

Chapter 904

All the bosses left one after another. In fact, Cathy had already thought of this result before she came. She knew that Mr. Frazer and others wouldn't be able to bear the loss. Now, one square metre of this land was worth more than 10 million yuan. How could they easily let it go? They would have to try and find a way to keep it. At least, they would want to get some benefits from the Lins.

"Andrew Lee, what should we do?" One of Lins employee asked Cathy.

"Tomorrow morning, every hour, go to them and ask them to sign." Cathy said, "The agreement has been notarized. They can't deny it even if they want to!"

"All right."

At the end of the auction, Andrew walked out of the auction house, looked in the direction of the old welfare home, and slowly walked out with a smile on his face.

As for Silver Visitor, he did not reveal himself from beginning to end.

Even when all the guests had left, no one saw what the rich man who had bid for hundreds of billions of yuan looked like.

"Ah, my husband!"

Sylvia, who was next to Henry, suddenly screamed.

"What's wrong?" Henry thought something had happened and asked worriedly.

"The money has arrived. It's 500 billion yuan. Five hundred billion yuan, five hundred billion yuan, five hundred billion yuan... It's all on my account!" Sylvia took the mobile phone and opened her mouth. She stared at the long string of numbers on the mobile phone screen with disbelief in her eyes. Her land had not been completely transferred to the buyer, but the money had already been transferred to her. It was done so fast.

Henry smiled. The transfer restrictions of major banks were obviously not applicable to Section Nine.

Dang-dang-dang.

The sound of someone knocking on the door could be heard outside the private room.

"Come in." Henry shouted.

The door of the room opened, and Silver Visitor in casual clothes appeared at the door of the room.

"Martial Uncle, Auntie." Silver Visitor called out to Henry and Sylvia respectively.

Sylvia's pretty face turned red. Although it was very awkward for a man in his thirties to call her auntie, she still felt a little happy when she heard other people acknowledging the relationship between her and Henry.

"Congratulations, Recluse Association has been defeated." Henry smiled at Silver Visitor. "The land around the Undercity Dungeon No.4 is all yours now. Dig as you wish. Maybe you will dig a foreign world, just like the geomancy memorials."

"Uncle, since when do you like to make such a joke?" Silver Visitor smiled. "Our people are now on the way, and will arrive in about half an hour. We will dig it out tonight. Uncle, do you want to go and have a look together?"

Hearing this, Henry felt a little surprised and asked, "Are you leaders really going to share any information with me?"

"Actually, I am also very surprised that the higher-ups told me this." Silver Visitor said without reservation,

"According to the previous actions, Section Nine would certainly enjoy this information alone. As for why they sent me to inform you this time, I'm afraid that only the people above know about it."

"Is it because your master got something good these days?" Henry made a guess, because he really couldn't figure out what was going on. Unless he had what Section Nine wanted, so they agreed to share this time.

"I don't know." Silver Visitor shook his head. "You know, my master is a mysterious person who rarely shows up. He usually doesn't show up."

Henry did not immediately agree to Silver Visitor's request. Instead, he turned to look at Sylvia.

Sylvia said, "Dear, if you have something to do, go and do it. I don't think I can sleep tonight. There must be a lot of questions waiting for me tomorrow. I have to prepare well."

Hearing Sylvia's answer, Henry replied to Silver Visitor, "Okay, let's go down and have a look."

Regarding what was in the Undercity Dungeon no.4, Henry was also very curious, but it was not to the point where he must figure it out. Of course, if someone asked him to go with him, he would naturally go down and have a look.

Now that heaven and earth had undergone great changes and Qi had appeared frequently, it was definitely a good thing to know a little more about it.

After Henry and Sylvia said goodbye to each other, they walked to the outside of the auction house together with Silver Visitor. As soon as they left the auction house, they saw many private cars parked at the door of the auction house. The door opened, and countless men and women rushed down from the car with microphones in their hands. Some people carried cameras, and some people directly took their mobile phones to record the videos and rushed into the auction house.

A piece of land auctioned at a price of 500 billion yuan, which could be said to be the most expensive place in the world. How could these reporters with a keen sense of smell let go of this shocking news? When they came, they even thought about the headline of tomorrow's headline.

The richest person in China was born overnight!

The most noble place in history!

This was just a relatively orthodox title, and the bold ones would be written in the aspect of suspense to attract attention. Of course, these were not what Henry was going to deal with.

In the auction house, Cathy had already arranged for people to block the door.

"President Lin, it's impossible for us to avoid them this time. It's such big news. We should at least go out and say something."

"Don't worry." Sylvia shook her head. "There are too few reporters present now. They all want exclusive news. The questions they will ask us are very tricky. There are some things that can't be answered. Hold on, postpone until tomorrow morning, announce the press conference, and I will go to prepare it."

"Understood!"

When countless reporters gathered at the door of the auction house and surrounded the whole auction house, Henry and Silver Visitor had arrived at the old site of the old welfare home.

When Henry arrived, he saw that the people of Section Nine completely surrounded the area, and no one was allowed to enter this area at will. Official people were involved, and the efficiency was countless times higher than that of the Lin's.

The elites of Section Nine were here. It could be said that they were on the lookout every three steps. After seeing Silver Visitor, they all showed respect on their faces and called him "Instructor". Then they looked at Henry, who was next to Silver Visitor. They all showed curiosity in their eyes. They wondered what the identity of the young man, who was next to the legendary Instructor, was and why he could walk side by side with the Instructor.

Henry and Silver Visitor arrived at the centre of the Spirit Gathering Formation along the way. They could see that the Spiritual Qi that filled this half-finished building had become even denser. Everything within the scope of the Formation was shrouded in mist, and they could even clearly see that at the entrance to the underground tunnel, the mist-like white Qi was continuously rising up.

"After digging Undercity Dungeon No. 4, the amount of Spiritual Qi here has increased several times, and it is about to overflow the outside of the Formation. Once it really comes to that time, ordinary people will inhale Spiritual Qi in their daily life," Silver Visitor said with a worried face.

It was hard to tell whether the Spiritual Qi was good or bad.
