Chapter 119

On the third day, Zhang Fan and Shao Hua walked along the Hexi corridor. The five cities are connected like pearls. These cities are the important towns of Jiangsu Province. After several changes of hands, the Han culture finally occupied the peak, and the tourism signs of China were unearthed here.

After lunch in the service area of the expressway at noon, the next stop will enter Lanshi area. Zhang Fan is more and more excited and Shaohua is more and more worried!

Newcomers will have this kind of anxiety when they enter the door. They don't know whether his family is easy to get along with or whether they can be accepted by his family. Zhang Fan took Shaohua's hand and walked slowly around the service area.

The weather suck. When Shao Hua took home for the first time, he met sandstorm and covered the sand. Although tea is also in the northwest, there are many forests and rich water sources. There has never been such weather with the fragrance of birds and flowers. Shao Hua looked at the yellow sand all over the sky and said to Zhang Fan sympathetically, "no wonder you are so black. You are blown by this wind every day. It's strange if it's not black!"

"Not every day. Maybe the cold air in Siberia has come recently! Then it carries the nutrients of the desert, so this land is particularly fertile ~! " Zhang fan can't make it up. He brings his girlfriend back for the first time. The yellow sand in the sky is a little high to meet him!

"Hehe, go on! No shame! " Shaohua lovingly twisted Zhang Fan's face and said, "Hey! I don't know how you grew up. If you were a little shorter, I would surpass you! "

"Nonsense! Libby. " With these words, Zhang Fan had to hold Shaohua face to face. As a result, Shaohua escaped.

Wushaoling, through many tunnels, from the north slope to the south slope, entered the chassis of Lan City“ Almost there! " Zhang Fan mumbled. Two years ago, Zhang Fan rushed to the frontier with panic. Two years later, he returned with his girlfriend and looked at the familiar scenery. He didn't know how many times he had come back in his dream in the past two years.

"Lead Da into Qin." Zhang Fan pointed to the cement channel in the air and said to Shaohua " This is the largest diversion canal in Asia. When I first met foreigners, I came to repair this channel. They were very rich. They asked for directions and gave me a dollar. "

"Poor baby!"

"The point is not dollars!"

"Ha ha, many foreigners on the border used to do a lot of foreign trade, but later they became less and less. Mainland people don't pay attention to it and fool old maozi with defective products. As a result, people don't do business with Chinese people."

More than 100 kilometers later, "the Yellow River! I grew up by the Yellow River since I was a child. Now it's much clearer! " Zhang Fan's eyes are a little wet. On the radio came Fei Xiang's classic music, the cloud of his hometown.

"Oh, be happy when you get home. Everyone in the family is looking forward to your happiness."

"Well, I will, but I can't help it. Shao Hua, thank you for coming. really I especially want to make my parents feel more relieved and happy. "

"Well! I understand! It's not duty bound to come with you! I just don't know if my uncle, aunt and sister like me. "

"Ha ha, you are the best in the world. There is nothing better than you. They will like it."

After crossing the Yellow River, my sister still has two days for the college entrance examination. Now she is preparing for the final sprint at home. Zhang Fan's parents learned that Zhang Fan was going to bring his girlfriend back. Clean up the house early. Some of the rags I'm reluctant to throw away are also thrown away this time.

When Zhang Fan's sister was born, it was the most brilliant time for Zhang Fan's parents' enterprise. After the glory, it was declining all the way, year by year.

Zhang Fan's mother is not a formal employee, but an employee's family member. She also paid a fine for giving birth to her sister. However, at that time, the efficiency of the factory was good. The younger sister's birth treatment was much higher than that of Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan's name was given by his grandfather, and the younger sister's name was a fortune teller specially found near the iron bridge of the Yellow River. She spent two yuan to give her name: Zhang Jingshu!

In the evening, the afterglow scattered over the Yellow River and mountains, and Zhang Fan went home. I finally got home on the golden road. My father kept turning around at the door of the community, looking up at the street in the distance from time to time.

"Dad!" Zhang fantou stretched out of the window, looked at his father's slightly bent body and shouted loudly.

"Ah! Little stone. " Zhang Fan was born in his hometown. When she was born that year, the midwife came out of the delivery room and said to everyone, "it's a black boy. As heavy as a stone. " He was always called little stone by his family!

After stopping the car, Zhang Fan jumped out of the car, grabbed his father's hand and said, "Dad! I'm back. He also came back with Shao Hua. " Shaohua was nervous to death. Shyly, he came down from the co pilot and said to Zhang Fan's father, "Hello, uncle!"

"Good, good! Tired, girl, your family has been waiting for you since noon. Your aunt has made long noodles and hurry home. Come and me! " Then he took the bag from Shaohua.

Zhang Fan carries a lot of things from the trunk. Big and small. They bought a lot of things at the bird market. Zhang Fan's house is on the first floor. He makes the window near the community into a small door and opens a small shop.

At home, Zhang Fan's mother was busy in the kitchen and made a lot of delicious food.

Zhang Jingshu is in the small bedroom. Although she wants the college entrance examination, she can't calm down. Her brother wants to come back. It's agreed that today is coming. It's evening. Why hasn't she arrived yet! She kept listening with her ears up.

The key sounded at the gate, "brother is coming!" Zhang Jingshu put down her pen, got up and ran out.

"Brother!" Before Zhang Fan put down his things, his sister had jumped on him.

"Little stone!" Zhang Fan's mother also came out of the kitchen and began to wipe her eyes with her apron.

"This is stone's girlfriend. Quickly pour some water for others to wash. Come down quickly. What a big man! " Zhang Fan's father hurriedly pulled Zhang Jingshu and said.

"Girl! Tired, so delicate. Hurry to wash up. The wind and sand are not small all the way. The family is all right. " Zhang Fan's mother took Shaohua's hand and began to ask for warmth.

"Sister in law! You are so beautiful! " Zhang Jingshu didn't know who was born. After being pulled down by her father, she grabbed Shaohua's other hand and said.

"Aunt, Jing Shu, you are also very beautiful." Shao Hua's uneasy mood was swept away at once. Zhang Fan's family is really good, without any alienation and pickiness, very warm. And my future sister-in-law also feels very easy to get along with.

"Mom! I'm back. " After waiting for Zhang Jingshu to take Shaohua to the bathroom, Zhang Fan said to his mother.

"Just come back. My son has grown up. Is he still used to going to the frontier. Have you suffered? " Zhang Fan's mother wiped her tears and came forward to stare at her son carefully.

"Don't drop beans. What are you suffering from? He has gained a lot of weight! He's a good boy. He's doing well. He's driving back with his daughter-in-law. What can he suffer. Than his father. " Although Zhang Fan's father said happily, his voice was a little choked.

"Also said me, you are not the same. Hurry up and let Shaohua see it. Go wash the stones and have dinner right away. "

"Sister in law, here are new towels and new slippers for you. Are you tired? My brother called to bring you back. I'm very happy. You are more beautiful than I thought! " Zhang Jingshu follows Shaohua like a little bee. She is very sensible. Shaohua can't feel uncomfortable when she enters the door for the first time.
