

Modern Day 1401

Chapter 1401 Success

The hospital was filled with Chu Yi's spies. Su Yao did not dare to stay any longer. She secretly took a few glances and followed Chu Yi back to the Chu family's mansion.

The moment Chu Yi returned home, he gathered people and issued countless bounties. The entire Chu family's mansion was overturned.

Su Yao secretly found the butler. "Butler, what happened??"

The butler looked at Su Yao and sighed. "Yaoyao, I sent you to Young Master's side so that you could hold his heart. From the looks of it, you're useless."

With that, the butler shook his head and left.

Su Yao was stunned on the spot and looked at Chu Yi in the living room from afar.

For some reason, Chu Yi's back made her feel a little bleak.

The moment this thought appeared in her heart, she immediately hit it back.

While everyone was busy, Su Yao glanced at Chu Yi's study and quietly crept along the surveillance blind spot.

In China, not only was Xia Wanyuan's popular science video widely welcomed internationally, but it was also widely circulated in the country.

The domestic netizens had basically learned all sorts of immortal and demon systems from television dramas and movies since they were young. Most people did not know about serious theories.

Hence, Xia Wanyuan's video circulated on Weibo.

[Today is also the day to love Yuan Yuan. Today is also the day to kneel and worship the goddess. Such a complicated immortal system. Good lord, she explained it to me so in-depth. This is the difference between the big shot and me.]

[Thank you, big shot!!! I'm studying this course this semester. I originally felt that the course was quite boring, but now, I've completely fallen for it.]

[The more I read the popular science, the higher my expectations for "Under the Sky" become. Many scenes in the popular science video are said to be from the television drama. I reasonably suspect that Xia Wanyuan made this video to whet our appetite.]

Just as the netizens had said, Xia Wanyuan's video not only helped everyone explain all sorts of cultural knowledge, but it also used the images inside to arouse everyone's anticipation for the television drama.

When the fifth episode of the television drama was broadcasted domestically, foreign television stations began to broadcast the third episode.

Although the progress was different, the popularity was the same.

Be it domestically or abroad, at eight in Beijing time, the television drama “Under the Sky” took a rocket to the top of the world.

The standards of the television drama did not disappoint the audience. It was not like what they had imagined, where all the funds were spent on the first episode to save face.

Every episode was meticulously produced, and every frame could be said to have a large texture.

In addition, the casting of the actors was quite compatible. Xia Wanyuan had made a good balance between beauty and the adaptability of the role.

The reason why “Ice” was called an epic blockbuster was because it focused on the plot and story, on the fit of the characters, and not on pursuing the beauty of the scene.

Director Xia Wanyuan’s television drama made a good compromise.

The three male leads were quite handsome, and the supporting roles were extremely beautiful.

However, because of the smooth plot, photography skills, and the harmony of the use of light and shadow, the scene of so many handsome men and beautiful women together did not seem cheap and heavy. On the contrary, it brought another kind of beauty.

Without a doubt, Xia Wanyuan’s television drama had been a huge success.

After the sixth episode in the country ended and the fourth episode overseas ended, there were already organizations predicting that “Under the Sky” would surpass “Ice”.

From the current data, “Under the Sky” and “Ice” were already comparable.

However, in the eyes of professionals, “Ice” had already reached a saturated state, but the popularity of “Under the Sky” was constantly rising. It was only a matter of time before it surpassed “Ice” in the future.

Although foreign netizens liked to watch “Under the Sky”, it did not mean that they wanted the crystallization of their culture to be below others.

Or rather, they did not want the television drama that represented their culture to lose to the Chinese television drama that represented Eastern culture.

[Don’t give me that. “Ice” has become popular worldwide and won countless awards... “Under the Sky” is too arrogant.]

[Our “Ice” has been popular for five years... It’s already not bad that “Under the Sky” can maintain its level and not collapse until the finale.]

[Can you not defame one and praise the other?? No matter how many new works appear, “Ice” will always be an unexplained god.]

The main team of “Ice” came from America. As the most popular television drama in the world in the past few years, behind it stood countless American capital.

Among them was the Blue family.

“Mother, the film company of ‘Ice’ hopes that we can increase our investment and help them win this year’s Best Film Award.”

Chapter 1402 Saving Emperor Xia Yuan

In the main residence of the Blue family, Lin Man was sitting by the window and reading the document in her hand. Li Na stood beside Lin Man and chatted with her as she read the document.

“Didn’t they tell us confidently before the screening that they didn’t need any help? In the end, they still couldn’t compare to Xia Wanyuan?” After all, she was the real head of the Blue family. The current Lin Man’s words had a hint of dignity.

“That Xia Wanyuan still has some ability.” At the mention of Xia Wanyuan, Li Na gritted her teeth in hatred. However, she had to admit that Xia Wanyuan was not weak and was very difficult to deal with.

“If the production team needs funds, just give it to them.”

“Mm.” Li Na sat beside Lin Man. “Mother, is Chu Yi really so kind? He’s willing to help us in everything. He doesn’t seem to have asked us to do anything for him until now.”

Capital was traded with benefits, but Chu Yi had yet to reveal what he wanted from the Blue family. This made Li Na feel a little uneasy.

“Who cares?” Lin Man did not have much ambition. To her, being able to become the head of the Blue family and enjoy endless wealth was already all her vision. “What he wants is at most the business line of the Blue family. It’s not impossible to give him some. Anyway, the Blue family’s business is so big.”

Lin Man gradually dispelled the uneasiness in Li Na’s heart. “Mother, you’re right.”

At this moment, in Continent F, Chu Yi was checking on Xia Wei’s condition in the ward. “Can he be saved?”

The doctor shook his head. “This person’s body is very strange. All the data clearly show that he’s very healthy, but he can’t wake up.”

Hearing the doctor’s words, Chu Yi’s heart skipped a beat. Could it be that as the black-robed man had said, the loss of Emperor Xia Yuan’s soul was the reason why he could not wake up for a long time?

“Alright, I understand.” Chu Yi glanced at Xia Wei on the bed and strode out. “Take good care of him. Don’t let anything happen.”

“Yes.” Chu Yi walked quickly and did not notice that after he left, a dark glint flashed across the doctor’s eyes.

“I’m going in for a routine checkup. The nurse went to get the medicine and will be back later.” The doctor looked at the bodyguard and handed the identification certificate in front of him to him.

Everyone had seen the doctor talking to Chu Yi just now. Now, they let down their guard and placed the doctor in the ward after checking his identification.

At this moment, outside the hospital, Chu Yi was about to get into the car when his expression suddenly changed and he quickly retreated. “Go to the ward!! There’s something wrong with the doctor!!”

Everyone immediately moved. The bodyguard hurriedly barged into the ward when he received the news. However, the room where Xia Wei had been lying just now was completely empty.

Chu Yi walked in and touched the temperature on the bed. "He hasn't gone far. Even if you have to dig three feet into the ground, you have to find him for me!!"

"Yes." The bodyguards immediately dispersed to look for him. Looking at the empty bed, a dark glint flashed across Chu Yi's eyes. He called the black-robed man.

The black-robed man picked up the phone after a long time. "Hello?"

"Did you take Emperor Xia Yuan away?"

The black-robed man was reading the ancient book in front of him. When he heard Chu Yi's words, he instantly stood up. "What do you mean? Emperor Xia Yuan is gone?! Where did he go?"

Chu Yi snorted coldly and hung up. He strode out and continued searching.

At this moment, in the basement of the hospital, Qiao Xu took off his mask and panted. Then, he contacted Su Yao. "Ancestor, I was almost killed by your ex-husband."

Chapter 1403 Untitled

Su Yao hid in the bedroom. "Then where are you now?"

"I'm still in the hospital basement. Where else can I go?" Qiao Xu glanced at Xia Wei beside him. "Hey, to be honest, who is this gigolo?? Could he be your ex-lover?"

"Stop talking nonsense." Su Yao did not know who this man was, but she knew that this person had been transported out of Chu Yi's secret passage. It was extremely important to Chu Yi. "Help him settle down. It'll be even better if he can be sent back to China."

"My ancestor, spare me." Qiao Xu looked up at the sky speechlessly. "Do you know what kind of existence Chu Yi is in Continent F?? He can cover the sky with one hand, understand?? I'm already risking my life by helping you steal him out. Now, all the flights are probably blocked. Do you want me to die?"

"Then what should we do?" Su Yao knew that this man had a certain relationship with Xia Wanyuan, and Chu Yi valued this man very much. She definitely could not let this man fall into Chu Yi's hands again.

"How about this? The most dangerous place is the safest place." Qiao Xu's eyes darted around and he immediately had an idea. "I'll disguise this gigolo and leave him in this hospital. This place is also close to the Chu family. Even if they search, they won't investigate this place seriously."

"What about you?"

"Of course I'll stay here, Ancestor. You're still here. I'm worried. That Chu Yi is like a lunatic. If he does anything to you, I can take care of him here."

"Then be careful. I'm hanging up." Footsteps were already coming from outside. Su Yao reminded Qiao Xu one last time and hung up.

When Chu Yi pushed open the door, Su Yao was lifting the blanket and getting out of bed. Seeing Chu Yi, Su Yao's eyes were filled with a surprised smile. "Young Master, I thought you wouldn't visit me again."

Chu Yi walked in and grabbed Su Yao's neck. "Let me ask you, did you enter my study yesterday?"

Su Yao almost could not breathe from Chu Yi's grip. She struggled a few times. "Young Master... I..."

Chu Yi tightened his grip. "Looks like I've been too arrogant and spoiled you usually."

Su Yao was almost suffocating. She kept hitting Chu Yi's hand. Just as she thought that she was about to die, Chu Yi finally let go of her.

"Tell me, what did you see in my study? What do you want?"

Su Yao's eyes were red. She coughed a few times and leaned towards Chu Yi's feet, hugging his calf. "Young Master, I'll talk, I'll talk. I just want to confirm if that Feng Wuyou was burned to death. I-I hope Young Master has already let her go."

The moment Su Yao hugged his calf, a hint of disgust flashed across Chu Yi's eyes. This was what he felt that Su Yao was the least like Feng Wuyou.

Feng Wuyou would always stand proudly on the branch. She would not wag her tail and beg for mercy like Su Yao.

Hearing Su Yao's words, the gloominess in Chu Yi's eyes deepened. "You didn't do anything else?"

Su Yao widened her eyes slightly. "Young Master, what are you talking about?? There are a large number of people guarding your study not far away. Even if I really want to do something, I don't dare."

Chu Yi knew that Su Yao was telling the truth. He narrowed his eyes at Su Yao for a while before suddenly standing up and looking down at her.

"Do you know why I let you stay back then?"

Su Yao shook her head. "I don't know."

"Because you're a substitute." Chu Yi looked at Su Yao coldly. "You're Feng Wuyou's substitute, so you have to do your duty as a substitute. If you dare to enter the study without my permission again, even if you have a pair of eyes like hers, I'll dig them out and throw you out to burn you, understand?"

Su Yao's pupils dilated, as if she had fallen into great shock and fear. After a while, she came back to her senses and nodded repeatedly. "I understand."

Only then did Chu Yi leave.

In the room, Su Yao's eyes revealed mockery as she watched Chu Yi leave.

Substitute? How much did he hate me? He even wanted to find a substitute to humiliate me. It's not enough that I'm dead, but he still wanted a substitute to repay the hatred in his heart.

The commotion of Chu Yi looking for Emperor Xia Yuan was too great. Not only did he get someone to seal all the borders, but he also got someone to conduct a comprehensive investigation of the people sailing on the sea.

Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan, who were far away in China, knew that Chu Yi was looking for an important person.

“Could it be that Feng Wuyou was discovered by him?” Xia Wanyuan looked at Jun Shiling worriedly.

“Impossible.” Jun Shiling shook his head. “According to the news from the spy, Su Yao is still in the Chu family’s mansion and hasn’t left.”

“Then?” Xia Wanyuan’s heart suddenly skipped a beat. “Could it be?”

Halfway through her sentence, Xia Wanyuan swallowed her words. She shook her head. It shouldn’t be possible.

The ancient tomb on Longqi Mountain lacked Xia Wei’s coffin. Later on, after many investigations, the results showed that when the Chu family left China back then, they had once gotten someone to transport a very large thing away. Later on, all sorts of signs showed that Emperor Xia Yuan’s coffin was in the Chu family’s hands.

Xia Wanyuan originally wanted to say that Chu Yi was so ostentatious. Could he be looking for something related to Emperor Xia Yuan? After thinking about it, she felt that it was impossible.

“Xia Yu is already helping investigate. There’ll be news soon.” Jun Shiling comforted Xia Wanyuan.

“Don’t be so worried. We’re going to a charity banquet later. I’ll accompany you to pack your things first.”

“Okay.”

China held all sorts of charity galas every year. In the beginning, these charity galas were used to raise funds for the needy people on a small scale.

Later on, the charity gala developed more like a gala that united the nobles and celebrities of all walks of life. More and more money was collected, and the scale of the gala became larger and larger.

A small portion of the works at this charity gala were provided by Xia Wanyuan. As a special guest, Xia Wanyuan participated.

Coincidentally, when Xia Wanyuan and Jun Shiling arrived at the entrance of the gala, they bumped into Su Yueran, who was accompanying Lin Qingyuan.

The current Su Yueran was even thinner than before. Her face was pale and she had lost her spirit when she looked at people.

Seeing Xia Wanyuan, Su Yueran nodded calmly.

“What a coincidence.” Lin Qingyuan reached out to Jun Shiling.

Jun Shiling held Lin Qingyuan’s hand back. The two of them faced each other for a moment before letting go at the same time.

After Lin Qingyuan and Su Yueran left first, Xia Wanyuan looked at Jun Shiling. “I haven’t seen Su Yueran in a long time. Her child?”

“She was born.” Jun Shiling hugged Xia Wanyuan and walked in. “However, just as she was born, she was sent back to Linxi overnight and placed by Lin Qingyuan’s side. Su Yueran has no right to interfere.”

Hearing Jun Shiling’s explanation, Xia Wanyuan sighed.

When the two of them entered the venue and sat down, the gala was about to begin.

Xia Wanyuan had originally come to take a look. Who would have thought that she would be shocked when the first auction item came out?

Chapter 1404 Two Hundred Million Deal

As the staff brought the auction item up, the host began to introduce it.

“Welcome to our gala today. The first auction item today is a jade cauldron donated by an anonymous collector. The approximate age is a thousand years ago. The exact dynasty is unknown, but everyone can take a look. The quality of this jade cauldron is quite good.”

The host was showing this jade cauldron to the guests in all directions. Xia Wanyuan’s grip on Jun Shiling’s arm had already tightened.

Jun Shiling’s eyes were also a little solemn. The jade cauldron displayed on the stage was clearly the same as the one dug out of Xia Wanyuan’s ancient tomb.

But didn’t Xia Wanyuan say that there was only one sacred artifact? Then where did this come from?? And it looked like...

No, Jun Shiling’s eyes flickered. He turned around. “This is different from yours.”

Xia Wanyuan also realized it. “Yes, it’s indeed different.”

The dragon holding the jade bead in Xia Wanyuan’s jade cauldron was in the middle of the cauldron, and the dragon holding the jade bead in this jade cauldron was on the left side of the cauldron.

“How strange.” Puzzlement flashed across Xia Wanyuan’s eyes. “Why is there another one?”

“Let’s bid for it first.”

“Okay.”

On stage, the host had already introduced all the details of this auction item.

“Okay, let’s start the bidding now. The starting price of this jade cauldron is 2 million. Is there anyone who wants to increase the price?”

As soon as the host finished speaking, someone added 50,000 yuan.

Although this jade cauldron was beautiful and made of good materials, because the dynasty was unknown and their status when they were alive was unknown, most people were not very interested in this.

After a long time, the price of this jade cauldron was only 2.5 million.

“Okay, 2.5 million. Anyone else? 2.5 million going once, 2.5 million.”

“Three million,” Jun Shiling suddenly said, causing a commotion.

“Okay, CEO Jun bid 3 million! Is there a higher bid?”

Lin Qingyuan looked at Jun Shiling and then at the jade cauldron on the stage. He gestured for Su Yueran to continue bidding. Su Yueran raised her card. “3.5 million.”

“Four million.” The person bidding was Xia Wanyuan.

“Okay, four mil.”

“Five million.” Before the host could finish speaking, Su Yueran raised the price again.

“Six million.”

In the following auction, there was no need for the host to exist at all. Su Yueran and Xia Wanyuan spoke one after another and finally increased the price to 50 million.

Looking at such a tense scene, the usually knowledgeable host began to wipe his sweat.

The other guests sitting below were even more shocked. Isn't this just an ordinary jade cauldron?? 50 million? Are these two families crazy?? Or does this jade cauldron have some hidden value that we don't know about??

“I'm buying a toy for Madam. Master Lin, are you interested in this too?” Jun Shiling looked at Lin Qingyuan.

The corners of Lin Qingyuan's lips curled up slightly. “It's not that I'm interested. The main thing is that CEO Jun has always had good taste. Since you like this jade cauldron so much, I think it should be very collectible. I want to buy it for my wife too.”

Jun Shiling's eyes narrowed slightly as he looked at Lin Qingyuan quietly. Lin Qingyuan was not to be outdone and looked back at Jun Shiling.

The two of them instantly released their auras, and the others sitting around them could not take it.

“Then continue.”

“Okay, continue.”

Xia Wanyuan and Su Yueran continued to raise the price.

Finally, when Xia Wanyuan shouted 200 million, Su Yueran's expression changed. She looked at Lin Qingyuan, who did not look too good.

He had asked Su Yueran to snatch this jade cauldron because he did not want Jun Shiling to get what he wanted.

However, he did not expect Xia Wanyuan to be so persistent in increasing the price. It had already reached 200 million. If he continued to increase it, with Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan's cunningness, it was inevitable that they would withdraw and suffer in silence.

Lin Qingyuan thought about it and looked at Jun Shiling.

Jun Shiling was saying something to Xia Wanyuan when he shook his head slightly.

Seeing Jun Shiling's actions, Lin Qingyuan frowned slightly. He was worried that he would be schemed against by Jun Shiling. He had long sent someone to investigate this jade cauldron. There was nothing special about it at all. It was not worth it to get such a useless thing back for anger.

Thinking of this, Lin Qingyuan shook his head at Su Yueran. Su Yueran put down the bidding sign.

Seeing that the dispute had finally ended, everyone heaved a sigh of relief. The host finally recovered.

He spoke extremely quickly, afraid that Lin Qingyuan would react and continue bidding.

"Congratulations to Xia Wanyuan for winning this jade cauldron for 200 million yuan!!!"

There was thunderous applause and complicated gazes landed on Xia Wanyuan. Everyone thought to themselves that rich people were really good. Using 200 million to buy a jade cauldron was like playing.

The following auction items were not attractive to Xia Wanyuan and Jun Shiling. The second half of the auction was the home ground of Xia Wanyuan's works. The price of each painting and calligraphy piece was auctioned higher and higher, receiving many people's support.

This auction was quite successful, especially since it had sold a jade cauldron for an astronomical price of 200 million yuan. Just as the auction ended, news about this auction occupied all the major social media.

[Good lord, 200 million. I don't even dare to dream of having so much money in my life. I actually only used it to buy a jade cauldron. I really want to know how rich Xia Wanyuan and Jun Shiling are.]

[The person in front, didn't you see the new global symbol rankings?? CEO Jun has already jumped to the top of the world and is now the true richest man in the world. Xia Wanyuan is even more amazing. She was still unknown on the rankings last year and has already broken into the top 100 this year. I feel that if this continues, Xia Wanyuan will soon be able to meet Jun Shiling at the peak of the rankings.]

[Isn't it good to donate more money to the disaster area... Rich people... Hehehe. They really know how to enjoy themselves.]

Regardless of the controversy online, after the auction ended, the auction house sent the jade cauldron to Xia Wanyuan intact.

After obtaining the jade cauldron, Xia Wanyuan took out another jade cauldron from the ancient tomb and compared it.

Xia Wanyuan looked at it for a long time and finally came to a conclusion. "There seems to be a pattern to the positions of these two dragons. According to this pattern, it's very likely that there are still seven jade cauldrons left."

Nine dragons holding pearls. In her previous life, this was a sign of auspiciousness.

"Then the increase in price today is a good thing." Jun Shiling walked over and glanced at the jade cauldron in Xia Wanyuan's hand.

"Mm, it's not a bad thing."

If there were really seven other people scattered among the people, then the sky-high price of the jade cauldron this time would definitely make the remaining people restless.

A million searches were not as effective as a single benefit temptation.

Just as Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan had thought, as the news of the astronomical price of the jade cauldron spread, some people had already rushed to China with the jade cauldron.

Chapter 1405 Photo

Just two days after the auction ended, Xia Wanyuan had received nearly two thousand similar jade cauldrons.

Although most of them were fakes and similar items, three of them were still originals.

Xia Wanyuan bought these jade cauldrons. There were already five jade cauldrons in her hand. When she placed them together, she could see five jade dragons circling, as if they were going to soar into the sky.

“There are still four more.” Xia Wanyuan reached out to touch the dragon on the jade cauldron.

“We’ve already released the news. As long as the jade cauldrons are still around, we’ll find them.”

“Mm.” Xia Wanyuan retracted her hand. “Is there any news from Chu Yi?”

From the news sent back by Xia Yu, it was almost certain that Emperor Xia Yuan’s coffin had been taken away by Chu Yi.

Thinking of Xia Wei’s corpse in a foreign country, Xia Wanyuan could not sleep the entire night. Once she fell asleep, she would have nightmares.

“I have something to tell you.” Jun Shiling looked at Xia Wanyuan. “Xia Wei’s coffin might have been stolen.”

“What do you mean?” Xia Wanyuan was very surprised. “How did you know?”

“During this period of time, Chu Yi has gotten someone to seal the route to Continent F and has been looking for someone. According to the data sent back by the informant, we obtained a photo.”

As Jun Shiling spoke, he handed a photo to Xia Wanyuan. Xia Wanyuan was stunned when she saw it.

However, she was stunned for a moment. In the next second, Xia Wanyuan felt a chill on her neck. “How did he know Xia Wei’s appearance?”

The person in this photo had red lips and white teeth. He was handsome and extraordinary. He did look like Xia Wei before.

However, it was already a thousand years later. Shouldn’t Xia Wei have turned into yellow soil?? Why did Xia Wei look like a sleeping living person in this photo?

Jun Shiling also found it very strange. “Is it someone who looks similar?”

“No.” Xia Wanyuan shook her head. “There’s a crescent-shaped small hole on the right side of Xia Wei’s forehead. It was left behind when he was very playful and knocked into the city wall. This person has it too.”

As Xia Wanyuan spoke, she pointed at the scar on Xia Wei’s forehead in the photo.

“If you can revive, maybe he can too.” Jun Shiling made a bold guess.

Xia Wanyuan was shocked. She was looking forward to it and a little afraid. “You’re saying that I might see my royal brother?”

Jun Shiling pulled Xia Wanyuan into his arms. “Let’s not think so much now, okay? If you can see each other, you’ll meet sooner or later.”

“Okay.” Xia Wanyuan nodded.

She had always thought that she had unintentionally barged into this other world, but everything now gave her a feeling.

Perhaps everything was not a coincidence. There were other things hidden behind her entering this world.

Since she could not find an answer to Emperor Xia Yuan’s matter for the time being, Xia Wanyuan did not dwell on it. She put her doubts aside and devoted herself to the publicity of the television drama.

With the popularity of the television drama, the current “Under the Sky” was no longer just an entertainment television drama.

It had already become a symbol, a sharp blade that broke through the cultural barrier of the East. The netizens hoped that “Under the Sky” could walk out of the country and let China’s television dramas become popular overseas to counterattack.

The officials hoped to establish China’s image in the world through this television drama.

Chapter 1406 The Princess’s Vision

Although the plot structure of the television drama “Under the Sky” was fantasy, the cultural background and various sets were all based on Chinese culture.

Every Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday, the television drama would not be broadcasted.

At first, the netizens felt that the broadcast was too slow and shouted at Xia Wanyuan to speed up the broadcast and play an episode every day. However, there was no response from Xia Wanyuan.

Everyone had no choice but to find fun themselves when the television drama was not broadcasted. As they searched, everyone realized that there were many details hidden in the television drama.

The marketing accounts seized this wave of popularity and caused waves of discussion.

“Amazing. According to the netizens, the large palace buildings in ‘Under the Sky’ and the small fan in the handmaiden’s hand all have deep historical connections.”

[I agree. We just had construction class today. The professor directly used the set in the television drama to teach. The seventy-year-old professor directly said that Xia Wanyuan was his idol. He said that Xia Wanyuan had condensed the essence of China's ancient buildings into the set. This must have taken a lot of effort.]

[Amazing!!! My grandmother and the rest are the successors of the intangible cultural heritage. Not only is she interested in the plot, but she's also especially concerned about the props behind the main character every time. She told me that those props are all professionally-made. Don't look at a small paper cut. They're all master-level works.]

[There's also the set of the entire television drama... She didn't casually make it. Instead, it fused with the scenes in many ancient paintings... If you casually pause, you can see many mysteries from it.]

As more and more people began to discuss, the topic of "Under the Sky" became more and more popular.

There was a trend of "we're here to cause trouble" on the Internet. Everyone rushed to look for all sorts of details in the television drama "Under the Sky".

Then, he realized that there were so many details that he could not count them.

The netizens were happy to play this as a game. However, unknowingly, those traditional cultures that no one usually cared about were remembered by everyone bit by bit.

At the same time, it also became popular with a large number of cultural products. As long as it appeared in television dramas, it attracted everyone's fanatical pursuit.

At this moment, in the Xiafeng Group, looking at the exponential increase in profits, Shen Qian could not help but shake his head. "CEO Xia is really too amazing."

Back then, when Xia Wanyuan took over the Xiafeng Group from Xia Yuanqing, she had many choices in front of her about how to transform.

Finance, real estate, and the Internet were all extremely popular industries with extremely high profits and high returns. Even Shen Qian had advised Xia Wanyuan to choose the Internet industry.

However, Xia Wanyuan chose the cultural industry. In the past two years, she had gotten Shen Qian to build the infrastructure at all costs.

Shen Qian brought people to compile cultural heritage books from all over the country and established a cooperation with all the major cultural bases.

Among them were many rather unpopular categories that no one usually cared about.

If Shen Qian was still suspicious of this industry, the huge market had already told him that Xia Wanyuan's decision back then was right.

China's culture was far-reaching and huge. With such a treasure trove, he could almost foresee that in the future, this project would become the support core of the entire corporation.

Chapter 1407 Southwest

Shen Qian sorted out all the data and sent it to Xia Wanyuan.

“CEO Xia, this television drama is very successful. Not only did it drive up the industries we cooperated with, but it also brought the entire Moon Bay project to fame.”

Xia Wanyuan was not surprised by this outcome at all. She flipped through the documents. “You’ve worked hard. Continue to work hard.”

“It’s not hard at all.” Shen Qian shook his head repeatedly. Although the work intensity during this period of time was very high, when Xia Wanyuan recruited him into the company back then, she had given him shares. The more money he earned for the company, the more he could get, so he was full of energy.

Xia Wanyuan was very relieved with Shen Qian. She gave Shen Qian some instructions and hung up.

At that moment, a new email entered her email. Xia Wanyuan opened it and saw that it was from Ryan.

From the details of the photo, this jade cauldron was very similar to the five Xia Wanyuan had collected.

Xia Wanyuan contacted Ryan directly. “Where did you get that jade cauldron?”

“This is the Blue family’s collection. I saw it in Mr. Blue’s private office. At that time, I thought it looked good, so I took a photo. Didn’t I see you buy one at a high price some time ago? Only then did I remember.”

“Collection?” Xia Wanyuan suspected that this was very likely the sixth. “Then can you sell it to me? Where is this collection now?”

Speaking of this, Ryan’s tone was a little hesitant. “Wasn’t it in Mr. Blue’s private office previously? Now... Coincidentally, that office became Lin Man’s.”

“...” Xia Wanyuan knew Lin Man and Li Na’s hostility towards her, but no matter what, she had to get that jade cauldron. “Okay, I understand. Thank you.”

“You’re welcome. Let’s talk later.”

After hanging up, Xia Wanyuan frowned slightly. It was fine if it was in someone else’s hands, but now that the thing was with Lin Man and Li Na, it was probably impossible to buy it with money. She had to think of other ways.

The news of Xia Wanyuan spending 200 million yuan to buy the jade cauldron had shocked the world and been on many media websites.

Lin Man and Li Na had naturally heard of it. Looking at the ordinary-looking jade cauldron in front of her, Lin Man was a little puzzled. “Is there a need for her to spend so much money to buy this jade cauldron?”

Li Na stroked the dragon on the jade cauldron. “I heard that she even accepted a batch similar to this. I wonder what trick she’s pulling up her sleeves.”

“Ignore her. Anyway, we definitely won’t let her get the one in our hands.”

“Mm.”

In the southwest of China, the originally desolate village was now filled with dark green green sheds.

Unlike the greenhouses elsewhere that contained vegetables and fruits, the greenhouses here were filled with patients.

“Sir, our medical resources are no longer enough. There are more and more patients now.” The subordinate reported the news to Bo Xiao anxiously.

Bo Xiao was much thinner than when he first arrived. He looked at the greenhouse in front of him, his eyes dark. “Didn’t I ask you to borrow someone from the hospital in the southwest? Take my warrant and borrow them.”

“Sir, I’ve already given it to him, but he won’t lend them to me.”

Since ancient times, there had been factions everywhere. Although Bo Xiao had a high rank, it was still difficult to move here without the support of the local people.

Coincidentally, the local manager was Lin Qingyuan’s trusted aide.

Chapter 1408 Medicine

It was common knowledge that Bo Xiao and Jun Shiling were close.

Ever since he first came here, he had been treated unfairly by the local managers.

Bo Xiao did not value those superficial skills, so he did not argue. However, it was different now.

Because there was a group of escaped criminals at the southwest border. They were extremely cunning and ferocious. During this period of time, in order to deal with them, Bo Xiao’s subordinates had suffered heavy casualties.

Most importantly, at this critical moment, the neighboring countries at the border kept doing all sorts of small actions. From time to time, they would get people to provoke them.

Under such circumstances, the local leader was still unwilling to open the green passageway. Everyone was secretly angry.

“Major General, this can’t go on. They’re still trying to intercept our supplies. They’re too much.”

Although it was not to the extent of not distributing the supplies at all, as a local manager, there was no problem in delaying the distribution of the supplies for a few days with various reasons.

Bo Xiao frowned. At this moment, the doctor in the team walked over. “There’s a shortage of medicine now. The next batch of medicine needs to be sent over early. Otherwise, the patients won’t be able to last long.”

“The remaining medicine can last at most three days.”

“I’ll think of a way. Think of a way to stabilize it first,” Bo Xiao said as he made a call.

Before the call connected, Bo Xiao saw a group of people walking over. He hung up.

“Mr. Bo.” Mu Feng nodded slightly at Bo Xiao and extended a hand to him. “Long time no see.”

“CEO Mu.” Bo Xiao held Mu Feng’s hand. “Long time no see. Why are you here?”

Mu Feng took half a step back and introduced the people behind him to Bo Xiao. “These are the doctors Wei Jin and I found for you. There are also some medicine in the car behind.”

“You...”

As if knowing what Bo Xiao was going to say, Mu Feng waved his hand. “We know better than you whose territory this is. You don’t have to count on them.”

“Thank you.” Bo Xiao nodded at Mu Feng.

“You’re too kind. The things have been delivered, so I won’t stay any longer. Wei Jin is still waiting for me in the neighboring city.” Mu Feng waved at Bo Xiao and prepared to leave.

“Okay, bye.”

Mu Feng brought so many things into the southwest and could not hide it along the way. The news quickly spread.

“Master, Mu Feng and Wei Jin have already sent the medicine over. We can’t do anything to Bo Xiao.”

Lin Qingyuan sat on the chair and drank his tea quietly. “I didn’t think you could do anything to Bo Xiao to begin with. Even if Mu Feng doesn’t go, Jun Shiling will get someone to send the things to him.”

“Then why did you let me block their supplies back then?? I’ve already offended Bo Xiao.”

“Go and apologize if you offended him.” Lin Qingyuan blew at the tea leaves in his cup. “Go now. I’ve already prepared everything for you.”

“...” The manager could not understand Lin Qingyuan’s thoughts at all. From the looks of it, Lin Qingyuan did not look like he wanted to expose him. He could only nod and agree. “Okay, I’ll go now. Where is the thing? Shall I take it away directly?”

Lin Qingyuan put down his teacup, dipped it in water, and wrote a location on the table. “Get someone to pick it up here.”

The manager had been in the bureaucracy for so long, so he could naturally tell that Lin Qingyuan did not want to leave any traces of contact with him.

He was a little curious. What was it that made Lin Qingyuan so afraid?

After leaving the Lin family, he sent someone to retrieve the things. Seeing the things Lin Qingyuan had prepared, he was even more puzzled.

Because this was a large pile of medicine.

Chapter 1409 Illness

The person who asked me to stop Bo Xiao's supplies was Lin Qingyuan. Lin Qingyuan even asked me to destroy the medicine transported from the north.

Now that Lin Qingyuan had gotten so many medicines to give to Bo Xiao, what trick did he have up his sleeve?

However, no matter how puzzled he was, he did not dare to say anything about Lin Qingyuan's decision. After all, he had Lin Qingyuan's help to be able to sit in this position.

Soon, the manager brought the medicine to where Bo Xiao and the rest were stationed.

The manager smiled and welcomed Bo Xiao. "I'm really sorry. You know that it's been chaotic recently. I've been so busy every day that I've really neglected you. My subordinates are also stupid. They didn't even remind me to prioritize your matters. I'm here to apologize."

Bo Xiao snorted coldly. "There's no need. You're so tired, there's no need to specially make a trip."

"I have to, I have to." The manager gestured for his subordinate to bring the things up. "I heard that you urgently need medicine here. I specially got someone to transfer these over. Use them first. If it's not enough, just say it. I heard that you need a doctor. I've already gotten someone to urgently transfer 20 over. They'll probably arrive tomorrow."

Although Bo Xiao could not stand the person in front of him, he still needed the things and doctors he had brought. He barely dealt with the manager and got someone to send him away.

After they left, Bo Xiao called for the trusted doctor. "Check if there's anything wrong with the medicine he sent."

"Yes." The doctors checked carefully for a long time and finally confirmed with Bo Xiao. "There's no problem."

However, Bo Xiao was still worried about Lin Qingyuan's people. He waved his hand. "Take the things to the side and don't use them for the time being."

"Yes."

Now that the supplies were in place and the team of doctors was gradually strengthening, Bo Xiao was gradually relieved.

Thinking that he had not called An Rao in a long time, Bo Xiao called her.

The moment the call connected, An Rao was bringing Xiao Qingli. She pointed at the camera. "Quick, call Daddy."

During the time Bo Xiao had been in the southwest, not only had he lost weight, but he had also darkened a little. His outline was even more determined. Xiao Qingli did not recognize him at first.

When he gradually familiarized himself with Bo Xiao's gaze, Xiao Qingli waved at Bo Xiao.

It was unknown how many times Xiao Qingli had been guided recently. At this moment, he looked at Bo Xiao and said vaguely, "Daddy."

Hearing this childish voice, Bo Xiao's body trembled slightly. He gripped his phone tightly. "Mm."

Xiao Qingli seemed to be encouraged and kept calling him Daddy. An Rao sat at the side and smiled at Bo Xiao.

Behind him was a heavy responsibility. However, in the short video with his wife and son, Bo Xiao felt a rare calmness.

Happy times were always so short. Soon, his subordinate came over. "Sir, a patient suddenly fell sick and passed away."

Hearing his subordinate's words, Bo Xiao frowned slightly.

An Rao sensibly held Xiao Qingli's hand and waved at Bo Xiao. "Bye, go ahead. We should eat."

"Okay." Bo Xiao nodded. After hanging up the video call, he followed his subordinate to the temporary ward.

In the ward, a group of doctors surrounded the patient covered in a white cloth in the middle and were discussing something.

"Is there a problem?" Bo Xiao asked.

Sensing Bo Xiao enter, the doctor hurriedly pulled him out. "We suspect that an unknown infectious disease is among these patients."

Chapter 1410 Discovery

No team leader wanted to hear the words "infectious disease" because these three words represented trouble.

Bo Xiao's heart sank. "Be more specific, what are the characteristics? Is the infection ability strong? Where is the source of the illness?"

"The characteristics are unknown. According to the current situation, the infectious ability is not very strong. The source of the illness has not been found."

"Has it spread?" Bo Xiao was most worried about this. Once this unknown illness spread, the consequences would be unimaginable.

"Not yet. We're relatively isolated here to begin with. In addition, there's no one around. The people with symptoms have been isolated by us," the doctor reported to Bo Xiao affirmatively.

"That's good. Follow up on the research." Bo Xiao was relieved. As long as it did not spread, it was not that serious.

At this moment, they could not be sure what the illness was. In order to avoid causing panic, the team suppressed the news and only a few people knew.

Bo Xiao did not report the news to the officials and told Jun Shiling instead.

The southwest region was hot and humid to begin with. In addition, there were people mixed in that area, and strange illnesses often appeared. Jun Shiling was very calm.

To be safe, he sent his trusted aide, Shen Xiu, to the southwest to help Bo Xiao.

“Why are you still busy?” It was already late at night. Seeing that Jun Shiling had not returned for a long time, Xia Wanyuan went to the study to look for him.

“I have something on.” Jun Shiling turned off the computer and stood up to pull Xia Wanyuan.

Xia Wanyuan slapped Jun Shiling’s claws away. “Let me tell you something serious.”

Jun Shiling was a little unhappy that he could not touch his wife. He snorted coldly. “Tell me, I won’t agree.”

Xia Wanyuan smiled and placed her hand in Jun Shiling’s, but she leaned over. “I want to go to America.”

“No.” This time, he really disagreed.

“There’s really something. One of that jade cauldron might be in the Blue family. Isn’t ‘Under the Sky’ going to promote the overseas market recently? Not only am I going to America, but the main creator of the entire production team needs to go too.” Xia Wanyuan analyzed the situation with Jun Shiling.

“America is too complicated. It’s not like you don’t know that the Blue family is restless.” Jun Shiling disagreed.

“What about the jade cauldron? We have to see if it’s that one, right?”

Jun Shiling pondered for a moment. “I have a way. Stay in the country and recuperate. You’re not allowed to go.”

“... Okay.” Xia Wanyuan knew that after what had happened before, Jun Shiling was like a frightened bird to her safety. In the end, she compromised and followed Jun Shiling’s wishes.

In Continent F, even though he had searched for a long time, Chu Yi still could not find any news about Emperor Xia Yuan.

“You bunch of trash.” During this period of time, everything had not gone smoothly. Chu Yi threw the document at his subordinate unhappily. “Where’s the person I asked you to find?”

“Young Master, we’ve sealed all the borders and ports and haven’t found anyone similar. The person you’re looking for should still be in Continent F.”

“Of course I know that he’s still in Continent F. The key is where is he?!!” Emperor Xia Yuan had been regarded as a supreme treasure by the Chu family for generations. Now that he had lost it in his hands, Chu Yi did not know how to face the people in the family.

At that moment, a subordinate suddenly walked in with the surveillance camera. “Young Master, we found some surveillance footage here. Miss Su once stayed in your study for a long time.”
