

Modern Day 1021

Chapter 1021: The Cute Princess CEO Jun

It was already the cold season, and they were in the mountains. Even he found the dark night unbearable, let alone Xia Wanyuan, who was already afraid of the cold.

Xia Wanyuan shook her head, her furry hair rubbing against Jun Shiling's shoulder. "If you send me back, I'll ignore you."

It was precisely because it was difficult here that she did not want Jun Shiling to be here alone. Though she was not familiar with the southwest region.

since ancient times, the changes in power had always been connected. It was just that the environment had changed. With her by his side, Jun Shiling would always be more relaxed.

Jun Shiling also knew why Xia Wanyuan was staying here. He tightened his arms and pulled Xia Wanyuan closer. "Okay, I won't send you back. Sleep."

"Then you're not allowed to get up early." Xia Wanyuan saw Jun Shiling's plan. Sleep three hours a day? Does this man think he's made of iron? Seeing that Jun Shiling did not respond, Xia Wanyuan softened her voice. "If you leave, I'll be cold ~"

"Okay." Jun Shiling's voice was hoarse. "I won't get up."

Other than at a special moment, Jun Shiling kept his promises very well.

This sleep was not long, only five hours, but it was already a rare good sleep for Jun Shiling. The morning sunlight shone into the house through the window.

Jun Shiling opened his eyes. A ray of sunlight landed on Xia Wanyuan's face, plating her curled eyelashes with a layer of golden light.

Her eyelashes fluttered twice, then a pair of eyes filled with morning dew opened. The corners of Xia Wanyuan's lips curled up slightly. "Morning."

After a while, Jun Shiling turned around and got out of bed. He did not care that the ground was as cold as ice. He even stood on it barefoot and used the cold of the floor to pour on his boiling blood.

Xia Wanyuan panted under the blanket, revealing a pair of smiling eyes. "CEO Jun, your self-control is still so bad."

Jun Shiling took the clothes and put them on, then went forward to help Xia Wanyuan put on her clothes. "How many days have I not seen you?"

"Hmph, it's just that your self-control is bad." Xia Wanyuan sat obediently and let Jun Shiling help her put on her socks. Jun Shiling reached out and scratched her feet, causing Xia Wanyuan to fall into Jun Shiling's arms with a smile.

Outside the lounge, Lin Wei, who had wanted to send Jun Shiling breakfast, raised her hand. Just as she was about to knock on the door, she heard bell-like laughter inside. Lin Wei retracted her hand and turned to leave.

“Are you going to a meeting today?” There was no heater in the base, and Xia Wanyuan was surrounded by Jun Shiling. She was like a white bear, making her face look even smaller.

“Mm.” Jun Shiling put on his gloves for Xia Wanyuan. “Listen at the side for a day and familiarize yourself with the situation first.”

“Okay.” Xia Wanyuan nodded. Her eyes were filled with the morning sunlight, bright and moving.

There were not many people in the command center. Jun Shiling held Xia Wanyuan’s hand and walked out. Along the way, Jun Shiling would patiently introduce people to Xia Wanyuan.

Soon, the entire command center knew that the mysterious commander had an extremely beautiful wife who was doted on!

The command room was still a remote meeting. Xia Wanyuan sat in an inconspicuous position below the stage and listened seriously to Jun Shiling and the other forces discuss the situation in the southwest.

Two hours passed, and the people on the screen had changed. Jun Shiling drank a mouthful of water and began a new round of battle.

Xia Wanyuan supported her chin with her hand and looked seriously at Jun Shiling on the stage.

Jun Shiling was wearing a black coat, making his cold aura even heavier. His handsome facial features were even more obvious under the brim of the hat.

A man was most charming when he guided the country and stirred up power. The decisiveness, confidence, and arrogance that came from his bones could not help but attract people.

Jun Shiling seemed to have sensed something and glanced at Xia Wanyuan. When he met her admiring gaze, Jun Shiling stopped writing and quickly returned to normal, not letting anyone notice.

Sunlight shone in through the window. Jun Shiling glanced at Xia Wanyuan after speaking for a while. Every time, he could receive Xia Wanyuan’s warm smile.

Although Jun Shiling did not look surprised, every time, a new strength was injected into because of this smile.

Beijing Hospital.

Bo Xiao’s injuries were much better than before and he could sit up on the bed.

Bo Xiao was in the intensive care unit and originally did not know anything about the outside world. However, when Xia Yu heard about his situation, he came to visit him.

Xia Yu could not hide anything from the cunning Bo Xiao. Although he guarded an important secret and did not let go, he had leaked the fact that Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan were in the southwest.

Bo Xiao instantly thought of the map of the southwest that he had given out. Jun Shiling was filling in the gaps for him.

The deployment of power in the various regions in the southwest was so complicated. It was completely heaven-defying to completely change them in a short time.

Bo Xiao sighed. "It's all my fault."

"Brother Bo, don't blame yourself too much." Xia Yu carefully handed Bo Xiao a peeled apple.

"Is An Rao okay?" Bo Xiao took the apple and looked at Xia Yu.

"She's fine. Miss An's stomach is getting more and more obvious." Xia Yu grinned. "You'll see her after you recover. Miss An misses you very much."

Bo Xiao took a bite of the apple and did not taste anything sweet. "Mm."

After he recovered, he did not know if he would have the chance to see An Rao again.

The day he recovered was also the day of judgment.

Bo Xiao was still a key personnel being guarded. The visiting hours was very short. Soon, Xia Yu would leave.

"Then Brother Bo, rest well. I'll tell Miss An that you miss her very much."

Thank you." Bo Xiao's fox-like eyes curved up. Looking at the now tall and straight Xia Yu, his eyes lit up.

In this land, there would always be fresh blood invested. There would always be young bodies protecting this country. How good.

No matter the outcome of the trial, he happily accepted it.

After Xia Yu heard about Bo Xiao, he had been secretly worried. Now that he finally saw Bo Xiao and confirmed that Bo Xiao was in good condition, Xia Yu felt relieved.

He still remembered the scene of Bo Xiao coming against the light and reaching out to him at the door at the camp.

What he saw was not only Bo Xiao, who had come to save him, but also the faith engraved in Bo Xiao's soul.

No matter what the outside world said about Bo Xiao, he always believed what he felt.

Fortunately, he did not sense any unfamiliarity from Bo Xiao just now. Bo Xiao still had a familiar aura.

Xia Yu relaxed and hummed as he walked on the street. He passed by a bus stop and suddenly stopped.

Chapter 1022: Couple Hall Lend Me Your Arm

A week ago, Xia Yu had left China with Xia Wanyuan. After returning to China, he was worried about Bo Xiao. In addition, he had to take care of Xiao Bao and had no time to understand what had happened outside.

Now that he saw the publicity for Xia Wanyuan's new movie, Dark Night, on the bus stop, Xia Yu remembered that Xia Wanyuan's movie had been released in China four days ago.

"I definitely have to support Sister's movie." Xia Yu found the nearest cinema.

However, when Xia Yu walked into the theater and saw the long line in front of “Dark Night”, he was stunned.

Xia Yu walked to the side and asked the staff if there were any extra tickets.

In the end, the staff looked at him as if he was a fool. “You still want to buy tickets to ‘Dark Night’ on the spot? Don’t even think about it. You can only buy tickets for three days later now!”

“Huh? So popular?” Xia Yu was a straight man who only liked to watch sci-fi fighting movies. To him, anything without special effects and spectacular scenery was not a blockbuster. “I remember that ‘Dark Night’ is not a sci-fi blockbuster, right?”

“Sigh, this is really strange.” The staff had been so busy since the movie was released that he did not have time to watch the movie. He could not understand it himself. “In the past, it was only indeed a sci-fi movie that could sell for a high box office, but ‘Dark Night’ can be considered to have created a miracle. The audience went in with a smile and came out crying.”

While the staff was talking, a movie ended in a theater beside them. The audience walked out one after another, crying.

There was even a 1.9-meter-tall gangster with a green dragon and white tiger tattoo. His eyes were filled with tears as he wiped them with his sleeve.

“...” Xia Yu was stunned. Brother, is your tear-stained face worthy of your green dragon and white tiger tattoo?

“Sigh, when my shift is over, I have to watch this movie too. How can you move people so much? Handsome, I advise you to go back. You definitely won’t be able to buy tickets today.”

“Alright.” Since he could not buy a ticket, Xia Yu did not insist and turned to leave.

“Little neighbor, are you watching a movie?” A clear female voice sounded in front of him. Xia Yu looked up and met Jiang Yun’s clear eyes.

Xia Yu’s ears turned red and he replied unnaturally, “Mm, unfortunately, I can’t buy tickets.”

Jiang Yun waved the movie tickets in her hand. “If you don’t mind, let’s watch it together? Take it as thanks for saving me at the entrance of the supermarket last time.”

Xia Yu was young and could not hide anything in his eyes. There was obvious joy. “Okay.”

Jiang Yun glanced at the counter beside her and handed the movie tickets to Xia Yu. “Take them first. I’ll buy a bottle of water.”

By the time Jiang Yun returned with two bottles of water, Xia Yu was already red.

Jiang Yun was amused by his expression. “What’s wrong? Are you very hot?”

“No.” Xia Yu lowered his eyes and blinked. Jiang Yun wanted to touch it. “Your movie ticket is for the couple hall.”

“Huh?” Jiang Yun was stunned. She took the movie ticket and took a look. It was true.

How could Jiang Kui bear to let her be idle? Seeing that Jun Shiling was not in Beijing, Jiang Kui asked Father Jiang to arrange a blind date for her.

The other party was a rich third generation who knew how to play. Romantic things like flowers, diamonds, and movie tickets came easily.

After the two of them finished eating, the rich third-generation heir bought a movie ticket. Unexpectedly, he received a call halfway and ran away after saying that he had something on at his company.

Jiang Yun was a smart person. How could she not tell that there was a fire in the backyard? However, Jiang Yun could not be bothered to argue. She was about to throw the movie tickets away when she saw a familiar back. It was Xia Yu.

“What’s wrong with the couple hall?” Jiang Yun smiled. The diamond earrings by her ears shone brightly. “Let’s go.”

With that, Jiang Yun walked into the theater with the tickets. Xia Yu hesitated for a moment and could only follow.

The couple hall was really worthy of its name. The “narrow” sofa could barely accommodate two people.

The movie “Dark Night” was extremely popular and the theater was filled with people. Xia Yu could not find an empty seat even if he wanted to. He could only bite the bullet and sit on the other side of the sofa.

Jiang Yun walked over and saw Xia Yu, who was almost sticking to the wall like a gecko. She smiled and shook her head. That rich third generation wanted to touch me with just a few words. In comparison, the young Xia Yu was too cute.

No matter how close they were to each other, there would not be much distance between the two of them. Jiang Yun sat beside Xia Yu, bringing with her the smell of mature perfume.

The movie had not begun and all sorts of advertisements were playing.

There were many people in the theater, and with the heater on, the temperature rose immediately. Jiang Yun took off her coat and revealed a white suit.

Looking at Xia Yu, who was blushing under the dim light, Jiang Yun’s eyes flickered.

She could naturally tell that this young man liked her, but she had never liked this kind of child.

However, for some reason, seeing Xia Yu’s eyes clearly filled with her, but he did not even dare to touch her, Jiang Yun was actually a little tempted.

To a female CEO, execution was everything. If there were any benefits, she had to fight for them. If she was tempted, she had to take action.

“Xia Yu?” Jiang Yun was used to being domineering, and her words had a hint of command.

“Huh?” Xia Yu turned around. “What’s wrong?”

Jiang Yun pointed at a couple sitting beside her. The boy wrapped his arm around the girl's shoulder from behind and she leaned on his arm. "The sofa is too hard. Help me block it."

Chapter 1023: The Little Puppy's Counterattack

At that moment, a male voice in the advertisement screamed and covered Jiang Yun's voice.

Xia Yu leaned closer to Jiang Yun. "What did you say?"

Xia Yu's eyes were very exquisite, making him look even more charming under the dim light. Jiang Yun pulled Xia Yu's hand and placed it on the back of the chair behind her.

Then, she leaned on Xia Yu's arm.

At that moment, Jiang Yun and Xia Yu were already sitting together. Jiang Yun turned around and smelled the clean smell of laundry detergent on Xia Yu. Her red lips parted slightly. "I said, let me lean on your arm."

At this moment, the opening music had already sounded in the theater. After Jiang Yun finished speaking, she turned around and focused on the big screen.

As for Xia Yu, he froze.

Jiang Yun lay on his arm as if he was half hugging her. He was so close to Jiang Yun that he could see her distinct eyelashes.

Xia Yu felt as if he was on fire. His face was completely red, and his right hand no longer seemed to be his. He was so stiff that he did not know what to do.

The movie had already begun. Seeing Jiang Yun's calm expression, Xia Yu could only turn around and stare blankly at the big screen in front of him. All his senses were focused on the right side of his body.

Xia Yu thought that this would be a very long two hours.

But soon, he was brought into the world of "Dark Night".

The exciting and nervous music approached step by step. In the endless snow, a few black people were scattered.

The camera gradually advanced. Xia Wanyuan was wearing a black leather jacket and her hair was tied up high. Her eyes were even colder than the snow.

"Snow Fox, are you going to betray the organization?" The leader looked at the most outstanding killer in the team with killing intent flashing across his eyes.

"Today, either you die or I die," Snow Fox said, and wisps of white gas moistened her eyes.

There was no need to say anything more.

Gunshots sounded, but Snow Fox was faster than the bullets.

In the snowy night, Snow Fox fought with everyone. Her straightforward actions brought with them a murderous aura that had an extremely powerful beauty.

After a while, the snow stopped falling and the rest were defeated by Snow Fox. The leader hardened his heart and jumped down the cliff with her.

The main film began.

The background music became extremely calm and happy.

Beside the clear stream lay Snow Fox who had fallen from the mountain.

She slowly opened her eyes. Those eyes that had been murderous half a minute ago were now like the softest clouds in the blue sky.

It was innocent and untainted.

She sat up and looked not far away. The land was flat and the houses were neat. There were fertile fields, beautiful pools, and fallen flowers and mulberry bamboo.

This was a small village isolated from the world.

Snow Fox walked into the village with her wound. The people in the village sensed this outsider and were curious and vigilant.

"I didn't expect this main lead's acting skills to be quite good." Xia Yu was watching seriously when Jiang Yun suddenly leaned closer.

The smell of perfume lingered around his nose, and Xia Yu's head was empty.

He turned around and saw Jiang Yun looking at him with her beautiful phoenix eyes. Xia Yu nodded. "She acted very well."

The silently nodding Xia Yu made Jiang Yun feel that he was very obedient for no reason. He did not have the perfume or tobacco smell of a mature man on him, only a clean and sunny smell.

It was like the lime water with an ice cube that she liked to drink. It was astringent and refreshing, making one feel happy.

Jiang Yun suddenly felt a little thirsty.

Jiang Yun kept staring at him, and Xia Yu did not know what to do. His arm, which he had neglected because he was watching a movie, weighed a thousand pounds.

Xia Yu moved his arm slightly and pursed his lips. "Miss Jiang, it's a little cold in the theater. Do you want to wear a coat?"

Jiang Yun shook her head. "It's not cold. On the contrary, I'm very hot."

"Oh, okay." Xia Yu felt a little awkward. He subconsciously bit his lower lip and blushed again.

Looking at Xia Yu's shy expression, Jiang Yun's heart skipped a beat.

She had been sent to America since she was ten years old. Although she was a woman, she had relied on her swift and decisive methods to pull down countless competitors and expand the Jiang family's market overseas. She had countless ambitious people under her.

All of this relied on her decisiveness and execution.

Now, Jiang Yun had an impulse.

To her, if she had an impulse, she would implement it in the next second.

Hence, "Xia Yu."

"Huh?" Xia Yu looked at Jiang Yun. "What's wrong?"

Jiang Yun waved at Xia Yu. "Come closer."

Xia Yu thought that Jiang Yun could not hear him, so he leaned forward.

]Then, a fragrant wind blew and a burning sensation landed on his lips.

Xia Yu's eyes widened and his body instantly stiffened. He looked at Jiang Yun in shock.

The corners of Jiang Yun's lips curled up slightly as she blinked at him. "Close your eyes and open your mouth."

"..." Xia Yu was stunned.

Jiang Yun took a bite and Xia Yu subconsciously opened his mouth.

Then, in the following time, Xia Yu did not know where he was or what he was doing.

After some time, Jiang Yun retreated a little and lay on Xia Yu's shoulder, panting slightly.

The little kid was really quite sweet.

"You..." Xia Yu clenched his fists nervously, not daring to look at Jiang Yun's face.

Jiang Yun leaned on Xia Yu's shoulder. "Don't you like me?"

Although Xia Yu was shy, he did not like to lie, especially in the current atmosphere. Xia Yu nodded gently. "Yes."

Jiang Yun's eyes flashed. "Then are you unhappy that I kissed you?"

She had never liked anyone. Although this little friend was not her type in all aspects, it did not stop her from feeling that he was a little cute.

Xia Yu nodded, but then shook his head.

He was happy, but he felt that something was wrong. Xia Yu finally mustered the courage to look at Jiang Yun on his shoulder. "Then are you going to be my girlfriend?"

Xia Yu's question stunned Jiang Yun. She did not expect Xia Yu to ask so directly.

How could the daughter of the Jiang family have the right to find a boyfriend?

Jiang Yun seemed to have suddenly woken up and sat up straight. "We can do everything between lovers, but not status."

As soon as she finished speaking, Jiang Yun felt that she had gone overboard. She did not know why she had been bewitched and kissed him just now. Now, she seemed to be deceiving people's feelings.

"Why?" To Jiang Yun's surprise, Xia Yu was calmer than she had imagined. "Do you have a boyfriend?"

Jiang Yun shook her head and said honestly, "No, but I'm going to have a marriage alliance in the future. If you want to stay by my side, I can only give you this."

Hearing Jiang Yun's answer, Xia Yu's stiff body relaxed a little. "Oh," Xia Yu replied.

Xia Yu was so calm that Jiang Yun could not sit still. She was about to continue speaking when a hand on her shoulder tightened, making Jiang Yun move closer to him.

Jiang Yun turned around with confusion in her eyes.

Xia Yu's eyes were clear and bright. "Didn't you say that we can do things between lovers?"

For the first time, Jiang Yun felt that Xia Yu was not as soft as she had imagined. "Can you accept such a shady relationship?"

Xia Yu pursed his lips. "Let's do this for now."

There was one thing he knew very well. If he liked it, he had to grab it. This was what Xia Wanyuan had taught him.

Thinking of Xia Wanyuan, Xia Yu seemed to have found his backbone. That's right, I can ask Xia Wanyuan for a solution.

So what if I am shameful now? Although I'm shy, I'm not stupid.

Jiang Yun looked at him with a glint in her eyes. Perhaps even Jiang Yun herself did not notice it.

As long as there was light, there was hope.

With all sorts of messy things in his heart, Xia Yu did not know when the movie ended. He only knew that after the movie ended, the audience in the theater cried.

Southwest base.

When she received Xia Yu's call, Xia Wanyuan had just walked out of the bathroom and was about to return to the meeting room.

"Xia Yu, what's wrong?"

"Sister." Xia Wanyuan was like a beacon in Xia Yu's heart, making him feel at ease. "I have something to tell you..."

After patiently listening to Xia Yu's explanation, Xia Wanyuan smiled and suddenly sighed. "Xia Yu, you've grown up."

Xia Yu was a little embarrassed. "Sister, what do you think I should do?"

"If you like it, fight for it." Xia Wanyuan's attitude was as Xia Yu had imagined.

"Sister, thank you." With Xia Wanyuan's support, Xia Yu felt that he was filled with strength again.

"Mm, if she likes you too, then it's not impossible to overcome the problem of being forced into a marriage." Xia Wanyuan comforted Xia Yu, but she was a little curious. "What's the name of the girl you like? The one that is forced into a marriage."

Xia Yu obediently told her everything. "Sister, her name is Jiang Yun. I haven't had the time to understand their family."

"..." Xia Wanyuan was stunned for once.

Chapter 1024: Princess's Love Rival

"Sister, what's wrong? Is there a problem?" Seeing no response from Xia Wanyuan, Xia Yu asked curiously.

"It's nothing." Xia Wanyuan hid her emotions.

"Oh, then go and do your things. I'll pick Xiao Bao up now."

"Mm."

After hanging up, Xia Wanyuan frowned slightly. Jiang Yun's appearance appeared in her mind.

Beautiful, capable, and sharp.

She did not care what kind of person Xia Yu liked. What she cared about was whether Jiang Yun had other motives. Could she have deliberately approached Xia Yu?

Thinking of this, Xia Wanyuan turned on her phone and sent Shen Qian a few more messages.

She did not interfere with Xia Yu's feelings, but she could not let someone with ulterior motives hurt him.

"Miss Xia?" Xia Wanyuan had just sent the message when a female voice came from behind.

Xia Wanyuan turned around. Behind her was the adjutant of the command center, Lin Wei. Lin Wei was dressed in a dark green uniform and stood there.

Xia Wanyuan put away her phone and nodded at Lin Wei. "What's the matter?"

"From the looks of Miss Xia, you shouldn't be from the camp, right?" Lin Wei glanced at Xia Wanyuan's smooth skin. It was obvious that she had lived like a princess all year round.

"No."

"Ever since Officer arrived, he's been busy day and night." Lin Wei stared at Xia Wanyuan as if she was lecturing a subordinate. "Miss Xia, since you're not an insider, isn't it inappropriate to delay his time like this? This isn't a child's play."

Xia Wanyuan raised an eyebrow. "So?"

"If you really understand Officer, you should go back early. Don't waste Officer's time here. As his wife, you should know how to prioritize the big picture." Lin Wei really could not stand Xia Wanyuan's delicate appearance. She was beautiful, but the base was not a place where beauty was important.

"Oh," Xia Wanyuan replied casually. Her gaze landed on Lin Wei with a deep insight. "But you might have missed something."

"What?"

Xia Wanyuan said slowly, "Have you ever thought that your commander likes me too much and can't bear to let me leave him?"

Xia Wanyuan was best at stabbing people in the places they cared about the most.

"..." Lin Wei frowned. "How is that possible? You can tell that Officer's someone who values the big picture."

Before Lin Wei could finish speaking, the door of the meeting room behind her suddenly opened and Jun Shiling walked out. Lin Wei stopped talking.

Xia Wanyuan hooked Jun Shiling's palm. "CEO Jun, I'm hungry."

"I'll accompany you to eat." Jun Shiling reached out to tidy the scarf in front of Xia Wanyuan and put on her hat, his eyes filled with gentleness.

"The meat in the afternoon is a little fat."

"You eat the thin part and give me the fat part."

"I want to eat sweet potatoes. Roast them for me."

"Okay."

The two of them chatted and laughed as they passed by Lin Wei, making her furious.

Back in the lounge, Jun Shiling smiled and pinched Xia Wanyuan's face. "You did it on purpose just now, right? Did Lin Wei provoke you?"

Xia Wanyuan was not so pretentious. From her tone just now, one could tell that she was angering someone again.

"Who asked you to attract rotten peach blossoms every day?" Xia Wanyuan snorted softly.

Lin Wei had deliberately poured water for Jun Shiling to mock her. She had angered Lin Wei once and returned the favor.

"Mm, it's my fault," Jun Shiling said as he helped Xia Wanyuan take off her shoes.

The base was cold. Every time the meeting ended after a few hours, Xia Wanyuan's limbs would be cold. Jun Shiling specially got someone to get an electric grill. Every time they rested, he would bring Xia Wanyuan to the lounge to warm up.

Xia Wanyuan only said that to anger Lin Wei. In fact, she ate whatever lunch box the base gave her. After dinner, Jun Shiling wanted to work, but he was stopped by Xia Wanyuan.

"Go and rest for a while. You're not allowed to get up without three hours."

"Baby." Jun Shiling smiled helplessly.

Xia Wanyuan did not care so much. She pushed Jun Shiling into the blanket. "Your brain has been working all day. You should rest for a while."

After Jun Shiling lay down, Xia Wanyuan sat by the bed and reached her feet under the blanket. Then, she took Jun Shiling's computer and placed it on her lap. "I'll help you do things. When you wake up, see if there's anything you need to change and add. Go to sleep."

Xia Wanyuan listened in the meeting room for the entire day and also received all sorts of information at a high intensity. She observed the situation of the people in charge of the various regions and had a basic understanding of what Jun Shiling wanted to do.

How could Jun Shiling watch Xia Wanyuan work hard at the side? He wanted to get up, but Xia Wanyuan glared at him.

"If you get up today, I won't let you touch me for the next three months. I won't talk to you."

"..." Jun Shiling was both amused and touched. Who would threaten him with this? However, he had to admit that Xia Wanyuan's threat was very effective. "Okay, I'll sleep. Wake me up in three hours."

He slept for exactly three hours. Before Xia Wanyuan could wake him up, an alarm suddenly sounded outside.

A subordinate rushed over. Jun Shiling put on his coat and opened the door.

"Oh no, a plane fell in the South China Mountains. Someone escaped, but the mountains are steep and we can't enter."

Jun Shiling thought for a moment and turned to look at Xia Wanyuan. She nodded at him.

Jun Shiling said, "Wait for me," and followed his subordinate out of the base.

Chapter 1025: The Princess Saved the Situation

It happened suddenly. When Jun Shiling left, he took a few people from the base with him. The base, which did not have many people to begin with, became even emptier.

"It's over!" Zhou Hui suddenly exclaimed. "If Officer leaves, will he be able to make it back tomorrow morning?!"

Every three days, Jun Shiling would gather all the people in charge in the southwest to listen to everyone's work progress and arrange the next step.

If Jun Shiling did not rush back tomorrow, who would host this meeting? It was definitely unrealistic to postpone the meeting. Time was more important than anything else now. They could not afford to delay the precise time.

“It’s nothing, Uncle Zhou. Maybe the commander will be back tomorrow.” Lin Wei was also worried, but she was the adjutant here. No matter how flustered she was, she did not show it on her face.

With that, everyone began to walk back. Lin Wei turned around and met Xia Wanyuan. Seeing Jun Shiling’s gloves in her hand, Lin Wei looked away.

This night was destined to be an uneasy night.

Jun Shiling did not return until the next morning. If he did not return, Xia Wanyuan could not sleep. The lights in the lounge lit up for the entire night.

The sun rose and the charcoal in the brazier had already burned out. There were four large handwritten documents beside Xia Wanyuan.

Xia Wanyuan yawned. After a busy night, she finally sorted out the information.

The command room was already in chaos.

On the screen, the people in charge of the various districts had already connected to the Internet in the meeting room. Everyone arrived one after another, but the seat that belonged to Jun Shiling was still empty.

“What should we do?” Zhou Hui was so anxious that his face was covered in a layer of sweat.

The people in charge of this video conference were all local overlords. They had all mixed in with the power pile. Not to mention dealing with these dozens of people, he could not even deal with one.

Lin Wei’s palms were sweating. She stared straight at Jun Shiling’s seat on the stage. However, as time passed, there was still no news from Jun Shiling.

“Uncle Zhou, if the officer doesn’t return later, come up with me.” Although Lin Wei had been around for many years, she had never dealt with such a large-scale reorganization. “We’ll just listen to their report and record it. We’ll decide when the officer returns.”

“Sigh, that’s the only way.” Zhou Hui shook his head. Now, he only hoped that a miracle would happen and Jun Shiling could appear in the meeting room within five minutes.

However, a miracle did not happen. When everyone in the video conference room arrived, the center seat was still empty.

“Uncle Zhou, let’s go.” Lin Wei’s palms were already covered in sweat. She looked at Zhou Hui beside her.

“Okay.”

The two of them had just taken a step when the door to the command room suddenly opened. Lin Wei turned around excitedly, but her expression instantly darkened.

It was Xia Wanyuan.

Although she was very dissatisfied with Xia Wanyuan entering and leaving the command room, with Jun Shiling backing her, it was useless no matter how dissatisfied Lin Wei was.

Lin Wei turned around and took a deep breath before continuing to walk on stage.

Unexpectedly, a notebook was handed to her. Lin Wei looked up at Xia Wanyuan in confusion.

“This is for you. You might need it.”

Lin Wei took it and flipped through it. The first thing she saw was very beautiful small characters. They carefully listed the situation of every area and every person in charge.

It was obvious that this word was written by a woman. Lin Wei guessed that Jun Shiling had asked Xia Wanyuan to copy it and leave it behind.

Although Lin Wei could not stand Xia Wanyuan being pampered by Jun Shiling, at this time, she was still grateful that Xia Wanyuan did not hide it and handed it to her. “Thank you.”

“You’re welcome.” Xia Wanyuan had always done things very clearly. She was angry at Lin Wei because Lin Wei had rebuked her, but she would not reject Lin Wei’s sincere gratitude.

Lin Wei took the information Xia Wanyuan had given her onto the stage and sat in the meeting room.

As expected, when they saw that it was the adjutant girl in the command center, the video conference room exploded. Everyone was noisy.

Lin Wei was an adjutant who had been selected layer by layer after all. She still had her dignity. “Quiet, Officer has other matters to settle. I’ll preside over the meeting today. Now, please report the past three days of work. We’ll record it and make a decision when Officer returns.”

Everyone knew that the most important thing was to adjust the combat strength of the entire southwest region. If Jun Shiling did not come to host this meeting, there must be something more important. How urgent was that?! For a moment, everyone was panicking.

Lin Wei suppressed the situation. “Alright, start reporting.”

However, it was not that easy. Everyone sitting here was someone who would tremble if they stomped the ground in the southwest region. Under Jun Shiling’s suppression, they could barely maintain the surface peace.

Now that it was Lin Wei, how could everyone be convinced by a little girl? They immediately patronized her.

From the first person to report the situation, Lin Wei could tell that something was wrong. The Anting District was not the central district, but it reported an astronomical transfer fee. Just hearing it made her feel that it was unreasonable.

Lin Wei could still tolerate the first one, but the second and third ones also reported obviously unreasonable fees. Lin Wei could not help but question.

“Aiyo, Adjutant Lin, what are you saying? You don’t know the calculations of these fees. If you say no, then tell me, why can’t I?”

“That’s right. Sigh, I don’t know if Officer Jun is deliberately leaving us hanging or something, but he actually let a girl who doesn’t know anything preside over the overall situation here. Why? Are you looking down on us?”

Lin Wei clenched her fists and thought to herself that these people were indeed old foxes. They had sowed discord between Jun Shiling and everyone with just a few words.

As expected, everyone was reminded by these words and felt that Jun Shiling was lying to them. Their performance in the meeting room became more and more unrestrained.

There was even an especially arrogant person who actually smoked during the meeting. “Aiya, little girl, I’m sorry. I’m addicted to smoking. It’s fine. Continue. You said that you can’t approve funds just now, so you have to give us a reason, right?”

Lin Wei looked down at the information Xia Wanyuan had prepared for her, but no matter how useful the information was, it was useless. She could not suppress these old foxes. No matter what they said, they pretended not to hear it.

The meeting room was in chaos. It did not look like a meeting of well-trained people at all. Instead, it was as lively as a market.

Lin Wei understood that these people were originally suppressed by Jun Shiling and were dissatisfied. Now that they had a breakthrough, they could vent freely.

However, although she understood, there was nothing she could do.

Just as everyone was getting angrier and Lin Wei was about to announce the end of the meeting, Xia Wanyuan, who was sitting below the stage, walked towards the stage.

The stage was included in the video conference cameras. The others also saw Xia Wanyuan walk up the stage.

Due to Xia Wanyuan’s astonishing beauty, the originally noisy meeting room fell silent.

Lin Wei frowned. “You...”

Xia Wanyuan walked straight to her. “Get up.”

Lin Wei did not want to admit it, but she had to admit that at that moment, she actually felt that Xia Wanyuan’s aura was as domineering as Jun Shiling’s.

Her actions were faster than her brain. Lin Wei subconsciously stood up and gave her seat to Xia Wanyuan.

Xia Wanyuan sat in the meeting room. “Report again.”

Chapter 1026: The Princess’ Domineering Control

When Xia Wanyuan said this, not only the people in charge in the meeting room, but even Lin Wei felt that she was joking.

Ignoring the fact that it was a problem to let the meeting continue normally, let these old foxes report again? Only Jun Shiling's immediate appearance in the meeting room could have such an effect.

"Pfft, is there no man in the command center?" Seeing two women in a row, the people in charge were angered. They felt that Jun Shiling was deliberately humiliating them.

"Lin Wei still has a deputy post after all. Who are you to dare to scold us in this position?"

"Xia..." Lin Wei wanted Xia Wanyuan to go down, but Xia Wanyuan stopped her with a look.

In this situation, it was best not to tell these people her identity. Once she told them, they would be fearless.

Only the unknown could make one feel fear.

Xia Wanyuan knocked her right hand on the table twice. "Quiet."

This was her habit when she was in power in her previous life. At this moment, she felt as if she was sitting on the tall palace again. Under her feet were hundreds of officials and tens of thousands of people. Life and death were in her hands.

This simple word carried a substantial pressure. The others in the meeting room actually fell silent.

However, when they reacted, everyone looked at each other. Were we possessed just now? Just as they were about to speak again, Xia Wanyuan spoke first.

"The person in charge of Yongcheng District, you just said that a total of 30,000 people need to be transferred in the district. According to the data of your January 20th newspaper and the data you just reported, six of these don't match. Tell me the reason."

The person in charge was shocked that the Yongcheng District was suddenly called out. Of course, he knew that it did not match, but what surprised him even more was that this woman could actually tell that six things did not match. It had only been a few minutes, how could she tell?

"There's also the Wenjiang District. There's a mistake in eight places, the Wenyuan District..." Xia Wanyuan pointed at a few people who looked easy to control. As expected, after being called out, these people, who were usually very timid, were like frightened birds. "Alright, let's start from you and report again. If the data doesn't match, explain yourself."

Xia Wanyuan had found a breakthrough. As she had expected, these timid and cautious people rushed to report again.

No matter how strong a dam was, once there was a gap, water would pour out. Furthermore, the relationship between this group of people was not stable at all. Hence, one by one, everyone began to report in the original order.

The report at this moment was not as perfunctory as when Lin Wei was hosting just now. This was because Xia Wanyuan knew how to ask questions and was very sharp. She would also peel off layers of information according to everyone's report. If one was not careful, they would fall into the trap she had set.

Everyone was in a different position, and the situation in every area was different. Xia Wanyuan controlled the overall situation and refined it to every small point.

The more everyone reported, the more frightened they became. The young woman on stage did not match her appearance at all. She even had a calm and domineering aura that exceeded her age.

These people in charge had all rolled around in the power nest and were too familiar with this aura. Xia Wanyuan had the boldness of someone who had been in a high position for a long time.

Lin Wei stood on stage for a while and saw that the scene was gradually controlled by Xia Wanyuan. She looked at Xia Wanyuan with a complicated expression and slowly walked off the stage.

The others in the meeting room were also stunned. From the moment Xia Wanyuan arrived, their impression of her was that she was beautiful, followed by gentle. They had never seen her like this.

They knew better than anyone how difficult it was to deal with these people in the meeting room. However, these old loaches actually listened to Xia Wanyuan's instructions obediently.

They had thought that Xia Wanyuan was a young lady who did not get involved in the world, but what did they see at this moment?

It was the scene of Xia Wanyuan instructing a thousand troops. They had thought that only Jun Shiling could control the entire southwest region easily, but now, seeing Xia Wanyuan make all sorts of arrangements, everyone was really stunned.

The people in the meeting room changed one after another. Lin Wei helped Xia Wanyuan refill the teacup in front of her.

It was only when the sun set that the meeting finally came to an end. Xia Wanyuan tapped the table. "Alright, that's all for today's meeting. Do as I say first. If there are any adjustments, I'll inform you in detail. Meeting dismissed."

"Yes, Officer." Everyone in the meeting room did not know who Xia Wanyuan was, but after a day of contact, everyone had placed her on the same level as Jun Shiling from the bottom of their hearts. They could not help but call out, "Officer."

The video conference ended and the video was cut off. Xia Wanyuan coughed lightly and stood up to leave the stage.

At this moment, the meeting room was already filled with people from the command center. It was unknown who led the applause, but gradually, the entire command center applauded.

"Mrs. Jun, thank goodness you're here. Otherwise, I really don't know what to do today."

"That's right. If not for you turning the tide, the situation that the officer had painstakingly built would have been destroyed."

In the corner of the meeting room, Lin Wei looked at Xia Wanyuan quietly. After a while, she finally raised her hand and sincerely applauded her.

She had been prejudiced. As expected, a woman who was worthy of Jun Shiling was not an ordinary person.

“Alright, everyone, work at your previous pace. We’ll talk when Jun Shiling comes back,” Xia Wanyuan said a little tiredly. She smiled at everyone and left the meeting room.

The plane crash should be very difficult to resolve. Jun Shiling still did not return that night.

The second and third day, Jun Shiling still did not return.

But now, everyone was not so flustered. Because of Xia Wanyuan’s presence, everything was progressing in an orderly manner.

On the fourth day, there was still a meeting every three days.

Seeing this devil again, the people in charge of the various areas had ugly expressions.

Jun Shiling was very difficult to deal with, and Xia Wanyuan was even more difficult to deal with than him. The main reason was that Xia Wanyuan was too good at setting traps. They thought that they were already old foxes, but they did not expect that there was a thousand-year-old human spirit here who would dig holes for them to jump into.

“Okay, today’s meeting is over. Those with questions can communicate with us in private. Meeting dismissed.” When Xia Wanyuan announced the end of the meeting, everyone could not help but heave a sigh of relief. It was too difficult. Devil!

Xia Wanyuan did not care what they thought and tidied up the documents on the table.

Suddenly, as if sensing something, she looked up. The door to the meeting room had opened at some point in time. Jun Shiling, who was dressed in black, was standing at the door with a smile in his eyes.

Xia Wanyuan’s eyes lit up and she quickly walked off the stage. Jun Shiling also strode into the meeting room and reached out to pull Xia Wanyuan into his arms.

“Madam, you’re amazing.”

Chapter 1027: CEO Jun Bullied

Xia Wanyuan easily blushed in front of Jun Shiling. Now that he had praised her, her face flushed red. When the others in the meeting room saw this scene, they could not help but laugh.

“Are you done?” Xia Wanyuan looked up from Jun Shiling’s arms.

“Yes, I’m done.” The plane crash was easy to resolve. What was not easy to resolve was that the people who had come down from above had fled into the jungle. It had taken a lot of time to capture these few people.

“Then.” Xia Wanyuan wanted to say something, but Jun Shiling leaned his index finger on her lips. “Go and eat first.”

“Okay.”

Jun Shiling held Xia Wanyuan’s hand and returned to the lounge. Xia Wanyuan told Jun Shiling everything that had happened in the past four days and let him take a look at all the opinions.

“CEO Jun, look, is there anything you need to change?” Xia Wanyuan flipped through the notes in her hand seriously.

The door was knocked on. The staff had delivered the food. Jun Shiling stood up to bring it in and locked the door.

“Look, there’s a little controversy here, so I left it for you to make the decision,” Xia Wanyuan said as she picked up the notes and handed them to Jun Shiling.

Jun Shiling did not look at the document but held Xia Wanyuan’s hand.

Xia Wanyuan looked up and met Jun Shiling’s deep eyes. At that moment, the flames in his eyes flickered. Xia Wanyuan was too familiar with what these flames represented.

Xia Wanyuan’s eyes widened slightly. “Jun Shiling, what are you thinking? This is the base. There are people outside.”

Jun Shiling lowered his head and sealed her mouth. “It’ll be fine if you don’t make a sound.”

Xia Wanyuan was very serious during the meeting, so she did not notice that Jun Shiling had been standing at the door of the meeting room for at least an hour.

He loved to see Xia Wanyuan guide the world. She was so domineering, confident, and wise that one could not help but want to rub her into his body.

“Hey, you.” Xia Wanyuan pushed him. She was really embarrassed to mess around under such circumstances.

“Don’t you miss me?” Jun Shiling’s hot breath tickled her ear.

Xia Wanyuan stopped struggling. How could she not want to? “But...”

“Shh.” Jun Shiling covered Xia Wanyuan’s mouth with his hand. “Bite me if you want to scream. As long as you don’t make a sound, they won’t know.”

“!!!” Xia Wanyuan protested with her eyes, but at this moment, protesting was useless.

Xia Wanyuan wanted to scream but did not dare to. Tears welled up in her eyes and hung on her long eyelashes. She had bitten deep teeth marks on the back of Jun Shiling’s hand.

The churning blanket finally calmed down. Jun Shiling buried himself in Xia Wanyuan’s neck and calmed down.

Xia Wanyuan spat out Jun Shiling’s hand. “You’re getting more and more overboard.”

Jun Shiling chuckled. “Mm, who asked you to seduce me?”

Xia Wanyuan’s eyes were filled with question marks. “When did I seduce you?”

Jun Shiling kissed Xia Wanyuan. "Good girl, I'll heat up the food for you."

"Don't." Xia Wanyuan pulled him back. "Who eats for a few hours? You're not allowed to go. If you go, others will definitely guess wildly."

Jun Shiling smiled and pinched Xia Wanyuan's face. "Okay, I'm not going."

In the end, Jun Shiling roasted a few buns under the warmth of the charcoal fire and the two of them finished dinner around it.

With Xia Wanyuan's help, the work progressed much faster. Jun Shiling read through the notes Xia Wanyuan had made in the past few days. "Madam, you've already done very well. There's no need to modify anything."

"Alright." Xia Wanyuan hooked Jun Shiling's palm. "CEO Jun, you've worked hard."

It had been too long since she had been so focused on dealing with the power struggle. She felt really tired, and her heart ached even more for Jun Shiling. He had always been like this.

"Do you really think I've worked hard?" Jun Shiling raised an eyebrow.

"Mm." Xia Wanyuan nodded.

"Then reward me," Jun Shiling said as he pulled Xia Wanyuan into his arms. Xia Wanyuan, who was bullied until she wanted to scream but did not dare to, could only cry silently was too addictive.

"Hey, are you not working anymore?"

"Fortunately, Madam helped me. I should have worked, but now, the matter has been settled."

"..." Xia Wanyuan wanted to cry but had no tears. Did I shoot myself in the foot?

The next day, Jun Shiling went to work with a red bite mark. Sensing everyone's gazes on him, Jun Shiling smiled. "Madam, you think I came back too late. This is a small punishment for me."

Everyone hurriedly nodded. Oh, oh. Sir's temper is so good to Madam. He's not even angry after being bitten so hard.

Xia Wanyuan got up after resting for a long time.

Hence, on the high platform of the meeting room, there were two figures. Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan handled things together and discussed together, reducing the original working time by half.

He had thought that it would take him a month to complete the work, but now, it was over in half a month.

It was time for the two of them to leave. After all, there were still a lot of things waiting for them in Beijing.

Chapter 1028: Daddy, You're Peeping at Me!!

Compared to when she first came and was treated as an enemy by a group of people with weapons, when she left, Xia Wanyuan was reluctantly surrounded by everyone.

Who did not like to see beautiful women when they worked in the mountains? Especially since this beauty was extremely capable and could increase their work progress by more than half.

Jun Shiling held Xia Wanyuan's hand and walked into the plane. The door gradually closed, blocking everyone's reluctant gazes.

Xia Wanyuan leaned against the window and looked at everyone waving at the plane. She was a little reluctant. After all, they had been together for nearly half a month.

Jun Shiling glanced at Xia Wanyuan and wrapped his arms around her waist. "Can't bear to leave?"

"A little." The environment here was simple. Although she was tired every day, it inexplicably reminded her of her previous life.

"Invite them over during our wedding."

"Wedding?" Xia Wanyuan turned around. "When? No, you haven't proposed to me yet."

Jun Shiling smiled. "Mm, Madam Jun, you can start preparing your wedding clothes now."

Hearing Jun Shiling's words, Xia Wanyuan looked forward to it.

In her two lifetimes, she had never thought about what she would be like when she got married.

Glancing at Jun Shiling, Xia Wanyuan imagined Jun Shiling in a red suit in her mind. She suddenly looked forward to it. She had not seen Jun Shiling wear anything other than a suit.

"By the way, did you watch the video of me participating in the design competition?" Xia Wanyuan suddenly thought that Jun Shiling was so busy that he shouldn't have time to pay attention to this. "Shall we watch it together?"

How could Jun Shiling not have watched it? No matter how busy he was, he had taken some time out to watch the video of Xia Wanyuan participating in the competition before he slept. However, facing Xia Wanyuan's invitation now, Jun Shiling nodded. "Mm."

Although it was the second time he had seen it, Jun Shiling could not help but be stunned by Xia Wanyuan. Wearing the blue sky and white clouds, Xia Wanyuan walked out of the endless light like a dream god.

"Does it look good?" Xia Wanyuan turned her head, her face clearly asking for praise.

Jun Shiling stroked Xia Wanyuan's head as if he was coaxing a child. "Our Madam is the most beautiful."

As expected, Xia Wanyuan had dimples on her face from the praise. Jun Shiling smiled with her.

The plane shuttled through the clouds. Jun Shiling hugged Xia Wanyuan and looked out the window at the clouds and the morning glow.

In the open sea of Continent M, a luxurious cruise ship was floating aimlessly on the sea.

"The famous King of the Night actually doesn't even dare to show his face. This negotiation is meaningless." A tall foreign man was staring at the masked man opposite him. This was the second on the international criminal bounty list, Sea Shark. The first was naturally the masked man in front of him, King.

"Is my face worth 100 billion? Or? You don't even want 100 billion and want to see my face?" The masked man's voice was extremely young.

"A hundred billion?" Hearing this, Sea Shark immediately sat up straight. "Where can I earn it? The international market is tight now. Where can I get a hundred billion?"

The masked man gestured, and the scar-faced man standing at the side handed Sea Shark a document.

"China?" Sea Shark closed the document when it saw this word. "Do you think I don't know that it's easy to do big business in the Chinese market? The key is how to enter. Its place is like an iron wall, and the higher-ups are ruthless. If I don't earn money when I go in, I'll lose myself."

"What if I say that this copper wall is already the paper on the window that will shatter with a light touch?"

"What do you mean?" In this underground force, the Sea Shark was second, and the one who dared to be number one was King, who was sitting in front of him. The sea shark knew that he would not say anything without evidence, so he was immediately interested.

"I have a detailed map of the southwest region of China, including all their combat strength deployments. When we transport the goods in privately, not only can we bypass all the checkpoints, but we can also watch and develop the other party into our tentacles."

"A map?!" Sea Shark was really shocked. This was the highest secret of a country. How did King have this?

"Just say it. Are you going to do it? If not, I'll find someone else."

"Yes!" Sea Shark made a prompt decision. "Fifty-fifty."

"Three, seven."

"Impossible!" The sea shark's eyes widened. "You're too overboard!"

The masked man stood up and left. "Then we won't meet again."

Seeing that the masked man was about to leave the deck, Sea Shark made up his mind. "Wait, four, six!"

"Deal." Under the mask, Yu Qian's thin lips curled up.

He turned around slowly. "Now, we can talk about what to do."

The wind blew across the blue sea, and the waves rushed towards the snow-white mail boat. The two people sitting on the deck only stopped discussing when night fell.

The stars flashed in the sky, and the sound of a car came from the entrance of the manor.

"Mommy is back!!" Xiao Bao, who was on the second floor, seemed to have sensed something. He threw down the Ultraman in his hand and ran out. Xia Yu could not catch up.

Xiao Bao had just run downstairs when Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan entered.

Xiao Bao pursed his lips and began to cry. "Boohoo, Mommy, I miss you so much. Where did you go?"

Xia Wanyuan hurriedly went forward and kissed Xiao Bao's face. "Good boy, isn't Mommy back?"

"Why are you crying?" Jun Shiling walked over and looked at Xiao Bao in disdain. "You're already four years old, yet you're still crying."

Xiao Bao did not care. Xiao Bao missed Xia Wanyuan so much that he threw himself into her arms and cried until the sky collapsed. Only when Xia Wanyuan promised him that she would bring him along as her little tail for the next week did he calm down.

Satisfied with his mother's comfort, Xiao Bao kissed Xia Wanyuan and slipped out of her arms. He ran to Jun Shiling and opened his arms to him.

"Daddy, hug me."

Jun Shiling glanced at him. "What are you doing?"

Xiao Bao pouted, and tears were about to fall from his big eyes. "Boohoo, Daddy, hug me. I miss Daddy."

Jun Shiling looked disdainful, but he still reached out and lifted Xiao Bao onto his lap. Xiao Bao hugged Jun Shiling's neck like a little octopus. "Daddy, I miss you so much."

Jun Shiling patted Xiao Bao's back. "Have you been good recently?"

"Yes." Xiao Bao nodded seriously. "I'm super obedient. I haven't eaten milk candy recently!"

Jun Shiling was about to praise him when he suddenly felt that Xiao Bao's pocket was bulging. Jun Shiling reached in and took out a large handful of golden monkey milk candy.

The back of Xiao Bao's neck turned cold. He let go and was about to run when Jun Shiling pulled him back.

"Mommy, you made me wait for you at home for more than half a month. I miss you so much." In his long battle with Jun Shiling, Xiao Bao had already grasped the key to solving the problem.

As expected, Xia Wanyuan walked over and took Xiao Bao. "Although your father is fierce to you, he misses you very much. He carries our photos with him and takes a look at you every night."

Xiao Bao's round eyes widened. He looked at Jun Shiling in shock and joy. "Daddy, really? You secretly looked at my photo!"

"..." Jun Shiling's eyes flashed. "If you eat milk candy again in the future, I won't buy you a plane."

Chapter 1029: Breaking the Record

"Hehe." Xiao Bao smiled until his teeth were white. The dimples on his face were identical to Xia Wanyuan's. "Daddy, hug."

Jun Shiling reached out to take Xiao Bao. "You're not allowed to eat it secretly, understand?"

“Mm, mm!” Knowing that his father was also thinking about him, Xiao Bao was extremely happy. He leaned against his father’s broad chest cooperatively. “Daddy, I like you so much.”

“Mm,” Jun Shiling replied gently and stroked Xiao Bao’s soft head.

Looking at this loving scene, Xia Wanyuan smiled. She looked up and saw Xia Yu sitting at the side with a lonely expression. Xia Wanyuan’s eyes flickered.

Xiao Bao, who had originally cried and wanted Xia Wanyuan to accompany him, became more clingy to Jun Shiling in the end. He hung around Jun Shiling’s neck and did not come down. Even when he was showering, Jun Shiling had to help him wash up.

On account of not returning for nearly half a month, Jun Shiling agreed to Xiao Bao’s request and carried him into the bathroom.

Xia Wanyuan went upstairs and knocked on Xia Yu’s door.

“Sister, why are you here?” Xia Yu had just washed his hair and it was still wet.

Xia Wanyuan took the hairdryer from the side. “Sit down.”

“Okay.” Xia Yu had never had his hair blown before and was a little embarrassed.

Xia Wanyuan helped him blow slowly. “Have you visited Xia Yuanqing?”

Xia Yu was stunned. “No.”

“Find some time to visit him.”

Xia Yu was silent for a while. “Mm.”

Xia Yu was inexplicably sad to see Xiao Bao and Jun Shiling together.

Ever since Xia Yuanqing had carried him back, he had never lacked food, clothes, and use. However, he had never felt the love from his father. This was a lifelong regret for Xia Yu.

Xia Yu was sad for a moment, but this sadness was quickly resolved by Xia Wanyuan’s gentle actions. Fortunately, he still had a sister.

After drying her hair, Xia Wanyuan chatted with Xia Yu for a long time before leaving. It had been a long time since she had a heart-to-heart with Xia Yu. This time, they had a thorough chat.

When she returned to the bedroom, Xiao Bao was already asleep in Jun Shiling’s arms.

Jun Shiling looked up at Xia Wanyuan. “You’ve never talked to me for so long.”

Jun Shiling snorted softly. “Come and sleep.”

“Okay.” Xia Wanyuan smiled until her eyes curved into crescents. She slept on Jun Shiling’s right and rested her head on his arm. “Goodnight, CEO Jun.”

A kiss landed. “Goodnight.”

The news of Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan returning to Beijing quickly spread to many people.

“Sister, Jun Shiling is back. I’ve already arranged it. Dress up better tomorrow night.” It was already late at night, but Jiang Kui still called Jiang Yun.

Jiang Yun frowned. “What do you want?”

“Don’t worry about it. Anyway, we’ll be at the Guohua Hotel tomorrow. If you don’t come, you can report to Father yourself.” Jiang Kui hung up after saying that.

Listening to the beeping sound on the phone, Jiang Yun tightened her grip on her phone. The computer in front of her was still playing Xia Yu’s live-stream replay, but Jiang Yun was not in the mood to watch this now.

Ever since they parted at the cinema last time, Jiang Yun had cut off her connection with Xia Yu.

To be honest, she was indeed a little tempted. Although she was about the same age as Xia Yu, she was mentally already much older than him.

It was not an exaggeration to say that she had a twenty-year-old body and a forty-year-old mentality.

She had seen too many schemes and benefits. It was impossible to not be tempted by Xia Yu’s pure and indomitable love.

However, because she was tempted, she did not dare to contact Xia Yu again.

As expected, it was right not to contact him. As long as she was a member of the Jiang family, she could not have freedom and would always be a tool of the family.

Jiang Yun stood up and turned off the live broadcast in front of her. She walked to the cloakroom to choose the clothes she wanted to wear to the banquet tomorrow.

The morning sun of the new day rose again.

Xia Wanyuan had just finished breakfast when she received Chen Yun’s continuous bombardment.

“My ancestor, your call can finally be connected.”

Xia Wanyuan pulled Xiao Bao’s hand and walked out. “What’s wrong?”

“Ancestor, do you know how much your movie has sold at the box office?” Chen Yun was stuck in the studio. He looked at the media reporters downstairs and wanted to cry.

“I don’t know. You can worry about this kind of thing.” From the moment Xia Wanyuan arrived in France until she stayed in the southwest for more than half a month, she had never paid attention to the domestic entertainment industry. She had not even watched the movie she had acted in completely.

“You’ve already broken the five billion mark!! You’ve broken all sorts of records. The media reporters are going crazy looking for you. Oh, and your fans’ comments under your latest Weibo post have already broken the Guinness record.”

The video of Xia Wanyuan participating in the design competition overseas had already attracted the attention of a large number of domestic audience in the afternoon.

That beautiful change not only conquered the foreign audience, but also captured the hearts of the domestic audience.

Various videos of Xia Wanyuan's competition that day were popular on various platforms. That magical embroidery technique was simply dazzling.

Before the popularity of embroidery died down, "Dark Night" was released. The domestic estimated box office for this movie was about a billion yuan.

Although the director was very famous and the protagonist was the extremely popular Xia Wanyuan, it was not an eye-catching sci-fi movie after all, nor was it artistic. Instead, it was a movie with a slower pace to explore human nature.

However, no one had expected Xia Wanyuan's performance to be so moving. She had vividly displayed that cold and heartless killer, the pure and clear Little Snow, and Snow Fox after experiencing a thousand sails, making one unable to help but be brought into that illusory world.

Wave after wave, Xia Wanyuan had dominated the first place on the Weibo rankings for nearly half a month. Her popularity had not decreased until now. She was known as a miracle in the entertainment industry.

However, just as Xia Wanyuan swept through the Internet, she disappeared from the public eye. No one could find her, making all the media and fans crazy with anxiety.

Now that Xia Wanyuan was finally back, Chen Yun could finally be relieved. "I've arranged a live broadcast for you tonight. Go online and chat with your fans."

"No problem," Xia Wanyuan agreed.

Xia Wanyuan had been gone for more than half a month. Most of the matters were carried out in an orderly manner without any major mistakes.

There was only one thing that Xia Wanyuan wanted to resolve immediately.

That was the Wei family.

Xia Wanyuan had just taken over and had disappeared for more than half a month. Xia Wanyuan was worried that the Wei family would take advantage of this period of time to cause trouble.

However, when she rushed to the Wei family's courtyard, she was very surprised. Everything was in order. It was still the same when she left and returned.

Chapter 1030: The Truth Back Then

Xia Wanyuan brought Xiao Bao, her little tail, into the Wei family's courtyard. When she saw Wei Zimu standing at the door, she understood why the Wei family had been so peaceful these few days.

"Sister Wanyuan." After not seeing her for many days, Wei Zimu seemed to have lost some weight and smiled gently at Xia Wanyuan.

This uncle is so good-looking!

“Mm.” Xia Wanyuan nodded. She pointed at Wei Zimu. “Xiao Bao, call Uncle Zimu.”

Xiao Bao’s eyes curved up and he said enthusiastically, “Hello, Uncle Zimu!”

Seeing Xiao Bao, who looked like a porcelain doll, warmth appeared in Wei Zimu’s eyes. He squatted down and stroked Xiao Bao’s head. “Hello, what’s your name?”

“My name is Jun Yin.” Xiao Bao smiled.

“Jun Yin,” Wei Zimu repeated. “Good name.”

With that, Wei Zimu stood up and looked at Xia Wanyuan. “You’ve been gone for the past few days. There are many things in the Wei family that you need to oversee. Let’s find a place to talk.”

“Okay.” Xia Wanyuan nodded. The sunlight was very good today. Xia Wanyuan pointed at the pavilion in the garden. “Let’s go over and talk.”

“Mm.”

Xia Wanyuan turned around, took Xiao Bao’s hand, and led him not far from the pavilion. She took a branch and drew a circle on the ground. “Stay in this circle and wait for Mommy to finish talking. Don’t run around.”

Xiao Bao nodded obediently. “Mommy, I’ll wait for you.”

Xia Wanyuan patted his head before walking into the pavilion with Wei Zimu.

The view here was very wide. She could see Xiao Bao playing hopscotch happily. Wei Zimu smiled. “Sister Wanyuan, your child is indeed very cute.”

Xia Wanyuan glanced at Xiao Bao and retracted her gaze. “Thank you for helping me manage the Wei family these few days.”

“What thank you?” Wei Zimu placed the account book beside him in front of Xia Wanyuan. “I’ve already sorted out these things. See if there’s any problem.”

Xia Wanyuan quickly flipped open the account book. “You organized it very well. The Wei family is in order under your management.”

“Now that you’re back, it’s your turn to manage it.”

“Where are you going next?” There were many dried fruits prepared by Wei Zimu on the table. Xia Wanyuan took one and placed it in her mouth.

“Where are you not going? I’ll stay in Beijing. If you need anything, you can look for me.” The Wei family was Wei Zimu’s home. Wei Zimu had never thought of leaving.

Okay, then you'll still be in charge of the Wei family's matters." Wei Zimu was more familiar with the Wei family's businesses than anyone else. He was the most suitable candidate to manage the Wei family.

Wei Zimu hesitated for a moment, then smiled and nodded. "Since you've said so, I'm willing to help you manage it."

"I met your younger brother in France more than half a month ago." Xia Wanyuan suddenly mentioned Yu Qian, and Wei Zimu's hand that was holding the cup paused.

"He didn't do anything to you, did he?"

Xia Wanyuan looked at Wei Zimu thoughtfully. "I have no grievances with him. What can he do to me? But I'm very curious. What does your younger brother do?"

"He makes medicine. He's a biologist." Wei Zimu was silent for a moment before giving a general answer.

Yu Qian studied all sorts of pathogenic creatures and had extremely high medical skills. Unfortunately, his medical skills were not used to treat people. Wei Zimu did not plan to tell anyone about this.

"Mm," Xia Wanyuan replied. She could tell that Wei Zimu did not intend to say more, so she tactfully did not ask further.

"Do you want to visit Grandma?" The silent atmosphere between the two made Wei Zimu feel a little stuffy. He took the initiative to visit Old Madam Wei.

"Okay." Xia Wanyuan nodded and waved at Xiao Bao. "Come here."

This was the first time Xiao Bao had seen Old Madam Wei. He had a sweet mouth and looked obedient, making Old Madam Wei extremely happy. In the end, he left with a huge red packet.

Wei Zimu sent Xia Wanyuan to the door and got into the car as usual. Xiao Bao leaned against the car window. "Uncle Gentle, see you next time."

A warm smile appeared on Wei Zimu's face. "Mm, see you next time."

With that, Wei Zimu looked at Xia Wanyuan. "Sister Wanyuan, goodbye."

"If you're unhappy, tell me. Thank you for taking care of me all this time." Xia Wanyuan could feel that Wei Zimu really doted on her like a sister.

"With this sentence of yours, it's better than anything."

Watching Xia Wanyuan leave, Wei Zimu stood on the spot for a while before returning to the courtyard.

Just as he returned to the courtyard, Yu Qian called.

"Hey."

"Brother, I need people." Yu Qian's voice was cold and emotionless.

"What people?"

“An unborn fetus to a seventy-year old elderly. I need at least twenty people of every age.” Yu Qian’s tone was as if he was talking about carrots and cabbages.

“What are you going to do? Didn’t I agree to be your experiment?” Hearing Yu Qian’s words, Wei Zimu felt his entire body turn cold.

“You’re only one person. There’s nothing to observe.” Yu Qian chatted on the phone as he shook the test tube in his hand. “Brother, do you remember what you promised me when I let you return to China to see Xia Wanyuan?”

“Why must it be like this?” Wei Zimu sat in the dark room and felt that the bright sunlight outside was as distant as a lifetime ago. “You clearly know how painful it is to be an experiment.”

“Oh?” Yu Qian stopped shaking the test tube and his eyes froze. “Brother, you know that it’s painful to be an experiment subject? You should know how many years I’ve been doing it, right? More than ten years. May I ask, who caused all of this?”

Wei Zimu fell silent.

He and Yu Qian were born into an ordinary family. Although their family was not rich, they did not have to worry about food and clothes. The two brothers were also raised in the hands of their parents.

When he was young, he was lively and cheerful. When Yu Qian was young, he was soft and cute, innocent and cute. His parents were busy with work, so he brought Yu Qian along.

However, he was too playful. At that time, he was just in time for the temple fair. He only cared about chasing after the flower boat. When he was done playing, Yu Qian had already disappeared into the sea of people.

Yu Qian went missing. They called the police but could not find him for several years. His mother cried all day and thought too much before leaving the world. A good family fell apart. His originally loyal father drank every day and accidentally fell into the water and drowned one night when he was walking. Wei Zimu also became an orphan and drifted outside to beg for food until he was picked up by the Wei family.

Compared to him, Yu Qian was not so lucky. Back then, Yu Qian had been carried away and sold to Old K in Continent F. He, who was only five years old, had become a tool to test the medicine.

The underground world was truly a place where the strong preyed on the weak. They were always on the verge of death. Yu Qian had never told Wei Zimu how he had replaced the former overlord, Old K, to control the Dark Night Kingdom, but Wei Zimu could imagine how much despair and pain Yu Qian had experienced.

This was also why Wei Zimu did not complain about how Yu Qian treated him.

He felt guilty.

Wei Zimu’s eyes turned red. “I’m sorry.”

There was no change in Yu Qian’s eyes. “Brother, it’s useless to say sorry. Prepare the people I want. Go to Fuchun City in the southwest in ten days. Someone will pick you up then.”

With that, Yu Qian hung up and focused on studying the liquid in the test tube.

However, Wei Zimu's eyes were red.
