

Mission To Remarry Chapter 785

Aubree scrunched up her eyebrows upon hearing Sonya agree to Lucian's arrangement. She wanted to say something, but the older woman was not looking at her.

"Sit down and eat with us," Sonya said to Lucian. Aubree's eyes sparkled when she heard that. She thought Sonya would use the opportunity to speak good things about her.

Holding that thought, she looked at Lucian with anticipation. "You've been busy for the whole morning, Lucian. I bet you're tired. Come over here and have a little something."

Lucian looked at the two women expressionlessly and said, "No, thanks. I still need to pick up Essie. You two enjoy." Then he turned around with the intention of leaving.

The moment he did that, Sonya called out to him and stopped him.

"You should visit Aubree when you have the time and help put in a good word for her in front of Mr. Pearson if you can," Sonya said.

Lucian, with his back facing the women, frowned with annoyance, replied with a deep grunt, and strode away.

a while before driving to Roxanne's lunch with the children had been staring at her inquisitively the last night again, Roxanne could felt mentally and felt so tired of taking care of the children, suddenly

senses, Roxanne looked at him

Farwell going to have lunch with us?" Anticipation was to disinfect the place. Since Essie's at our place right now, Daddy was momentarily speechless. Why does he think Lucian will join to say it was unlikely he would come, from his chair and scampered to the overwhelmed with mixed emotions when she looked at how excited