

Modern Day 91

Chapter 91: A Forceful Slap in the Face

At this moment, Xia Wanyuan was slightly raising her head. Her face was covered in a thin layer of sweat, making her rosy cheeks look even more rosy and rosy.

There was a soft pleading in her eyes that were normally clean and carefree.

Jun Shiling's heart skipped a beat. He, who had always been decisive and decisive in killing, could not stand such a gaze.

Jun Shiling let go of Xia Wanyuan's chopsticks and chided, "Speak properly."

At that moment, Xia Wanyuan also felt that something was wrong. She seemed to subconsciously feel that Jun Shiling was a very trustworthy person, so when she spoke to Jun Shiling, she unconsciously became a little soft.

Xia Wanyuan pursed her lips, feeling a little embarrassed. However, seeing Jun Shiling's usual expression after speaking, Xia Wanyuan felt that she was overthinking things.

After lunch, the chicken dish on the table was clean and Xia Wanyuan ate it with great satisfaction.

"What do you have this afternoon?" Jun Shiling asked when he saw Xia Wanyuan preparing to pack up and leave.

"Nothing." The publicity for the production team had yet to start, and the Xia family's company had already been settled. She probably had nothing to do for the next few days.

"Then stay here. I'll give you a document. I'll explain it to you after you read it."

"Sure."

After Xia Wanyuan took over the Xia family's company, she realized that in the modern world, there were so many new ways to manage a company. It was not as simple as managing something in her previous life.

Jun Shiling was an excellent teacher. Since he had said so, Xia Wanyuan was naturally very willing.

Xia Wanyuan was extremely serious when she was reading. When Jun Shiling occasionally shifted his gaze away from the computer, he saw that not far away, Xia Wanyuan's side profile was gentle and firm as she read seriously.

The sunlight formed a circle of light behind her, blurring her perfect facial features. The soul that was as gentle as water and as firm as a mountain emitted from her body welcomed the sunlight.

As if tired from watching, Xia Wanyuan rubbed her shoulders.

"Just lie on the sofa and watch. No one else comes into the office."

In her previous life, Xia Wanyuan's cervical vertebra had not been good. Later on, she always liked to lean on the bed and read memorials, so she gradually developed this habit.

After arriving in the modern world, the sofa design here was especially comfortable. At home, Xia Wanyuan liked to lean on the sofa.

Jun Shiling had also discovered this habit of hers.

“Okay.”

Xia Wanyuan did not bother exchanging pleasantries with Jun Shiling. Since he said she could, she took off her shoes, pulled the blanket over, and leaned back on the sofa.

Jun Shiling looked at Xia Wanyuan’s natural behavior and a smile flashed across his eyes.

At this moment, if it were anyone else, no one would dare to take off their shoes in front of him. Even if he gave his permission, others would still be trembling with fear, unlike Xia Wanyuan.

However, the fact that Xia Wanyuan behaved so naturally in front of him made Jun Shiling’s mood inexplicably good.

One afternoon, Xia Wanyuan was leaning on the sofa reading a book while Jun Shiling was busy with work. The room was peaceful.

In the afternoon, Lin Jing received news from the public relations department that Jun Shiling had been the talk of the town. The public relations department came to ask him how he should clarify the situation.

Lin Jing naturally knew who that mysterious woman was, but it was difficult to clarify this matter.

After all, it involved other women. Lin Jing was afraid that Xia Wanyuan would be unhappy if she saw it, so he temporarily suppressed the call from the public relations department and planned to ask Jun Shiling for his opinion after Xia Wanyuan left.

However, this wait became a few hours.

Lin Jing did not dare to enter rashly. If he disturbed Jun Shiling, Lin Jing could imagine how miserable his ending would be.

By the time it reached five in the afternoon, it was almost time to get off work. Lin Jing deliberated over what to do before sending a screenshot of Lin Xuan’s Weibo post to Jun Shiling.

Then, he told her about Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan’s secret photos.

To Lin Jing’s surprise, Jun Shiling replied very quickly.

Lin Jing looked at Jun Shiling’s opinion and fell into silence. Master Jun is too ruthless.

On Weibo, everyone was still happily gossiping about Jun Shiling and Lin Xuan.

Some marketing accounts received money and found all sorts of coincidences on Lin Xuan and Jun Shiling’s Weibo. Even the fact that the two of them had gone to the same country was dug up by people, and they assumed that Jun Shiling had brought Lin Xuan there.

Just as everyone was praising them to be sweet and calling Lin Xuan ‘Madam Jun’ enviously, the official Weibo account of the Jun Corporation suddenly posted a Weibo post.

“It’s not worth much. Let’s have a lucky draw for everyone and we’ll choose five winners. You can just repost and comment.”

The accompanying picture was the global limited edition ten bag that had just been released by C brand.

[F*ck! Hahahahahaha! The officials are slapping us in the face! What a worthless thing. Amazing!]

[There’s a double meaning to their words. Does Lin Xuan feel awkward? She insisted on sticking close to him to make others think that she’s Master Jun’s girlfriend. It doesn’t seem like that’s the case now.]

[Oh my god, there are only ten bags in the world. Master Jun casually took five out for the lucky draw. Boohoo, my husband is too handsome!]

[As expected, my husband doesn’t give face to flirtatious sluts. Hahahaha, so handsome! Do you know that just because Lin Xuan tied my husband up and caused a scandal, my husband went home and coaxed me for a long time?]

[The one in front, if you ate two more peanuts, you wouldn’t be so drunk.]

[I’m not going to dream about being Madam Jun. I just want to draw this bag. Boohoo, please, let me win!]

Because Jun Shiling was extremely popular and the bag was worth a lot, in an instant, everyone on Weibo was reposting this lucky draw Weibo post.

In just an hour, Weibo had been reposted two million times.

Meanwhile, the entire internet knew about the joke of Lin Xuan being slapped in the face after failing to pay up.

Everyone swarmed into Lin Xuan’s Weibo comments to mock her. Lin Xuan could only delete her Weibo post dejectedly.

By the time Jun Shiling got off work, the internet had basically quieted down.

Seeing that it was still early and that the little dumpling had not finished school yet, Xia Wanyuan decided to pick Xiao Bao up with Jun Shiling.

When the car arrived at the kindergarten, she saw Xiao Bao arguing with another little bun from afar.

“You’re a nobody. The vegetables in the field are a little too common.”

When the original owner of the body was still around, Xiao Bao was always taken by the nanny and chauffeur. Whenever there was an event in the kindergarten, the nanny would be the one who brought him there.

Although children were not scheming, over time, they learned that his parents had never come to take care of Xiao Bao.

The two of them had just gotten into an argument and said that Xiao Bao was a dish that no one wanted in the field. This angered Xiao Bao and he wanted to fight with someone.

The other party's parents came to pick up the child. When they saw that the child was about to be beaten, they hurriedly went forward and pushed Xiao Bao away.

Stunned, Xiao Bao took a few steps back. Just as he was about to fall, someone picked him up and hugged him.

Chapter 92: My Wife is Still Young

"Daddy! Mommy!"

Xiao Bao smelled a familiar scent and turned around. It was indeed Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan.

It was rare for Jun Shiling to reach out and stroke Xiao Bao's head.

When he was fighting with his classmates just now, he clearly felt nothing but anger. Now that Jun Shiling was rubbing his head, Xiao Bao suddenly felt wronged. His large eyes were filled with tears that fell down.

The child's parents also saw Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan and were shocked by their appearances.

"What happened?" Xia Wanyuan stepped forward and wiped the tears from Xiao Bao's face. Her heart ached as she asked.

"He snatched my toy." Xiao Bao sobbed. "Mommy bought that little pig for me. Boohoo." The more Xiao Bao thought about it, the sadder he became.

"Isn't it just a lousy toy? Here, take it back!" The child opposite him threw the toy at Xiao Bao.

The little piggy toy flew towards Xiao Bao, and Jun Shiling reached out to cover his head. The toy touched Jun Shiling's hand and rolled to the ground.

"Hmph! Mommy, I want a piggy toy. Go and buy one for me." Wang Ming had been pampered by the elders of both families since he was young. After he was born, his father had been promoted and gained wealth. His family was rich and powerful. Hence, although he was young, he was already extremely domineering.

"Okay, okay, okay. Mommy will buy it for you in a while. You didn't get beaten up, did you?" Wang Ming's mother examined her son's hand over and over again to make sure that he was okay. Then, she held her son's hand and prepared to leave.

"Wait," Xia Wanyuan said.

"What?" Wang Ming's mother looked at Xia Wanyuan unhappily.

"Shouldn't your son apologize for snatching my son's toy?"

"Mommy, he grabbed my hand too. Look!" Xiao Bao stretched out his wrist. There was an obvious red mark on it.

When Jun Shiling saw the red mark on his son's hand, his aura instantly turned cold.

"Our child is young and not very sensible. Why are you bickering with him?" Wang Ming's mother pursed her lips. "It's just a little push and pull between children."

Xia Wanyuan's eyes flickered as she walked towards Wang Ming's mother. Before the other party could react to what she was trying to do, Xia Wanyuan raised her hand and gave Wang Ming's mother a slap.

Xia Wanyuan had been exercising carefully these few days, and her physical fitness was much better than when she had just arrived in the modern world. Furthermore, Xia Wanyuan was angry, and this slap was firm.

"You?!" Wang Ming's mother covered her face in disbelief. She could feel her face swelling and burning with pain.

She stretched out her arm to retaliate, but Xia Wanyuan slapped her on the other cheek.

"Are you trying to bully me?" Her husband did not come today, but there were two people opposite her. She did not dare to fight back against Xia Wanyuan and the rest.

"My wife is still young, and you're dozens of years older than her. Why are you bickering with her?" Jun Shiling said coldly.

Wang Ming's mother choked on her words*. Our son was the same age. What did he mean by I am dozens of years older than Xia Wanyuan?!*

Even Xia Wanyuan could not help but laugh when she heard Jun Shiling's words. She did not expect that Jun Shiling's mouth was so poisonous.

"I don't hit children. Since you didn't teach your child well, then take these two slaps on his behalf." Xia Wanyuan's eyes were filled with coldness. She couldn't bear to hit Xiao Bao, much less let others bully him.

"If anyone hits you next time, hit them back." Xia Wanyuan walked up to Xiao Bao and taught him what was considered unfriendly by many people.

"Okay." Xiao Bao nodded. He had not fought back because he was afraid that Xia Wanyuan would think he was a bad boy and not like him anymore if she found out about the fight.

"Let's go home." Jun Shiling carried Xiao Bao and left the kindergarten with Xia Wanyuan.

Wang Ming's mother, who had been beaten up, was left holding hands with a puzzled Wang Ming.

Wang Ming's mother was not a reckless person. When her son entered the school, she had already used her connections to investigate the more powerful family in her class. The name of this child, Jun Yin, was unknown throughout the entire Beijing circle.

That was also the reason why she dared to be so arrogant, even if it was her son who had caused the trouble first.

"Does it hurt?" Xia Wanyuan carefully examined the wound on Xiao Bao's hand. Fortunately, the skin was not injured, but it was a little red.

"Mommy, do you not like me anymore?" Xiao Bao looked at Xia Wanyuan carefully. In the past, when he had gotten into fights in school, Xia Wanyuan had scolded him for a long time.

“Of course not. I like you the most. Good boy.” Xia Wanyuan hugged Xiao Bao. “The next time someone bullies you, you’ll bully them back. Mommy will always be behind you.”

“Okay!” Xiao Bao nodded vehemently. My Mommy is really too good!

“Daddy.” Xiao Bao wriggled out of Xia Wanyuan’s arms and looked at Jun Shiling fearfully. I had caused trouble again. Jun Shiling would definitely scold me.

“Next time someone hits you, come back and tell me.”

“Okay!” Daddy didn’t scold me! Daddy is so nice too!

After dinner, Xiao Bao went to bed early while Xia Wanyuan watched a drama downstairs.

“Young Master, Madam isn’t feeling well.” Jun Shiling was busy when Uncle Wang knocked on the study door.

Jun Shiling hurriedly went downstairs. On the sofa, Xia Wanyuan was holding her stomach, her face pale.

“What’s wrong?” Jun Shiling sat beside Xia Wanyuan.

“My stomach hurts.” Her stomach hurt. Xia Wanyuan’s voice trembled as she spoke. She must have eaten too much spicy food in the afternoon.

Jun Shiling frowned. “Why did you eat so much chili when I told you not to eat it for lunch?”

Although Jun Shiling scolded Xia Wanyuan, his eyes were filled with worry.

“Uncle Wang, call Shen Xiu and ask him to come over.”

Not long after, Shen Xiu rushed over with the box.

There was a specialized pharmacy in the manor and all sorts of detection devices. Shen Xiu examined Xia Wanyuan.

“It’s acute gastroenteritis. I’ll prescribe some medicine. Make sure not to eat anything stimulating for the next few days.”

“Mm.” Jun Shiling responded from the side, his worried gaze never leaving Xia Wanyuan.

Taking advantage of the fact that he had just done a checkup on Xia Wanyuan, Shen Xiu secretly observed that this Madam Jun seemed to be the ‘useless piece of trash’ that Shen Xing had mentioned.

Shen Xiu felt that his sister’s short-sightedness had probably increased again. It was time to go to the ophthalmology department.

After prescribing some medicine for Xia Wanyuan, Shen Xiu left the manor.

Xia Wanyuan curled up on the sofa, her stomach still feeling terrible. Her delicate brows furrowed.

Jun Shiling brought a cup of warm water for Xia Wanyuan and watched her drink the medicine.

There was some calming element in the medicine, and Xia Wanyuan's stomach had been hurting for a while. Not long after drinking it, Xia Wanyuan fell into a deep sleep.

Jun Shiling pulled a blanket over and wanted to cover Xia Wanyuan with it.

Xia Wanyuan seemed to have fallen into a nightmare as she mumbled something.

Jun Shiling leaned closer and heard Xia Wanyuan call out, "Mother Queen."

Chapter 93: Sleeping Together

Jun Shiling looked deeply at Xia Wanyuan, his gaze deep and unreadable.

Xia Wanyuan's face was pale, and her usually indifferent eyebrows were slightly furrowed, as if something in her dream had made her uneasy.

In her dream, Xia Wanyuan walked alone in the endless darkness. She could hear the shouts of countless soldiers, the exhortations of her young friends, and the overwhelming cries of her younger siblings after she left.

As Xia Wanyuan walked down this path alone, she felt that she was the only one who hesitated.

Suddenly, she felt as if sunlight was shining on her through the darkness. It was warm. Xia Wanyuan walked towards the sunlight in a daze. She stretched out her hand and touched its warmth, as if this warmth could dispel the coldness and darkness in her heart.

Relying on this warmth, Xia Wanyuan fell into a deep sleep with peace of mind. There was no longer any darkness in her dream.

Beside the sofa, Jun Shiling looked at Xia Wanyuan, who was holding his arm tightly with a complicated expression.

He had just wanted to cover Xia Wanyuan with the blanket when Xia Wanyuan hugged his arm. He moved slightly, and Xia Wanyuan frowned.

He got someone to tidy up the bedroom. Xia Wanyuan was not feeling well and could not sleep with Jun Yin anymore.

Xia Wanyuan was sound asleep. Jun Shiling carried her all the way to the bedroom, and Xia Wanyuan's breathing was calm.

After placing Xia Wanyuan carefully on the bed, Jun Shiling prepared to leave. However, Xia Wanyuan seemed to be extremely reliant on him. She kept holding his arm. If he did not wake Xia Wanyuan up, there was no way he could leave.

He tried for a while but could not break free. After Xia Wanyuan fell ill, she became much weaker than before. She was hugging his arm as if she was hugging something she was very dependent on, which made Jun Shiling's heart soften.

Taking off his shoes, socks, and jacket, Jun Shiling lay down beside Xia Wanyuan.

Sensing the approach of a warm source in her sleep, Xia Wanyuan completely snuggled into Jun Shiling's arms.

Jun Shiling's body froze. The fragrance in his arms assailed his nostrils, carrying with it the milky scent of Xiao Bao. Xia Wanyuan's hair fell beside Jun Shiling's hand, looking soft and smooth.

Like how she slept with Xiao Bao usually, Xia Wanyuan hugged Jun Shiling as if she was hugging Xiao Bao. The two of them were practically close.

Jun Shiling pushed away the hair on Xia Wanyuan's face, revealing her straight nose. Her long eyelashes were like two small fans.

With the warm and soft gem in his arms, Jun Shiling felt as if his empty world was filled with Xia Wanyuan.

Jun Shiling lay quietly for a while, then carefully wrapped his left hand around Xia Wanyuan's back. He then gently pulled her in his direction, and Xia Wanyuan was completely in his arms.

Jun Shiling turned around and faced Xia Wanyuan. He placed his right hand on Xia Wanyuan's back and patted her gently. Xia Wanyuan's slightly furrowed brows slowly calmed under the gentle comfort.

A scorching warmth spread between the two of them. Jun Shiling rested his chin gently on the top of Xia Wanyuan's head, then closed his eyes and fell asleep.

When Xiao Bao woke up, he was as usual and did not see his parents. He thought that Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan had woken up early and were eating downstairs.

Who would have thought that after going downstairs for a long time, he still could not find Xia Wanyuan?

Chapter 94: Han Yuan Gives Birth

"Grandpa Wang, where did Mommy go?" Xiao Bao searched for a long time but could not find her, so he could only come and look for Uncle Wang.

"Little Master, eat first. Young Master and Madam will be here soon." Uncle Wang brought Xiao Bao to the dining table lovingly and prepared food for him.

While Xiao Bao was not paying attention, Uncle Wang secretly glanced at the bedroom door on the second floor. He had tidied up the bedroom yesterday and was waiting for Jun Shiling to come out to see if there was anything he needed to prepare.

Unexpectedly, he waited outside for a long time and no one came out of the room. Uncle Wang then went to sleep with a face full of smiles.

In the secondary bedroom, Xia Wanyuan slowly opened her eyes. After a night of rest, she felt that her stomach was much better.

Glancing at the place where she was sleeping, Xia Wanyuan could smell Jun Shiling's scent beside her.

Since Jun Shiling was the one who had carried her upstairs when she was sick, Xia Wanyuan did not have much of a reaction.

“You’re awake? Go wash up and eat.”

The bathroom door beside her was suddenly pushed open and Jun Shiling walked out.

“Oh.”

Xia Wanyuan lifted the blanket and followed Jun Shiling downstairs.

“Mommy! Didn’t you sleep with me yesterday?!” The little dumpling watched Xia Wanyuan and Jun Shiling walk out of the secondary bedroom on the second floor and forgot to chew the meatball in his mouth.

“.....”

Seeing Xiao Bao’s accusing gaze, Xia Wanyuan did not know what to say.

“You didn’t sleep properly. Your mother is sick,” Jun Shiling said from the side.

Upon hearing that Xia Wanyuan was sick, Xiao Bao hurriedly threw down his favorite meatball, ran towards Xia Wanyuan, and stuffed his little hand into her hands.

“Mommy, are you okay?” Xiao Bao’s big eyes were filled with worry.

“I’m alright now. Good boy.”

During the meal, Xiao Bao poured water for Xia Wanyuan obediently and even gave his favorite snack to her.

“Hubby, why don’t you go to work today? Hasn’t the company’s funds arrived?”

Normally, Xia Yuanqing would go to the company as soon as the sun rose. It was almost 11 o’clock today, and Han Yuan found it a little strange that Xia Yuanqing was still at home.

“Yuanyuan, I have something to tell you. Don’t be angry.”

Xia Yuanqing looked at Han Yuan’s bulging stomach. He had originally planned to tell her about the shares transfer after her child was born, but Han Yuan had been too gentle and considerate recently.

Xia Yuanqing felt that Han Yuan had become more reasonable than before. In any case, he had nothing to do now, so he could only stay at home. Since the matter would be exposed eventually, he might as well tell Han Yuan directly.

“What is it?” Han Yuan looked at the latest outfit and bag on her phone happily.

“Although Wanyuan agreed to inject funds, her condition is to transfer all my shares to her.”

“What do you mean?” Han Yuan did not understand these things, but she could tell from Xia Yuanqing’s tone that something was wrong. Hence, she put down her phone and looked at Xia Yuanqing in confusion.

“It means that the company belongs to Wanyuan now.” Father Xia was angry and aggrieved. He looked at Han Yuan with fatigue in his eyes, hoping to receive comfort from his wife.

“What?!” Han Yuan’s sharp voice suddenly rose, giving Xia Yuanqing a shock.

“You useless piece of trash, didn’t you say that the company would be left for our son in the future?! You f*cking...”

Han Yuan had a bad temper to begin with. After she had been pretending to be gentle and considerate for a long time, who would have thought that the company would be Xia Wanyuan’s?

Han Yuan scolded Xia Yuanqing agitatedly. Xia Yuanqing had never seen Han Yuan like this before and was stunned.

However, after cursing for a while, Han Yuan suddenly bent down and covered her stomach. “Ouch.” Her face was covered in sweat from the pain.

Xia Yuanqing hurried forward. “What’s wrong?”

A line of blood flowed out from between Han Yuan’s legs.

Chapter 95: Xia Wanyuan has a Sugar Baby?

“Yuanyuan, let’s go to the hospital!”

Seeing the blood on Han Yuan, Xia Yuanqing’s heart skipped a beat. He was afraid that something would happen to the child.

He quickly called the chauffeur to send Han Yuan to the hospital. After a long day, Han Yuan was finally pushed out of the delivery room.

“Congratulations, both mother and son are safe.” The nurse showed a little boy to Father Xia, who received him happily.

Although Han Yuan had a bad temper and was not well-mannered, she was good-looking and interesting. Father Xia was much older than her and sometimes treated her like a daughter. Hence, he still had some feelings for her.

Now that Han Yuan had given birth to his son, Xia Yuanqing was extremely happy. He quickly notified everyone he knew.

Xia Wanyuan had also received a call from Xia Yuanqing. On the phone, Father Xia had wanted Xia Wanyuan to go home and visit her younger brother. Xia Wanyuan replied with an ‘oh’ and ignored Father Xia.

Xia Wanyuan knew that Father Xia wanted to use this opportunity to let her go back and talk about the Xia family’s company. If it were someone else giving birth, she might really go and take a look. As for Han Yuan, forget it.

Just as Xia Yuanqing hung up, Xia Yu called.

“Hello, Sister, I called you for a long time, why didn’t you answer?” Xia Yu’s clear voice sounded from the phone.

“I was just answering a call from Xia Yuanqing.”

“Oh, I heard. Didn’t she give birth to a son?” Xia Yu pursed his lips hesitantly. “Do you want to go back and visit him?”

“No.”

“What’s wrong? Aren’t you going to visit your brother?” Xia Yu probed.

“I only have one younger brother. Isn’t he in university?” Xia Yu’s nature was pure and kind. Xia Wanyuan was only willing to treat him as a younger brother. As for Han Yuan, she didn’t want to get involved in this mess.

Besides, she had taken the Xia family’s shares. Han Yuan probably wanted to swallow her whole. How could she let her be the child’s sister?

“Oh, then go ahead.” Having obtained the answer he wanted, Xia Yu hung up the phone calmly.

However, after the call ended, Xia Yu’s face was full of smiles. Xia Wanyuan said that she only had one younger brother!!!

Happy!

He was initially worried that Xia Wanyuan would have another younger brother and not treat him so well anymore, but now, Xia Yu was completely happy.

“Hey, Xia Yu, why are you laughing so foolishly alone?” Su Mei and the others entered the dormitory and saw Xia Yu’s radiant face.

“Hmph, so what if I’m happy? Go online, I’ll bring you guys along!”

“You can have this.”

Hence, when Xia Yu was happy, his opponent in the game was doomed. They were completely suppressed.

The production team was about to enter the publicity phase. The previous publicity video had been tabulated by a data company. Xia Wanyuan’s popularity had doubled compared to the others.

Therefore, even though Xia Wanyuan’s reputation on the Internet was poor, in this era where online traffic was king, she was still popular. Many companies had a good opinion of the popularity of Xia Wanyuan’s drama.

The news naturally reached Ruan Yingyu’s ears as well. “Look, Xia Wanyuan has been in the limelight these few times. What if I’m not as good as her when the drama comes out?”

“Don’t worry, the company is already prepared. We’ve bought a very juicy piece of news that will be released in two days.”

Upon hearing her manager’s words, Ruan Yingyu felt a little more at ease. However, she had a feeling that she had been very anxious recently.

Ever since Xia Yu showed his face, his popularity had soared. In addition to his excellent skills, he was considered one of the best on the entire live-stream platform.

Coupled with the high popularity on Weibo last time, many people who did not watch the live broadcast had downloaded the Cat's Tooth Software to look at this big shot who defended the city alone. Instantly, the number of downloads for the Cat's Tooth Software increased.

The platform naturally saw Xia Yu's commercial value and kept recommending him on the homepage and promoting him in all kinds of packaging. The nickname "National Brother" resounded throughout the live-stream platform.

Xia Yu was also very hardworking. With the help of the platform, he became one of the top three popular streamers on the platform within a few days.

The number of fans on Weibo had also increased to more than two million. Although the number of fans could not compare to Ruan Nian's, in terms of popularity, it had far surpassed Ruan Nian's.

Boys also had strong mentality towards comparison. Furthermore, after Ruan Nian lost the previous PK, he felt that he had lost face.

Therefore, he went to ask Ruan Yingyu to be his guest. When the platform saw that he had a celebrity to support him, they naturally agreed happily.

Hence, the entire platform was promoting Ruan Yingyu's arrival. When Xia Yu started the broadcast that night, he felt that the number of viewers had decreased greatly, while Ruan Nian's live-stream had already reached a few million viewers.

"Hello, everyone. I'm Ruan Yingyu."

In the live-stream, Ruan Yingyu greeted everyone sweetly. Those who could enter the entertainment industry and be tested by the cameras were all good-looking.

Furthermore, there was a pretty face in the live-stream. Everyone felt that Ruan Yingyu was as sweet as a cotton candy, beautiful and soft at the same time.

[Ahhh!!! Why is she so good-looking?]

[666666666, beautiful, beautiful.]

[Indeed, she's quite pretty. So Ruan Nian is Ruan Yingyu's younger brother? Can Ruan Yingyu come to the live-stream often to play in the future?]

The comments were filled with praises for Ruan Yingyu. Since this was a live-stream of the game, Ruan Yingyu took a Cai Wenji and followed behind Ruan Nian. From time to time, she would help out, but her attention was focused on the live-stream and she maintained her perfect state.

With Ruan Yingyu around, Ruan Nian's live-stream became very popular very quickly. Soon, nearly a third of the audience on the entire platform was gathered in Ruan Nian's live-stream.

Everything was originally popular, but a few comments suddenly appeared in the comments and attracted everyone's attention.

[F*ck, what a shocking piece of news! Quick, check Weibo!! And Xiaoyu's live-stream!]

[Oh my god! Go to Xiaoyu's live-stream! You'll come back to thank me!]

[So female celebrities like to play with young hunks. I wonder if Ruan Yingyu likes someone like me. Hehe, I want to recommend myself.]

[I was shocked when I just finished eating melon seeds on Weibo.]

The messages on the bullet screen were too rich, and everyone swarmed into Weibo to eat melons.

As expected, there was no lack of netizens on such topics. The topic “Xia Wanyuan kept a young male broadcaster” was pushed to third place on the real-time trending list, and it was still rising.

Under such a topic, there would never be a lack of marketing accounts. However, most of the netizens were engrossed in their gossip and did not notice that every time the entertainment industry gossip craze was exposed by these so-called “real” marketing accounts.

On Weibo, the hottest trending topic, there were a few photos that were very clear. One look and one could tell that it was a very young man. Although his arm was still bandaged, he was hugging the slender woman beside him.

The angle of the photo was very good. It was as if the woman had placed her head on the youth’s shoulder and the two of them were whispering.

Although one could only see the woman’s face, they could already recognize her.

Chapter 96: Netizens Who Eat Popcorn

[Amazing. This Xia Wanyuan really knows how to play.]

[Tsk tsk, why does this handsome young man look like he’s underage?]

[Damn, I want such a handsome little brother too.]

[Isn’t this man the broadcaster who was trending a few days ago?]

Some netizens took a screenshot of Xia Yu’s live-stream and posted it in the comments. Everyone looked at it and realized that it was really the gaming broadcaster who had ‘protected a city by himself’ a few days ago.

Netizens on Weibo flooded into Xia Yu’s live-stream. In Ruan Nian’s live-stream, many people had snuck into Xia Yu’s too.

[Wow, these eyelashes, these hands, I love them. No wonder Xia Wanyuan took a fancy to them.]

[I was wondering why a broadcaster who has only broadcasted for less than a month could become so popular. It turns out that someone is supporting him.]

[Tsk, the host is so young and so good-looking. Why is he a little blind?]

[Boohoo, Brother, can’t we not earn this dirty money? Why are you with Xia Wanyuan?]

[Get rid of your fans. Bye. I really can’t tell that the host is such a person.]

Xia Yu was very focused while playing the game, so he did not notice what was in the comments.

In the live-stream, as netizens on Weibo, platforms, and other news apps entered, the popularity had already reached a rather high level.

Before long, Xia Yu's popularity had reached the top of the King of Glory.

On the Internet, the comments had already exploded. Xia Yu, who was focused on playing games, was completely unaware of this.

Xia Yu's result was 12 kills. He had only died once, and his teammates knew that they had a big shot on their side.

They could have destroyed the enemy's base in one go, but their teammates insisted on acting cool before victory. They went to the crystal on the other side one by one to give their lives.

Seeing that all four of his teammates were dead, there were only ten drops of blood left in the opponent's base tower. It would collapse after a light hit.

At this critical moment, the people on the other side had all revived. They gathered and advanced triumphantly until they arrived at Xia Yu's crystal base.

Seeing that they were about to lose, Xia Yu, who was jungling in the jungle, finally came back. His teammates chanted in their hearts, "Boss, save the child."

Then, they watched as Xia Yu used the damage from the crystal and various fancy moves to show off four of his opponents. At that moment, his teammates revived and killed the remaining one.

Coincidentally, his teammate stole Xia Yu's pentakill and hurriedly typed an apology.

But no matter what, the game was won under Xia Yu's lead.

Many netizens were stunned by this move.

On the other hand, Xia Yu's level of 90 stars made everyone feel that his skills were top-notch. After all, there were many big shots above 50 stars in Glory.

However, Xia Yu was able to turn the tables in a 90-star match. It was simply amazing. Everyone couldn't help but cheer for him.

"Okay, it's time. We'll talk about it tomorrow. Goodnight, everyone."

Xia Yu put down his phone and turned off the live-stream after speaking, leaving the dumbfounded audience behind.

Meanwhile, the fans who were familiar with Xia Yu had already started to call him 'Heartless'. After all, Xia Yu always went offline whenever he wanted to and did not give them any face. They were already used to it.

The reason Xia Yu started the live-stream was because he couldn't stand Ruan Nian's behavior and wanted to snatch his audience. It made him feel terrible.

Hence, he did not care much about his stats. A normal streamer would check how many gifts he had received and what the audience had told him after the episode ended.

Xia Yu couldn't be bothered to do it. He was just thinking about how handsome his actions and achievements were when he was gaming.

In the end, he concluded that he was really too handsome!

Then, Xia Yu pulled open the bed curtain in satisfaction and met three pairs of bright eyes.

"What are you guys doing?"

"Xia Yu, didn't you see the comments on the live-stream?" Su Mei felt that if Xia Yu saw the comments on the live-stream, he would definitely explode. Looking at how calm it was now, he probably didn't see them.

"I didn't. Why?" Xia Yu looked confused as he stood up to get some water.

"Tell me honestly, are you very close to Xia Wanyuan?" Zhang Zhe pressed Xia Yu down and asked mysteriously.

Seeing the gossip in their eyes, Xia Yu guessed that they knew he was Xia Wanyuan's younger brother.

Xia Yu trusted his roommates quite a lot, so he didn't plan to hide it from them anymore and nodded.

However, the intimate relationship that Xia Yu understood was clearly different from what Zhang Zhe said.

Hearing Xia Yu admit it himself, the other three looked a little speechless.

Especially Su Mei. He looked as if his goddess had been snatched away. In his eyes, there was even a hint of wanting to beat Xia Yu up.

Zhang Zhe hesitated for a moment and carefully tried to say something, but he didn't dare to.

Xia Yu laughed at his hesitation. "Zhang Zhe, can you stop acting like a little girl? Why? Do you have a crush on me?"

"F*ck, don't you have any shame!" Zhang Zhe shouted before his aura weakened again. He ran to the door and closed it tightly. Then, he snuck towards Xia Yu like an underground spy exchanging secrets.

"Brother, are you in a relationship with Xia Wanyuan?"

"F*ck, who did you hear that from?!" Xia Yu was furious when he heard this.

"No, Brother. Didn't you know that the photos of you and Xia Wanyuan hugging were posted online?" Zhang Zhe looked at Xia Yu's huge reaction in confusion. Didn't he just admit that they were close? Why did it seem like that now?

Xia Yu turned on his phone and saw countless comments and private messages filling his Weibo. He clicked on the trending topic on Weibo and saw 'Xia Wanyuan kept a Young Broadcaster'.

When he clicked on it, he saw the photos from the hospital that day.

"What's wrong with them?" Xia Yu was furious at the overwhelming insults directed at Xia Wanyuan on the hot searches.

Xia Yu closed the curtain again, leaving Su Mei and the other two outside looking at each other.

After about ten minutes, there was no movement in Xia Yu's bed. The other three were worried that something would happen to Xia Yu.

"Brother, it's okay. We can understand. Isn't it just you liking an older girl?" Zhang Zhe tried to sound him out.

"That's right, that's right. Xia Wanyuan is my goddess. She's such a beautiful fairy. It's not a loss to fall in love."

"F*ck! Xia Wanyuan, that's my sister! Biological!" Xia Yu suddenly pulled open the bed curtain.

His exquisite face was red from anger, and the fringe that was usually placed on his forehead was in a mess.

"Huh?!!"

Like Xia Yu's roommates, the netizens on Weibo were stunned when they saw Xia Yu's new Weibo post.

Chapter 97: Domineering Sister Protection

Xia Yu had buried himself in bed and deleted and edited this Weibo post for a long time. After much consideration, he finally wrote a clarification post that he felt was satisfactory.

"Haha, I'm very rich, thank you. Also, @ Xia Wanyuan, this is my sister, my biological sister. (To prevent you from continuing to slander my sister, I want to clarify that the child who appeared in the previous live-stream was from my cousin's family.)"

Then, Xia Yu attached two photos to the post.

In the first picture, there was a black card lying quietly. Other than the golden words "INFINITE" in the middle of the card, there were no other signs or words.

The second picture was a screenshot of Xia Wanyuan's usual WeChat conversation with Xia Yu. It was all about Xia Wanyuan asking him what he needed and reminding him to put on more clothes when the weather turned cold to prevent a cold.

[F*ck!! Is that the legendary top-notch black card with an unlimited limit?! Oh my god! I've only seen this in novels!]

[Forgive me, a poor person who has never seen the world. I secretly went to Baidu to search for the INFINITE Black Card. Alright, I'm back on my knees now.]

[Hasn't the Xia family gone bankrupt?? Why are you so rich?]

[Wow, is Xiaoyu really Xia Wanyuan's younger brother? From the looks of it, the two of them look a little similar.]

[Really? I suspect that the child is Xia Wanyuan's child. Could it be that the Xia family went bankrupt and Xia Wanyuan's sugar daddy gave the siblings money?]

[I think it's time to update the latest news. The Xia family's company has returned strongly in the past two days, and its momentum has improved rapidly. I just bought their stocks. I hope it will increase this time.]

[Am I the only one who thinks that Xia Wanyuan is so gentle to the broadcaster? I feel like she's a very patient sister...]

This comment that felt that Xia Wanyuan was very gentle received a lot of support.

In the screenshot that Xia Yu had sent, Xia Wanyuan was still very concerned about him and sounded very patient.

Before anyone could react to Xia Yu's post, he sent a second one. "My sister is great. Those who don't like her don't have to watch my live-stream."

[666666]

[... You really think too highly of yourself. Who wants to see you?]

[The person in front, if you're not willing to look, then leave. There are people who are willing to look. Xiaoyu, look at me. From now on, your sister is my sister!! We're a family!]

[Tsk, if my brother is as good as half of the streamers, I'll be relieved.]

[I'm so jealous. Isn't Xiaoyu too protective of Xia Wanyuan? Boohoo.]

Not long after, Xia Yu posted his third Weibo post. "Time will prove that my sister is the best sister in the world."

Initially, the netizens were still discussing whether the child who appeared in Xia Yu's live-stream was Xia Wanyuan's. Now, they were stunned by Xia Yu's Weibo posts one after another.

[What a solid sister complex.]

[I'm curious what Xia Wanyuan has fed the broadcaster to make him so protective of her.]

[We don't know how celebrities behave in private either. Perhaps Xia Wanyuan is quite a good person in private.]

Haha, what kind of joke is this? Hasn't there been news of Xia Wanyuan being arrogant and despotic in private?]

The Cat's Tooth Platform originally wanted to stop Xia Yu from posting on the Internet, but before they could, Xia Yu had already posted three consecutive posts, causing a huge commotion.

Chapter 98: Xia Wanyuan's Live Stream?!

When the Cat's Tooth Platform saw the news of Xia Yu being kept, they were already prepared to give up on the good seedling Xia Yu. Who would have thought that the tables would turn and Xia Yu would be Xia Wanyuan's younger brother?

Furthermore, after Xia Yu's three Weibo posts, his image as the 'national brother' in everyone's hearts had solidified. It was actually a good thing for him to gain fame.

Seeing that the popularity of Weibo was getting higher and higher, the genius management of the Cat's Tooth Platform thought of Ruan Yingyu helping Ruan Nian achieve excellent publicity, so he wanted to invite Xia Wanyuan to help Xia Yu's live-stream.

Hence, as the most idle manager in history, Chen Yun gamed at home for half a month. After eating instant noodles for half a month, he welcomed the first order of the month.

"Live-stream?? Oh, okay, okay."

Chen Yun had been cooped up at home for more than half a month. After hanging up the phone call on the cat tooth platform, he reflected on his unprofessional nature as a manager.

When did Xia Wanyuan become so popular?! She actually got the Cat's Tooth Platform to invite her as a guest.

After all, Cat's Tooth was the most popular live-streaming app in the country. Everyone who played games would watch it. Being a guest here could increase one's fame.

As a manager, Chen Yun had the authority to arrange the work of his artistes, so he had agreed on Xia Wanyuan's behalf.

Both parties had agreed on a time tomorrow night. The Cat's Tooth Platform seemed to be in a hurry. After discussing, the other party immediately transferred the deposit with great sincerity.

Chen Yun was confused, but no matter what, Xia Wanyuan finally had a business activity. Hence, he happily called Xia Wanyuan.

Who would have thought that Xia Wanyuan's side seemed to have known about this long ago? She was not surprised at all. After Chen Yun instructed her about some things, he prepared to start the publicity work after the live broadcast.

Before Chen Yun called, Xia Yu had already called Xia Wanyuan.

Xia Wanyuan was unfamiliar with live broadcasts, but she was willing to give it a try. Hence, she agreed readily and told Xia Yu to come to the manor for the live broadcast tomorrow.

In the dormitory, Xia Yu went out to fetch water. As soon as he opened the door, he was carried to a chair by three burly men, which led to a three-pronged hearing.

Actually, they had been misled by the news online just now. Now that they thought about it, Xia Wanyuan and Xia Yu's surnames were both Xia. Even if they were close, they should be siblings and not a couple.

"Brother." Su Mei called him meaningfully.

"???" Xia Yu was confused.

"If I call you little brother, we'll be considered a family. Can my family get an autograph from Xia Wanyuan for me?" Su Mei looked at Xia Yu eagerly.

"That's enough." Xia Yu rolled his eyes.

“Wow, Xia Wanyuan is your sister. Then every time we eat snacks and that high-end computer, didn’t Xia Wanyuan buy them for us?!!” Su Mei suddenly exclaimed.

“Mm.” Xia Yu nodded.

“F*ck!!!! In my life, I actually ate snacks bought by my goddess! I drank drinks bought by my goddess! I used the computer my goddess bought for me! I can brag about it forever! I want to put away the computer properly. It won’t be good if it’s broken.”

“.....”

Xia Yu was speechless at Su Mei’s excitement.

Chapter 99: The Sister and Brother Stunning the Live Stream

The next morning, the trending topic of Xia Wanyuan and broadcaster Xiaoyu was still hanging on the rankings. Before the trending topic subsided, the platform had teamed up with Xiaoyu to post a piece of news.

“Tonight at seven o’clock in the evening, in Cat Fang Xiaoyu’s live-stream, the siblings will join forces and swim in the canyon.

[Tsk, as expected. In the end, this is just a scene created by the siblings working together, right?]

[Amazing. First, she released fake news and made everyone think that they were a couple. Then, she came out to clarify things herself. In the end, the siblings earned a lot of attention. Amazing.]

[Did you live in a conspiracy your whole life? Can you think like a normal person?]

[Our Xiaoyu was the one who was secretly photographed, alright? Why are you making it seem like it was Xiaoyu’s fault?]

[Alright, I’ll be waiting for you guys in the live-stream tonight.]

At night, when it was almost seven o’clock, the live-stream was already filled with viewers who had come to watch the drama.

[Where is she? Brother, the door is open.]

[What’s the situation with so many people today?]

[Come on, come on. Why isn’t the broadcast starting yet?]

[The neighbouring Ruan Yingyu and the rest have already started their live-stream. Can you hurry up? If you don’t start, I’ll go over and watch Ruan Yingyu.]

Initially, Ruan Yingyu had agreed to be a guest for the day. Hence, her live-stream with Ruan Nian was very effective. Not only was Ruan Nian’s live-stream very popular, but she also gained a lot of fans even though Xia Yu suppressed her later on.

To celebrities in the entertainment industry, the majority of their fans were female. Through gaming live-streams, Ruan Yingyu had gained a lot of male fans, which was beneficial for her.

In addition, Ruan Yingyu knew that Xia Wanyuan was going to do a live broadcast with Xia Yu today, so she was naturally unwilling to let them have the limelight alone. Hence, she took the initiative to discuss with the Cat's Tooth Platform for another night.

The platform was naturally happy to attract more viewers to make money. What was even more subtle was that Xia Wanyuan and Ruan Yingyu were both actresses in the same drama. In the drama, they were always in a fight, let alone outside the drama.

The platform was very happy to see such a clash between controversial celebrities because it would bring a lot of traffic.

The first second after the news broadcast rang at seven o'clock, Xia Yu's live-stream opened.

However, as there were too many people online at the same time, Cat's Tooth's server could not take it anymore and collapsed. In the live-stream room, only the buffering icon kept spinning.

[I'm so pissed off. Can you stop this lousy server?]

[Faster, faster!]

[Hurry up and sacrifice a programmer to the heavens first.]

The Cat's Tooth Platform was quickly maintained. While everyone was cursing, the live-stream was suddenly done.

Caught off guard, the entire camera was printed on the live-stream.

[F*ck!]

[F*ck!]

[!!!!!!!!!!!!]

The comments lasted for two seconds. Everyone was amazed.

The reason was simple. Under the high-definition camera, the two faces in the live-stream were too impactful.

Because Xia Yu usually broadcasted live, he always hid the camera in a small corner of the screen because he thought it would block the game screen. Hence, everyone knew that he was handsome, but they didn't know that he would look so good when the entire scene was magnified.

Xia Yu was wearing a simple white T-shirt with a cat's paw printed on the front. His fringe was resting on his forehead gently, and his fair and exquisite face was filled with youthful vigor. The ends of his eyes were slightly raised, giving him the arrogance of a young man.

Normally, the audience in the broadcast room knew that Xia Yu was good-looking, so they were only more amazed now. As for Xia Wanyuan, who was beside Xia Yu, everyone could only describe her as earth-shattering.

After all, in recent days, Xia Wanyuan had only become more popular on the Internet, and she had always been criticized. Everyone's impression of her was still that she looked arrogant in bold and revealing fashion.

The promotional film released by the production team of "The Long Ballad" was only popular among fans of the original novel and actors, so many passers-by had never watched it.

Meanwhile, the Xia Wanyuan in the camera was wearing light makeup. Her eyebrows were like the mountains, her skin was as white as snow, and her teeth were like pearls. Especially her pair of snow-white eyes, which made Xia Wanyuan look extremely cold.

However, it was not the overwhelming coldness that pierced one's bones in the cold winter months. Instead, it was the white plums that appeared under the warm sunlight at the beginning of spring. They were faint and emitted a fragrance.

"Hello, everyone. My sister is playing games with me today," Xia Yu's clear voice sounded in the live-stream, causing the hearts of the sisters in the live-stream to tremble.

"Hello, everyone." Xia Wanyuan followed Xia Yu and faced the camera. She greeted everyone with a sweet smile and beautiful eyes.

[... So handsome, so beautiful.]

[I finally understand the fact that I'm actually a dog who goes for looks...]

[Oh my god, this is the first time I've seen Xia Wanyuan look so good.]

[For a moment, I don't know if I should be envious of Xia Wanyuan for having such a cute younger brother or if I should be envious of broadcaster Xiaoyu for having such a beautiful sister.]

[Good gracious, with their looks, I can tell that they're family.]

Because Xia Wanyuan and Xia Yu's appearances were too striking, the fake reviewers that the Cat Tooth Platform had gathered to fend off the haters didn't come in handy.

Compared to Xia Yu, Ruan Nian's comments were less friendly.

After all, there was always pain in comparison. After seeing Xia Wanyuan and Xia Yu, and then Ruan Nian and Ruan Yingyu, no one was interested in them at all.

Instantly, the comments flew up and more than half of the people in Ruan Nian's live-stream left.

"Let's play games for a while. We can arrange some interactions for everyone later," Xia Yu said as he adjusted the camera and projected the game screen into the live-stream.

[Don't! Show me your face!! Just sit there and I'll watch it for the whole night!]

[I second that.]

[I agree. Someone, get on the camera.]

However, no matter how the comments screamed, Xia Yu and Xia Wanyuan had already started playing games.

Xia Wanyuan had been in Jun Shiling's hands for a few days and was already at King Level 3 now. However, Xia Yu's account number was still too high, so Xia Yu borrowed a low-star account to play with Xia Wanyuan.

Xia Yu's skills were obvious to all. To him, such a low-status game was like a slaughterhouse. Hence, when many people saw Xia Yu start the game, they prepared to watch other live-streams for a while before coming.

After all, there was no suspense in the outcome of the game.

Who would have thought that when it came to choosing heroes, Xia Wanyuan, who was on the first floor, instantly locked onto a difficult jungler hero, Luna?

In Mobile Legend, Luna's skills were very simple, but she was the most difficult hero to control. Many Kings of Glory didn't dare to say that they could play with her.

At this moment, everyone stopped what they were doing.

Chapter 100: Brother Slaps Face

[Luna? Is she that wild?]

[Does Xia Wanyuan know how to play with Luna? I can't believe it.]

[Let's play to the gallery. I don't even dare to play Luna when I'm a King with 20 stars.]

[How dare the King in front talk with 20 stars?]

[I'm better than you anyway.]

That was what happened in the live-stream. The comments would start fighting at any moment.

"Sister, you know how to play with Luna?" Xia Yu was already shocked enough when he saw Xia Wanyuan's account being called King. Now, Xia Wanyuan was even playing with Luna.

"I don't. Didn't you just tell me to play whatever I want?"

"....."

Xia Yu looked at Xia Wanyuan speechlessly. In the live-stream, everyone heard Xia Wanyuan's words and laughed at Xia Yu for shooting himself in the foot.

"If you're so lousy, they'll scold you if you screw up your teammates later." Xia Yu pursed his lips in disdain but continued, "Forget it, I'll follow you with a support."

Xia Yu's playing style was ruthless and his hand speed was fast. He usually played as a jungler hero. This was the first time in a long time that everyone had heard Xia Yu say that he wanted to play a support hero.

[I'm so sour. It's from Mua.]

[Little brother, play support for Xia Wanyuan. Oh my god!]

Let's sit high up on the lemon tree [Watch brother play support for Xia Wanyuan~]

[Let me tell you something, the person in front. I sang it out loud.]

A support could not take a kill or deal damage, but his position in the team was still very important. Besides, in Mobile Legend, there were many skilful support teams.

Many of the viewers in the comments were also playing support. Now that Xia Yu was preparing to play support, they were all looking forward to learning from Xia Yu the elusive Gui Guzi. Either they learned from Master Lu Ban, who had an unrivaled rhythm, or they learned from Xia Yu the Bull Demon, who could dodge the attacks with one move.

Everyone was focused and ready to memorize the details of the game.

Xia Yu chose Cai Wenji, who was also Ruan Yingyu's support hero, that she was playing now.

In Mobile Legends, because she had the ability to heal her teammates, coupled with her cute appearance, Cai Wenji was called "Nanny".

In the live-stream, the little loli with her hair tied up into a bun was sitting on the power music chair. She was swinging her tiny feet and calling out cutely, "Three circles to the left, three circles to the right, one twist and one turn. I'm also into a loli lover. Chirp chirp chirp chirp ~ ~ ~"

[.....]

[??????????]

[I've already prepared my laptop for notes. Why are you showing me this?]

[Oh my god, I actually saw my younger brother play with the nanny in my life. Ahhhhhh, this is my hero!!!!]

[I'm so jealous!! My younger brother, an all-rounded jungler, actually played support for Xia Wanyuan and even used nanny. Boohoo, boohoo, boohoo, little god!]

[Little Brother is the first person who says one thing but means another. As he talks about his sister's food, he even plays nanny to help her. Boohoo, I'm so sour. I've already eaten up Lemon Mountain.]

Xia Wanyuan also saw the hero Xia Yu had chosen and looked at Xia Yu's phone screen with a smile. "She's quite cute."

"Hmph." Xia Yu did not think much of it. He used Cai Wenji purely because he felt that if Xia Wanyuan was surrounded and beaten up later, he could at least heal her and not die too quickly.

So the game began. The heroic Luna led the cute little nanny who sang all the way into the jungle.

When Jun Shiling gave her the account number, he was also a jungler. Hence, Xia Wanyuan watched it a few times and imitated him. It went pretty smoothly.

However, it was different when it came to team battles. After all, Xia Wanyuan had never come into contact with this hero. In addition, Luna's control requirements were high. Every time they encountered a team battle, Xia Wanyuan would rush in and die.

Xia Yu's Cai Wenji had already reached her limit. Every time, he would follow Xia Wanyuan closely and continuously heal her. However, the other party's attacks were too fierce, and the rate at which he healed could not keep up with the rate at which her health was depleting.

After several team battles like this, Xia Wanyuan's score was 0-4.

[Tsk, what a scam. Is it really good to scam your teammates like this?]

[At first, I thought Xia Wanyuan was quite amazing as a king. I guess Xia Yu was the one who appointed her as a king. Damn, it's good to have a big boss's younger brother.]

Not only were the comments mocking her, but after four consecutive deaths, her opponents and teammates in the game also began to mock Xia Wanyuan.

Her teammate: "If Luna doesn't know how to play, then don't. That's too much!"

Her opponent: "Sister Luna is so nice. You came all the way here to give me your head. Thank you."

"Let's switch phones. Watch how I operate it." Xia Yu handed the phone to Xia Wanyuan.

Xia Wanyuan had only just come into contact with this hero and did not understand the mechanisms of heroes. In fact, when she played other heroes, she could play them very quickly.

Hence, she did not consider the issue of face and exchanged phones with Xia Yu.

In the game, the other party was very arrogant after killing Luna a few times in a row. He even shouted for Luna to deliver their heads.

[The other party doesn't know what is happening.]

[Before they knew it, Luna had already completed her evolution from level 0 to level 100.]

[Hahahahahaha, let me laugh first. Light three candles for the other party in advance.]

[Awaken! Sleeping God of Gulala Darkness!]

In the live broadcast, the five enemies were fighting wild boars in the wilderness. Then, they saw Luna, who they had pressed to the ground and killed four times, walk over.

"The head is here!" The five enemies were overjoyed.

"Sending again." His teammate wanted to cry.

Seeing that Luna was about to use her skill, the enemy hurriedly activated his own skill.

"Huh?" It seemed a little strange that Luna hadn't died after a short exchange.

Before they could react, Luna had already filled the entire jungle with moonlight.

Then Luna floated around on the map on the traces of moonlight. She was unrestrained and unstoppable, like the Goddess of the Moon, dancing gracefully in the Kingdom of the Moon.

His teammates had originally wanted to see how Luna would court death, but instead, they saw a miraculous dance.

This scene was beautiful in the eyes of his teammates, but in the eyes of the enemy.

The warrior holding the longsword that was shining with moonlight floated past their bodies like a ghost. Then, their screen turned black.

“Luna has completed the fifth kill!!!!”

The comments section was filled with 666 comments.

As Xia Wanyuan memorized the methods, she watched Xia Yu flaunt his moves. With a flick of his fingers, Xia Yu had already wiped out all five opponents single-handedly.

Xia Wanyuan smiled and praised Xia Yu. “Well played.”

Then, Xia Yu’s face flushed red at an observable speed.
