

Medical road

Chapter 102

The operation was done quickly, two gallbladder and one appendix. The county hospital has no problem doing these operations by laparotomy, but the patient is unwilling. There are new surgical methods with little damage. Who is willing to have a knife in the stomach. The study and study of laparoscopy can't keep up in the county, so Zhang Fan's current market is good, with a labor fee of 3000 for three patients.

Zhang Fan took out fifteen to the doctors of the county hospital, and then gave five hundred to Wang Yanan. She didn't want it. She was very puzzled and asked, "why do you have to give money to them after working hard for a long time?"

"Don't fuck the dessert, it will get old! I don't know. " Zhang Fan doesn't want to explain to her that human sophistication can't be explained clearly in one sentence or two. Moreover, Wang Yanan's family environment is also difficult to understand this kind of thing, so there is no need to explain.

"Take the money. It's necessary. If the three patients have problems, you have to bear the responsibility." Zhang Fan frightened her.

"Well! All right. But your income is also good! " Zhang Fan's income depends on the accumulation over time. It's a dream to get rich all at once. But for Wang Yanan, it's good. Her salary is only a little over 1000 now. Because there is no certificate, the bonus is floating. But the family conditions are good, and they don't expect wages.

After the operation, Shao Hua and Jia SuYue didn't eat. Nang pit meat in Teka county is famous for its delicious taste here. The lamb born that year is tender and fat. It is wrapped with special spices and stewed in the Nang pit of roasted Nang. It is crisp outside and tender inside. It is full of aroma.

Zhang Fan, who had no love for beef and mutton, ate several pieces. The small shop was small and crowded. It opened from 12 noon to 2:30 pm every day. Jia SuYue had eaten several times. He was familiar with the way. He went to the queue early. When Zhang Fan and them arrived, they could eat directly.

After eating Nang pit meat and drinking some special brick tea, my stomach is warm.

The virgin forest is not far from the county, only a few kilometers away. The car will arrive soon. The altitude of Teka county is higher than that of tea, and the temperature is relatively cool. Most of the forests are coniferous and a small number of broad-leaved forests.

The forest air in spring is sweet. It's very comfortable to walk on the path in the forest. It's very relaxing in the forest. The three girls are laughing and laughing. Zhang Fan is a special photographer. He keeps taking pictures of them with the camera prepared by Jia SuYue.

Under a big tree that they couldn't hold, Zhang Fan asked Wang Yanan to take a group photo of him and Shaohua. Shaohua was a little shy in front of the two friends.

In fact, this county has enough time to play in the afternoon. It is a primitive forest. There is nothing to visit in the county. There are not many people in the county, which is not comparable to the tea vegetable city. But all the houses are booked, so it's a holiday.

After dinner in the evening, the three girls were also tired. They hurried back to the hotel to wash and rest. Zhang Fan lives in a room alone, and they have a room for three. Jia SuYue takes a bath first. Shaohua takes Wang Yanan next door to find Zhang Fan.

The three played poker for a while. The two girls were not very good at playing. Zhang Fan was an expert. After playing for a while, it was boring. After looking at the time, Wang Yanan stood up and said, "I'll take a bath. You two stay for a while." Then he ran away. Shaohua wanted to go and was held by Zhang Fan.

"Come on! That's not good! " Zhang Fan took Shaohua's hand for the first time, and Shaohua's face turned red.

"Hehe, I just want to talk to you alone."

"Then let go and sit opposite." Shaohua pointed to the single sofa beside the bed.

"OK." Zhang Fan is a little reluctant to let go.

"Well, I'm leaving." Shaohua is a little worried and angry. She is not a frivolous girl, nor does she want to leave a frivolous image for Zhang Fan, nor does she want to be looked down upon by her friends.

Zhang Fan quickly let go and sit down. Shao Hua also sat on another sofa“ What's the matter? " After adjusting his mood, Shaohua asked.

"Isn't it near May Day? I want to go home while the holiday is long. I haven't been home for nearly two years. "

"Uncle and aunt are all right. Isn't your sister about to take the college entrance examination? "

"My parents are in good health, but my sister is going to the college entrance examination. I want to have a look. Otherwise, don't worry. "

"Oh! How about I give you a suggestion? "

"OK, tell me."

"You see, even if you have a small and long holiday plus annual leave, it will be only one month at most. When you want to leave, it happens to be the time when your sister is about to take the exam, which will also affect her mood. I mean, if you ask for leave at the end of May, you can just accompany her to participate in the high school exam. What do you say?"

Zhang Fan thought about it. He just thought about the time to go back on May Day. He didn't expect this, "well, your method is better. Thank you!" Speaking, Zhang Fan wanted to hold Shaohua's hand again.

Shaohua looked at Zhang Fan and his eyes began to shine. He quickly got up and said, "then I'll go back to take a bath. You'll take a bath, and then have a good rest. I've been tired all day."

Then he got up and opened the door. When the door opened fiercely, Jia SuYue and Wang Yanan fell in. Jia SuYue looked at Shaohua and said, "eh! Let's come and play double buckles with you! " It's eavesdropping! Shaohua turned and glanced at Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan understood what she meant.

In the evening, Jia SuYue and Wang Yanan squeezed Shaohua in the middle and said, "what have you done? I won't let you try our deadly itching. "

"You all heard me. What else do you want me to say?" Shao Hua is not a good friend.

"What can you hear through a door? I can hear may day on and off." Wang Yanan said.

"Hehe~ Didn't you go to play double buckles? "

"Ah! Fool, she's talking to you. " As Jia SuYue spoke, he began to tickle Shaohua.

After a while, Shao Hua said, "Zhang Fan is going back to his hometown in May. His sister wants the college entrance examination ~ ~"

"Didn't you do anything?"

The three people began to make trouble again, "OK, OK, don't make trouble again. Zhang Fan has been tired all day. Let's stop arguing with him." Shao Hua said.

"Ah! See color and forget friends! But if he doesn't leave on May Day, we can just drive to the bird market. The weather is getting hotter and hotter. We need to buy some summer clothes! " Jia SuYue said.

"You go by plane. He's so busy that he may have to be on duty, isn't he Asian man?"

"I don't think so. He's actually quite free in the hospital. He doesn't even go to surgery as a resident. He's not commanded like me. I also want to go to the bird market. I haven't been there since graduation! " What Shifu didn't Shifu and sold Zhang Fan in the blink of an eye.

"You know, Zhang Fan is too chicken thief. He got three thousand for the operation, then gave half to the doctor of the county hospital, and then gave me five hundred. He took one thousand himself. He thought I didn't know his mind. I just wanted to catch big fish for a long time! You have to be more strict in the future. He has a lot of income. "

"Really, there are many! One thousand a day, thirty thousand a month! Hua Zi will have to rely on you in the future! " As he spoke, Jia SuYue stuffed his face into Shaohua's arms.

"Hey!"

The next day, several people went back to the city. Zhang Fan ran to Shaohua's house for dinner. He bought a lot of things through the supermarket. Shaohua couldn't stop meat, eggs and rice noodles.

"Are you trying to join the gang? There is no such thing as you. " Shaohua said helplessly.

"Hehe, I'm young and these things are heavy. I'll buy them, and I won't have to work harder for my uncle and aunt in the future." Zhang Fan has plans to join the partnership!

After taking these things home, Shaohua's mother and father were very happy because the two young people didn't spend money indiscriminately. They were living like a living.

Noodles, minced meat noodles, green vegetables, tomatoes and Qingqing taste best for Zhang Fan. One person eats more than the Shaohua family.

"This is the way to eat. Your father and daughter have a meal. They don't eat much more than sparrows. They don't want to cook for you." Then Shaohua's mother said to Zhang Fan, "if you're not busy after work, come home for dinner, call in advance, and I'll make you what you want to eat. You can't eat well alone in the canteen."

"Yes! Aunt, I see. I'll come when I have time. This meal is delicious! "

Shaohua's father smoked in wonder, looked at Zhang Fan and thought to himself: this guy is really thick faced! Give the ladder to the wall!
