

Modern Day 1461

Chapter 1461 Acquaintance

This was an extremely luxurious villa. Flowers bloomed, and it was completely different from the desert from before. There was life everywhere.

Seeing that Xia Wei was in a daze, the bodyguard touched him disdainfully. "Make Boss happy and your life will be saved."

"What if I can't make her happy?"

"You can't coax her?" The bodyguard looked at Xia Wei mockingly. "I can only tell you that before you, there are already 20 men buried in this garden."

As the two of them spoke, a person not far away drove in and wanted to barge in. The bodyguard fired and instantly killed the intruder.

Looking at the muzzle that was still emitting black smoke in front of him, Xia Wei's eyes narrowed.

Thousands of thoughts flashed across his mind in an instant. Xia Wei quickly adjusted his expression and looked at the bodyguard. "What freedom do I have here?"

"Freedom?" The bodyguard was amused by Xia Wei's words. "You just have the freedom to walk around your courtyard."

"Can I watch television?" Xia Wei suddenly asked, startling the bodyguard.

"Up to you." The bodyguard could not be bothered to talk nonsense with Xia Wei anymore. He looked at the time. "Alright, I'll bring you in. I'm going to the training."

"Mm."

The outside of the villa looked big, but the inside was even bigger. Xia Wei had his own courtyard. He walked into the room and looked around. He did not recognize all the appliances.

"I don't know how to use these. Can you find someone to teach me?" Xia Wei's tone was very gentle, and it could even be said to be a little fawning.

However, when he met Xia Wei's cold eyes, the bodyguard could not help but nod. "Okay, I'll do it immediately."

The bodyguard found a servant to explain the usage of various machines to Xia Wei. Xia Wei learned after watching the demonstration once. He smiled kindly at the servant. "Thank you. I want to rest."

The door closed and Xia Wei turned on the television.

He had heard from the doctor that television contained all sorts of things. If he wanted to understand current events, watching television was the best choice.

He turned on the television according to what the servant had taught him just now. However, the moment the television was turned on, Xia Wei's heart skipped a beat.

“Under the Sky” had won a grand slam award at the Os ceremony. Not only was it especially popular in the country, but foreign television stations were also broadcasting this television drama.

On the television, Xia Wanyuan was slowly walking over from the stream in the mountains.

Looking at her cool eyes, Xia Wei’s eyes even turned red for a moment.

This was his royal sister. He knew.

Xia Wanyuan’s temperament was unique. It was impossible for Xia Wei, who had grown up by her side, to be wrong.

A smile finally appeared in Xia Wei’s gloomy eyes. My royal sister is also in this world.

Looking at Xia Wanyuan’s lustrous complexion, Xia Wei felt that Xia Wanyuan should be doing well, and the worry in his heart lessened.

He looked at his surroundings and his expression froze.

That Chu Man had saved him, but at the same time, she had trapped him in this place. He had to think of a way to go out and look for Xia Wanyuan as soon as possible.

At this moment, in the hall in front, Chu Man leaned back in her chair lazily. “How’s my good brother’s relationship with K recently??”

The subordinate lowered his head respectfully. “Not good. The last time Young Master joined forces with Sea Shark to ambush K, K rarely appeared recently. He even completely fell out with Sea Shark.”

“Really?” Chu Man raised her eyebrows slightly. “As the saying goes, the enemy of my enemy is my friend. Since my good brother and K have fallen out, go and prepare a generous gift for me. I’ve been in Continent F for so long, but I’ve never gotten to know K.”

“Yes.”

Chapter 1462 Studying Medicine

After the subordinate left, Chu Man looked at the butler. “Where’s that man?”

“He was sent to the backyard.”

“Get him to come and eat with me later.”

“Yes.”

Xia Wei was still wearing the rough long robe he had brought out of the valley and had long hair.

Seeing him like this, displeasure flashed across the butler’s eyes. “Our Miss Chu hates long-haired men the most. I’ll get someone to cut your hair later.”

To Xia Wei, he received his body, hair and skin from his parents, so any damage was disrespectful to his ancestors.

However, Xia Wei was deeply influenced by Xia Wanyuan. He knew very well that being pedantic would only bring trouble. In the current situation, he could not be too different from the others.

Xia Wei did not reject the butler's suggestion. He nodded. "Okay, sorry to trouble you."

The stylist arrived quickly. After so many days, Xia Wei had finally taken a thorough hot shower. He sat in front of the mirror and allowed the stylist to cut his hair.

Xia Wei half-closed his eyes and took a nap until the stylist's exclamation brought him out of his thoughts.

Xia Wei opened his eyes and saw his new self in the mirror.

His facial features were extremely good. After his long hair was cut, he was less elegant and more agile. He had sharp eyebrows and starry eyes. The butler sighed.

No wonder he received preferential treatment from Chu Man. Such a temperament was really rare.

During dinner, Xia Wei ate with Chu Man. Chu Man was also stunned by Xia Wei for a moment. She held the red wine glass and the corners of her lips curled up slightly. "I think I picked up a treasure??"

Xia Wei unbuttoned his suit jacket and sat beside Chu Man. "Can we start eating? I'm a little hungry."

Chu Man's gaze darted around Xia Wei's face, and there was obvious interest in her eyes. "Of course."

Base.

Children grew up very quickly. When she first arrived, Little Xiaxia was still a little bean. Now, she had grown up a little more than before, and her facial features were even more exquisite. Just sitting there quietly, she looked like a little doll.

The base was silent all year round, especially beside Yu Qian. Everyone's breathing was especially soft. However, in the past few days, Yu Qian had been the most lively in the entire base.

After all, Little Xiaxia loved to smile. When she laughed, it was like golden beans touching a bell, emitting a series of crisp and pleasant laughter.

Little Xiaxia was beautiful. When she smiled, the clarity in her eyes was irresistible. The people here had been trained to be numb and emotionless since they were young.

"Ah..." Looking at the test tube in Yu Qian's hand, Little Xiaxia waved her hand. It looked like candy and she wanted to eat it.

Yu Qian tilted his body slightly and removed Little Xiaxia's hand. "You can't eat this."

Looking at Little Xiaxia's expression, Yu Qian was not angry. He took out a candy from his pocket and brought it to Little Xiaxia's mouth. "Eat this."

Little Xiaxia did not want to do it. She crawled towards Yu Qian from the table, grabbed Yu Qian's sleeve, and looked at him pitifully.

Looking at Little Xiaxia's bambi-like eyes, Yu Qian raised an eyebrow. "No."

Little Xiaxia's eyes became even more moist. She looked like she was about to cry and was very difficult to coax.

Yu Qian frowned slightly and repeated, "You can't eat this."

Hearing Yu Qian's cold tone, the people standing beside him looked at each other. Some had even taken a step back, ready to run at any time.

In the past, when Yu Qian spoke in this tone, it meant that someone was about to disappear from this world.

However, to everyone's surprise, to Little Xiaxia, she could not sense that Yu Qian was angry at all. In her opinion, Yu Qian was just a little different from usual. His eyebrows seemed to be a little higher than before.

Little Xiaxia reached out and gently stroked Yu Qian's eyebrows, as if she wanted to flatten them.

Feeling the warmth of Little Xiaxia's fingertips, Yu Qian paused for a moment. He looked at Little Xiaxia's pure eyes and the impatience in his heart was inexplicably soothed.

"Get someone to make a candy that looks like a test tube. Make it bitter." Yu Qian looked at the person beside him and instructed.

"Yes."

Soon, a test tube-like soft candy was brought over. Yu Qian handed it to Little Xiaxia.

The moment it entered her mouth, Little Xiaxia's tongue was stunned by the extremely bitter taste.

The next second, she spat out the thing with a crying expression. She could not say anything and could only look at Yu Qian aggrievedly.

The corners of Yu Qian's lips curled up slightly. "Are you still eating this in the future?"

Looking at the test tube in front of her, Little Xiaxia reached out and pushed it away. She looked at Yu Qian with a pair of pure eyes as if asking for help.

Yu Qian reached out and threw all the test tubes in front of him into the trash can. Then, he pulled Little Xiaxia into his arms. "You're not allowed to touch this in the future."

It was unknown if Little Xiaxia understood, but she kept holding Yu Qian's sleeve and smiling.

Yu Qian felt that she was fun and reached out to pinch Little Xiaxia's face. Yu Qian felt that she was fun and reached out to pinch Little Xiaxia's face.

He had never interacted with others, but now, feeling the warm skin on his fingertips, Yu Qian did not feel any discomfort.

At this moment, a subordinate walked over from the door. "Boss, there's a message from the Burning Rose."

Hearing these words, Yu Qian looked up slightly. "She returned to Continent F?"

"Yes." The subordinate nodded respectfully. "The Chu family already knows. They haven't contacted her yet. The first person Chu Man contacted after returning was you."

"Mm, what letter did she send?"

"She wants to meet you."

Yu Qian thought for a while and nodded. "Sure."

Although Chu Man's surname was also Chu, Chu Man had been chased out of the Chu family back then. Her deep hatred for the Chu family was probably deeper than the Chu family and the Feng family.

Chu Man must have found him to deal with Chu Yi.

Yu Qian carried Little Xiaxia and stood up. He looked at his subordinate. "Where's Xia Wanyuan?"

"She's practicing at the shooting range."

Yu Qian brought Little Xiaxia to the shooting range. Before they approached, they could hear the deafening sound of bullets. This was a real training ground with all sorts of high-quality weapons.

Xia Wanyuan stood in the field and trained. Sweat had already soaked her clothes.

Seeing Yu Qian walk over, Xia Wanyuan narrowed her eyes and aimed the gun at him.

Yu Qian slowly walked towards Xia Wanyuan with a calm expression. He glanced at the target in front of him. "Your skills are not bad."

Xia Wanyuan moved the gun away and glanced at Yu Qian's hand that was hugging Little Xiaxia. "Is her eating today normal?"

"She ate very well." Speaking of this, Yu Qian's eyes lit up. "Your child is much more likable than other children."

Chapter 1463 Siblings Meet

Xia Wanyuan put the gun aside and took a towel to wipe the sweat off her forehead. "Are you planning to keep me here like this?"

"Of course not." Yu Qian looked at Xia Wanyuan's even more lustrous face after the exercise. His eyes flickered. "In the future, work with me."

"I'll do things with you?" Xia Wanyuan looked at Yu Qian in confusion. "Aren't you worried that I'll destroy your matters?"

Xia Wanyuan knew that Yu Qian would not harm her life, but she did not expect Yu Qian to be so tolerant of her. During this period of time, not only could she move freely in the entire base, but she could also enter when Yu Qian was in a meeting.

Sometimes, Xia Wanyuan really did not know what Yu Qian was thinking.

Hearing Xia Wanyuan's words, Yu Qian was neither angry nor angry. Instead, there was a hint of interest in his eyes. "That should be quite interesting, provided you have the ability."

Yu Qian did not mind. If she could understand this place more, Xia Wanyuan naturally would not reject him. She smiled faintly. "Okay, I have another matter."

"Tell me."

"I want to learn medicine from you. Teach me." Xia Wanyuan's tone was not fawning. Instead, it was a little commanding.

Yu Qian looked at Xia Wanyuan for a while. Xia Wanyuan looked straight into his eyes with a hint of provocation.

"Okay." To everyone's surprise, Yu Qian agreed. "Follow me to the laboratory later."

"Mm."

"There's something else." Yu Qian carried Little Xiaxia and was about to leave when he suddenly turned around as if he had thought of something. "From now on, you're my assistant. Come with me to the meeting tomorrow."

"Mm." Xia Wanyuan nodded.

The assistant beside Yu Qian could not help but turn to look at Xia Wanyuan. The inner strength on Xia Wanyuan that seemed to be able to conquer everything was shockingly tenacious.

The assistant turned to look at Yu Qian. "Boss."

"Tell me."

"This Xia Wanyuan, you gave her so much freedom. If she does anything to harm you..."

When Xia Wanyuan first arrived at the base, everyone felt that this woman was so unyielding and arrogant. She would definitely not live for more than a week. However, no one expected that not only did Xia Wanyuan survive, but she was also living quite well.

The free space she had was getting bigger and bigger. Now, she could even become Yu Qian's personal assistant. This was equivalent to replacing Jayce's previous position. They did not know Yu Qian's thoughts. They only felt that if this continued, there would really be a problem.

Yu Qian stopped and turned to look at Xia Wanyuan, who was shooting. "Don't you think this is more interesting??"

The assistant did not understand Yu Qian's words. He looked up at Yu Qian with a confused expression. "What do you mean?"

Xia Wanyuan was looking at the target opposite her. With a slight movement of her wrist, the bullet pierced straight into the center. Xia Wanyuan retracted her gun, her exquisite side profile revealing endless confidence. She stood there quietly, her mountain-like determined soul inexplicably attracting the attention of others.

Yu Qian's eyes flickered. This world was so boring. It was rare to have an interesting person. Why would I lock her in a cage? He wanted to see how much commotion Xia Wanyuan could cause.

Yu Qian said that he wanted to teach Xia Wanyuan medicine, so he was not vague at all.

In the afternoon, Yu Qian brought Xia Wanyuan into his laboratory. Xia Wanyuan did not know much about medicine, but she could feel that Yu Qian had taught her quite core knowledge.

Xia Wanyuan learned very seriously and comprehended quickly. Soon, she could do some simple surgeries. Even Yu Qian looked sideways. "As expected, smart people learn everything quickly."

"You taught me well," Xia Wanyuan said politely.

Yu Qian retracted his gaze. "That's all for today's training. Go back and rest. Follow me out tomorrow."

After Yu Qian left, Xia Wanyuan looked at the medicine in front of her and was a little excited.

She could finally leave this place for the time being. The fake world was still the fake world. Even though everything in the base was done the same as on the ground, it gave off a rather oppressive feeling.

Taking this opportunity, she could go out and see what it was like outside.

The next morning, Yu Qian brought Xia Wanyuan out.

The assistant took the blindfold and wanted to put it on Xia Wanyuan. Everyone who entered and left the base wore the blindfold like this because they had to prevent them from revealing confidential information and the location of the base to outsiders.

However, when the blindfold was handed to Xia Wanyuan, she rejected it. She looked at Yu Qian. "Are you still afraid that I'll see what's outside?"

Looking at Xia Wanyuan's bright eyes, Yu Qian waved his hand. "There's no need to wear it. Play a round of chess with me."

It was indeed a pity if such beautiful eyes were covered by a piece of cloth.

Xia Wanyuan sat beside Yu Qian, took the chess piece, and began to play with him. Their temperaments were completely different, but their chess skills were equally profound, so they fought back and forth.

After some time, the plane finally landed. Xia Wanyuan looked out and saw a vast sea.

Yu Qian threw a mask in front of Xia Wanyuan. "Put this on."

With that, Yu Qian stood up and walked out. Xia Wanyuan followed.

At this moment, on the boat beside her, Chu Man lay on the soft couch and glanced at Xia Wei, who was not far away. "Your tea is not bad."

Xia Wei smiled slightly. "You flatter me."

Chu Man sat up and stretched. "I'll go out first. Stay here and make me a cup of tea when I come back."

"Okay."

Chu Man casually put on a coat and walked out of the cabin. Xia Wei sat on the sofa and looked to the side.

Chu Man was talking to a tall man. Xia Wei was about to retract his gaze when he saw the masked person beside the man and frowned in confusion.

Why did I feel that this person gave me a very familiar feeling?

However, isn't my sister a celebrity and is acting? How could she be here?

Xia Wei thought that he had missed Xia Wanyuan too much and had seen wrongly. He retracted his gaze and began to brew tea again.

At this moment, in the cabin on the other side, Chu Man and Yu Qian sat down. Chu Man took a cup and drank a mouthful of water. "Tsk, this tea is really not good. I brought someone over. His tea is brewed quite well. I'll let him try."

Chapter 1464 Recognized

When Xia Wei came over, Chu Man looked at Xia Wanyuan curiously. "That's strange. I can actually see a woman beside Boss K."

"Is it very strange?" Yu Qian glanced at Chu Man. "Isn't Miss Chu also surrounded by confidants?"

Chu Man lit a cigarette and gently spat out a circle. She smiled enchantingly. "Isn't it normal for me to have a man by my side?? Boss K has a woman by his side. It can be said to be unprecedented. I'm quite curious who this is. I heard that Jun Shiling..."

Before Chu Man could finish speaking, Yu Qian interrupted her. "If the reason you called me here today is to say some meaningless gossip, then there's no need to talk about this today."

"Boss K, your temper has improved." Chu Man flicked the cigarette ash. "Let's not talk about it anymore."

At this moment, Xia Wei had already walked to Chu Man's side. "Miss Chu."

"Mm." Chu Man nodded slightly and gestured for Xia Wei to look at the teacup on the table. "Make a cup of tea for Boss K."

"Okay."

Xia Wei turned around and glanced at Yu Qian. "Hello."

Seeing Xia Wei's face, Yu Qian's eyes narrowed. He tilted his head slightly and glanced at Xia Wanyuan.

At this moment, Xia Wanyuan's hands under her sleeves were completely clenched into fists.

There might be similarities in appearance, but no one could imitate Xia Wei's unique temperament.

Xia Wanyuan could not hide the excitement in her heart. She looked straight at Xia Wei with countless questions in her heart.

Why was Xia Wei revived too? Why is he in Chu Man's hands?? Does he still remember me?

Looking at Xia Wanyuan's trembling hand, Yu Qian's eyes darkened. He retracted his gaze and looked carefully at Xia Wei in front of him.

Xia Wei acted as if he did not see Xia Wanyuan. He calmly picked up the teapot and brewed the tea methodically. Not long after, a fresh fragrance emerged from the cup.

Xia Wei poured a glass for Yu Qian and Chu Man each. Just as he was about to leave, Yu Qian suddenly said, "The person beside me is a little thirsty. Pour her a glass too."

"Okay."

Xia Wei poured another cup of tea and handed it to Xia Wanyuan. "Miss, please drink tea."

Xia Wanyuan reached out to take it, her fingertips trembling slightly.

Looking at Xia Wanyuan's fingertips, Xia Wei's eyes flickered, but he did not look up. When he handed the cup to Xia Wanyuan, he gently touched her pinky.

Sensing the small movement on her pinky, Xia Wanyuan was 100% certain.

In her previous life, Xia Wei was especially mischievous when he was still the little prince. Every time he got into trouble, he would secretly touch Xia Wanyuan's pinky and ask her to help him hide it.

Xia Wanyuan hid the shock in her eyes and lowered her eyes. "Thank you."

"Go back and wait for me first," Chu Man said. "I still have something to discuss with Boss K."

"Okay."

After Xia Wei left the deck, Chu Man looked at Yu Qian. "Is the woman beside you still going to stay here?"

"Yes." Yu Qian looked at Xia Wanyuan meaningfully. "She's my assistant. There's no need to hide anything from her."

"Alright." Chu Man extinguished the cigarette in her hand, took a document, and handed it to Yu Qian. "Chu Yi has been fighting for the firearms business in the south. Are you interested?"

Yu Qian glanced at Xia Wanyuan. "Take a look. How is it?"

Xia Wanyuan picked up the document and looked at it. "Not very good. High risk, low benefits."

Chu Man frowned slightly and was about to speak when Yu Qian stood up. "Since she said it's not suitable, there's no need to discuss it anymore."

Chapter 1465 Worry

No matter what Chu Man thought, she did not expect Yu Qian to reject the entire cooperation because of Xia Wanyuan's words.

"Boss K, are you joking with me?? Aren't you taking me too lightly??" Chu Man felt that Yu Qian was looking down on her. Her eyes were filled with anger.

Yu Qian was very calm. He looked at Xia Wanyuan beside him. "Didn't you hear what my wife said? She feels that it's not suitable. I've always listened to her."

Hearing Yu Qian's words, everyone present was stunned. Xia Wanyuan turned to look at Yu Qian. There was no expression in Yu Qian's cold eyes. Sensing Xia Wanyuan's gaze, the corners of Yu Qian's lips twitched. "What's wrong?"

Xia Wanyuan retracted her gaze. "It's nothing."

The news of Madam Jun Shiling's disappearance had long spread throughout the world. Now, there was suddenly a woman beside Yu Qian. Furthermore, even though this woman was wearing a mask, she could not hide her bearing. It really made one have to think more.

Yu Qian was famous for being ruthless. Chu Man guessed that this woman who suddenly appeared beside him was Jun Shiling's wife, but why would Yu Qian let Jun Shiling's woman follow him so easily?

Chu Man did not stop them anymore. She quietly watched Yu Qian and Xia Wanyuan leave. When their backs completely disappeared from the sea, Chu Man got someone to call Xia Wei over.

"You know that person??" Chu Man looked at Xia Wei, her eyes changing unpredictably. When Xia Wei handed Xia Wanyuan the teacup just now, although Xia Wanyuan had hidden it very well, Chu Man could still see the emotions in Xia Wanyuan's eyes. That gaze clearly indicated that she and Xia Wei knew each other.

Xia Wei stood upright in front of Chu Man, neither servile nor overbearing. He shook his head. "No."

"Really?" Displeasure appeared in Chu Man's eyes. "The way you look at her doesn't seem like you don't know her."

"She looks a little like a deceased sister of mine," Xia Wei said with a hint of sadness in his eyes.

Just now, in order not to let others discover his emotions, Xia Wei had specially not looked at Xia Wanyuan. He had only taken a quick glance. Now, Xia Wei felt a little regretful.

If he had known that Chu Man would notice, he would not have deliberately hidden it and would have taken another look at Xia Wanyuan. He had only taken a cursory glance just now. He felt that Xia Wanyuan seemed to have lost some weight compared to his impression.

Chu Man looked at Xia Wei for a while. Seeing that the sorrow on him did not seem fake, she waved her hand. "Stop dreaming. She's Boss K's favorite. The next time you look at her like this, I can't guarantee that I can protect you."

“Okay.” Xia Wei hesitated for a moment but could not help but ask, “That Boss K looks a little difficult to get along with.”

Chu Man narrowed her eyes slightly. “Why? Are you worried about others? You’re already my man. Are you concerned about other women in front of me?”

Xia Wei’s eyes flickered. “I’m sorry, I just thought of my sister.”

“My people didn’t find out your background.” Chu Man lit a cigarette and blew gently. “You have a sister??”

“Mm.” Xia Wei nodded. “I don’t know why I’m in the desert. I can remember that I have a sister, but I forgot about the rest.”

What Xia Wei said was the truth. Chu Man looked at him quietly for a while and confirmed that he was right, so she did not ask further. He was just a plaything to accompany her to begin with. Chu Man did not care about his background.

“Aren’t you very good at telling stories? Accompany me.” Chu Man leaned back in her chair, her eyes rolling slightly with endless charm.

Xia Wei sat beside Chu Man and began to tell her those strange stories.

Her eyes were closed, and her eyelashes fluttered gently.

Xia Wei’s gaze landed on Chu Man’s face, dark and gloomy.

Chu Man was a woman he had never seen before. She was vicious, unrestrained, and unpredictable. Almost no one could guess her thoughts.

However, sometimes, Xia Wei felt that Chu Man was a little fragile. Just like now, when she lay quietly, she did not have the domineering aura of conquering everything. She was so soft that it made one want to pity her.

As if sensing Xia Wei’s gaze on her face, Chu Man closed her eyes and said, “You’re the first person who dares to stare at me like this. Aren’t you afraid that I’ll dig out your eyes?”

Xia Wei restrained the emotions in his eyes and smiled gently. “I just thought you were very good-looking, so I took a few more glances.”

Chu Man opened her eyes and met Xia Wei’s black jade-like eyes. There was no fear, flattery, or fear in those eyes. There was only calm admiration.

Chu Man watched quietly for a while, then closed her eyes. “You’re sweet. Continue.”

A hint of darkness flashed across Xia Wei’s eyes. He knew that he had already passed the first round with Chu Man.

He did not know the entire world well enough yet. He needed to gain everyone’s trust as soon as possible, then think about how to bring Xia Wanyuan back from that person just now.

According to the news he had seen, Xia Wanyuan should be a celebrity in China, but the Xia Wanyuan he had just seen was beside a very dangerous man.

As Xia Wei told Chu Man a story, his mind raced as he thought about how to become Chu Man's trusted aide in the shortest time possible.

On the other hand, Yu Qian was handling documents in the cabin. Seeing that the night was getting darker, Yu Qian put down the documents and walked out of the cabin.

On the deck not far away, Xia Wanyuan leaned on the railing, thinking about something.

Yu Qian walked over. "That man just now is your younger brother??"

Xia Wei and Xia Wanyuan were too similar. Be it his facial features or temperament, they seemed to be carved from the same mold, so Yu Qian could tell at a glance.

Xia Wanyuan knew that she could not hide it from Yu Qian. She nodded. "Mm, he's my lost younger brother."

"It's not that easy to get him out of Chu Man's hands." Although Chu Man was a woman, she could build her own world in an environment surrounded by wolves. This woman's ruthlessness even surpassed most men. It was as difficult as ascending to the heavens to get someone who had entered her territory out.

Hearing Yu Qian's words, Xia Wanyuan turned to look at him. "I know."

She was not worried about Xia Wei's safety. After all, she knew Xia Wei well. The Xia Wei she had seen on the ship today had already hidden all his sharpness. He had been raised by her alone. Xia Wanyuan knew that Xia Wei had his own plans. She was just wondering why Xia Wei had appeared in this world.

Other than Xia Wei and I, is there anyone else?

Chapter 1466 Leaving

For some reason, looking at Xia Wanyuan's gentle frown, Yu Qian was actually a little unhappy. He narrowed his eyes slightly. "Play the piano with me."

"What piano?"

Yu Qian turned around and gestured for his subordinate to move the piano to the deck.

He rolled up his sleeves and sat in front of the piano. With a slight movement of his fingertips, gentle music poured out of the piano.

At this moment, the sky was already dark. On the endless sea, there was only a ship with a dim light driving. The melodious piano music echoed in the world, making it inexplicably mysterious.

Unlike Yu Qian's expression and temperament when he played the piano, the piano music under his fingertips was cheerful and leisurely. In a daze, the darkness and waves that filled the sky seemed to have become a beach under the blue sky. Seagulls flew past not far away.

Xia Wanyuan stood at the side and listened quietly. Looking at the calm Yu Qian, Xia Wanyuan was a little surprised.

The artistic conception of the piano often displayed a person's mental state. Such piano music did not seem like something Yu Qian could play. Did this mean that there was actually some hidden calmness in Yu Qian's heart?

Halfway through, Yu Qian suddenly stopped and looked at Xia Wanyuan. "Dance."

Yu Qian narrowed his eyes slightly. "No matter how well I treat your daughter, she's only your daughter, not mine. Are you sure you want to go against me?"

It was just a dance. Xia Wanyuan did not hesitate anymore. She stood up. "Play."

Yu Qian placed his hand on the piano again. Under the elegant music, the tips of Xia Wanyuan's feet moved slightly and she danced on the deck.

Under the moonlight, Xia Wanyuan spun gently like a fairy in the night. In the endless darkness, Xia Wanyuan was like the only light that shone straight into one's heart.

As Yu Qian played the piano, he looked at Xia Wanyuan, who was dancing, and his eyes changed.

After some time, Yu Qian finally stopped what he was doing. He looked at Xia Wanyuan in front of him and his expression froze. "Do you know? Wei Zimu often told me that Jun Shiling is a very lucky man."

Xia Wanyuan turned to look at Yu Qian. "So?"

Yu Qian suddenly smiled. He raised his hand and stroked the ring in his hand. "I think there's nothing wrong with what he said."

Xia Wanyuan's heart skipped a beat. She carefully recognized the emotions in Yu Qian's eyes and did not see any other meaning.

As if knowing what Xia Wanyuan was thinking, Yu Qian raised an eyebrow slightly. "I'm not interested in you. I'm just briefly exclaiming."

Xia Wanyuan retracted her gaze. Dancing just now had consumed some stamina. Now, she was a little tired and her forehead was covered in sweat.

Xia Wanyuan had just raised her hand when a handkerchief was placed on her forehead.

Xia Wanyuan looked up. Yu Qian was holding a handkerchief and wiping her carefully. The distance between the two of them was very close, so close that Xia Wanyuan could clearly see the coldness in Yu Qian's eyes.

Xia Wanyuan did not dodge and allowed Yu Qian's actions.

After wiping the sweat off Xia Wanyuan's face, Yu Qian placed the handkerchief in his hand in Xia Wanyuan's hand and stood up to leave.

"How long are we staying here?" Xia Wanyuan stopped Yu Qian.

“We’re leaving now.” Yu Qian turned his head slightly. “Although that child is not my daughter, I still want to go back and see her.”

With that, Yu Qian walked straight into the cabin.

The news of Chu Man returning to Continent F was not hidden from the outside world, so Chu Yi naturally received the news.

“Young Master, Second Miss has returned to Continent F. Should we take action now that she’s back?” The assistant sent some information to Chu Yi.

Chu Yi casually flipped through it. “She should be back. Haven’t you found that person yet?”

Speaking of Xia Wei, the assistant looked troubled. “That person seems to have disappeared into thin air. We’ve been searching for him for so long, but there’s no news of him.”

Displeasure flashed across Chu Yi’s eyes. “Investigate again.”

“Yes.”

Such a corpse had disappeared for so long and had not appeared. Chu Yi began to wonder if Xia Wei had really disappeared into thin air.

If he could not find him, all of Chu Yi’s plans could only be put on hold. He pushed the document away and went to the backyard to look for Feng Wuyou.

Ever since Feng Wuyou woke up, she had been much quieter. Now, she sat in the courtyard and gently stroked her stomach.

Her three-month-old stomach was already slightly bulging. Chu Yi watched this scene from afar with a hint of warmth in his eyes. He walked to Feng Wuyou’s side and draped his coat over her shoulders.

Smelling the faint smell of smoke on Chu Yi’s clothes, Feng Wuyou’s stomach surged. She threw the clothes to the ground with an ugly expression.

Seeing Feng Wuyou like this, Chu Yi narrowed his eyes. “Do you hate me to this extent?”

Feng Wuyou took a sip of tea and forcefully suppressed the discomfort in her stomach. “Stay away from me. I won’t feel so uncomfortable.”

Chu Yi stared fixedly at Feng Wuyou. He raised Feng Wuyou’s chin. “Don’t think that just because you’re pregnant, you can rely on favor and be pampered. Don’t forget your identity.”

Feng Wuyou looked straight at Chu Yi. “Of course I know my identity. Anyway, you’ve already killed my entire family. You shouldn’t mind killing me too. Do it.”

“You!” Chu Yi tightened his grip on Feng Wuyou’s hand, and anger appeared in his eyes.

Feng Wuyou was not afraid of him and looked straight back at Chu Yi. “You want to kill me? Do it.”

Feng Wuyou’s chin was already red from Chu Yi’s grip. She could already feel Chu Yi’s dense killing intent. However, in the end, Chu Yi still let go of her and left angrily.

Watching Chu Yi leave, Feng Wuyou looked at a short servant behind her and nodded slightly at her.

When Chu Yi was angry, he usually liked to drink alone in the study. Only Feng Wuyou knew this habit.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, an escape chain that had been planned for a long time was rapidly running.

Six hours later, Chu Yi, whose eyes were a little red, finally left the study. He reeked of alcohol. "Bring Feng Wuyou over and let her wash up for me."

Soon, the servant returned, but he did not bring Feng Wuyou back. "Young Master, Maiden Feng has disappeared."

At the same time, the plane from Continent F to China had already landed at the Beijing airport.

"CEO Jun, she's here."

"Arrange a place for her to stay. If she needs anything, you can provide it to her."

"Yes."

After arranging Feng Wuyou's matters, Jun Shiling took another document. "Have you checked the man Chu Man brought back?"

There are no specific photos. The mouths of the people on Chu Man's side are very tight. We're still investigating. There should be results soon."

Jun Shiling nodded. "Leave these things to others. Follow me to Continent F to see Yu Qian."

Chapter 1467 Leaving

Xia Wanyuan's departure had a huge impact on the entire Jun Corporation. It brought a certain shock to the entire China and even the world.

People kept coming from England and America to ask about the situation, but Jun Shiling stopped them.

In the royal family of England, the current Prince Charlie had already become the person in charge of the entire England. To be able to ascend to this position, the first person he wanted to share the good news with was Xia Wanyuan. However, looking at the news brought back by his subordinate, Charlie frowned.

"What do you mean, missing?"

"We waited in China for a long time. Jun Shiling was unwilling to see us. According to the rumors there, Xia Wanyuan might have divorced Jun Shiling and left with her child." The subordinate reported the exact situation to Prince Charlie in all seriousness.

"How is that possible?" The last time he saw Xia Wanyuan, her relationship with Jun Shiling seemed quite good. In his opinion, Xia Wanyuan and Jun Shiling should not be heartless people. How could they end up in this state in such a short time?

"We don't know the other situations. The only thing we can be sure of now is that Xia Wanyuan hasn't appeared in public for nearly a month."

Hearing his subordinate's report, a troubled expression flashed across Prince Charlie's face.

"If we can't find her, it won't be easy to explain to Young Master An."

Prince Charlie was talking about An Luo when An Luo appeared at the door.

An Luo, who had been the head of the family for a while, was no longer like a child from before. His blue eyes were much less innocent and more gloomy. In a daze, it was as if one was seeing the past An Lin.

"Where's Xia Wanyuan?" An Luo walked in with his men, wrapped in coldness.

Prince Charlie laughed dryly. "Um, let them tell you. I still have a meeting, so I'll leave first."

With that, Prince Charlie stood up and left.

He was really afraid of An Luo. When he saw An Luo previously, he had curly hair and clear eyes, looking obedient and cute.

Now that he had become the head of the family, that faint smile was even more irresistible than his brother, An Lin. Even though he was more than ten years older than An Luo, he could not stand An Luo looking at him like that.

Prince Charlie had been in power for a long time, but he could not resist someone as difficult as An Luo.

The subordinate watched as Prince Charlie slipped away quickly. He carefully glanced at the cold An Luo at the door and shouted crazily in his heart.

Unfortunately, no matter how his subordinate shouted, Prince Charlie could not hear him. He even ran even faster.

Seeing that Prince Charlie had already run far away, the subordinate leaned forward fearfully. "Master Cape, all of Xia Wanyuan's information is here. Please take a look."

An Luo flipped through it and his expression immediately turned ugly. "What do you mean missing? Jun Shiling didn't react at all?"

"Not for the time being." The subordinate looked at An Luo carefully. "Jun Shiling is still busy with his own matters in China."

An Luo's eyes darkened. "Send someone to look for her immediately. You must find Xia Wanyuan's whereabouts."

"Yes."

After the subordinate left, An Luo looked at the information on the table, his eyes filled with gloom.

Why did the heavens take away everyone I cared about?

An Luo clenched his fists tightly, his expression dark. The thick darkness enveloped him.

Lin Qingyuan’s gaze darted between Jiang Yun and Lin Qingdai, then he threw the fish food in his hand aside. “Sister and Brother-in-law, it’s rare for you to come to my place. What a rare guest.”

“Do you know where Xia Wanyuan is?” Jiang Yun went straight to the point. “She hasn’t appeared in a long time. You’ve always been in close contact with those people overseas. You should know some internal news?”

Lin Qingyuan took a sip of tea leisurely. “CEO Jiang, what position are you asking me?”

Jiang Yun stared into Lin Qingyuan’s eyes. After a while, she said, “With the status of the Lin family’s daughter-in-law, am I qualified?”

After obtaining the answer he wanted, Lin Qingyuan chuckled and put down his teacup. “Since we’re family, there’s no need to say anything. It’s impossible for Xia Wanyuan to come back.”

Jiang Yun tightened her grip on Lin Qingdai’s hand. “What do you mean? So the rumor that she’s under house arrest at K’s is true, right?”

“But Jun Shiling...”

“Jun Shiling.” The corners of Lin Qingyuan’s lips curled up slightly. “He can’t even take care of himself. How can he care about others?”

Jun Shiling’s trip to Continent F did not succeed in the end.

A major accident happened in a production line in the Jun Corporation, implicating dozens of lives. At this moment, Jun Shiling had to stay in the country to deal with it.

In Continent F, Yu Qian glanced at Xia Wanyuan, who was reading not far away. “Aren’t you disappointed at all?”

Xia Wanyuan replied without looking up, “What should I be disappointed in?”

Yu Qian did not ask further. He gently tapped his right hand on the table twice. “What are you looking at? Read it to me.”

Following Yu Qian’s intentions, Xia Wanyuan recited some poems. Yu Qian would occasionally ask a few questions, and Xia Wanyuan would patiently answer them.

The atmosphere between the two of them looked quite harmonious, as if they were ordinary chatting friends. There was no confrontation at all.

However, the harmony was only temporary. Just as Xia Wanyuan was about to leave after reciting the poem, Yu Qian suddenly stopped her.

“We’re leaving.”

The corners of Yu Qian’s lips curled up slightly. “To a place Jun Shiling will never be able to find.”

It was not that he did not know the connection between Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan, but for some reason, he pretended not to see it.

However, now, Yu Qian had changed his mind.

He wanted to leave with Xia Wanyuan to a place Jun Shiling could never find.

Xia Wanyuan frowned. “Doesn’t your agreement back then count?”

The corners of Yu Qian’s lips curled up slightly, but the smile did not reach his eyes. “Yes, but do you think Jun Shiling will still believe in you, and wait for you for ten years??”

With that, Yu Qian waved his hand and gestured for Xia Wanyuan to leave. “Go and pack your things. I don’t plan to give you too much time. Ten minutes is enough, right? Ten minutes later, I want to see you here.”

With that, Yu Qian turned to leave.

Chapter 1468 Castle Lord

No wonder. Xia Wanyuan recalled the situation on the way here today. I knew that there seemed to be more people in the base today.

Furthermore, along the way, everyone was packing up and cleaning the entire base.

Xia Wanyuan only thought that Yu Qian was preparing for some event and did not take it to heart. Now that she thought about it, Yu Qian was organizing everyone to move out of this place.

Now, her resistance was useless. To Yu Qian, he was only informing Xia Wanyuan and had no intention of discussing with her.

Xia Wanyuan was only stunned on the spot for a moment before leaving.

If what Yu Qian said was true, he had only given her ten minutes. She wanted to maximize these ten minutes.

Back in the bedroom, Xia Wanyuan used the time to pack her things to place the chip in her hand in the crack of the bed. Then, she only took some simple tools and did not touch anything else.

Ten minutes later, Xia Wanyuan arrived in the living room with a small package. Yu Qian glanced at her and reached out to her. “I’ll carry it for you.”

Xia Wanyuan retreated slightly. “No need.”

However, Yu Qian was very persistent. He reached out to take the box. He carried the box in one hand and Little Xiaxia in the other, preparing to leave with Little Xiaxia and Xia Wanyuan.

Although Little Xiaxia could not speak yet, she could sense the change in the environment. The child was still not used to this change. She struggled in Yu Qian's arms and tears began to appear in her eyes.

"Wah!"

Hearing Little Xiaxia's cries, Xia Wanyuan reached out to take her, but Yu Qian stopped her with his eyes.

"Go out first."

Xia Wanyuan frowned. "What do you want??"

"Ha." Yu Qian sneered. "What can I do?? I'm going to kill her, okay??"

When Yu Qian said this, Xia Wanyuan let down her guard a little. She glanced at Little Xiaxia, then left the room and walked out.

Little Xiaxia looked at Yu Qian curiously, then stopped crying as if she understood Yu Qian's words and looked at him with wide eyes.

Yu Qian reached out and pinched Little Xiaxia's face as a reward. Little Xiaxia, who had been crying just now, smiled foolishly at Yu Qian.

A hint of fluctuation flashed across Yu Qian's eyes. "You're much more likable than your mother."

After coaxing Little Xiaxia, Yu Qian carried her out of the room with his bag in one hand, signaling Xia Wanyuan to follow him.

Watching the three of them leave, the subordinates looked at each other behind. Only after Yu Qian walked far away did everyone dare to discuss.

"Have you seen the boss take something for others?? Why do I feel that something's wrong??"

"Is there anything right recently... Why don't you say that the boss is raising someone else's daughter?"

"What exactly is Boss doing??? I can't tell that he has other thoughts about Xia Wanyuan, but his attitude towards Xia Wanyuan and her daughter is very strange. I actually inexplicably see doting... What do you think?"

"Stop talking nonsense. Follow him quickly. The plane is leaving in a while. We must not interfere in the boss's matters. Haven't you learned enough from Jayce's lesson... Perhaps one day, we'll become the next Jayce."

Thinking of Jayce's tragic death in the end, everyone shivered in their hearts and fell silent, no longer discussing Xia Wanyuan.

By the airport, this time, Yu Qian still did not blindfold Xia Wanyuan, but she did not sense the direction of this journey.

She only knew that the journey this time was especially long. It was about ten days before they finally stopped.

This was a huge island. It was so big that it could not even be called an island, but a continent.

This place was completely different from the dullness and darkness of the base. The sky was clear and the land was vast. The endless grassland undulated under the wind. The snow mountains in the distance were faintly discernible in the clouds. Not far away, there were deer running on the grassland.

“Where is this?” After Xia Wanyuan came to the modern world, she had seriously understood the geography of this world, but in her impression, such a large place really did not exist.

Yu Qian did not answer Xia Wanyuan. He walked forward with Xia Wanyuan for about ten minutes before stopping in front of a huge ancient castle that was like a palace.

The servants in the same uniform were already waiting in front of the ancient castle. Seeing Yu Qian and Xia Wanyuan arrive, everyone bowed to them very respectfully. “Master, Madam.”

Hearing everyone’s address, Xia Wanyuan frowned slightly. “I’m not…”

“Is it important?” Before Xia Wanyuan could finish speaking, Yu Qian interrupted her. Yu Qian’s cold gaze landed on her. “If you’re by my side, do you think anyone will care about this form of address?”

“Yes.” Xia Wanyuan looked at Yu Qian. “I care about it myself. I’m Madam Jun.”

Xia Wanyuan’s words made Yu Qian feel a little uncomfortable, but he did not notice it himself. Yu Qian turned around and his expression darkened. “What a pity, Madam Jun. You can only be at my mercy now.”

With that, Yu Qian ignored Xia Wanyuan’s struggle and pulled her into the ancient castle.

Xia Wanyuan had also been to England’s palace before. As the residence of the royal family, be it the halls or decorations, they were all the culmination of various palaces. She had thought that the palace and ancient castle there were already quite luxurious, but compared to this place, Xia Wanyuan felt that it really paled in comparison.

Not only was the house grand, but the decorations were also extremely luxurious. The servants walked past in rows and helped Xia Wanyuan and Yu Qian pack their things.

Xia Wanyuan’s room was next to Yu Qian’s bedroom. Xia Wanyuan minded this arrangement.

“I have the child with me. She’ll disturb you.”

Yu Qian looked up at Xia Wanyuan. “I don’t mind helping you. Choose for yourself.”

Watching Xia Wanyuan go upstairs, Yu Qian narrowed his eyes slightly. His assistant walked over. “Boss, everything has been arranged.”

“Mm.”

Looking at Yu Qian’s indifferent expression, the assistant sighed in his heart. This time, completely erasing Xia Wanyuan’s whereabouts had almost exhausted their core strength. They really did not know what Yu Qian’s motive was.

The accident in China was quickly resolved. After Jun Shiling finished his work in China, he brought Lin Jing to Continent F.

However, what was in front of them was a completely empty base. There was not a single person. Even the spies Jun Shiling and the rest had left behind had been destroyed, leaving no traces.

Chapter 1469 Three Years Later

The base was already empty. Lin Jing brought people to search inside. Jun Shiling stood at the entrance of the base and quietly looked at the furnishings.

After a while, Lin Jing came out with his men. "CEO Jun, it's been confirmed that no one exists inside. Everything has been destroyed. Yu Qian and the rest are missing."

"Where are our people?"

Jun Shiling frowned. The base had always been tightly controlled.

"CEO Jun." Speaking of this, Lin Jing's eyes were a little surprised. "Yu Qian brought Madam away indiscriminately. His core forces were all killed in this operation."

Jun Shiling's expression was very ugly. "Even if they left, there will be some clues. Go and find them immediately."

"Yes."

He walked around the base and finally stopped in an elegant courtyard.

The entire base was gray, except for this place. Not only were there pavilions, but there were also fish in the garden. It was extremely beautiful.

There was a swing wrapped in flowers in the garden. Beside it was a zither and a chessboard. On a stone table not far away, there were a few tea leaves floating at the edge of the teacup.

Everything showed that the owner of the courtyard had not left for long.

Jun Shiling walked into the bedroom. The faint fragrance on Xia Wanyuan lingered in the room. Almost instantly, Jun Shiling's eyes turned red.

Jun Shiling observed the room carefully and happened to see the wrinkled edge by the bed. He lifted the blanket and saw a chip that was a few millimeters long lying peacefully on the bed.

Jun Shiling picked up the chip and held it in his hand before walking out of the room.

Outside the room, his subordinates were methodically searching for any possible traces.

However, even when the sun set, there were no signs of Yu Qian leaving.

Lin Jing was still assigning missions to his subordinates when there was news from China.

The Lin family officially moved from Linxi to Beijing, and the Lin family's business core was also placed in Beijing. The Jiang family and the Lin family joined forces and posed a huge threat to the Jun Corporation.

“Yes.”

Lin Jing thought that Jun Shiling would return to Continent F to look for her after settling his matters in Beijing. However, to his surprise, Jun Shiling never came to Continent F again.

Lin Qingyuan and the Jiang family had completely formed an alliance and fought Jun Shiling in all aspects. The entire Beijing was in a state of panic.

Internationally, Prince Charlie gradually controlled the royal family of England. An Luo, who had recently taken over, gradually stood out and began to build his trusted forces in Continent O.

Chu Yi did not find Xia Wei, and the search for the sacred artifact was gradually put on hold. The entire Chu family hid in Continent F again.

Under a strange balance, the entire world entered a tug-of-war again.

As time passed, the most discussed topic on Weibo was “Where did Xia Wanyuan go?”

Some fans tried to call the police, but they were told by the police that Xia Wanyuan’s relatives did not agree with the disappearance.

Wasn’t Xia Wanyuan’s relative Jun Shiling?? The fans watched as Jun Shiling entered and left all sorts of official venues every day, but there was no trace of Xia Wanyuan beside him. All sorts of criticisms arose.

Winter passed and spring came. Time changed.

In the blink of an eye, it was already spring three years later.

On the wide grassland, a beautiful little girl who was like a doll was sitting on the horse. Her eyes were curved and there were shallow dimples on her face.

“Uncle Yu, when is Mommy coming back?”

Chapter 1470 Growing Up

This place was far from the mortal world. Even the sea was not like the mortal sea. There were white clouds like milk in the jade-like sky.

The sea surged calmly. The sunlight shone on the sea, sweeping across Little Xiaxia and Yu Qian, coating everything with a golden light.

Little Xiaxia’s long and curled eyelashes gently curved up as she smiled happily at Yu Qian. The dimples on her face were faintly visible, as if they were filled with the most beautiful sweet dew in the mountains. “Will Mummy bring me delicious food when she comes back this time?”

Yu Qian turned to look at Little Xiaxia. As Little Xiaxia grew up, she was more and more like Xia Wanyuan. She had almost gathered all the good points of Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan. Her beautiful big eyes were even more lively than the lake water of the crescent spring. When she spoke to people, she had small dimples on her face and was extremely cute.

Yu Qian reached out and touched Little Xiaxia's head twice. Little Xiaxia's hair was extremely soft, and it was as fluffy as a cloud when he touched it. Yu Qian could not help but ruffle it twice. "Doesn't she bring you delicious food every time?"

Little Xiaxia's eyes were filled with smiles. "Mommy is the best!!! Uncle Yu, I want to look at the sea over there."

Yu Qian nodded. He helped Little Xia Xia sit on the horse and brought her to a place with seawater. At Little Xia Xia's age, she was very curious about everything. She had many strange questions. Yu Qian did not mind her talking too much and patiently answered her all sorts of strange thoughts.

"Uncle Yu, have you tasted clouds?? I really want to try what that tastes like??"

Yu Qian sent a message to his subordinate. "Get someone to get the shape of the cloud from the sky."

"Uncle Yu, if only I could have such a beautiful sea in the castle. I want to live in the castle under the sea. It would definitely be very cool."

Yu Qian nodded and turned to send his subordinate another message. "Make Missy's bedroom look like a castle under the sea. Surround it with seawater."

The subordinates were already immune to this behavior. Anyway, they were already used to him spoiling her more than this.

The white waves swept towards the shore layer by layer with a golden flash of sunlight. Little Xiaxia reached out to Yu Qian. "Uncle, carry me."

Yu Qian carried Little Xiaxia to the beach. Little Xiaxia shook off her shoes and stepped on the soft sand barefoot.

Yu Qian did not stop her. He knew that Little Xiaxia liked to play with sand and had long gotten someone to filter the sand on this beach. Now, there were no sharp fragments on the entire beach that could hurt Little Xiaxia.

Little Xiaxia ran around the beach happily. Seeing that Yu Qian was standing still, she ran to him. "Uncle Yu, are you unhappy?"

Yu Qian shook his head. "No."

Although Little Xiaxia was young, she was mischievous and could see through people the best. She pulled Yu Qian's sleeve. "Uncle Yu, don't be unhappy. I'll share the candy with you."

With that, Little Xiaxia took out a candy from her pocket and handed it to Yu Qian.

Looking at Little Xiaxia's innocent and ignorant expression, Yu Qian squatted down and gently stroked her hair. "What will you do if I can't accompany you one day?"

Before Yu Qian could finish speaking, Little Xiaxia's eyes were filled with tears. She sobbed. "I don't want."

“What don’t you want?” Yu Qian reached out to brush the tears off Little Xiaxia’s face.

Ever since Xiaxia began to have her own consciousness, she could only see two people. One was Xia Wanyuan, and the other was Yu Qian.

In the past three years, Xia Wanyuan had often gone out. Compared to her, Yu Qian had almost always accompanied Little Xiaxia.

Whether it was the first time Little Xiaxia spoke, the first time she walked alone, or the first time she used chopsticks... All the moments were witnessed by Yu Qian.

Everyone on the island knew that Little Xiaxia was undoubtedly the princess here.

Hence, when Yu Qian mentioned leaving, Little Xiaxia panicked.

Looking at the panic in Little Xiaxia’s eyes, Yu Qian’s heart ached.

Back then, he had brought this child over to kill time.

However, who knew that raising her would really raise this child into a piece of flesh in his heart?

Yu Qian smiled at Little Xiaxia. “I was just joking with you. What do you want to eat tonight?”

“Mm.”

Then I want to eat fried chicken drumsticks.” Little Xiaxia looked at Yu Qian happily with her big watery eyes. “How about fried chicken drumsticks??”

“Sure.”

“No.”

Yu Qian had just said a word when Xia Wanyuan interrupted him.

Little Xiaxia looked behind her in surprise. Xia Wanyuan was dressed in black and striding over.

“Mommy!!” Little Xiaxia ran happily towards Xia Wanyuan, her small feet kicking up sand. Xia Wanyuan did not despise her and reached out to pick Little Xiaxia up.

“Mommy, I miss you so much.” Although Yu Qian was very cold to others, he really cared about Little Xiaxia. Little Xiaxia had grown up in an environment filled with concern and love. She was bright and cheerful from the inside out. When she smiled at Xia Wanyuan, it was as if the sunlight of the entire world had poured on her.

“Mm.” Little Xiaxia held Xia Wanyuan’s hand and walked forward. She subconsciously pulled Yu Qian’s hand and stopped just as she moved.

She had heard from Xia Wanyuan that she still had a biological father. The seat beside Xia Wanyuan was to be reserved for that father she had never met.

Little Xiaxia retracted her hand in disappointment and smiled at Yu Qian as if she was comforting him. “Uncle Yu, let’s eat together.”

Yu Qian was extremely sharp. He naturally sensed Little Xiaxia’s small actions. He subconsciously glanced at Xia Wanyuan. Xia Wanyuan walked straight forward, as if she did not notice anything.

Yu Qian smiled at Little Xiaxia and followed the two of them.

Little Xiaxia looked at Xia Wanyuan, then at Yu Qian. She tightened her grip on Xia Wanyuan’s hand.

Actually, she had always wanted to ask Xia Wanyuan why Yu Qian, who treated her so well, was not her biological father.
