

Mission To Remarry Chapter 872

Aubree had been staying in the Farwell residence for some time, but Lucian had hardly ever gone there. Sonya had tried to make her stay, but she eventually left.

She had chosen to stay in the Farwell residence, as she had thought Lucian would often visit because of Sonya and that she could spend more time with him.

However, after so long, she had only met him a handful of times.

Instead, the private detective had been sending her photos, and Roxanne had always appeared next to Lucian in those photos.

Rage burned in Aubree every time she looked at them.

Yet she had to keep her emotions in check, as she had to face Sonya and Elias every day.

Aubree finally had enough as time went on. She found an excuse to return to the Pearson residence by saying she had reconciled with her father.
