

Mission To Remarry Chapter 888

After giving it some thought, Archie looked toward the room on the second floor with a frown.

As usual, the elder child had more to consider before deciding.

Mommy is upset and worried about Essie. We shouldn't go out without her knowledge. She'll fly into a panic!

As for Benny, he continued to persuade his brother, "Essie may still feel uncomfortable when she wakes up. I'm sure she'll feel better if she sees us. On top of that, we can also let her know Mommy is worried about her!"

Having heard that, Archie was slightly swayed. After some time, he finally came to a decision.

Soon, the boys furtively opened the mansion door and ran straight to the roadside. After hailing a cab, they headed to the Farwell residence.

Naturally, the cab driver was shocked to see two children getting into his car. After hesitating for a moment, he voiced, "Hello, kids. Where are your parents?"

"We're going to our daddy's house! Mommy has given us some cash for the fare," Archie replied in an adorable voice.

of relief upon hearing that. He then started the car and drove toward of silver-spooned kids. This is already a luxurious residential area, but they're heading toward a more pricey neighborhood. Nevertheless, the little ones are sure pitiable. Their parents are already living separately when they're at such driver was thinking. They were excited and looking forward to seeing their father and sleeping in her bedroom at the

by the ringtones that rang out a moment ago, she

"It hurts..."

could not help but moan in pain as she felt excruciating attention, and he

he wasn't sure when exactly hurry. He had to attend to some leaving, James had repeatedly reminded Lucian to pay attention to Estella's emotions. He said that Estella might still be girl squinted her eyes, she noticed that the person standing at the door was her father. With a woeful expression, she stretched out his arms. "Are you okay? Do you feel gently and uttered softly, looked at her eyes only to notice that she had swelling miserably earlier,