

Chapter 830

The place arranged by the tour guide was in the farmyard named Grand Desert and River in Ningzhong City.

This kind of farmyard had a cheap residence and a beautiful environment. The food here was planted and made by the locals. It was all-natural. This cooperation was approved by Sylvia. This was the first time Sylvia came here.

In the past, this kind of tourist attraction accommodation would leave a bad impression on people. But now, in this era of rapid development and the sea of online information, many people already understood that what the public needed was better service. And places like this would never rip off their customers.

Although it was called a farmhouse, the facilities in the house were the same as those in normal hotels. Instead, due to the lack of rooms, the house was even cleaner and the food was also very good. Sylvia and Henry both gave good comments on this.

Usually, two people stayed in one house. The owner of the farmhouse would be responsible for their daily necessities.

In the farmhouse where Henry and Sylvia stayed, the owner was an old couple in their 60s. Their children had gotten married. They stayed here, but they didn't stay in order to make money. They had their own garden and fed the chickens. When someone came, they would take care of him. They had a good life.

By the time Henry and Sylvia finished their dinner, it was already 9:30 p.m.

"Old Master, how is the business going recently?" Sylvia walked to the side of the Old Master and asked as if she was chatting.

Old Master poured hot tea for the two of them, sighed, and shook his head. "Agh, a few months ago this place was quite popular, but it's been getting worse and worse in the past few months."

Sylvia gently blew on her teacup and said: "Is it because of the season? Most of the people would come here in the summer. Many activities are closed during the winter."

"No, in the past winter, there were many people staying here." The old man looked out of the window as if he was afraid of something. After making sure that there was no one outside the window, he whispered to Sylvia, "Miss, listen to me. If it's dark, don't go out. Don't join any bonfire or party outside."

"Why?" Sylvia didn't understand. She noticed the expression of the old man. When mentioning this, the old man seemed to be very careful, as if he was afraid of something.

"Little girl, don't ask anymore." The old man shook his head and didn't want to say more. "Anyway, it's getting harder and harder to stay here. You should try not to come here in the future. In the past few months, many employees around here have moved away. Only old men like me, who can't move anymore, decided to stay here and retire."

After the old master finished, he was afraid that Sylvia would ask more questions, so he quickly walked to the backyard and washed the dishes with his wife.

Sylvia looked at Henry beside her with a puzzled face.

Henry looked down at the ground as if he was thinking about something.

It was getting darker and darker, and the old man and his wife had already fallen asleep.

In the bedroom that the old master prepared for them, Sylvia was sitting in front of a desk. She kept looking at her mobile phone and recording something beside her with a pen.

"Hubby, I just asked Secretary Lee to collect information regarding today's trip. The amount they reported for free meals is seven hundred and sixty-four yuan. Including the cost of drinks, there's a total of one thousand and thirty-three yuan. The finances of this travel agency are completely virtual." Sylvia looked at the records and frowned. "There must be quite a few people involved in this matter. What do you think I should do?"

Henry came over, put his hands on Sylvia's jade shoulder, and gently rubbed it.

With Henry's massage, Sylvia's tightly furrowed eyebrows gradually relaxed. She felt a warm airflow coming from her shoulder and neck, sweeping away all the exhaustion of the whole day.

Henry said, "Honey, what do you want to do with all these executives?"

"If we drag them all out all at once, I'm afraid that too many people will be implicated in this matter. I don't know who is involved in this financial scam. Although the Lins Group is the major shareholder, many old people who fought with grandfather all stayed in the Lins Group. If we find that they are involved, it won't be easy to solve this problem."

Sylvia's big eyes were full of sadness. She continued, "Grandpa also told me about this problem at that time. If the other party didn't go too far and it was just a matter of interest, I should just turn a blind eye to it. I thought it was just a simple problem of service standards, but it involved so many people. This is already not easy to deal with."

Listening to Sylvia's words, Henry didn't know how to comfort her.

After all, if it was really related to the people of Robert's generation, then it would be the internal conflict of the Lins Group, and even the dispute of the people of Robert's generation. If Henry meddled in it, it would not be appropriate. But now, if he didn't do anything, and Sylvia found out so many things, it seemed that it was a thorn in Sylvia's heart. She would not feel comfortable until the thorn got removed.

Sylvia stretched out her hand and rubbed her temples. Just as she was thinking about how this headache problem should be solved, a cry was transmitted into her ears.

Henry, who was standing behind Sylvia, also heard the cry clearly.

"Those two students." In the next second, Henry recognized who the other person was from the crying.

In the afternoon at the Yellow Pavilion Temple, two 19-year-old students had a conflict with the tour guide. One was a man and the other was a woman. Now the cry came from the girl.

Henry remembered that the two students lived in the farmhouse next door when they were assigned their accommodations.

Just as Henry and Sylvia were wondering why the girl was crying, they heard a voice gnashing the teeth. "This Lins Group, relying on the big family and business in Yinzhou, bullies people so easily. There is no law at all! I have to sue them!"

"Forget it... Forget it." The girl sobbed and said, "This is the Lins Group. Ordinary people like us can't afford to provoke them. They can decide our lives with just one word. Listen to me, don't go to them. Just take it as a lesson. Let's just pretend that we have lost 10,000 yuan, okay?"

"Impossible!" The young man shouted, "If we can't sue them in this area, I will start an online petition and ask for help from officials! There will always be someone who can deal with them. No matter how rich their Lins Group is, how can they look down upon the whole of China!"

"You, you keep your voice down." The girl said with a suppressed sob, "Don't let the people outside hear you. If they hear you, it's over!"

After the girl said this, sure enough, the young man's voice became much lower.

Henry and Sylvia looked at each other. At this moment, they got up and walked out of the house together.

Chapter 831

Henry and Sylvia walked to the front of the farmhouse. As soon as they opened the door, they were stopped by a voice.

"Young lady!"

Sylvia turned around and saw that the old man, who had already fallen asleep, was standing in front of the door and looking at the two of them.

"It's too late. Just take some rest. You will have time to look around tomorrow," the old master said earnestly.

"It's okay." Sylvia smiled slightly. "Older Master, we are going out for a walk. You should go to bed early."

After Sylvia finished speaking, she walked out of the farmyard without giving the old master a chance to speak.

With Henry by her side, Sylvia felt at ease, which she had never felt before. Because she knew that as long as the man in front of her was there, he would help her to solve all the problems in the world. How many people in the world could defeat this man?

When the old man saw that Sylvia and Henry went out without listening to his advice, his eyes were full of regret.

Henry and Sylvia walked out of the yard.

Outside the yard was a big piece of yellow sand, which was called the Grand Desert and River. The entire farmyard was built on the yellow sand.

The river slowly flowed through the yellow sand not far away. On the riverside, a whole bonfire was lit, and a burst of laughter was heard. Obviously, there was a bonfire party held over there.

"Honey, let's go take a look next door first." Sylvia pointed at the farmyard where the young students stayed.

Henry nodded. He took two steps forward and lightly knocked on the door.

"Who is it?!" A woman's voice full of panic rang out, and then there was a dead silence.

Even if Henry stood outside the door, he could imagine the reaction of the two people inside at the moment. The words were probably said subconsciously by the girl, and she dare not make any sound after those words.

"Don't worry, you two. We mean no harm. Can you tell us something about the Lins Group? We're reporters, and we're here to conduct an undercover interview." Henry gave an excuse casually.

Hearing the word "reporters", the boy in the farmhouse walked carefully to the door. Through the crack of the door, when he saw that it was Henry and Sylvia, he was relieved.

First of all, Henry and Sylvia were young. Due to Sylvia's appearance, it was easy for men and women to like her.

Secondly, on the bus today, Henry and Sylvia had conflicted with the tour guide. In this young man's view, they belonged to the same camp.

"Are you really reporters?" There was some excitement on the young man's face.

"Yes, can you tell us something?" Henry stood outside the door and smiled.

With Henry's smile, the young man felt like he was bathing in a spring breeze. All concerns in his heart disappeared, and he opened the gate of the yard.

It should be known that Henry had now reached the Qi-concentrating Realm, which was completely beyond the scope of ordinary people. Just one look at Henry could affect the deepest emotions of ordinary people.

The door of the farmyard opened, and the girl in the yard was wiping the tears on her face.

Sylvia's gaze locked onto the young man's face. She could clearly see that the young man's face was bruised, and there were traces of blood on the corner of his mouth. His clothes were also a little tattered.

Henry turned around, closed the yard gate, and then asked, "I just heard you talk about the matter of Lins Group. What happened?"

Henry's eyes swept over the young man and the girl. The girl opened her mouth but did not say anything, with a timid look on her face.

The young man clenched his fists and said, "Brother, do you dare to report what happened here?"

"Of course we dare." Henry smiled confidently. "We came out for an undercover interview, so naturally we dared to report."

"Well, then I'll tell you that Lins Group is a group of robbers!" The young man gnashed his teeth and his eyes were full of hatred. He reached out and pointed to the outside of the courtyard. "My girlfriend and I just received an invitation to a bonfire party, so we planned to go there. However, the tour guide stopped us halfway and took out a bracelet. She said that she bought it from the Yellow Pavilion Temple today. I must buy it for 10,000 yuan, otherwise, I will face some consequences."

"Is there such a thing?" Sylvia frowned.

If the tour guide forced people to spend money in the afternoon, then it was a forced consumption. But now she blocked people's way and made them buy things, the nature of these actions was close to robbery!

"Yes! I didn't expect that such a big company like Lins Group would do such a thing!" The young man's words were full of sarcasm. "The bracelet taken out by the tour guide was obviously plastic. It could be bought on the street side for one yuan. If I didn't want to buy it, they said that they would want to touch my girlfriend!"

At this point, the young man's eyes were red.

Henry could very well understand the anger in the young man's heart.

No matter how much hardship a man suffered, he could bear it. However, once his lover was involved in this suffering, the man would lose his mind.

In the past, Henry had always been so impulsive. Even now, he was already an underground king and standing at the top of the world. He had experienced many things in society, but he still could not tolerate this kind of thing.

Sylvia's heart ached as she looked at the girl. The girl forcefully urged herself to stop crying, but her tears were still falling down her cheeks. One could imagine just how much fear she was feeling when the other party said such things.

Sylvia walked to the girl's side and gently grabbed the girl's trembling hand. The anger in Sylvia's heart was growing more and more intense.

If the high-ranking members of the Lins Group were only greedy for some interests, she, Sylvia, could tolerate it. After all, this kind of thing could not be stopped completely. But now, someone had done evil deeds outside in the name of the Lins Group, threatening others safety and ignored the law. Sylvia couldn't bear it no matter who came forward to deal with this kind of thing.

The young man gradually loosened his fist and continued, "They can bully me, but they can't bully my girlfriend. I didn't hold back and fought with them. As you can see from my current appearance, in the end..."

Speaking of this, the young man took out a plastic bracelet from his pocket with a wry smile.

"Brother, sister, you must help us. That 10,000 yuan, we just borrowed from the loan software. We really don't have enough money. The Lins Group is such a bully." The girl's eyes were filled with tears.

"Definitely. Don't worry." Sylvia said to the girl with certainty.

Henry looked at Sylvia and asked, "What do you think, honey? Are you still going to continue on with the plan?"

"No." Sylvia shook her head. "Now that things have come to this point, I don't want to see how dirty it will get later. Anyone who has anything to do with this matter has to be punished."

"Okay." Henry nodded. "Let's go. Those who committed crimes could not be rampant for too long."

After saying that, Henry turned around and walked out of the farmyard.

"Big brother, what are you going to do?" Hearing Henry's words, the young man hurriedly asked.

"I'm going to punish them, of course." Henry answered very easily.

"You can't go there. They belong to the Lins Group. You can't go there like this!"
