

Modern Day 1341

Chapter 1341: Untitled

Seeing the words Liu Tanyu, the netizens' gossip radar was activated.

Ever since Zou Man and Jiang Kui announced their divorce, there had been endless gossip about Jiang Kui on various forums.

Jiang Kui usually did not avoid bringing Liu Tanyu along when he participated in events. The name Liu Tanyu was not unfamiliar in the Beijing circle.

The news gradually spread. The netizens were gossiping about Liu Tanyu and Jiang Kui's extramarital relationship.

At this moment, Liu Tanyu stood up and everyone ran over to watch the commotion.

In order to make it easier to explain, Liu Tanyu carried Xiao Yu and opened a live-stream on Weibo.

"I'm doing a live broadcast here today to tell you how dirty a soul is hidden under Jiang Kui's glamorous appearance.

My husband and I were childhood sweethearts...

Not only did he use illegal means to profit, but he also wantonly harmed everyone who stopped his career. Because he was jealous that his sister was stronger than him, he sent someone to shoot his sister at her sister's wedding.

In fact, he was the mastermind behind Xia Wanyuan's injury..."

Liu Tanyu hugged the child and revealed what Jiang Kui had done word by word.

As she explained, she cried when she thought of her husband, who was already buried on Qingshan. The audience, who were watching the commotion, were infected by her emotions.

[How tragic... If what you said is true, then Jiang Kui's death ten thousand times is really not enough. Think about how many ordinary families he can destroy with a casual sentence.]

[F*ck, did Jiang Kui really do that to my goddess?? I even want to kill Jiang Kui.]

[I now have reason to suspect that all the rumors of the police abusing him and extorting confessions from him are fabricated by his lawyers.]

"I've collected a lot of evidence while I was by his side. I've already submitted it all to the police. Thank you for your attention."

After saying everything, Liu Tanyu closed the live-stream. She looked at the luggage at the side and nodded at Lin Jing. "Thank CEO Jun for me."

"Someone will protect you and send you back. There's five million yuan on this card. It can support you and your son until Xiao Yu becomes an adult. Take care," Lin Jing said as he handed a card to Liu Tanyu.

Liu Tanyu took the card and could not help but tear up.

When her husband died, her sky had collapsed. Now that she had finally helped her husband take revenge, her future mission was to raise Xiao Yu well.

"Let's go." Lin Jing gestured for the bodyguard to help Liu Tanyu carry her luggage.

Liu Tanyu pulled the child and bowed to Lin Jing before leaving without looking back.

This prosperous city did not belong to her to begin with. Now that her mission was completed, it was time to leave.

Because of Liu Tanyu's appearance, everything that the elite lawyers had painstakingly built was shattered. Public opinion rebounded, and the Jiang family was in a desperate situation.

"Yun'er." Father Jiang found Jiang Yun. "In the end, our Jiang family will still rely on your younger brother to inherit it. You have a lot of connections. You must save Jiang Kui for me."

Although Father Jiang was begging Jiang Yun, he looked down on her from above.

The corners of Jiang Yun's lips curled up slightly. "Father, can only men inherit the company?"

Father Jiang frowned. "Of course. What can a woman do? Don't tell me you have some new thoughts after seeing Jiang Kui in trouble? Let me tell you, that's impossible. The Jiang family can only let men inherit it."

Jiang Yun sneered. "Then go and find a man to settle it."

Chapter 1342: Jiang Kui's Ending

When had Father Jiang ever been contradicted by his children like this? He was immediately furious. He raised his hand to hit Jiang Yun, but he stopped when he saw the emotions in Jiang Yun's eyes.

Jiang Yun raised her chin slightly, her eyes filled with stubbornness and unwillingness to admit defeat.

He recalled the scene of him sending Jiang Yun to Continent M alone many years ago. At that time, Jiang Yun was not even ten years old. She cried and looked up to beg him not to send her away.

At that time, her eyes had the same look.

Father Jiang put down his arm and sighed softly. "I know you hate me."

Jiang Yun's expression did not change. "No."

"I had no choice but to send you over back then." Father Jiang had been running around for Jiang Kui these few days and looked much older. "I know that you've suffered more than Jiang Kui over the years, but..."

"But he's a man." Jiang Yun's eyes were filled with mockery. "Because he's the hope of the family, right? I'm a woman, so I should always be the one to be abandoned. There's no need to say this. I knew it long ago."

"You..." Father Jiang sighed. "Take it that I'm begging you. No matter what, Jiang Kui is your family. Are you going to watch him die??"

“Father.” Although she had already mentally prepared herself many times, Jiang Yun felt ridiculous and sad when she saw Father Jiang begging her. “Then do you know that when I got married, Jiang Kui was going to get someone to kill me?”

Father Jiang was silent.

“Alright, let’s not talk about it anymore.” Jiang Yun took a deep breath. “I’ll think of a way to keep Jiang Kui alive. As for the rest, I’m helpless.”

With that, Jiang Yun picked up her bag and left.

In the car outside the door, Lin Qingdai was waiting for her.

Jiang Yun got into the car, still feeling indignant. Lin Qingdai patted his shoulder. “Lie down for a while.”

Just as Father Jiang finished talking to Jiang Yun, his subordinate brought a bolt from the blue.

Many projects that Jiang Kui had invested in had completely failed. Only then did Father Jiang know that Jiang Kui had used a large amount of funds from the company’s headquarters behind his back.

Now, not only was there a problem with Jiang Kui’s project, but the Jiang family’s core business was also affected. It was on the verge of collapse.

When Father Jiang received the news, he immediately rushed to the company. However, halfway there, his assistant called. “CEO Jiang, you don’t have to come over. It’s completely collapsed now.”

It was at a point where no one going over could save.

Father Jiang turned on his phone with trembling hands. The first thing that popped up was the news of the Jiang Corporation going bankrupt.

As one of the top families in China, countless people were waiting covetously for the Jiang family to fall so that they could go forward and share the food.

Now that the Jiang family had really fallen, there was no buffer. Everyone rushed forward and divided the Jiang family’s various businesses cleanly.

In the prison, Jiang Kui was still quite stubborn. “Anyway, my legal team is coming soon. Just wait. When I get out, see how I deal with you.”

At this moment, the captain walked in. “Put a newspaper in front of Jiang Kui. CEO Jiang, I advise you to confess early. I don’t think you can dream of leaving. The Jiang family probably doesn’t have the money to hire an elite lawyer for you now.”

Jiang Kui glanced at the newspaper and his expression changed. “Impossible!!!”

How could the Jiang family fall?!

“You lied to me!!”

Seeing that Jiang Kui did not believe them, everyone specially turned on the television. Now, social media was reporting about the Jiang family. The words “fall of the Jiang family” could be seen everywhere.

Jiang Kui was deeply shocked and fainted on the spot.

Chapter 1343: Fall of the Jiang Family

The staff splashed a bottle of water on Jiang Kui's face. "Wake up. Running away won't solve the problem. If you don't explain everything clearly, I won't let you live in peace today."

Jiang Kui was woken up by the water. On the television in front, the reporters were surrounding Father Jiang and asking all sorts of questions.

Jiang Kui looked at Father Jiang in a daze. The former head of the Jiang family, who was in high spirits, seemed to have aged ten years overnight.

"I want to see my father!!" Jiang Kui suddenly stood up and ran out the door crazily.

"Stop." The gun was pressed against the back of his head. "If you move again, you'll be charged with assault."

Jiang Kui wanted to say something, but he suddenly realized that he was no longer the high and mighty young master of the Jiang family.

He looked back at the iron window and suddenly felt an unprecedented panic.

If the Jiang family fell, who could save me? Could it be that I would be locked up in this place for the rest of my life??

To the power division in China, the fall of the Jiang family was a far-reaching event. However, to the ordinary people, the fall of the Jiang family was just an additional topic of conversation. After sighing, it was fine.

[You didn't expect this, right... A few days ago, everyone was still pitying Zou Man. Now, Zou Man is really lucky to have avoided a calamity.]

[This means that one can't be too arrogant. Look at how glorious Jiang Kui was a few days ago. Compared to now, it's too tragic... With what Liu Tanyu revealed, Jiang Kui will probably be imprisoned for the rest of his life.]

[How is Jiang Kui arrogant? He clearly brought it on himself, okay? ? ? ? I fully suspect that CEO Jun was behind the Jiang family's downfall this time. Jiang Kui actually dared to attack Xia Wanyuan. He's simply courting death.]

No matter how intense the discussion was, to the netizens, Jiang Kui was thrown to the back of their minds in the time it took for a meal.

What everyone was most concerned about was actually how Xia Wanyuan's injuries were.

Ever since Xia Wanyuan's accident, there had been no news. All sorts of rumors flew in the outside world.

In the hospital, Xia Wanyuan was sitting at the head of the bed. Jun Shiling was feeding Xia Wanyuan medicine bit by bit with a spoon.

"It's so bitter." After drinking more than half of it, Xia Wanyuan really could not drink anymore.

Jun Shiling's face was cold as he leaned over and kissed Xia Wanyuan on the lips. "It's not bitter anymore. Continue drinking."

Xia Wanyuan could not help but laugh. "How can you be like this?"

Jun Shiling fed Xia Wanyuan a spoonful of medicine. "Take your medicine properly and be obedient."

Xia Wanyuan opened her mouth and bit down. "Can I eat normally? I don't want to eat nutrient solution anymore."

Because her stomach had been cut, Xia Wanyuan had not eaten normal food since she woke up. She relied on nutrient solutions to survive.

As time passed, she could not take it anymore.

Jun Shiling placed the spoon in his bowl and glanced at Xia Wanyuan quietly. "Don't even think about it."

Knowing that Jun Shiling would not agree, Xia Wanyuan did not hesitate anymore. "CEO Jun, you're so serious. Can you smile?"

Jun Shiling was very helpless towards Xia Wanyuan. The corners of his lips twitched. "You only know how to mess around."

Xia Wanyuan smiled. "CEO Jun, when I was unconscious, I seemed to have returned to ancient times. I seemed to have seen my younger brother and many others."

Jun Shiling paused. "How did you come back??"

"I don't know either. Do you think I might return to ancient times in the future??"

"Nonsense!"

Chapter 1344: Not Allowed to Leave

Jun Shiling's voice suddenly became louder, and his entire expression looked wrong, scaring Xia Wanyuan. She looked at Jun Shiling in confusion. "What's wrong?"

Jun Shiling's expression was gloomy. "You're not allowed to go back."

Xia Wanyuan had only mentioned this unintentionally. She did not expect Jun Shiling to have such a huge reaction.

"I'm not saying I'll go back. I'm just guessing..."

"You're not allowed to guess." Jun Shiling looked straight into Xia Wanyuan's eyes. "You're not allowed to go anywhere."

Xia Wanyuan stayed in the operating theater for two days and two nights. Only Jun Shiling knew what he had experienced in those two days and two nights.

If Xia Wanyuan disappeared from his world, he felt that there was no meaning in this world.

Infected by the thick emotions in Jun Shiling's eyes, Xia Wanyuan pursed her lips and reached out to pull Jun Shiling. "I'm sorry, I never thought of leaving."

The veins on Jun Shiling's forehead bulged slightly. He put down the bowl and reached out to gently hug Xia Wanyuan. "Don't leave me."

Xia Wanyuan hugged Jun Shiling back. "I won't."

Ever since Xia Wanyuan woke up, Jun Shiling had always shown her his tenacious side.

However, Xia Wanyuan's words instantly hit Jun Shiling's weak point.

Now that she was hugging Jun Shiling, Xia Wanyuan could clearly feel Jun Shiling's vulnerability. She gently patted Jun Shiling's back.

"Brother-in-law." The ward door was suddenly pushed open. Seeing the scene in the room, Xia Yu hurriedly closed the door. "I'm sorry, I'm sorry. I'll come back later."

Jun Shiling let go of Xia Wanyuan. "Come in."

Xia Yu opened the door again and walked in. He handed a document to Jun Shiling. "Brother-in-law, Special Assistant Lin asked me to send this to you."

Jun Shiling flipped it open and took a look, then handed it to Xia Wanyuan. "The Jiang family touched you."

Xia Wanyuan glanced at the document. Unlike the others, the others were shocked to see the Jiang family fall. Xia Wanyuan held Jun Shiling's hand. "You've worked hard."

A centipede was still alive, let alone the Jiang family, which had been entrenched in China for nearly a few hundred years.

It looked so easy, but Xia Wanyuan knew very well that Jun Shiling must have paid a considerable price and spent a lot of effort for this.

Exposing the matter was very simple, but how to implement it and suppress the various industrial lines of the Jiang family was the most difficult.

Jun Shiling held Xia Wanyuan's hand. "Rest well. I'll go up."

"Mm."

Jun Shiling brought Xia Yu upstairs. Xuan Sheng's ward was upstairs.

Seeing Jun Shiling walk over, Lu Li stood up in fear. "CEO Jun."

Although she had worked with Xia Wanyuan for so long, Lu Li was still a little afraid when she looked at Jun Shiling.

"How's he doing?"

Speaking of Xuan Sheng, Lu Li's eyes revealed a hint of sadness. "The doctor said that he doesn't know when CEO Xuan will wake up. It depends on his own will to live."

The medicine that needed to be used had been used, and Xuan Sheng's injuries had been properly treated.

Now that Xuan Sheng could not wake up for a long time, the doctor determined that other than being seriously injured and unconscious, it was also related to his weak willpower to live.

"Go down first. I'll go in and take a look," Jun Shiling said and walked in. Lu Li subconsciously stopped Jun Shiling.

Jun Shiling frowned and glanced at Lu Li before she retracted her hand. "CEO Jun, CEO Xuan is very pitiful."

She was a little worried that Jun Shiling would agitate Xuan Sheng after entering.

Jun Shiling did not speak and walked in.

Chapter 1345: Acknowledging Godfather

In the ward, Xuan Sheng lay quietly on the bed, his entire body wrapped in bandages. The entire room was so quiet that only the sound of the ECG monitor could be heard.

Jun Shiling walked over and glanced at Xuan Sheng.

"This is the second time you've saved her. I should thank you."

Xuan Sheng still lay quietly without any movement.

Thinking of what Lu Li had said about Xuan Sheng's weak will to live, Jun Shiling stood by the bed for a long time before finally speaking again.

"Xia Wanyuan's health has recovered very well, and the child in her stomach has been saved. They'll be born in five months. I hope that when the time comes, you can come and see your godson and goddaughter."

It was impossible for Jun Shiling to give Xia Wanyuan up, but Xuan Sheng had done so much for her and saved her twice at the critical moment.

If Xia Wanyuan had stepped into that car without noticing anything, there would have been no chance of survival.

Jun Shiling had always been a person who distinguished gratitude and grudges. He had seen everything Xuan Sheng had done.

After thinking about it, he finally thought of this method.

With that, Jun Shiling stood in front of the bed for a while before leaving.

The moment Jun Shiling turned around, the image on the ECG detector fluctuated clearly.

Lu Li was guarding outside the door. Seeing Jun Shiling leave, she hurriedly slipped into the ward to check on Xuan Sheng.

She was not afraid that Jun Shiling would do anything to Xuan Sheng. It was mainly because she felt that Jun Shiling was provoking Xuan Sheng by standing there.

Lu Li looked at it for a long time and felt that Xuan Sheng should be fine. Coincidentally, the doctor brought the nurse over for a ward round, so Lu Li asked about Xuan Sheng's condition.

"The patient's will to live is stronger now." The doctor looked at Lu Li in surprise. "It should be because you talk to the patient often. As long as he's willing to survive, our treatment process will be twice as effective."

Lu Li was stunned. She had not seen any change in Xuan Sheng when she spoke to him every day, but Jun Shiling had just entered.

Could it be that CEO Jun had said something to Xuan Sheng that gave him a strong will to live? No matter what, Lu Li was very happy.

She felt that Xuan Sheng had lived too hard for the first half of his life. If he left for no reason, how wronged would he be?

In the Beijing airport, a private plane was waiting on the runway.

"Young Master, our people are ready. The medical facilities on the plane are already in place."

"Mm." Chu Yi held a cigarette in his hand and blew out a smoke ring. "Go and carry Su Yao up."

"Yes."

After confirming that Su Yao was not Feng Wuyou, Chu Yi originally wanted to leave Su Yao in Beijing, but before he boarded the plane, he regretted it and sent someone to the ward to carry Su Yao over.

Su Yao was placed in a completely sealed medical pod. Chu Yi opened it and took a look. Su Yao, who was lying quietly on the bed, had a weak beauty. Chu Yi subconsciously felt a dull pain in his heart.

He frowned and closed the door. "Bring it up."

"Yes."

After more than ten hours of flying, the plane landed in Continent F.

A middle-aged man in a long robe welcomed Chu Yi. "Young Master, we deciphered some of the words and realized..."

Before the middle-aged man could finish speaking, Chu Yi waved his hand and interrupted him. "Let's talk later."

With that, he got someone to carry Su Yao out and brought her into the car.

The middle-aged man stood rooted to the ground and frowned in confusion when he saw Chu Yi being so careful with the woman beside him.

What was Chu Yi doing??

Chapter 1346: Revival of a Thousand-Year-Old Person

Su Yao's condition was originally not suitable for a long journey back to Continent F. However, Chu Yi insisted, so no one could do anything.

Now that more than ten hours of flying time had passed, even with the medical team following to treat her, Su Yao's condition still deteriorated rapidly.

The wound on her heart that had been pierced by the bullet had already begun to bleed. Seeing the blood, Chu Yi frowned slightly. "How did you treat it?"

The doctors were filled with helplessness and wished they could roll their eyes at Chu Yi. I already said that she had just finished the surgery and could not move around, but you still insisted on bringing her back to Continent F from China. Who can you blame?

They complained in their hearts, but for money, everyone still had a smile on their faces. "After sending her to the hospital, we'll start the treatment immediately."

"Mm, use the best medicine." Chu Yi waved his hand and gestured for everyone to carry Su Yao into the car.

After the medical car gradually left, Chu Yi looked at the middle-aged man in a long robe beside him. "Tell me, what's the exact situation?"

The middle-aged man handed a piece of paper with words copied from the coffin to Chu Yi. "We cracked some of the words.

It showed that more than a thousand years ago, this dynasty that was not recorded in history was once extremely prosperous until a black-robed man removed the ruler of the dynasty.

According to the records, this black-robed man had the ability to travel through time and space. He was said to be able to reverse the fate of life and death. The ruler of the dynasty believed him. He did not know his goal, but he gave most of the power of the dynasty to the black-robed man.

In the ten years of Emperor Xia's reign, the dynasty had built many altars, as if something big was about to happen.

There are no records until the day before this major event happened. Presumably, that major event affected the fate of the entire dynasty."

After hearing the middle-aged man's inexplicable explanation, Chu Yi frowned. "What do you think this pile is for?? What does it have to do with the man in the coffin?"

"Let me finish." Only then did the middle-aged man take out another piece of paper from his sleeve calmly. "We also found another one.

"According to the written records, the Emperor Xia Yuan once built a huge cemetery in the north, and there's something in that cemetery that can revive a thousand-year-old corpse."

The more Chu Yi listened, the more he frowned. Although he had always felt that the middle-aged man was a charlatan, at least sometimes he relied on his skills. Now that he heard him say this, he really felt that this middle-aged man had no skills at all.

“A thousand-year-old corpse revived??” Chu Yi looked at the middle-aged man in disbelief. “You’re saying that the man in the coffin can still come back to life??”

The middle-aged man nodded solemnly. “According to the documents, that’s the case, but I don’t know if he can be resurrected.”

“Ridiculous.” Chu Yi felt that it was ridiculous no matter how he thought about it. “What can we do if we revive him??”

“Have you forgotten the family’s prophecy?” The middle-aged man lowered his voice. “If the thousand-year-old corpse can be revived, it means that the prophecy can really come true. You can have the ability to change time and space and obtain endless treasures. At that time, how can Continent F be your limit??”

Hearing the middle-aged man’s words, Chu Yi’s eyes gradually burned with flames. He pondered for a moment. “Then go and find that mysterious cemetery immediately.”

“Yes.”

Chapter 1347: Waking Up

Although the documents recorded that Emperor Xia Yuan had once built a huge mausoleum, there was no other specific information. Where the mausoleum was located and for whom it was built was a mystery.

The Chu family privately contacted tomb raiders from all over the world. After gathering a large group of people, they headed towards China.

Lin Jing had been sending people to pay attention to the Chu family’s movements. Now that the Chu family had taken action, Lin Jing reported the situation to Jun Shiling.

“Continue to watch. Don’t alert the enemy. Just follow behind them.”

“Okay.”

After instructing Lin Jing, Jun Shiling entered the ward. Xia Wanyuan had rested for a while and had already woken up.

“Does your stomach hurt?” Jun Shiling walked over and gently helped Xia Wanyuan up.

Xia Wanyuan shook her head. “It only hurts a little. When can I be discharged?”

“It’s not even time yet and you’re already thinking of being discharged.” Jun Shiling looked at Xia Wanyuan unhappily. “You’re not allowed to go out until you recover.”

Looking at Jun Shiling’s cold expression, Xia Wanyuan smiled. “CEO Jun, why do I feel that you’re getting more and more domineering?”

Jun Shiling glanced at her. "Why? Is there a problem?"

"No, no." Xia Wanyuan reached out to touch her stomach. As long as she did not press hard, there would be no obvious pain. She looked up at Jun Shiling. "I want to visit Xuan Sheng."

Jun Shiling was silent for a moment. He called the nurse in and carried the entire bed up to the third floor.

After entering Xuan Sheng's ward, she could still smell a strong medicinal smell.

Xuan Sheng's injuries were much worse than Xia Wanyuan's. His entire body was injured from the explosion. In order to preserve the integrity of his skin to the greatest extent, Shen Xiu would come and change Xuan Sheng's medicine every day.

Jun Shiling helped Xia Wanyuan sit up on the bed and gestured for the others to leave.

"I'll go out too." Jun Shiling looked at Xia Wanyuan. "Call me if you need anything."

Xia Wanyuan pulled Jun Shiling back. "No need. There's nothing to hide from you."

Jun Shiling patted Xia Wanyuan's hand. "I know you have nothing to hide from me, but I don't want to hear what you want to tell him."

With that, Jun Shiling walked out of the room and closed the door.

In the ward, looking at Xuan Sheng, who was wrapped up like a mummy, Xia Wanyuan sighed softly. "I hope you can get better." Other than that, Xia Wanyuan did not say anything else.

However, after Xia Wanyuan finished speaking, Xuan Sheng's ECG monitor clearly changed. The originally flat lines suddenly became steep.

His eyelashes fluttered gently, as if he wanted to open his eyes with great effort, but he could not open them after trying for a long time.

When Shen Xiu received the change in the monitor, he immediately rushed over with his men.

The medical team treated him at the side. Not long after, Xuan Sheng's fingers curled up gently, and his eyelashes trembled louder and louder. In the end, he half-opened his eyes.

There were many voices and all sorts of figures around. However, Xuan Sheng seemed to have sensed something and turned his head slightly to look at the window.

Over there sat Xia Wanyuan.

Seeing Xia Wanyuan's cool eyes, Xuan Sheng blinked slightly.

He was weak now. Turning his head had almost exhausted his strength. Xuan Sheng closed his eyes.

"The patient fainted again!" The doctor was about to continue treating her when Shen Xiu stopped him.

Shen Xiu lowered his head to take a closer look. "He's resting. His condition is normal."

Chapter 1348 New Kingdom

After the doctor examined Xuan Sheng, he pushed Xia Wanyuan out of the ward.

“He’s awake?” Jun Shiling looked at Shen Xiu.

Shen Xiu subconsciously glanced at Xia Wanyuan and nodded. “Yes, CEO Xuan is awake.”

Everyone present knew why he had woken up.

Shen Xiu had seen Jun Shiling’s deep love for Xia Wanyuan all the way, and now, he had seen another man’s deep love. He sighed in his heart.

Love was difficult to understand.

Jun Shiling did not say anything and only asked the doctors to do their best to take care of Xuan Sheng before returning to the ward downstairs with Xia Wanyuan.

At the door of the ward, Xia Yu was waiting for Xia Wanyuan. “Sister, Brother-in-law.”

“Come in and talk.” Jun Shiling pushed Xia Wanyuan into the ward. Xia Yu followed, his face filled with hesitation.

Before Xia Yu could speak, Xia Wanyuan already knew what he was going to say. “You’re leaving China?”

Xia Yu looked up in surprise. “Sister, how did you know??”

Xia Wanyuan waved at Xia Yu, who walked over and sat by the bed.

Xia Wanyuan patted Xia Yu’s arm. “Go, but you have to think carefully. Don’t hesitate and end up hurting both parties.”

Xia Yu nodded. “Mm, Sister, take care of yourself.”

“I will.”

After bidding farewell to Xia Wanyuan, Xia Yu carried his luggage out of the hospital, only to bump into a person in a wheelchair at the door.

Xia Yu was so focused on the navigation on his phone that he did not notice the person in front of him. Instead, Lin Qingdai stopped him.

Xia Yu looked up and stopped when he saw Lin Qingdai. His gaze swept across Lin Qingdai’s lap. “Mr. Lin.”

Lin Qingdai smiled. “Hello, are you going out?”

“Mm.” Xia Yu nodded.

“Goodbye.” The corners of Lin Qingdai’s lips curled up slightly as he smiled politely at Xia Yu.

Xia Yu walked forward with his luggage. After taking three steps, he suddenly turned around. Lin Qingdai stopped on the spot, as if he had expected Xia Yu to turn around.

“I hope...”

Before Xia Yu could finish speaking, Lin Qingdai interrupted him. "Mr. Xia, I advise you to cherish the person in front of you. As for my wife, I will definitely take good care of her."

With that, Lin Qingdai turned around and left with the wheelchair.

Watching Lin Qingdai leave, Xia Yu's eyes were dark. He stood on the spot for a while before leaving and heading towards the airport.

At this moment, in Continent F, Lin Yi had returned to the desert and mixed in with a group of tomb raiders.

She had just arrived in Continent F when she met this group of people who were familiar with the local area.

Lin Yi knew a little medical skills and had medicine on her. A woman who was unarmed was not a threat. In exchange for medicine, she walked with this group of tomb raiders.

With this group of people leading the way, Lin Yi was unimpeded in the desert.

Lin Yi originally wanted to follow this team to the hinterland of Continent F to gather news, but halfway there, this group of tomb raiders suddenly went back on their word.

"We can't bring you to F City anymore. We've received a new mission and need to go to China."

"China?" Lin Yi was a little puzzled.

"Yes." The leader wanted to say something to Lin Yi, but a subordinate walked over and whispered a few words to him. The leader sized up Lin Yi for a long time. "Why don't you follow us to China? We're willing to pay you."

Lin Yi subconsciously rejected. "I'm not going to China."

"Alright then." The leader shook his head regretfully. Lin Yi knew medicine and was bold. After interacting with her for a while, she was also a trustworthy person. If only she could follow us to China.

Since she could not travel with them anymore, Lin Yi packed her things and was about to leave. However, she happened to look up and was suddenly stunned when she saw the blueprint in the leader's hand.

She walked over. "Can you show me this?"

The leader handed her the blueprint. "Do you know where this place is??"

"You're going here??"

"Right."

"I'll go back to China with you." Lin Yi suddenly changed his mind because the location displayed on the blueprint was where the Lin family's ancient tombs were.

After many days of interrogation, Jiang Kui was finally convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment.

“Didn’t you say that you would save him?!” Father Jiang looked at Jiang Yun angrily. “Is this how you save him?!”

“Father.” Jiang Yun looked straight at Father Jiang. “What I promised you was to keep Jiang Kui’s life. He has done so many outrageous things. It’s already unfair to others to be able to keep his life.”

“You!” Father Jiang pointed at Jiang Yun, his hand trembling. “Your wings have indeed hardened.”

The corners of Jiang Yun’s lips curled up slightly. “Indeed, since Father also feels that my wings have hardened, can you hand over the power of the Jiang family?”

“Don’t even think about it!!” Father Jiang slammed the table in front of him. “No wonder you refused to save Jiang Kui at all. So you have designs on the Jiang family corporation.”

Jiang Yun crossed her arms in front of her chest and said with a strong aura, “Father, it’s no longer a matter of whether you’re willing or not. The Jiang Corporation is facing bankruptcy. Do you think the board of directors will choose you, who will lead them to failure, or me?”

Seeing Jiang Yun’s confident expression, Father Jiang’s blood surged and his entire face flushed red. “How dare you!”

“Father, are you going to be fired in front of the board of directors, or are you going to take the initiative to save yourself some face? It’s your choice. I hope you can give me an answer as soon as possible.”

Father Jiang held his chest and panted heavily as he fell onto the sofa.

Two hours later, the Jiang Group released news that the power of the Jiang family had been handed over to Jiang Yun.

[What’s going on??? Didn’t the Jiang family go bankrupt? Is there a need to transfer power now?]

[Tsk, tsk, tsk. The Jiang family is really capable. When their family assets were intact, they passed the position to their son. Now that they’re bankrupt, they think of their daughter.]

[Jiang Yun is so pitiful... Father Jiang has transferred all his debts to Jiang Yun. What’s the use of taking over the Jiang family now?]

However, to everyone’s surprise,

On the day Jiang Yun took over the Jiang Group, the three major financial groups in Continent M announced at the same time that they would invest in the Jiang Group. The Jiang family’s overseas business quickly recovered and continuously sent energy to the domestic business.

In the corporation, Jiang Yun’s drastic reforms had removed a large number of employees. At the same time, she had promoted a new group of people. Jiang Yun had her subordinates remove all the busy businesses in the corporation and increase the efficiency of the corporation’s industries on a large scale.

It was only at this moment that everyone realized that Jiang Yun had long prepared for this day. She had been overseas for more than ten years. After returning to China, she had not stayed in the corporation for nothing for the past six months.

In the fallen Jiang family, a new Jiang family stood up under Jiang Yun’s lead.

Chapter 1349 Going Home

In the prison, Jiang Kui was still waiting for Father Jiang to save him. Outside the prison, Father Jiang sat on the floor and sighed deeply as he watched the high-spirited Jiang Yun on the news interview.

Over the years, the person he had put in the most effort was Jiang Kui. He had also placed all his hopes on Jiang Kui. He felt that only Jiang Kui, a man with the Jiang family's bloodline, could lead the Jiang family to greater heights.

However, now, he suddenly felt that it was ridiculous. Everything he had insisted on had collapsed.

Jiang Yun used her ability to prove herself again and again that the daughter of the Jiang family could also bring the entire family to prosperity.

At this moment, the assistant walked in. "Old Master, Chairman Wang of Continent M is willing to let their corporation's legal team come and help Young Master. We're also doing our best to communicate with the officials. As long as we can make up for the losses, they said that they can try to reduce Young Master's sentence."

The assistant spoke for a long time, but Father Jiang did not respond. The assistant could not help but call out, "Old Master??"

Father Jiang shook his head. "Forget it, let's leave it at that. Yun'er is right. This is the price he deserves."

The assistant was shocked. From the looks of it, Father Jiang was not going to care about Jiang Kui anymore??

Father Jiang looked at Jiang Yun, who was dressed in a suit and leather shoes in the newspaper.

Jiang Yun had already said so much. If he still tried his best to save Jiang Kui now, he would definitely hurt Jiang Yun's heart.

Now, the entire Jiang family had to rely on Jiang Yun to come back. He could not hurt the heart of the current head of the Jiang family for a son in prison.

In the ward of Beijing Hospital, Xia Wanyuan was not surprised at all to hear that Jiang Yun controlled the Jiang family.

"Even without this incident, Jiang Yun will still control the Jiang family later on." After all, with Jiang Yun's intelligence, no one in the Jiang family was her match.

"You've interacted with her?" Jun Shiling fed Xia Wanyuan a mouthful of medicine.

] "Mm." Xia Wanyuan did not hide it from Jun Shiling. "She gave me some evidence of Jiang Kui."

"It's just a temporary alliance," Jun Shiling commented directly.

"You're right." Xia Wanyuan's eyes flickered.

When the opponents they faced were all Jiang Kui, the two of them could become allies.

When Jiang Kui disappeared, the Jiang family led by Jiang Yun would go wherever the next benefit was.

“Can I go home and lie down to rest??” Xia Wanyuan looked at Jun Shiling longingly. “I’ll be depressed if I stay in the hospital every day.”

Jun Shiling looked at Xia Wanyuan angrily. “You’re depressed?? Where?”

Xia Wanyuan smiled and shook Jun Shiling’s sleeve. “CEO Jun, can I? I can recuperate when I get home.”

“Mm.” Jun Shiling finally agreed.

Although Xia Wanyuan’s wound had recovered quite well, she could not do big movements.

The group carefully sent Xia Wanyuan to the manor and connected all sorts of medical equipment in the bedroom.

Finally, she could see flowers and green leaves at a glance. Xia Wanyuan’s mood improved a lot.

Seeing that Xia Wanyuan was in a good mood, Jun Shiling’s eyes were smiling.

At that moment, Lin Jing suddenly walked in and whispered a few words into Jun Shiling’s ear. Jun Shiling looked at Xia Wanyuan as usual. “I have something on. I’ll come in and accompany you later.”

“Okay.” Xia Wanyuan nodded.

Jun Shiling brought Lin Jing out of the room. “Tell me in detail. Who is in trouble?”

“An Lin.”

Chapter 1350 Price

Jun Shiling did not look surprised, but his eyes clearly darkened. “Continue.”

“The news from the Cape family is currently very tight. The news we can obtain so far is that An Luo has officially accepted the Cape family from An Lin. We don’t know where An Lin is.”

“When the time is right, help An Luo,” Jun Shiling thought for a moment and finally said.

An Lin had been paving the way for An Luo for the past two years, but the Cape family had dominated Continent O for so long. Once it changed, it would become the focus of the other families.

An Luo was still young. Jun Shiling had once promised An Lin that he would help An Luo at the right time.

“Okay.”

At this moment, in Continent O’s ancient castle, the documents in front of An Luo were scattered all over the ground.

“Get lost!” The assistant carefully stepped forward and An Luo pushed everything to the ground. “If you don’t tell me where my brother is, I’ll never take over the family.”

“Little Young Master.” The butler stepped forward to comfort An Luo. “Didn’t the family head leave you a letter? He has something to do. The family’s power is temporarily in your hands. Be good, the family head will be back soon.”

An Luo's blue eyes were filled with anger. "Do you take me for a fool? You're not telling me where my brother is, right? I'll shoot myself to death now."

With that, An Luo took out a small pistol from somewhere and pointed it at his head. "Where's my brother?!"

"Little Young Master, don't be rash." The others were frightened. The butler hurriedly winked at the person beside him. Then, he carefully approached An Luo. "Little Young Master, be careful not to fire accidentally."

An Luo pointed at the sky and fired, then aimed at himself. "You all know where my brother is, right? You're not going to tell me, right? Then I'll die for you to see."

With that, An Luo pulled the trigger.

"Little Young Master!! Let's go and look for the family head!!" The butler finally panicked. "We'll go and look for him immediately. Please wait for a while."

Five minutes later, the butler brought An Luo into the castle.

An Luo had never known that there was such a deep path in this castle.

After walking for some time, the butler stopped in front of a small house with An Luo. "Young Master, the head of the family is here, but you can't go in."

An Luo would not listen to the butler. He raised his foot and barged in. However, just as he took a step, An Lin's weak voice came from the window.

"An Luo, don't come over."

"Brother." Hearing An Lin's voice, An Luo stopped on the spot and his eyes turned red. "Why don't you care about me?"

"Nonsense." An Lin spoke very slowly, as if it was extremely strenuous. "Do you listen to me?"

"Yes."

"Go back and take over the Cape family. Lead the Cape family forward to a better future. Do you agree?"

"What about you? Brother, what's wrong?" An Luo's eyes were filled with concern. He could not help but want to walk forward.

"Take a step in and I'll never see you again."

An Luo stopped.

"I'll ask you again. Do you listen to me? You know that the Cape family is my hard work. Only when it's strong can you be safe. Do you understand?" An Lin reasoned with An Luo word by word. However, he was too weak and could only slowly spit out words. Just two short sentences had cost him a lot of time.

In the courtyard, An Luo stood quietly for a long time before finally nodding. "As long as I do well, will you allow me to see you?"

“Mm.”

“Okay.”

In the house, An Lin finally heaved a sigh of relief when he heard An Luo agreeing. He waved at the doctor beside him, who hurriedly put an oxygen mask on him.

In the courtyard, seeing that An Luo had been standing rooted to the ground, the butler went forward to take him away.

However, after taking a few steps, the butler saw tears at An Luo’s feet. An Luo’s face was filled with suppressed pain and sorrow.

An Luo was a very smart person. The butler knew that An Luo must have guessed something.

Sigh, the butler sighed. Everyone in the world was envious of the high wall courtyard. Who knew the price behind it?

In China, time passed day by day. The Jiang family gradually recovered under Jiang Yun’s management.

Xia Wanyuan lay on the bed nurturing her baby as she recuperated.

By the time her stomach was more obvious, her injuries were almost healed.
