

Chapter 828

The attitude of the service staff in front of her was completely beyond Sylvia's expectation. Even Henry did not expect that the employees of the Lins Group would treat customers like this.

The position of the young man just now was obviously a salesperson or something like that. Since the two of them booked the tickets online, the young man would not be able to get any commission. However, even if he did not have a commission, no matter which service industry, he should not behave like that. This obviously went against Sylvia's original intention.

Henry and Sylvia asked a few more salesmen. Several people's attitude was indifferent. They barely found a place where they should register.

"Honey, from the looks of it, it is not the problem with one or two people, but in the management." Henry looked at the several lazy salesmen.

Sylvia frowned, tried to calm down and control herself not to break out directly. What she was going to do today was to find out the executives of this company who did not act according to the rules.

Among those letters of complaint that Sylvia had seen, 30% of them were regarding this tourist company. When Sylvia saw some of them, she couldn't believe it!

The two of them made a simple registration at the counter. Originally, Sylvia thought that since they didn't use their ID cards, they would have some trouble. But the result was that it didn't affect them at all, and the registration was completed smoothly.

The staff in charge of registration gave each of them a pass, with numbers 32 and 33. They were asked to wear them on their wrists and go to the hall on the side to wait for the bus.

For this kind of sightseeing around the province, the tourist company would arrange a bus to take everyone to enjoy the surrounding scenery and facilities.

When Henry and Sylvia came to the waiting hall, the scene in front of her almost made Sylvia unable to suppress the anger in her heart.

The whole area was about three hundred square metres. The original decoration plan was personally chosen by Sylvia. In order to allow customers to enjoy the best experience, the waiting room was decorated according to the airports' VIP lounges. There would be some free drinks, tea, and some snacks and desserts.

But now, Sylvia did not see any desserts or drinks. The place where the cakes should have been was covered with dust. Obviously, desserts had not been put here for a long time. The place where people rested was also in a mess. Some chairs were covered with oil stains, and no one cleaned them up.

It should have been a good place for people to have a rest, but now it became a mess, and even it was difficult to find a clean place to sit down.

When Henry saw a waiter coming over, he waved his hand and said loudly, "Hello, please help us change the cushion. It's full of oil."

"There's no cushion left. Please stand there for a while. The bus is about to arrive," the waiter said, his face filled with impatience.

Sylvia took in a deep breath and tried her best to speak in a calm tone, "Then can you pour us a glass of water?"

"Okay, wait a minute." The staff member replied. Soon, he brought two cups of water and placed it on the table in front of Henry and Sylvia. "Two cups of water, ten yuan."

"We need to pay for this?!" Sylvia's eyes widened. She was not short of money, but the drinks here should be free.

"Nonsense, where could you go to drink free of charge?" The staff looked at Sylvia with a disdainful face, then took out a private QR code from his pocket and put it in front of him. "Scan the code to pay."

"You!" Sylvia shouted and was about to say something when she was pulled by Henry.

"Okay, honey, it's all right." Henry patted Sylvia on the back, took out his mobile phone and paid.

After Henry paid, the staff member left leisurely.

Sylvia took a deep breath and said, "I will carefully analyze the company's monthly expenses. I remember very clearly that in this tourism company, the monthly payment for cakes and drinks is between 40,000 and 60,000 yuan. The chief's salary is 6,000 yuan per person. A total of 10 people is working at that position. Don't you know that? In total, it is over 100,000 yuan per month. They are really brave!"

"Dear, this kind of problem will appear in every company after it has been running for a long time. It should be handled in time." Henry tried to comfort her as much as possible.

"I know." Sylvia nodded. "Now that things have changed, it must have something to do with me. Recently, I have been too relaxed. I haven't been here for a long time."

Sylvia and Henry stood in the waiting room, and time passed by minute by minute.

According to the original schedule, the bus should come over at 1:30 p.m., but Henry and Sylvia waited until half-past two. Then they saw a bus coming. The bus was printed with the words 'Scenery Tour Company'.

When the door opened, a tour guide-like woman in her thirties stood at the door and kept urging the two people in the waiting room, "Hurry up! Get on the bus."

Henry and Sylvia looked at the bus, which was already full of people at this time.

"Get on the bus. Don't waste time!"

While Sylvia was lost in thought, the tour guide urged her again.

When Sylvia and Henry got on the bus, there were only two empty seats.

As soon as they sat down, the bus started in a hurry before they even had time to fasten their seat belts.

When the bus started moving, the tour guide, who was wearing a headset, began to introduce the route for the next two days to the people on the bus and what they should pay attention to. It was very standard.

"It's strange. I just checked the database of the company and saw the numbers for today. There is only us. How can there be a bus full of people?" Sylvia looked around the bus, and her eyes were full of confusion.

"They probably belong to another tourist companies." Henry pointed to a man's wrist in front of the left side. On the man's wrist, there was also a number, which was written with the words "Adventure Travel". The font was very small, so it was hard to notice. Henry whispered, "Honey, does Adventure Travel belong to us?"

Sylvia shook her head, "No."

Now, the bus Henry and Sylvia were traveling on belonged to the Lins Group. But the passengers on the bus, except for Henry and Sylvia, were all from other travelling companies. It was obvious that someone was playing tricks in the middle.

Sylvia took out her phone and took a few pictures. Then she closed her eyes and wanted to sleep.

The car swayed and the AC was on, which could easily arouse people's drowsiness. Henry, who had not slept all night, also gradually closed his eyes and fell asleep.

Just when Henry was in a daze, a sharp voice came from Henry's ear.

"Get up! I told you to get up! Do you hear me?"

"Get up!"

"Who told you that you can sleep here?!"

Chapter 829

Continuous sounds rang out in Henry's ears.

Henry opened his eyes and saw the female tour guide standing in front of him, looking at him angrily.

"Open your eyes. Do you hear me?"

The tour guide hollered again.

Henry rubbed his sleepy eyes and looked at Sylvia beside him. Sylvia also opened her eyes at this time.

"Let me ask you, who allowed you to sleep?!"

The tour guide asked with an angry face.

Sylvia shook her head lightly and pulled herself together. Confused, she asked, "Can't we sleep on the bus?"

"No, you can't!"

The tour guide replied loudly, "You got on this bus, which means you are on my territory. You're not allowed to sleep here, understand?"

"From now on, when I talk, if anyone sleeps, I will stop the bus. We will wait until that person wakes up and then continue going!"

After that, the tour guide swung her sleeves and went to sit at the front of the bus. Then she said, "In five minutes, we will arrive at the first destination, Yellow Pavilion Temple. We will stay here for an hour. Those who need to burn incense and those who want to worship Buddha, need to hurry up."

Soon, the bus stopped.

It was January now and Western Chinese Province was not a popular tourist attraction. In this season, there were not many people. Compared with the sea of people in other tourist attractions, it could be said that there were few people here.

All the middle-aged people got out of the bus and went into the temple.

Although Sylvia grew up in Yinzhou, to tell the truth, she really hadn't travelled around a lot. The last time it was Henry who took her to Sea Lake, and it was her first time travelling around there.

After getting off the bus, Sylvia calmed down and went out to walk around. She went into the temple with Henry, bought some incenses, burned them, and prayed.

After walking around the temple for more than half an hour, the scented sticks in the temple gave off a subtle smell, which could unconsciously ease people's mood.

The Yellow Pavilion Temple was not big. After half an hour, Henry and Sylvia went through the whole temple. The last place they came to was called the Golden Pavilion.

The so-called Golden Pavilion was a gold shop in Yellow Pavilion Temple. It was not any famous brand, but they were still selling gold there.

"Sir, madam, everything here has been blessed by a senior monk. It's safe to buy. Pick one for your lover."

As soon as Henry and Sylvia walked to the door of the Golden Pavilion, they were pulled in.

Henry smiled and shook his head. "No, thank you."

Henry was very clear about his understanding of himself. The Buddha emphasized that one should put down the butcher's knife, but Henry's butcher's knife could not be put down. The knife was bound to accompany him for a lifetime. In Henry's current situation, it was difficult to guarantee his safety with the things that the eminent monk had blessed.

Even if the Angel and Devil existed in this world, no one could save Henry from the deep hole full of his sins.

Sylvia walked around the Golden Pavilion with great interest. She did look at quite a few items, but none of them caught her eye.

It was almost an hour, so the two of them walked out of the temple and were ready to get back to the bus.

As soon as they arrived at the bus, the two saw the female tour guide standing at the entrance of the bus.

Just as the two were about to get on the car, the tour guide stopped them.

The female tour guide looked them up and down and then asked, "Did you buy something inside?"

Henry shook his head and said, "We didn't. What's the matter?"

"Then go buy something and then get on the bus."

The tour guide reached out and pointed to the door of the temple. "Everyone has to spend 5,000 yuan in there before they can come out."

"Who do you think you are?!"

Sylvia spoke on the spot, her face filled with anger. "You guys even dare to force people to spend money?"

In the letter of complaints, Sylvia also saw the information about the forced consumption. She still had some doubts, but now, she saw it with her own eyes.

"Be careful. This is not mandatory consumption. It's up to you whether you want to spend the money or not. But there is one thing. If you don't spend some money here, you can't get on the bus, understand?"

The tour guide crossed her arms over her chest and said, "You can't get on the bus. You don't have to follow us anymore. You decide."

The attitude of the tour guide was so tough that Henry didn't even dare to believe it.

"You are just a travel guide. How can you prevent us from getting on the bus?"

Sylvia held her anger in her chest. She could imagine that if every tourist experienced this, how bad would the Lins reputation be?

"Haha."

The tour guide sneered. "This is the rule of our Lins Group. If you have any problem with it, go to our company to complain!"

"The rules of the Lins Group?"

Upon hearing this, Sylvia's entire body trembled in anger. "How come I've never heard of such a rule before?"

"There are a lot of things you haven't heard of."

The tour guide looked at Sylvia disdainfully and said, "You can leave now. Whether you follow us or not won't have any influence on me. Or you can go and spend some money. Five thousand yuan per person. You can buy whatever you want. It's not a big deal for you. I see that you joined this group for more than three thousand yuan for two days, right?"

"Okay, let's go and buy something."

Henry pulled Sylvia, who was ready to make a sound again, and walked toward the temple. He casually chose two pieces of gold and spent 10,000 yuan.

When they finished shopping, they got on the bus smoothly. The tour guide standing at the entrance of the bus looked at the things in their hands with satisfaction, and the smile on her face widen. She also took the initiative to ask what they wanted to drink.

Sylvia only felt disgusted by the tour guide's smile. Without saying a word, she walked back to the bus.

As soon as they got on the bus, they heard quarrels coming from the outside of the bus.

"We're just students. We're on holiday and we don't have so much money to spend. You can't do this, and you can't stop us from getting on the car!"

Henry looked back and saw a young man and a young woman. They were both 19 or 20. The young man with a red neck pushed away the tour guide standing at the door and strode into the bus with his friend next to him.

The tour guide turned around and glared at the young man with a gloomy face, saying nothing.

Henry saw that the tour guide was standing in front of the bus. The tour guide would ask each person on the bus about their consumption situation and they would only drive after all of them arrived.

After the Yellow Pavilion Temple's expenditures incident, they didn't spend much on the following tourist attractions. They were just visiting around, but their schedule was quite busy.

Sylvia noticed that the tour guide went to every tourist attraction and took out the notes of the Lins Group. That was to say, all visitors' tickets were taken by the Lins Group, but only Henry and Sylvia were from the Lins Group. The rest of the tourists came from other tourism companies. This was a way to make money by using the Lins Group to pay for other tourism companies.

Sylvia gradually turned numb. Just like that, she watched all of this happen and took photos as evidence.

In the evening, the bus had already left Yinzhou, stopped in Ningzhong City. They spent the night there.

 Watch Ads to Get 15 Vouchers