

Chapter 805

A few strong men were just about to take action when they heard a shout from the door of the mall, "President Lin! President Lin!"

This voice sounded. It was less than 30 seconds after Sylvia hung up the phone. Obviously, the person who answered the phone rushed out immediately.

"Old Feng?" The young man in front of Sylvia saw the person running out from the entrance of the mall and immediately called out.

The person who was called Old Feng was only in his thirties, and he was about 1.75 metres tall. He gave off a sense of maturity and success. Old Feng's consumption power could be clearly seen by the Rolex on his wrist.

Old Feng glanced at the young man but did not say anything. Instead, he immediately ran to Sylvia's side and smiled at her with a flattering face, "President Lin, when did you come back?"

President Lin?

When the young man heard how Old Feng addressed Sylvia, he was stunned for a moment, and then his face was shocked, "You are Sylvia Lin!"

"Sylvia Lin?" The expression of that middle-aged man also changed.

Only the eight strong men who were security guards felt nothing when they heard the voice.

"Mr. Feng, can you explain to me what's going on?" Sylvia looked at him with a cold face, "Are these people security guards of our shopping mall? Smoking cigarettes in the shopping mall and not even wearing uniforms? Also, why didn't I know that the HR manager has changed?"

"Well..." Mr. Feng took a look at the situation around him. With so many years of experience, he could figure out the current situation. He opened his mouth and said, "President Lin, something happened in the company during your absence. Manager Richard has resigned, and we are..."

"I don't care what happened in the company. You don't have to explain it to me now." Sylvia pointed at the young man in front of her. "Now fire him immediately. And these people, since when does our Lins Group employ this kind of people to be security guards? They don't even abide by the rules!"

"President Lin, this is..." Mr. Feng said with an awkward expression on his face.

"If you can't handle this, you'd better get out of here with them!" Sylvia waved her hand impatiently.

Hearing this, even if Mr. Feng was in a dilemma, he had to be obedient. He turned around and said to the young man and the eight strong men, "You have been fired, leave now!"

After that, Mr. Feng smiled to Sylvia ingratiatingly.

Hearing Mr. Feng's words, the young man's face turned extremely ugly. He had never thought that the woman in front of him was Sylvia, the president of Lins Group!

The young man clenched his fist and said, "President Lin, I have heard of you. However, what you have done is a bit too much. Although I am only the HR manager, you have to know that this shopping mall is not in the charge of your Lins Group, we..."

Before the young man could finish his words, he was interrupted by Sylvia who impatiently waved her hand. "All right, I'm not interested in listening to what you're talking about. Now that you've been fired, please distance yourself from this shopping mall!"

The young man pointed at Sylvia and said, "Okay, President Lin, I think you haven't returned to Yinzhou for a long time. You don't know who is in charge of Yinzhou's business world now. You fired me! Well, your Family Lin has the guts. Let me see how long you can be arrogant! Let's go!"

The young man waved his hand and was about to leave with his people.

Although the middle-aged man was still angry, after knowing that the woman in front of him was Sylvia, he did not dare to be as presumptuous as before.

"Go? Did I tell you to leave?" Sylvia looked at them coldly and waved her hand.

A businesswoman, holding a tablet, ran over in a hurry. "President Lin, this is the video you asked for."

Sylvia took a look at the tablet. On the video, she could clearly see that the middle-aged man's son forcibly grabbed the plush toy in Lisa's hand, and then pushed Lisa down. Lisa got up and took back her plush toy. From beginning to end, she did not touch the son of the middle-aged man.

"The surveillance video is here. My daughter hasn't touched your son at all, but your son did hit my daughter. Tell me, how are you going to deal with this matter?" Sylvia said with anger in her eyes.

"President Lin, is it necessary to do this?" The young man looked at Sylvia with a frown.

"I'm asking you, how do you plan to deal with it?" Sylvia repeated.

The young man winked at the middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man gritted his teeth and said, "President Lin, we were wrong. Just say it. What kind of compensation do you want?"

"You don't need to pay me back. I don't want your things," Sylvia said rudely, "Apologize to my daughter."

To ask an adult to apologize to a child? To the middle-aged man, this was even more difficult than asking him to give compensation.

Several commercial vehicles without plates suddenly stopped at the parking lot. As the doors opened, many strong men in black got out of the cars one after another. It could be seen at the first sight that the group of people leading them was not easy to deal. They all came to the place where Henry and others were. Then, the middle-aged man and others were surrounded by them. These people all had the symbol of Green Leaf on them.

The head of Green Leaf looked at Henry, bowed his head and said hello, "Mr. Zhang, everyone is here. There are four hundred people. Do you want everyone to come over?"

"No." Henry waved his hand. "My wife said that she didn't want to make things big."

"Understood. Then I'll tell them to wait first." Green Leaf's leader responded.

The middle-aged man looked at these members of the Green leaf surrounding him and swallowed his saliva. He looked at Lisa in Henry's arms and said, "Kid, it was my fault just now. Forgive me, okay?"

"You bullied me and my mother, and I won't forgive you! You also threw my rabbit away!" Lisa's eyes were red and she said in a childish tone. The rabbit she said was the plush toy that was taken away by the middle-aged man's son. After getting it back, the middle-aged man took it back from her hands and threw it directly into the trash can.

"It seems that your apology is not sincere enough. My daughter is unwilling to forgive you, so..." Henry looked at Green Leaf's people and said, "Tell them to come over. No one can leave today."

"Understood." Green Leaf's leader nodded and then took out his mobile phone.

When the middle-aged man saw this, his face suddenly changed. What did the three-year-old girl know? If she said that she didn't forgive him, he might really not be able to leave today.

The middle-aged man did not doubt that Henry was serious at all, because the middle-aged man himself had done such a thing before.

The middle-aged man saw that more and more people were gathering around, so he grabbed his son who was crying. He slapped his son in the face and scolded, "Cry! You only know how to cry! Who asked you to take the little sister's stuff? I'll kill you!"

After the middle-aged man scolded, he kicked his son again.

Chapter 806

Henry looked at the child who was being beaten up by his father and had no sympathy at all. This kind of rascal child had to be taught a lesson sooner or later. He saw the video on which the child pushed Lisa to the ground. If he were an adult, Henry would definitely cut off his hands and feet.

The middle-aged man slapped his son's face several times. His son's face was red and swollen in an instant. He cried so hard that his heart and lungs were torn.

Listening to the cries coming from the side, Lisa tightly held Henry's neck. "Dad, make him stop, okay? I don't blame them."

"All right, my daughter has already said something. Don't hit him." Henry said and stopped the middle-aged man's action. He was not afraid that the middle-aged man would damage his son, but he just didn't want this scene to disturb Lisa.

Hearing this, the middle-aged man immediately stopped what he was doing and repeatedly thanked Lisa, "Thank you! Thank you, little princess."

"My dear wife, Jenny, let's go. It's time for dinner. Let's go to eat first." Holding Lisa, Henry walked towards the shopping mall not far away.

Sylvia once again glared at the middle-aged man, held Jenny's arm, and followed Henry.

Mr. Feng looked at Sylvia's back and then looked at the young man in front of him. He sighed and ran to Sylvia in a hurry.

"Honey, what happened to Lins Group? Who are those people?" Henry asked as soon as he entered the shopping mall.

"I'm not sure." Sylvia shook her head.

"The man just now apparently listened to the HR manager. He is the HR manager of the shopping mall. He can make a man who drives a Benz listen to him. It seems that Lin's company has been infiltrated." Henry's mouth curved into a smile. "The market in Yinzhou is a big cake, and some people want a piece of it. You've just left for two months. Some people can't wait."

"Indeed." Jenny opened her mouth and said, "Recently, the Belief Group has emerged in Yinzhou. The young man from that group just now is a member of that group."

"Belief Group?" Sylvia showed a puzzled look, "Why have I never heard of it. President Qin, who is the other party?"

Jenny shook her head and said, "I don't know. They talked about cooperation with me some time ago, but I didn't have much contact with them. Mr. Feng should come over and tell you about it later."

Jenny's words had just left her mouth when Mr. Feng's voice rang out behind the three of them.

"President Lin! President Lin!" Mr. Feng ran all the way and stood in front of Sylvia, panting.

"What's wrong?" Sylvia showed a calm look.

"President Lin, let me explain to you what happened today." Mr. Feng said with a smiling face.

Sylvia waved her hand and said, "I'm going to have dinner with my daughter. You can go to your office and prepare the materials. I will meet you in an hour."

"Got it, got it." Mr. Feng nodded repeatedly. After greeting Henry and Jenny one by one, he left and went to the office on the top floor.

"Let's go, let's eat first. I want to see who is another new big shot in Yinzhou." Sylvia took off the cotton cap on her head and didn't care.

"My dear wife, I find that you have become much more aggressive now." Henry grinned.

"Really?" Sylvia touched the corners of her eyes unconsciously. Maybe she didn't even realize that after coming into contact with the huge underground forces like the clans and the ancient martial arts families, some of the problems that had been enough to give her a headache in the past were already some insignificant things now.

Jenny's gaze fixed on Sylvia's head, "Sylvia, your hair..."

Sylvia was stunned. She had really forgotten about her hair. She shook her short hair generously. "It's too troublesome to wash and dry long hair in winter. I just had to cut it. What do you think?"

Jenny opened her mouth but didn't say anything.

For a woman, long hair was of extraordinary importance. Because her long hair was difficult to dry, she decided to cut her hair. This excuse was too weak.

Jenny knew without thinking that this must have something to do with Henry. Something big must have happened between the two of them in the past two months.

Henry took the three ladies to eat some food in the mall.

Jenny knew that Henry and Sylvia still had things to do, so she took Lisa home.

At first, Lisa held Henry and was unwilling to let him go. Only after Henry promised to tell her a story tonight, Lisa went back with Jenny with satisfaction.

Henry and Sylvia saw off Jenny and Lisa. Then they went to the top floor of the mall.

Mr. Feng's office was in the innermost office of the commercial office on the top floor of the shopping mall.

When Henry and Sylvia arrived, Mr. Feng had already stood at the door and waited respectfully.

"President Lin and Mr. Zhang." Mr. Feng greeted them respectfully when he saw them.

Henry walked in the front. After pushing the door of the office open, he first glanced around the whole office, and then waited at the door. After Sylvia entered, Henry followed her in.

Mr. Feng followed at the back.

As soon as the three people entered the door, Mr. Feng's secretary came in and made tea for Henry and Sylvia.

Sylvia sat on the leather sofa in Mr. Feng's office and said, "Go ahead."

Mr. Feng first smiled at Henry and Sylvia respectively, then he said, "President Lin, the two people just now are from the Belief Group. Now the Belief Group occupies 8 percent of the shares of this shopping mall. To be exact, the Belief Group has already occupied 10 percent of the shares of Lins Group."

"Be more specific." Sylvia looked confused, but her eyes were full of anger. Most of the shares of the Lins Group were in Sylvia's hands, but at this time, 10% were in the hands of that group. That group obviously wanted to infiltrate in the Lins Group.

Mr. Feng said with doubt, "President Lin, I'm just following orders about the Belief Group. These were all arranged for me by vice president Tian."

"Faustina?" Sylvia blurted out this name.

Mr. Feng nodded and said, "Before you left, all the power of the company was handed over to vice president Tian. What she said was equal to what you said, we have to listen to her. I only know that the Belief Group and vice president Tian have signed many agreements. Now the huge part of our Lins Group has something to do with the Belief group. Some small companies in Yinzhou have been acquired by the Belief Group. Now, it can be said that the Belief Group is ranked fourth in the whole Yinzhou. Only our Lins Group, Hengyuan and Chows' can suppress them. But according to the current situation, the Belief Group will soon surpass President Qin's Hengyuan and be ranked third in Yinzhou."

"Dear, do you need me to arrange someone to investigate that Faustina?" Henry said, sitting on the side.

"No." Sylvia shook her head and said without any doubt, "Faustina will not be a problem. Let me talk to her in person."

Chapter 807

Mr. Feng took a piece of A4 paper on his desk and respectfully handed it to Sylvia.

"President Lin, here's the information about the Belief group."

Henry only glanced and roughly understood what the group was going to do.

Sylvia looked at it and frowned, "Honey, I feel that there is something wrong with this group, but I can't figure out what exactly."

"Yes, there is something wrong." Henry chuckled, shook his head and said, "This is a deception. But many people can't see through it. You have had no contact with this kind of thing, so it's normal that you can't recognize it. He is..."

Henry was about to explain to Sylvia, but was interrupted by Sylvia.

"Stop! Don't tell me. Let me think about it by myself. I can't depend on you for everything, can I?"

Henry shrugged his shoulders and said, "Okay, if you can't figure it out, you can ask me again. Then let's go first."

Sylvia nodded, stood up, and left Mr. Feng's office with Henry.

When Mr. Feng saw Sylvia and Henry walking out of the office, he breathed a sigh of relief and then ran up in a hurry. "President Lin, Mr. Zhang, I'll see you off."

Mr. Feng followed them all the way to the parking lot and watched them go away.

In the car, Henry asked Sylvia, "Honey, who is Faustina Tian? You seem to trust her very much."

"Yes, I trust her. Otherwise, I wouldn't have handed over the entire Lin Groups to her before I went to the Su clan," Sylvia replied. "Faustina and her family are all old employees of the Lin Group. From the time her grandfather was born, they were in the Lin Group. Therefore, the Tian family could definitely be said to be the senior members of the Lin Group. Faustina's parents all held important positions in the Lins Group. Faustina is twenty-six years old this year and she graduated last year. She has a double degree in economics and management. She can be called a genius. She has been in the Lins Group since she graduated. Over the past year, she has performed well at work and was loyal to the Lins Group and because of her ancestors, I promoted her to the vice president. I've sent her information to your phone."

Henry nodded. When they waited for the traffic light at a crossroad, Henry had quickly finished reading all of Faustina's information.

"Yes, she received a scholarship during her school days. She also published a few articles in journals and was even on the cover of an overseas economic magazine. She's a talent," Henry commented.

In other people's eyes, Faustina was absolutely a genius. But in Henry's view, Faustina was not qualified enough to be considered a genius. After all, Henry had seen too many people who were smarter than Faustina, and those people were all working hard for Henry.

Sylvia continued, "I've sent people to investigate her, and they had found out that she had donated her scholarship to the village in mountains. They also asked her classmates about her. They have an overall high evaluation of Faustina's personality. The only thing is that she is too arrogant. It's not because of her family background, but because of her talent."

"People with talent are all proud. This is their capital. In this case, Faustina is both good at learning and her character is okay." Henry turned the car.

"Yes." Sylvia nodded, "So, there is no problem with Faustina's loyalty. I think she must have been confused by this group. After all, the information says the group has three billion working capital. It's too scary. If it weren't for my experience, I would have also been so confused."

"I'm experienced in this aspect, so I think there's anything wrong with the group. Even so, I can't find the exact reason. Faustina has only been in the business for less than a year, so it's normal for her to be fooled."

"What about you?" Henry looked at Sylvia and asked, "What are you going to do? Are you going to ask Faustina directly, or are you going to take advantage of this matter to teach her a lesson?"

Sylvia sighed, "Just now I was going to ask her directly. However, talents are rare. She is very confident in her own talent. Regarding age, I am younger than her. If I ask her directly, I am afraid that she will not be convinced. Let's take this opportunity to teach her a lesson. I just heard president Qin said that there will be a party held by the Yinzhou Business Association tomorrow, and the Belief Group will also participate in it. Will you go with me?"

"Of course," Henry answered without hesitation. "I'm your protector. I'll go wherever you go."

"I hope so." Sylvia rolled her eyes. "I'm just guessing that you're my protector at the moment. I'm afraid that it won't be long before you leave. After all, the entire underground world is waiting for you. Sigh, I'm such a pitiful little woman. If I want to see you more often, I'll have to rely on the Emperor of Hell's mood."

"Honey, you're wrong about me!" Henry put on a bitter face. "As long as you say that you don't want me to go, I won't go even if the emperor comes to beg me."

"Forget it." Sylvia curled her lips. "When the time comes, you will be lazy to move. It'll all depend on me. I don't have the strength of the Emperor of Hell, so I can't bear the anger of the entire underground world. Just turn around, don't go to the company, and go home directly. Lisa is probably still lying on the bed waiting for you to tell her a story."

In the Lins Group.

At 9 o'clock at night.

It was January now. It was completely dark at this time. In addition to the security room and corridor, there was also lighting in the vice president's office on the 17th floor of the Lins Group.

Faustina Tian was a very elegant woman. Her appearance was not very outstanding. When she stood there, she would give people the aura of a strong woman.

In front of Faustina, there was a thick stack of documents. The intensity of her work was no less than Sylvia's.

In front of Faustina's desk, there were three people, two men and a woman, all in their thirties, all of whom were the managers of the Lins Group.

"Vice president Tian, I think there's something wrong with this document." A man in the middle said, "Our new building shouldn't be placed on Zhengyuan Street. Now, it's one of the main roads connecting the north and south of Yinzhou. The traffic flow is extremely high. If we put the building on Zhengyuan Street, there will be some difficulties for residents to enter and exit the building. Our Lins Group has always placed the experience of the residents in the first place."

"Put it on Zhengyuan Street." Faustina stared at the documents in her hand and said, "You know, Zhengyuan Street is now the main street of Yinzhou. Our new residential area will have an extremely imposing style, and it will be one of the main symbols of our company. The traffic flow will have its own advertising effect."

"But ..."

"But what?" Faustina cut him off immediately. "If President Lin gave an order, would you still make such a suggestion? Do as I say!"

"Got it." He heaved a sigh and walked out of the office.

Chapter 808

By the time the other two managers finished reporting to Faustina, it was already 10 o'clock in the evening.

Faustina was half lying on her office chair. She took off the radiation-proof glasses she wore in front of her computer and reached out to rub her temples, slowly exhaling.

A default ringing tone of Huawei cellphone rang.

Faustina answered the phone.

"Hey, dad."

"Faustina, Manager Wang said that you want to build the entrance of the residential area in Zhengyuan Street?" A middle-aged man's voice sounded on the phone.

"Yes, what's wrong?"

"Faustina, you have to change your plan. Zhengyuan Street is the main road connecting the north and south, and the traffic flow is huge. If the entrance is at Zhengyuan Street, it will make it difficult for the residents to go in and out. If it's just for the convenience of getting close to the business district, you can just place the entrance on the side. If President Lin was there, she wouldn't have chosen to put the entrance there."

"President Lin, President Lin!" Faustina's face showed impatience.

"Dad, why do you always mention President Lin? Do you really think I'm inferior to her? I have seen the development plan of Lins Group for the next few years, and the real estate will take 30% of the development direction of Lins Group. Now, this residential area will become a natural advertisement in the future. At the very least, it can provide Lins Group with tens of millions of advertisement fees!"

"Alas." Faustina's father sighed. "You're still too shallow."

"What do you mean by shallow?" Faustina suddenly stood up from her chair and said in a louder voice, "Dad, do you think from the bottom of your heart that our family is not as good as the Family Lin? I admit that Lin has the ability. She can manage the whole Lin Group perfectly. Her management process is beyond my ability. But in terms of business investment and development, I am definitely not inferior to her. This time I want to prove to you that I, Faustina Tian, absolutely have the ability. I not only can create a natural advertising effect in this new residential area, but also the development direction of the Lin Group in the next few years. I can make a better choice!"

"Faustina, business is like a battlefield. Your father has been working in the Lins Group for such a long time. I used to be young, same as you. At that time, I was more proud than you. But in the end, you will..."

"All right, Dad, stop talking. I have my own ideas. You can rest assured that I won't bring shame to our Tian family. Under my management, Lins Group will only get better and better. It's time to finish the work for today. I have to go."

Without waiting for her father's reply, Faustina hung up the phone and strode out of the office.

The next morning.

Henry got up from bed at 6 o'clock in the morning, and the sky was still dark.

When Henry came to the courtyard and looked at the wooden pavilion in the courtyard, a smile unconsciously appeared on his face. He could feel that he was extremely satisfied at this moment. The most important people and things in his life were all by his side, which made him feel at ease.

This kind of peace of mind was something that Henry had never experienced, even on the day when he became the Emperor of Hell.

Henry stood in the courtyard and practiced boxing. This kind of exercise was no longer effective for Henry, but he still habitually practiced this set every day.

At seven o'clock in the morning, Henry returned to the house, took a shower and prepared breakfast.

At 7.30 a.m., the three ladies all got up and sat at the dining table to enjoy the delicious breakfast cooked by Henry.

Sylvia and Jenny chatted about the latest issues regarding Yinzhou's business world.

Henry was looking at Lisa.

It was such a happy scene, but he felt that something was missing.

"President Qin, are you going to attend the gathering of the Trade Association today?" Sylvia took a piece of bread and put it into her mouth and gently took a bite.

"I won't go." Jenny smiled. "Recently, there are too many things to deal with in the company. I have to deal with them."

"Lisa, what about you?" Henry rubbed her little head. "Are you going to play with Mom Jenny or going to the party with Mom Sylvia?"

Sitting on a chair, Lisa held a plastic bowl for children and drank porridge in big gulps. When she heard Henry's question, she took the bowl that was almost buckled on her face. She stretched out her little hand and wiped the rice grains on her face. "Daddy, I'm going to play with children."

When Henry heard this, he could not help laughing.

This girl was young compared with other kids from the welfare home, but she liked to call the children older than her as children.

"Okay, then father and Mom Sylvia will take you to the welfare home to play the children first."

"Okay." Lisa nodded her little head.

After breakfast, Henry and Sylvia drove to the welfare home.

The new welfare home was not as remote as it used to be. On the contrary, it was located in the centre of Yinzhou.

Sylvia also knew the importance of the welfare home to Henry. She had given the best piece of land that the Lins Group currently had to the welfare home.

When Sylvia set up the welfare home, she chose a high-intensity environmental protection material. The whole welfare home was made of steel. The material was directly made by the Lins factory.

There was a building that had been made up in this manner in China. In nineteen days, the building had been covering fifty-seven floors, and it was capable of withstanding an earthquake of 9.0 magnitude.

Although this method of construction was fast, the cost was high. Almost no real estate would adopt this method. Sylvia also wanted the children of the welfare home to move in earlier, which was why she spent a lot of money.

The whole welfare home was larger than before. In the welfare home, a small children's paradise was built. Not far from the welfare home, Sylvia also invested in a kindergarten, so that Dean Cui did not have to worry about the children's early education.

Looking from afar, the welfare home's outer appearance was like a fairytale town in cartoons. The welfare home was at a certain distance from the road and could ensure the safety of children to the greatest extent.

In general, the new welfare home was more comprehensive than the previous one.

Henry saw all this, and he didn't say anything more. He just held Sylvia's little hand tightly.

After leaving Lisa at the welfare home, Henry and Sylvia stayed to play with the children for a while and then went to the place where the party was held by the trade association.

The Trade Association of Yinzhou was established by Robert Lin. Until now, the party was held every year. It could be said that it was the largest business party in the whole of Western China. Not only the enterprises in Yinzhou but all the enterprises in Western China would also attend.

Sylvia took out two documents from her purse. "Let's go. Let's go in first and see how Faustina and the others are doing."

Henry looked at the two documents in Sylvia's hand and said, "Honey, you're really well-prepared. Have you figured out what is wrong about the Belief Group?"

"Almost. Let's see what kind of drug they are selling today." Sylvia smiled confidently.

Chapter 809

The location of the gathering was the Sun Hotel in Yinzhou.

As the oldest five-star hotel in Yinzhou, even people living in the surrounding counties had heard the name of Sun Hotel.

It was just that the era was changing. There were all kinds of new high-end hotels. The old-school five-star hotels were getting worse and worse because the facilities were getting worse and worse.

The reason why the gathering was held here was just because of the tradition left by Robert.

Sun Hotel was also purchased by a company, not for profit. Only on the day of the trade union gathering, the place was open for the public.

The parking lot in front of Sun Hotel was full of luxury cars.

In front of the hotel, the representatives of several enterprises in Yinzhou were waiting at the door and were responsible for the registration of the guests.

Henry and Sylvia held the work badges of Lins Group and walked into the hotel very easily.

The gathering venue of the Trade Association was in the banquet hall on the third floor of the hotel.

In the past, the gathering would usually be held in the form of a meeting. One person would speak on stage while the rest would listen below the stage. However, as the heirs of the business grew younger, this kind of conference form was gradually evolved into a banquet form. It was not that boring, and everyone could make more friends during the gathering.

In the banquet hall on the third floor, there was soft and gentle music, and the crystal chandelier was hanging on the ceiling. Although it looked luxurious, the feeling of the past could be felt, which was completely inconsistent with the modern feeling.

There were a lot of exquisite buffets in the banquet hall, ranging from dessert cakes to the main course.

Henry and Sylvia were sitting in an inconspicuous corner. They took two cups of hot coffee and talked about some daily topics.

"Honey, don't you find that the decoration style here is similar to the ancient castle on the island?" Sylvia gently covered her mouth. "Everything needs to be large and nice. Do you like this European style?"

Henry touched his nose and said, "I don't know what the decoration style is, but I know a little about Fengshui."

"You know Fengshui?" Sylvia looked at Henry in surprise.

Henry rolled his eyes and said, "What's so strange about that? My master, when I first met him, was giving people instruction on how to burry people according to Fengshui, and he was often talking about those strange things. I only listened to him every day and now I understand a lot."

Sylvia blinked her big eyes. "Hubby, I've often heard people mention Justus Lu. What kind of person was your master? How did you meet him?"

"Meet him?" Henry couldn't help recalling the scene of that year. Justus' appearance absolutely changed his life. "The old man gave me a drumstick, and he said he would give me double after I ate it. If I can still eat, he will give me double again."

"What do you mean?" Sylvia was confused.

Henry scratched his head in embarrassment. "How should I say it? At that time, my family was in a relatively difficult situation, and I didn't have money for food. If someone gave me drumsticks, I would definitely eat them. I was young at that time, so I thought it was simple. I thought that I could eat a lot after starving for a long time. Then I began to eat like crazy. Finally, I ate so much that I ended in the hospital. After I came out of the hospital, Master Lu took me as an apprentice."

Hearing this, Sylvia was stunned. With a distressed look in her beautiful eyes, she took the initiative to put her small hand on Henry's palm, and then grabbed Henry's big hand. "Honey, when you were a child, how much hardship did you endure? I asked Dean Cui what happened when you were a child, but Dean Cui didn't tell me much, and told me to ask you."

Henry shrugged his shoulders and said, "In fact, thinking about it now, I don't think it was too hard. It's all in the past. I just have some regrets. I didn't allow my mother to enjoy a happy life with me. Otherwise, if my mother knew that I had such a beautiful wife, she would definitely be so happy that she wouldn't stop talking about you."

Sylvia rolled her eyes at Henry and was about to speak when she heard a voice beside her.

"I tell you, vice president Tian's method is absolutely much better than what President Lin said before. You don't know that when the advertising companies hear that the new residential area entrance will be opened on Zhengyuan Street, they will all turn to us for cooperation. I received six or seven phone calls this morning."

"Yes, in the past, we always looked for them to advertise and they gave conditions to us. This time, they instantly came to us. Vice president Tian also saved a special area in the entrance as an advertisement board. She turned a position that no one cared about into a golden place for advertisement. And now all advertising companies want that place."

"That's right. When I first came here, I heard from Young Master Zheng from the East China Building Group that they are coming to talk about cooperation with us. They have been in contact with that advertising company before."

Sylvia and Henry looked at the source of the voice and saw two female employees who were wearing working badges of the Lins Marketing Department sitting not far away and discussing it.

Henry said, "My dear wife, are they talking about the residential area near Zhengyuan Street that you bought some time ago?"

Sylvia nodded, "It should be that one."

"How could the entrance of the residential area face Zhengyuan Street? I know the traffic flow there. If it really comes to the peak hours, it will be okay on the other side of the entrance. But if people drive in the opposite direction, it will easily cause traffic jam before entering the area. What's more, the gate of the area will be next to the road, which is not safe for children. As a buyer, I will certainly consider these factors." Henry curled his lips. "Besides, when there is a lot of traffic jam because of the difficulty of entering the residential area, the government will certainly ask for the reconstruction. Not only the cost will be high, but the reputation of Lins Group will also be damaged."

"Yes." Sylvia replied, "And these are only surface problems. The implications of the following events would be even bigger. Why would Faustina want to establish an advertisement area?"

Henry shook his head and said, "My dear wife, this Faustina is really inexperienced. She can only see the interests in front of her, but she doesn't think about why no one has done these things before her."

"What are you talking about? Are you talking about vice president Tian?" A woman, who was not far from Henry and Sylvia, heard their voices. This woman was the staff of Lins Marketing Department.

Lins Group was divided into several large departments, and there were several real estate companies under it. It was normal that the staff of the market department didn't know Sylvia. Not to mention them, some people who worked in Lins Tower had never seen Sylvia.

"What, do you think that vice president Tian is doing the right thing?" Sylvia asked back.

"Of course, vice president Tian's decision this time is much better than President Lin's."

Chapter 810

Henry glanced at the employee badge on the other side's chest. Her name was Zenobia Zhao.

Henry turned over the employee badge that Sylvia had prepared for him and then said, "Why do you think that vice president Tian's decision is better than President Lin's?"

Zenobia didn't think much and said directly, "Of course it is better. This time, vice president Tian just changed the location of the entrance to the residential area and attracted a huge sum of advertising money for us. She planned an amazing area that could be used for advertisements."

"I don't think it's a good idea to do so." Henry touched his nose and said, "If your family wants to buy an apartment in that residential area, would you consider that it's inconvenient for you to get in and out through the main entrance?"

"This is definitely not a problem." Zenobia waved her hand and did not care. "The location of this area is so popular, so there is no need to worry about the sale. The problem of entering and exiting will be solved later."

"Later? What do you mean by solving it later?" Sylvia opened her mouth on the spot, "Could it be that when the residents ask you this kind of question, you would also say that you would solve it later?"

"No. Who are you to ask me all these questions?" Zenobia looked at Sylvia discontentedly. "Do I need to answer the questions about our Lins Group to you?"

"Ha, ha." Henry laughed and said, "I've seen your area with my wife, and we've also gone to the sales department to ask. At that time, didn't they say that the entrance will be in the north and the south? How did you they decide to put the entrance on Zhengyuan Street, which is in the west?"

"As for this, you will have to go and ask the sales department. It has nothing to do with me." Zenobia turned her head and strode away.

Sylvia's face was ashen as she sat there.

"What's wrong, honey? Are you angry?" Henry walked to Sylvia's side and refilled Sylvia's coffee cup with hot water.

"If I didn't hear it today, I really wouldn't know that these real estate companies would do such a thing. Such a vague answer was completely irresponsible. Do they explain it like this to the customers?" Sylvia's beautiful eyes were full of anger.

"Honey, calm down." Henry patted Sylvia on the back. "Everyone has such a way of thinking, and it's normal that something like this will happen in every company."

"It's not normal!" Sylvia slapped hard on the small round table in front of her, "I have stressed many times during the meetings that priority is customer and their experience, and not profit!"

"Okay, okay, dear." Henry comforted her. "This decision has been made recently, and it has not been implemented yet. You can take advantage of this to deal with Faustina. Don't blame her. She is just too inexperienced. She doesn't understand the hidden rules of the business world. She only looks at the interests in front of her eyes. Everyone should have this kind of situation."

"Alas." Sylvia sighed. "I'm not blaming her. I'm just afraid that the staff of the Lins Group will solve their problems in the same way as Zenobia did just now, in order to shirk responsibility. If everyone is like this, our enterprise will not have a bright future."

Henry did not refute Sylvia's words.

Now, the average income level had risen. The current business world was an era of providing services and customers should be satisfied. The satisfaction of customers determined how far a company could go. Otherwise, no matter how big the company was, once the customer felt uncomfortable, the company would be destroyed.

As the two of them sat in the corner of the banquet hall, the music in the hall played a calming role.

As time went on, there were more and more people in the banquet hall. Sylvia sat there and could also hear everyone talking about the future business development of the whole of Western China.

Every regional chamber of commerce held such a party every year, and the most important purpose was to determine the direction of the next year's development together.

If one wanted to do a good business, one would have to support the local policy.

And with the support of local policies, the commercial projects that could improve GDP and increase people's living standards were also supported by the local policies.

"Look, the people from the Belief Group are here?"

"Where? Where?"

"Well, he came with vice president Tian of the Lins Group. It seems that the rumours are true. The Lins Group and the Belief Group have reached tactical cooperation. I heard that the Belief Group has already obtained some shares of the Lins Group."

"Lins Group has the most resources in Yinzhou, and the Belief group has a large amount of money. Their cooperation could affect the status of the business world in Yinzhou in the future."

"The Belief Group's working capital is three billion yuan. It's too powerful!"

Words rang out in Sylvia's ears, and she heard them loud and clear.

Henry and Sylvia both looked at the entrance of the banquet hall.

Faustina, who was dressed in a wine party dress, was walking in with a middle-aged man in a black suit, and the two had been talking in a low voice.

Although Faustina looked ordinary, her temperament was really outstanding. She was only twenty-six years old, but when she stood there, she looked like a businesswoman in her thirties with a strong imposing manner.

Henry and Sylvia also looked through the information yesterday. The middle-aged man next to Faustina was the chairman of the Belief Group, Hanley Wang. The information said that he started his own business overseas and just came back not long ago. He was supported by a mysterious financial group.

As soon as the two people entered the banquet, they were immediately surrounded in the centre like celebrities. Several reporters who came in rushed in front and asked a variety of questions.

"Vice president Tian, has Lins Group reached an agreement with the Belief Group?"

"What's the target for the business community in China this year?"

"We have received news that you relocated the entrance of the newest residential area of the Lins Group to Zhengyuan Street, which will inevitably cause heavy traffic and block the cars moving to the north and south of Yinzhou. This method is seriously inconsistent with the first statement of the national security bureau. Vice president Tian, can you state whether this decision is made by you or President Lin?"

"Vice president Tian, there is an advertisement area around your new residential area. Is Lins Group going to enter the advertising industry?"

"The advertising area is located in the residential area. Excuse me, did you get permission to do this?"

All sorts of questions arose one after another.

Under the pressure caused by these reporters, Faustina seemed to panic a bit. Apparently, she did not expect these reporters to ask so many tricky questions. To tell the truth, there were some problems that even Faustina herself did not think about.

"Sorry, today is Trade Association gathering. Vice president Tian does not accept any questions. Reporters and friends, please make an appointment." Faustina's secretary stood up and stood in front of Faustina.

"Ah, she is seriously lacking experience." Henry sighed. "Wife, you have to come forward, or Lins Group will be in the headlines tomorrow."

"Don't worry." Sylvia shook her head. "It has already come to this point. Let's wait and see. Faustina flew too high. If she falls hard, it will be good for her."
