Chapter 120

Long noodles coming in and dumplings going out. According to the custom of Northwest China, Zhang Fan's mother was afraid that Shaohua could not get used to the long noodles in Northwest China. She also steamed some rice and prepared it with both hands.

A table of dishes, from braised meat to fish, from fresh vegetables to Flammulina velutipes ~! Knowing that Zhang Fan was coming back, the old couple went to the supermarket in the county and bought a lot of things.

Zhang Fan's family can't drink, and his father is no better. But if you don't drink some wine today, it's really bad for the atmosphere. Red wine, Baijiu and drinks bought in supermarkets are all open!

Shao Hua also likes noodles very much. Although pasta is the main food in the northwest, the real noodles * * Hua are in Jiangsu Province and Shaanxi Province next door. The noodles are as thin as hair and continuous. Drizzle with the egg yolk, diced meat, radish and diced potato. It tastes terrible.

Although the noodles in the frontier are also good, it just lacks a little sense of precision in the production of noodles.

"Eat more girls. You can eat whichever you like. I can't find it here. I'll change it for you." Zhang Fan's mother kept cooking for Shaohua for fear of making Shaohua hungry.

"When you become a doctor, you won't drink. I'll drink some today. Shao Hua drinks Baijiu? "

"Uncle, I don't drink Baijiu!"

"Drink some red wine. I can't drink it. You have a drink with my parents. "

"OK, I'll have a drink with my uncle and aunt." Shao Hua is not artificial at all.

Chatting while eating, telling all kinds of jokes, funny past, laughter on the dinner table. Shaohua's family thousands of miles away, "huazi, they arrived at Zhang Fan's house safely. They don't know whether huazi is used to it. The people of Zhang Fan's family are easy to get along with or not. Are they satisfied with huazi? "

Shaohua's parents sat opposite each other. Although it was time for dinner, they didn't want to eat.

"My huazi is so excellent that there is nothing to be picky about. There's still a month left, eh! " Shaohua's father sighed. I'm really worried about my mother!

"How's your review? Your sister-in-law and I specially cheer you up from thousands of miles away, but we can't fall off the chain."

"No. Just wait for my good news with your sister-in-law. Dabei and Huaqing are not guaranteed. Other schools should still have no problem. "

"Good! Have ambition. Come on, better than your brother. "

Shaohua smiled and listened to their brothers and sisters“ Stone didn't do well in the college entrance examination when his father was laid off! " Zhang Fan's mother explained.

"Why do you say this? It's not very good now." His father said with a little complaint.

"No, I didn't learn well. I can't find a reason!"

After dinner, sleeping is a problem. Jingshu is going to take the college entrance examination. She can't interfere with her rest. Zhang Fan's family is very similar to Shaohua's family. There are only two bedrooms. Fortunately, there is a great age gap between Zhang Fan and Zhang Jingshu, otherwise she really couldn't live before. After dinner, Shao Hua wanted to help in the kitchen and was pushed out by Zhang Fan's mother. "I've been sitting in the car for several days. Have a rest. My daughter is also your home. You can't see outside. You can talk to them."

Zhang Fan's father smoked the good cigarette brought by Zhang Fan. Looking at his son's calm face, he was very happy“ The boy has had ideas since he was a child. Finally grown up! "

Shaohua went out of the kitchen and sat next to Zhang Fan“ Try it. This is a soft pear from the northwest. It's frozen in the refrigerator. It's reserved for you. "

Zhang Jingshu, this will be in the small bedroom. She will review at ease. When her brother comes back, she will also be at ease. There are two days left for the college entrance examination. In the past two years, her brother called her 1000 living expenses on time every month. She was lucky not to worry about tuition and living expenses like her brother! My family opened a small shop and my life has been greatly improved. Parents don't have to work everywhere as before.

After cleaning up the kitchen, Zhang Fan's mother also sat on the sofa and whispered with Shaohua. In an old-fashioned house, Jingshu can hear it when the sound is louder. So everyone's voice is very low“ Shao Hua, there are new pajamas for you in the wardrobe in the big bedroom. I'm worried that they're a little big. I didn't expect you to be so tall. They should be just right. Later, Zhang Fan's father and I will go to Uncle Zhang Fan's house. You can take a bath and rest early. You're really tired these days. You'll sleep in the big bedroom and let Zhang Fan sleep in the living room. It's a little crowded at home. Don't care. ”

"Don't mind, aunt. My home is not big. It's inconvenient for you to live with relatives. Or ~ "Shao Hua couldn't go on. He really couldn't help it. It didn't make sense to go to Zhang Fan's house and stay in a hotel outside on the first day.

"Hehe, I know from a look that you are a good girl. You look good and have a good heart. It's okay. His uncle's house is in a community next door, and their children are not around. They were supposed to come today. I thought you came in for the first time, and I was too tired to take the car for several days. I didn't let them come. I'll catch up with you tomorrow. When his uncle was a child, he was kind to Zhang Fan. Now Zhang Fan comes back with such a beautiful daughter-in-law, which makes them happy! ”

"Aunt!" Shao Hua let Zhang Fan's mother boast a little ashamed. The old-fashioned house is barely habitable. The house is really a little old. It was built when the Soviet Union assisted.

Shaohua, who took a bath in the evening, was arranged by Zhang Fan to live in the big bedroom. Other girls follow Zhang Fan thousands of miles away. Zhang Fan's parents also try their best to make her feel valued. They are all parents and care about each other. They can't make other girls feel wronged.

Lying in the big bedroom, Shaohua called his parents, "Mom, have you eaten yet!"

"Eat, how's it going? How's it going?" Shaohua's mother said with a little worry.

"Well! Very good. The people of Zhang Fan's family are very good, and they are also good to me. Don't worry. I'll be back in a while. ”

"Well, we don't worry. Well, you're not in a room."

"Mom! How is that possible? "

"That is, you can't be too frivolous. You should be diligent and help cook. People are mutual. People's family should be good to you, and you should also be good to people's family."

Zhang Fan slept on the sofa in the living room. He had fallen asleep. The smell of home urged him to fall asleep early. He had no dreams all night.

When I arrived in Lanzhou, I didn't eat a bowl of beef noodles. I'm really sorry for the long Yellow River. Many people in Lanzhou miss their home by dreaming about the beef noodles. Look at the noodle shop of a horse in the morning. He is pushing his suitcase. He is either leaving or returning. Shao Hua couldn't get used to it. He ate a bowl of noodles bigger than his face in the morning, as well as beef and eggs. How can he eat it? But Zhang Fan's brother and sister snored, and Zhang Fan ate it with soup.

Zhang Fan is still not satisfied after eating a bowl. "I'll get you some. I really can't eat any more. You have a good appetite. A bowl of noodles in the morning!" Shao Hua was surprised to see the bustling breakfast people.

"Ha ha, custom. Just get used to it. You really don't eat? I'll just eat yours. I'll go out and buy you some milk and bread later. "

"No, I'll just have some soup, but this soup is really good. It's better than beef noodles in the frontier. "

"Sister in law, what do you eat in the morning?"

"Milk tea, cakes, side dishes and so on. When you finish your exam, go to the frontier with us. "

"You'd better take the exam at ease. Don't think about anything now." Zhang Fan took over the conversation and said. After dinner, Zhang Fan first left his sister at home, and then prepared to start a relatives' trip with Shaohua.

Zhang Fan's parents came back early and began various arrangements with Zhang Fan's gift. This is your uncle's house, this is your uncle's house, you are your aunt's house, and your uncle smokes, but this cigarette is expensive. Why don't you buy two more outside?

Zhang Fan listened to his mother's nagging arrangement and was not upset at all. This is the feeling of home.
