

Modern Day 1431

Chapter 1431 Missing

Xia Wanyuan frowned. Xiao Bao's physique had always been very good. When I left Beijing, Xiao Bao was still alive and kicking. How long have I been gone? Why was he hospitalized?

"What did the doctor say was the illness?"

The butler's voice trembled. "Madam, I don't know, but Young Master Bo Xiao personally brought him away. They said that Young Master needs to be isolated."

Xia Wanyuan's heart instantly sank. She looked at the other people at the side. "I'm going back to Beijing now. Film it yourself."

Everyone nodded repeatedly. "Okay."

Xia Wanyuan took the nearest flight back to Beijing. The moment she got off the plane, she ran straight to Beijing Hospital, but to no avail. Xiao Bao was brought to a hidden hospital in the suburbs.

As Xia Wanyuan rushed over, she called Jun Shiling.

"Jun Shiling, do you know that Xiao Bao has been taken away?"

Jun Shiling was silent for a moment. "Mm."

"Why?" For some reason, Xia Wanyuan thought of the frequent virus outbreaks in the southwest and had a bad feeling.

"I'm not sure yet. I'm investigating. Don't worry, I'm already taking care of him."

Xia Wanyuan knew that Jun Shiling had definitely already gotten the expert group to check Xiao Bao collectively. If they could not find the reason, it meant that the problem was more complicated than she had imagined.

On the way to the hospital, Xia Wanyuan tried to calm herself down.

Xiao Bao's security facilities had always been very good. There had never been a problem in the past, but now, he had been infected and needed to be isolated. Who had transmitted it to him?

Suddenly, Xia Wanyuan seemed to have thought of something. She took out her phone and called Chen Yun. "Where's Lu Li?"

Chen Yun was helping the production team film a promotional video. He looked around. "She was still here just now. She said she was going to find a support. What's wrong? Why are you looking for her?"

"Tell me when she comes back."

"Okay."

Soon, Xia Wanyuan arrived at the hospital. Bo Xiao was waiting for her at the door. Seeing Xia Wanyuan walk over, guilt flashed across Bo Xiao's eyes. "I'm sorry, Sister-in-law."

Xia Wanyuan shook her head at Bo Xiao and was about to enter when Bo Xiao stopped her. "Sister-in-law, Xiao Bao's illness is very infectious. You can't go in."

Xia Wanyuan was very firm. "Prepare protective clothing for me. I want to go in."

Looking at Xia Wanyuan's gaze, Bo Xiao was helpless. He knew that he could not stop her and could only get someone to prepare a full set of protective measures for her.

When all the equipment was ready, Xia Wanyuan walked into the ward. Jun Shiling was sitting by the bed with Xiao Bao.

Xiao Bao, who had been alive and kicking the day before, was lying weakly on the bed with a pale face.

Seeing Xia Wanyuan walk over, Xiao Bao's eyes lit up. With Jun Shiling's help, he sat up. Xia Wanyuan walked over and pulled Xiao Bao into her arms.

Xiao Bao hugged Xia Wanyuan tightly. "Mommy, it hurts."

Xia Wanyuan's heart ached. She patted Xiao Bao's back. "Don't be afraid. We'll be out soon."

Xiao Bao hugged Xia Wanyuan and did not let go. Xia Wanyuan coaxed Xiao Bao until he finally fell asleep. Only then did Xia Wanyuan leave the room with Jun Shiling.

Jun Shiling held Xia Wanyuan's hand and nodded at her. "Don't worry."

The worry in Xia Wanyuan's eyes had not dissipated when her phone rang. Xia Wanyuan picked it up and saw that it was a call from Chen Yun.

"Wanyuan, I didn't find Lu Li, and neither did the others. We're all preparing to call the police."

Chapter 1432 Mission Completed

Xia Wanyuan closed her eyes and opened them again. Then, she said, "Call the police directly."

"Okay."

After hanging up, Xia Wanyuan looked at Jun Shiling. "Is Xiao Bao going to stay here the whole time?"

"Mm." Jun Shiling nodded. "I'm not sure what the connection is yet. Letting him stay here is the best choice now."

Heartache flashed across Xia Wanyuan's eyes. Ever since she arrived, Xiao Bao had not left her much, let alone been locked up here alone.

Through the glass window, Xia Wanyuan looked at Xiao Bao, who was sleeping inside. His small face was buried under the blanket, looking weak and pitiful.

"Alright, let's go." Jun Shiling pulled Xia Wanyuan out. "I'll come and visit him every day."

Xia Wanyuan was pulled by Jun Shiling and kept turning to look at Xiao Bao, her eyes filled with reluctance.

After Xia Wanyuan arrived at the hospital, Bo Xiao was called away by a phone call.

As expected, after Xiao Bao was sent to the hospital, some children in the kindergarten he was studying fell sick one after another.

[The little kid is so pitiful. He's sick at such a young age. Xia Wanyuan infected her child... Now, she's harmed everyone.]

[Can you stop talking nonsense? Xia Wanyuan should be the saddest now, okay?? She's the child's mother. Isn't she sadder than you?? Keyboard warriors are really annoying. Other than typing on the keyboard, what else can she do?]

The Internet was filled with controversy. In reality, everyone was panicking, afraid that they would be the next person to fall sick.

In the manor, Xia Wanyuan had just returned from watching Xiao Bao when her phone rang.

"Wanyuan, Lu Li is really missing." It had been a day and night. Even though he had already called the police, he still could not find any news about Lu Li. Chen Yun was extremely worried. "Do you think she fell down the mountain? I'm so worried about her."

Xia Wanyuan's expression darkened. "There's no need to look anymore. We shouldn't be able to find her."

Xia Wanyuan's words were inexplicable. The back of Chen Yun's neck turned cold. "What... What do you mean??"

"She's probably abroad."

"??? How did you know?"

"I guessed it." Xia Wanyuan tidied the package in front of her. "Go ahead."

"Oh, okay." Chen Yun nodded. Since Xia Wanyuan had said that he did not have to care anymore, he did not hesitate anymore.

At this moment, in Continent F, Lu Li was standing in front of Yu Qian and reporting the situation respectfully.

Her eyes were as untainted as ever.

"Not bad." Yu Qian glanced at Lu Li indifferently. "You can leave. Go back to your original position."

"Yes." Lu Li smiled and nodded. She was as bright as ever, and her dimples were faintly visible, becoming the active one in the base.

Chapter 1433 Plot

Watching Lu Li leave, Yu Qian narrowed his eyes. He gently knocked on the table in front of him, his eyes determined.

On Yu Qian's left was a pot of blooming lotus petals. At this moment, the flowers had already bloomed. The leaves were stretched out, and the flowers were beautiful with a faint fragrance.

Yu Qian reached out to touch the lotus leaf. "Since you like her so much, I'll get her to come and accompany you."

At this moment, the subordinate who had just left walked in again. "Boss, there's a man in a black robe outside who wants to see you."

"Let him in," Yu Qian looked up and said calmly.

"Yes." Soon, the subordinate led the black-robed man in.

"What's the matter?" Yu Qian looked up at the black-robed man. "Do you like to hide like this every time you appear?"

The black-robed man laughed sinisterly. "I came over to discuss something with you."

"Tell me."

"Did you know that Xia Wanyuan's son is sick? I know you have a vaccine."

"So?"

"She'll definitely come to you for the vaccine for her son. Don't give it to her." The black-robed man looked at Yu Qian. "I'll give you benefits."

"Oh?" Yu Qian raised an eyebrow. "What benefits?"

He had realized a long time ago that this black-robed man seemed to be especially concerned about Xia Wanyuan's situation, but no matter how he investigated, he could not find their relationship.

"In this map, a ship sank here." The black-robed man pointed at a certain location on the map. "There's endless wealth here."

Yu Qian raised an eyebrow slightly. "I'm afraid you forgot something. I hate Jun Shiling the most. Do you think I'll be unhappy if his son dies?"

The black-robed man was stunned for a moment, then laughed loudly. "I was overthinking."

Yu Qian stroked the rim of his cup twice. "There's a question. I've always been very curious. What's Xia Wanyuan's relationship with you?"

"Her?" The black-robed man sneered. "Would you believe me if I said that she's my family?"

Yu Qian looked at the black-robed man quietly for a while and suddenly smiled. "Why won't I believe you?"

At this moment, Beijing was already in chaos. Xiao Bao's condition was continuing to deteriorate. Even with Shen Xiu and a group of experts holding down the fort, they could not find any feasible solution.

Jun Shiling walked over and hugged Xia Wanyuan. "Go and rest first. You've been looking after him the entire night."

On the other side of the glass, Xiao Bao was curled up on the bed crying bitterly. Because he had been injected with a tranquilizer, he was sleeping, but tears seeped out of the corners of his eyes, making him look very pitiful.

Looking at Xiao Bao, Xia Wanyuan's eyes turned red from heartache. "Who's the person behind Lu Li?"

"Yu Qian." Speaking of Yu Qian, Jun Shiling's eyes darkened. "I also received news."

"What?" Xia Wanyuan turned around.

"Wei Zimu is dead."

Xia Wanyuan frowned. "When?"

"Half a month ago, according to the news I received, a large part of the reason why I got the medicine was because Wei Zimu pleaded with Yu Qian."

Hearing Jun Shiling's words, the image of Wei Zimu smiling and handing her the snacks appeared in Xia Wanyuan's mind.

He seemed to always be wearing a white shirt and a smile. No matter what adversity he was in, he was never tainted by the darkness. Xia Wanyuan sighed. "I should have had a good meal with him last time."

Chapter 1434 Yu Qian's Letter

No matter how regretful she was, Wei Zimu had already disappeared from this world forever. Xia Wanyuan, who was already depressed, felt even more upset.

Looking at Xia Wanyuan like this, Jun Shiling did not feel good either. He brought Xia Wanyuan back to the manor, thinking that the children could make her feel better.

When they arrived at the entrance of the manor, they happened to meet the person who came to deliver the things.

Jun Shiling's eyes flickered. He went forward to take the box and opened it. His expression warmed. "Look at this."

]Xia Wanyuan leaned over to take a look, her face filled with surprise. The box contained a jade cauldron. "Where did this come from?"

"Chu Yi." Jun Shiling held the jade cauldron and walked into the house with Xia Wanyuan. "Speaking of which, it's all thanks to Feng Wuyou this time."

"Is she okay with Chu Yi?"

"I don't know." Jun Shiling shook his head. "Chu Yi's attitude is very strange, but this time, he's willing to send the jade cauldron over because of Feng Wuyou."

In the Chu family's mansion in Continent F, Chu Yi walked to Feng Wuyou's side with the medicine. "I've already sent the things over according to your requirements. You can drink the medicine now, right?"

Feng Wuyou glanced at Chu Yi and drank the medicine.

“Why did you keep him?”

After knowing that she was pregnant with Chu Yi’s child, Feng Wuyou had been thinking of all sorts of ways to abort this child. This child was not the result of his father and mother falling in love. It was the result of hatred. There was no point in him staying.

However, Chu Yi wanted to keep this child. He even wanted Feng Wuyou to keep the child at the price of giving the jade cauldron to Xia Wanyuan.

Chu Yi sat beside Feng Wuyou and reached out to hug her. Feng Wuyou’s body stiffened for a moment.

“I don’t have a child.” Chu Yi stroked Feng Wuyou’s hair. “Can’t I have a descendant for myself?”

Feng Wuyou tilted her head to the side. “You have so many confidants. It’s so easy to have a child.”

The corners of Chu Yi’s lips curled up slightly. “You’re different from others.”

Feng Wuyou turned to look at Chu Yi. His eyes were dark, as if layers of fog surrounded them, making it impossible to see his true thoughts.

Feng Wuyou laughed mockingly. “Yes, I’m different from others. I’m the daughter of your enemy.”

Chu Yi’s eyes paused slightly and he did not say anything else. Instead, he pulled Feng Wuyou into his arms and gently patted her back.

In Beijing, it had been continuous rain for the past two days. Xia Wanyuan was already worried about Xiao Bao’s condition. Because of this gloomy weather, she could not sleep.

That night, Jun Shiling went to the hospital to see Xiao Bao. Xia Wanyuan could not sleep again. She sat by the window and looked at the sleeping Little Jiajin and Little Xiaxia. The rain outside the window kept dripping down the glass.

The night deepened, but Xia Wanyuan’s uneasiness grew.

After some time, the rain became heavier. In the silent bedroom, Xia Wanyuan’s phone rang.

Xia Wanyuan picked up the call. It was Jun Shiling.

“I sent someone to pick you up. Come over now.”

Jun Shiling did not say anything else, but Xia Wanyuan already had a feeling. “I understand. I’ll go over now.”

When they arrived at the hospital, Jun Shiling welcomed them. “His condition has worsened again. He’s being resuscitated. You can’t go in now.”

Xia Wanyuan’s legs were a little weak. She leaned against Jun Shiling and grabbed his hand. “He’ll be fine, right?”

Jun Shiling held Xia Wanyuan’s hand. “It’ll be fine.”

However, the resuscitation time this time was longer than before. Seeing that Xiao Bao was entering the operating theater for longer and longer, Xia Wanyuan's uneasiness became heavier and heavier.

She leaned into Jun Shiling's arms and gripped the corner of his shirt tightly.

At five in the morning, Lin Jing rushed in with a letter in his hand.

"CEO Jun, Madam, Yu Qian sent this over."

Jun Shiling took it and opened it. Inside was a handwritten letter from Yu Qian. There was only a simple English word and a sentence. "Let Xia Wanyuan come over herself."

That word was the name of an island on the high seas of the Pacific Ocean.

Yu Qian had ulterior motives for sending this letter.

Jun Shiling crumpled the letter into a ball. "You can't go."

Xia Wanyuan took the letter. "I have to go."

Chapter 1435 Leaving

Jun Shiling frowned. "I can't go along with you this time."

Now, he was 100% certain that Lu Li was a bomb that Yu Qian had buried here. Now, this bomb had brought the virus to Xiao Bao, and its target was Xia Wanyuan.

He clearly knew that it was a tiger's den, so Jun Shiling was naturally unwilling to let Xia Wanyuan take the risk.

Xia Wanyuan turned to look at Xiao Bao, who was lying on the bed. Because of the huge pain in his body, Xiao Bao was covered in cold sweat. His white pillow was almost soaked in sweat.

Jun Shiling looked at Xia Wanyuan and pulled her away. "Stay in the manor for the time being. Leave the matters outside to me."

Xia Wanyuan stopped in her tracks and looked at Jun Shiling calmly. "If Yu Qian asked you to go, would you go?"

Jun Shiling stopped in his tracks. "Give me three days."

"Mm."

Jun Shiling gathered all the top experts, but it was useless. As time passed, those patients infected with Xiao Bao as the center began to act up. Now, the entire Beijing began to be enveloped in panic.

It rained overnight. At this moment, all sorts of similar cases began to appear elsewhere in the country. Those hidden tentacles finally probed the surrounding people.

Many people did not have as good medical conditions as Xiao Bao. This illness came quickly and the condition was fierce. All sorts of bad news kept entering Beijing.

The team led by Shen Xiu and the rest had been working non-stop for a long time, but they had not gained anything.

Yu Qian was the top doctor and poison expert in the world. It was difficult for others to crack the virus he had created in a short time.

In the manor, Xia Wanyuan pushed open the study door. Jun Shiling was standing in front of the French window with a cold expression.

Xia Wanyuan walked over and held Jun Shiling's hand.

Jun Shiling held her back, but he did not turn around. "I've already sent someone to negotiate with Yu Qian."

Not only were they negotiating, but this time, Jun Shiling even used those powers that had been sealed for a long time. Yu Qian's various forces were severely injured.

However, under such circumstances, Yu Qian was still unwilling to give in at all. In short, if he wanted to get the vaccine, he would let Xia Wanyuan collect it alone.

Xia Wanyuan wrapped her arms around Jun Shiling's waist. "You know very well that a person like Yu Qian won't give in."

Yu Qian knew them well, just as they knew Yu Qian. Even if all of Yu Qian's instances worldwide had been destroyed, as long as Xia Wanyuan did not appear, he would not relent.

Jun Shiling insisted. He held Xia Wanyuan's hand tightly, his eyes red. "I'm very selfish. If I say that between you and the child, I'll only choose you. Will you be angry with me?"

Xia Wanyuan shook her head. "But you won't give up on him."

Xia Wanyuan knew Jun Shiling's personality. He would not be willing to let her see Yu Qian, but he would not watch Xiao Bao die. She vaguely guessed what Jun Shiling was about to do.

"Let's talk tomorrow, okay?" Jun Shiling pulled Xia Wanyuan into his arms. "I don't want to talk about this now. I'll make you a cup of tea and rest well. You haven't slept well recently."

Xia Wanyuan nodded. "Mm."

He said that he was going to make tea, but Jun Shiling did not leave immediately. He hugged Xia Wanyuan's waist and kissed her forehead very cherishingly. "I'll always love you."

Xia Wanyuan looked up and met Jun Shiling's deep gaze. "Me too. I'll always love you."

Jun Shiling smiled and stroked Xia Wanyuan's head. "Let's go. I'll sleep with you."

"Okay."

Late at night, looking at the sleeping Xia Wanyuan, Jun Shiling looked at her quietly. After some time, he finally stood up and turned to leave.

As the bedroom door was gently closed, Xia Wanyuan opened her eyes.

At this moment, downstairs, Lin Jing was waiting for Jun Shiling. "CEO Jun."

Jun Shiling turned around and looked upstairs. "Have you prepared the documents I asked you to prepare?"

"Yes, everything is ready." Lin Jing nodded with hesitation on his face. "CEO Jun..."

Before Lin Jing could finish speaking, Jun Shiling gestured to stop him. "There's no need to say anything else. Let's go."

Lin Jing sighed in his heart. In the end, he could only follow Jun Shiling. Their backs disappeared into the night at the same time.

At this moment, in the Lin family, Lin Qingyuan was on the phone with Chu Yi.

"Didn't you say that that vaccine can give us a huge profit?" Lin Qingyuan's voice was filled with anger. "Is this the result you gave me?"

Chu Yi's expression was not good either. "We were all played by Yu Qian."

Lin Qingyuan sneered. "Then who will pay for my losses?"

"Master Lin, don't forget that I've also invested half of my money. Who should I find to compensate me for my losses?"

Their conversation ended unhappily. Lin Qingyuan leaned back in his chair, his eyes slightly cold.

"Master, the medicine we prepared has been returned. The other party replied that it's not effective." The butler walked in.

"Got it." Lin Qingyuan waved his hand. "Go and investigate Yu Qian's movements."

"Yes."

That night, several people did not sleep.

Jun Shiling brought Lin Jing to the island in the middle of the Pacific Ocean. However, just as he was about to go abroad, a ship drove over from afar.

A group of people got off the ship. The leader handed a box to Jun Shiling. "CEO Jun, this is for you from our boss."

Jun Shiling took it and took a look. His expression instantly changed.

He took his phone and called Xia Wanyuan. As expected, her phone was switched off.

He looked straight at the person in front of him. "Where's your boss?"

"He's already gone back."

Jun Shiling tightened his grip on the box and strode back. "Go to Continent F immediately."

"Yes."

At this moment, Beijing was also in chaos. Xiao Bao's condition deepened again, and Shen Xiu even issued a critical illness notice.

Jun Shiling was not around, so Old Master personally brought people to the hospital.

The butler shook his head. “When we woke up, we realized that they had both disappeared.”

“Sigh.” Because of Xiao Bao’s condition, Old Master’s expression was a little gloomy.

Everyone who could make the decision left. At this moment, the manor fell into emptiness. A group of people was quietly approaching the manor.

The manor’s alarm system was quickly triggered and let out a sharp cry. Countless black shadows jumped in from outside the wall. The secret guards of the manor also appeared one after another. Both sides fell into an intense fight.

Lin Jing called the manor a few times, but no one answered.

It was only when their plane had already landed at the airport in Continent F that the call in the manor was connected.

“Something happened.”

Chapter 1436 Abducted

It was late at night in Continent F. Jun Shiling was striding out of the airport and constantly calling outside.

As if sensing something, Jun Shiling turned to look at Lin Jing. “What’s the matter?”

Lin Jing, who had never hesitated, had an obvious anxious expression. “CEO Jun, something happened in Beijing.”

Jun Shiling’s eyes paused. “Tell me.”

“Third Miss, she was snatched away.” Just as Lin Jing finished speaking, the surrounding temperature instantly dropped to the freezing point.

“Where’s the security system set up in the manor?” Before Jun Shiling left, he got someone to upgrade the security standards in the manor to the highest. Logically speaking, it could withstand the highest level of invasion.

Speaking of this, Lin Jing’s expression was a little touched. “Yu Qian should have sent half of his core forces.”

No one would have thought that Yu Qian would break his arms in this way. In the end, they had let down their guard.

Jun Shiling was exceptionally calm at this moment. He looked at Lin Jing. “Go and find Xia Wanyuan first.”

“Yes.”

Lin Jing immediately followed Jun Shiling. He looked at Jun Shiling’s back worriedly.

Even when they got into the car, there was still no change in Jun Shiling's expression. After a while, Jun Shiling looked at Lin Jing. "Do you have a cigarette?"

Lin Jing nodded and took out a cigarette and lighter from the storage room in the car. Jun Shiling took the cigarette and lit it, taking a deep puff.

[He spat out a circle and looked at the gradually retreating lights outside the window. "I should have thought of it."

Xia Wanyuan was so smart and should have thought of his plan long ago. She had been unusually calm recently. Jun Shiling thought that she was worried about Xiao Bao. Now that he thought about it, Xia Wanyuan should have long made plans to leave.

When Jun Shiling went to Yu Qian's base, the vaccine Yu Qian had sent had already been sent back to China.

In the operating theater, Xiao Bao's heart was almost beating in a straight line. At the last moment, he was injected with a vaccine. His weak heart began to beat stronger. Almost instantly, all his vital data began to change for the better.

Shen Xiu sighed heavily. "Fortunately, CEO Jun sent the medicine back in time. If we were a step later, the consequences would be unimaginable."

At this moment, everyone looked very relaxed. Only Bo Xiao's expression was still cold.

Since the virus incident this time was inseparable from Yu Qian, Yu Qian must have obtained what he wanted now that the vaccine was sent over.

Then what was the price?

Bo Xiao took out his phone and called Jun Shiling. The other party continued to show that he was on the phone.

"CEO Jun, we're here." At this moment, Lin Jing and Jun Shiling had already arrived at the city that they had found closest to Yu Qian.

"Go in."

"Yes."

At this moment, in the base, Yu Qian was sitting opposite Xia Wanyuan. Looking at Xia Wanyuan's calm expression, Yu Qian's eyes were filled with interest.

"You're even calmer than I thought. Aren't you afraid that I'll kill you?"

Xia Wanyuan glanced at Yu Qian. "You spent so much effort to bring me over. Are you trying to kill me?"

Yu Qian smiled and handed the glass of water beside him to Xia Wanyuan. "Guess where Jun Shiling is now?"

Hearing Jun Shiling's name, Xia Wanyuan tightened her grip on the table.

"Alright." Yu Qian stood up. "Let's not talk about this anymore. Let's go eat."

“Is it worth it?” Xia Wanyuan suddenly asked.

Although Yu Qian had not told her directly, from her observations in the past two days, Xia Wanyuan could tell that Yu Qian had lost more than half of his forces. His core forces had even been severely injured.

Yu Qian turned around slightly, his side profile blurry in the light. “If I’m willing, it’s worth it.”

Chapter 1437 Yu Qian’s Exception

Yu Qian’s side profile was hidden in the dim light, making one feel a little lonely.

However, Xia Wanyuan could not feel any sympathy for Yu Qian. She glanced at her surroundings.

“Where’s my room?”

Yu Qian really smiled this time. He turned to look at Xia Wanyuan. “You really treat my place as a resort.”

Xia Wanyuan looked straight into Yu Qian’s eyes. She knew very well that against someone like Yu Qian, only by standing in the same position as him could she win his respect. Once she was at a disadvantage, she would really become prey in his hands.

As expected, although Xia Wanyuan’s attitude was extremely arrogant in everyone’s eyes, Yu Qian actually got someone to arrange a room for her in the base. He even sent in many things from outside for Xia Wanyuan to use.

Xia Wanyuan sat on the sofa and drank tea quietly, but she was constantly planning in her heart.

Although she had been blindfolded on the way here, Xia Wanyuan had calculated that it had taken nearly twelve hours to fly here from the Pacific Ocean.

According to the sound of the sea hitting the stern, it could be heard that they had traveled south by boat for nearly three hours, then passed through a relatively long and cold tunnel before finally arriving.

Hence, after Xia Wanyuan’s constant calculations in her heart, she could roughly confirm that she was in the south of Continent F, about two hundred kilometers away from the West Coast.

Although Yu Qian’s various actions were very strange, Xia Wanyuan could feel that Yu Qian had no intention of hurting her.

It was probably because every time she saw Yu Qian, she would always think of something Wei Zimu had once said to her.

That was the last time Xia Wanyuan and Wei Zimu had seen each other.

At that time, after Wei Zimu exchanged greetings with her, the two of them stood by the lake and looked at the pigeons that flew up not far away.

Wei Zimu looked at it for a long time before suddenly turning to look at Xia Wanyuan. “What kind of person do you think Yu Qian is?”

At that time, Xia Wanyuan replied, “Dangerous.”

Wei Zimu smiled at Xia Wanyuan. "You're right, but you never have to worry that he'll hurt you."

Xia Wanyuan asked in confusion, "Why?"

At that time, Wei Zimu only smiled faintly and told Xia Wanyuan firmly, "He will hurt everyone except you."

At that time, Xia Wanyuan still did not know what Wei Zimu meant, but now, Xia Wanyuan seemed to vaguely understand.

After understanding, Xia Wanyuan's heart ached endlessly.

Actually, Wei Zimu was Yu Qian's obsession, and Xia Wanyuan was Wei Zimu's obsession. Wei Zimu used his life as the price to beg for a permanent life-saving talisman for Xia Wanyuan.

Wei Zimu knew Yu Qian the best.

Thinking of this, Xia Wanyuan sighed. She stood up and walked towards the window.

There were a few beautiful orchids by the window that were slowly emitting a fragrance.

Xia Wanyuan walked over and sniffed it. She took a kettle from the side and watered the orchids.

Yu Qian was standing at the door at some point in time. After Xia Wanyuan finished watering, she looked up and saw Yu Qian. "What's the matter?"

At this moment, the light was dim. Xia Wanyuan's facial features were blurry under the light, and there was a faint orchid fragrance at the tip of her nose. In a daze, Yu Qian seemed to see Wei Zimu.

His eyes narrowed. "Aren't you eating?"

Xia Wanyuan touched her stomach. She did not feel it just now, but now, she did feel a little hungry. "Do you have prawns? I want to eat seafood."

As if feeling that this conversation was quite interesting, Yu Qian's eyes flickered. He looked at Xia Wanyuan quietly for a while, then nodded. "I'll get someone to catch them now."

With that, Yu Qian turned to leave, and Xia Wanyuan followed him.

As Xia Wanyuan walked, she looked at the environment of the base.

This place was like a replicated underground city. There was an artificial sun, mountains, rivers, and city streets. If not for the border not far away, one would feel that this was a real city.

After walking for about ten minutes, Yu Qian brought Xia Wanyuan to the dining room. There were not many dishes on the table, and they were very light. Xia Wanyuan knew at a glance that these dishes were Wei Zimu's favorites.

The two of them sat at the dining table for ten minutes before a subordinate brought fresh seafood into the base. Yu Qian gestured for Xia Wanyuan to take her chopsticks. "Eat first. They've already gone to cook seafood. They'll serve it up later."

"You're not eating?"

[Yu Qian shook his head. "I never eat these."

Yu Qian was already used to nutrient solutions. As long as he wanted to, he could not eat any food for a year. He did not like the taste of food, but he liked to watch others eat.

Xia Wanyuan took her chopsticks and quietly began to eat.

Yu Qian sat at the side and looked calmly at Xia Wanyuan, as if he was looking at her, or at someone else through her.

Soon, the subordinate served the cooked seafood. Xia Wanyuan was about to reach for it when Yu Qian took the lead and placed his hand on the edge of the plate. "I'll help you."

Xia Wanyuan glanced at him. "I used to like prawns very much too."

"Huh?" Yu Qian could tell that Xia Wanyuan had something to say.

"Jun Shiling peeled everything I ate for me." When Xia Wanyuan spoke of Jun Shiling, her eyes were clearly filled with longing and softness.

Yu Qian looked at Xia Wanyuan quietly. "Aren't you afraid that I'll kill you?"

"Then kill me." Xia Wanyuan calmly continued eating, ignoring Yu Qian's cold gaze.

After a while, Yu Qian retracted his hand from the plate and leaned back in his chair to watch Xia Wanyuan eat. "After dinner, prepare to teach me."

"What class?" Xia Wanyuan looked at Yu Qian in surprise.

"Anything. You can teach me whatever you want." Yu Qian tapped his fingers gently on the table, making little sounds.

"Mm."

Although he said that he wanted Xia Wanyuan to teach, in fact, after dinner, Yu Qian even got someone to bring Xia Wanyuan back to her room for a two-hour lunch break before getting someone to bring her to the hall.

Whether it was Xia Wanyuan or the others in the base, they could not understand Yu Qian's thoughts.

There were other women in the base, but they were basically puppets. They had never seen Yu Qian treat someone so gently, as if he had restrained all his temper.

Because of Yu Qian's preferential treatment of Xia Wanyuan, the others unknowingly became more polite and respectful to her.

Xia Wanyuan casually chose a painting to explain to Yu Qian. Yu Qian leaned back in his chair and listened with interest.

Just as Xia Wanyuan was halfway through her sentence, a subordinate suddenly walked over.

Yu Qian opened his eyes. "Tell me."

The subordinate lowered his head respectfully. "Jun Shiling sent someone to send a letter."

Hearing her subordinate's words, Xia Wanyuan stopped what she was doing. She looked at the letter in her subordinate's hand and her determination cracked.

She thought that Jun Shiling must be looking for her crazily.

Yu Qian glanced at Xia Wanyuan, then reached out to take the letter from his subordinate.

Sensing Xia Wanyuan's gaze, Yu Qian raised an eyebrow. "Do you want to know what's inside?"

"What are your conditions?"

Yu Qian shook his head. "There are no conditions. I might as well tell you that Jun Shiling is willing to use the markets of Continent F and Continent M in exchange for 100 billion in cash just to let you go back."

At this point, interest appeared in Yu Qian's eyes. "Tsk tsk, looks like you're really his treasure. He's willing to pay such a huge price to exchange for you to go back."

Xia Wanyuan's hand that was holding the book trembled slightly, but she did not show it on her face.

Yu Qian looked at Xia Wanyuan for a while. Seeing that she did not seem to have any reaction, he smiled and shook his head. "Why don't you guess if I'll agree?"

Xia Wanyuan's face was cold. "You won't."

The corners of Yu Qian's lips curled up slightly. "How smart. How can I bear to let such a smart person like you go?"

With that, Yu Qian stood up, placed the letter on the table, and stood up to leave. "Let's go. It's rare to see Jun Shiling sad. I have to see him now."

Watching Yu Qian's back disappear at the door, Xia Wanyuan took the letter from the table.

This letter was handwritten by Jun Shiling. From the hurried and heavy handwriting, one could tell the sorrow in Jun Shiling's heart when he wrote this letter.

Looking at the familiar words, Xia Wanyuan's eyes turned red. She reached out and gently stroked the words on the letter.

Ever since she arrived, Xia Wanyuan had always looked very calm. However, at this moment, the familiar words made the longing in Xia Wanyuan's heart spread.

She missed Jun Shiling and the children in the manor.

Xia Wanyuan blinked her eyelashes, and her tears gently dripped onto the letter.

However, the moment her tears landed on the letter, Xia Wanyuan suddenly realized that faint words had appeared on the letter.

"Wait for me."

Along with these words floated a map of Continent M. There were dense black dots distributed on it. Every black dot represented the stronghold Jun Shiling controlled.

Xia Wanyuan could see that the nearest stronghold was only one city away.

The subordinate guarding the door saw that Xia Wanyuan was crying and looked over curiously. Xia Wanyuan still maintained her posture of reading the letter, then held the letter. Only when the handwriting on the paper was completely dry did Xia Wanyuan put the letter away and put it back.

At this moment, in a city on the ground, Jun Shiling was sitting at his desk, looking at the map in his hand with a cold expression.

“Has the letter been sent?”

“Yu Qian is already on his way.”

“Have you found out where he came from?”

“No.” Lin Jing shook his head. “He’s very cautious. He suddenly appeared from a city in the south of Continent F. We didn’t find any traces of him.”

Just as the two of them were talking, there was a knock on the door and a subordinate walked in. “CEO Jun, Yu Qian is here.”

Jun Shiling stood up and brought Lin Jing out. Soon, they arrived at the international sea that he had agreed with Yu Qian.

Yu Qian stood on the deck and smiled at Jun Shiling. “Good afternoon, CEO Jun. Long time no see.”

“What condition do you want?”

Chapter 1438 Kneel

Yu Qian narrowed his eyes, as if he was not surprised that Jun Shiling would say this. He chuckled. “CEO Jun, when I wanted to discuss conditions with you previously, you didn’t even show your face.”

Jun Shiling walked up to Yu Qian and looked straight at him. “You can have the entire Jun Corporation if you want it.”

Looking at Jun Shiling’s deep eyes, the corners of Yu Qian’s lips suddenly curled up. “Is Xia Wanyuan worth you exchanging the Jun Corporation for?”

“She’s worth it.”

Yu Qian’s eyes flickered as he asked Jun Shiling, “Do you think you’re the only one who feels that Xia Wanyuan’s value far exceeds the Jun Corporation?”

Jun Shiling’s expression darkened.

Seeing that Jun Shiling, who had always been calm, had finally changed his expression, Yu Qian felt a hint of joy. He stared into Jun Shiling’s eyes.

“To be honest, after enjoying your wife last night, I think she’s indeed more valuable than the entire Jun Corporation...”

Before Yu Qian could finish speaking, Jun Shiling had already aimed the gun at his forehead. Jun Shiling’s eyes were filled with waves as he pounced on Yu Qian.

Looking at the black muzzle, not only was Yu Qian not afraid, but he even shrugged very relaxedly.
“Shoot.”

Jun Shiling almost crushed the gun. He gritted his teeth. After some time, he finally moved the gun away from Yu Qian.

“What exactly do you want?”

Yu Qian tilted his head. “Is it very difficult to understand? I only want Xia Wanyuan. How interesting is it to play with your Jun Shiling’s woman?”

With that, Yu Qian looked at Jun Shiling’s expression with interest. However, to his surprise, Jun Shiling was actually very calm this time.

Yu Qian felt that it was a little boring. He clicked his tongue. “Actually, I still have some other requests. For example, I’ve always wanted to know how it feels to make the famous CEO Jun kneel to me.”

Hearing Yu Qian’s words, Lin Jing, who was behind Jun Shiling, suddenly looked up with obvious anger in his eyes.

Jun Shiling’s expression was calm. “I want to confirm her safety.”

Yu Qian smiled. “Okay.”

With that, Yu Qian clicked on the communicator. Soon, Xia Wanyuan’s voice came from the communicator.

She knew that Yu Qian must have gone to see Jun Shiling, so she called out to him anxiously.

Hearing Xia Wanyuan’s voice, the calmness on Jun Shiling’s face instantly shattered. His eyes were red.

Yu Qian hung up the communicator. “CEO Jun, let me see your sincerity.”

The sky was already gloomy, and now, it was even denser. Lightning was brewing in the clouds, as if it wanted to destroy everything. The waves surged and kept hitting the side of the ship.

Jun Shiling lowered his eyes and the veins on his forehead bulged. The subordinate behind him wanted to stop him, but he was stopped by Lin Jing. Lin Jing’s expression was not good either. He quietly shook his head at the others.

Everyone was waiting when Jun Shiling suddenly moved. He took a step back, then bent one leg. The moment his knee landed, heavy rain poured.

Although Jun Shiling was kneeling, his back was straight, and his soul that was as firm as a mountain still stood.

Looking at Jun Shiling in the rain, Yu Qian should have been very happy. After all, Jun Shiling was his old enemy.

However, at this moment, looking at Jun Shiling, who was kneeling down to him for Xia Wanyuan, Yu Qian suddenly felt disinterested.

He could not tell what he was feeling. It was as if all the air had been sucked out of him.

Yu Qian smiled mockingly. "I really didn't expect... Actually, even if you don't kneel to me, CEO Jun, I won't take your wife's life. Actually, I'm looking forward to the day when Xia Wanyuan holds my hand and walks to you. How will you feel?"

"Impossible."

"Then let's wait and see." With that, Yu Qian turned around and left.

After Yu Qian's back disappeared into the wind and rain, Jun Shiling still did not get up. He knelt in the wind and rain, covered in rain.

Lin Jing got everyone to retreat and stood quietly at the side.

"Have you found it?" Jun Shiling asked.

"I have a general direction, but I can't confirm the exact location."

"She gave me a hint just now. It's more than ninety kilometers away from the coast."

Lin Jing looked at Jun Shiling in surprise. "Okay, I'll get someone to investigate immediately. CEO Jun, do you want to get up first?"

Jun Shiling waved his hand. "Go first."

"Yes."

Lin Jing could only turn around and leave. After walking for a long time, he turned around. In the vast world, Jun Shiling's back revealed great sorrow.

Chapter 1439 Chaos

Black clouds pressed down, and the rain between heaven and earth dripped like pearls. Jun Shiling lowered his head and let the rain wash over him.

Ever since Xia Wanyuan left, Jun Shiling had not rested. Now that the rain dripped from his head, Jun Shiling seemed to be in an icehouse, and his scalp was cold.

The moment he closed his eyes, he could see Xia Wanyuan's figure. Jun Shiling clenched his fists tightly, his eyes red from the rain.

When Lin Jing arranged everything to report the situation to Jun Shiling, he saw Jun Shiling lying on the deck.

Lin Jing hurriedly went forward to help Jun Shiling up. "Shen Xiu! Come here quickly!!"

On the other hand, Yu Qian left the sea and returned to the base.

"Where is she?"

"Miss Xia just ate and is already resting," the subordinate replied respectfully.

Yu Qian sneered. "She can actually sleep."

With that, Yu Qian strode towards Xia Wanyuan's room.

Yu Qian pushed open the bedroom door and walked straight in. The bedroom was filled with antique furnishings. The furniture was all expensive sandalwood. There was a bottle of lotus flowers that had just been plucked on the desk.

Xia Wanyuan lay on the bed with her clothes on. Hearing Yu Qian enter, Xia Wanyuan turned around. "What's the matter?"

Looking at Xia Wanyuan's calm expression, Yu Qian frowned slightly. "Aren't you curious about Jun Shiling's situation?"

Xia Wanyuan lowered her eyes. "Will you tell me?"

"Of course."

"Then tell me."

Yu Qian moved a chair and sat by Xia Wanyuan's bed. "I told him that you look very beautiful under me."

To Yu Qian's surprise, even after hearing this, Xia Wanyuan's expression did not change at all. "So what?"

Xia Wanyuan looked up at Yu Qian. "Even if I am violated, he will still love me as much as ever."

When Xia Wanyuan said this, her eyes were filled with unhesitating conviction. Yu Qian could not understand. "Haven't you Chinese always considered yourself to be traditional?? Isn't it most particular about being together for life? Your current reaction doesn't look like a Chinese at all."

At this moment, the confusion in Yu Qian's eyes was real. He had thought that people with arrogant pride like Xia Wanyuan and Jun Shiling could not tolerate their lovers being tainted by others the most.

Xia Wanyuan glanced at Yu Qian with a hint of pity. "No matter what Jun Shiling becomes, I'll still love him as always, just as he will love me. You'll never understand."

Xia Wanyuan's words seemed to have angered Yu Qian. He waved his hand and a few subordinates instantly walked in. "This woman is your reward."

The subordinates looked at Yu Qian in horror.

Everyone had seen Yu Qian's attitude towards Xia Wanyuan in the past two days. They were even about to think that Xia Wanyuan was the next mistress of the base.

However, now that Yu Qian had given such an order, everyone looked at each other and hesitated to go forward.

Looking at Xia Wanyuan's unmoved expression, anger appeared in Yu Qian's eyes. "If you don't go, then go and receive your punishment."

His subordinates immediately stepped forward and approached Xia Wanyuan.

Not only did Xia Wanyuan not move, but she even glanced at these people.

She was beautiful to begin with. Even a light glance could make the blood of his subordinates boil. Yu Qian sat at the side.

Seeing that his subordinates' hands were about to touch Xia Wanyuan's shoulder, Yu Qian finally stood up. "Get out."

A subordinate was bewitched by Xia Wanyuan's appearance and did not notice Yu Qian's words for a moment. His pinky touched Xia Wanyuan and was kicked to the ground by Yu Qian in the next second.

Yu Qian's expression darkened. "The two of you are really good."

With that, Yu Qian strode away. His subordinates hurriedly followed fearfully. As for the subordinate who had touched Xia Wanyuan, he had just left the room when he was thrown into the punishment room.

Although Jun Shiling had already gotten someone to completely seal the news, everyone naturally had a guess after not seeing Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan appear publicly for so many days.

The strange illness was finally eliminated, and everyone heaved a sigh of relief. In the peaceful world, everyone began to pay attention to all sorts of entertainment news.

The Oscar award ceremony was about to be held. The promotional videos sent from various countries had already been gathered. Only the promotional video of "Under the Sky" had not been sent over.

In the studio, Chen Yun was still stunned. Ever since Lu Li disappeared, Xia Wanyuan had also disappeared. He tried to look for Jun Shiling to ask about Xia Wanyuan, but Jun Shiling had disappeared too.

Chen Yun vaguely felt uneasy. This was too abnormal. There were so many things waiting for Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan to do in China, but the two of them had disappeared at the same time.

Just as Chen Yun was deep in thought, Shen Qian walked in. "Mr. Chen."

"CEO Shen, don't ask me. I'm also looking for Wanyuan now, but I can't contact her." Chen Yun was worried.

"Okay." Shen Qian nodded. "I understand. Don't be too anxious. I'll look for her now."

"Okay."

Although Xia Wanyuan was not around, he still had to continue with his daily work. The organizers of the Auschwitz Ceremony had already urged him several times. Chen Yun thought for a while and could only replace the scenes about Xia Wanyuan with those in the drama.

Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan did not appear for a long time. Gradually, everyone realized that something was wrong. All sorts of rumors began to appear.

The fans were worried about Xia Wanyuan and began to seek news of her on Weibo. However, all news of Xia Wanyuan ended a week ago. Then, she seemed to have disappeared into thin air.

Wei Jin and Mu Feng rushed back to Beijing. Bo Xiao and An Rao had been taking care of Xiao Bao in the hospital.

After careful treatment by the doctors, Xiao Bao had gradually recovered. His face was rosy and he returned to his usual liveliness.

Wei Jin and Mu Feng came to see Xiao Bao with snacks and biscuits. Xiao Bao greeted them happily, but after the commotion, there was a hint of disappointment in Xiao Bao's eyes. He looked at Bo Xiao.

"Uncle Bo, Auntie Wei and Uncle Mu came to visit me. Why didn't Daddy and Mommy come? I miss them." After falling sick, children were easier to stick to their parents. Xiao Bao had not seen Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan for too long. Now, just mentioning the two of them made Xiao Bao's eyes tear up.

Bo Xiao stroked Xiao Bao's head with heartache. "They're very busy with work. Look, aren't Uncle Bo and your Auntie An Rao accompanying you?"

Bo Xiao had used such a reason too many times recently. Xiao Bao lowered his head pitifully. "Is it because I'm sick, so Daddy and Mommy don't want me anymore?"

At this point, Xiao Bao lifted his sleeve for Bo Xiao to see. "I took injections obediently and drank medicine on time every day. My illness has already recovered. Uncle Bo, tell Daddy and Mommy that I'll be good and ask them not to leave me, okay?"

Hearing Xiao Bao's words, An Rao could not take it anymore. She endured her tears and left.

Chapter 1440 Sensible

Hearing Xiao Bao's words, Bo Xiao felt uncomfortable. He hugged Xiao Bao. "It's not like that. Do you believe Uncle Bo?"

Xiao Bao shook his head. "Daddy and Mommy lied to me, and Uncle Bo lied to me too."

Bo Xiao's heart ached. "I'll call your father, okay? He didn't abandon you."

"Mm." Xiao Bao nodded, his eyes filled with anticipation.

Bo Xiao called Jun Shiling. The phone rang for a long time before it was picked up.

"Hello." Lin Jing's voice came from the phone.

"Lin Jing, how's Jun Shiling?" Bo Xiao stroked Xiao Bao's hair, signaling him not to be too anxious.

Lin Jing was silent for a rare moment. "CEO Jun is being treated in the hospital. The doctor said that he's too depressed."

Bo Xiao tightened his grip on his phone. "Then tell Xiao Bao."

By the time he talked to Xiao Bao, Lin Jing had already regained his rationality. He smiled and promised Xiao Bao, "When you wake up tomorrow morning, you can call your father, okay?"

Xiao Bao was skeptical. "Really?"

"Mm." Lin Jing nodded. "Really."

"Okay."

After hanging up, Xiao Bao was happy again. He looked at Bo Xiao with curved eyes. "Uncle Bo, can I go out now?"

"Sure." Bo Xiao carried Xiao Bao to the ground. "Our Xiao Bao is already a healthy baby."

Xiao Bao ran out happily. "I'm home to see Sister!!!"

Xiao Bao was taken away by Old Master Jun. Bo Xiao walked out and gently patted An Rao's shoulder.

An Rao turned around and pounced into Bo Xiao's arms. "What should we do? Will Yuan Yuan be fine?"

Bo Xiao quietly stroked An Rao's hair. "I'll contact Jun Shiling when he wakes up. Don't worry too much now."

"Mm." Although he said that, An Rao could not help but worry.

She and Bo Xiao did not know much and did not know where Xia Wanyuan had gone. However, Xia Wanyuan had not returned for so long. She must have encountered a huge danger.

Night finally fell in Continent F, but the base was like eternal day.

Xia Wanyuan glanced at the watch beside her and estimated that she should go to sleep.

Just as she picked up the towel, the door opened and Yu Qian stood quietly outside.

Xia Wanyuan ignored him and walked to the side to wet the towel with water, then slowly wiped her face.

Yu Qian stood at the door for a while. He did not enter and stood there quietly looking at Xia Wanyuan.

It was only when Xia Wanyuan was already lying on the bed that Yu Qian finally said, "When did you contact each other?"

Xia Wanyuan's heart skipped a beat, but her expression did not change. "What are you saying? I don't understand."

"Don't play dumb with me." Yu Qian narrowed his eyes. "Jun Shiling is searching the ground now. It's impossible for him to find this place so quickly, unless someone leaked a secret to him. I've really underestimated you."

Xia Wanyuan sat up and looked at Yu Qian. "What do you want?"

Yu Qian's answer was one word. "You."

It was clearly an answer that made one's imagination run wild, but when Yu Qian said this answer, there was no charm in his eyes.

"Are you done? I'm going to sleep. Please close the door." Xia Wanyuan did not want to talk to Yu Qian anymore. She covered herself with the blanket and closed her eyes.

After a long time, Xia Wanyuan heard Yu Qian take a step back, then the door closed.

Xia Wanyuan's eyelashes trembled slightly, and a heavy worry appeared in her heart.

She wondered how Jun Shiling was doing now.

At this moment, a large number of helicopters were searching the ground.

“CEO Jun, we’ve searched this area, but there’s no trace at all.” The subordinate came to report. “It looks the same as the previous places. There’s nothing special. Could we have been misled by the other party?”

Jun Shiling shook his head. “Right here.”

Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan would discuss the art of war together in their free time. Sometimes, when it came to secret signals, the two of them agreed on some special ways to transmit news. Even the pause between words could be used to transmit their news to each other.

Jun Shiling believed that Xia Wanyuan must be here. He ordered in a low voice, “Here, investigate.”

“Yes.”

After the subordinate left, Lin Jing brought Jun Shiling’s medicine over. “CEO Jun, take some medicine first.”

Initially, the doctor had already warned Jun Shiling that his body needed to recuperate and that he could not run around outside and tire himself out. However, the moment Jun Shiling opened his eyes, he got off the bed and brought people to look for Xia Wanyuan.

Looking at the medicine in front of him, Jun Shiling waved his hand. “Take it away. I’m not drinking it.”

Lin Jing wanted to persuade him again, but Jun Shiling’s phone rang.

It was Xiao Bao.

The phone rang for a long time before Jun Shiling finally reached out and pressed the answer button.

“Daddy!!” Finally seeing Jun Shiling, Xiao Bao’s eyes sparkled with joy. “Daddy, when will you come back?? Where’s Mommy??”

Seeing Xiao Bao’s innocent smile, Jun Shiling’s eyes finally had some warmth. He looked at Xiao Bao. “Your mother is in danger now. I need to look for her. Will you be good?”

Old Master Jun wanted to stop Jun Shiling from telling Xiao Bao this news, but before he could snatch the phone, Jun Shiling had already finished speaking.

Shocked by this sudden news, Xiao Bao was stunned for a long time before reacting. “Daddy, what danger did Mommy encounter?”

“She might never come back.”

Xiao Bao was even more stunned. He held his phone in a daze and looked flustered.

Jun Shiling looked straight at him. “Will you wait for us to come back obediently?”

Xiao Bao was stunned for a long time before finally nodding heavily. “Mm, Daddy. I’ll wait for you and Mommy to come back together.”

Jun Shiling forced a smile at Xiao Bao. "Good boy."

With that, Jun Shiling hung up.

On the other hand, Old Master Jun was worried that Xiao Bao would be affected and hurriedly walked over to hug him. "My good Xiao Bao, don't be sad."

However, Xiao Bao calmly patted Old Master's arm and looked straight at him with his round eyes. "Great-grandfather, I'm very obedient. I'm going to study."

Looking at Xiao Bao's calm expression, for some reason, Old Master's eyes suddenly welled up. "Good child, rest for two days. You've just been discharged."

Xiao Bao shook his head and looked at Old Master seriously. "Great-grandfather, I want to become stronger and protect Mommy."

With that, Xiao Bao picked up his school bag and turned to walk upstairs.

Old Master Jun watched from behind and could not help but wipe the tears from the corners of his eyes.

Xiao Bao carried his heavy school bag upstairs. When he passed the corner, he finally could not help but tear up.
