

Chapter 871

Henry dealt with the ten people so easily, which made the rest of the people open their eyes wide.

Even Wilson, who was still lying on the ground, looked shocked. He had never thought that this person, who brought a group of old and sick people to earn the commission, was so strong!

They could not even see his movement. Let alone ten, even if a hundred people fought against him, they could not defeat him!"

After a brief daze, Vigour Security, who was standing on the side, and Flourishing Security's people looked at each other and walked toward Henry almost at the same time with a friendly smile on their faces.

These people, more or less, had insulted Collier Security before. Now, seeing Henry's strength, they immediately came over to put in a good word. But before they could say anything, Henry's voice rang again.

"Go, settled the things."

As soon as Henry finished his words, the thirty Reapers standing behind Henry all rushed out like arrows leaving the bow. Everyone was staring at a goal. The people they targeted were all those who had humiliated Collier Security before, and they would not spare even one member from Blessing Security.

Reapers, what kind of strength did they have? It would not be difficult for them to defeat the security guards attacking them from the side, not to mention facing them head-on. Now, with 30 people working together, it was simply impossible for these security companies to resist.

The security company members, who were originally aggressive, were fleeing like rats at the moment. They were not Collier Security's enemies at all.

Alvin stood there and looked at the front blankly. Now he finally understood why Mr. Zhang always stressed that Collier Security was the strongest! These companies that seemed fierce were like children in front of people from Collier Security. Even the girls who seemed to be only 20 years old showed a strength that didn't match their appearances at all. Those strong men, who were over 1.8 meters tall, were easily unfolded by them.

The whole battle lasted less than a minute. After a minute, besides Delsean, Professor Gu, and a few members of other companies who had not insulted Collier Security, the rest of them were all lying on the ground, including Director Chen, and the two employees, a man and a woman, who had made things difficult for Alvin, were lying on the ground, unable to get up, howling.

The pitch-black night sky and the desolate desert made the sky howl as if they were in the desert purgatory.

The bones of almost all these people lying on the ground were broken by the Reapers. This kind of thing was not stressful for the Reapers at all.

The rest of the people who were still standing shivered with fear at the scene in front of them. Who would have thought that Collier Security, who had been bullied all the way without saying a word, could have such strong strength? These people were not some old, weak, sick or disabled people!

The member of Blessing Security, who had first insulted Alvin, was so scared that his teeth were chattering at this moment.

Henry slowly walked aside and bent down to pick up a dagger, which was the one that had been kicked away by Alvin just now.

After picking up the dagger, Henry slowly walked to Alvin and handed the dagger to him. "Come on, do what you just decided. Don't you want their lives? You don't need me to teach you what to do next, do you?"

Alvin looked at the dagger that Henry handed him, but he did not take it. The anger in his eyes gradually disappeared, and there was a trace of fear in his eyes. He slowly shook his head. "Mr... Mr. Zhang, they have been taught a lesson, I..."

"I just told you very clearly that you are an adult. Before you make a decision, you should consider it clearly. When I asked you first, you could have told me that it was enough to teach them a lesson, but you chose their lives by yourself, didn't you?" Henry once again pushed his hand forward. "Come on, finish them."

"I... "

Henry loosened his fingers, and the dagger in his hand slipped naturally.

Alvin loosened his grip the moment he touched the handle of the dagger. With a "poof" sound, the dagger fell on the ground.

"I can't do it!" Alvin suddenly said, "Mr. Zhang, I can't do it. I was just angry. They are all human beings! It's against the law to kill people!"

"Against the law? Don't you think that they wanted to kill you just a moment ago? Also, this was your own choice. Have you ever thought about breaking the law when you said those words?" Henry stared at Alvin with cold eyes. "I'll give you a chance. If you don't kill them, I'll kill you!"

After Henry finished speaking, he turned around and walked to Delsean. He put his arm around his shoulder and forced Delsean to follow him. "Mr. Attard, let's talk about the next business. You seem to want to get that tripod?"

"Mr. Zhang, you..." Delsean turned back, but as soon as he turned his head halfway, Henry pulled it back by force.

"Let's talk about the good business first. Let's go, let's talk as we walk."

"I..." Delsean opened his mouth but said nothing. Under the guidance of Henry, he silently walked forward.

Henry waved his hand behind him, and a group of Reapers followed Henry and silently walked forward, leaving Alvin standing alone behind.

"Leave one person to keep an eye on him." Henry ordered, and then the Reaper at the end of the team stopped, while the others continued to move forward.

Those who were not threatened felt like a huge stone was pressed against their chests at this moment. It was difficult for them to breathe. Looking at those comrades who were lying on the ground, they couldn't bear it, but they were more afraid. No one dared to make a sound. Seeing that Henry and Delsean had gone far, they didn't say a word and followed them.

Just after Henry walked for nearly a thousand metres, suddenly a loud cry came from behind him. Although it was nearly a thousand metres away, he heard it clearly. The heart-wrenching cry came from Alvin.

"How is it going?" Henry asked without looking back.

"He didn't dare to do anything. He stabbed those who bullied him the most in their legs, and now he broke down." A Reaper replied to Henry.

"Alas." Henry shook his head and sighed. "It's hard for him. You guys speed up and get him out of here as soon as possible. Don't let him stay here any longer. I'll go to Yinzhou to look for you after I'm done with my business."

"Understood." The Reapers behind Henry stopped in their tracks.

Delsean, who had been worried, heard the report from the people behind Henry. He suddenly smiled and said, "Mr. Zhang, you didn't kill them!"

"Mr. Attard, do you think I am such a wicked person?" Henry smiled.

Delsean suddenly looked at Henry with a serious face, nodded, and shook his head. "It doesn't look like it."

Chapter 872

"Doesn't seem like it?"

Hearing Delsean's ambiguous answer, Henry smiled and did not speak.

After knowing that the security guards were not in danger, Delsean became more cheerful and finally took the initiative to talk with Henry about the plan regarding the tripod.

He had really learned about Henry's strength this time. With that kind of body movement that others couldn't even see clearly, Henry was much stronger than those bandits he had encountered. As long as Henry helped him, there would absolutely be no big problem to grab the tripod.

"Mr. Zhang, you let your people go back first. Taking the tripod..." Delsean looked at those Reapers who were standing still, with a trace of embarrassment on his face.

"What? You don't believe me, Mr. Attard?" Henry smiled slightly.

"No, no, no. How could I not trust you?" Delsean waved his hand and said, "It's just that Mr. Zhang, I think that there are a lot of bandits and they are powerful."

"It's not a large scale fight, why do we need so many people?" Henry rolled his eyes and said, "Those people took the tripod, and they will definitely try to sell it. Mr. Attard, you should have your own information channel, right? After leaving the desert, you can ask about where they transported the tripod and I'll arrange it."

"Okay, Mr. Zhang, I'm counting on you." Delsean nodded hard.

The process of going out of the desert was both enjoyment and torture for the people like Delsean and his companions.

What they enjoyed was that each time they took a step in this damn desert, they would feel that they were closer to the light. It gave them the feeling that they had climbed out of the endless abyss and could finally see the light.

They were suffering from the lack of food and water, which made their actions extremely difficult. If it were not for the support of a belief, they would probably not be able to walk out. Fortunately, most of these people who entered the desert were martial arts practitioners, and their physical qualities were far better than ordinary people. Under the help of each other, they came out of the desert.

As for Professor Gu, he relied on Delsean to buy him water and food.

When they saw the edge of the desert, everyone heaved a huge sigh of relief. It was also at this moment that their spirits completely collapsed, just like a person who was eager to go to the toilet and at the moment they saw the toilet, they would feel that they would not be able to hold on for another second.

Two days later, at one o'clock in the afternoon, everyone left the desert.

After they went out of the desert, Delsean arranged a hotel for them to rest.

Some security guards, who were worried about their companions, found a group of cars, brought supplies and returned to the desert after a few adjustments.

After all, in the desert, there were many people whose legs had been broken by the Reapers. No matter what, they couldn't walk out of the desert by themselves.

The Dragon Spring Hotel in Wulu City was one of the few hotels with the highest ranking in the entire city.

In the hotel's deluxe suite, Henry was lying in a large bathtub. His journey to the desert in the past few days had also caused his body to be covered with sand and dust. He took a hot bath and felt very comfortable.

He took out his mobile phone and dialled a number.

"Pay attention. Delsean should contact the force behind him and tell me you find it out."

After explaining this, Henry stared at his mobile phone. After thinking for a while, he called Sylvia.

As soon as the phone rang a few times, Sylvia picked up the phone.

"Hello, honey." Sylvia's sweet voice sounded on the phone.

Hearing this voice, Henry felt a sense of happiness welling up in his heart. "Honey, how are you?"

"I am good. How about you? Are you done with your work?"

"Not yet. Maybe I have to stay for another two days," Henry replied.

Henry heard that it was very noisy on Sylvia's end.

"Honey, I'll... I'll... talk to you later."

The noise on Sylvia's side was so loud that Henry couldn't hear her at all.

"Honey, you can go ahead with your own business. I won't bother you anymore. Take good care of yourself."

"Well, you too. You need to... rest." Sylvia hung up the phone amidst a burst of noise.

Henry sighed. He knew that when he was at home,

Sylvia specially postponed some work to make her less busy. As soon as he left, women began to deal with various things.

Henry had managed many companies before, and he knew that there were a lot of trivial things needed to be dealt in the company's daily management.

After washing up, Henry changed into clean clothes, opened the bag placed on the bed, and carefully looked at the broken sword and the two leather pieces of clothing he brought out from the desert.

The more Henry looked at these three things, the more he felt that they were not simple.

Just as Henry was about to further study these three things, there was a sudden knock on the door.

"Mr. Zhang, are you in there?"

Outside the door came Delsean's voice.

Henry put away the three things and opened the door. He saw Delsean standing in front of the door in a casual suit.

"Mr. Attard, are you done with your rest?"

"Not yet." Exhaustion appeared on Delsean's face, but he was more excited. "Mr. Zhang, I have found out that those people are ready to sell the tripod here in Wulu City. They have been out here for two days. They will sell the tripod tomorrow. It will be an auction."

"Oh?" Henry showed a meaningful smile at the corner of his mouth.

"Mr. Zhang, I have the location of the auction. Would you like to have a look?" Delsean said with expectation on his face, "As for the commission, you can ask whatever you want."

Henry thought for a moment and said, "Let's go to see the location first."

"Okay, Mr. Zhang, I'll wait for you downstairs." After saying that, Delsean turned around and left.

Henry closed the door. As soon as the door was closed, Henry's mobile phone in the bathroom rang.

Henry went to the bathroom and picked up the phone.

"My Lord, we've checked it out. No underground force contacted Delsean. Delsean just contacted a friend in Wulu City. We've checked that man's background. He's clean!"

He reached out his hand and touched the corner of his mouth. He specially asked people to keep an eye on Delsean and see which underground force would contact him. But in the end, they came up with such a result. Delsean was really cautious when doing things!

Henry put the phone into his pocket. He had not noticed, but on his phone, there was a notification that showed a missed call. It was from Daisy, who was studying in Yinzhou.

When Henry came to the hall of the hotel, he found that Delsean was already waiting in the hall. Beside him, there was a young woman who looked like she was in her mid-20s. She was about the same age as Henry.

Henry looked over and found that although this woman was dressed casually, all the clothing items on her belonged to high-end brands. Her outfit was worth at least 50,000 yuan.

The woman was very beautiful. Her long hair hung behind her head, and her big eyes seemed like they were about to tell a story.

While Henry was sizing her up, the woman was also sizing him up.
