

Mission To Remarry Chapter 949

"I'll go brew the medicine." Roxanne jolted back to her senses and took the medicinal herbs from him. However, just as she moved to get out of the car, Estella instinctively grabbed tighter to her clothes in her unconscious state.

As she was sick, Estella innately wanted to be close to someone who provided her with a sense of security. It was evident that Roxanne was such a person to the little girl.

Roxanne froze upon noticing Estella's movement. In the end, she did not let go of the girl, who remained in her arms. With Estella in one hand and the bag of medicine in the other, she got out of the car.

"Can you help me look after Benny, Mr. Farwell?" As she spoke, she glanced at Benny, who was still sitting in the car. Before Lucian could say anything, Archie promised, "I'll take good care of Benny!"

Roxanne smiled when she heard that. She then carried Estella toward the direction of the tent. She could only head there to brew the medicine, as all their equipment was placed near the tent.

at Roxanne's retreating figure with a complicated expression. A second later, Benny caught his attention.

fading out of consciousness from the pain. However, he still called out as he felt his mother leave the direction of where Roxanne was previously sitting. However,

His pained expression made Lucian frown. After a to grab Lucian's shirt. Lucian's heart softened when he saw Benny's be hugged by

saw that Roxanne was already brewing

immersed in his thoughts and did not reply to him and raised his other hand to pat the boy on his head. Then, he bent down to reality. His eyes lit up when he realized his hand was being held by Lucian. He

The girl was trembling slightly, but