

Mission To Remarry Chapter 996

“Why aren’t you two asleep yet?” Roxanne was stunned for a moment as she stared in confusion at the two boys standing in front of her.

Archie and Benny exchanged glances and said, “We thought you seemed in a bad mood, Mommy.” Upon hearing that, the emotions Roxanne had tried to suppress were no longer under control as they rose up within her once more.

“Mommy, what happened at the entrance of Mr. Farwell’s house?” Archie stared at her seriously. His words hinted that he somehow knew what had happened.

Yet, in reality, he had not seen anything. Roxanne patted Archie’s head as though nothing had happened. “It’s nothing. I suddenly remembered that I had work that needed to be done.”

Archie and Benny were persistent. “Then how about we visit Mr. Farwell tomorrow?”

Roxanne’s expression stiffened when she heard that. The boys stared at her with wide eyes, trying to see if they could find anything by studying her expression.

It took some time before Roxanne spoke again. She forced a smile and said, “I have something important at work that needs to be settled tomorrow. Besides, Mr. Farwell only has the flu and fever. I’m sure he’d have recovered by tomorrow.”

to Lucian. However, when she saw that scene unfold before her just now, all her goal and wouldn’t do anything unnecessary anymore. Archie and Benny had to give up as he grabbed the hem of Roxanne’s skirt and complained, “But,

Lucian, even if it meant using the up that matter. Once they brought it up, time she was sick, Lucian would always be not help but

she thought about it, those were nothing but

Benny noticed their mother’s mood turn sour and did not have the energy to explain further to them, either. “It’s getting late. The two of you should go to sleep. If you’re worried about Mr. Farwell, I think you’ll be able to see him when she walked

heads in disappointment but did not not have pressured Mommy to visit Daddy?" Benny asked guiltily as