but did not know what to say. He disguised himself as Syl Zhang, which was enough to prove how much he had missed this woman. During the time when he was away, he missed the lovely woman in front of him all the time.

But when Henry saw Sylvia, he felt as if he didn't know how to speak, just like a young lad who just started having some romantic feelings.

Sylvia took off the phoenix coronet on her head, shook her hair that was cut off by herself, and took off the red phoenix robe on her body, revealing the white dress under the robe. She smiled at Henry and said softly, "What are you waiting for? You should hug me now."

A pair of strong big hands locked Sylvia's whole body on Henry's strong chest.

At the moment when she felt the warmth of the man's arms, a line of clear tears flowed down Sylvia's cheeks.

During the period after Henry left, Sylvia's heart was sore. Others couldn't feel it at all. She didn't even know who she can talk to, so she could only bear it silently.

From the moment Sylvia was threatened by the Su clan, she intended to give up Henry voluntarily. Later, news came from the outside world that Radiant Island had been destroyed and the emperor had died. Sylvia locked herself in the room and was doing self-hypnosis every single moment. Two months ago, Sylvia heard the news that Henry hadn't died in the Shen area. At that time, she almost jumped up excitedly. But the news that Henry had been locked up for nine years made her fall into despair again.

Sylvia, who was in despair, did not hesitate to play with fire and she wanted to make the Zhu clan and the Su clan pay the price. She did not hesitate to ruin the rest of her life for Henry. She still had to find a way out for him.

Now, Henry returned and swept away the clans.

At this moment, all the grievances that had been accumulated in Sylvia's heart for a few months burst out. This was the first time that she had been lying on a man's chest in forever. Henry was the only person who could make Sylvia feel safe and she regarded him as a harbour.

Henry caressed Sylvia's hair. When he saw the end of Sylvia's hair, he was slightly stunned. "My dear wife, your hair..."

"It was too long. I cut it." Sylvia pushed Henry away, got up from Henry's arms, hid her hair behind her neck, and said to Henry in a haughty tone, "You just left without saying a word. Now that you're back, how are you going to compensate me?"

Henry looked at Sylvia, who looked like a little girl, as if he had returned to their ordinary life. The killing scene he had just experienced appeared a long time ago. He scratched his head and said, "Honey, what do you want?"

Sylvia crossed her arms over her chest and turned her head aside. "I can't tell you right now! I have to think about it carefully. Just wait."

"No problem." Henry patted his chest and smiled. "Whatever you say, I will do it. By the way, honey, your clothes..."

Henry looked at the white dress on Sylvia's body and found it strange that there was a linen belt tied around the waist of the suit.

Sylvia said in a calm tone, "I was going to get married today. The clothes inside are for you. I thought that from today on, I would think that you were dead."

As soon as Sylvia finished speaking, she was grabbed by Henry. When she looked up, she saw Henry staring at her with deep feelings.

Henry's eyes suddenly showed such deep affection, which made Sylvia blush. She pulled her little hand out hard, but she couldn't pull it out no matter how hard she tried.

"What are you doing?!" Sylvia said in a flirtish voice.

"Honey." Henry held Sylvia's soft hands tightly in his palms. "During this period of time, I have wronged you. From today on, no matter what happens, I will never leave you again. I promise."

Henry didn't have any deep love words, but this guarantee was so sonorous and powerful that it was better than any sweet words.

In the beginning, Henry wanted to leave Sylvia in order to protect her and prevent others from linking her with himself. But Henry found that even if he left, he would not be able to protect Sylvia. In this way, it was better for everyone to bear the difficulties together.

Sylvia lowered her head and watched Henry grab her hand and twist her weak palm, holding it tightly with his fingers.

Just as Henry was about to speak, he heard a voice coming from outside the Zhu clan. The voice was deafening like a bell.

"Radiant Island, stop. You have killed enough!"

A white figure wearing a mask jumped up from outside the wall of the Zhu clan's manor, holding a silver spear in his hand.

"It's Silver Visitor!"

As soon as the figure appeared, others recognized who he was.

"It's Silver Visitor!"

"He also showed up!"

The appearance of Silver Visitor caused everyone to unconsciously stop their movements. Not only was he powerful, but he also represented Chinese officials.

Before Silver Visitor landed on the ground, he threw the silver spear in his hand. The silver spear was inserted less than two meters in front of Henry, and the body of the spear kept shaking, producing many shadows.

"The Emperor of Hell, you killed dozens of masters of the three clans in the Shen area, and now you have slaughtered all the Qi-controlling masters of the Zhu clan. The main members of the Su clan and the Xiao clan that appeared today are also killed. It's time to resolve your grievances. It's not appropriate to continue to fight." Silver Visitor said.

Henry looked at the man whose face was covered by a mask with a strange look in his eyes, waving his hand to Wade and others signalling them to stop fighting.

If Henry didn't say anything, even if the emperor of China came, Wade and others would still carry out Henry's orders.

"Patriarch, what's the identity of this man?" A person next to Ernest Jiang heard the visitor's words that could change Henry's attitude, so he could not help but ask in confusion.

"I'm not sure." Ernest shook his head. "Silver Visitor is a member of the official institution called Section Nine. As the most mysterious department in China, Section Nine is in charge of the underground forces of entire China, including our ancient martial kungfu families and the clans. All of us must obey their rules. As for how powerful they are, it has always been a mystery. Silver Visitor now represents Section Nine. Even the Emperor of Hell has to listen to them."

The man beside Ernest was speechless. He had already seen how strong the clans were. And he heard that the Zhu, Su, and Xiao clans were only the bottom of the clans, and there were even stronger clans above them.

Even those clans had to comply with the rules of this organisation.
One could imagine how powerful Section Nine was.

Chapter 800

Now, Silver Visitor spoke on behalf of Section Nine.

Would the Emperor of Hell listen to them?

Not only did the Jiang family's member ask the master about this man's background, but also others asked the same question.

After knowing how mysterious this organisation was, everyone felt a strong pressure from Silver Visitor.

Silver Visitor walked to Henry and said harshly, "The Emperor of Hell, you have crossed the line by what you have done. However, there is a reason for what you have done. I won't argue with you about this matter. Take your people and leave!"

There was a strong sense of self-confidence in the man's words.

When those clan members who had not been killed saw Silver Visitor, they all ran towards him as if they had seen their saviour, thinking that this man could protect them.

Wade and others gathered behind Henry as if they were facing a formidable enemy.

A member of the underground forces who followed the clans took a deep breath and said, "That's great. Silver Visitor has come out. Although the Emperor of Hell is strong, he can't ignore Section Nine, can he?"

"Of course he'll listen to them."

"The people from Section Nine have arrived. Let's see how arrogant the Emperor of Hell is."

These people who had spoken had originally enjoyed their life under the protection of Radiant Island. After hearing the news of the sinking of Radiant Island, they immediately revolted and placed the island on top of a villain's identity.

Silver Visitor's body was filled with a powerful aura.

Henry tilted his head and looked at the man in front of him. Suddenly, his arm stretched out and went straight to the mask on the man's face.

The man's face suddenly changed, and he quickly retreated.

The man was fast, but Henry was even faster.

When Silver Visitor stepped back two steps, he only felt a chill in front of him. The mask on his face was completely removed by Henry.

The man, whose mask had been removed, was like a frightened girl. He quickly reached out and covered the lower half of his face.

Henry curled his lips and said, "All right, don't cover it up. I saw it."

As soon as Henry finished speaking, he saw Wade rushing toward the man. He slapped the back of the man's head and shouted, "Ha, ha, ha! Senior brother! I was wondering why I haven't seen you for such a long time. It's true that you have joined Section Nine! And you are so pretentious!"

Senior brother?

Wade's address and attitude towards Silver Visitor caused all the underground forces present, as well as the clan members, to widen their eyes in shock.

Many people had witnessed how domineering Silver Visitor was on that rainy night of the Ancient Chinese Martial Arts Meeting. He stood on top of the major families and clans, announcing three rules.

Even the old chiefs of the three clans didn't dare to say anything. He was so domineering that he made people realize the power of Silver Visitor and the deterrent of Section Nine.

But now, when the king of Radiant Island came up, he slapped Silver Visitor in the back of his head without saying a word. Listening to the words of the king, it was obvious that he did not treat Silver Visitor as an outsider and he could say whatever he wanted to say.

Silver Visitor smiled at Wade with some embarrassment.

"I say, Senior Brother, aren't you too bold now? You dare to talk to my boss in this way." Wade looked up and down at the man.

Silver Visitor smiled ingratiatingly. He scratched his head and said, "I didn't expect Martial Uncle to recognize me."

"I recognized you as soon as you opened your mouth," Henry said.

Martial Uncle!

Silver Visitor's address to Henry made the eyes of the people who had been widened almost pop out of their heads.

Silver Visitor called the Emperor of Hell 'Martial Uncle'? What was going on?

"It is said that Aaron Bai once accepted an apprentice." Soul of the Ji family said. This sentence helped to clear the confusion of all the people present.

Aaron was Justus' disciple on paper. Although he was Justus' disciple, he entered the sect earlier than the Emperor of Hell, so he could be regarded as the senior brother of the Emperor of Hell.

In term of seniority, the disciple of Aaron should call the Emperor of Hell his martial uncle.

Henry said, "You left without a word, and you joined Section Nine. It seems that you've grown very fast. In the past, your strength was even worse than mine. Now you're at the late stage of Qi-concentrating realm, right?"

"Yes." The man nodded. "Indeed, I am at the late stage of Qi Cond, but I am still far from Martial Uncle. Martial Uncle, as far as I know, you're a genius. You've only been in contact with Qi for less than half a year, but I can't see through your strength. I'm afraid it has been long since you stepped out of Qi-concentrating realm."

Henry smiled and did not speak.

According to his strength, Henry should have just entered the Qi-concentrating realm, but with his fighting experience, under the training of Silas and others, he had already been able to completely defeat a master of Qi-concentrating realm. Plus Henry had a special way of practising Qi, so it was normal that Silver Visitor could not see his strength.

Wade and others did not feel surprised when they heard man's words. After all, Henry was powerful and they had known that. Even if Silver Visitor said that Henry was invincible now, Wade and others would not be too surprised. They had long been accustomed to Henry's strength.

But what the man said shocked all the underground forces.

It had been two months since the matter in the Shen area. In the past two months, all the underground forces had been exploring methods of Qi-refining, but the ones who made the fastest progress were just in the Qi-controlling Realm and other people had called them geniuses.

However, compared with the Emperor of Hell, these geniuses were like a fool. It took them two months just to regulate their Qi. It was unknown how long it would take for them to reach the Qi-concentrating realm.

As for the Emperor of Hell, after half a year, he had already broken through to the Qi-concentrating realm. In comparison, the gap between them was like that between Heaven and Earth.

"Did you come here today to deliver me these messages on behalf of Section Nine?" Henry looked at Silver Visitor and asked.

"Yes." Silver Visitor nodded. "Martial Uncle, Section Nine knows the origin of these things. Today's events can be considered as something that hasn't happened, but I hope you leave the three clans with a chance to live. These clans cannot disappear."

After finishing his words, Silver Visitor took two steps forward and said to Henry in a low voice, "Martial Uncle, my master asked me to come to you this time. He will contact you later."

Henry nodded, chuckled and said loudly, "Haha, since it's you who asked, I have to give you some face."

After Henry said that, he looked around and said, "Today, I don't want to kill the remaining clansmen!"

Hearing Henry's words, the remaining members of the clans all breathed a sigh of relief.

"Thank you, Martial Uncle." Silver Visitor gave a fist-palm salute to Henry.

Henry changed the subject and said, "But I have a condition."

"Martial Uncle, please speak." The man said respectfully.

Henry stepped forward and walked up to the sky as if he was walking on the invisible steps. He spoke at the same time, his voice as loud as a bell clearly spreading to everyone's ears. "From today on, I, Henry Zhang, will be in charge of the ancient martial arts and clans in China. From today on, in three days, I will ask all the leaders of all forces to report in front of me one by one! If anyone doesn't agree with that, I will kill him!"

Chapter 801

Henry stood high in the sky, looking down in all directions.

Wherever his gaze swept, the person whom he was looking at would subconsciously lower his head. This was a subduing in his subconsciousness.

"Three days!" Henry stretched out three fingers and said, "I'll be here for three days, and I'll wait for you."

After Henry finished speaking, the people below, those kungfu families and the underground forces following those families, all showed smiles on their faces.

Indeed, just as they had hoped, the return of the king meant that the clans would be trampled underfoot.

Silver Visitor said loudly, "There are rules in the underground world. Naturally, there must be a person who manages the rules. The rules have been set. Whether or not you obey it, we don't care. Still, as the saying goes, the grievances in the underground world can be settled after sunset!"

Silver Visitor's voice was very loud. Everyone could hear him clearly and understand what he meant. As soon as the sun set, Section Nine would not interfere in underground world battles. That was to say, after the sun went down the mountain, if Radiant Island really did something like a massacre, no one would come forward to prevent them.

"We, members of Viper Rose, will listen to the king's orders!" White Rose was the first to speak.

As soon as White Rose came out, the other underground forces could no longer remain silent. The sound of White Rose was like a floodgate. It opened the gate at once, and all kinds of sounds could be heard one after another.

Although there were many voices, all of them expressed their loyalty to Radiant Island without exception.

Hearing the words of the underground forces, Silver Visitor looked at the remaining people of the three clans and asked, "What do you think?"

As soon as Silver Visitor's voice fell, Joe could not wait to reply, "My Zhu clan will be loyal to Radiant Island!"

After Joe finished his words, he faced Henry, knelt down on one knee, and took the initiative to show his loyalty.

"What about you?" Silver Visitor looked at the rest of the Su clan and Xiao clan.

The few remaining members of the Su clan looked back and forth and followed Joe's example. They all knelt down on one knee. "The Su clan is willing to be loyal to Radiant Island."

The eyes of the people who had knelt down in front of the Su clan were filled with helplessness. They truly didn't want to accept such a thing, but what was the method to refuse it? The former clan leader of the Su clan, Freud, had been executed in the Shen area. The current clan leader had just taken over as a leader, but his head had been chopped off. At this moment, there was only a headless corpse lying to the side. They believed that if they didn't express their loyalties, the great army of the Radiant Island would be able to suppress them and destroy the Su clan tonight.

Both the Zhu clan and the Su clan had expressed their stance. Naturally, the Xiao clan could not reject. They also knelt down.

So far, all the three clans had admitted defeat.

The underground forces who were attached to the clans had already regretted their actions. They had never thought that the Emperor of Hell would return so quickly, and he would crush the clans so directly in such a mighty manner.

"Three days." Henry said again, "After three days, there is no need for the underground forces to come to report. They will not exist in the future. It's up to you whether you dismiss your force yourself or you want me to help you!"

After Henry finished, he fell back to the ground, took Sylvia's hand, and said softly, "Honey, it is the first day of the New Year, let's go and see the beautiful scenery of Du Hai."

"Okay." Sylvia nodded gently and grabbed Henry.

Henry took Sylvia's hand and strode out of the Zhu clan's manor under the attention of a group of underground forces.

"I haven't seen him so powerful for a long time." Soul Ji sighed. "At the beginning of the establishment of Radiant Island, he alone suppressed forces from all over the country. At that time, he was so domineering that I was afraid that I couldn't help fighting with him even if I was a few decades younger. However, the days after that, he was quite calm. I thought that I would never see him like this again."

"It's not that he wants to be calm, but he wants to be calm to the person he loves." Ernest shook his head. "How can an expert who used to stand at the top of the world be willing to be an ordinary person? If so, he is not qualified to stand at the top of the world. He has been making a decision all the time, either standing at the top of the mountain with his lover or drowning on the bottom of the sea."

"It's a pity." Elder Bai shook his head. "He hasn't even made this decision yet, and someone has helped him. After the silence, the Emperor of Hell will be more terrible than in the past. Look, at most four months will be calm. Four months later, there will be a new clan coming out. But according to my estimation, those arrogant clans will inevitably suffer a strong blow when they come out."

"I can see that." Soul said, "The Emperor of Hell has already stood at such a height. Although he is the guardian of ancient Chinese martial arts, we can't rely on him all the time. The three of us also have to work hard. My father has said that if this matter is solved, we can go back to ask for help."

"Same." Elder Bai opened his mouth.

"Then let's see which of the three major families can produce new soldiers first, hahaha!" Ernest laughed loudly.

The people from the three big families from the capital left this place amid a burst of laughter.

Three days could pass very fast.

Ordinary people were still immersed in the atmosphere of the New Year's holiday. The threshold of the Zhu clan's manor had been flattened in the past three days.

People from all the major forces came here one after another to report their loyalty to the Emperor of Hell. Unfortunately, the people who came here did not even see Henry. Everything here was handled by Wade and others.

January 4th.

Three days had passed by. On the last night of, the Reapers and the kings of Radiant Island left Du Hai.

Early the next morning, a piece of news, with the momentum of a storm, swept through the whole China.

In a single night, tens of thousands of Reapers came out. They were led by Radiant Island's kings, wiping out many underground forces in succession. These underground forces were all those who didn't report to Du Hai in the past three days.

This news caused everyone to feel the determination of Radiant Island. They realized that the almighty Emperor of Hell had returned!

January 5th, Yinzhou, Western China. The weather was bright and there were no clouds. The temperature was around negative two degrees.

This temperature could not affect Henry, but in order to avoid the contemptuous eyes of others, Henry still wore a coat.

Sylvia was also wrapped in a big coat and was wearing a fur hat.

When she walked out of the airport, she kept rubbing her hands, thought for a while, and then put them in Henry's clothes. It was hot on his belly. This cute appearance and the woman's gesture attracted the attention of passers-by.

Henry stood at the exit of the airport and took a deep breath. After such a long time, he returned to Yinzhou again.

No matter how prosperous other cities were, only Yinzhou could give Henry such a sense of belonging.

Sylvia threw a car key to Henry and said, "The car is in the parking lot. You can drive it. Let's see if you still where your home is."

"Of course I know." Henry patted his chest and said.
