

chapter 3

Descendants Of The Moon Goddess

Alpha Austin

I'm the king of the all alpha's, I didn't find my mate, I'm already 29. I gave up the idea of looking for my mate. so I took Evelyn as my girlfriend. for a pack without its luna isn't strong enough to face the enemy.

and I don't know if I can ever find her, before leaving I promised Evelyn to take her as my luna. and we will hold the ceremony after I return.

Although most of my pack members don't like her she has a bratty attitude, but she is beautiful and she knows some fighting skills, so yeah why not.

I stepped out of the elevator and a faint scent of fresh flowers, strawberries and cinnamon hit my nostrils, it was so intoxicating. "mate" "mate" mate" my wolf was yelling in my mind. I breathe the air into my lungs as much as possible, " what happened alpha?" my beta asked worriedly, I glanced over my shoulder and they were all looking at me with curiosity. "nothing" and pace out of there.

"find our mate you stupid Alpha" Alex yelled, "not, now we have time. I know he is eager to meet our mate, and I have plenty of time to find her if she is from this pack, but we came here for our pack's safety, and that's comes first". I snapped but Alex shut me out.

I inform my beta and gamma that we will stay here for one week. they exchange glances before they look at me, "but what about the pack business" asked my beta "Phil will handle everything and inform our shadow warrior's to protect the border and pack house" "yes Alpha" they both said at the same time.

I informed Alpha Isaac about my stay, and he offered to let me stay in the pack house.

It'll be great if I stay there. I can communicate with their elders and I can find my Luna as well.

Lucy

While we were on our way to the gaming zone, my heart was beating so fast that Gini heard and asked with her concerned voice "what's the matter?, are you all right?"

"I don't know if I'm feeling uneasy," I said. "We can go back ok" she said. I nodded my head in agreement.

We came to the parking area and suddenly a voice came. "Hy guys, where are you going" I can tell from this annoying voice that it's Samantha. She is Gini's friend and I don't quite like her. She looks down at other people who are in low rank.

"we are going to Lucy's house, wanna come?" She looked at me distantly. Probably Gini noticed that also and said "we are going to study" . She doesn't like the idea of studying "ok the have fun" she turns around and paces out.

"glad she isn't coming" I said "I'm sorry Lucy" Gini apologised with guilt "why are you saying sorry? she is the one who looked down at others. come on let's go" she gave me a small smile. I don't know how a girl like Gini who is gentle and caring has become a friend of a bh.

We pulled out in front of my house. We both got out of the car, we decided to make it a girl's night so she is going to stay with me tonight. She informed her parents as well.

We stepped in and both were welcomed by a warm smile, and that's my grandma, "welcome girls, we are going to have pizza tonight" she said, grinning that made both of us happy. She is fashionable like my best friend and also a fun loving person, "oh grandma I missed you," I hugged her and she returned the gesture Gini also joined "I missed you too grandma"

My grandma doesn't live with us, she lives far away from our pack, which is in the middle of the forest. There is a small pack or you can say a group of werewolves lives peacefully. She visits us from time to time.

After having the pizza which she ordered for us, we talked our hearts out until we realised it's past midnight. My grandma left us as she was tired from the journey.

"So what now? Are we going to sleep?" Gini said with a brow raised. "hell no, it's girls night, and we don't have school right now" I know from her face my answer makes her happy.

"How far have you gone with Ben?" I can tell from her excitement.

"I don't know Gini, I'm confused for a few days. I'm struggling with my own feelings. Ben is caring and handsome. He was my crush in highschool, but I don't feel anything towards him anymore."

she was deep in her thoughts, "gini" she snapped out her thoughts. she looks at me with concern face, that's make my eyebrow frown.

"maybe someone found out that you are his mate, and didn't tell you and you can't feel it because you are not 18 yet, and your wolf hasn't woken yet, there is a possibility you know". hearing her word I gasped and covered my mouth with my hands.

"I've heard this before, many wolves experience this, but how can he not tell me that I'm his mate whoever it is? unless he didn't want me as his mate?"

hearing my words Gini's eyes became wider, all the blood from my face drained at the thought of it.

"I think he is waiting for your 18th birthday to tell you. and if he didn't want you to his mate he must be bold, mate bond is sacred thing for werewolves and is a blessing from the moon goddess" she said while gritting her teeth

I started "well, no one wants a mate who doesn't have any wolf, and doesn't know how to protect herself."

Gini looked at me with teary eyes. she hold my both sides of my shoulder and said "listen miss lucy, you are one brave girl, and gonna be a strong women one day, whoever that jerk is going to lose you it's his lose, I love you for who you are and your family loves you as well, and that's what matters the most, understand."

wow is she the sweet girl I know, I realised my breath that I didn't know i was holding and hugged her " I Love you, gini"
she hugged me back before we fell asleep.
