

Modern Day 1421

Chapter 1421 Escorting Medicine

“Yes.” The subordinate looked at Yu Qian carefully. “Boss, Mr. Wei’s corpse...”

Before he could finish speaking, Yu Qian looked over coldly, scaring him so much that he instantly swallowed his words.

“Other than Jayce betraying us, nothing happened in the base, understand?”

The subordinate hurriedly nodded. “I understand, I understand.”

Sea Shark was the overlord of the global sea route. Chu Yi and Yu Qian were even powerful figures in Continent F. The battle between the few of them had a huge impact on the entire world.

When the news spread to China, Jun Shiling could finally confirm Yu Qian’s identity.

“K?” Xia Wanyuan turned around in confusion. “How can you confirm that he’s K?”

“Continent F is K’s headquarters. Other than him, there’s no one else who can make Chu Yi spend so much effort to plan this.” Jun Shiling’s expression darkened. “No wonder this Yu Qian gives me such a strange feeling.”

“So, Wei Zimu is K’s brother?” This was Xia Wanyuan’s first thought. “I’ve guessed this, but I’m not sure.”

After all, Wei Zimu had grown up in the sunlight. Every time she looked at Wei Zimu, Xia Wanyuan could not associate him with the infamous K.

“Didn’t you say last time that you were going to America?” Jun Shiling suddenly changed the topic.

“Don’t go. I’m going over there. Tell me if you need me to do anything.”

“It’s mainly the Blue family.” A hint of worry flashed across Xia Wanyuan’s eyes. “How can I get that jade cauldron back?”

The jade cauldron was the key to the so-called time and space conversion legend. Only by gathering nine jade cauldrons could she find the answer to her arrival.

“I’ll think of a way.” Jun Shiling stood up. “Things are more urgent. I’ll set off now. Take good care of yourself.”

Xia Wanyuan stood up and hugged Jun Shiling. “I know. I will.”

Soon, Jun Shiling’s back hurriedly disappeared into the night.

It was already late autumn, and an autumn rain seemed to be brewing. Xia Wanyuan looked out of the window quietly, feeling as if a rock was pressing on her heart. It was a little dull, and she kept feeling that something was about to happen.

Xia Wanyuan looked at the night and was in a daze for a while. Only when Little Xiaxia waved her arms at Xia Wanyuan did Xia Wanyuan stand up to hug her.

“Mommy.” Little Xiaxia had just learned to speak recently and kept acting coquettishly at Xia Wanyuan.
“Mommy, Mommy.”

A hint of gentleness appeared in Xia Wanyuan’s eyes. She lowered her head and kissed Little Xiaxia on the cheek.

Perhaps this world was very chaotic, but looking at the child’s innocent and clear eyes, Xia Wanyuan’s frustrated thoughts were all smoothed out. As long as they were still around, there was still hope.

After knowing that Bo Xiao needed medicine, Xia Wanyuan got Shen Qian to buy a large number of medicine and send them to the southwest.

The convoy was huge and the situation was urgent. The people they recruited were also more complicated.

On the way to the southwest with the medicine, a staff member had a conflict with ordinary tourists.

It was originally just a simple argument, but when the staff said that he was working for Xia Wanyuan, it triggered everyone’s anger.

Because this was a passenger plane, and 60% of the seats on the plane were filled with goods.

The tourists were already a little dissatisfied. After the staff announced so arrogantly, they were instantly angered.

Chapter 1422 Focus

These tourists might have a good impression of Xia Wanyuan usually, but when it came to their personal interests, they placed all their cores on themselves.

Some rude passengers ignored the journey and caused a scene in the cabin. The crew could not persuade them and could only return the way they came in the end. The entire flight was delayed because of this.

With the tourists taking the lead to cause trouble and others instigating it, the entire airport hall was congested. The tourists blocked the airport and did not let everyone leave.

“Come, everyone, let’s see how amazing capitalists are. They actually used a passenger plane to send goods. So our living people can’t compare to a box??”

“I was still thinking of going to the south to do business early, but in the end, the airline told me that there were no empty seats. I really believed it. From the looks of it, it’s all an excuse you came up with. You clearly took out your seats and gave them to Xia Wanyuan. This is too much!! You have to give us an explanation for this.”

The matter became bigger and bigger. That night, some tourists even slept in the airport with tents, asking the airport and Xia Wanyuan to give them an explanation.

Now, any news related to Xia Wanyuan would cause widespread discussion. Such a thing quickly swept through the social media circle.

“The Internet said that because Xia Wanyuan used her power to occupy public resources, the entire Beijing airport is in chaos. What do you think?”

The marketing accounts posted this news mainly to use Xia Wanyuan’s popularity to fight for a wave of traffic for themselves. No one expected that the netizens on Weibo were no longer as gullible as before.

[What can I think? I’ll look at it later. You really like Xia Wanyuan. I feel that those eyes are staring at her all the time. Amazing.]

[To be honest, Xia Wanyuan has contributed much more to the country than you marketing accounts who only know how to gossip. What right do you have to say that she’s a capitalist here?? Have you reached the tax requirements?]

[Xia Wanyuan is so busy. Does everything need to have her name on it??? Besides, it’s not like Xia Wanyuan didn’t pay. As long as those people didn’t buy tickets first and were squeezed out by her, I don’t think there’s a problem.]

The person hiding behind the marketing accounts did not expect that even the netizens who were most easily led had become such loyal fans of Xia Wanyuan.

However, the public opinion storm targeting Xia Wanyuan was not so easy to calm down.

Soon, all the major marketing accounts posted a donation form for celebrities in the entertainment industry in the past two years.

“Xia Wanyuan is such a rich person. Why hasn’t she appeared in any public service activities in the past two years? Good lord, a painting on Weibo is worth millions. She said that she wanted to donate it, but in the end?? I’ve never seen her donation in any foundation. Tsk, tsk, tsk. Capitalists really know how to earn money.”

The fans originally wanted to retort, but when everyone flipped through the announcements of domestic charitable organizations in the past two years, Xia Wanyuan’s name did not appear.

Instantly, disputes arose. The topic of where Xia Wanyuan’s painting and calligraphy had gone was extremely popular online.

In China, Xia Wanyuan was the center of attention. At this moment, overseas, Jun Shiling had also become the focus of heated discussion in America.

Chapter 1423 Cooperation

Although China and foreign countries had a solid cultural barrier, they had a deep economic connection. Someone like Jun Shiling, who could almost be considered to control the lifeline of the global economy, was the focus of foreign people.

This time, the first thing Jun Shiling did when he arrived in America was to go to the Blue family. This action instantly made everyone guess.

The Blue family had experienced the family turmoil and had a close relationship with the Chu family. Now that they had contacted Jun Shiling, everyone could not help but guess if the Jun family wanted to contact the Chu family through the Blue family as an intermediary.?

At this moment, in the Blue family, Lin Man looked at Jun Shiling and nodded in approval. She thought to herself that he was indeed the man Li Na wanted to marry even if she had to risk her life.

“CEO Jun, it’s our honor to have you here.” Lin Man smiled at Jun Shiling and gave Li Na a look.

Jun Shiling took the tea and took a symbolic sip. “I’ll be direct. I came today mainly to talk to Master Lin about the cooperation.”

Lin Man’s eyes revealed obvious surprise. “Cooperation? CEO Jun, what do you mean?”

Jun Shiling glanced at the others at the side. Lin Man immediately understood and sent her subordinates away.

An hour later, Jun Shiling walked out of the meeting room. Lin Man’s assistants hurriedly walked in.

“Master, what cooperation does CEO Jun want to discuss with us?”

Lin Man was not good at business and management, but she would recruit the best think tank in the world to do things for her.

Usually, be it the company or the family’s matters, Lin Man would always rely on her military advisers to help her come up with ideas. However, at this moment, facing everyone’s questions, Lin Man kept quiet.

She waved her hand. “You don’t have to care about these things. Go and do your own things.”

“...” Everyone looked at each other and looked at Lin Man worriedly. “Master, forgive us for being blunt, but that person is Jun Shiling. Don’t fall into his trap.”

Lin Man hesitated for a moment, but thinking of Jun Shiling’s words just now, she slapped the table angrily. “Do I need you to criticize me as the head of the family? Get out!”

“Yes.” No matter how much things everyone wanted to say in their hearts, they did not dare to say anything else and could only sigh and leave the meeting room.

After everyone left, thinking of Jun Shiling’s promise to her, Lin Man smiled and fiddled with her bright red nails.

So what if he was the richest man in the world? Didn’t he still have to beg me now??

In the southwest of China, the medicine from Beijing had gradually arrived, but the pressure in the entire base was very low.

Because in the past two days, similar symptoms had spread from other places one after another.

Shen Xiu had brought people to the city where the illness had appeared and had not returned yet. Bo Xiao stood in front of the mobile ward with a cold expression.

After being a soldier for so many years, he felt that something was unusual this time. The enemy this time was invisible and untouchable, but it was much more difficult to deal with than all the enemies he had encountered in the past.

Just as he was deep in thought, a commotion suddenly came from outside. Bo Xiao pulled his thoughts away and called someone over to ask.

“What happened outside?”

“Sir, the manager is here.” The subordinate did not know the exact situation. “He doesn’t seem to have good intentions. Go out and take a look.”

However, once Bo Xiao went out, he was immediately detained.

Chapter 1424 Outburst

Bo Xiao was not prepared and there were many people on the other side. He was quickly subdued.

“What are you doing??”

The last time he came, he was still a respectful manager. Now, when he faced Bo Xiao, his attitude was arrogant. “Bo Xiao, you secretly colluded with foreign enemies and gave the problematic medicine to our soldiers. You’ve already been deprived of all your power. Wait for the judgment from above.”

With that, the manager got someone to take Bo Xiao away.

Not long after these people left, Shen Xiu returned with them.

The team member immediately went forward and told Shen Xiu that Bo Xiao had been taken away. Shen Xiu frowned. “Bo Xiao’s level is so high now. What right do they have to take Bo Xiao away?”

“I heard that Lin Qingyuan is standing behind the manager. What should we do now?”

Shen Xiu waved his hand. “I’ll go back to Beijing first. Stay here.”

“Okay.”

When Shen Xiu returned to Beijing, he wanted to discuss it with Jun Shiling, but it was to no avail. Jun Shiling was not in Beijing, so he could only tell Xia Wanyuan everything.

After hearing Shen Xiu’s words, Xia Wanyuan’s expression was solemn. At this critical juncture, Bo Xiao had been caught. There must be another problem behind the matter.

“You should return to the southwest. I’ll go with you and bring Bo Xiao out first.”

“Okay.”

That night, Xia Wanyuan brought Shen Xiu to the southwest.

“Hey, isn’t this Madam Jun?” The manager sized Xia Wanyuan up. “As expected, seeing is believing. Madam Jun is so beautiful.”

“I’m taking Bo Xiao away.” Xia Wanyuan directly revealed her intentions.

The manager grinned. “Mrs. Jun, I know your husband is powerful, but he’s still in China. Bo Xiao is not under your control.”

Xia Wanyuan looked straight at the manager. “What crime did he commit?”

“Collaborating with the enemy and not guarding them well.”

“Evidence?”

Xia Wanyuan flipped through it. “I have some evidence for you too.”

With that, Shen Xiu, who was behind her, sent a pile of documents to the manager.

The manager flipped through it and his expression changed slightly. “Mrs. Jun, what do you mean? Don’t tell me you think you can threaten me with these groundless fake evidence?”

Xia Wanyuan turned around and left. “Since you think it’s groundless, then it’s groundless.”

Just as Xia Wanyuan was about to step out of the door, the manager finally could not sit still. He stood up. “Alright, I’ll let Bo Xiao go, but we have to go through the procedure. Mrs. Jun, wait a moment.”

Only then did Xia Wanyuan stop.

After being caught, the manager quickly brought Bo Xiao out.

“Mrs. Jun, I’ve handed this person to you. Then those things?”

“What things?” Xia Wanyuan glanced at the manager. “I didn’t see anything.”

“Yes, yes, yes. This way, please,” the manager said and led her out.

The moment he left the door, Bo Xiao walked towards Xia Wanyuan. “The matter is bigger than I imagined. An unknown virus has already spread in the southwest. Be careful and get Shen Xiu to prepare protective clothing for you.”

Xia Wanyuan frowned. “It’s that serious?”

“Mm, it has something to do with the managers and the rest. We can’t rely on their strength.”

However, the development of the matter was faster than Bo Xiao had expected.

On the way back to the base, Bo Xiao received a call.

In the largest city in the southwest, an unknown illness erupted.

At this moment, in Continent F, Chu Yi looked at the world map in front of him, picked up a pen, and gently drew a cross on it.

“Young Master, that Qiao Xu still didn’t save Miss Su. Miss Su is already critically ill. Aren’t we going to let the doctor in?”

Chapter 1425 Outburst

Chu Yi paused in his actions. “Where is he?”

“He’s been in the room,” the subordinate replied respectfully.

Chu Yi threw the pen aside and stood up to walk towards the backyard.

At this moment, in the backyard bedroom, Su Yao had already entered a coma. After not treating her wound for so many days, it had already begun to fester and inflame.

Qiao Xu glanced at Su Yao. He could not bear it and wanted to step forward, but he hesitated.

If he went over, others would definitely see that he and Su Yao knew each other. This was equivalent to admitting that Su Yao was related to stealing that patient.

Qiao Xu watched from afar and clenched his fists. However, if he did not save her, Su Yao would die.

At that moment, footsteps came from outside. Qiao Xu lay on the chair and sat quietly.

Not long after, Chu Yi walked in. He glanced at Qiao Xu. "You're not going to save her?"

Qiao Xu sneered. "Why should I save your woman?"

Chu Yi walked up to Qiao Xu and leaned over to whisper into his ear, "Do you think that if I can destroy her entire family once, I won't kill her a second time?"

Qiao Xu turned to look at Chu Yi. After a while, he finally said, "You're really a lunatic."

Chu Yi stood up. "The doctor said that she has experienced a blood transplant surgery. You know her condition the best. Treat her. If she can't be treated, go and see the Feng family together."

Qiao Xu gritted his teeth and finally stood up. "Prepare surgical tools for me."

Chu Yi gestured for the butler to bring the tools up. Qiao Xu began to operate on Su Yao. Chu Yi sat not far away and watched quietly. The butler went forward to persuade Chu Yi to leave. He waved his hand. "You guys can leave."

Qiao Xu knew Su Yao's condition the best. Su Yao's health was even worse than the last time he took over. Qiao Xu shook his head and sighed in his heart.

It was not until the sun set that Qiao Xu finally stopped what he was doing.

He wiped the sweat off his face and walked to Chu Yi. "You're really her ill-fated love. Her body can last a few more years at most. Are you satisfied now?"

Chu Yi frowned. "What do you mean?"

"What do I mean?" Qiao Xu looked at Chu Yi in disdain. "Since you already know, I might as well tell you. When you overthrew the Feng family back then, she had just been diagnosed as three months pregnant and was too sad. After losing the child, her health was already bad. During this period of time, she has been following you, blocked a gun, and was beaten up. Do you understand the words sucked out every inch of life from her?"

Chu Yi frowned even more. "You're talking nonsense."

Feng Wuyou was such a tenacious person. How could she have every inch of her life sucked out from her?

Qiao Xu sneered and clenched his fists in his sleeves. "Then take it that I'm talking nonsense."

With that, Qiao Xu walked out of the room.

Chu Yi stood rooted to the ground and hesitated for a long time before asking the butler to bring the expert group over.

The conclusion given by the expert group was the same as what Qiao Xu had said. Chu Yi's expression was cold. "All of you, go down."

"Yes."

After everyone left, Chu Yi walked to the bed and looked at Su Yao for a long time. Finally, he said, "You want to die? Impossible."

Chu Yi stayed in Su Yao's room for a long time before walking out. He got someone to bring Qiao Xu over.

Qiao Xu knew why Chu Yi was looking for him. "I'm already in jail. Do you think I still know where that person is? You overestimate me."

"Didn't you dig the tunnel?" Chu Yi looked down at Qiao Xu.

"If you don't believe me, kill me. Anyway, I don't know where that person went." Qiao Xu looked like he didn't care about Chu Yi at all.

Chu Yi stared at him for a long time before finally waving his hand. "Lock him up and let him be in charge of treating Su Yao."

"Yes."

At this moment, almost everyone was looking for Xia Wei. However, Xia Wei seemed to have disappeared into thin air, disappearing from the world.

In the southwest, Bo Xiao had already returned to the base. The situation at the base was even worse than when he had just left.

Bo Xiao originally wanted Xia Wanyuan to leave directly, but she insisted on following him.

Half of the patients with ordinary symptoms had already become seriously ill. Bo Xiao had been in Continent F for a long time and knew very well that such a rapid change to serious illness could sufficiently prove the seriousness of this illness.

"How long has it been since we discovered it?" Xia Wanyuan listened to the patient's wails from afar and could not bear it.

"About half a month," Bo Xiao said as he gestured for his subordinate to bring the statistics over.

"Sir, there aren't any extra medicines recently. They've all been intercepted and can't be sent in." The subordinate handed the statistics form to Bo Xiao and reported the situation.

"Lin Qingyuan is standing behind the management here. They did it on purpose." Bo Xiao looked at Xia Wanyuan.

“I’ve already gotten Shen Qian to send the medicine over overnight.” Xia Wanyuan turned around and walked out. “Do you and Shen Xiu predict that the illness will erupt on a large scale this time?”

Bo Xiao was stunned for a moment. After thinking for a long time, he replied, “Yes.”

Xia Wanyuan nodded. “I’ll convey your words.”

Soon, Xia Wanyuan left the southwest and returned to Beijing. She came out in a hurry and did not take a private plane when she returned, so she was recognized the moment she entered the airport.

“Xia Wanyuan, you’re so rich. Why don’t you use your private plane to transport things? Do you know how many people you’ve delayed?”

“Xia Wanyuan, do you know that your subordinate is especially arrogant? What do you think??”

Xia Wanyuan took off her sunglasses and looked at the person standing in front of her. Everyone was frightened by her aura and finally chose to take a step back.

“It was an emergency, so I requisitioned the cabin.” Xia Wanyuan explained patiently. “The airline will explain the details to you.”

With that, Xia Wanyuan walked straight forward. Everyone wanted to stop her and continue asking, but Xia Wanyuan was in a hurry, so her aura was fully released. Everyone took a step forward and retreated three steps in fear.

The matter of Xia Wanyuan being surrounded at the airport was quickly spread to social media.

The reporters did not obtain any valuable news from Xia Wanyuan, so they were naturally unconvinced. Hence, when they wrote the relevant news, the title they used was misleading. “Xia Wanyuan Airport’s strong response: It’s an emergency. If you have any questions, look for the airline.”

[Rich people speak unyieldingly... They can requisition it whenever they want. You make it sound like the airline is run by her family.]

[The person in front, don’t be so arbitrary. How do you know that Xia Wanyuan’s shares aren’t in the airline?? She’s not just rich. She’s simply rich to the point of heaven. Isn’t it simple to buy an airline?]

[The person in front, what you said is wrong. If she’s really rich, then buy a plane to transport the goods yourself. Why would she use public resources? I’m speechless. It’s really a privileged society.]

Xia Wanyuan was too popular. Just as everyone was about to argue again, another trending topic instantly attracted everyone’s attention.

“I heard from my relatives who work there...”

Seeing this description, everyone was shocked. The marketing accounts took the opportunity to say a few preventable medicines...

In the Lin family, Lin Qingyuan sat on a chair and watched the Lin family’s stock market value instantly soar by billions. The corners of his lips curled up slightly.

However, it was not just that... The Lin family controlled the largest medical industry in China and earned a lot that day.

Chapter 1426 Conspiracy

Because of this sudden incident, everyone was in a panic. Everyone was afraid that they would fall sick and began to hoard a large amount.

From the outside, this was just a rumor. However, in the eyes of some industry insiders, this was the opening of the Lin family's profits.

As the rumors became more and more serious, everyone became more and more panicked.

At this moment, Bo Xiao appeared in the television station and became everyone's focus needle.

"Everyone, don't worry. Our doctors are already doing their best to develop the medicine. There's no need to panic."

Bo Xiao was still very trustworthy in everyone's eyes. Everyone's panic temporarily subsided.

The situation at the base seemed to be improving. Beijing Hospital sent an entire team of experts to support them, and there was an unprecedented breakthrough in the research of the virus.

All sorts of panic calmed down, and everyone's lives began to return to their previous calm.

However, Xia Wanyuan was on guard. The Jun Corporation had a medical industry under them to begin with. Now, they were working overtime to produce a large number of medicine for Bo Xiao.

In Continent F, Chu Yi was listening to his subordinate's report when the butler rushed over and whispered a few words into Chu Yi's ear. "Got it. Go down first. I'll go out later."

"Yes." The butler retreated respectfully.

Chu Yi closed the document in his hand and gestured for his subordinate to leave. Then, he went to the backyard himself.

"Young Master." Seeing Chu Yi walk over, the servant hurriedly bowed.

"How's she doing?"

"Miss Su is already awake, but she won't eat."

Chu Yi glanced at the bowl of porridge in the servant's hand and reached out. "Give it to me."

Taking the bowl of porridge, Chu Yi walked into the house.

Su Yao had already woken up and was sitting on the bed, quietly looking out the window in a daze.

Hearing footsteps, Su Yao looked up and retracted her gaze.

Chu Yi walked over and scooped a spoonful of porridge for Su Yao. "Have a bite."

Su Yao turned her head. "No."

Chu Yi sat beside Su Yao and moved the spoon closer to her mouth. "Be good."

Although Su Yao had been by Chu Yi's side these few days, she could feel Chu Yi's alienation from her. Her current tone actually made her feel like she had returned to the time in Beijing.

At that time, she always liked to throw a tantrum. Chu Yi liked to speak to her in such a tone and coax her to eat.

Su Yao looked at Chu Yi darkly and opened her mouth to take a bite.

When she bit into it, Su Yao realized that there was sugar and raisins in the plain porridge this time. This was her former taste. Ever since she came to Chu Yi's side, she had long changed her taste. Now, she did not eat sweet things.

Su Yao's heart was beating like a drum. She frowned and forced a smile. "Why is it so sweet?"

Chu Yi lowered his head and the corners of his lips curled up slightly. He only said calmly, "It's delicious like that. You don't like it?"

Su Yao shook her head. "No, it's quite delicious."

"Oh," Chu Yi replied. Then, he reached out and wiped the porridge crumbs from Su Yao's mouth before continuing to feed her spoonful by spoonful.

Su Yao felt tasteless. Occasionally, she would look up at Chu Yi and see his thick eyelashes.

The servants in the bedroom had long retreated. Now, the entire room was very quiet. The sunlight passed through the window and quietly spread on their shoulders. For a moment, this scene was a rare warmth.

Finally, after eating a bowl of porridge, Chu Yi put the bowl aside and handed a glass of water to Su Yao to take a sip.

"Rest for a while. I still have something to do."

Su Yao felt that something was wrong. Could it be that Chu Yi had completely confirmed my identity?

Su Yao was nervous and subconsciously looked at Chu Yi a few more times.

Sensing Su Yao's gaze, Chu Yi turned around and a smile appeared on his face. "Why?? You can't bear to leave me??"

"..." Su Yao retracted her gaze. "No, I just want to ask you about my health."

The smile on Chu Yi's face widened. He lowered his head and placed it on Su Yao's stomach. "Our baby is very healthy."

Su Yao's body trembled and her eyes shattered. She looked straight at Chu Yi. "What child??"

Chu Yi smiled. "Our child. Alright, rest first."

With that, Chu Yi stood up and walked out. However, after taking two steps, Chu Yi turned around. Looking at Su Yao's almost broken expression, Chu Yi added, "I hired a doctor to help you recuperate. His name is Qiao Xu. If there's anything wrong with the child in your stomach, I'll hold him accountable."

Su Yao's expression changed slightly. She wanted to ask Chu Yi where he had locked Qiao Xu up, but Chu Yi had already walked away.

Chu Yi left the Chu family and boarded a helicopter. After a long time, he arrived at a ship at the port. Sea Shark was waiting for him on the deck.

"Young Master Chu, it's so difficult to invite you. You made me wait." Sea Shark frowned and looked unhappy.

"Boss Jin, if you have something to say, just say it. Do we still have to beat around the bush?"

Sea Shark retreated from everyone. "Have you heard anything from Yu Qian in the past few days?"

Chu Yi shook his head. "No."

"It's too strange." Sea Shark's eyes were filled with confusion. "Yu Qian is so ruthless. Why is he so calm after his brother was killed? Do you think he's really afraid of our alliance? Or is he plotting something?"

Chapter 1427 Walking into the World

A dark glint flashed across Chu Yi's eyes. "Yu Qian's personality is fickle. Even if you ask me, I don't know."

Sea Shark sighed. "Who knew he was so vigilant? I actually didn't kill him last time, but I still have something good to look for you."

"Is it the vaccine?"

"Yes." Sea Shark nodded. "That Jayce is Yu Qian's right-hand man after all. Although he didn't get the core antidote, he provided me with a detailed data of the virus. I've already gotten someone to produce the relevant medicine. Young Master Chu, it's time for us to earn money!!"

Chu Yi turned the thumb ring on his hand. "How's China?"

"We've already cast the net. We're just waiting for the fish to take the bait." Sea Shark grinned, his eyes shining. "China is guarding it tightly and not letting us in. This time, I found a flaw."

Over the years, Sea Shark had wandered around China for an unknown period of time, but he had always been rejected because most of his businesses were illegal. He had lost countless trusted aides and money in China.

Thinking that China was about to be controlled by him, Sea Shark could not hide the smile on his face.

Chu Yi was not as optimistic as him. "It's too early for you to be happy. They might be prepared. Don't forget that Jun Shiling has many capable people."

"Ha, don't worry this time." Sea Shark was confident. "I have a trump card."

Hearing the words trump card, Chu Yi looked at Sea Shark in confusion. "What do you mean??"

Sea Shark shook his head. "The ace will naturally be revealed at the most critical moment. Anyway, I've already arranged everything. I need your factory to cooperate with me."

Chu Yi nodded. "No problem."

After reaching a consensus on this issue, Sea Shark discussed with Chu Yi for a long time. When the two of them came out of the cabin, three hours had passed.

Five kilometers away from the ship, a fishing boat was floating quietly. The fisherman retracted the binoculars, took out a small instrument from his pocket, entered a few numbers on it, and threw it into the water.

An hour later, an encrypted email was sent to Yu Qian.

At this moment, Yu Qian was sitting on a chair in a snow-white laboratory suit and wearing snow-white gloves. He took the email and glanced at it, his eyes calm.

"Boss, Sea Shark and Chu Yi have completely formed an alliance. What should we do?" In front of Yu Qian, a young letter assistant was asking for Yu Qian's opinion.

Yu Qian's expression was indifferent. "Let them be."

"Okay."

"Is everything ready?" Yu Qian stood up and walked into the laboratory. The assistant hurriedly followed.

When he arrived at the entrance of the laboratory, the assistant stopped and watched Yu Qian enter.

The subordinate sent all sorts of materials to the laboratory. When he came out, a subordinate finally could not help but ask, "Boss, what are you fiddling with?? You've never entered the laboratory for so long."

"I don't understand. Ever since Mr. Wei died, Boss has been like this. Sigh, when Mr. Wei was around, it was still better. At that time, Boss didn't seem to be so cold."

"No chatting." Just as everyone was discussing, the new assistant looked over and everyone hurriedly left in silence.

Although all the production lines in China had already joined the work, they could not supply the consumption at the base.

At the same time, more and more people began to show initial symptoms in the city more than a hundred kilometers away from the base.

"Mr. Bo." Shen Xiu looked at him solemnly. "I'm afraid it'll be difficult this time. I suggest you return to Beijing and ask for instructions first. Command remotely. I'll treat the injured here."

Bo Xiao shook his head. "I've already asked Xia Wanyuan to bring the information back. I'll stay here."

"But your family." As a doctor, Shen Xiu knew the fatality of this illness the best.

Although in principle, Bo Xiao should stay here, in terms of emotions, Shen Xiu felt that An Rao and Bo Xiao had experienced too many twists and turns and should not be involved in this storm again.

“There’s no need to say anything else. What other supplies do you need? I’ll arrange it.”

Shen Xiu retracted his words. “I still need gauze and painkillers.”

“Mm, I understand.” With that, Bo Xiao quickly disappeared into the night.

At this moment, China looked calm, but in fact, all the wind and rain were hidden in the calm on the surface.

The trending topics on Weibo were all about various entertainment gossip.

This Best Actress sprained her ankle walking the red carpet. That Best Actor had an affair with an actress from the same production team. Either that or one of the celebrity characters in the entertainment industry had collapsed again.

Among them, what attracted everyone’s attention the most was the plot discussion of the television drama “Under the Sky”.

Now that the plot of “Under the Sky” and “Ice” had already advanced to the middle stage, the reputation of “Under the Sky” did not collapse. Instead, it rose.

Perhaps short-term viewership ratings could be achieved by fake reviewers. However, as time passed, the ratings of “Ice” gradually decreased, and all sorts of marketing began to soften.

Not only did China’s “Under the Sky” capture a large number of domestic audience, but it also attracted a wave of movie viewers worldwide.

Every time the television drama was updated, there would be a commotion on the Internet.

This time, Chinese television dramas really walked towards the entire world.

Chapter 1428 Ling Yuan Fund

Unlike the past, this time, it was all-rounded. Because of this television drama, Xia Wanyuan had really become an international superstar with global influence.

In this television drama, Xia Wanyuan did not appear in many scenes, but the scene of her stepping on the stream from the mountains made one instantly remember this fairy from the east.

Because of the continuity of the television dramas, Xia Wanyuan’s impression in everyone’s hearts kept deepening. All sorts of movies and television dramas related to her gradually became popular overseas.

The craze in the country had yet to subside, and the worldwide craze had begun again. Not only did it bring Xia Wanyuan a huge popularity, but it also brought her a huge economic income.

Xia Wanyuan had once invested in the huge cultural industry framework and gradually extended her tentacles to the entire world.

At this moment, the Xiefeng Group also made the latest quarter plan, which was to build ten “Moon Bay” paradises in other areas other than China.

“Damn, I heard that Linxi invested 40 billion yuan in that Moon Bay project. Ten Moon Bay projects... How amazing. Xia Wanyuan is really rich.”

[Isn't it normal for her to be rich? We're in the related industries. Now, the entire industrial chain is related to the Xiaofeng Group... Xia Wanyuan has been plotting since two years ago. She has great foresight...]

[Ten... Wouldn't that be 400 billion... I'm really speechless. If so much money is used for public welfare, who knows how many people will benefit? Capitalists are capitalists. It's better to earn money.]

[The person in front, are you crazy from hating the rich?! How did Xia Wanyuan not do public service? Did you crawl under her bed and see it?]

[I'm dying of laughter. The fans are still washing here. Some time ago, Xia Wanyuan was dug out. So many people in the entertainment industry are doing charity donations. Xia Wanyuan is so rich, but she's not done a single cent.]

There were more and more controversies on the Internet. Gradually, the topic of Xia Wanyuan's public service floated again.

However, this time, a very attentive netizen discovered a detail that had been ignored by everyone.

Everyone was very familiar with the largest charitable organizations in China. However, when they flipped through last year's public welfare project investment, there was a private organization called the "Ning Yuan Fund". In just a year, it had sent nearly 30 billion yuan of public welfare expenditure to various places.

After this fund attracted everyone's attention, everyone wanted to investigate which rich man was so generous. In the end, after taking a look, they realized that the founder's place was actually confidential.

Looking at this name, some people naturally thought of Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan.

However, a large number of people questioned. "Doing charity is a good thing. If it's really Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan, how can they be secretive?"

Just as everyone was arguing, the Ning Yuan Fund suddenly changed its name from Ning Yuan to Ling Yuan.

At this moment, no one needed to argue anymore. These two words were too obvious. It was obvious that it was a foundation established by Xia Wanyuan and Jun Shiling.

[Those who said that Xia Wanyuan didn't do anything just now, can you come out and take a few steps?? Where's the enthusiasm you had when you spread rumors just now?]

[I'm dying of laughter hahahahaha, is your face slapped?? She does way more in a year, compared to many other organizations, yet you still have the cheek to criticize her. To be honest, Xia Wanyuan's contribution is much greater than yours, okay?]

[Tsk, didn't she just donate some money? What's there to be smug about? If I were as rich as Xia Wanyuan, I could donate tens of billions a year.]

Even though there were still many haters questioning Xia Wanyuan on Weibo, most people were shocked by the foundation established by Xia Wanyuan and Jun Shiling.

After all, the establishment of this foundation was not officially awarded, but the areas and amounts involved were quite large. This incident even alarmed the officials, who sent Xia Wanyuan commendations.

In the studio, Lu Li was looking curiously at Xia Wanyuan's medal. "Sister Xia, you're so amazing. You're so kind."

Xia Wanyuan did not turn around and was busy with the proposal in her hand. "How's the studio recently?"

"Pretty good." Lu Li nodded. "Sister Xia, it's almost time for school to end. Aren't you going to pick Xiao Bao up?"

Xia Wanyuan finally looked up at her phone. She was about to get up when she received another call. It was from Old Master Fu.

Ever since they last met, Xia Wanyuan had not contacted Old Master Fu for a long time. Now that she heard Old Master Fu say that he had made a new discovery, Xia Wanyuan's eyes lit up.

"Sister Xia, if you're busy, I'll help you pick Xiao Bao up." Lu Li put down the medal and walked to Xia Wanyuan's side.

"Okay." Xia Wanyuan nodded, then picked up her bag and instructed Lu Li a few things before leaving the studio.

Soon, Xia Wanyuan drove to the research institute. Old Master Fu was still sitting in the familiar seat in the garden, waiting for Xia Wanyuan.

"Old Master Fu." Xia Wanyuan nodded slightly at Old Master Fu.

"Mm, sit." Old Master Fu gestured for Xia Wanyuan to sit in front of him. After Xia Wanyuan sat down, Old Master Fu took out a thick stack of information. "I found these from Teacher's previous research ancient books."

Xia Wanyuan took it and took a look. The research showed that the figure of the black-robed man had appeared in the records of many tribes.

In these ancient books, everyone described the black-robed man as an "outsider". They did not describe this strange outsider much. Everyone only knew that he seemed to be looking for something.

Xia Wanyuan suddenly recalled the dream she had.

Chapter 1429 Smokescreen

In that dream, Xia Wei was followed by the mysterious black-robed man.

Xia Wanyuan had a bold imagination. Could it be that this black-robed man had been here for the past thousand years??

Since I could transcend time, the black-robed man had first appeared beside Xia Wei and now appeared in all sorts of ancient books. Was it possible that he had been hiding in the dark and quietly observing me? What was his goal?

Xia Wanyuan suddenly shuddered. She looked at Old Master Fu in front of her. "Does your mentor have any research on this black-robed man?"

Old Master Fu shook his head. "Perhaps you can go to Emperor Yuan Xia's tomb to find the answer."

Xia Wanyuan nodded. "Okay, thank you."

"You're welcome."

After bidding farewell to Old Master Fu, Xia Wanyuan returned to the manor. She thought that she would see Xiao Bao as soon as she returned, but when she returned home, she only saw Little Xiaxia and Little Jiajin.

Xia Wanyuan frowned slightly. According to the time, Lu Li and Xiao Bao should already return. She called Lu Li.

The phone rang for a while before it was picked up. "Sister Xia."

"Why aren't you back yet?"

"We're at an intersection. There was a car accident here just now, and the road is more congested. Don't worry, we'll be there in fifteen minutes." Lu Li's voice was noisy, and the window was filled with the sound of endless cars.

"Okay, come back early," Xia Wanyuan instructed and went upstairs.

At this moment, in the Beijing Hotel, a young man was leaning against the window and quietly looking at the map in his hand.

The phone rang. He picked it up. After the other party said a few words, a smile appeared on the man's face. "Not bad."

With that, the man immediately hung up. He fiddled with the seal in his hand. "Tsk, looks like we're going to succeed this time."

The man stood in front of the window for a while, then turned around and returned to the desk. He opened a secret connection webpage and typed a line of words.

"Let's enter the final preparations."

At the same time, heavy weapons landed in the hidden mountains in all the continents of the world.

Time passed day by day.

Bo Xiao brought people to wrap up the relevant work. Looking at the removed wards in front of him, a hint of relief flashed across Bo Xiao's eyes. "It's finally about to end. It's been hard on you recently."

Shen Xiu smiled. "You're treating us like outsiders. Isn't saving them the same as saving ourselves?"

The news that the base was preparing to loosen the restrictions not only made the people in the country happy, but it also spread abroad immediately.

“What’s going on? We haven’t even sent our vaccines over and they’ve already resolved it?” Sea Shark had a bad temper. When he saw that the money in his hand was gone, he immediately lost his temper.

Chu Yi was very calm. “You’re too unconfident in Yu Qian’s medical skills. It’s not so easy to crack what he made.”

Sea Shark looked at Chu Yi in confusion. “You mean? A smokescreen?”

After the matter at the base came to an end, Bo Xiao could finally return to Beijing.

Over the past few days, An Rao had been accompanying Xia Wanyuan in the manor. Bo Xiao came straight to the manor the moment he got off the plane.

However, just as he reached the door, Bo Xiao stopped.

Chapter 1430 Reunion

In the living room, Xiao Bao was playing with his sister. From time to time, his eyes would curve up and the dimples on his face would appear.

Seeing Bo Xiao enter, Xiao Bao ran happily towards him. “Uncle Bo!!”

Bo Xiao picked Xiao Bao up, but he did not kiss his face as usual. Instead, he pulled Xiao Bao’s sleeve and checked him very carefully.

Xiao Bao’s arm was smooth and there was nothing unusual. Bo Xiao frowned slightly. Could I have seen wrongly?

At this moment, An Rao walked over with the child and smiled at Bo Xiao excitedly.

Bo Xiao stroked Xiao Bao’s head and placed him on the ground. Only then did he open his arms and pull An Rao into his arms. He whispered into her ear, “You’ve worked hard.”

An Rao’s eyes turned red as she hugged Bo Xiao’s waist. “You’ve worked hard too.”

Today was not only the day Bo Xiao returned to Beijing, but also the day Jun Shiling returned from America.

Bo Xiao stayed in the manor for less than two hours before Jun Shiling’s car slowly drove into the garden.

Seeing Bo Xiao, Jun Shiling nodded at him. Bo Xiao smiled and nodded at Jun Shiling.

At night, they were about to go out for dinner when it suddenly rained. The children’s emotions were unstable, so Xia Wanyuan and the rest stayed in the manor.

It was already late autumn. Although the floor heater was turned on in the living room, the autumn rain outside the window was still cold.

An Rao suggested eating hotpot to ward off the cold, so Bo Xiao and Jun Shiling took the initiative to go to the kitchen to work.

An hour later, the four adults and Xiao Bao sat on the carpet in the living room. In the middle was a mandarin duck pot. Steam kept rising, enveloping everyone's eyes.

The wine glasses clinked, and a few drops of wine seeped into the boiling soup in the country.

That night, everything outside seemed to be isolated by the autumn rain. Everyone could only see the wine glass and hotpot in front of them.

The four of them chatted and laughed as they drank a few bottles of red wine in the hotpot.

In the end, Xia Wanyuan and An Rao were drunk. Jun Shiling and Bo Xiao each carried them back to the bedroom.

Xia Wanyuan opened her eyes slightly and saw Jun Shiling in front of her. "Hubby."

"Mm." Only when Xia Wanyuan was drunk could he hear her call him so proactively. Jun Shiling smiled and helped Xia Wanyuan change her clothes.

"If only I could always be so happy." Xia Wanyuan placed her face beside Jun Shiling's hand and exhaled.

Jun Shiling reached out to touch Xia Wanyuan's forehead. "I'm sorry to make you work so hard."

Xia Wanyuan shook her head. "It doesn't matter if it's hard work. It's fine as long as you're here."

A smile appeared in Jun Shiling's eyes. He stroked Xia Wanyuan's hair. "Mm."

That night, the autumn rain seemed to be especially gentle. It was clearly raining heavily in the evening, but at night, it began to drizzle and gather into a dream that was like the moon.

The next morning, Xia Wanyuan had just woken up when she received a message.

"Sister Xia!! The Oscar organizer of America sent us an invitation. Do we need to send the television drama over to participate in the evaluation?"

Xia Wanyuan's fingers moved gently. "Send it."

Soon, the organizers sent news asking the main team of the television drama "Under the Sky" to cooperate with the filming of the relevant promotional video.

The filming location was in China, but in a city in the south, the production team had reduced the filming time to two days before Xia Wanyuan could take time to film.

However, just as she arrived in the south on the plane, the butler called.

"Madam, Young Master is hospitalized."
