

Chapter 873

"Come on, Breezy, let me introduce you. This is Mr. Henry Zhang. Even though Mr. Zhang is about the same age as you, his strength is rare.

Delsean said, "Mr. Zhang, this is my sister, Breezy Attard."

"Oh, Mr. Attard, the names of your family are quite poetic." Henry chuckled and stretched out his hand to Breezy. "Hello, Miss Breezy."

Breezy looked at Henry's hand and ignored it. She crossed her arms over her chest and asked Henry suspiciously, "My brother said that you are strong. What's your rank on the Top Ranking List?"

Listening to Breezy's words, Henry was stunned. "The Top Ranking List? What is the Top Ranking List?"

"Heh." Breezy sneered, "How dare you call yourself an expert since you don't even know the Top Ranking List?"

After saying that, Breezy turned her head and said to Delsean, "Brother, you're not fooled by others, are you? This man said he wanted to grab the tripod for you. How much money did he ask for?"

"Breezy, don't be rude!" Delsean frowned and scolded her.

"Brother, what should I say about you? When I make money, I have a business mind. It's a pity that I'm too straightforward in some aspects. The Henry you mentioned is just a little better than ordinary people." Breezy shook her head. "If you really want to grab the tripod, I know quite a lot of experts on the Top Ranking List."

"Miss Breezy, what on earth is the Top Ranking List you mentioned?" Henry was puzzled. When did another Top Ranking List appear?

"Haha." Breezy sneered. "Since you don't know about the Top Ranking List, then you don't deserve to know. You don't deserve to know. Why should I tell you about this?"

"That's enough!" Delsean shouted again, "Mr. Zhang is my friend. I trust him completely. Don't look down at people. Mr. Zhang just doesn't pursue the rankings without substantial meaning."

"Hmph!" Breezy rolled her eyes. "Fine, then. I'll wait and see how powerful this Mr. Zhang you're talking about is!"

After saying that, Breezy walked aside and found a sofa to sit down.

"Mr. Zhang, my sister has been spoiled by our family since she was a child. Don't worry about her. Come on, let's talk here." Delsean made a gesture of invitation and took Henry aside.

They sat on a business sofa. Delsean asked for two cups of tea and began to talk to Henry.

"Mr. Zhang, this is my sister's information. She is doing business in Wulu City and is familiar with this part." Delsean waved his hand, and a man came to his side. He put a file bag sealed in kraft paper in front of Henry and then walked away.

Henry opened the file bag and took a look.

"Oh, it's so big that all celebrities have come." Henry looked at some people on the document who were going to participate in the auction. "The origin of this tripod is not ordinary."

"Does Mr. Zhang know that?" Hearing Henry's tone, Delsean was surprised.

"Of course I know. This tripod is the same as the Simuwu Tripod, but the Simuwu Tripod is very famous, so many people have forgotten about this tripod."

Delsean gave him a thumbs-up and said, "It seems that Mr. Zhang is also an expert in this field! Since Mr. Zhang knows the origin of the furnace, I think you can guess its price."

Henry shook his head and said, "I can't guess. People like me can't set a price for such priceless treasures at will."

Listening to Henry's words, Delsean did not refute, because he knew that Henry was right. This tripod was indeed a priceless treasure.

In ancient China, the tripods were regarded as a symbol of the establishment of a country, which was a symbol of the dynasty and power.

Up until now, China still had a sense of worship. When mentioning the tripod, it gave people a sense of nobility and grandness.

Simuwu Tripod, known as the number one tripod since ancient times, was named after the Queen Mother, Wu Fang. It was an oblation for the two sons of King of Shang, Wu Ding and Zu Qi, who were called the "Ancestors of Sanity" when they were born in the city of Nan Province nearly a hundred years ago. They were the representative of bronze wares in the period of Shangzhou.

Simuwu Tripod, the largest and heaviest copper product unearthed in the world, enjoyed the reputation of "King of copper" and "the national treasure". It began to be a national treasure 60 years ago and was stored in the museum.

As for this tripod, it was an antique artefact of the same value as the Simuwu Tripod. Its value could not be measured by money at all. The auction of the tripod attracted the attention of all parties in the world, especially the cultural enthusiasts. In these two days, they had almost gone crazy.

The auction of such a tripod was naturally not simple. In the past two days, the price of tickets from other places to Wulu City had been increased several times. The local government of Wulu City even provided sufficient security personnel for this auction.

Yachim must know that the tripod was valuable. Instead of sneaking, he might as well make a big deal out of it. Although he might get into more trouble, the risk would be much lower.

As for the location of this tripod, it wasn't in any of the auctions sites around the city. Rather, it was in the museum.

The museum itself had a strong security system, and there had always been a lot of cultural relics inside. As this tripod was extremely valuable, the museum could be said to be the most suitable place to be kept temporarily.

The Wulu City Museum was originally a tourist attraction, but now it was closed for the public.

All information was provided by Delsean.

"Mr. Zhang, the specific details about this event have been written in this document. I think you should be more aware of the difficulty of it than me. I have a habit of knowing the price in advance before doing business. So Mr. Zhang, you can write down the commission fee for this time," Delsean said.

Henry nodded and thought for a while. He didn't care about how much the commission was. What he wanted to know most now was Delsean's attitude! What was the secret of this tripod that was worth stealing?

It must be clear that the tripod was now very popular. According to the current information that Henry had investigated, the Attard family was also not poor. They had hundreds of billions of yuan in their accounts. If they really took this tripod, the Attard family would definitely be targeted by others. They would not destroy themselves for such a thing. What secret was hidden in the tripod? Some underground force was willing to sacrifice such a big family for this tripod.

"Mr. Attard, we all know the value of this tripod. I want this much." Henry stretched out a finger. "One billion!"

"One billion yuan. Zhang, are you robbing us?" Hearing this, Breezy, who was sitting not far away, jumped up and shouted. The number of one billion yuan she had just heard attracted a lot of attention.

"Breezy!" Delsean shouted, "You're so impolite. Sit down!"

Although Breezy didn't like Henry, at this moment, she also realized that she had done something wrong and quickly closed her mouth. She just kept staring at Henry, and her eyes were full of warning.

Delsean said after thinking for a while, "Mr. Zhang, how confident are you in this operation?"

"One hundred per cent." Henry answered without thinking.

"A hundred per cent? Don't talk big!" Breezy sneered. "Do you know how many experts from the Top Ranking List Yachim has invited this time?"

Chapter 874

"Breezy, it's none of your business. Sit down!" An angry look appeared on Delsean's face, and then he said to Henry with a smile, "Mr. Zhang, my sister is not sensible. Please don't mind her. If you are 100% sure, I believe that a commission of one billion yuan is low. I feel like I am taking advantage of you."

Henry shook his head and said with a smile, "Haha, Mr. Attard, you want goods, I want money. No one is taking advantage of anyone."

"Well, in this case, it's settled. My sister is qualified for this auction. Let's go to the museum and have a look. We have an old saying in China that if you know yourself and your enemy, you can fight and win." Delsean made a gesture of invitation.

"Okay." Henry nodded.

Delsean waved to Breezy and said, "Breezy, drive. Take me and Mr. Zhang to the museum."

"Brother!" Breezy shouted anxiously.

"Hurry up!" Delsean scolded her, and his words showed that she could not be refused.

Seeing her brother's reaction, Breezy had to stamp her feet and reluctantly walked out of the hotel. As she walked, Breezy took out her phone and dialled a number. "I'm going to the museum now. Come over here. My brother must have been deceived by someone."

About two minutes later, a Maybach stopped in front of the hotel.

Delsean and Henry opened the door and sat in the back seat.

"Sit tight." Breezy said in a bad tone. As soon as the sound fell, she slammed on the gas pedal, and a strong feeling of inertia appeared. Before Delsean could sit tight, the car rushed out.

"Breezy, drive slowly." Delsean ordered.

Breezy, who was driving, stepped on the gas all the way as if she didn't hear Delsean's words. The car was flying on the road, and from time to time, it would make some dangerous super-car movements.

While driving, Breezy deliberately looked at the rearview mirror to see Henry sitting in the back seat. As a result, she found that no matter how dangerous her actions were, Henry always looked calm, but her brother was scared.

Breezy slowed down unwillingly, thinking that Henry was lucky.

After getting the tripod, the museum in Wulu City was under heavy surveillance. The area within five hundred metres of the museum belonged to the prohibited area. Ordinary cars could not drive in at all.

However, the Maybach driven by Breezy was ordinary. After showing the pass permit, they easily came to the front door of the museum.

The parking lot, which should have been full at this time, was empty at this moment. There was only a fiery-red Lamborghini parked in the parking space, which was particularly eye-catching.

In front of this red Lamborghini, there was a young man, with black hair, and a height of 185cm. He was handsome. With his appearance and the luxury car behind him, with a wave of his hand, there would be countless crazy women flocking to him.

When he saw the Maybach open, a smile appeared on the young man's face as he walked towards them.

Breezy parked the car next to this Lamborghini and opened the door.

"Breezy, you are here."

"You came so early." Breezy closed the door hard, pointed at the two people who got out of the car with her, and said, "This is my brother, Delsean. Brother, this is Mahmoud Liu."

"Brother Delsean, I often hear Breezy talk about you." Mahmoud took the initiative to reach out his hand to Delsean.

"I've heard of your name more than once." Delsean also reached out his hand. "Breezy said that you're her buddy."

"Haha!" Mahmoud laughed out loud and said, "It's easy for us to get along. Let's go, Brother Delsean. I'll take you to the museum to have a look. Breezy's told me about you two. In the past two days, the security in the museum has been increased a lot, and I'm quite familiar with it."

"Thank you." Delsean nodded to Mahmoud. "Let me introduce him to you. This is Mr. Henry Zhang. This time, we mainly rely on Mr. Zhang."

"Him?" Mahmoud looked Henry up and down and then said with a smile, "Brother Delsean, let's go inside first."

As for Henry, Breezy had just talked to Mahmoud on the phone. With the relationship between Mahmoud and Breezy, it was impossible for Mahmoud and Breezy to have any good feelings about Henry.

After seeing Mahmoud's attitude towards Henry, Delsean smiled at Henry embarrassedly. Breezy was his sister. He could say something to her, but he didn't have the right to say anything to Mahmoud.

Henry waved his hand, showing that he didn't care at all.

Under Mahmoud's lead, the four of them arrived at the museum.

The museum was filled with the aura of the grasslands of the Western region, and the walls were carved with beautiful sceneries.

In the hall on the first floor, the original dazzling collection had been deliberately withdrawn this time to make space for tomorrow's auction.

Henry looked around the whole museum. It was not an exaggeration to say that there was a check every three steps.

The cameras were spread all over the corner of the museum. In some places, even three or four cameras were placed together. All kinds of infrared alarm were checked, and they were all in good condition.

It could be said that when these security cameras were all turned on, even if a mosquito flew in, it could still be discovered.

Henry paced in the museum, collecting some information he needed to know.

Breezy and Mahmoud stood to the side, looking at Henry's figure. Breezy's eyes were full of disgust. "Mahmoud, what do you think of this person? Can he enter the Top Ranking List?"

"Top Ranking List, he?" A look of contempt appeared on Mahmoud's face. "Breezy, there are a total of 118 people on the list. These 118 people were picked out from more than 1 billion people around China. Not everyone can enter! I have observed him and I think he is defenseless. When I saw him, I was obviously ready to attack, but he did not show any signs of defense. If I was able to break his neck in ten seconds, do you think I am qualified to enter the list?"

Hearing Mahmoud's words, Breezy's face was full of anger. "I knew it. Mr. Zhang is not a good man. He doesn't even know what the Top Ranking List is. My brother didn't know much about it, so he was easily cheated by others. He asked my brother for a billion yuan. I really don't understand why my brother agreed to this."

"Breezy, you don't have to worry. This person will be exposed tomorrow." A confident smile crept up the corner of Mahmoud's mouth. "I've already notified some friends of ours. They will arrive tonight. We will hide in the shadows and attack tomorrow. At that time, we will be able to get the tripod that your brother wants, and this boy will also be exposed." <sup>2</sup>
