

Mission To Remarry Chapter 962

After Benny left, Roxanne and Madilyn began to study Nancy's resume. Madilyn's expression changed when she spotted the name of one of the institutes where Nancy used to work.

Noticing that, Roxanne asked, "What is it?" Madilyn pointed to the name of the research institute on the screen and spoke with certainty. "This research institute is under Pearson Group."

She had been in Chanaea for years and had collaborated with nearly all of the research institutes in Horington. As such, she was familiar with all the research institutes' backgrounds.

Because of the entanglement between Roxanne and Aubree, Madilyn paid extra attention when cooperating with the research institutes under Pearson Group.

Coincidentally, this research institute was one of the research institutes she had collaborated with.

Madilyn's words brought a frown to Roxanne's face.

Roxanne read the information carefully and noticed something from the date Nancy resigned from the research institute under Pearson Group.

After leaving the research Institute under Pearson Group for half a month, Nancy joined the current research institute, worked for six months, and left with the newly developed bacteria. Hmm...
