

Mission To Remarry Chapter 900

Lifting her eyes, Roxanne glanced at Archie and Benny.

Sensing her stare, Archie and Benny raised their eyes guiltily and flashed her a smile before averting their gazes nonchalantly.

A strange feeling welled within Roxanne. Gradually, realization dawned upon her.

No wonder Lucian asked me such a question earlier. It turned out that they used my name to come and visit Essie.

That understanding had a sense of exasperation inundating her. But ultimately, she didn't say anything.

Well, they only did so because they really wanted to come here and visit Essie. Besides, I'm pretty sure Essie's mood only lifted because they came.

"Are you still feeling unwell anywhere now?" Roxanne regarded Estella in concern.

In response, Estella shook her head docilely and replied in a cute voice, "Archie and Benny played with me!"

At that, Roxanne knew that her conjecture was right. Relief suffused her.
